Candidates In Federal Election

MONDAY, AUGUST 10th

The Standard herewith presents the pictures of the five candidates whose names will appear on the ballots in the Battle River-Camrose constituency for the federal election on Monday, Aug. 10.

ALFRED O. ARNTSON, C. C. F.

Mr. Arntson is a 34-year-old merchant of Hay Lakes, Alberta, who served 4½ years in the R.C.A.F. and was the Federal candidate in the Camrose constituency in the 1949 general election. He is a member of the Canadian Legion and grew up on a farm in the Hay Lakes district.

ROBERT FAIR, Social Credit

Mr. Fair has represented Battle River constituency at Ottawa since 1935. He is a retired farmer, lives in Vermilion and devotes all of his time to parliamentary duties.

CHARLES H. McCLEARY
Progressive Conservative

Mr. McCleary is the high school principal at Camrose where he has taught school for the past 20 years and given a high standard of community leadership.

F. CLIFFORD SAVILLE
Liberal

Mr. Saville is a farmer of the Hardisty district where he has farmed and ranched for the past 30 years. He was the Federal candidate in the 1949 election.

EWART PEARCE TAYLOR
Labor Progressive

Mr. Taylor is a farmer of the Wainwright district farming continuously since 1910 with the exception of three years spent in the army during the First world war. He was born in Ontario of British parentage, lived in Manitoba until reaching the age of 14 years when the family came to Alberta. He is quite active in the work of farm organizations.

5 Polls to Handle Voters

Five polls will handle the flow of Vermilion voters at the polls in the Federal election on Monday next, Aug. 10. The polls will be at three locations and are set out in the official notice of polls as follows:

Polling Division No. 186, Vermilion North—Consisting of all that portion of the Town of Vermilion west of Borden Avenue and north of the C.N.R. tracks: those portions of Section 1 to 12, inclusive, in Township 51, Range 6 lying north of the Vermilion River: Section 31 in Township 50, Range 6: Section 36 in Township 50, Range 7 — Polling Station No. 186 A to L, and Polling Station No. 176 Mc to Z, both at the Legion hall.

Polling Division No. 187, Vermilion East — Consisting of all that portion of the Town of Vermilion east of Borden Avenue and north of the C.N.R. tracks: Sections 22, 27, 28, 32, 33 and 34 in Township 50, Range 6 — Polling Station No. 187 A to K and 187 L to Z both at Vermilion cottage school.

Polling Division No. 185, Vermilion West — Consisting of that portion of the Town of Vermilion lying south of the C.N.R. tracks; Sections 29 and 30 in Township 50, Range 6: Sections 19 to 35 inclusive, in Township 50 Range 7: that portion of Township 51, Range 7 lying south of the Vermilion River—Polling Station at M & B Motel.

Polls open 8 a.m. and remain open until 6 p.m. — Vote with an X.

Swim & Boat Races, Water Skiing on Program

Plans Completed For Park Opening

Plans have now been completed for the opening of the new Vermilion River Provincial park on Wednesday next, Aug. 12 and include several speakers to suitably mark the occasion, as well as a good program of water sports. Everyone, old and young, little and big are invited to attend the opening of this new resort and summer playground. It is not a completed effort by any means but is the start of a recreational centre that will in the course of a very few years have more attractions than Elk Island park which is visited by as many as 10,000 people on week ends.

Officially declaring the park open will be the Hon. Ivan Casey, Minister of Lands and Mines with other speakers being Bruce M. Hill, president of Canadian Utilities Ltd., W. R. Cornish, M.L.A., S. C. Heckbert, Mayor of Vermilion, Keith Chalmers, president of the Board of Trade, and a representative of Ducks Unlimited.

WATER SPORTS

The program of water sports includes races for boys and girls as follows: 12 years and under, 20 yards: 14 and under, 30 yards: 16 and under 100 yards: open race 100 yards: open 50 yard crawl for best style: open 50 yard elementary back stroke for best style: open distance under water. Races will start at 3:30 p.m. and there will be good prizes for all events.

BOAT RACES

Races will be for boats with a 5 h.p. limit: for 7½ h.p. limit, and an open race. A safe course will be plotted for all boat races.

OTHER ATTRACTIONS

Other attractions include a water safety demonstration, an exhibition of water skiing by several local men and women, a water polo game with six men to a team.

Two fine bathing houses have now been completed at the main beach and numerous pieces of playground equipment along the waters edge make this an ideal spot for the children.

Two camp kitchens are finished in the wooded area just south of the beach.

The scene of the opening will be the main beach 1 mile west and roads lead to it along the valley from the bridge or by going west of the hospital and taking the first turn north. Watch for road signs.

This is a public event, take along a picnic lunch and make a day of it.

Lone Meeting of Election Campaign

ADDRESSED BY BOB FAIR

The only political meeting of the current election campaign scheduled for Vermilion was addressed by Robert Fair, Social Credit candidate for the new Battle River-Camrose constituency, W. R. Cornish, M.L.A. for Vermilion, and James A. Smith, president of the Constituency Social Credit Association. The meeting was held Wednesday evening and was attended by an audience of over 40 people who listened in rapt attention to the speakers.

Mr. Fair made a fighting speech charging the Liberal government with inefficiency and extravagance and citing instances to prove his contentions.

Mr. Fair addresses meetings at Camrose Thursday evening, Lloydminster on Friday to conclude a campaign that has taken him from end to end of his enlarged constituency.

Edmonton Golfer Wins Rowe Trophy

68 COMPETE IN ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

Despite wet weather all week with resultant bad roads, 68 men competed in the annual open golf tournament held by the Vermilion Golf club on Sunday and Monday last. The two days were just perfect for golf and the event proved a very enjoyable one throughout.

Sandy Rattray, a member of the Highlands club in Edmonton won the championship and the fine trophy donated for annual competition by Ken Rowe and Sons. Sandy had great praise for the local golf course and stated that just as soon as the road between here and Edmonton was hard surfaced he would be playing golf on the sporty scenic Vermilion course every week end. Rattray defeated Dr. Tom Demco of Vegreville, last year's winner, in the final of the championship flight.

Low score in the qualifying round was a 77 made by Clyde Sobey of the local club.

Flower Show Date Set for August 20

A new prize list will be mailed to all members by Friday of this week. Some new classes in 'glads' and other flowers have been added. Anyone is invited to exhibit if they are members or not. Call at the office of the District Agriculturist for a prize list if you do not get one by mail.

Mr. Evans, president of the Horticultural Society wishes to announce that the Gardens Competition will be judged by Mr. Kaiser on Thursday afternoon, Aug. 13.

There are four competitions : 1, Home Grounds to include flowers, vegetables, lawn and arrangement: 2, Vegetables only: 3, Flowers only: 4, Lawns. Anyone interested in entering in one of these competitions should see Mrs. Tebbutt, secretary of the Horticultural Society by Saturday of this week.

Work Starts On New Curling Rink

EXCAVATION MADE, FOOTINGS IN, MATERIALS ON GROUNDS.

DONATIONS NEEDED

Good news for curlers this week as work has started on Vermilion's new six-sheet curling rink. The excavation has been bulldozed out, the footings are in and all the necessary material for the new structure is now on the grounds.

A vital necessity right now is money and all those who promised donations are asked to forward cheques to Al Locke. It is impossible for any one to take the time to make the entire rounds again so each and every donor should come through as per his promise of last spring.

W. J. Parsons Feted On 88th Birthday

About fifty-five friends called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thompson on the afternoon of July 29 to congratulate Mr. W. J. Parsons, one of our well known old timers on his 88th birthday. Two grandsons Walter and Jack Robinson and nine great grandchildren were present, and from his grandchildren in Ontario he received a beautiful bouquet of glads and roses.

Mrs. Lawrence Mayhew and Mrs. W. McLennan poured tea and coffee while other good friends helped Mrs. Thompson with the serving. The three-layer birthday cake was made by Mrs. Walter Robison.

Mrs. Berg sang a lovely hymn for Mr. Parsons entitled "How Can I Be Lonely?".

A pleasant afternoon was spent and Mr. Parsons who was surprised at the whole affair was thrilled to meet his friends and receive their greetings.

Former Islay Boy United Church Missionary

SAILS FOR AFRICA SEPT. 4

Rev. John Murray MacInnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacInnes formerly of Islay, and brother of Donald C. MacInnes who now lives at Islay, has been appointed a missionary to Angola, Portuguese West Africa. He sails on the S.S. Independence on Sept. 4th for Lisbon, en route to Africa.

Rev. MacInnes was ordained in the United Church by the Maritime Conference in 1951. His wife is a daughter of Mrs. G. L. Scherer and the late Mr. Scherer of Muirkirk, Ont., and is a graduate of Toronto University in Dental Nursing. They have two sons, Stephen, 19 months and Norman 6 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacInnes parents of the young missionary now reside at Musquodoboit Harbor, N. S.

Falls From Tricycle Breaks Jaw

FOREST PROBLEM

Canada's forest problem is to find the means whereby the woodlands may grow the maximum volume of wood fibre per acre per year and protect the forests from fire, insects and disease.

3 By-Laws: Water & Sewer, New Fire Truck

Mayor Urges Heavy Vote

There appears to be some apathy towards the vote on Friday, Aug. 7th in connection with money bylaws being submitted to the proprietary electors of the Town of Vermilion. The by-laws have been advertised quite widely in the local Standard and it is essential to the continued progress of the Town of Vermilion that the by-laws carry with a substantial majority in each case.

If the votes carry by the required two-thirds majority the Provincial Government will loan the money to the town at a very reasonable interest rate and we will be able to extend the water and sewer system in such manner as to provide for the rapidly increasing demand for residential properties and to provide adequate fire protection which is presently not available.

The actual annual cost of repayment will, in the case of the fire fighting equipment, be less than is now being provided for maintaining the present obsolete and run down units and the service which can be made available to our citizens will be vastly superior to that now possible.

Vermilion is in good financial shape — the town has no debenture debt other than that incurred a few years ago for water and sewer installations and repayment of borrowings is adequately provided for.

Every citizen entitled to vote is urged to cast a ballot favorable to the money bylaws on Friday, Aug 7th. Polls at the Legion hall open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

ELECT COUNCILLOR FRIDAY, AUG. 7th

EVERYBODY VOTE

Election of councillor to fill a a vacancy on the Vermilion town governing body will take place between the hours of 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. Friday at the Legion hall, the same place and time as plebiscites notated above.

Two candidates, both well known citizens of the town, Mr. Lloyd Dowdell and Mr. Melvin Hill, are contesting the seat and all citizens are urged to turn out and vote.

Legion Plans Trip To Cenotaph Unveiling

The Vegreville branch of the Canadian Legion has invited members of the Vermilion branch to be present at the unveiling of the Cenotaph at Vegreville on Aug. 14. There will be a band concert put on by the R.C.A.F. band and a dance in the evening.

Anyone interested should inform President Martin or Secretary Buckingham by Aug. 12 so that car arrangements can be made. It is hoped that there will be a good representation from the Vermilion branch.

3.43 Inches of Rain In July

The season's rainfall or precipitation to date has been:

|---|---|
| January | 1.06 inches |
| February | .32 inches |
| March | .72 inches |
| April | 1.55 inches |
| May | .69 inches |
| June | 3.36 inches |
| July | 3.43 inches |
| TOTAL | 11.23 inches |

With the arrival of August the weather has apparently dried up and haying operations have been resumed. The warm day of the week was Tuesday Aug. 4 with a 73 although that is supposed to be surpassed this Thursday when 80 is forecast. Coolest night was the third with 39.

Mrs. S. Rollins 93 Years Old

Mrs. S. Rollins of Vermilion celebrated her 93rd birthday on Friday last, July 31, at the home of her daughter Mrs. E. Wells with whom she has lived since 1940. Mrs. Rollins has complete use of all her faculties and is in good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollins originally came from Madoc, Ontario, to homestead near Yorkton, Sask., in 1909. At the death of her husband in 1940 Mrs. Rollins came to Vermilion and has since then lived with her daughter Mrs. E. Wells on the farm just north of town.

Death of Miss Dorothy Taylor in England

Raymond Taylor recently received the sad news of the sudden death of his sister Dorothy aged 74 years at Bath, England. Miss Taylor will be well remembered by the old timers of the Vermilion district. She kept house for her brothers Raymond and Ernest in the old homestead days, leaving for England in 1914 only to return again in 1919, living with Raymond and helping him and his family for five years. When the family moved into Vermilion they had the pleasure of two visits from her in 1930-31 and 1934-35. Besides her brother Raymond in Vermilion Miss Taylor is survived by one brother and three sisters in England.

Vermilion School Division In Regular Meeting

Two-room Centralized School Planned At Preston

The regular meeting of the Divisional board was held on Friday, July 17th, with all trustees present.

Warwickville S.D.: Account with Ben Sproull for furnace was approved for payment in amount of $424.60.

Preston School Centralization: Board decided to continue operation of Battleview, Basswood, Preston and Triangle schools for 1953-54 while new centralized school is under construction.

Salary Schedule 1953-54: Board approved salary schedule negotiated at last meeting and accepted by Vermilion Local A.S.T.A.

Rusylvia S.D.: No action was taken on bus service from Rusylvia S.D. pending gravel on route to be used.

Islay Furnace (Oil Burning Unit): Only one tender having been received, final action was left to Tr. McGrath for further consideration.

McLaughlin Furnace: Furnace report was not available for the meeting, no action taken.

Islay S.D.: Board decided to continue operation of three rooms for 1953-54.

Superintendent's Reports: Supt. S. D. Simonson reported on schools which will operate for coming year and teacher supply shortages exist in both grade and ungraded rooms.

Woodvale S.D.: Tenders were received for additional room at centralized school at Woodvale. Dept. of Education will be asked to approve awarding of tender to Caron and Calvert in amount of $10,796.50, this being lowest tender received.

Vocational Courses at Vermilion School of Agriculture: Supt. outlined plan whereby additional courses with additional instructors would be offered and students from Vegreville S.D. will be able to participate, with costs estimated on proportional basis.

Paradise Valley and Bus Service: Board decided not to institute bus service from Rivercourse and McLaughlin at the present time.

Preston Central School: Approval of erection of two-romed centralized school at Preston S.D. will be requested of Dept. of Education.

Paradise Valley Toilet System: Action on installation of toilet system is being delayed pending the digging of well to test for porous substrata.

Sale of Buildings: Secretary was instructed to advertise for sale by tender the following properties: Crosslynde school and coalshed; old high school and coalshed at Rivercourse S.D.; Holyrood school,; Tring school and coalshed at Ganton S.D.

Sale of Buildings: The Board approved the following sales to the highest tenderer in each case:

Myrtle Hill S.D., old barn to L. Cook, Kitscoty; Tring school barn, J. E. Lowrie, Marwayne; Rivercourse S.D. barn, E. Kenyon, Lone Rock.; Crosslynde S.D., barn tender of H. Fair will be held and approved on decision of Mr. Clarke.

Next meeting Friday Aug. 21.

Vote As You Like — But Vote!

It has been said that democracy is government of the people, by the people and for the people. If we accept this concept then we must recognise the responsibility of the individual to know something about government and to play an active part in its operation. The opportunity to accept this responsibility will be offered on August 10, 1953, to all Canadian citizens or British subjects, men and women, who have attained the age of 21 years and who have been ordinarily resident in Canada for twelve months at that time. In 1949 there were 7,893,629 Canadian voters on the list. Less than 75 per cent of these voters exercised their franchise. In other words, close to two million Canadian voters refused or were unable to demonstrate their acceptance of their responsibility as citizens of democracy. Democracy cannot long survive this kind of indifference.

In June of this year, 93.7 per cent of the electorate cast their ballots in Italy's national elections. Despite this remarkably high percentage of voters democracy won by a perilously close margin over chaos. Had there not been such a fine turnout of electors a decision might well have gone to totalitarianism.

The charge is frequently levelled at modern civilization that the power of the individual is disappearing, that the individual has become part of a mass. If that be true then the world is in a very sorry state indeed. If the individual is prepared to accept the judgment that his must be a passive and obedient role and that self-styled experts must be the real rulers then all of man's dignity as a human being has been lost. In the free world we still have the power to choose those who will act a our representatives in the seats of government. If we fail to exercise that power then it can wither away and die.

The dignity of man survives so long as he demonstrates his willingness to exercise the rights and discharge the responsibilities of citizenship. In times such as these it is necessary for us to demonstrate to the whole world that we are proud of our way of life and are willing to accept the challenges which it offers.

Every Canadian has ample opportunity to learn something of the men and women who are standing for office. We are capable of judging between the claims, assertions and promises of the candidates. No great physical effort is required to cast our ballot. Let us see to it that on August 10th the clear voice of an informed and intelligent electorate is heard strongly throughout the land.

Hamilton District Celebrates Turning On Of Power

MANNVILLE—The members of the Hamilton Extension of the Claysmore Mutual Rural Electrification Co. held a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCauley on Wednesday evening to celebrate the turning on of power on the various farms. The evening was spent playing games and in community singing. Mr. Chas. Finlay acted as M.C. and briefly outlined some of the difficulties that had to be overcome before the project was realized. A great deal of credit is due the shareholders for their co-operation in making the project possible in such a short period of time, taking only four months to complete. The members also appreciate being able to come into the Claysmore Company which is the pioneer company in this section of the province.

Mr. Wm. Barr of Vermilion, the president of the company was present and gave a very interesting and informative talk on matters pertaining to rural electrification.

Mr. Wm. McCauley also spoke and told of the changes taking place since he first came to the district and built his first log house in 1906.

Mrs. Percy Hawley and Mrs. D. Lugg spoke briefly on behalf of the housewives and told how they are enjoying modern conveniences and expressed the hope that it wouldn't be too long before all farms would have rural electrification.

A sumptuous lunch brought the evening to a close. Those present appreciated the kind and generous hospitality of the McCauley's for the use of their home.

Pte. Ken Chapman Back From Korea

ST. PAUL.—Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Chapman have returned from Edmonton where they welcomed home their son, Pte. K. Chapman, back from Korea. The Chapmans, with a daughter and another son, were at the C.N.R. station Saturday night in Edmonton to greet their veteran son as he came off the special train from Vancouver to start his two months repatriation leave.

The Chapmans have had three sons serving in Korea, with all returning home safely. Pte. K. F. Chapman brought back a grip full of souvenirs from his more than a year's service in the Far East.

F. C. Saville Outlines Liberal Policies

Seeking votes for themselves opposition parties have tried to tell the farmer that he has never been so badly off in his life.

These other parties have resorted to such tactics because they know that, in fact, they have no practical alternatives to Liberal farm policies.

Never before has farm income been higher or more stabilized. Farm support, farm credit, and wheat marketing are key features of the Liberal program for Alberta.

Wheat Board — Uncertainty and speculation in wheat marketing was abolished when the Liberal government empowered the Board to become the sole marketing agency for wheat. The government will ensure that the Board continues in that role, despite those who clamour for 'free' markets or some other system.

International Wheat Agreement— Canada, along with 45 other nations has agreed to a range of wheat prices providing stability for buyers and sellers.

Support Prices — Price supports apipied to duirng he tof-nm-auh,'un applied during the foot-and-mouth outbreak a year ago prevented collapse of the livestock industry. In Alberta alone the Support Board bought 54,600 cattle. Support for dairy products, poultry and livestock have brought stable markets and fair prices to Canadian farmers.

Canadian income taxes, which are now among the lowest in the free world have been reduced by another 11 per cent this year.

Farmers in three prairie provinces have reduced their debts (farm mortgages and agreements for sale) from $179,853,000 in 1937 to an all time low of $31,883,000 in 1951.

Special Assistance — Scientific research P. F. A. A.: farm credit through the Farm Improvement Loan Act: experimental farms, freight assistance on feed grains: grants to agricultural schools, e.g. Vermilion, Fairview, Olds: huge irrigation projects under P.F.R.A.: hog premiums: support for co-operatives.

Most important of all, the government is pledged to maintain the Cowsnest Pass Agreements on freight rates which form the greatest single beneficial factor in the prairie farm economy.

By voting for your Liberal candidate you will have a direct voice in forming policy for the benefit of every farmer in Alberta.

By voting for your liberal candidate you will give this constituency a direct voice in the forming of government policies. The policies of the Liberal Government are tried and proven. They work and they work well. Why waste your ballot by voting for parties who propose untried policies — policies which they will not be able to put into practice.

BEAUTIFUL TROPHY

MONTREAL.—One of the most beautiful trophies ever put up for competition in Canada will add even more spice to the thrill of hooking into a giant bluefin tuna in the famous big-game fishing waters off the coast of Nova Scotia. Known as the "Lakeside Inn Tuna Trophy" the silver masterpiece stands more than 20 inches high and depicts one of the battling bluefins breaking the surface and will be awarded annually to the contestants entering the largest catch.

To be competed for by guests of the Lakeside Inn, a Canadian Pacific Railway summer resort at Yarmouth, N.S., the trophy is to be kept at the Inn and the winner's name will be inscribed annually on a shield to be placed on the trophy. This is the first year that the competition has been held, but it will be open each year during the period that the Lakeside Inn is in operation, usually from the last week of June to mid-September. All entries must be in by Oct. 1 and a winner will be declared on Oct. 15.

The tuna must be taken in coastal waters of the province of Nova Scotia on rod and reel.

From July through September bluefin tuna surge through the turbulent tidal waters along the length of Nova Scotia's southern and eastern shores. Mute testimony to the quality of the fishing to be had in the big-game fishing 'hot-spot' is in famed Soldiers Rip, at Wedgeport, scene of the International Tuna Cup Matches. Fourteen of the giant tunas were landed there during the three-day 1952 tournament, with their weight averaging well over 500 pounds and the largest going over the 700-pound mark. Largest tuna caught at Wedgeport last year was an 812½-lb. bluefinned beauty taken the day before the cup matches got underway by Rod Tilt, of Mt. Kisco, N.Y., eastern manager of Sports Afield magazine.

Vermilion Fair Attracts Bonnyville Residents

(Bonnyville Tribune)

The Agricultural Fair at Vermilion was a popular meeting place for residents of Bonnyville as it was estimated that over 400 persons from the town and district attended. The annual event at Vermilion this year was held July 23, 24 and 25. During those three days, the Bonnyville crowd thoroughly enjoyed both the exhibits and various attractions. Some said the whole affair was even better than the exhibition at Edmonton — but proportionately smaller.

The way the local people were made welcome at Vermilion made the whole affair that much more pleasant and next year it is expected that even more people from Bonnyville will go south to Vermilion and enjoy that Class "B" Fair.

Mannville & District LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. D. Otto and family have left for a holiday at Winnipeg. They plan to visit in Saskatoon and Regina on the way.

Mrs. F. Coxford of Edmonton is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coxford and family.

Mrs. C. Manz has returned from visiting with Mr. and Mrs. M. Manz at Evansburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McLuckie and Norman are holidaying with relatives in Edmonton.

Mr. Corness, Rev. Clennett, Hans Pederson and Jimmy Croft left on Tuesday morning for the Anglican camp at Kapasiwin.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Van Dusen and family motored to Cabri, Sask., over the holiday week end. Mrs. Van Dusen and the children are remaining there for a few days.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. Ambler is the former's mother Mrs. E. G. Ambler from Vancouver.

Mr. Fred Pemberton and two daughters were week end visitors at Mr. and Mrs. G. Pemberton's. The two girls are staying down for awhile.

Rev. K. C. McLeod of Grimshaw was renewing acquaintances in the town on Monday.

A few of the former neighbors of Mrs. Olsonberg gathered at the home of Mrs. E. Matney last week to bid farewell to Mrs. Olsonberg before she leaves for Edmonton. She was presented with a pair of Dutch book ends. Among those present were Mrs. Sowden, Mrs. Reich, Mrs. Colborne, Mrs. A. Gerhart, Mrs. Jas. McCauley, Mrs. Crooks, Mrs. D. McCauley and Mrs. E. Hubbard, and the hostess Mrs. Matney.

Friends and relatives gathered recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Shepanik to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stepanik and family before they left for their new home in Edmonton. There were about 22 couples present and Mr. and Mrs. Stepanik were the recipients of a china clock.

Mrs. C. Hamilton is visiting in Lloydminster with her son Chris. Mr. Hamilton was a week end visitor in Lloydminster.

The new Red and White Foodateria is now in operation and with a new paint job on the outside and in, all remodelled in self-serve style, it is an asset to the town.

The Mannville Garage and Machine Co. was broken into last Thursday night and about $75 taken. Mr. L. Metrunec went back to check the garage about midnight and discovered the loss. There has been no arrest made to date.

Old Timer of Creighton District Passes Away

AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Alice Maria Weaver, wife of Mr. Robert H. Weaver, passed away on Monday, August 3rd at the age of 79 years, after an illness of over two years. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver were old timers in the Creighton district, Mr. Weaver coming in 190 and Mrs. Weaver in 1915. She was born in Alterngham, Cheshire, England.

She leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband, one son Robert and seven grandchildren.

The funeral is on Thursday from the Anglican church with Rev. R. C. Clennett officiating. Interment will be in the Mannville cemetery.

Health Unit Notes

The Sanitary inspector will complete the article on water and flies on his return from holiday.

Meanwhile, a word about poliomyelitis will not be out of place as a few cases have been reported in the province but none so far in this area. Maintain a good standard of hygiene; keep down the flies and see that no food is exposed to them; never handle food with unwashed hands and drink pasteurized milk wherever it is available. Avoid over-fatigue as we have definite evidence that exhaustion is a big factor in the severe forms of this disease. Pre-school children should have a rest after the middle of the day meal — they are very active young people and very prone to overtiredness.

We receive many enquiries about immunization against poliomyelitis. This cannot be done at present but we hope it will be possible in a few years. There is a substance we have available which may be injected after the new victim has been exposed to the disease: it gives some protection against the paralysis but its protective effects wear off in a few weeks. This material, called Gamma Globulin, is in very short supply but is available if needed in the Province of Alberta. Finally —even what appears to be a feverish cold should be treated by "bed rest" until the diagnosis is certain: rest is a vital factor in this disease and limits the severity and extent of the paralysis.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

August 5, 1937

New oil field has undoubtedly been discovered in Alberta in the Vermilion area as a result of tests made there in recent months declared John L. Graham, one of the pioneer operators in Turner Valley. "I am sure it is going to be a great new oil field".

Apprehensive, a group of prominent English public men have started a campaign to strengthen the British Army.

First oil in this district was struck at slightly over 1900 feet at a well drilled in the Triangle district.

The U.F.A. annual meet for Battle River riding was held on the Vermilion fair grounds Thursday afternoon and evening, attended by 100 representatives.

No 32 year ago notes as the Editor and staff were on holidays and no Standard was issued that week.

British Schoolboys On Canadian Expedition

WINNIPEG.—Two British officers left here recently for the wilds of British Columbia with enough baggage to equip a small army—more than seven tons of food and equipment.

The small army, 69 British schoolboys and nine adult leaders, will arrive early this month from England for a Canadian camping expedition.

The officers Cmdr. H. P. de C. Steel, formerly of the Royal Navy, adn Capt. R. J. Francis, on leave from the army in Korea, travelled to Vanderhoof, B.C., via Canadian National Railways to set up a base camp for the schoolboys.

Fires account for 7% of the annual forest consumption.

Star of Edmonton Livestock Show

LONG TERM INVESTMENT

The pulp and paper mills have spent tens of millions of dollars to protect and improve their forests. Much of the return on this investment will not be realized for 50 to 100 years hence.

Wildmere Winks

We were sorry to see by the last Standard that Mr. Ode Fenton had passed away.

He will be missed by many as he always had a cheery word despite his own handicap. To the family of Mr. Magistad we also extend our deepest sympathy in their hour of trouble.

To Mr. T. Watts, Mr. R. Walker and Mr. David Brown we wish a speedy recovery to health and home. All these men have had recent operations in Edmonton. We were talking to Mr. Norton on Saturday and he told us that he had much the same operation last spring. He said he feels the best he has in 30 years and can now eat a hearty meal. So you sick folks have something to look forward to.

On Wednesday evening last week Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mayhew and daughter Helen called for a short visit at the Wallington home. Mrs. Mayhew and the writer have something in common as we were both born in the same wee corner of Ontario.

The Wildmere Curlers picnic was held on rather a cool day. The heavy rains had made the roads so bad not a very large crowd turned out. The ball games were good. Basswood won top money with Auburndale second. The booth had lots of eatables and hot coffee to keep the inner man satisfied. Races were good too. Mrs. H. Coburn and Mrs. Bill Arthur were good sports in the 3-legged race. The dance in the evening was called off due to the wet weather but a few went to the school anyway and by piano music enjoyed a few hours of fun anyway. Maybe next year the picnic and dance will be more fortunate in hitting on a good day.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith and two children Diana and Georgina of Bon Accord were here for the picnic and Norman enjoyed a day's fishing at Long Lake with Bill and Adam and Cliff Cruthers. They returned home on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Batke of Basswood had Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Batke and Mrs. Stevens of Bonnyville visit them. Ralph and Mrs. Stevens are a brother and sister of Johnny's. It's been over 20 years since Mrs. Stevens has been down in this part. Also on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Bud Batke and family and Mr. Goheen from Lloydminster, along with Mr. and Mrs. Waldon Westman and family and Miss Westman of Vermilion visited at the same home. Mr. and Mrs. Batke and Mrs. Stevens left for home on Monday morning.

Only a small number attended church on Sunday evening. Just a few Sundays left as Sept. 13 will be the last service. This Sunday church will be at 3 in the afternoon. After that it will be 7:30 in the evening.

Jimmie had a crew on Monday trying to remedy the mud hole up by Batke's where so many got stuck over the week end. Johnny Batke kindly pulled them through with his tractor any hour of the day or night. These heavy rains make lots of grief for the councillors.

We saw Miss Allyn with her sister Mrs. Elward on Saturday. Miss Allyn plan to return to India soon to carry on her good work among the sick. She is a graduate of the Royal Alex hospital in 1917 and has spent a good many years in India. May God give her heatlh and strength to carry on in her good work.

Basswood Tigers played Triangle on Sunday with Triangle the winner. Only one more league game, this Sunday, weather permitting, at Buffalo Coulee.

A family reunion was planned for the Wilson family at the Albert Holte home on Sunday when Tom Wilson was down from Edmonton. Mrs. A. Morrison, Tom and John and Mrs. Holte are all brothers and sisters and Tom Wilson of Vermilion, is a cousin. Kenny Holte and family are here visiting from Winnipeg too. The muddy roads made it bad for those coming from a distance. We hope they all made it in the evening.

OBITUARY

ERLIN FLETCHER FENTON (ODE)

Funeral services for Erlin Fletcher (Ode) Fenton, who passed away on July 26 at the age of 78 years, were held at St. Saviour's Anglican church on Wednesday July 29 at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Interment took place at the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. R. Clennett of Clandonald officiated.

He leaves to mourn his passing two brothers, John of Cartwright, Man., and Will of Wellington County Ontario, also a number of nieces and nephews.

Daisy and Pat. Ruby and Al Moss: Mr. and Mrs. Chas Burt: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Evans: Frank and Thelma Robinson: Nell and Jim, Mary, Tom and family, Cliff, Beth and Maxine, Biddy, John and boys: Pauline Dixon: Nora and Rhena: Isobel, Tom and family: Mr. and Mrs. Ostropolski and family.

Cemetery Fund: Mrs. D. Cameron and family.

Cancer Fund: Jim Carey: Mrs. Mabel Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ronaghan: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFadyen.

Moyer's were in charge of funeral arrangements.

GROWTH EXCEEDS DRAIN

Over the pulp and paper limits as a whole the total volume of wood grown exceeds the drain, including the cut and losses by fire, insects and disease.

Alaska Honeymoon

This is a story of an actual Alaskan trip taken by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bauer, now of Whitehorse, Yukon Territories, on their honeymoon. Mr. Bauer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauer of Claysmore.

The trip was taken in June of 1952. The account was not written for publication but came to the notice of the Editor of the Standard through mutual friends of the young authors, and it contained so much interesting information that it is being passed along to Standard readers.

Authors' Note: Volumes could be written on all there is to see along the highways and in the cities of Alaska. However I have touched on only what came to our attention as time did not permit us to make too many stp-overs. I have added what historical data I thought was of interest regarding certain points. This information, along with quite a bit of assistance in my descriptions has come from an Alaskan travellers' guide which was always in hand throughout the trip.

GENE BAUER.

On the morning of June 15, 1952, we left Whitehorse, Milepost 917, heading northward on the Alaska Highway toward Alaska. Leaving Whitehorse the highway passed through several miles of country that lay in the path of the Klondike gold stampeders, and occasional evidences of their passing remain in the ruins of old log buildings, some of which were erected over fifty years ago. Here, the forest growth undergoes a change. The Lodgepole or Jackpines gradually disappear to be replaced by the ever-present white and black spruce of the far north, liberally sprinkled with birches, aspens and cottonwoods.

Our first stop was Silver Creek Lodge, Milepost 1054, located in a park-like spot near beautiful Kluane Lake. We had a most enjoyable meal of fresh lake trout. Just before reaching this point we crossed Boutillier Summit, Milepost 1049.8, highest point between Whitehorse and Fairbanks, elevation 3,280 feet, and first view of breath-taking beauty of fifty-mile long Kluane Lake. The highway parallels this lake for over thirty miles. At Mile 1053, head of the lake, are the ruins of a gold-rush trading post and sawmill, still marked on some maps as a town. From here you cross the long trestle over the old glacial moraine at the head of the lake. The glacier streams which feed into Lake Kluane at this point impart a turquoise blue color to the water. In contrast the surrounding mountains were a vivid mauve and pink—the result, a never-to-be-forgotten variation in nature's color scheme.

The next point of interest was Milepost 1169.1, the White River — so named because of the color of the water, caused by the immense quantities of volcanic ash and glacial silt washed down from its headwaters in Alaska's Wrangell Range.

At Milepost 1221 we entered Alaska and set our watches back one hour. On entrance to the interior plateau of Alaska, the elevation drops as the highway descends nearly 300 miles along the broad valley of the Tanana River to Fairbanks. Wild flowers of many varieties may be seen along this area and we particularly noticed the dainty wild rose growing in pink profusion all along the way. This was typical moose county, but in spite of the great many varieties of wild life inhabiting this section we were only able to catch a fleeting glimpse of one red fox.

At Mile 1304 we passed the Taylor Highway Cut-off. This new road, completed in 1951, leads north and east through the famous "Forty Mile" placer gold mining region to the Yukon border where it connects with a "truck" road to romantic old Dawson City on the Yukon River.

We stopped at the first Canol Pipeline Station on the Alaskan side where Vic was to have the news of our "passing through" teletyped to his boss in Whitehorse. Here we were besieged with what must be either the warmth of American hospitality or the eagerness of people on lonely outposts to see new faces. Anyway, we had our pictures taken and were given home-made chocolate cake and all the coffee we could drink. This was my first suspicion of the fondness Americans have for coffee, the proof of which was to become very evident on the remainder of the trip.

At Mile 1318 we reached Tok Junction and turned off onto the Glenn Highway which roughly parallels two historic trails of the early days. The first seventy miles from Tok Junction crosses and re-crosses the old Eagle Trail, dog team and pack-horse route of the pioneers, which connected the Abercrombie Trail and Eagle on the Yukon. The second sixty miles follows the Abercrombie Trail and old Army telegraph line which connected this route with Valdez in 1900 and which was first explored by a U.S. army military mission under Capt. W. R. Abercrombie in 1899 when a trail was being sought to the Yukon River. This is a heavily mineralized region with silver-lead and gold predominating. "Rockhounds" will find agates in some of the little streams that cross the road in this area.

We had lunch at the Log Cabin Inn, which was typical of a great many highway hotels — made entirely of logs inside and out, sometimes down to the last article of furniture. This section had been and sometimes still was subjected to heavy rain and where one small bridge was out our car had to be towed through a shallow swift current which was cutting through the highway, by means of a Caterpillar.

Eighty-two miles from Tok Junction, excellent views of the magnificent glacier-clad peaks of the Wrangell range are to be had. Much of this vast wilderness region has been penetrated only by Indians, prospectors and trappers, and huge areas of it are still unmapped. Thirty-four miles further a high curve in the road afforded a splendid picture opportunity, and I hope mine turn out. The snow white ramparts of the Wrangells soaring thousands of feet above the valley floor of the Copper River create one of the most magnificent examples of mountain scenery in the world.

One hundred and seventy-nine miles from Tok, we stopped at Tazlina Glacier Lodge, actually the most outstanding of any lodges I had ever stayed at in the North. It is on a rise beside a pretty lake and overlooking both the vast Tazlina Glacier and the huge lake at its foot. In a truly beautiful spot, the well-planned rustic log structure of the main lodge and private cabins blends perfectly with the wilderness background.

NEWS from ISLAY

Mrs. Jack McDonald of North Battleford spent a few days with Mrs. Fyfe and called on old time friends. Mr. McDonald was in the hardware business here from 1920 to 1928. They then went to North Battleford.

Mrs. Potvin has her niece Gwen Hardy and a girl friend from Guelph, Ont., visiting her.

Bill Bothwell, now of Regina, spent the holiday week end with his parents at Islay. Bill is now technical superintendent of Imperial Oil refinery at Regina.

United church services will be resumed Sunday Aug. 9 at 3 p.m. Mr. Collins occupying the pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Paulson and family of Edmonton have been visiting Mrs. Paulson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McNeely. Billy came some time ago and is on the Anson farm.

Mrs. Harry Armstrong and children of Wetaskiwin are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Linton.

Chatsworth Chatter

Nobody can complain of lack of moisture these days, as we've had plenty lately. This district escaped the terrible hailstorm that struck Clandonald, but we certainly experienced the wind, considerable damage being done to crops, granaries, etc. Quite a high wind struck on Wednesday, 22nd also, with a heavy rain.

Mrs. Bob Robson arrived at Mr. and Mrs. H. Good's on the 15th to stay with them for some time, as Bob is now stationed at Wainwright camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farkash and little daughter Ruby, were visitors to the home of Mrs. Farkash's parents at Minburn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fulton, on Sunday 19th.

Mrs. East and Mrs. Jones of Dewberry were driving from Edmonton by car when the storm of the 14th was experienced, and reported that visibility was cut to nearly nil, but they feared to stop in case they should be run into.

Mr. and Mrs Ernie Brass and son Robert of Vancouver who have been visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Davis the past week, left on their return trip last Friday. The trip coming, a total of 1300 miles, was made in 34 hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Honey and Mrs. Louise Honey of Edmonton, were visitors at the home of the writer the week end of July 18. Judy and Trudy Honey who have been holidaying here for the past three weeks, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Moss of Edmonton were recent visitors to the home of Mrs. Moss' mother, Mrs. Cummings.

Cpl. Bob Robson and D. Harnett were week end visitors to Good's on the 18th and 19th.

On Election Day

Is it your practice to vote for the MAN or the PARTY and the Policies he stands for as a Candidate?

In Battle River - Camrose Constituency:

THE MAN is Mr. F. C. Saville

Cliff Saville was raised on the prairies, and has farmed in the Hardisty district for thirty years or more, and with his long experience as a farmer and rancher and breeder of stock he knows the problems of the farmer and stockman. He has taken part in many conferences at Ottawa on behalf of agriculture and his counsel has been met and acted upon favorably. His interests are your interests.

The PARTY . . .

is the Liberal Party of Prime Minister Louis St Laurent, the Party which introduced such beneficial measures as—

OLD AGE PENSIONS — FAMILY ALLOWANCES — UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE — THE WHEAT BOARD AND FLOOR PRICES — PRAIRIE FARM ASSISTANCE — VETERANS' BENEFITS UNEQUALLED IN ANY OTHER COUNTRY.

On Monday, August 10 . . Therefore

If you wish to vote for THE MAN—you could not find a better man than F. CLIFFORD SAVILLE. If you wish to show approval of the POLICIES and PLATFORM of Mr. Louis St. Laurent, you can do so by voting for F. C. SAVILLE—You Win, both ways!

VOTE FOR Saville, F. Clifford

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jones of the Canadian National left on Wednesday for a two months vacation which will be spent in the mountains at Jasper, Banff, Radium Hot Springs, Kelowna and Schuswap. They intend to do considerable fishing, sight-seeing and to renew old acquaintances along the way. During the absence of Mr. Jones the relieving agent will be Mr. Jawsko. Ray says he will return just in nice time for the duck hunting this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carley of Toronto, cousins of Mr. E. Webber of Tolland, were visitors recently for a few days at the Webber home.

Sgt. and Mrs. Fred Waite and little daughter Arundel spent a week with Nadeen's parents Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Cooper in town, returning to Edmonton on Wedneday. They are at present on leave from Sgt. Waite's station in the far north, Ft. Good Hope. They have spent the past five years in the north country.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bell are away on a two weeks vacation which they will spend at Jasper, Banff and Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stwart and family are holidaying at Lake Waskesiu this week.

Bruce Winters is a patient in the University hospital, Edmonton, and not in the Vermilion hospital as stated in these columns last week.

Mrs. Albert Keast and family from Stettler spent the Fair week visiting at the home of the former's sister Mrs. E. T. Rooks. Miss Diane Keast is spending the summer here with her aunt.

Mrs. O. Elder is holidaying in Vancouver.

Miss Olga Mikietuk Married at Elk Point

A very pleasant wedding reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ockerman (nee Olga Mikietuk) at Primrose Community hall on Saturday afternoon July 25 at 3 p.m. The wedding took place at the R. C. church, Elk Point, the same day at 11 o'clock in the morning.

About 80 people attended the reception and a wonderful time was reported by all present. The wedding dance planned for the evening was cancelled owing to the bad conditions of the roads, but will take place in about two weeks time. The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon at Edmonton and at mountain resorts.
—St. Paul Journal

The names of Clarence and Helen Barr and family were omitted from the list of those sending floral tributes to the funeral of the late Mrs. Welsh.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS about Cancer

QUESTION: How does cancer kill?
ANSWER: Cancer kills by interfering with the vital functions of the body. The patient may starve to death, bleed to death, be unable to carry out necessary vital activities because of interference with nervous control of these activities, and by many other means.

Princess Anne W. I. Notes

The July meeting of the Princess Anne W. I. was held on the 29th at the home of Mrs. Geo. Mead with 11 members and 3 visitors present. The meeting opened with O Canada, followed by the Creed. The roll call was answered with an O.I.I picture. These brought forth some hearty laughs. Those who did not produce the necessary picture paid a forfeit of 5¢ cents.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Tolls was followed by the treasurer's report and then the correspondence. From the latter the business of the meeting ensued.

Appointments of convenors for standing committees were appointed as follows: Health, Mrs. Wm. McIntyre; Education, Mrs. R. Stromberg; Citizenship, Mrs. Geo. Dollman; Home Economics, Mrs. J. Parchewsky; Canadian Industries and Agriculture, Mrs. F. West; Handicrafts, Mrs. Geo. Richardson; Social Services, Mrs. C. Bindas.

Plans for a dance in the near future were discussed, also the opening of the school before the opening of the fall term.

Ways and means were discussed at some length for the aiding of the Arthritis and Rheumatism campaign.

It was decided to send for several more copies of "Home & Country" so that each member would have a copy.

August meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. Wood with Mrs. O. Simone and Mrs. A. Brady serving.

Roll call to be answered with a short piece.

The meeting was then adjourned and following God Save the Queen, the hostess served a tasty lunch.

Vermilion Man Married In Calgary

HULL—PRIESTLEY

A quiet, late-afternoon wedding took place at the Scarboro United church in Calgary, on Wednesday, July 22, when June Lily Priestley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hodgson of Dawson Creek, B.C., was united in marriage with William Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hull of Vermilion. The Rev. D. G. Linkjendrum performed the ceremony.

For her wedding, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white nylon lace and net with matching pocket. Her veil was held in place by a satin coronet. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and fern.

Attending the bride was Miss Joyce Nailett of Calgary who wore a mauve gown identical to the bride's and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and fern.

Mr. John Hull, brother of the groom was best man and Mr. Alex Sinclair of Calgary ushered the guests to their seats.

After the ceremony, a reception for twenty-five guests, was held at the Hardy Shipyards. The young couple left later by car for a trip to Jasper Park. They are now making their home at Macleod.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull, John and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood and Bobby, all of Vermilion; Mr. and Mrs. J. Hodgson and Ruth of Dawson Creek; and Mr. Ron Priestley of Claresholm.

Paradise Valley

Miss Violet Teasdale is visiting at Robson, B.C., with her aunts Mrs. J. Rains and Mrs. Scales.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Law, former Paradise Valley residents but now of Violet Grove, Alta., are visiting old friends and relatives in town and district.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robin and family were recent visitors at Rosetown, Sask., where they visited with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wiley, Miss Shirley Wiley and Miss Carol Richardson were recent visitors at Mrs. Wiley's old home at Berlin, Sask.

Mr. and Mr. Art Levitt and Donald left on Friday on a trip that will take them to the West coast and then to points in the States.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Musil, Clarence and Eugene Musil coast and Miss Darlene Hojit, all of Western, Nebraska, were recent visitors at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kiior and Mr. and Mrs. C. Robin. Mrs. Musil is a sister of Mrs. Knor and Mrs. Robin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kragness, Mr. and Mrs. R. Kragness and Miss Beatrice Kragness attended the wedding of Bob Ringland of Lone Rock, at Clandonald on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruttan had as their guests Mrs. Nelson, Ada and Carol of Gilbert, Plains, Man.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Odegard on the birth of a daughter, born in the Lloydminster hospital on Wednesday, July 22.

Mr. Percy Stoddart and Harvey McLeod are enjoying their vacation at Banff.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAmmond, George Harrison and R. McLeod were recent visitors to Calgary returning home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Knutson made the trip to Edmonton on Sunday, taking Miss Laura Knutson with them who had spent the week end at home.

We regret to hear that Mrs. W. H. McAmmond is a patient in Lloydminster hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay, Miss Dorothy Clay and Miss Marlene McDonald left on a motor trip that will take them well into U.S. territory before their return home.

Mr. and Mr. Don Beckett of Hazeldine are spending part of their holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckett.

No one can complain of the lack of moisture we have had these past few days and Friday nights we had a regular deluge of rain with severe electrical storms. As far as we know no hail fell in this district for which we have much to be thankful for. The roads are very muddy and quite a few have visited the ditches. Hot weather is needed if we are to harvest a crop this year.

Mrs. D. Churchill and family are spending a few weeks at Cold Lake where Mr. Churchill is employed.

We got quite excited on Friday evening when what we mistook for a fire engine rushing around our streets turned out to be Bill David's son in his new car.

Canada has 130 pulp and paper mills.

REPORT to the PEOPLE

BY ROBERT FAIR, M.P.
BATTLE RIVER

As the Korean truce has at last been signed, many people are today wondering what the future holds for us and, where do we go from here. In the signing of the truce just a breathing spell to allow for further building up of supplies and power to strike at some other point or is it a genuine attempt to bring about lasting peace for many years to come? These questions are of vital interest to all Canadians as our security and standard of living in the years to come will depend, to a very large extent, on whether our production will be used by the people on a peacetime basis, or whether our factories will continue to turn out, as has been the case since 1939, materials and supplies for the carrying on of military conflict.

During World War 2 many individuals expressed the wish that the war would continue as they had made certain commitments which they wished to finance out of the high wages they were receiving for work in production of war materials and it is quite possible that the outbreak in Korea in June 1950, was also welcomed by people in Canada who had the responsibility of keeping our people employed so that an expected recession did not develop. Federal government policies are claimed to be responsible for our present prosperity of recent years, but because most of our prosperity has been brought about as a result of the fighting of the two wars since 1939, those claiming credit for the prosperity must also accept some responsibility for the way in which it was brought about. Prosperity since the end of Great War 2 was also supported by the distribution of compulsory savings collected by the government during the war years, the reconversion of some of the factories to a peace-time basis and to a large extent, by the investment in Canada of enormous amounts of United States capital for the purchase of bonds and other securities and the establishment of many industrial and other enterprises. In order that this boasted prosperity may continue, we must have markets for our agricultural and other products. During the past few years we have had no contracts for agricultural products with Britain (our former greatest market) with the exception of wheat and that contract expired at the end of last month. Britain did not sign the present International Wheat Agreement, mainly because of a lack of dollars, and she was forced into this position because of the Bretton Woods Agreement, sponsored by the Liberal government and passed in December, 1945, with the co-operation of the Progressive Conservatives (excepting the late Mr. Tommy Church) and the C.C.F. group. This legislation was bitterly opposed and challenged at every opportunity by the Social Creditors. We are now reaping the benefit by way of lost markets. Our markets in the U.S. for agricultural products is being gradually restricted so that our best potential market in the future is right here in Canada.

What about efficiency in government? The answer to this can be found in part, by reading the Curtis report which dealt with the operation of the Wood Services Branch of the Dept. of National Defence. Before being submitted to Hon. Mr. Claxton, Minister of National Defence, the report was shown to his deputy for approval and this resulted in several changes being made in the report, thereby nullifying the most critical parts of it. The watered down report contained no less than 64 recommendations to tighten up accounting systems and prevent other occurrences of waste and extravagance, but, while some improvement has been made, recent newspaper reports show that stealing still goes on at a camp in Manitoba and payroll padding in another camp. How many other instances have not yet been discovered? In spite of these disclosures, the Liberal members on the Defence Expenditures committee voted down requests by the opposition members to have the investigation continued. What efficiency? Now what about debt and taxation? The gross National debt at the end of March, 1939, stood at $7,703,- 000,000. At March 31, 1953, according to figures contained in the budget, the gross debt was $17,877,- 000,000, an increase of approximately one billion dollars a year. During the years 1936, 1937 and 1938 it cost around $450 million to $500 million to carry on government. In 1953 it is estimated it will cost $9,- 941 million to operate for the year — about 9 times what it cost 14 years ago. To finance this spending it will cost an average of nearly $1700 per family of five in 1953-54 most of which will be extracted as hidden taxes.

I believe the services being rendered at the present time can be expanded and millions of dollars saved our taxpayers by the adoption of Social Credit proposals which are as follows:

a. The right of every citizen to choose his way of life, provided he does not interfere with the similar rights of others.

b The establishment and preservation of justice and equity for all men.

c. The promotion of the system of free competitive individual enterprise and opposition to state socialism, totalitarianism and regimentation.

d. The highest standard of Christian morality in politics and government.

Social Credit proposes economic and financial policies which will build a prosperous, secure and greater Canada.

a. By maintaining sufficient money in circulation to insure expansion of production and consumption with safeguards against inflation and deflation.

b. By maintaining effective consumer purchasing, power sufficient to make it financially possible the distribution of all wanted production.

c. By a thorough revision of the whole taxation system. Those taxes that are restrictive to productive enterprise will be abolished or reduced as a stimulus to greater productive effort.

d. By the progressive reduction and eventual liquidation of public debt.

Social Credit offers positive action to revitalize Canada's internal economy.

a. By stimulating economic and industrial development to progressively rising standards and thus provide opportunities for gainful employment.

b. By providing pensions for all aged and disabled citizens commensurate with Canada's ability to produce.

c. By fair and just recognition of War Veterans' contribution to Canada's security.

d. Through new Federal-Provincial arrangements to ensure each province adequate revenues to discharge fully its constitutional responsibilities.

e. By assuring home market and export markets for the products of our farms, factories, mines, fisheries and lumber industries.

f. By fostering and encouraging just and harmonious labor-management relationships in the interests of both employee and employer and the Canadian people as a whole.

g. By encouraging industrial enterprise to expand Canadian industry and at the same time protect the public against monopolies.

h. By encouraging every citizen to build and own his own home by providing for lower down payments and lower interest rates on housing loans.

i. By the maintenance of Canada's military and civil defence forces at a strength adequate for the defence and security of Canada.

Social Credit proposes a new and realistic approach to the problems of International Relationship and International trade.

a. We are determined to maintain unimpaired Canada's sovereignty.

b. We respect the sovereignty of other nations.

c. We will foster co-operation with other nations for peace, international justice and security.

d. We will establish an international trade policy under which goods will be exchanged between nations on a basis of mutual advantage to all and through which the production of the world will be made available to feed and bless all humanity.

Stanley-Kornsee Wedding At Clandonald Anglican Church

STANLEY—KORNSEE

Rose Kornsee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kornsee of New Westminster, B.C., exchanged marriage vows with Robert Aldred Stanley, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Stanley of Clandonald, Alberta, on July 10th, 1953, in St. Mary's Anglican church, Clandonald.

Rev. R. T. Clennett performed the ceremony in a church decorated with baskets of red and white peonies.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon net and Chantilly lace flounces over heavy satin, the bodice was net over satin, fitted by rows of tiny self-covered buttons from collar to waistband in the front and back. Her fingertip veil was held by a bridal halo of sheer net, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Cecilia Coe of Edmonton, and Miss Nita Pretsch of Deverry were bridesmaids, both wore similarly styled gowns of mauve and pink nylon net over taffeta, one featuring a full hoop skirt and the other a partial hoop skirt, they carried fans of gladioli and lily of the valley.

The groom was attended by the bride's brother Robert Kornsee and Donald Goldsmith. Mr. E. Stockwell and Mr. Norman Stanley ushered the guests to their pews.

A tripe - tiered wedding cake, flanked by candles, adorned the bride's table.

The toast to the bride was proposed by the Rev. R. T. Clennett and was fittingly responded to by the groom.

KING EDWARD

Christ Church King Edward W.A. will hold a sale of home cooking and farm produce in the Northern Hardware store on Saturday afternoon Aug. 8 commencing at 2 p.m. 44x

HOME WEDDING AT MARWAYNE

JOHNSON—BERG

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Berg, Marwayne, when their daughter, Elaine Agnes, of Edmonton, was united in marriage with Mr. Eliel Bernard Johnson also of Edmonton and formerly of Vermilion.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a two-piece afternoon frock of pale blue crepe with white accessories. A corsage of pink roses and stephonitis was pinned at her shoulder.

Mrs. Frank Gibson of Edmonton was the bride's only attendant wearing a two-piece ensemble of navy blue and white accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses.

Best man was Mr. Frank Gibson of Edmonton.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to twenty-five guests. A three-tiered wedding cake decorated with white tulle centred the table.

Mr. Frank Gibson proposed the toast which was responded to by the groom.

For a honeymoon to Twin Valley, Minnesota and other points in the United States, the bride donned a three-piece beige suit, complemented by a white hat and roses en corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home in Edmonton.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson, Mr. Allan Mayer and Mrs. and Mrs. Wes Spencer, all of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Doug Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Urquhart of Vermilion; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tannas and family of High River; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Berg and family of Grande Prairie and Mrs. W. Smith of Viking.

Chrysler Corporation Appoints New Advertising Manager

WINDSOR — Appointment of Robert T. Brown to the position of Advertising Manager, Plymouth Corporation of Canada, Ltd., has been announced by A. J. Shaw, vice-president in charge of sales.

Mr. Brown succeeds H. J. G. Jackson who is leaving the corporation after nearly 20 years of association with its advertising activities, to assume a Dodge-Desoto dealership at Chatham, Ont.

A native of Brantford, Ont., Mr. Brown moved to Windsor as a boy and after graduating from Walkerville Collegiate, entered the automotive industry. He joined the R. C.A.F. in 1942 and served as a pilot instructor at the Dunnville Camp Borden. After the war he enrolled at the University of Western Ontario graduating with an Honor B.A. in Business Administration. After a period in the financial analysis department of an automobile manufacturer he joined the Chrysler of Canada's advertising department in 1950 and subsequently became assistant advertising manager.

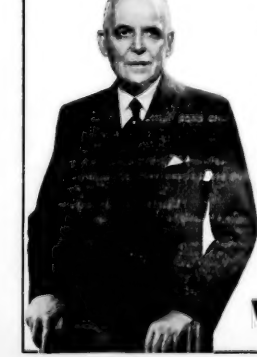
"I'd like to say this to all Canadians..."



UNDER a Liberal government, Canadians have added every year to the national strength and national unity of Canada;

We have had the greatest expansion of social welfare in our history;

We have increased our employment, our production and our national income every year;

We have had the greatest expansion of our primary and secondary industries — truly an industrial revolution;

Because of the outstanding contribution of the members of our Navy, Army and Air Force, we have been able to do our full share to prevent and to stop Communist aggression;

We have reduced the national debt every year, and, in the last two years, reaped the reward in lower tax rates.

Do you really think it's time for a change?

For a change to a Parliament of regional groups — a handful of Social Crediters from the Far West, a few Socialists from the Prairies, a few more Conservatives from Ontario or the Maritimes and some so-called Independents from Quebec?

In such a Parliament without the leadership and responsibility of a united national party, how could the government help being weak and insecure?

Do we want a weak and divided government to deal with the formidable problems of the next few years? I ask you, IS it really time for a change?

We believe most Canadians want a government which encourages enterprise, promotes trade and fosters the exploration and development of our resources; and you know it as well as we do, that requires balanced budgets, paying off debts in prosperous times and a tax structure which, while fair to all, is adequate to meet those demands.

JELLY MAKING

Mrs. Wise checks her Jelly Making: A clear sparkling jelly, tender, and with a rich full flavor, this is the aim of Mrs. Wise. She visualizes rows of gleaming jewel colored glasses on her shelves luscious jams and jellies to add glamor to everyday meals or party fare. But why is the jelly has she discovered about jelly making?

1. Jellies should be made in small quantities at a time. If too much is attempted at once it is hard to get the right amount of evaporation with too soft or too stiff a jelly. Mrs. Wise has decided that rather than attempt too large a batch of jelly she will can some fruit juice to use for the jelly later.

2. Overripe fruit will also result in a soft jelly. It lacks acid or pectin. If the fruit alone is depended upon for pectin it is better to have some of it slightly underripe.

3. More of the pectin is concentrated in the peel, core and seeds. Therefore the fruit should not be peeled or cored when cooking for jelly.

4. Too slow boiling is another cause of soft jelly. It destroys rather than develops the pectin. Too slow boiling may cause a darkened jelly. The fruit juice should be boiled rapidly and it is wise to heat sugar before adding to the rapidly boiling juice.

5. If commercial pectin is used one should follow exactly the recipes supplied by the manufacturer of the pectin. They have been developed in right proportions for the product with various fruits.

6. To obtain a crystal clear jelly do not squeeze the jelly bag. Second extractions should be used only with fruits that jell readily. They will not be as clear as the first.

7. For a good clean seal wipe the surface of the jelly with a clean cloth dipped in a little vinegar. Make a small groove between the glass and the jelly. Pour a thin layer of melted paraffin over it. When this hardens add another layer.

8. Store jelly in a cool, dry, dark place. Weepy Jelly may develop if it is stored in a light, warm moist place. Weepy jelly also results sometimes if the jars are sealed while still hot.

Woodvale News

The past week not only brought rain showers, but gifts, good wishes and neighborly friendship to Mr. and Mrs. R. Halsall of Tolland and Mr. to Miss Lillian Watson of Hindville, a bridge of the future.

On July 20th around 40 people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. McGrath and after a very pleasant time viewing pictures, souvenirs and presents, Mr. D. McGrath made a short presentation of some more wedding gift and a community present, consisting of electric pillow cases, bedspread, rug and a wool filled quilt, the latter a local product, the rug being pieced together and donated to the Red Cross auxiliary by Mrs. C. McGrath. It was worked at one of their meetings and when put up for sale bought for this occasion. If the ladies had known it would become the property of this young couple, they would have worked at it with even more pleasure! The evening came to a close after a lovely lunch served by the young ladies of the gathering. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, the latter a sister of Mrs. McGrath, came from Dewberry for the shower. It was regretted that Mrs. McQuirk parents and sister from Edmonton who had been visiting here, could not stay for the evening.

On the 30th friends and neighbors came together at the Watson school to honor Miss Lilian Watson.

Jasper Park Lodge Sets Golfers Record

JASPER.—A record number of 306 golfing enthusiasts teed off at Jasper Park Lodge gold course on July 17. The previous record was 274. It was to commemorate the days that the late Field Marshal Earl Haig, commander-in-chief of the British Forces in the Great War, officially opened Jasper's beautiful 18-hole course.

The 6,750-yard, par 71 course was designed by the late Stanley Thompson, world-famous golf course designer. It is also the site of the internationally famous "Totem Pole" pro tournament to be played this year from Sept. 6 to 12.

DUCK CONTENT

CONFINED TO CROP AREA

Hunting by permit, range, however, must be confined to the actual crop areas. It is forbidden to shoot ducks on stubble from which the crop has been harvested or in stubbles on the property of protesting crops. This provision benefits both ducks and farmers as it tends to force the ducks from unharvested grain and allows them sanctuary in neighboring marshes and the harvested stubble fields where they may feed without molestation.

The law does not give the right to anybody to shoot birds on any property without the property owner's permission, and the number of game birds which any person may possess at any time is limited by the Migratory Bird Regulations.

A large percentage of the damage done by migratory birds in Canada is caused by ducks eating and trampling prairie grain crops. The new regulations, however, can be applied to cover other kinds of migratory bird problems such as the injury caused to orchards by robins and the presence of large flocks of gulls at airports which endanger airplanes. All complaints in such cases should first be made to provincial game officers or the nearest R.C.M.P. detachment, and not to the federal authorities in Ottawa.

New Riding Goes Strongly Social Credit

Bob Fair Returned With Huge Majority

The new constituency of Battle-River-Camrose which has come into being since the last Federal election due to the recently of redistribution of seats, indicated strong Social Credit tendencies on Monday and Robert Fair was sent back to Ottawa on the strength of a huge majority. In fact he had a majority over all, polling more votes than all four of the other candidates combined.

This was the fifth consecutive time that Mr. Fair has been sent back to Ottawa to represent the constituency, thus keeping pace with the victorious Liberal party which he so vigorously opposes in the House on many occasions.

The new area weighed into the constituency was regarded as a question mark. Soon after 6 p.m. however, when results were trickling in over long distance and local telephones, from all the various areas in the far flung riding, it became quite clear that Fair was just as popular in the Camrose sector as he was in his old stamping ground of Battle River. The country polls were giving him majorities, village and town polls likewise, and this continued until he left the other candidates far behind.

With all of the 237 polls reported by Thursday morning, the final count was:

|---|---|
| FAIR, Social Credit | 9737 |
| SAVILLE, Liberal | 6573 |
| ARNTSON, C.C.F. | 2336 |
| McCLEARY, Prog-Con. | 1875 |
| TAYLOR, Lab-Prog | 438 |

LOSE DEPOSITS

None of the four polled 50% of the winner's total, and will thus lose their deposits of $800 each.

The outcomes shown are 1, Arntson, C.C.F.; 2, Fair, S.C.; 3, McCleary, Prog-Con.; 4, Saville, Lib.; 5, Taylor, Labor-Prog.

INDIVIDUAL POLL RESULTS

Results from some of the larger centres in the constituency, and polls in this immediate area were:

Roy Patterson, 22, Killed In Car Crash

FATAL ACCIDENT SUNDAY NEAR JASPER PARK

Roy Ira Patterson, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Patterson who farm a few miles north-east of Vermilion, was killed late Sunday afternoon in a car accident that happened on highway 16 about ten miles this side of Jasper Park. The car which it was believed he was driving, went out of control and crashed off the road.

Ray Messier, 1106 81 ave., is reported by RCMP to be one of the three other men seriously injured in the crash. The others are Keith Sludy of Edson, and Reginald Comeau of Cloverdale. Sludy is stated to be 'very seriously' hurt. The injured men are in Jasper hospital.

RCMP state the accident occurred about 5:20 p.m. Sunday.

Coroner Dr. G. E. Straughan presided at an inquest which opened in Jasper Monday.

FAMILY ALL LIVE NEAR

The deceased leaves his parents, two sisters Evelyn and Edna, one brother Gordon, and both grandmothers Mrs. Mabel McKay and Mrs. Anna Patterson, all living in Vermilion.

Funeral services are being held this Thursday afternoon Aug. 13 at 2:00 o'clock at the First United church. Interment will be at the Vermilion cemetery. The services will be conducted by Miss Mary Haggart and Miss Enid Horning, student ministers from the North Vermilion and Asbmeadale fields.

Moyers are in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mayor's Father Passes In East

Mayor S C. Heckbert received the sad news a few days ago of the passing of his father, Sydney D. Heckbert of Newcastle, N.B., who died following an operation. Mr. Heckbert was born at Summerside, P.E.I. on February 9, 1868, moving to New Brunswick at the turn of the century where he carried on business until his retirement a few years ago.

Active in all community affairs he served for many years on the town council of the town of Chatham, N.B. and was elected to the legislature in 1935. He served as Chairman of the Exemption Board during World War 1. Mr. Heckbert was keenly interested in agricultural work and served for a long period as manager and later president of the Chatham Exhibition. Interested in curling he was President of the Chatham curling club at one time.

Mr. Heckbert was a past master of Miramichi Lodge, A.F. & A.M. and past high priest of Lebanon Chapter, R.A.M. was a member of the Luxor Temple of the Mystic Shrine of Saint John, N.B.

Surviving Mr. Heckbert are three daughters Mrs. W. D. McCosh, Noranda, P.Q.; Mrs. Jack Allen of Newcastle, N.B.; Mrs. H. L. Richards of St. Stephen, N.B. and one son Mayor Heckbert of Vermilion, Alberta. One sister and 2 brothers all resident in the east, also survive.

Mrs. S. C. Heckbert is presently visiting in New Brunswick attended the funeral of the late Mr. Heckbert and interment was made in the family plot in Riverside cemetery, at Chatham, N.B.

The late Mr. Heckbert paid a visit to Vermilion a few years ago and was much impressed with the development of the West. While here he met many Vermilion people who will regret to learn of his death.

Rain Halts Park Opening

WILL BE HELD NEXT WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 19th

Rain Tuesday night and all Wednesday morning caused the official opening of the new Vermilion River Provincial park to be postponed for one week. The same ceremonies and program will be carried out as planned for the 12th.

Likewise the same general situation is extended to one and all to attend the function on Wednesday afternoon next, Aug. 17th.

Many Visitors Here For Park Opening

SPEND DAY AS GUESTS OF TOWN

Many guests scheduled to attend the official opening of the Park on Wednesday arrived by special car on the Canadian National early that morning and consequently spent all of Wednesday as guests of the park committee, town and the Board of Trade.

The distinguished visitors included Mr. Dunbar, divisional superintendent of the Canadian National; Mr. Bruce Hill, president of Canadian Utilities and party; Mr. Rennie Harvey, Alberta representative of Ducks Unlimited and Mr. Arthur Govin, general manager for Canada and their party; Mr. Keith Rich of radio station CJCA, Edmonton, and Mr. Jack Deakin, provincial editor of the Edmonton Journal.

As the rain stopped early in the afternoon, a trip up to the west end of the lake was taken in four motor boats. At 6 p.m. all the visitors were guests at a complimentary dinner at the Rio Cafe attended by the Board of Trade. Later in the evening all attended the open reception tendered by the new proprietors and owners of the Brunswick hotel held in the Legion hall.

Lightning Strikes Campbell Lake Power Line

4 POLES DEMOLISHED — CREW WORKS 36 HOURS TO RESTORE SERVICE

On Monday morning Aug. 10 at 7:10 lightning struck the power line of the Campbell Lake Rural Electrification Association, north of Mirror. Farrell's, breaking the line and demolishing four poles. These poles were replaced practically to match wood.

The damaged section was isolated by hour and service was restored to undamaged portion shortly afterwards.

This was achieved despite extremely bad roads and the fact that the repair crews were still at work in other areas cleaning up after Sunday's storm.

After picking up poles and repairs at Derwent they were able to arrive at the scene of the damage at 7:15 p.m. and power was restored before midnight.

WORK 36 OUT OF 40 HOURS

This work was done by a crew that had worked 40 hours with only four hours off. Given credit is due to them and to the serviceman, Wes Kemp. Among the obstacles they had to overcome were very wet muddy roads, some newly graded, and working in the pitch dark of the night.

Little Opposition As Water, Sewer, Fire Engine By-laws Passed

Ratepayers of Vermilion registered definite, indeed practically unanimous approval of the proposal of the town council to spend $14,000 on water line extensions; $5000 on extending the sewer system, and $12,000 for a new fire engine.

The actual votes registered on the various plebiscites were:

Water By-law — for 227; against 7; Sewer By-law—for 217; against 16; Fire Engine By-law—for 228; against 25.

It is expected that the extensions to the water and sewer systems will be made in conjunction with the larger additions approved by the ratepayers earlier this year.

The order for the fire engine will be placed after due consideration of just what will best suit the requirements of the town.

Every Effort To Secure Commercial Teacher

The Vermilion school board is having difficulty engaging a new teacher for the commercial classes in the high school as such teachers appear in short supply and there is a widespread demand for their services. However, parents and students may rest assured that the Board is making every effort and feel confident that a fully qualified and competent instructor for commercial training will be on the staff when school opens on Sept. 1st.

Vermilion Goalie To Report to Ranger Camp

Ken Brown received notification direct from Frank Boucher, manager of New York Rangers, to report to the Ranger try-out camp at Saskatoon on Sunday Aug. 30 with all expenses paid. Ken was also asked which of the Rangers' farm teams he would like to join. The promising young goalie has chosen the Lethbridge Native Sons in the event that he makes the grade.

Sentenced For Assault Of Mannville Policeman

MANNVILLE.—On trial last week at Mannville before Magistrate Lawrence of Vermilion, Charles Crawford and Stanley Sawchuk were each sentenced to 30 days in the local town police lock-up.

They were convicted on a charge for assaulting the local town policeman, Ed Stevens. Leon Kitt, Louis Kitt and Ronald W. Kitt were demanded until Aug. 12 for trial.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fair left Thursday morning on a holiday trip to Minnesota.

AC 2 Ken Lawrenceson of R.C.A.F. station at Clinton, Ont., is home on a 30-day leave which he is spending with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawrenceson and brother Donald at Mannville.

Will Have Majority of At Least 77

Liberal Party Swept Back Into Power

Monday's federal election saw the Liberal party returned to power to start an unprecedental fifth term of Canadian Government. The Liberal members were reduced from their record breaking 193 of 1949 to 171. This still leaves them a majority of at least 77.

| ELECTED | 1945 | 1949 |
|---|---|---|
| Liberals | 171 | 197 |
| Prog. Cons. | 30 | 41 |
| C C F | 28 | 13 |
| Social Credit | 13 | 10 |
| Independent | 3 | 4 |
| Ind.-Liberal | 2 | 1 |
| Liberal-Labor | 1 | 0 |
| TOTALS | 265 | 262 |

PARTY GAINS

C. C. F. gained from 13 in the last house to 23, their chief successes being in Saskatchewan; the Social Credit party gained 1 in Alberta and 4 in B.C.; while the Progressive Conservatives increased nine in the east to account for the reduction in the Liberal majority.

Alberta returned 11 Social Credit members, 4 Liberals and 2 Conservatives.

Battle River - Camrose went strongly Social Credit, while Vegreville riding in the Immediate west re-elected their Liberal representative.

Melvin Hill Elected To Town Council

In last Friday's by-election Melvin Hill was elected to a vacancy on the town council, polling 194 votes to 132 for Lloyd Dowdell. Considerable interest was taken in the election as evidenced by the more than 80% who cast their ballots.

The new councillor will be sworn in at the next regular meeting of the town governing body.

Decoration Day Parade Called by Legion

Sunday, Aug. 23 has been set aside by the Canadian Legion Vermilion branch as decoration day. The services will be held at the soldiers' plot, Vermilion cemetery at 3 p.m. Rev. Mr. Clement will conduct the usual decoration day service. The general public is invited to attend this service.

Donations of flowers will be accepted at the Legion hall on Saturday, Aug. 22.

Animal Far From Usual Haunts

Ron Lowry Shoots Bear Near Marwayne

Shooting a black bear in the northern wilds is not particularly newsworthy, but shooting one practically in your own yard is. Such a well settled area such as the Marwayne district is something else again and well worth a headline, particularly when you are in the direct path of the charging animal and have to shoot from the hip. This is exactly what happened to young Ron Lowry of the well known family of that name who farm 7 miles east and three miles north of Marwayne, and only 34 actual miles from Vermilion.

Leaving the farm home one morning recently to go to a field, Ronald observed some commotion in the pasture. On approaching he was surprised to see a shaggy black animal walking up and down just inside the pasture fence — the next best of his attention being a young colt just inside the fence. The colt was cared by the stranger and was moving restlessly about, but a number of older horses including the colt's mother, contrary to their custom, were not taking any interest in the high school as such teachers appear in short supply and there is a widespread demand for their services. However, parents and students may rest assured that the Board is making every effort and feel confident that a fully qualified and competent instructor for commercial training will be on the staff when school opens on Sept. 1st.

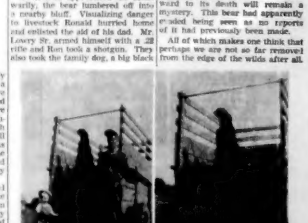
Ronald thought that the bear was attempting to separate the colt from the band of horses, as it badly needed a square meal as was found out from its very sparse carcass later.

As Ronald approached the scene warily, the bear lumbered off into a nearby bluff. Visualizing danger to livestock Ronald hurried home and enlisted the aid of his dad. Mr. Lowry Sr. armed himself with a .22 rifle and Ron took a shotgun and also took the family dog, a big black Labrador. The dog soon picked up the bear's scent and went tracing it with black animal. Mr. Lowry circled the bluff one way while Ronald travelled cautiously around the other side, the idea being to get a shot at the bear as it was chased and driven from cover by the dog. It soon became evident from the rising treeolo of the barking and the sounds of the animal travelling in the underbrush, that the Lab had found the bear. With the latter's instinctive urge of dogs he was running as he had never run before. He however, in his haste, changed his direction and crashed out of the bush into a little clearing within 10 feet of Ronald and running directly at the young man. Mostly from instinct Ron fired his shotgun and from the hip, luckily scoring a bulls-eye, the charge striking the bear full in the chest. The animal only veered slightly, passed within four feet of Ronald, and travelled 113 feet before dropping dead. Later when it was skinned 27 of the pellets from the shotgun were found imbedded in the hide while others had passed right through that organ.

The bear measured 2 feet 7 inches high at the shoulder and was 4½ feet long. It was thin and weighed only 300 pounds. Those versed in bear lore said that his normal weight should be about 300 pounds and that he was three years old.

Skins of course are very rare south of the North Saskatchewan River in this part of Alberta, where the animal could have come from and what made it wander southward to its death will remain a mystery. This bear had apparently created being seen as no reports of it had previously been made.

All of which makes one think that the wilds are not so far removed from the edge of the wilds after all.



Ronald Lowry who shot the strange visitor to the well settled area near Marwayne and his brother, 1½ year old Dougie also gets into the picture with a Doug now relieves bear stories.

"The bear was brought back to the farmyard and skinned. Here it is shown hanging from the truck. It measured 4 feet 7 inches in length and was 2 feet 7 inches high at the shoulder.

AIR CADETS ENJOYING ABBOTSFORD, B.C. CAMP

Just as the Standard goes to press a wire was received from Air Cadet officers at Abbotsford that the No. 97 Squadron, Vermilion Air Cadets would arrive at Vermilion via C.N.R. on Monday morning Aug. 17 at 3-25. Parents wishing to meet the boys should note this.

Early Saturday morning Aug. 1, 31 Air Cadets of Vermilion squadron No. 97 clad in full uniform, fell in on the platform of the local Canadian National station, and received a briefing from their officer in charge, A. E. Moore. The boys then marched to a sleeping car awaiting them on a side track and were allotted their berths. Later the cars was picked up by the regular C.N. train and the first step of the trip to the air cadet summer camp at Abbotsford had commenced.

The train arrived in Edmonton at 6 a.m. and the boys then transferred to the C.P.R. where they boarded the Air Cadet Special. The Cadets who were under the watchful eyes of officers Bert Moore and Angus Smith, found the C.P.R. meals excellent and porter service very good. The route was from Edmonton to Calgary, then to Abbotsford via Banff. The scenery once in the mountains, occupied the boys' attention, as tunnels covered a great oddity to most of them. Abbotsford was reached at 6 p.m. Sunday Aug. 2.

On Tuesday Aug. 3 Mr. Moore took them to Harrison Hot Springs and a wonderful time was enjoyed by all. Harrison Hot Springs is over 80 miles from the camp. On the day following a tour was made into Vancouver to see the stock car races and the boys thought these quite exciting and well worth seeing although as one stated, "there were only 16 crashes".

The Vermilion boys had already enjoyed two flights in the first two days at camp. They have chance every day as well. At time of writing eliminations were being held for the inter-provincial sports meet, ie 610 Cadets from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and B.C. are in attendance at this third and last camp for the summer. It appeared that some of the Vermilion boys might make the Alberta team and field team, and the softball nine.

A 48 hour pass was in the offing for the week end (Aug. 8 and 9) and those with relatives or friends in Vancouver planned to spend it there

Mr. Moore states that the boys are being well looked after and doing nicely in all activities.

As noted at the start of this story, the Cadets will return to Vermilion on the regular C.N.R. train at 3-25 Monday morning.

BRUNSWICK HOTEL SOLD
NEW OWNERS HOLD PUBLIC RECEPTION
The Brunswick hotel has recently changed hands, being sold to a partnership comprised of Mr. Steve Onusko and Andrew Onusko and Mr. Fred Zurch. All of the new owners are active in the management and conduction of the hotel, and as such will reside in town. They are all married and Mr. Steve Onusko has already taken up residence in the Neil MacKay house in the west end of Vermilion recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Helmer
The public is to become acquainted with their fellow business men, the new owners held an open reception in the Legion hall on Wednesday evening where they were introduced to the gathering by the former owner, Mr. Joe Kleczor.
Mr. Kevin Chalmers, president of the Board of Trade extended a warm welcome to the newcomers and expressed the thanks of all present for the very generous action in holding the social evening. Mr. Steve Onusko replied on behalf of the partnership, welcoming all to the reception and stating that he and his partners were already pleasantly impressed with Vermilion and looked forward with keen anticipation to living here.

Horticultural Shows

August is the month when horticulturists like to show off their produce. The competitive spirit at these horticultural shows is responsible for much improvement in the quality of our garden crops.

If you are planning to exhibit in the annual flower show on Aug. 20 you should obtain a copy of the rules and regulations of the show along with the prize list. Read it very carefully for date and time, deadline for exhibits to be in, time of judging, and disqualifications. If the list calls for 6 carrots, long type, don't put in 5 or 7. This could mean the disqualifying of the exhibit. Having the exhibits prepared and in well ahead of the time for judging greatly assists the judge.

Local committees spend a lot of time and effort in planning and arranging these shows, so plan to help to support the local show. The more enjoy the more gratifying to the committees.

Remember the date of the Vermilion Horticultural Society's annual flower and vegetable show, Thursday, Aug. 20.

Crop Inventory

A very timely suggestion comes from A. M. Wilson, Field Crops Commissioner, Alberta Department of Agriculture. This is a good season to check fields for weeds and impurities, mixed grains and mixed varieties, he says. Perennial weeds should be cut or hand pulled. Time spent in prevention now may mean a great deal of time saved in eradicating infestations later.

A crop of mixed grains is not the most desirable crop nor is a crop of mixed varieties. A field inventory taken at this time of year is not only good business but it is a sound farming practice in determining the suitability of this crop for next year's seed.

NEWS from ISLAY

Services have re-commenced in the United church following the hall day. Though it was a very rainy afternoon on Sunday a fair number attended. Mr. Lee are holding invited to take part in these services.

The W.A. which was held at Mrs. Dave McFadyen's had 13 present, although a number were on holidays. It was decided to hold our annual W.M.S. Rally Sept. 16. Note the change of day and date, Wednesday at 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Armstrong who have been visiting at the McEachern home for the past ten days returned to Smooth Rock Falls on Wednesday.

Albert Van den Dolder is busy cleaning up his garage which was blown down in the windstorm of July 14.

Russell Buchanan is about to haw away the sled which was part of the Dupuit house. We noticed Russell's father there, looked as if he were supervising the work.

Mr. Anderson, Ralph and Bessie have returned from a trip to Manitoba.

Mrs. Hilda Bell and the girls have returned from Edmonton and Shirley Bootman came with them.

Mrs. Buchanan and family are spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Buchanan.

Historical Spots In Europe Visited

The series entitled "Our Letter from England" was interrupted by the return of the author, Mrs. Mead, to Vermilion. As we have several more interesting stories of trips on the continent and visits to famous sights, an instalment will be run each week until the story is completed.

The approach to the Castle of Verdun was through several miles of cobblestone with buildings forming a semi-circle around it. One passes through several enormous rooms, many of them with paintings by famous artists. The hand re-people covering the walls and ceilings. These rooms all look out on very beautiful grounds, reputed to be the loveliest formal gardens in all Europe. Their beauty is enhanced by the bathing pools and a long stretch of water flanked by trees and flowers. There is a lovely chapel with a balcony looking down on an altar and pipe organ heavily embossed in gold. The state rooms have a great deal more gold than any we have ever seen, and where the English castles have beautiful wood, these have marble. Long corridors are almost completely lined with mirrors that are hinged like immense doors. Some rooms have figures, busts and huge decorations, all of gold. There is very little furniture in the castle at the present time, in the sections open to the public at least, thus detracting from the attraction. Leaving the castle we passed through a room where the walls and ceilings and the stairway are entirely made of marble in all shades.

Back in Paris we stopped at a tea shop across from the Verdin hotel and had imported sandwiches and French pastries with our tea. Apparently our type of bread is not made in France, nor sandwiches like ours, as we were told we had the last of the 'imported ones'. Uhm, they were good to us!

In the evening we were guests of friends of Bert and Ricki, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Scully. Mr. Scully is the Trade and Commerce Attache to the Canadian Ambassador in France. These very fine people took us to dinner in a quaint little candlelit restaurant where we really had Parisian atmosphere as well as food. Again the dogs were plentiful and coming downstairs in the dim light of course I had to step on one. It howled and I shrieked. I don't know which was the more startled! Afterwards the Scullys drove us all around Paris to see the night life. It is terrific really. One can scarcely imagine so much roving humanity. Pigalle and the Latin Quarters were seething with gay people. The illuminated Arch de Triomphe and the Eiffel Tower at its setting of parks are really magnificent at night. At Notre Dame we stopped to examine the flying buttresses that hold the structure in place.

Arriving back at the hotel the French maid who had stayed with the boys told us they had an interesting time together as Richard had an English-French book. It is remarkable how quickly children pick up bits of a foreign language. Michael aired his small French vocabulary on every possible occasion after that.

When we left Paris we passed the Madeleine Church, a massive structure of Greek architecture, and the Opera House which also was very impressive. On the way to Meaux we had some difficulty in finding a place with food the boys could eat. We were tired and unwilling for them to drink we were offered beer, but managed to procure something similar to orange crush. Leaving there we crossed the River Marne and entered a country much like Alberta. The soil felt good, more like Canada and the fields of wheat, oats and barley could have been around Dewberry. The country was like this until we came to L'Argonne, where it became hilly and miniature mountains appeared. At Verdun we stopped at a cemetery where there were over 4000 graves of French who died in the first war, and over 1000 Germans, side by side. The caretaker noticed our surnames and came over. I asked, 'Canadien?'. He replied 'Mais Oui, blanc, blanc', and pointed to eight white tombstones with R.C.A.F. crests on them. I remember the names of two of them, Ripley and Baggs. These boys of the second great war were around 20 years of age. I leaned down to pick a rose and the caretaker picked a branch of red roses and handed to me. These I have pressed. From Verdun to Metz and in fact into Luxembourg the evidence of street fight ting and bombing is appalling. The houses, made of stone and plastered over, had been riddled by rifles and machine guns. They all have heavy shutters to close out all light, in fact those being built now are having metal shutters put on them. Along the roadside there are graves, monuments and barbed wire entanglements as well as the ditches used in the war. In places the fields are red with poppies.

Letters to the Editor

August, 6th, 1953.

The Canadian Red Cross Society, Toronto, Ont.

Dear Editor:

At this date it is still impossible to state the success of the 1953 Canadian Red Cross appeal, but there is a possibility that when final returns are tabulated it will be the most successful of recent years.

The support of the weekly press of Canada in the recent campaign was gratifying and I want you to be sure that your interest in Red Cross has had a most influential effect on our success.

Your invaluable assistance throughout the year was recently recognized by Central Council, the highest governing body, which passed a unanimous resolution thanking the weekly press for its valuable co-operation.

On behalf of the Society I wish to assure you that your co-operation is sincerely appreciated.

Yours very truly,

H. H. Rimmer, Chairman,
National Publicity Committee

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Aug. 13, 1937

T. E. Creighton of the high school staff was granted his release as he had been offered the assistant principalship of the Camrose high.

Rainfall for July was 2.19 inches. Progress in cutting operations has been reported from all districts with difficulties being met due to the short straw, uneven stand and heavy growth of pig weed.

The completion of the fine new barn of Mr. Al Bancroft's near Islay was celebrated with a dance.

T. W. Peage was the minister in charge of the Islay Anglican field.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Aug. 14, 1921

Miss Bessie K. Fraser was appointed as language teacher on the high school staff. She replaces Miss Georgina Thompson who has been engaged to teach at the Crescent Heights high school in Calgary.

Reginald Wood attained the rank of King's Scout, the first to do so in Vermilion for many years.

Vermilion Valley M. D. council met in those days was composed of Norman McInnes, H. J. Ronaghan, Chas. Haylock, E. Maire and F. E. Cameron.

Allandale Notes

No complaints about dry weather. The heavy showers have been coming steadily, also cool cloudy days.

Holidaying at the O'Fee home from Bawlf for the past three weeks are Mrs. Gordon Mayhew (Anna) and family, Kay, Judy, Brian and Wanda. Gail Hanson who lost her mother in June is also with them. Brian is 5 years old and has won prizes for singing, he has a sweet voice. His favorite song is "I'm a Lonely Little Robin". Elinor Mayhew, the oldest daughter is spending a week at Olds school of agriculture. She plans to visit her Grampa and Uncle Johnny later. Auntie O'Fee who stays with Anna is along with the family. She will be 80 her next birthday and is very active and enjoys picking berries.

In the early morning of the 27th from V - ams Lake, Mrs. Steward (Claire) and family, Rosaleen, Catherine and Anthony, and Mrs. Liam O'Fee (Betty) and family, Mary and Sheila, arrived at the O'Fee home for a three weeks holiday.

I saw a humming bird for the first time early one morning while in the garden, hearing a fluttering noise I looked up and saw the sweetest wee bird close by. It was amazing to watch it feed from the flowers and never light.

It was a pleasure to attend the Campbell - Wood wedding at the home of George Mead on the afternoon of July 28. It was the first meeting I had attended and found it very interesting and enlightening. An opportunity too, to visit with your neighbors at lunch time.

We are sorry Bill Cross had the misfortune to break his hand recently while fixing the telephone line by his place. He was at the top of a pole when it broke and fell over on him.

Mrs. Gertie Swanson of Elk Point stopped at Allandale on her way home from visiting her daughter Florence and Raymond of Lashburn. The sympathy of all go to them in their recent bereavement on the death of their youngest son Raymond when he was killed in an explosion in a garage at Wells, B.C. on Aug. 3. Mr. and Mrs. William Mayers took Mrs. Swanson home.

The King's Man, at Clandonald in the Orange hall at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 16. Come and bring your family and friends to an hour of beautiful color and authentic sound from our Mission field in Angola.

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Lawrence Magistad and family and relatives in their recent bereavement. Though the day was wet there was a large attendance at the funeral. Brother Martin and family and relatives from Ardmore were able to come. Sister Ann from South Dakota couldn't make connections to be at the funeral but was coming to visit. There's always to-morrow, with its promise of better things. Let us think then of death as but one more to-morrow, filled with infinite promise and fulfilment.

Sorry we are late with some of our news but with the heavy showers the roads were impassable.

The evening of Aug. 6th the new members and Mr. Jack Cross of the phone line gathered at the Cross home to discuss phone matters and to get better acquainted with the ways of the system. The wire is being stretched and before too long should be connected. We are grateful to those who helped in any way.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson of Vancouver, B.C. are visiting at the Throndson home and calling on the rest of the Nelson family. We know this family at Vilna when we were children. Eight years ago they owned and moved to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Armstrong have their daughter and family Mrs. Myrtle Anderson from Lloydminster and Mrs. Violet Dwyer from the city visiting at home.

Closing Thought: Those who expect to reap the blessings of democracy must, like men, undergo the fatigues of supporting it.

Ready...willing...and POWERED to steal your heart!

Look at Mercury—so brilliantly styled, so in tune with the times. Drive Mercury. Starting . . . you'll sense superb command, as ever willing, smooth V-8 power seeks to do your bidding—so steady going—so economical. Mercury Power Steering* takes over the work of steering. Mercury Merc-O-Matic Drive* adds to your pleasure with the smoothest driving ever. Mercury Power Brakes* assure smooth, straight line stopping with half the effort.

Road Test Mercury—its sheer performance, easier handling, smoother riding and safer stopping will win your approval, too. After a Road Test, you'll agree the NEW Mercury is the greatest yet—so ready, so willing and powered to steal your heart.

Mercury POWER STEERING now available on all models. Keeps the vital feel-of-the-road—you know you're in full command of the car. When more than fingertip pressure is needed, hydraulic "muscles" take over, make steering 5 times easier. Lets you park in the tight spots with ease.

All-new optional POWER BRAKES require little more than fingertip pressure. The gas and weight of your foot holds car on a hill. Straight line stopping is up to 50% easier—faster, too. Shorter, closer pedal permits quicker changing. Lets you pedal to brake—cuts reaction time.

There's no clutch—no gear shifting—Merc-O-Matic is fully automatic. Just step on gas, set lever and step on gas. It gives instant, smooth power response. There's automatic downshift for hill climbing. There's positive, safe control on curves. Merc-O-Matic Drive is available on all models.

*Optional at extra cost.

3-WAY CHOICE IN TRANSMISSIONS: Merc-O-Matic Drive, greatest of all automatic transmissions; or Ford-O-Matic Drive (both optional on all models); or Silent-Ease Synchromesh Standard Transmission.

Overwhelming Favorite

BOB FAIR

Robert Fair of Vermilion who proved the overwhelming favorite in Monday's election and was returned to the House of Commons for his fifth consecutive term. Bob had a majority over the combined totals of the four other candidates, all of whom lose their deposits.

Wildmere Winks

The community extends its heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Semeniuk and family on the loss of a loving wife and mother. Mrs. Semeniuk passed away after a lingering illness at the early age of 36 years. God be kind to the little motherless family left behind.

Mrs. Alex Smith and little son Scott of Edmonton are here visiting her mother Mrs. Cleland of Auburndale, her brothers, her sister Mrs. Kent of Vermilion, also the Smith family of Wildmere.

On Friday evening Billie and Adam Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cruthers of Wildmere, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of Basswood, visited at the Cleland home. Frank Eyben brought his projector over and Adam was able to see the pictures he has taken with his movie camera. Frank also showed some he had taken. Altogether it was a very pleasant evening. We hope when we get the power in our corner to see the pictures Adam has and maybe Frank will come and show his too.

Dominion election is past history and not much change is seen at Ottawa. Mrs. Guy Whitlock and Mrs. R. Smith were in charge of the voting booth at Basswood.

Owing to our heavy rain Saturday night there was no church on Sunday. Next Sunday service will be at 7:30 again.

Our telephone was out of commission after the storm and the trouble was found in Triangle district where the high wind had broken and flipped a telephone pole over the wire and twisted it.

We wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eyben of Cloverdale, B.C. on the birth of a baby daughter not long ago. Albert lived for a time in our district when his parents Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eyben lived on the Carlson farm. Jenny and Herman now have 3 grandchildren.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Crookes of Airways (nee Mable Lysons) on the birth of a little daughter on the 29th of July. Mable is a Tolland-raised girl.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R. McQuid for a long and happy married life; also to Mr. and Mrs. Cameron (nee Lillian Watson) on their recent marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Whitlock and girls attended their wedding at Lloydminster and also their wedding dance at McLaughlin, Cliff Cruthers taking them by car. Mrs. Whitlock is a sister of Lillian's. Mrs. Willie Clark is also a sister and they too attended the big event.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garnett of Basswood are away by car for a short holiday.

J. G. GARDINER

Retained his seat in the House of Commons after a stiff fight and will probably carry on as Minister of Agriculture.

Variable Weather — Showers Continue

Weather has been variable since last publication day and showers fell each day from Friday through Wednesday. Of the 13 days so far in August it has rained on 7. Total precipitation is now 1.66 inches for the month.

84 was the warmest day, Friday Aug. 7, while this Thursday morning Aug. 13 was low with 46.

V.S.A. Homemakers' Course Includes Typing

As fall approaches many students will be considering further training. The boys and girls interested in farming and homemaking will find the schools of agriculture and home economics the answer.

Hon. D. A. Ure, Minister of Agriculture announced recently that the girls course has been altered somewhat to include typing and training for employment. This change has been made at the suggestion of the Board of Agricultural Education, for the records show that many girls take employment for a few years before marrying and becoming homemakers.

The purpose of the change is not to train fuly qualified stenographers but to help prepare girls for the jobs they do take upon graduation. The main purpose of the course will remain as it has been in the past — homemaking.

The changes in the course will be effective when the schools open on October 20.

50th Anniversary For Weekly Papers

When members of the Alberta division, Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association meet at Banff Sept. 18 and 19, it will be the 50th time Alberta newspapermen and women have gathered at an annual convention.

The records show that the forerunner of the Alberta division CW-NA — [illegible] NA — the B.C.-Alberta Press Association — held its first convention in 1903. The rapid growth of the two provinces saw each form its own weekly newspaper group a few years later as part of a nation-wide association and the Alberta division now has about 70 publisher-members. Most of the pioneer publishers of the early 1900's have died, but the sons of many of them are now carrying on the traditions established by their fathers.

Instructive clinics and talks are being planned to make the Banff convention in September profitable as well as pleasurable, and convention chairman Hal Martin of the Westlock Witness anticipates a record attendance at the 50th annual gathering.

Bert Ford of the Lacombe Globe is president of the Alberta weekly group and Ken Patrige of the Camrose Canadian is secretary.

In the 1951-52 season 42,654 skunk pelts worth about $1.30 each, were exported from Canada.

Any way you look at it

Wildmere W. I. Notes

The W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Cliff Cruthers on Wednesday, Aug. 5th with 8 members and one visitor, Miss Horning, present. The meeting opened with O Canada and the Creed. Owing to the secretary, Mrs. W. T. Garnett being absent, Mrs. Gibson took the minutes of the meeting. Roll call, ways of spending leisure time, and farm women haven't much leisure time, presented many and varied suggestions. Our project dues of the month to the Arthritis and Rheumatism fund were paid. Those who were absent and who did not send their dues will pay in September. The treasurer was also absent so there was no report. Correspondence re duties of Standing committees, and a letter from Arthritis Society telling of the opening of a building in Calgary for the treatment of this dread disease. Mrs. Wallington read a letter from our pen link with the Quinton W.I. in England. There were also clippings of members' homes and two books on the Coronation from the same W.I.

No sick report this month. Anyone wanting to donate memorials, etc., to the Cancer fund, Mrs. T. Gibson will be only too glad to take them. Our September project is a subscription to Wee Wisdom for the school. Mrs. Guy Whitlock gave her report on the Constituency Conference which was very interesting. Mrs. R. Martin gave a report on her trip to the W.I. Girls' Club convention at Olds last week at which Margaret Whitlock got second prize on her story of the 'Redwood'. She received a lovely crochet purse. Doreen Martin and Mary Gibson then spoke on things they did at Olds and showed the purse they made while there. Their reports were very interesting and they certainly enjoyed their trip. Mrs. Martin got a supervisor's award certificate for being a supervisor for 4 years.

Mrs. Guy Whitlock won Johnny Jump Up. Social was by Mrs. Whitlock, a 'memory test'. Mrs. J. Wilson was the winner. The meeting closed with God Save the Queen. Mrs. Cruthers and helpers then served a tasty lunch. Next meeting will be at Mrs. David Dibben's on Sept. 2. Roll call — Safety Hint; Topic by Mrs. R. Smith.

Mrs. N. Cleveland of Calgary and Miss Eleanor Jory of Edmonton have been holidaying for the past two weeks at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jory.

Sandy Watt drops the editor a line from aboard the Cunard liner 'Samaria', dated at sea Aug 5th. Sandy says "We have had a very enjoyable trip so far. We stayed off at Edmonton, Red Deer, Calgary, Montreal and Quebec and enjoyed some side trips at the last two points. The weather has been lovely on the whole though we have had some fog these last three days. The sea has been nearly as smooth as the new Vermilion Lake and hardly anyone has been seasick on board. Just now we are passing Land's End on the south-west coast of England and are beginning to head over to Le Havre in France where we are supposed to dock about 4 a.m. tomorrow. Then we go to Southampton and should be in London Thursday night about 10 for the real start of our holidays. After a few weeks in Scotland and England we hope to go over to Paris and go as far south as Monte Carlo, and, if funds permit after visiting there, we may go to Italy and Switzerland. However we might be broke before we get that far. Remember us kindly to all our friends either by word of mouth or through the columns of the Standard, and we shall both be anxious to meet you all again on our return."

The many friends here of Mrs. Kathleen L. Lambert of Toronto will be pleased to learn that she plans to sail Aug. 14th on board the Empress of France for a two months visit to England. Mrs. Lambert has had her daughter Mrs. Ronnie Linsdell and two boys from Edmonton visiting her for the past month.

Mannville & District LOCALS

Mrs. Horkstra of Washington has been visiting with her sister Mrs. Jack Bryden for a few weeks.

Holidaying in the States are Mrs. C. Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. S. McGreevey and Mrs. B. Arnold and Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Herringa and family of Edmonton were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Osborn and Heather were visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Osborn for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Peddie and two children, Brian and Carol of Wartime, Sask., were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Geo. Whitson. Mrs. Peddie is a niece of Mrs. Whitson's.

Visiting with Mrs. M. Plishka last week were her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Laight and two children of Hobbema. Mr. Laight is the Indian agent at Hobbema.

Mrs. Mac Smith is helping at Melnychuk Bros. while Mr. R. Melnychuk and F. Otto are on holidays.

Mrs. Anne Semeniuk, wife of Harry Semeniuk, passed away on Tuesday, Aug. 4. She leaves to mourn her husband and four children, two boys and two girls. The funeral was held from the United church in Vermilion on Friday, Aug. 7th.

Birch Creek W.I. picnic was held on Wednesday, Aug. 5 at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Whitson for the W.I. members and their families. The weather was fine and a good time was had by all those present. Mrs. Olsonberg, a member who is leaving for Edmonton, was presented with a W.I. spoon by Mrs. Rutherford on behalf of Birch W.I.

Mrs. Bill Mercer is a patient in the local hospital, having had the misfortune of tearing the ligaments in her left shoulder on Friday in a hay field accident.

Wildmere Beavers Girls' Club

The meeting of the Wildmere Beavers was held at the home of Marlene Smith on Aug. 8. There were 13 members present and two visitors. The meeting was opened by singing O Canada and repeating the Code, and then salute to the flag.

Roll call was well answered by a hint on good grooming, along with a penny for each inch of your foot.

The minutes were read and declared approved. Two little songs called Peter Rabbit and Smile Awhile were enjoyed by all the group.

Mary Gibson, assisted by Doreen Martin, read the report of the Olds convention which they attended recently. Mary Gibson moved the adoption of her report, seconded by Doreen Martin. Doreen then gave a demonstration on making a hand bag and Mary Gibson told how to make vanilla cookies.

A motion to send $1 to a blind girl in a Calgary hospital was made by Doreen Martin, seconded by Janet Cruthers and carried, with all in favor.

The mystery box was won by Janet Cruthers. This proved to be a polka dot apron. Two songs, 'Ears Hang Low' and 'Ham and Eggs' were sung and well enjoyed.

The meeting was adjourned by Marie, seconded by Marlene, and the singing of God Save the Queen.

A very tasty lunch was then served.

R.C.A.F. Band At Elk Island Park

By the kind permission of Air Commodore Coleman, C.D., Air Officer Commanding, Tactical Air Command, the internationally known R.C.A.F. band will provide the afternoon concert at Elk Island Park on Sunday Aug. 16 at 3 p.m.

The 42 piece band, under the direction of F.O. L. D. Corcoran for the last two and a half years, has played a continuous series of engagements in Canada and the U.S. since its organization in 1947, and park visitors are assured of a top notch program of band selections from one of Canada's outstanding military bands.

A program of recorded music will be given during the supper period and in the evening a program of travel films will be presented by the National Film Board.

Pleasant Valley

Another wet Sunday, a depressing downpour which dampened the air and spirits of picnickers.

Margaret Minard returned to Grimshaw on Wednesday. Her sister Doris and mother Mrs. Giles motored to Edmonton with her, returning home the same night.

Laura and children returned to Lac la Biche on Saturday, Marvin and Sylvia taking them to Vegreville. They were visitors at the writer's home. On Friday they called at Chrisnie's. Mrs. Potvin, Mrs. French and the girls from the east were also visitors at the home of the writer on Friday. Tuesday night they were supper guests at the [illegible] home.

Mrs. Potvin had her sister from from Edmonton over the week end.

We hear the lights are expected to be turned on about September which is earlier than expected. A carload of poles arrived and all the land has been staked by the surveyors.

There are a lot of Saskatoons this year. Real nice ones too, since the rain. I hope you filled your pails folks.

August is a lovely month with all the beauty and a hint of departure. Everyone is looking heavenward, watching the moon and hoping the ripening grain will miss the killing frost.

Mr. Jones, hurry and get that paint on your house before it freezes in the can.

Mrs. Gillies and Betty returned home from Edmonton on Monday.

Christie, you will be able to haul a lot of pigs in that big truck but I don't know you when you pass by — is it painted green?

The Robert Bopp home certainly looks nice from the road. I like the low roof, Betty — happy days.

ETHELWYN NEWS

Thanks of the community go to Miss Haggart and Rev. Mr. Clennett and their willing helpers for conducting the vacation school. 30 boys and girls attended and accomplished an amazing amount of work.

On July 26 following the evening services the teachers and children entertained parents and friends in the public school with a short program and display of work. A very pleasant social hour was enjoyed being completed by lunch served by the children.

The United Church W.A. met at the home of Mrs. Cooper with 9 member and 5 guests present. Miss Haggart gave a very interesting talk on the St. Lawrence River and the Thousand Islands.

Mrs. Hohol, a departing member of the W.A. was presented with a cake box from fellow members.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Feenstra on Sept. 2 in the afternoon.

Several windows in the church were broken by the big storm of July 14. Thanks to Mr. Goddard and Mr. De Younge these have all been repaired.

Merle Currie Weds Arnold Vincett

Wednesday, July 22 was the date chosen by Merle Joyce Currie for her marriage to Arnold Edward Vincett of Galahad, Alberta. The ceremony was performed in the First Baptist church, Yorkton, Sask., with Rev. J. E. Jones officiating. Baskets of delphiniums, peonies and mixed flowers graced the church for the occasion.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Currie of Yorkton, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Vincett of Consort, Alberta.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a cocktail-length gown of nylon net and lace over satin. The gown was styled with a strapless bodice complemented by a net bolero with lily-point sleeves. A feature of the bolero was a scalloped lace cape effect which tapered gracefully to the front and back. The bouffant skirt had a dainty edging of appliqued lace. A finger-tip veil of illusion net misted from a Juliet cap studded with pearls. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of red roses and carnations.

Mrs. D. L. McDonald of Edmonton attended her sister as matron of honor. She looked lovely in a cocktail-length gown of champagne lace and net over taffeta. The soft fullness of the skirt emphasized the slender waist of the fitted bodice which had an off the shoulder neckline. With it she wore a fitted hat of vivid blue feathers with a whisper veil and matching gloves. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Attending the groom as best man was Mr. Gerald Lamson, cousin of the bride. Ushers were Mr. Stewart Legary, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Henry Gibney.

During the ceremony Mr. [illegible] Berry presided at the organ and soloist was Mrs. Betty Berry who sang "Bless This House" and "I'll Walk Beside You".

At the reception which followed at the bride's home, the bridal couple and their mothers received the guests. White tapers and bud vases of blue bells decorated the tables, and the bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a vase of blue bells and banked with white tulle strewn with blue bells. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. S. B. Caskey, uncle of the bride and ably responded to by the groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Currie chose a two-piece mauve crepe dress with matching hat and white accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. The groom's mother wore dusky rose crepe over taffeta with navy accessories and white carnations en corsage.

Miss Judy Legary was in charge of the register and Miss June Harper had charge of the gift room. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. A. Legary and E. Lamson. Mrs. G. E. Lamson was in charge of the serving and serviteurs were Mesdames S. Legary and Albert Legary, and Misses Kae Best, Pat Middleton, Kay Border and Virginia Middleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincett will make their new home at Galahad, Alta.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. A. Legary, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Legary and Judy, Mrs. Albert Legary and [illegible] of [illegible] Mound, Man. Mrs. E. Vincett and Lillian of Consort, Mr. S. B. Caskey and Mrs. J. Joslyn of Melfort, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin and family of Porcupine Plain, Sask., Miss Kae Best and Mrs. D. L. McDonald of Edmonton, Miss Pat Middleton of Battleford and Miss Virginia Middleton of Saltcoats. — Yorkton Enterprise

Health Unit Notes

Immunization of children is an important safeguard against disease and should not be neglected. At present it is possible to protect a child against diphtheria, whooping cough and Tetanus, and all in the one series of injections. The first dose should be given when baby is 5 or 6 months old. Usually [illegible] tions are given at monthly intervals followed by a pause of four [illegible] and then another injection. Immunity takes some weeks to [illegible] hence this carefully [illegible] schedule.

It is felt that smallpox [illegible] kept at bay completely if [illegible] is vaccinated. It is [illegible] serious disease and we are [illegible] in having a defence [illegible] but its worst effects. The first vaccination should be done when baby is three months old. It is surprising how little upset follows when it is done at this age.

The only sure protection against measles is to have an attack but we can now modify the severity of the illness with an injection of Gamma Globulin without in any way altering the subsequent life long immunity to the disease. It is particularly important that children under two years should be given this injection after they have been exposed and before they become actually ill. Measles is quite a serious disease at this age. Unfortunately Gamma Globulin has only an effect for a very short time and therefore can not be given as a routine matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wetchsth. Dennie and Callie of Moniter were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Storms last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hite and family of Wetaskiwin spent the last week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. Stoddart and Mr. and Mrs. H. Hodgins.

Mr. John Hite of Edmonton who met with an accident recently is recovering at the home of his daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. H. Hodgins.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoskins left for a trip to Vancouver and other B.C. points on Monday afternoon where they will spend their vacation.

Mrs. Frank Smith of Toronto who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith left for her home Thursday.

Miss Muriel Matheson of the University hospital staff of Edmonton spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Matheson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolcove now of Edmonton last former oldtimers of the P.V. district, were down for a few days during the week.

Mr. T. H. Rayner has been a busy man moving his house onto the chambers lot. However with lots of help he has got it on the foundations.

Miss Joyce Adams returned on Sunday. She attended the young peoples' camp at Manitou Lake from the 19th to 26th of July and the following week was a counsellor for the children's camp.

Mr. Russel Thompson of Victoria, B.C. is visiting R. W. Adams and other relatives in town and district

Mr. Frank Hall arrived home on Thursday's train after spending a short holiday in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Knorr have left on their annual vacation during which they will visit Banff and other points in B.C. and the U.S. for the next two weeks.

Mrs. Wm. Dunn is visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allan of the Vanesti district for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Rattan had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Warm and Mr. and Mrs. H. Swatz of Detroit, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Rosenorn of Mannville recently.

At the time of writing the weather has been ideal for the crop. What we need and must have if the crop is to ripen is a good spell of hot weather. We have had plenty of moisture now for this season.

Road work has been going on despite the wet weather. A lot of gravel has been spread and should help out on the roads in the district.

Youngster Outshoots Adults

A 13-year-old Canadian has entered the shooters' hall of fame by winning the gold shield awarded by Dominion Marksmen for a perfect score of 6000 out of 6000.

He is Calvin Scouten of New Westminster, B.C., the youngest Canadian to be presented with this top award. An 'expert's expert', he shot 60 targets, 20 in each of three positions, standing, sitting and prone, without a single miss at the fourth Westminster Rod and Gun Club.

Since the award was established 16 years ago only 75 have won the gold shield out of about 150,000 Canadians who have competed.

An Alaskan Honeymoon

Two big fireplaces lent cheer to the rustic interior. The food was absolutely wonderful and we reveled a little log cabin completely log down in the bed frames and with moose horns hanging over the doorway. The glacier was a fascinating sight — an immobile river of ice wedged between two majestic mountains!

Farther on, the highway crosses the mountains of several mountains, covering fifteen miles of winding road at breathtaking heights and affording some striking panoramic views. On the famous "Sheep Mountain" we were lucky enough to catch glimpses of a few white Dall sheep.

As the highway descended into the long, narrow valley of the Matanuska River, we had a first view of the huge Matanuska Glacier, which is the main headwater source and which imparts the milky color to the river water. There is also an unusual view of the oddly formed rocky dome of the Chester Point, which lies between the highway and the foot of the big Matanuska Glacier. From some angles the silhouette of this great mound of rock resembles a crouching lion or sphinx. Finally the highway emerged on a rise overlooking the Matanuska Valley, and offered our first view of the farms and homes of Alaska's most important agricultural region and the flourishing business centre of Palmer. Here can be found fine healthy dairy herds, livestock and poultry, as well as the wonderful garden and grain crops.

At last we reached Anchorage, population 30,000, with its many modern business apartment buildings and hotels. It is terribly overcrowded with new residents constantly pouring in to dwell on the sea to become a full - fledged metropolis. The climate is supposedly moderate and healthful, averaging 11.6 above zero in January (coldest month) to 57 degrees in July (warmest month) but we found the damp air chilly. It was not on the cool side, and there was an over-abundance of cloudiness and showers during our stay. I was not terribly impressed with the assortment in the stores as far as variety and prices were concerned. We had been warned that some of the "worst people in the world" could be found in Anchorage, and judging from the sidewalk parade that stopper would not be too far from the truth. However I suppose it is typical of any boom town and especially a "frontier city" that all the riff-raff of every dark city will appear. We certainly saw a great variety of rough and tough characters. We saw a good many sheets and were lucky enough to attend a world premiere "The World in His Arms" based on a novel by Rex Beach, a story of early Alaska, therefore Alaska was chosen for the first showing. It starred Gregory Peck and Ann Blyth. The latter appeared in person with a troupe of Hollywood starlets and comedians, and she looks just as good off the screen as on. The main purpose of their stage show was to entertain the troops in the tremendous Anchorage Army and Air Force camps.

We had arrived on Tuesday and we left the following Saturday. I was all set to get snaps and color shots of some of the magnificent scenery on the way back but at an inopportune moment discovered my camera was broken so there were no pictures until Vic bought a new one in Fairbanks. We had planned on using the Richardson highway—a shorter route to Fairbanks given, as we to a new variety of scenery, but it was closed for construction purposes as we had to retrace our steps to Tok and hence along the remainder of the Alaska Highway.

The trip from Tok to Fairbanks was made quickly with very few stops. The beautiful "high-deck" Robertson River bridge was worthy of note — a half million dollar structure, over a typical Alaskan glacial stream. Much equipment was swallowed up by this river during the spring of 1942 when heavy trucks and bulldozers were forced to cross over the river ice, and often broke through.

Milepost 1420.9 marks the spot where in 1926, the original herd of 23 buffalo was set free after being shipped in by the Territorial Government from the National Bison Range in Montana. During the ensuing years the buffalo have thrived and the total number is now estimated to be about 300. Often some of these wild buffalo may be seen between here and the Big Delta Bridge. However, we were not that lucky.

At last we arrived at Milepost 1527, Fairbanks, "The Flaming Heart of Alaska" with a present estimated population of 14,605. It too is undergoing a boom with the ensuing housing shortage. A great future is predicted because of the agricultural and mineral potentialities in the region, and because of the very heavy annual tourist traffic. The climate is typical of interior Alaska, dry and healthful, with temperatures ranging from over 90 degrees in the shade in the summer to 40 occasional 60 below in the winter. After Whitehorse's cool cloudy weather as far as this summer is concerned, and the cool damp sea wind of Anchorage, what a welcome change we found in Fairbanks. To us 75 above seemed hot and for the first time this year I wore rotten shorts. It was not even necessary to wear a coat at night, most of the time of course daylight was absolutely unusual. Fairbanks didn't have the wide streets nor the big city look of Anchorage, but although everything was crowded in together, it seemed more interesting to us. We found it an excellent place to shop with a wonderful assortment of merchandise. We made use of the swimming pool almost every afternoon we were in town.

Bowtell Bulletin

Some of these items may be a little late as ye writer, husband, Beverly and Frances enjoyed a holiday at M. and Mrs. E. Risdale's at Vegreville and up the Alaska highway.

We wish to extend our own and the district's deepest sympathy to the Maagland family in their recent sorrow.

Harold Knutson has a nice new Ford car and Mayberlee spent a few days holidaying at Cold Lake.

The writer was both surprised and pleased to have our old friend adn neighbor, Mrs. N. McClellan, phone her recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker, William, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and Margaret, the Williams family and Mrs. Jenkins were visitors at the Dedelly home Sunday.

Sorry to hear Mrs. Johnson spent a few days in the Lamont hospital.

Since starting these notes the district was saddened by the passing of Mrs. Annie Semeniuk after a short illness from the dreaded cancer. Our own and the district's sympathy go out to the husband, four young children, and her mother and father in their great sorrow. May God comfort them in their hour of need. God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform.

Death and Funeral Of Mrs. Annie Semeniuk

Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Semeniuk, beloved wife of Mr. Harry Semeniuk who passed away at the age of 36 years on Tuesday August 4th at the Vermilion hospital, were held on Friday afternoon August 7th at the United church, Vermilion. Interment followed at the Vermilion cemetery. Miss Hornby officiated.

Mrs. Semeniuk was born at Myrnam and came to live in the Bowtell district in 1945. She passed away following an illness of a few short weeks. She leaves to mourn her loss her sorrowing husband and four children, Paul, Eddie, Elizabeth and Sylvia, and by her father, mother and one brother in Ontario. She was predeceased by 2 brothers some years ago.

The very large attendance at the funeral bore testimony to the esteem and affection felt for the deceased by a wide circle of neighbors, friends and acquaintances

Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung, including "What a Friend We have in Jesus", and "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me".

Beautiful floral tributes were received from

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful tributes received during our sad bereavement. Special thanks to Miss Keith, the nursing staff, Dr Stephens, Dr. Evans, for the kind ness and care given Annie during her illness.

Harry Semeniuk and Mr. and Mrs. Osinchuk.

Ben Hogan To Visit Jasper

JASPER. — Diminutive Ben Hogan, reputedly the world's greatest golfer, will be a guest at Jasper Park Lodge during the latter part of this month.

Accompanied by his wife and 3 other couples, Ben will spend much of his time fishing.

Mr. Hogan, of course, is expected to play several rounds of golf over the championship course at Jasper Park Lodge, home of the famous Totem Pole golf tournament, which is scheduled this year for Sept. 6-12.

It is 1,463 miles by rail from Winnipeg to Vancouver and 2012 miles from Winnipeg to Halifax.

Chatsworth Chatter

Lillian and Orest Misick attended the Boys and Girls' camp held during Fair week and report a most enjoyable time.

Jack Thompson and Murray Mitchell who are now working at Ryerson were home for the week end events.

Mrs. Neil East who had been visiting in Lamerton is now at Mr. and Mrs. I. East's for awhile.

Erbeann settle we are sorry to hear of your decision, and hope that a change in the future you will continue your column.

The July meeting of the Chatsworth Country club was held at the home of Mrs. Burns on the 16th with 12 members and 4 visitors present and 18 children. As this is the annual meeting the election of officers for the year was carried out. Mrs. J. Panter being elected president Mrs. Arthur Tovell, vice-president and Mrs. Albert Tovell, secretary treasurer. Due to the absence of the retiring secretary, Mrs. Lo Kashinsky, the annual report of the activities left until next meeting. Lunch was made from all members were handed out. The social concluded was dispersed with time was short. Winner of the nicke- draw was Miss Milburn. A de- lious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by several of the members. The next meeting is to be held at Mrs. E. East's on Aug. 19 and the lunch committee is Mrs. Matt Farkash, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Panter and Mrs. R. Good.

The windstorm of the 16th of July broke down many of the tall Russian poplar trees at Mr. and Mrs. East's, and also destroyed several fruit and spruce trees.

We extend deepest sympathy to the Reid family on the passing of their mother recently. As Mrs. Reid, she was the postmistress at the Hector post office for years, and was one of the early pioneers of that community. Also to the Robinson family on the passing of Mrs. Webb, we tender sincere sympathy.

Mrs. C. Robson and little sons Vernon and Dickie, left via C.N.R. from Wainwright last Thursday on a visit to Mrs. Robson's mother at Hamilton, Ont.

June and George Henry of Edmonton arrived last week end to spend holidays at the home of the latter's parents, Among others from the city was Mrs. D. Anderson, who is visiting her son Elvin McKeever and Mrs. McKeever of town.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

KEEPING COOKED FOODS SAFE IN SUMMER

During the summer season, cases of food poisoning are frequently reported as an aftermath of picnics or community meals. The mistaken belief that once food is cooked it will keep for hours even in a warm place, seems to be responsible for many of these outbreaks, says Summer, says Mrs. V. G. Macdonald, Director, Home Economics Extension Service, Alberta Department of Agriculture. The safe rule to follow when cooking food for the lucky is "keep it chilled or keep it very hot". Never serve it at room temperature. Foods which cause food poisoning often show no signs of spoilage so don't rely on taste, odor or appearance.

Especially subject to rapid and dangerous spoilage in a warm place are the soft protein foods, particularly those which are handled in preparation. These include soft custards, cream-filled pastries or cakes, deviled, boiled dressings, stuffed eggs or egg salads including potato salads and all cooked meats, poultry and fish. Sandwiches aren't safe in lunch baskets or out on the table, Mrs. Macdonald says.

FREEZE FOODS

Freezing is an excellent method of preserving fresh fruits and vegetables. Because the enzyme that food value is little affected by freezing and the appearance and flavor of frozen foods are almost identical with fresh foods. Surplus fruits and vegetables from the garden may be frozen and preserved for the off-season. Preparing for freezing saves time for less preparation is required than for canning, and frozen vegetables cook in less time than fresh vegetables.

FRUITS — all kinds except pears, which become mushy.

VEGETABLES — All except those which are starchy, such as beans and cucumbers tomatoes, lettuce, celery, onions, cabbage, radishes. Large vegetables such as potatoes and turnips that may be stored in a cool room should be frozen as they take up too much space.

DAIRY — All foods, cake, bread, meats, creamed chicken, soup stock, and pastry can be frozen quite successfully.

PREPARE BY FREEZING

The booklet "Freezer by Freezing" lists the varieties recommended; freezing and cooking and the proper methods of preparing all food products for freezing. Every home freezer should be bulletin as a guide if you rent a locker or have a freezer.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director "The Crop Testing Plan"

THE CROP YEAR

Most industries and businesses use the Calendar Year, that is from January 1st to Dec. 31st as a period for calculating their results. In agriculture, however, with grain at least, the period used is called the Crop Year, that is from Aug. 1st to the next July 31st, for by Aug. 1 the crop harvested the previous fall normally would have been hauled to the elevator, thus the beginning of a new crop would be in preparation.

In a short time then, we shall have available some most important grain statistics about our Crop Year just ended. For instance, the amount hauled to elevators by farmers, the amount still unmarketed on farmers' farms, the amount that was sold for home consumption in Canada, the amount that was sold to the many different countries of the world and the amount of unsold grain carry-over.

These figures should be of interest to all farmers, and are worthy of being clipped and filed for reference, for, together with similar figures from other countries in the world, they will have much to do with governing the price our farmers are likely to receive for the existing 'carry-over' and for the new crop now about to be harvested.

Bring Home Track Trophies, Shooting Honors

Vermilion Air Cadets Best in the West

Vermilion Squadron No. 97 Air Cadets returned to their home squadron camp at Abbotsford, B.C., on Monday morning, after covering themselves with glory and bringing much credit to their officers and to their town.

The Vermilion Squadron seemed to dominate most of the activities despite the fact that there were 614 cadets in camp from the four western provinces.

TWO TEAM TROPHIES TO VERMILION BOYS

Several of the Vermilion boys managed to make places on the Alberta track team for the interprovincial competition. Two grand aggregate trophies were won, one for the senior division 16 years and over and the other for juniors 15 years and under. When the track meet was completed both grand aggregate trophies went to Vermilion Stewart Cooper being the senior champion with 7 out of a possible 9 points, and Bob Hemmingway the junior champion also with 7 points out of 9. The two championships being won by the same squadron set a precedent.

Seventeen Vermilion boys won places in various events but the complete list will not be available until O/C Ben Mayhill returns home the end of this week.

Wally Westman, Gerry Wilmer Win Dodge Car At Viking Jamboree

At last a car from Viking has come to Vermilion and the lucky winners are Wally Westman and Gerald Wilmer who held a joint ticket for a Dodge and won on the 8th one of the ten drawn at the Viking Jamboree on Wednesday evening.

Wally and Gerry attended the Jamboree in the hope that a car advertising late they left after the 7th car was drawn, thinking that their chances were very slim. The move must have been a lucky one for the next ticket pulled from the revolving drum was theirs. Needless to say both the young men are overjoyed at their luck.

This is the third new car to be won in this manner by Vermilion people since last winter. Stan Manyluk started the ball rolling by winning a Ford from Edmonton; L. Miller followed up only last month by purchasing a $1 ticket and bringing home a Pontiac from the Vermilion Kinsmen and now Wally and Gerry get a Dodge.

7 LOCAL BOYS ON RIFLE TEAM

On Wednesday of the second week the rifle team to represent Alberta was picked. This meant elimination trials for the next 12 best shots from the 13 Alberta squadrons in camp. Out of the 12, seven of the team were from the Vermilion No. 97 Squadron, and Alberta had over 200 cadets in camp. According to officers this created an amazing record. Not only that, but of the 12 picked as the six highest were taken as the score and three of these best six were shot by Vermilion boys. The marksmen were Cpl. Stewart Cooper, LAC Doug Brower LAC Ken Shepherd. These three thus qualified for their marksmanship crests.

The other Alberta boys who made the rifle team which represented the province in the inter-provincial competition were Cpl. Fred, Bob Hemmingway, Albert Rosece, Robert Taylor, Alberta's chances rival in the rifle competition was Saskatchewan and in track and field B.C.

Stewart Cooper was the only Vermilion cadet to take the tests for his senior swimmer's certificate and badge, and was successful in passing the variety of swimming and diving tests necessary. The same cadet also made the Alberta Football team and pitched his team to a 30-1 victory in the first game against B.C., but Alberta lost in the final 10-8 to Saskatchewan.

Conducting officer Herb Moore has this to say about the Vermilion boys: "The behaviour, deportment and co-operation of the boys was something wonderful. This was recognized by all in the camp, and the train both porters complimented Mr. Smith and myself on the boys' behaviour. Before leaving camp I received the congratulations of W.C. D. E. Bishop, O.C. of the camp; W.C. A. N. Cryotte chief instructor and Flt.-Lt. Ferguson, A.C.L.O. on the outstanding performances and good behavior of 97 Squadron at camp."

Mr. Moore goes on to say " I can assure you that the boys' parents and the Town of Vermilion can be very proud of these boys of ours. Speaking for myself, it has been a pleasure and a privilege to have conducted these Cadets to Abbotsford. Thanks boys, let's go again next year."

More information regarding the courses taken, bus tours, and work in the camp will be contained in the Standard next week.

In charge of the Vermilion Squadron was O/C Stan Manyluk who made the trip by car, Mr. Angus Smith and Mr. A. E. Moore.

DECORATION DAY PARADE SUNDAY AUGUST 23rd

The Canadian Legion Vermilion Dept. has arranged for a Decoration Day service to be held at the Soldiers' plot in the Vermilion cemetery on Sunday, Aug. 23.

The service will be conducted by Padre Chapman of the Salvation Army and will commence at 3 p.m.

All servicemen are invited to join in the parade wherever they belong to the Legion or not. Francis Martin of Post No. 11 asks for every returned man who can possibly attend to come out on this parade. Also it is one way in which citizens as well as veterans can show their respect for men who died either in service or after they came home. There have been some very large decoration day parades in the past and the Legion members hope that there will be a large gathering again this year.

Legion members who will train portation to the cemetery should be at the Legion hall by 2.30 p.m.

Donations of flowers for placing on the graves can be left at the Legion hall on Saturday.

WORK STARTS ON LIFT STATION

FIRST STEP IN EXTENSION OF WATER & SEWER LINE

The Oilland Construction under the direction of Bernie Ackerman, has now commenced work on the lift station in the southeast corner of town. This is the first step in the extension of the water and sewer lines voted on last spring. Cost of the lines is $60,000.

The extension will service some 70 residences whose homes are already there, and provide for future expansion as they run past a like number of vacant building lots. Already there is a big demand for these lots previously unsaleable and Vermilion's population is expected on as many lots this week alone, on the street just east of Todd Kuehn's home.

The lift station is a concrete tank 21 feet 8 inches in depth, 10 feet wide and 13 feet long. Into this the sewage will flow and by the use of two automatic pumps operated by floats will be lifted from there to Sasamat and thus into present sewer lines to the disposal plant.

BRIDGE HERE NEXT WEEK

The machine for digging actual water an sewer ditches along the lines will arrive by next week end Mr Ackerman states that given normal fall weather the extension will be completed and in full use before this coming winter. At present only a skeleton crew is being used but a full crew will go on when the line digging starts

SIX KILLED IN CAR-TRUCK COLLISION

Edgerton is about 15 miles southeast of Edgerton. Riverdale is about 15 miles north of Edgerton.

Injured in the crash were Mrs. Albert Doolittle of Riverdale mother of the dead baby, and Ed ward Carnegie, of Lloydminster driver of the oil truck.

Warm Weather

Ideal weather for ripening grain has prevailed since Wednesday of last week. There has been a cessation of the rains and the weather has been sunshiny and warm, thus eliminating the likelihood of lodging storms that was prevalent earlier

Crops are ripening nicely with swathing and cutting getting under way

Meanwhile the temperatures have been well in the 80s all this week but forecast is for cooler this week end.

Brilliant Results Attained by V.H.S. Grade 12 Students

Excellent results were attained by the 29 grade 12 students who wrote a total of 133 departmental exam ination papers in June, with only one paper being failed. While there have been some high percentage results achieved in past years at the V. H. S. it is safe to say that this record surpasses all previous efforts

Of the 133 exam papers written, honor marks of 80 or over were obtained on 21 marks from 65 to 79 per cent on 65 papers; 50 to 64 percent on 32 papers. All of the above marks are university matriculation standing. Of the remaining papers 14 were marked from 40 to 49 which gives the student high school diploma standing. Only one paper was a failure getting a 'D' grading and that mark came very close to the classification above it.

This means that the 29 Vermilion high school students had the in-

Now Ready For Volunteer Labor At Curling Rink

ICE CALLED FOR WEDNESDAY, AUG. 26th ALL DAY

The new curling rink in town has now reached the stage where a great amount of volunteer labor can be used to good advantage next Aug. 26, and has been the date set for the first big onslaught on the work.

The excavation has been completed, footings run, and fill is now in the basement ready for the walls. These will be built of the sawdust blocks and a large amount of handling is anticipated. Therefore a very large crew of men can be used all day.

Contractor Rand Calvert who is in charge of construction will be on the job all day long and volunteers can start work in the morning if they so wish ,with others coming later on. It is hoped that enough good day's work has been mapped out by Rand and the rink committee — and all that is needed to make real headway is a gang of 100 volunteer workers. Remember the big date in the spring? Well, if this can be duplicated or bettered it would see a lot of the rink up by evening

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Donald Cameron and Lillian Watson

Bouquets of gladioli and delphiniums graced Knox United Church Lloydminster for the marriage of Lillian Joan daughter of Mrs. R. Watson of The Lea Ter. Ft. and of Hardville Alberta and Donald Cameron son of Mrs. Cameron and the late Mr. A. Cameron of Vancouver B.C.

Rev. Wm. Brown and Rev. Wm. Graham performed the double ring ceremony.

Escorting the church on the arm of his brother, Mr. Frank Watson, the bride looked lovely in a white semi-formal gown of nylon net over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a halo of white lace. A shoulder length cascade of pink and white carnations completed the bridal picture.

The bride was attended by her friend Miss Fae Ann Stewart who chose a gown of mauve nylon net with fitted bodice lovely in a white satin headdress and bouquet of summer flowers.

Mr John Watson and Mr. Daniel Vetsaw were ushers

Wedding music was beautifully rendered by Mrs. King

After the ceremony a reception for 25 guests was held in the banquet room of the Prince Charles hotel The brides table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a small replica beneath an arch of orange blossoms while blue ribbon bow and bell

Toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Mr Brown and fittingly responded to by the groom.

The groom's mother chose a navy blue nylon sheer dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses

Leaving for a honeymoon to Banff, Jasper and surrounding points the bride wore a navy nylon sheer dress with red and white accessories and a corsage of red roses

On their return the happy young couple will reside on the groom's farm at Rivercourse Alberta

Vermilion School Division Has Many Honor Students

IN GRADE 9 PASS LIST

There are many Honor students graduating from grade 9 high school in the Vermilion school division this year. An Honor student is one who obtains an average of 80 or over on the six subjects written.

At Dewberry where the second year class of grade 9 students wrote, 13, there were also 3 honor students, Elaine Muldrew, Eva Sunderland and Phyllis Wilson.

At Marwayne Gordon Giles was in the honors group.

To sum up grade 9 results for the division 142 students wrote, 126 passed the exams, ten with Honors and eight failed.

Official Opening Of Park Cancelled

DUE TO POLIO BAN

Official opening of the new Vermilion River provincial park, which was scheduled for Aug. 19 was cancelled owing to the prevailing ban on gatherings for children 16 years and under as a polio precautionary measure

It is quite possible that an opening will be planned for next year when the summer season rolls around again

"Salome" Here Aug. 24th to 27th

SCREEN EVENT OF GREAT MAGNITUDE

It is a story that the world has waited 2000 years to see, the events at the Calimbia theatre on Monday, Tuesday, Wed nesday, Thursday Aug. 27 inclusive.

Provincial POLIO BAN

Spread of polio in Alberta has forced the Provincial Board of health to exclude all children 16 years old and under from theatres and swimming pools throughout the province. The order became effective at 8 a.m. Aug. 14.

To control the spread of polio parents were advised to keep their children from getting over-tired. Boys and girls should keep out of crowds, avoid swimming and practice careful personal hygiene.

Parents can help check the disease by maintaining high standards of dish washing washing of fruits and vegetables, keeping garbage covered, controlling flies in out-door toilets and postponing operations for the removal of tonsils, adenoids and teeth.

The Board of Health said that early care will often prevent a polio patient from being crippled. Milder cases of polio were best looked after in the home since movement might harm the patient.

Grain Shipments From Vermilion Set New High Mark

LOCAL ELEVATORS FOR THE CROP YEAR

Grain shipments from the five Vermilion elevators for the 1952-53 crop year which closed July 31, set a new high record for this area, a total of all grains shipped out reached 1,494,000 bushels.

Julius Mueller, John Maxwell To Operate New School Bus Routes

Julius Mueller was appointed by the Vegreville School Division to operate the new school bus route from the Crane-Chatsworth school districts into Vermilion commencing with the fall term.

Another new bus route from the Vermilion area to Vermilion will be from King Edward district. John Maxwell has the contract for this run.

Fidelity Church To Be Blessed on Sunday

BISHOP SAVARD WILL OFFICIATE

Blessing of Fidelity church will be conducted by Bishop Neil Savaron on Sunday Aug. 23 at 10 a.m. The service will be followed by a dinner served at the Fidelity school. Everybody in the district welcome to attend. The location of Fidelity is 12 miles north of Claymore.

Lovely Flower Garden At Farm Home Of Mrs. Engelking

The lovely flower garden at the home of Mrs. C. Engelking, northwest of Vermilion has produced some double-rowned dahlias this summer, really beautiful ones and quite an oddity. The blooms are identical and grow from the same stem making two perfect flowers grown together back to back.

Check that date on your label!

Health Unit Notes

POLIOMYELITIS

Although no cases of Poliomyelitis have occurred in this district it is essential that everyone co-operate with the Provincial Government in their efforts to minimize the danger of spread of the disease. A letter addressed to your local Health Board is published in part for your atten tion.

Effective as from 8:00 a.m. Fri day the 14th day of August, 1953, and continuing until countermanded by the Provincial Board of Health, you are hereby enjoined and required to exclude all children of 16 years and under from theatres and swimming pools within your jurisdiction.

Further advice is given as follows:

1. The tired child is much more liable to actual paralysis. Avoid fatigue.

2. Polio is a communicable disease. Avoid crowds

3. Swimming should be avoided because of chilling, fatigue and possible contamination of water

4. Avoid contamination by careful personal hygiene, including washing of hands before meals and after using the toilet.

5. High standards of dish washing washing of fruits and vegetables and prevention of food against flies should be maintained.

6. Keep garbage and waste material covered to avoid attracting flies.

7. Control of sewage should be maintained. Flies in out-door toilets can be controlled by chloride of lime, DDT or ashes, and by proper screening.

8. Where the disease is prevalent, sanitary regulations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids should be avoided. Extraction of teeth should also be postponed if possible.

9. Early care will often prevent or limit crippling

10. Generally speaking, mild cases are best cared for at home. Movement of patients may do harm.

SUMMER VACATIONS

If you're wondering why tourists seem to come in clusters on the highway, the golf courses or at the vacation resorts this time of year, The Financial Post suggests an answer.

More Canadian plants are shutting down for a vacation period, and doing it often by mutual agreement during one period to avoid losses from competition and poor operating efficiency from staggered vacations.

The crucial time seems to be the last two weeks in July and the first two of August.

In a recent survey covering [illegible] manual and clerical workers in industries from coast to coast 36% had shutdown vacations and 11% had them for a two-week period.

Since the end of the war the shutdown, rather than staggered vacations has been a trend.

For the automobile and certain other industries complete shutdown is the only answer to a seasonable business when output must be kept high which is impossible with staggered vacations.

Former Clandonald Man Saves Couple from Bay At Cowichan, B.C.

The Cowichan B.C. Leader carried the following news item in its issue of July 30. Dr Floyd Stanley who grew to manhood in the Clandonald Landonville area will be well remembered here.

Mr and Mrs Harold Kenyon [illegible] were rescued from Cowichan Bay on Saturday evening when their [illegible] outboard motorboat capsized as they were coming into a [illegible].

Dr Floyd Stanley, tying up his boat some 75 yards away, answered their cries for help and pulled them into safety.

Both suffered from shock. They were unable to say exactly how their craft overturned. Mrs Kenyon thought they had struck a submerged pile and had discovered the boat filling up rapidly. "It happened so quickly" she said.

Though the boat and motor were saved all their fishing tackle was lost. I still feel a little nervous but am very grateful to our rescuer," Mrs. Kenyon told The Leader on Tuesday."

PRETTY ANN MARTIN of Montreal takes time out to pose with a seven-foot 9-inch model of a de Havilland jet aircraft which will go into service on Canadian Pacific Airlines' trans-Pacific service this year. Displayed at Windsor Station, Montreal, recently, the $15,000 model has been on tour to Winnipeg, Vancouver and Honolulu in addition to appearing at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto. Of plastic and metal construction, it has a wingspan of 9 feet 7 inches with rubber-tired wheels on a retractable undercarriage which can be operated by hand to fold into the belly of the aircraft. A removable panel in the side displays the interior of the model which consists of crew compartment, showing pilot and co-pilot seat in front of a detailed control panel. The wireless operator's desk and navigator's seats are aligned in one corner with the navigator's working table is shown in the other. The next section shows lounge room. The lounge section which accommodates two sets of four chairs has tables with folding leaves, while the body contains 28 reclining chairs, with the hand luggage rack overhead. The sectional view of the rear compartments discloses ladies' and men's washrooms and the service compartment of the stewardesses, which is located at the rear of the aircraft.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director "The Crop Testing Plan"

Many [illegible] this past crop year. They should be of interest to [illegible] farmers. The [illegible] 65 million [illegible] for the whole of Canada [illegible] for the Prairie [illegible] Farmers delivered [illegible] to the country elevators [illegible] of all grains which included 522 million bushels of wheat. Country elevators and [illegible] delivered to Canadian terminals 32 million bushels of all grains. There were sold overseas [illegible] to the U.S.A. 378 million bushels of all grains which included 361 million bushels of wheat and flour. All this speaks well indeed for the efficiency and enterprise of those who have been concerned with the production, the [illegible] transportation marketing and [illegible] of all these grains.

[illegible] is not so good. The [illegible] carryover of wheat alone at the end of the Crop year is 368 million bushels and it is estimated farmers still have on their farms ready to deliver another 60 million bushels of wheat. These large unsold surpluses will prove to be quite a problem for the Canadian Government and the Wheat Board to handle.

Female Cattle Sale At Lacombe Nov. 6

A fall female sale of the three beef breeds will be held at the Central Alberta Pavilion, Lacombe, on Nov. 6 it was decided at a recent meeting of the central Alberta cattle breeder's association. The sale date is two days following the Red Deer Hereford sale

Many district breeders have been agitating for such a fall sale for the past two or three years and now that facilities have been improved at the Lacombe fair grounds, directors feel that it can be successfully handled this year.

"There will always be a demand for good breeding stock," W. M Campbell, new secretary-treasurer of the cattle breeders association, stated this week. He pointed to the recent Sidney K. Berry sale at Lashburn Sask. earlier this month when cattle sold averaged well over $500 with a top price of $1350.

In preparation for the sale here, association directors will set up facilities to look after loose cattle as it is realized that many of the top females are out in pasture and have not been halter-broken

Entry forms are now being mailed out and all entries to this fall sale must be returned by Sept 28. From enthusiasm for this central Alberta sale already shown by breeders it is expected there will be a large entry

Arrangements have been made to reserve the sales pavilion for another day in case the number of entries necessitate the holding of a two day sale

Our deepest sympathy along with that of the community goes out to the Patterson family in their sudden bereavement. It's times like this that the sympathy of everyone is needed to ease the sorrow of the bereaved.

Mrs. John Wilson has had her mother Mrs. Finlay of Mannville visiting her and on Friday evening they called for a short time at the writer's home. Mrs. Finlay is still quite alert in all but her hearing for a person over 80 years old. It was nice seeing her again.

Diana Smith and Mary Gibson, both of Basswood visited last week with Maureen and Jenny Cruthers. Mr. and Mrs. R. Smith visited at the Cruthers' home Sunday evening and Diana returned home with them.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Cleland and son Willie brought Mrs. Alex Smith and Scott over to visit for a few hours with the Cruthers' family.

Billie and Adam Smith went to Edmonton on Friday by car. Mrs. Alex Smith and Scott returned to their home with them.

Cliff Cruthers spent a couple of days in the Vermilion hospital having X-rays taken. We are pleased to hear that nothing seriously wrong was found.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Weisenberger and son Arthur of Trochu have been visiting at the George Wilson home with Mr and Mrs. Robt. Martin and at Mrs Weisenberger's parents Mr. and Mrs. Proctor of Hindville. Sorry we did not see you folks this time Ethel.

Please note church at Wildmere will be at 3 o'clock this Sunday owing to Miss Horning having to take Rev. MacKay's place in town. There was a nice crowd out on Sunday and it was an interesting sermon Miss Horning gave us. This Sunday will be vacation school service so plan to attend and hear and see the work of the children, done this week at vacation school held at Basswood. Over 20 children are taking part under the supervision of Miss Horning and helpers.

We are pleased to see Roy Walker and Dave Brown able to be out again after their recent serious operations. Both say they are feeling lots better.

A rather freak accident happened to Fred Swan of Optimist district last week. While removing an axe from a wagon it slipped out of his hand and fell, blade edge down, cutting the top of his foot, rubber boot and all. Hope it heals quickly Fred.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallington enjoyed a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fenton of Borradaile on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howard are having a nice home built — you can't recognize the old house at all now.

'Oh my feet are killing me!' — where did we hear that folks?

Alfie Fadden has [illegible] the doctor's care with strained muscles of the stomach. Hope you are soon well again Alfie.

Both Margaret Whitlock and Bobby Graham of Wildmere were successful in passing their grade 9 exams.

Grain Records Set by C.N.R.

WINNIPEG. — The Canadian National Railways established new all-time high records for grain marketing and loading during the 1952-53 crop year, it was announced here last week.

The railway marketed 375,678,000 bushels of grain during the crop year ended July 31, compared with the previous high of [illegible] set in 1951-52.

The cumulative total of all grain loaded amounted to 352,551,000 bus., breaking the 1951-52 record of 313,930,000 bushels.

Number of cars loaded by the CN in the crop year were 184,625, thereby topping the former all-time high of 173,045 set during 1928-29.

The C.N.R. also established new records for grain unloadings at the Lakehead and the ports of Vancouver, New Westminster, Prince Rupert and Churchill.

A total of 140,324 cars were unloaded at the twin city ports of Fort William and Port Arthur, 271 more than in the unprecedented 1923-24 season. However, it was pointed out that although only 271 cars more were unloaded, total bushels unloaded showed an increase of 174,980,331 due to larger cars now in use.

At the three Pacific coast ports, 34,279 cars were unloaded as compared with 30,746 during 1951-52, when the previous high was set. During 1952, a total of 5,072 cars of grain were unloaded by the C. N. R. at the Hudson Bay port of Churchill. The former record of 5,009 cars was set in 1951.

418 Squadron Band At Elk Island Park

By kind permission of Wing Commander A. D. R. Lowe, Officer Commanding the 418 Squadron R.C.A.F. Reserve band will provide a concert at Elk Island park on Sunday, Aug. 23. The band, under the direction of F/O A. E. Burden, is well known to visitors of the park having participated in last season's concert series. At 7.30 p.m. the regular program of travel films will be presented by the National Film Board.

What Do Our Visitors Think of Us?

Accommodation, inadequate: food, fair to good: restaurant service, good: washrooms, poor to fair. prices, fair — that's a sample of the opinions obtained from Alberta visitors in an Alberta Government Travel Bureau survey this year.

The American visitors complained of a lack of accommodation. What there was, they said, ranged from excellent to below average. Service and courtesy in restaurants was approved of, almost unanimously although the quality of the food in may cases seemed doubtful Restaurant washrooms were deplored, as was the cleanliness and ventilation of many cafes. Attendants at service stations are giving from fair to good service, and the tourists' opinion of prices for both food and accommodation covers a wide range

Aside from the beautiful scenery in Alberta which elicited many enthusiastic comments, Mrs. Claire Thomson of the Fort Macleod Tourist Bureau came in for the greatest number of compliments. Her courteous and helpful advice was thoroughly appreciated. The majority of visitors found Albertans friendly the Calgary Stampede exciting and the mountains awe-inspiring. Disappointment in highway conditions was expressed, although there was understanding regarding weather complications. The lack of road signs in Calgary caused concern.

—Tourist Bulletin.

C.N.R. Orders New Equipment

WINNIPEG.—Orders amounting to $9,568,457 for 50 diesel-electric road switching locomotives and 5 air dump cars have been placed by the Canadian National Railways it was announced recently. They bring the total value of rolling stock now on order to $105,948,527.

Film Historic Peak

JASPER. — Although it's not in the script, Mount Edith Cavell, one of the most graceful peaks in Jasper National Park, will be 'shot' and included in the finished production of the technicolor cinemascope "River of No Return" now being filmed in the continent's largest national park.

Director Otto Preminger, interviewed at world-famous Jasper Park Lodge, said he had 'fallen in love' with the grace and beauty of the 10,000 feet of multi-colored rock gleaming ice and snow of Mount Edith Cavell, named for the heroic English nurse of World War 1 fame.

He asked that the original script be re-written to include the mountain in at least one sequence of the picture starring Marilyn Monroe, Robert Mitchum and Rory Calhoun.

The Canadian Pacific Railway's fast freight service between Montreal and Toronto was speeded up recently by the utilization of truck trailers and railway flat cars as shown above. Under the new system shipments are picked up in one city by trucks. The trailers are then loaded on the flat cars from ramps and the tractors detached. After being sped to its destination by an overnight fast merchandise freight train, other tractors are attached to the trailers and the goods delivered to the door of the consignee. Service is speeded by the elimination of handling in freight sheds, damage expected to be minimized and the convenience of pick-up and overnight delivery increased.

If the Montreal-Toronto operations prove successful it is expected that wider application of the service will be made.

Allandale Notes

We're getting a few sunny days, good haying weather which will soon be completed. Harvest has begun in the district.

Dale Fry who is working at Herb McPhee's left last week for a short holiday. He accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John David and son Keith of Streamstown (Herb's sister Edna) to Jasper, Banff and Calgary.

On the evening of Aug. 11 the neighbors gathered at the Sellas Lee home and had a social evening. Their house is being moved to Vermilion shortly. Lunch was served and around midnight all went their way. If we inconvenienced them in any way we are sorry.

Congratulations to Misses Joan Nelson and Bridget Pierce on passing their grade 12, Joan taking it all in one year. They attended the Clandonald high school.

It was a lovely sunny afternoon for the W.A. meeting held at the Armstrong home on Aug .13. We were very pleased to have as visitors Mrs. May Edwards, son Jimmy, Mrs. Mabel Lee and Mr. McBride from town: Mrs. Stella Mayers, Mrs. Hogoboam of Derwent who is visiting with her niece: Mr. and Mrs. Baldock and Mrs. Della Walsh and family, Adele, Doreen and Wayne of Ft. McMurray-Waterways. The outstanding event of the afternoon was when our minister Miss Mary Haggart on behalf of the Allandale W. A. presented Mrs. Erna Armstrong with a life membership certificate and pin in the Allandale United chuch W.A. It was a thrilling moment for our devoted member as it was for us all, and may you be with us many more years. The hostess and helpers served a delicious lunch which all fully enjoyed.

The phone — the 3 miles south yet unfinished. Arnolds, Wilsons and Armstrongs are connected.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baldock and the latter's aunt, Mrs Hogoboam motored to the city Aug 8 to visit with their daughter Beryl and family and son Glen, returning the following Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Throndson took Mr. and Mrs. I. Anderson to Vilna on Aug. 9 returning home the next day They were neighbors years ago there, and now visited with more of the old friends.

Last week end Johnny Nelson, Ralph Strome, Edwin and Alvin Throndson and Orley Omness had an enjoyable day at Moose Lake fishing and picking berries

New Provincial Park

(Taken from Pacific North-West Travel Assoc. Bulletin)

The new Vermilion Provincial Park, to be opened Aug. 19 by Hon. Ivan Casey, Minister of Lands and Forests, promises to become a popular tourist resort. Included in its 1200 acres in the Vermilion River Valley is a lake, formed by the backwater from a Canadian Utilities dam. An artificial beach with bath ing houses, camp sites, camp kitchens and playground equipment assures ideal recreation for both adults and children.

It is likely that the opening day boat races, swimming races, water polo and water skiing will set a precedent for an annual Vermilion Park regatta.

Female Cattle Sale At Lacombe Nov. 6

A fall female sale of the three beef breeds will be held at the Central Alberta Pavillion, Lacombe, on Nov. 6 it was decided at a recent meeting of the central Alberta cattle breeder's association. The sale date is two days following the Red Deer Hereford sale

Many district breeders have been agitating for such a fall sale for the past two or three years and now that facilities have been improved at the Lacombe fair grounds, directors feel that it can be successfully handled this year

"There will always be a demand for good breeding stock," W M Campbell new secretary-treasurer of the cattle breeders' association, stated this week He pointed to the recent Sidney K Berry sale at Lashburn Sask earlier this month when cattle sold averaged well over $500 with a top price of $1350.

In preparation for the sale here, association directors will set up facilities to look after loose cattle, as it is realized that many of the top females are out in pasture and have not been halter-broken.

Entry forms are now being mailed out, and all entries to this fall sale must be returned by Sept 28. From enthusiasm for this central Alberta sale already shown by breeders, it is expected there will be a large entry. Arrangements have been made to reserve the sales pavilion for another day in case the number of entries necessitate the holding of a two day sale. 6-8

A model of the old Town Hall clock tower of Preston, England was a unique Canadian Pacific Express shipment aboard the Empress of France when she docked at Saint John N.B., recently The model, which moved in the custody of Chief Bedroom Steward Wm. C Hartley, (far right), a native of Preston, is now travelling throughout Canada and the U.S., and is being displayed in the city halls of many of the major cities. With it is an illuminated scroll on which all ex-Preston ians are asked to sign their names. The clock tower, carved from the original timbers of the old structure which was destroyed by fire in 1947 is a symbol of the Preston Guild celebrations which, with the exception of the war years, have been held every 20 years for the last 400. They will be held in Preston on Sept. 1st this year and the model of the tower carried an invitation to all old Prestonians to attend. In this picture taken the day the tour started in Liverpool aboard the Empress are, left to right, Cr. J. W. Taylor, mayor of Preston; the town clerk, W. E. Lockley; D. B. Watson, general agent for the CPR at Liverpool and Mr. Hartley.

Office worker hasn't shared in the income pie the way the man in overalls has. The Financial Post reports that figures just released show overage office salary in manufacturing 5% above year earlier, compared to 6.5% increase in plant employees' wage rates. Also less than the increase office workers got the year before: 13%. Highest paid among men are senior office clerks and bookkeepers, who average over $60 a week (Sr. general office clerk, $67.15). Junior clerks, at bottom get about $40. Among women, only secretaries get more than $50. Female junior clerks average $32.30.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS on Cancer

QUESTION: Is there any danger of catching cancer in handling a cancer patient if there is a sore on the hands?

ANSWER: No. Cancer cannot be "caught" as can diseases due to germs. However, good personal hygienic practice dictates that, in handling dressings from an open cancerous ulcer, rubber gloves should be worn or the dressing handled with instruments as are other soiled dressings.

CANADIAN CANCER SOCIETY

CARD OF THANKS

My sincere thanks to all the friends who made enquiries, sent cards, flowers, and visited me, during my stay in the Royal Alexandra hospital, and since my return home. These kind attentions helped me and Mrs. Watts greatly. During my stay at the hospital I had daily visits from the Vermilion girls in training there, and I need not say how much this was appreciated. It is grand to be in one's home town and community.

Thos. Watts.

Rev. Dr. J. N. Morrison, of St. Louis, Missouri, who has been visiting his brother, J. W. G. Morrison and his sister, Mrs. Campbell, the past few days, returned Thursday evening to spend the rest of his vacation with his wife in Minnesota. Mr. Morrison has been pastor of the Curby Memorial Presbyterian church in St. Louis for the past 8 years and visited Vermilion some 25 years ago. To the Standrd he said we had a very nice town indeed and the views of adjoining areas were truly magnificent. He thought we had one of the nicest and best equipped public libraries it had been his pleasure to visit in urban centres on his travels. "It is certainly a credit to your city", he said. Mr. Morrison also remarked on the fine location of the town and the many bright and up-to-date business places.

Mrs. Jim Nicholls and two children Jimmie and Vicky plan to leave via C.N.R. this Sunday night for Hamilton where they will visit the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Martin. Relatives at Dundas and Toronto will also be visited and a day spent at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto.

Twenty-one M.L.A's Tour Nor. Alberta

A group of 21 MLA's returned to their home constituencies enthusiastic over the future of northern Alberta following a four-day bus tour covering more than 1200 road miles of the Peace River country.

Twelve of the group had never seen the north and they were amazed at the agricultural and social development of the northern half of the province. Northern Alberta, they found, begins at Meanook, 12 miles south of Athabasca or 84 miles north of Edmonton which many southern Alberta citizens consider in the north.

The tour was sponsored by the Alberta Department of Agriculture and conducted by Hon. D. A. Ure, Minister of Agriculture, who was assisted by Fred Newcombe, Director of Extension for that department, J. G. Macgregor, chairman of the Alberta Power Commission and an authoritative writer on the history of the Peace River country accompanied the party providing interesting northern lore to the members.

Purpose of the trip was to familiarize the legislators with the Peace River country and to enable them to learn of local problems by informal discussions with local citizens. The trip was the second of its kind, the first being held through southern Alberta in 1951.

During the tour the MLA's visited Athabasca, High Prairie, McLennan, Peace River, Grimshaw, Berwyn, the Fairview School of Agriculture, Wanham, Spirit River, Sexsmith, La Glace, Hythe, Grande Prairie, the Dominion Experimental Station at Beaverlodge, Westlock and Dawson Creek and Fort St John in B.C.

The Albertans were warmly welcomed in the Peace River area of B.C. which has close economic links with Alberta. This was probably the first time in Canadian History that a large group of provincial members made an organized non-political visit to a neighboring province.

That the Peace River country has the best and most advanced grain crops in the Province at this time was the unanimous opinion of the legislators. Improved roads, additional bridges and assistance in preventing further flooding of High Prairie were the main topics brought to the members attention.

The size of the Peace River country staggered the imaginations of the MLA's. Here were 9,030 farms with a total acreage of 3,342 [illegible] approximately 7,000,000 acres were still open for settlement. Another area of about [illegible] acres [illegible] yet been opened for settlement due to lack of accurate information on its soil and forest resources.

West and north-west from Fairview was one of the largest blocks of arable public land open for settlement. Completion of land subdivision and the building of more roads will open up an area of approximately 1,000,000 acres in this district. The Wanham land clearing project in this area had broken 60 [illegible] acres comprising 242 units, of which [illegible]

Oats is the largest grain crop in the Peace River as a whole with an average of 407,000 acres seeded to that crop. Wheat is next with an average of 382,000 acres while barley is grown more extensively than in the south an average of 165,000 acres devoted to that crop. Average yields are wheat 21 bushels per acre, oats 36, barley between 23 and 26.

Grimshaw is the biggest wheat shipper with Dawson Creek, BC following closely behind. Grimshaw ships an average of 1,097,550 bushels a year and Dawson Creek, 1,086,843.

Dawson Creek is the largest shipper of oats while High Prairie ships out the most barley. The largest amount of all types of grain is shipped from Dawson Creek which has the largest elevator capacity of any of the northern grain shipping stations.

Clarence Long of Calgary was a recent visitor to old home scenes in Landonville.

Pleasant Valley

The writer is sorry to hear that Mr Will Muir was taken suddenly and seriously ill on Saturday night and are glad to report that he is improving somewhat although still a very sick man.

Some from this district journeyed to Moose Lake on Sunday to pick blueberries. The berries do not seem to be quite as plentiful as last year.

While staying in Edmonton with her son Bill Mrs. Gillies visited Mrs. Dugalt at the University hospital. The latter is very cheerful and may be home soon.

Let us hope that the rains are over for awhile. The men are now working very hard to finish haying. The fields are getting that golden yellow tinge and crops are very heavy in places.

Now that the moose hunting season will not be opened this year maybe the men will go north bear hunting. It's not safe to let the children go berry picking alone. We were very interested to read the account of the bear shot at Marwayne.

David Gilies has been busy putting up the telephone wires. We will soon be able to say "Hi folks".

Mrs. Gilies has been laid up with a very sore leg and wishes for a speedy recovery go to her.

Mr and Mrs. Joy were visitors at the writer's home on Sunday.

What happened to you Ivan? We heard that you went for a boat ride all alone and landed in the water with the boat upside down. Lucky that you could swim, or was this just a fish story?

Fred Shaw of Edmonton visited Mr and Mrs. Gordon Gould on Sunday. George Purvis was a visitor there also in the evening.

Hello Mrs. Jenkins, we will be seeing you before you leave we hope.

The writer hopes that the season of high winds is over as it is very hard on the flowers. Some in the garden here were broken off right to the ground. [redacted] during the [illegible].

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

NEW COURSE AT THE AGRICULTURAL SCHOOLS

Something new has been added! Along with the Home Economics Course, typing will be taught, while some time will be spent on business relationships. It is not the intention to turn out qualified stenographers but it is hoped that the graduates in home economics will have received sufficient training in typing to enable them to do a certain amount of this work in jobs in which they have been finding work. They should be more desireable employees from the standpoint of their prospective employers.

If you are wondering about the likelihood of this training taking the girls from the home, I would like to point out that the core of the course is still homemaking. The proposed change should increase the girls' earning capacity for the few years that they take employment before settling down.

USE "ALBERTA ORANGES"

There's more than just beauty in a wild rose. The little berry that follows the blossoms and gives an added beauty to our fall foliage has health value too! It is one of the richest known sources of vitamin C. Three average rose hips contain as much vitamin C as one medium size orange.

The ripe hips that are vivid red and slightly soft are best, although green hips are also rich in vitamin C. Use rose hip puree, in baked products, with desserts, in sandwich fillings and in soups. Make jams, jellies, pickles and catsup with rose hips. If you are interested in knowing the various recipes, write me for "Wild Rose Hips for Vitamin C".

A Trip To Luxembourg And Germany

(By Mrs. Addie Mead)

Entering Luxembourg we went into a "Money Change" where we met a girl of an entirely different type than any seen before, blonde, attractive and scrupulously clean—of German origin she told us. On a table lay piles of money of every nation. The girl spoke English, among seven other languages. She said she had been too busy to sort and store the money, but was handling each nationality with equal ease in spite of her apparent youth. Buildings were still battle-scarred but when we arrived at Luxembourg city it was like stepping into a different world. This city has a charm, a poise that is difficult to describe. After the madness of Paris and the war-torn country in between Luxembourg was a welcome relief. Still it was impossible to forget what France had suffered and we were to learn more on the return trip from [illegible].

At the Hotel de Paris our rooms were in readiness and it was such a gracious relaxing hotel that we wished we might stay longer. The restaurant and cafe are in the hotel itself and although dinner was not served until 7 p.m. it was well worth waiting for. In the evening we drove around the city. Down Notre Dame Avenue lights like inverted necklaces with pendants at the top span the streets. They glow like pearls. There is a deep valley with homes in it which, when viewed from above at night, is like a fairy land. In the morning we drove to the falls and were very really impressed with the fact that Luxembourg, though small, seemed made up of replicas of every spot we [illegible].

Later we crossed the Saar river into Germany at rifle-marked Echternach. Although the river is narrow and the officials look little different from those in Luxembourg, it was a strange feeling. An armed patrol policeman with a police dog wrote directions in my note book of the towns we were to pass through and told us how to find them. They were Minden, Edingen Rolingen Olk, Echternachenhof, Neuhaus and Trier as nearly as I can make out. Driving through a farm yard we were startled to see a helmet fixed on the end of a long stick, apparently used as a sort of dipper. Even the steep river banks are in crop there. We learned later that the tall vines were growing up poles about 8 feet high were hops, a main crop. Every available spot seemed to be planted to vegetables. In Trier an American soldier directed us to the station where we could obtain German marks in order to have a meal on German soil. Trier is said to have been the home of Roman Emperors and the ruin of one of these castles is among the many pictures we took. We went down steps at the back of a building that is either under construction or being rebuilt, and then came up into an excellent restaurant. The waiter spoke little English, we a little French and less [illegible] but that only added to our fun and we thoroughly enjoyed it. The name of the restaurant was Hauptbahnhof-wirtschafte. Re-entering Luxembourg we headed for Belgium. Near Bastogne the customs officer merely waved us through. It was Sunday and we found that in Belgium that is a day for music and happiness. In one village I snapped a picture of part of a band of happy men and women playing on instruments made from kitchen utensils. Led by a couple of horns they were really making music.

At Rochfort the family went down into La Grotte but for the first time I was afraid to accompany them. Having just recovered from a sprained ankle I had a good excuse. This is Richard's account of it.

"We went through the door Grandma, the man said it was 850 feet down to the river. He closed the door behind us and locked it. He turned on the lights and put on his lantern. We went down slippery steps that had a railing most of the way. Near the bottom he turned off all the lights and we heard footsteps running up and we heard a noise going 'Ohhh' and then we saw fire under a huge balloon on a stick. The man let go and it sailed up up up, until it hit the top. It came down again and the man caught it in his arms and blew the light out. Then after that he turned on some beautiful lights and we saw huge colored icicles hanging all over and, by gosh, you can't even break them Grandma! The walls looked like silver and gold and diamonds. And then we started on our way up again amongst the icicles and things that looked like turtles and wildest schwein (that's wild pig Grandma) and fishfins. Then we started up and he turned off the lights and there was a huge glare of sunlight coming in. We went up some more on a winding staircase straight up and then we came to three doors and we went through the centre door and were outside and I wasn't cold anymore. Just as I stepped out of the doorway everyone sighed with relief. Gosh it was some cave."

At the very bottom of the cave apparently there is a swift underground river. The guide told them that in the winter La Grotte is completely filled with ice and snow. He also informed them that during the war 1050 people spent eight days down there in absolute darkness.

Picturesque Canadian Scenes

Bowtell Bulletin

Lovely hot weather is being enjoyed, just what we need for ripening the grain. some farmers have started swathing their rye fields.

Mrs. B. Saunders and Dale are visiting the former's brother and family Mr. and Mrs. F. Robinson for a week.

The writer understands that Mr. Geo. Shepherd has sold his farm to Mr Malik and has bought a house in Vermilion.

The writer would like to take this space to thank Mr. Ashley Cooper for his kindness.

Don't forget folks, there is church at Pleasant Valley this Sunday.

The writer was pleased to have Mr and Mrs. W. Waterfield, Bill and Dorothy, Jack Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Maggs and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Young and Fred Arnold visit us this week. Come again folks.

The Knudson family, Granny Robinson and Nora Ronaghan were Lloydminster visitors this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood enjoyed a visit Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Sample. Pictures were taken of Mr. Sample's wonderful flower garden. Red certainly has a place to be proud of and a wonderful view of the Vermilion Lake.

Mrs. Kinsley Rieniak was a recent visitor at the Repp home.

We are certainly pleased to hear Peggy Graham is doing so well in her nursing course at the University hospital in Edmonton.

An Alaskan Honeymoon

One of the highlights of our trip was the journey on the Steese Highway "Road to the Midnight Sun". The Steese is the only connecting highway in Alaska which is built directly far north and which has summits high enough to permit an unobstructed view of the midnight sun on June 21-22. We had never seen a more winding up-and-down hill road and driving over it with any degree of speed at all was quite a task. Occasionally we saw along the lower Steese mechanical monsters which looked like a cross between a ferris wheel and a prehistoric, but which were giant gold dredges. These monsters pick up the gravel and muck which is loosened by the huge "Giants" — hydraulic nozzles, and through a system of conveyors and agitators, wash out the gold. The residual gravel and tailing is redeposited in the ancient beds which have remained frozen to depths of several hundred feet for thousands of years. In the process the fossil remains of pre-glacial mammoths, mastodons, and other monsters of the prehistoric era are frequently unearthed. At Miller's Creek we reached Cleary Summit, elevation 2300 feet. From here there is a marvelous panoramic view of the valley of the Tanana River. On clear days the glistening crests of Mount McKinley can be seen. To the north we saw the rugged tiers of the White Mountains. The highway descended from this summit to an elevation of 1000 feet, passing through an area of former large-scale placer mining — the cause of many exposed gravel beds. Actually there is very little activity in Alaska gold mining at present. A war time enforced shut-down during the war, protracted shipping strikes and the overwhelming increase in cost of equipment and labor made it impractical for resumption of mining on the pre-war scale. Until the gold price of gold is advanced to a suitable bracket in the post-war inflationary scale, the situation in the industry is unlikely to change in Alaska.

At Milepost 83.0, the highway crosses one of the largest mining aqueducts in the world. Actually a gigantic siphon, this huge water conveyor snakes over the hills for 80 miles, bringing the most necessary water for gold-dredging from the headwaters of the Chatanika River. This river flows over gold-bearing sand and gravel and a novice at the art of panning can get flecks of color from this stream.

At Milepost 87. Twelve-mile Summit, we came to a route followed by many generations of migrating waterfowl.

By the time we reached Milepost 109, Eagle Summit, the drive was at the height of its interest. At elevation 3680 feet, high above the timberline, the Arctic tundra reappears with a marvelous panoramic view of the valley of the Yukon River. On clear days the glistening crests of Mount McKinley can be seen. To the north we saw the rugged tiers of the White Mountains. The highway descended from this summit to an elevation of 1000 feet, passing through an area of former large-scale placer mining — the cause of many exposed gravel beds. Actually there is very little activity in Alaska gold mining at present. A war time enforced shut-down during the war, protracted shipping strikes and the overwhelming increase in cost of equipment and labor made it impractical for resumption of mining on the pre-war scale. Until the gold price of gold is advanced to a suitable bracket in the post-war inflationary scale, the situation in the industry is unlikely to change in Alaska.

Mile 115. Along many creeks in this area prospectors were finding gold two years before the Dawson stampede in the Klondike. The multiple names for the various creeks in this region derive from the old miner's law which allowed a 500-foot claim to straddle a creek from rim to rim of its valley. The old-timers shrewdly gave a different name to each fork of a creek, which permitted one man to have several claims, as only one claim was allowed per man on any specific stream. Creek names such as "Glacier Pup" "Trough Lead" "Last Creek and 'Cripple' are colorful remainders of the prospectors' heyday.

Milepost 117 — Mammoth Creek. Near here the fossil remains of many species of pre-glacial Alaska mammals have been excavated. Species so found include the giant buffalo, mastodon, mammoth, lion caribou, moose, wolf, horse and bear. All of these were of gigantic size except the horse, which was about the size of a Shetland pony. The bear particularly, had a skull nearly as large as our present Kodiak, largest carnivorous animal on earth today. In addition stone implements and artifacts of a primitive culture resembling that of ancient Mongolia, have been found here.

At Milepost 129, we at last reached our destination — Arctic Circle Hot Springs hotel and resort. Here we had a most enjoyable afternoon. The famous hot springs is said to a constant year-round temperature of 120 degrees F and are reviewed by analysts to have a definite medicinal and therapeutic value. The spring waters supply the hotel with hot water and heat, feed the pools and baths, and are piped under the celebrated arctic gardens to season fresh vegetables from these gardens are served in the dining room. We arrived in time for a late lunch and left after dinner at 8 00. The meals were accompanied with fresh garden vegetables served on long tables — boarding house style. It was a wonderful change after mess hall and restaurant meals to have home-cooking served us in front of you in all the quantity you could eat. Most of the afternoon we lounged in the pool or climbed the stairs to the roof overhead to bask in the sun. We decided this would be a wonderful place to spend a week some vacation time. All too soon we had to leave for it was a long hard drive back to Fairbanks. Dried fruit, we learned later, served midnight.

Mount Robson Scaled Again

JASPER. — Five young men from the United States recently conquered Mount Robson (12,972 feet), the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies

They were the first mountain climbers to reach the summit since August, 1950 when it was scaled by Swiss guides.

The five Americans made four camps on the mountain on their way to the top, the highest at 11,500 feet The final climb of nearly 1300 feet was made in 4 hours, notwithstanding the grueling experience of crossing over soft snow fields on the glaciers.

Eighteen Hundred and Thirteen Attend Air Cadet Camps At Abbotsford Close For Year

ABBOTSFORD B.C. — The Air Cadet Summer camp at RCAF station Abbotsford closed Aug. 14 for another year. The camp opened on July 5, and since that date there have been three camps held, each of two weeks duration. Altogether, the station has played host to 1813 cadets from the four western provinces during the last six weeks. For many of these boys, this has been their first experience at an R.C.A.F. station. They have had a taste of Service life, and most of them are looking forward to next summer when they will be able to return to Abbotsford.

During their two week stay at the station, the boys, who range in age from 14 to 18 have been subject to service discipline, and in return have had a full program of sports, flying and lectures. This year, their main subject in ground school has been engines, but they also received lectures in other related service subjects such as Theory of Flight, Navigation, Meteorology, First Aid, Armament, etc. Each cadet received two flights in a Beechcraft Expediter, part of which time was spent as a map reading exercise and part actually at the controls of the aircraft. There were regular swimming sessions held at Swan's Point, Hatzic Lake, which included water safety lectures and swimming instruction for non-swimmers -- all under the supervision of qualified instructors. Half of each day was spent in organized sports, with inter-provincial competitions in softball, volleyball and hordenball. These were keenly contested at each camp with the results a matter of station-wide interest. Each cadet was taken on a tour of the lower Fraser Valley and Vancouver area during his stay at camp. By the end of the camp, chartered buses had travelled over 23,000 miles with the cadets on these tours. For a very nominal sum, cadets could charter busses under supervision of their officers for tours to special places of interest not far from Abbotsford. Many took advantage of this, with one group going as far as Seattle.

Healthy appetites were the result of all the cadets' activities, especially as they spent a good deal of their time out of doors. Fit sgt. Maurice Rose of RCAF Station Sea Island, who was in charge of the messing, can testify to the appetites of the boys. For a typical breakfast, the following amounts of food would be prepared: 16 cases of fruit juice; 72 lbs. of hot cereal; 180 dozen eggs 143 lbs. of bacon, 2000 hot cakes, 70 gallons of milk and an unlimited quantity of toast. For a noon meal, four quarters of beef would be roasted and 400 lbs. of potatoes boiled. At a weiner roast the cadets consumed 400 weiners, 300 dozen rolls, 75 dozen ice cream bars and 140 dozen soft drinks. All this by about 630 boys. Anyone who doubts that a teen age boy has an appetite should spend a day in the kitchen of an Air Cadet summer camp!

Wing Commander D. B. Babineau of Ottawa was TO of the Station while Wing Commander A. J. Ayotte of Regina was chief instructor Regular force personnel were used in the administration positions on the station, supported by a civilian secretarial staff were Air Cadet officers, many of them high school teachers who were able to spend the six weeks here at camp. Squadron Leader M. Simmons of Brandon was Senior Protestant Chaplain, while Flt.-Sgt. A. MacInnes CMI of Ottawa looked after the spiritual welfare of the Roman Catholic cadets. The station maintained a fully equipped and staffed hospital, but fortunately had no serious illnesses or accidents to deal with this summer.

There were several activities available for the cadets during their afternoon hours, the most popular of which was the hobby shop under the able hand of Mr. Fred Wesley of Taber. During the third two-week camp, over 80 model aircraft were built and flown, ranging in size from small hand-launched gliders to large, engine-powered models with wing spans of as much as 6 feet. A very colorful display of stafied birds was presented after the inspection last Friday morning.

These summer camps are run as part of the activities provided for the Air Cadets — a good attendance at weekly parades held during the year being necessary in order to attend camp. A cadet may however, be eligible for a Flying Scholarship, which will give him his Private Pilot's license, or for a trip to the United Kingdom or to the U.S.A. These boys are part of one of the largest youth movements in Canada — the Air Cadet League. The League is run by a group of public-spirited citizens who give time and money to the main emphasis of the movement training boys as future citizens of Canada. The League is very ably assisted in this also by the Royal Canadian Air Force which provides materials and service personnel for the Cadets' training.

THE VERMILION STANDARD

Vol. XLV. No. 9. Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, August 27th, 1953. $2.00 per Year

M. R. Pettigrew, John Brimacombe, 2nd and 3rd

Simonson's Gardens Prize Beauty Spot

The beautiful gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Simonson were again awarded first prize in the annual competition sponsored by the Vermilion Horticultural Society. The grounds are a riot of beautiful harmonized color and arrangement and should be seen immediately by every person in town and country. The Simonson home is located immediately north of the original brick school in the east end of town.

In the competition everything is taken into consideration, trees, lawn, flowers, general lay-out and arrangement and vegetable garden as well. It is a home grounds competition.

The second place this summer was taken by a newcomer to the competition, the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Pettigrew. Their spacious lawn with borders of multi-colored flowers has caught the eye of many a passer-by. It should be noted too this property is not yet serviced by water lines which makes the winning of second place very notable.

Always sure of a pretty spot, the John Brimacombe home with its multitude of flowers was awarded third prize.

All of these gardens and grounds are very beautiful, and, along with many more in town, should be visited by all garden lovers.

COUNTRY GARDENS

The prize in this classification was won by Mrs. Daisy Cummings. This is an outstanding large scale undertaking and is definitely well worth the short trip to the farm northwest of town.

The judges pass on the following notes: "With these and many other very beautiful gardens and grounds, the town should feel very proud and should show this appreciation by keeping the boulevards, library grounds, the park, school grounds and other public places trimmed and neat, as well as seeing that the trees on the boulevards are pruned and looked after by a competent man. At the present time some of the trees and public places present a bit of an eyesore to visitors and residents alike." The judges conclude their report by stating "Join the Horticultural Society and help make a more beautiful town, and see your councillor and have him prevail on the town fathers to do their part."

Scotstoun Wins Baseball League

GAME HAS GOOD SEASON

The South Vermilion Rural Baseball league completed its schedule of games for the season with Scotstoun the champions having a record of 9 wins and 1 loss. Basswood are runners-up with 6 wins and 4 defeats.

During the season the league teams competed in the various local picnic events with the following results: Scotstoun had a record of 2 firsts and 2 seconds; Basswood, Triangle and Auburndale each had 1 first and 1 second. Buffalo Coulee had one second.

The annual rural tourney was cancelled due to a delay in completing the league caused by rain.

The complete league table is:

| TEAM | Won | Lost | % |
|---|---|---|---|
| Scotstoun | 9 | 1 | .900 |
| Basswood | 6 | 4 | .600 |
| Triangle | 5 | 5 | .500 |
| Auburndale | 4 | 6 | .400 |
| Buffalo Coulee | 4 | 6 | .400 |
| Tolland | 2 | 8 | .200 |

Calling All Stagettes

Remember the fun you had at Edmonton's Diamond B? Well, here is your chance to compare it with Regina's Qu'Appelle Valley. The 5th, 6th and 7th of September is National Convention and we hope to have a representative from here all steamed up, so gather at the club room on Tuesday night (Sept. 1) at the usual 8 o'clock and we will discuss and plan for this coming and interesting sounding event.

The Stagazettes are here, full of everything from Convention plans to jokes, so you can pick yours up Tuesday night. (That'll bring 'em). See you!

"Moulin Rouge" Rated As Exellent Drama, Great Entertainment

The picture being featured at the Columbia theatre on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, next week, Sept 2, 3 and 4, "Moulin Rouge" has received the highest of praise by all critics. It is a richly technicolored drama about the life and loves of the French painter Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec. It is filmed in Paris, the city of splendor. The cast is studded with academy award winners. MacLean's magazine rates it as "drama—excellent".

Wesley Hodgson Dies At Dewberry

There passed away at Dewberry a well known citizen of that district, Mr. Wesley White Hodgson at the age of 63 years. Left to mourn his passing are his loving wife, one son Gordon of Edmonton, and one daughter Mrs. W. Lougheed of Condor, Alberta. There are 3 brothers, Eldon and George both in Ontario and Ernest at Red Deer, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday Aug 25 at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon in the Dewberry hall and interment was in the Dewberry cemetery. The Rev. T. Sneddon of Marwayne officiated.

Arrangements were carried out by Moyers of Vermilion.

Former Dewberry Grain Agent Honored

Mr. T. C. Ennis, a former Alberta Wheat Pool agent at Dewberry was honored at a banquet Friday night at the Corona hotel in Edmonton, and presented with a gold wrist watch for his 25 years service with the Pool.

Veterinary Office Moves

For the infomation of the public the offices of Dr. A. R. Anderson have been moved to the rear of his residence on the south side of Vermilion. The house is located on highway 41 just two blocks south of the intersection with highway 16. The phone number is 208 and Bob says to call him any time, day or night — he's good natured.

SCHOOL OPENING DELAYED TO SEPTEMBER 14th

Ruling by Provincial Dept. of Health

Schools in the Province of Alberta will not open until Monday, Sept. 14th at 9 a.m. This ruling has been made by the Department of Health, Province of Alberta, as a precaution against spread of poliomyelitis.

Five Hundred and Thirty-six Entries

Horticultural Society Holds Successful Show

The flower show put on by the Horticultural Society last Thursday was the biggest and best ever held in Vermilion. There were 563 entries in the 105 classes of the prize list.

All three judges praised the quality of the exhibits. Mr. McCalla stated that there was not a poor exhibit in the show. He said that it was quite apparent that Vermilion district gardeners had a good deal of experience in getting exhibits ready for a show. Only a few exhibits were disqualified and that was for not having the right number of flowers or vegetables. Also one good exhibit of sweet peas was disqualified for having fern leaves put in with the exhibit.

Mrs. Agnes Simonson was the winner of the Bank of Commerce trophy for obtaining the highest number of points in the show. Mrs. Simonson won 14 first prizes and 7 seconds. Mr. John Brimacombe was a close second as a winner of first and second prizes.

Peter Leszko, a beginner as a flower exhibitor, won two cups. For 12 pansies he won the Long's Drug store cup. Also Mr. Leszko won the Ed Corley cup for the best six dahlias in the show.

The Pilkie & Son trophy for the best six gladioli spikes in the show went to Frank W. Hill, a farmer of the Cummings district.

Mrs. Melvin Hill was awarded the Geo. Capatos trophy for the best collection of stocks.

The Junior classes were well filled with 133 entries in the six classes. The Horticultural Society gave seeds for three kinds of flowers and 3 kinds of vegetables free of charge to 95 school children last spring. 28 boys and girls of the 95 who got seeds brought in exhibits to the show.

Neil McLean was the lucky winner of the basket of flowers. Mrs. L. Pockett assembled the flowers from Vermilion gardens. This basket of glads, asters sweet peas and dahlias was admired by everyone who came in the door.

The auction sale of flowers and vegetables was held at 9 p.m. Chester Gamble, auctioneer of Mannville, sold the produce without any charge to the Society. The proceeds of the sale and the tickets sold amounted to $63.30.

Mr. Hugh B. Evans, president of the Horticultural Society wishes to thank all who helped in handling the show. He specially acknowledges the help given by Messrs. Brimacombe, Marfleet, Playne and Walker also Mrs. Adam and Mrs. Tebbutt for services rendered.

Mr. Evans also wishes to express his appreciation to the Vermilion Agricultural Society for a grant which pays half the prize money.

Family Re-union At Hodgson Home

A family re-union was held at the home of Mr and Mrs R. H. Hodgson of Vermilion when their eldest daughter Mrs. Don Taylor and family from the west coast were home. The family had not been together for 17 years.

At a buffet supper served on the lawn those present were Mrs. Don Taylor and family from Port Coquitlam B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Greig of Trochu, Alberta; Mr and Mrs. John Wilson and family from Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Milligan of Vermilion; and their two sons Anthony and Harry Hodgson of Vermilion.

There are twelve grandchildren. Also guests on this happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Milligan and girls of Mercoal.

108 Piglets from 6 Sows

Charles W. Young has certainly solved the production problem when it comes to raising pigs. According to Hugh Rose, Mr Young has a total of 108 pigs from 6 sows, an average of 18. One of the litters numbered 21 piglets.

Program No. 1765 Worth $60.00

Have you Columbia theatre program No. 1765? If so, take it around to Mr Kowalchuk and collect $60 for that is what the lucky program prize now amounts to. It has to be claimed within three days though and one day has gone already so hurry.

Decoration Day Service Held On Sunday

SOLEMN EVENT PAYS HOMAGE TO DEPARTED VETERANS

The annual Decoration Day service held at the cemetery on Sunday Aug 23 proved both impressive and solemn paying tribute as it does to all departed veterans whether lying in the Vermilion cemetery or anywhere else in the world. It also draws attention to the well kept service plot in the local cemetery, with all the graves therein decorated with flowers for this occasion, and to the cenotaph erected to the memory of the departed.

The service was conductd by Lieut. Chapman of The Salvation Army and was well attended by members of the Canadian Legion, the Legion W. A., the Air Cadets who formed at the cemetery gate into column of route headed by the Legion color party and the Salvation Army band and marched to the Soldiers plot where they formed up as a guard of honor.

The order of service included hymns, prayers, the In Memoriam, one minute of silence with the Last Post and the Reveille, placing of wreaths by the general public. The service opened with the singing of "O Canada" and closed with the National Anthem.

The "In Memoriam" is particulary fitting. "With proud Thanksgiving let us remember our Elder Brethren. They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we shall remember them".

By The District Agriculturist

"GREEN ACRES"

GRAIN STORAGE

It is certain that most of this year's crop will have to be stored for many months on the farm. There is much less loss if the grain is stored in weather-tight granaries. Field storage in temporary bins is the next best bet. These can be made of slat fencing or paper inside of woven wire. One thing farmers should keep in mind is the possibility of advances being made on farm stored grain. It is not likely that any advances will be made unless the grain is properly and safely stored.

ROOT MAGGOTS IN CABBAGE

For the first time roots of cabbage and cauliflower in this district have been infested with maggots. There is nothing you can do about it now but next spring when you transplant cabbage or cauliflower spray the ground around the plants with aldrin or corrosive sublimate.

A NEW GRAIN STORAGE

In the U.S. they have a grain sack holding 600 bushels for storing grain. The sack is made of burlap and asphalt and is made in the form of a cone. The cost at Calgary is reported to be $39.50 each.

TOAD FLAX PATCHES

During harvest farmers may run across Toad Flax patches which they did not know they had. They should be marked with a stake and Sodium Chlorate applied as soon as possible. It is just as effective, maybe more so, to apply Sodium Chlorate in the fall than earlier in the year.

BANG'S VACCINATIONS

'Vets' did not get around to vaccinate all the heifer calves in Vermilion and Minburn M.D.'s last spring. Owners of these calves are asked to have the Vet do them this fall along with the calves born last spring.

CUTTING BARLEY

Most of the barley in this area is cut too soon. The kernels look big and plump but they are full of moisture. After a week in the stook these same kernels have shrivelled down to half their size. It pays to wait until the kernels are in the late dough stage before cutting barley with the binder or swather.

Aid To Students Who Train For Teachers

$200.00 BURSARIES

The Vermilion School Division has bursaries of $200 available to grade 12 graduates who desire to enter University to take the teacher training courses. Applications for the bursaries should be made to the School Division office in Vermilion. The offer is open to young people from other divisions as well.

The bursaries are not repayable and the only stipulation is that the student teach for two years in the Vermilion school division.

Loss of Teachers Due To Variety of Reasons

34 RESIGN FROM SCHOOL DIVIS'N DURING SUMMER —HERE IS WHAT THEY DO

Anxious to find out just what the teachers who resign from their positions in the Vermilion School division plan to do in the future, Supt. S. D. Simonson made a survey with the following results.

Two returned to University;

Twelve were married women who returned to home duties;

Six accepted teaching positions elsewhere;

Five left the profession for other jobs.

Board Luncheon September 2

Through the advertising columns of the Standard the Vermilion Board of Trade is announcing the opening dinner meeting of the fall season. This will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 2 at 12:10 noon at the Rio cafe. Everyone is invited, business and professional men, employees, farmers, visitors. It is a grand chance to know your fellow townsmen better, and to help promote the good and welfare of the whole community.

Since the early year of 1906 the Board of Trade has been promoting the development of the town and district. In 1907 they embarked on an Empire-wide advertising campaign to attract settlers to the area. In 1911 they advocated the town as a site for one of the provincial schools of agriculture so wisely and well that the school was established here, and has been one of our chief sources of fame ever since.

In more recent years the Board has promoted the air field and then by direct contact with Ottawa were the means of having the Dept of Transport Beam station located here. Back in 1932 the idea of a dam across the valley with an artificial lake was proposed and the plan was never let die, with fulfilment of a fine park surrounding it just around the corner. The provincial highway to Wainwright and to Elk Point with a bridge at the latter point were also brought about much more quickly by continuous board of trade representations. The first shots for the water and sewer in Vermilion were fired at the Board meetings and the public fully educated to the needs of such facilities through the Board. These and scores of other projects have been the achievements of the town's promotional body over the years. It is an organization that every man interested in the prosperity and advancement of his home town and district should support actively.

Attend the Board meetings regularly each Wednesday at 12:10 noon.

Alberta Wheat Pool Seeking Owners Of $300,000 In Cash

The Alberta Wheat Pool has $300,000 in cash belonging to Pool members who cannot be located. That sum is the remnant of a total of $8,500,000 contributed by the original Pool members in the 1923-28 period to build Pool elevators and to provide the organization with working capital.

Some years ago the annual Pool convention started a program to repay the $8.5 million. Most of that money has already been paid out. There are quite a few members yet, however, who cannot be located. In an effort to find the addresses of these people the Alberta Wheat Pool has been advertising in a number of Alberta's weekly newspapers. This program has had some surprising results.

One Pool member who had moved from the Peace River district many years ago got a letter from a friend who saw his name in the list advertised by the Pool. He went to the Pool head office in Calgary and got a cheque for $470.

A man who formerly farmed in the Vulcan district but who now lives in Calgary had a similar experience. Badly crippled with rheumatism he came down to the Pool head office and got the surprise of his life when he received a cheque for $300.

A farmer who formerly lived at Chin now residing at Spokane discovered that $665 was coming to him.

Of course these are exceptional instances, payments in the majority of cases running from $10 to $25. But the Alberta Wheat Pool is anxious to dispose of this trust money and would appreciate the help of anybody who can assist in locating people who are entitled to such payments.

Law Practice Of Jas. D. Adam Changes Hands

TAKEN OVER BY FIRM OF EMBURY & MacLEAN

The condition of James D. Adam, Q.C., continues to improve slowly. He wishes through the columns of the Standard to thank the many friends and clients for the beautiful flowers, kindness and help to the family, and for the many cards and telephone calls.

As he will be unable to practice for some time his business of 25 years standing is being turned over to the firm of Gordon A. Embury and Neil MacLean who will be in constant attendance at the office from Sept 1st, and will, according to Mrs Adam, carry on the office in the same manner and tradition as has been customary for nearly a quarter of a century.

Kinsmen Respirator Rushed To Wainwright

The portable respirator purchased by the Kinsmen one year ago and presented to the local hospital, was rushed to Wainwright Monday for emergency use in two cases of polio there. The respirator has been used several times at the local hospital and it will be remembered, was used to take a patient, who could not otherwise have been moved, from the Mannville hospital to Edmonton. This certainly appears to be a case of money well spent.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. MacKay Arrive Home

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. MacKay arrived home late Wednesday evening after a month spent on a trip all the way to the eastern coast. Taken ill on the return trip, Mr. MacKay is now feeling much better and will conduct the regular service at the United church at 11:30 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 30.

Texaco Service Under New Management

TO BE KNOWN AS LLOYD'S SERVICENTRE

The Texaco Service station is now under new management and attention of readers is directed to the display advertisement elsewhere in this issue. Ewald Polinsky is the new manager. He is a friendly chap and is anxious to make the acquaintance of town and district people.

Sudden Death of Tim O'Connor At Mannville

FUNERAL HELD MONDAY

MANNVILLE.—Funeral services for the late Tim O'Connor, old timer of Mannville, were held from the Holy Name Catholic church in Vermilion on Monday, August 24 at 10 a.m. Requiem High Mass was sung by Father Gorman of Lloydminster, and interment was in the Vermilion Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Ralph Melnychuk, Leslie Torrance, Archie Budard, Wm. McCauley, Dan Smith and Andy Clark.

Mr. O'Connor is survived by his widow, one son William of Berwyn, one daughter Mrs. Helen Wells of Edmonton, three brothers, Steve of Kitscoty, Bill of Trail, B.C. and Norman of Mannville, three sisters Mrs. G. Majeau and Mrs. L. Majeau of Edmonton and Miss May O'Connor of Mannville.

Mr. O'Connor who passed away suddenly on Thursday afternoon in his 69th year had operated a grain elevator in Mannville for more than forty years. He homesteaded north of town in 1907 and five years later moved to town as the first agent for the Hayward Burch Grain Co., later known as the Alberta Pacific Grain and now the Alberta Wheat Pool No. 2.

A veteran of the First great war, Mr. O'Connor has been a member of the Canadian Legion since that time, as well as serving for several years as local fire chief. He took an active part in all civic affairs and the high esteem in which he was held in the community and district was shown by the large number of friends and relatives who attended the funeral, not only from Mannville and Vermilion, but also from Edmonton, Irma, Kitscoty, Wainwright and other points.

Moyer's of Vermilion were in charge of funeral arrangements.

First New Barley

Nick Klotz was the first farmer to deliver new barley to the National Grain elevator this season. Nick threshed on Aug. 21 and it graded No. 1 feed.

Rain Causes Serious Delay To Harvest

Rain which commenced Monday night, continued Tuesday and Wednesday, has caused a serious delay in harvesting operations in this area. Cutting and swathing had just nicely commenced. An estimated 10 per cent of the wheat has been cut with [illegible] of the barley also down. The week's delay will make the frost danger a real threat.

Crops from the roadside appear better than the yields estimated for them. This is no doubt due to the drouth in June which caused poor germination of seeds. Wheat will average from 23 to 25 bushels per acre, oats [illegible] bushels and barley 35 if nothing happens to the crop between now and the time the grain reaches the bins.

New Edition Released

An up-to-date review of all significant aspects of Canadian life is contained in the 1953-54 issue of Quick Canadian Facts. In its 112 pages the ninth annual edition of the pocket-size book contains information on the Dominion, the provinces, government, latest census figures, trade and industry, natural resources, finance and taxes. Distributed through book stores and newstands, the new edition of Quick Canadian Facts is this week released across the country.

No Date for Gloomday

The first half of 1953 was a good six months for Canadians. Company earnings, despite lower prices, were generally slightly higher than in the first half of last year. A Financial Post survey of a group of representative Canadian companies shows profits 2.1% higher than for the same period last year.

Companies are not alone in sharing good times. In June, payrolls were running 10% higher than one year ago. More employed, higher wages, more overtime.

Yet, during the six months there were remarkable shifts in world politics and economics all of which could have brought a house of cards crumbling. They didn't, because the Canadian economy is no house of cards.

This land's prosperity is built on the massive strength of its production and the wide demand for its goods.

The gloomsters are still hunting a Gloomday but they are still having trouble with the date for it.

Dave Bilodeau Writes From Manitoba

Probably one of the best known old timers of the district, Dave Bilodeau, famous for his running horses and for the half-mile track on his farm some 9 miles south-east of town, writes to his old acquaintance "Aran Hoggins" and asks him when the Vermilion fair was to be held as he wanted to come from Carman, Man., where he now lives. Owing to the fact that the letter lay unclaimed in the post office for some time before being turned over to "Hiram Hodgins" it wasn't read until after the fair was well over. However, Hiram wrote back and told him he would advise him well in advance of next year's fair. Dave was a well known figure driving his own horses in the old horse racing days, and appeared regularly in the harness races at the Vermilion fair, and ye editor can still hear the old cry arising from the stands "Come on Bilodeau!"

British Motor Industry's Success

CANADA BIG CUSTOMER

During July British automobile factories made one model every 15 seconds of the working time, for an all-time monthly record of 30,600 cars — a total that topped the previous peak in November 1950 by nearly 4000 units.

Of the total cars produced nearly 21,000 were exported. Canada took 5,085, valued at $5.6 million, to become the principal buyer of the month. Over 3000 cars went to the United States.

NEWS from ISLAY

It is rather difficult to get news as our Alberta Government telephone at Islay has the kind of service that we just can't get news! If you wonder what that is just try to get Central, and if you don't raise Central that is just the way it has been for about four weeks in this area and still is.

While driving in from Irwinville on Monday we saw a pretty picture -- a doe and her fawn of the Red Jumping deer. We looked at them and they at us for a little time, then away into a bluff they went. It is quite unusual to see deer in this area and the co-operation of everyone is asked for the protection of these beautiful animals.

On Sunday the Kenilworth community and some of Islay gathered at Kenilworth school and had a delightful picnic supper on the lawn in the shade. After supper Mr. and Mrs Don McFadyen, the newlyweds, received a shower of gifts which were brought in by a wagon drawn by a lovely little bride and groom, Charlotte Wilkinson and Eddie Simmons. Mr. Eddie Steinhauer was the M.C. He addressed the young couple and then assisted with the wrappings. It may be Eddie's turn next to receive such a shower from what we hear and see. Anyway, Good Luck to you Eddie.

Mr. Stewart from Glengarry, Ont., is visiting his sister and family, Mrs. Jack Carey. He flew from Montreal to Vancouver and then came by bus here. He says flying is the only way to travel.

Janet Bell, Bill McGuigan, Kim McLennan, Tom Carey, all Grade 9 students passed their exams with good ratings. There are two other students but the writer hasn't heard their results.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Riedale, Bobbie and Dianne are holidaying here, spending some time at Tommy Sherwood's.

To Pinewood, via TV, From Elk Point

Canadian actor Vernon Gray, 23, has a leading part in a new British film being made at Pinewood, "A Day to Remember", thanks to his being spotted during a television performance by film producer Betty Box.

At first she thought he looked like the Hollywood actor Tyrone Power—and that is something Mr. Gray wants to live down. "There is only one Tyrone Power", he says. "I want to be known as the first Vernon Gray."

He is the son of a senior executive of the Canadian National Railways. He left home in Elk Point, Alberta (population 325), to play in Canadian repertory, studied drama in New York, and has acted, again in repertory at Windsor, Wolverhampton and Lichfield.

Death and Funeral Of Roy Patterson

Funeral services for Roy Patterson, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Patterson, who passed away on Sunday, Aug 9, at the age of 22 years, was held on Thursday, Aug. 13th at the United church, Vermilion. Interment was at the Vermilion cemetery. The services were conducted by Miss Mary Haggart and Miss Enid Horning, student ministers from the North Vermilion and Auburndale fields.

Roy Patterson was born at Castor, Alberta on Sept. 11, 1930 and later came to Vermilion to live in 1937, he received his education at Indian Lake school. For the last year and a half he worked with the Sub Surface Exploration where he was still employed.

He leaves to mourn his loss his sorrowing parents and two sisters, Evelyn and Edna, one brother Gordon, two grandmothers Mrs. Mabel McKay of Vermilion, Mrs. Annie Patterson of Winnipeg. He also leaves 30 [illegible] and [illegible] cousins.

THREE STEPS TO PERSONAL PEACE

"Few of us realize how accelerated the rate of our lives has become, or the speed at which we are driving ourselves," writes Dr. Norman Vincent Peale in the September Reader's Digest. Dr. Peale, a well known minister and author of several books on self-help, contends that "men and women are destroying their bodies by this pace—and, what is more tragic, their minds and souls as well."

Everyone should insist on not less than a quarter-hour of absolute quiet every 24 hours. To achieve complete detachment, Dr. Peale says, "Go alone into the quietest place available and sit or lie down for fifteen minutes. Do not talk to anyone. Do not read. Think as little as possible."

Emotional control, though difficult at first, may be developed by working at it regularly and persistently. "The secret is to keep the mind quiet, avoid all hasty reactions, keep the tempo down."

The Digest article offers three rules for the achievement of personal peace, based on a 'formula' use by Capt. Eddie Rickenbacher famous airman.

First, collapse physically. Let go every muscle in the body. Form a mental picture of a huge burlap bag of potatoes. Then mentally cut the bag, allowing the potatoes to roll out. Think of yourself as the bag. What is more relaxed than an empty burlap bag?"

Second, drain the mind of all irritation, resentment, disappointment. To do so think of the most beautiful and peaceful scenes you know — a mountain at sunset, a valley in the hush of early morning, a lake by moonlight.

Third, turn the mind to God. At least three times a day "lift up your eyes unto the hills."

Female Cattle Sale At Lacombe Nov. 6

A fall female sale of the three beef breeds will be held at the Central Alberta Pavillion, Lacombe on Nov. 6. It was decided at a recent meeting of the central Alberta cattle breeder's association. The sale date is two days following the Red Deer Hereford sale.

Many district breeders have been agitating for such a fall sale for the past two or three years and now that facilities have been improved at the Lacombe fair grounds, directors feel that it can be successfully handled this year.

"There will always be a demand for good breeding stock," W. M. Campbell, new secretary treasurer of the cattle breeders' association, stated this week. He pointed to the recent Sidney K. Berry sale at Lashburn, Sask., earlier this month when cattle sold averaged well over $300 with a top price of $1350.

In preparation for the [illegible] association directors will set up facilities to [illegible] as it is realized that many of the top females are out in pasture and have not been halter broken.

Entry forms are now being mailed out and all entries to this fall sale must be returned by Sept. 28. From enthusiasm for this central Alberta sale already shown by breeders, it is expected there will be a large entry. Arrangements have been made to reserve the sales pavilion for another day in case the number of entries necessitate the holding of a two day sale. 50

Alberta Chamber of Commerce Appoints New Manager

SUCCEEDS BOB MARLETT

Derek Griffin, of Montreal, has been appointed Alberta manager of the Alberta Chamber of Commerce, it was announced Thursday. Mr. Griffin will also serve as secretary of the Alberta Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture.

Operating from Red Deer, Mr. Griffin will succeed Donald Marlett, who has been named secretary-manager of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Griffin was manager of the field service department for the Canadian Chamber.

Mr. Marlett will succeed Donald McKay, who has taken a position with a new radio station in Edmonton.

Mr. Marlett has visited Vermilion several times and attended the Board of Trade weekly luncheon on each occasion.

UNCLAIMED WHEAT POOL RESERVES

The Alberta Wheat Pool has purchased all of the first series reserves contributed by members in the 1933-38 period. A number of the persons to whom money of the reserve purchase is forthcoming cannot be located. Below is a list of such persons in this area. If anyone who reads this advertisement knows the address of any person listed herewith would inform a Pool elevator agent or write to the Alberta Wheat Pool, Lougheed Building, Calgary, it would be greatly appreciated. The amounts run from $50 to $200.

The Pool membership number is given because identification must be positive and in many instances there are a number of people with the same name.

It should be clearly understood that this is a repayment of Alberta Wheat Pool reserves issued in the 1933-38 period. Furthermore, it should be understood that this has nothing to do with the Wheat Board or Wheat Board payments.

New Book Gives Facts About Canada

That 162,500 new houses, 432,000 automobiles or 43,000 freight cars could be built with the same effort as Canada's annual output by a single blast furnace—a structure as tall as a 17-storey building —put in operation this year by a Hamilton, Ont., steel mill is one of the interesting facts about Canada contained in the 1953-54 edition of Quick Canadian Facts, the pocket-size reference book of facts about Canada.

In a feature which reviews the extraordinary growth of Canada's primary steel industry, the new book points out that Canada now ranks seventh in the world in steel production and that Canadians, who consume 800 pounds of steel per capita annually, rank second in the world as steel users. Although the recent rate of expansion in the Canadian steel industry has been unequalled in the world-- production has been tripled in the years since just prior to World War 3--the article points out that "Canada imports steel from the U.S., the U.K., Europe and Japan. Because of the comparatively small population of Canada, this country will continue to be an importer of certain kinds, sizes and shapes of steel. It would be unreasonable for private or public enterprise to in vest large amounts of capital in buildings and machinery to manufacture any type of steel for which there is a limited Canadian demand as such plants would stand idle a good part of the time simply for lack of a continuous domestic market."

Other sections in the ninth annual edition of Quick Canadian Facts provide up-to-date information on natural resources, trade and industry, finance and taxes, latest census figures; facts about government the provinces, the Dominion, and all significant aspects of Canadian life. Distributed through newsstands and book stores the new issue of Quick Canadian Facts is released this week across the country.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McCauley and family have just returned from a very enjoyable trip to the West coast where they visited with relatives and friends for the first time two weeks in August.

Mrs. Karlstrom of Edberg, Alta., is here visiting her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Allen Olestad.

The W.I. meeting was held at the school on Aug. 12 with nine members present and one visitor. After the business part of the meeting was over plans were discussed for the fall bazaar. A parcel of clothing was prepared for the Barnardo's and donations to be turned in at the next meeting Mrs. O. Willes is the convener.

Mrs. MacMillan, delegate to the W. I. convention held in Vermilion in July, gave her report of the meeting. Next meeting for Claysmore will be at the school Sept. 9th.

Harvesting of early grain is quite in general in the district and if it stays dry everyone will be in the fields this week. Farmer's help is scarce and men are needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moore of Winnipeg are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs J. Horne.

Wayne Guinette of Conoway spent a weeks holiday in early August with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs R. M. MacMillan. He also visited Mrs. N. Beatty and family in Vermilion.

Word has been received in Vermilion of the sudden illness of Rev. C. MacKay while on his holidays in Eastern Canada and New York state. We hope to hear soon that he is home and much improved in health.

Wayne and Darrel, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Faristrom of Meeting Creek, Alta., have been visiting at the home of their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Allen Olestad. They returned home with their parents Saturday afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of BENJAMIN HENDERSON who passed away Aug. 30, 1951.
"Deep in our heart is a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest
In memory's frame we will keep it
Because he was one of the best."
—Ever remembered by loving daughter Ethel, brothers and sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of HAROLD YOUNG who passed away Aug. 29, 1951.
He bade no one a last farewell,
He said goodbye to none;
The heavenly gates were opened wide,
A loving Voice said "Come".

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welsh are happy to announce are arrival of a baby girl. A sister for John Stanley.

Mrs. L. V. Mead has now left to join her friends in Edmonton and from there will motor home to Pasadena, Calif. Mrs Mead has spent several weeks visiting her mother Mrs. C. E. Armstrong and sister Mrs. G. J. Maggs and family. Mrs. Mead's daughter and husband Kendall Heasley and little son Kenny of El Monte, Calif., and Mr. J. Heasley of Sierra Madre, Calif., spent a few days here as well. Mrs. Armstrong also had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Sam Melville of Malibu Beach, Calif. All the visitors were much surprised and impressed by the fine appearance of the country here.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Clyde Sobey who was bereaved by the death of her father Mr. William Gould of Fertonah on Aug. 15. Mr. and Mrs Sobey attended the funeral which was held at his boyhood home at Wetaskiwin on Aug. 19.

CARD OF THANKS

Many thanks to all the friends who sent me cards, flowers, made inquiries and visited me during my stay in the Royal Alexandra hospital, Edmonton, and also since my return home. Our Vermilion and district girls in training were very thoughtful indeed the way they rallied around. It was a busy visit very much. One comes home feeling made over to be identified as a member of this community.
Roy Walker.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear husband and father
WILLIAM HENRY HAYNES
—who passed away Aug. 28, 1951.
"Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Two far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach,
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
And who, though absent, is just as dear."
—Ever remembered by loving wife, and daughters Isobel, Lena and Mildred.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear brother
HAROLD CLIFFORD YOUNG
who passed away Aug 29, 1951
"Not a day do we forget him,
In our hearts he is always near,
Kind, remembered, longed for always,
Bringing many a silent tear."
Ever remembered by Frank, Florence and Carl.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband
HAROLD YOUNG
who passed away Aug 29 1951
We do not forget him
Love him too dearly
For such memories to fade from our lives like a dream
Our lips need not speak when
Our hearts are burdened severely
For one's eyes don't dwell where it seldom is seen.

WOODVALE

Sorry folks we did not get the news letter in quite early but canning guests and a three-day vacation trip has used our spare time. We ans some new visitors from the north and north west of Edmonton but saw nowhere crops better than in our parts south. Harvesting is not talk about now unless. We did not have many wet days either so much a short time on one small spot that was not covered by insect repellant. We were even pleased to smell like a smoked herring in the mosquito free smudge!

Half Barley we found bigger and better hay stacks growing up all around and quite a few fields swathed and with continuation of the heat prevailing at time of writing combines will soon be rolling along.

The addition to the Woodvale school and the new teacherage had progressed considerably too in that very short time and they are supposed to be finished before school starts. We could not believe that possible a few weeks ago but it looks quite likely now.

The Glee club has made an application for permission to hire the old school to be used for a community centre.

Roads have been graded recently in the Woodvale and Hillville districts so more students can be conveyed by bus to the Woodvale centralized school.

Mr. B. Klemm our student minister conducted a public vacation school in the Wildwood district with the able assistance of Mr Fred Swan.

Susan and Irene Wolters and Margaret McGrath returned from the camp at Sylvan Lake and brought home an assortment of very pretty camp-made articles. They would have enjoyed the holiday even more with less potatoes to peel and dishes to wash!

Donald Seite, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Seite of Vawnell is a patient in the Islay hospital having been kicked in the shin by a horse. Both bones were broken in the leg. While the Islay road south under reconstruction his parents are not able to see him very often, but his great aunt Mrs Belle McGrath is in the hospital too and he shares many of the visitors that come to see her.

Cecile and Marie Goutier made a trip to Saskatchewan to visit their sister Therese Pelletier and family in Dixon Park and their brother Maurice at Lac-qui Pretard. Gaston was home for a two weeks visit from St. Albert.

Laurie Seite left a while ago for California now he is unable to work for a few months and is visiting an aunt and other relations.

Orrin Webber of Toronto and two friends en route to Vancouver spent a few days with his aunt Mrs. Joseph Webber recently.

Mrs. A. McQuid is home again after a visit of several weeks with her daughter in Edmonton.

Miss Quin Lensbeck accompanied by Mr J Smit of Banff arrived for a visit at the home of her uncle Mr Van Wageningen. Mr Smit returned after a few days to Banff, but Quin is staying until the end of the month and will make a trip back home to the Netherlands with her friend Mrs. Dina Kirkwood of New Westminster who also is spending a few days at the farm.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS about Cancer

QUESTION: Is it true that cancer eats the inside of the body?

ANSWER: Cancer does not "eat" the tissues. It causes death of surrounding tissues by interfering with their function and by robbing them of their food and blood supply.

Avoid Overweight By Eating Bigger Breakfast

Illogical as it sounds, skimpy breakfasts may be a cause of fatness and the practice of eating bigger breakfasts may keep you thin, states an article in the September Reader's Digest.

Breakfast is the most important meal, the Digest says. Fruit juices, cereal with milk, an egg and bacon, toast and coffee, will add fewer pounds in the long run than a breakfast of only coffee and sweet rolls. While the larger breakfast contains roughly 2½ more calories, it will satisfy you over with no mid-morning snack and less desire for a big lunch or dinner. Protein content is the answer — 17 grams in the larger meal and only 4 in the other.

When the sugar level of our blood rises to a certain point we no longer feel hungry, the article points out. As we expend energy, the sugar level drops and we are hungry again.

Carbohydrate foods such as coffee with sugar and rolls raise the blood level abruptly. They are 'quick energy' foods. But this energy is soon used up and hunger begins again. Proteins also raise the sugar level but they hold it above the hunger mark far longer. Since fats slow down the rate at which carbohydrates and proteins are digested, they too [illegible] constant blood sugar level.

The man who starts his workday with only coffee and rolls will feel hungry by mid-morning and will want to go out for doughnuts and coffee to tide him over until lunch. Hungry again, he fill eat a larger lunch than if he had had a substantial, high protein breakfast. By the end of the day he will have consumed far more calories than if he had eaten the heartier breakfast.

Those who cannot face a big breakfast can work up a breakfast appetite by taking moderate exercise before this meal, the Digest advises.

Former Vermilion Girl Will Tour Britain

NORMA GREIG MEMBER OF FAMED ELGAR CHOIR

VICTORIA. — The eyes of pretty, 18-year-old Norma Greig light up with excitement when the words 'Great Britain' are mentioned, for Norma along with 25 other young British Columbia vocalists will make a three-month tour of England, Scotland and Wales next summer with the Elgar Choir of B.C.

The choir is organized and conducted by C. E. Findlater, a well known Vancouver musician, who has made many previous tours with his choirs. He selects choristers from all parts of B.C. for his good will tours to the Old Country, thus representing the entire province and not just the City of Vancouver as did his original choir.

Norma, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Greig, Morrow Crest Auto Court, Island Highway, graduated from Oak Bay High school this year. She sang the leading role of Jennie in the school's recent operetta, Down in the Valley, was an ardent member of the drama club and one of the school's snappy cheer leaders. Last Christmas she took one of the leads in the pantomime at the Royal Theatre and in 1952 she won a bursary in the Greater Victoria Musical Festival. She has studied elocution and is at present taking singing lessons from Gypsy Mahaffey, with whom she has studied for one year.

Norma returned from Vancouver this week, where she has been rehearsing with the choir, was measured for her uniform and received instructions on the forthcoming tour each evening at Mr. Findlater's studio on Hastings St.

"We have 28 pieces of music to memorize before our next two-week practice session at Christmas," Norma said. "Then Mr. Findlater will add more songs to our list." Last year's choir had a repertoire of over forty songs.

The choir will also meet at Easter for a two-week rehearsal and then again next June before leaving on the trip. Sailing date from Montreal is June 25.

Norma will attend Normal school next year, although she has always yearned for a stage career.

"If the opportunity to sing or act for a living ever comes my way," she said with a decided nod, "I'll take it!"

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Bill Hart and Barbara Barnett

Baskets of blue delphinium, sweet william, white peonies and fern banked the altar of First United church, Vermilion, for the marriage of Miss Barbara Jane Barnett, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barnett of Islay to Mr. Edwin William Hart, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hart of Vermilion. The Rev. R. Creighton performed the double ring ceremony.

Entering the church with her father, the bride looked lovely in a gown of white applique organdy over satin, fashioned with a gathered skirt and fitted bodice which featured a scalloped yolk with self-covered buttons down the back and lily point sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a seed pearl coronet. She carried a white Bible with red rose buds and white satin streamers. She wore as her only jewelry a pearl necklace and matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. R. T. Cook of Lea Park, Alberta, attended as matron of honor and Miss Celia Coe as bridesmaid.

The matron of honor wore a gown of pink applique organdy over taffeta styled with a strapless bodice and full skirt and bolero. Her headdress was a net band with small flowers and she carried a lavender fan bouquet of mixed summer flowers and fern. The bridesmaid wore a gown of lavender nylon net over taffeta featured with a hoop skirt and short puffed sleeves. Her headdress was a band of net with small flowers and she carried a pink fan bouquet of mixed summer flowers.

Little Sharon Redmond, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of green pouspoint organdy over taffeta trimmed with white lace. She carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Mr. Joe Hart, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Mr. Roy Barnett, brother of the bride and Mr. David Hart.

Mrs. A. M. West played the wedding music and during the signing of the register, Miss Shirley McCormick sang "I'll Walk Beside You".

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Barnett chose a navy crepe dress with navy and white accessories and gladioli and baby's breath on corsage. The groom's mother wore a grey crepe dress trimmed with lace, complemented with pink and navy accessories. Her corsage was of gladioli and fern.

Later a reception to 125 guests was held in the Islay community hall where the bride's mother and the groom's mother received. The bride's table was laid in white linen and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake embedded in pink tulle, blue bells and white tapers. During the reception Miss Shirley McCormick sang "Bless This House".

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. C. A. Barnett, uncle of the bride, and was ably responded to by the groom. Misses Lynda Redmond and Bonnie Hawkins were in charge of the guest book.

Leaving by car on a honeymoon to Jasper, Banff and points in the United States, the bride donned a blue-grey tailored suit, matching the groom's suit, with white accessories and her corsage was of red roses.

On their return the happy couple will make their home on the groom's farm west of Vermilion.

Out of town guests included Mr. C. A. Barnett of St. Marys, Ont.; Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Hawkins and family of Tulsa, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawson and family of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. George Sherriff and family of Carstairs; Mr. and Mrs. Farrell and family of Carstairs.

THE OLD TOWN HALL

—PICTURED ABOVE is the old 'town hall' and fire hall as it appeared in the very early days. Back about 1914 lightning struck the tall hose drying tower shown on the rear of the building and a much lower one was built to replace it. The old horse drawn chemical and man drawn hose reels occupied the space behind the double doors. The town offices and council chambers were upstairs. Shown in front of the building are two well known citizens of the town, both still here and who were town councillors when the photo was taken. They are S. R. P. Cooper on the left and W. J. Macnab on the right. Both are in characteristic poses.

This was in the exciting old days when the fire alarm was given by the rapid ringing of the big bell on the top of the hall, and the driver of the first team to hook onto the chemical to haul it to the fire received a dollar. The horses would become as excited as the men, and would race down the street in fine style.

The building was destroyed by the great Vermilion fire of April 1918 and only the big bell remains. (This old bell may still be seen in an inverted position beside the present firehall, and was used for several years as a gigantic flower pot. (There is some talk of it being given a place of honor in the town park as an historic relic.)

Wildmere Winks

We are pleased to see Mrs. A. Osborn of Triangle home and feeling well again after a siege of blood poisoning in her thumb.

Mrs. A. Raud has been ill in the hospital and we wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Gertie Craig of Vermilion visited last week end at the Hoite home and on Sunday attended the church service at Wildmere. Miss Craig was the first teacher at our school so it s nice to see her back once in a while.

Mrs. C. Morand of Calgary is here visiting her brothers Bill, Adam and Albert Smith and her sister Mrs. C Cruthers. When Mrs. Morand returns home her son Peter who has spent his holidays here will go back with her to attend school.

On Sunday afternoon the Vacation school service was held, 35 children attended Vacation week and 25 were able to attend on Sunday. Betty Smith was sick and unable to be there. It's just wonderful how they can so much with such a short training period. Even the little beginners did well with their hymns. Barbara Green of Willoughby would had been helping all week at Vacation school played the piano for the service. Miss Horning gave great praise to Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Hughes who carried on the Sunday school all through the winter at their schools, as many of the children said, "I know that, we had it at Sunday school when we were studying the Scriptures". Prizes and certificates were given out on Sunday by those who taught at Vacation school namely Margaret and Hazel Whitlock and Alice Seuffert of Vermilion. Work done during the week was on display and it really was nice. Little Marie and Dorothy Towell from north of Vermilion who were visiting their aunt and uncle Mr and Mrs. Dave Hughes of Base wood also attended. A hearty vote of thanks is surely due Miss Horning and helpers for their splendid work and patience at conducting Vacation school. To the children who took part so faithfully go a hearty thanks too.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Towell, north of Vermilion attended church here on Sunday and it was nice seeing them.

Sorry Mrs. Green and Barbara that we could not visit with you after church but the meeting took up a little while and you had gone when we came out. Thanks Barbara for your help and come again sometime.

It was decided at the meeting after church on Sunday that Wildmere would try and raise $200 this year as their part of the student's salary. Next year other plans will be worked out earlier.

Church next Sunday will be at 7:30 and Miss Haggert from the north field will conduct the service. Please plan to attend.

Bowtell — Peggy Graham is at the Royal Alex hospital, not the General as you thought.

We were pleased to see Audrey Symes of Edmonton home over the week end, visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Symes of Battleview.

Sunday evening Billie Smith took his sisters Mrs. Morand and Mrs. Cruthers over to Triangle to visit Mrs. Raud for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin, Doreen and Alice Seuffert, Ian Clark and the Wallington boys were visitors to the Frank Gibson home Sunday evening. Isabelle Gibson had a birthday on Saturday and was having her birthday supper that night. That was a good one Isabelle and may you have many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Gibson and Mary attended the Buddies-Weds wedding last Thursday, also the reception at Mannville. May you enjoy many years of happy married life Violet and Siegfred.

Lindy Fasden is the first in our corner to cut grain having cut rye and barley nearly two weeks ago.

Mosquitoes have certainly been bad lately, and as one wee fellow said: "Their mothers don't teach them any manners, as they bite anywhere and anytime.

An Alaskan Honeymoon

The other interesting side trip we took was by means of the Alaska Railroad to McKinley National park, one of the largest areas set aside in the North American continent for the preservation of wild game. Mount McKinley reaches a height of 20,300 feet and is higher from base to peak than any other mountain in the world.

We reached the park by noon and took a small bus trip into the park to see what animals possible and to get a glimpse of the mountain. Unfortunately we had not been too well informed on the trip. If we had planned on staying overnight we could have taken an early morning trip when the animals are more likely to be seen feeding and the mountains are usually not yet covered by clouds, as they are later in the day. Our short one and one-half hour trip began at 1:30 p.m. and was actually the worst time of the day for viewing animals. Although we passed by the favorite haunts of a grizzly bear and a bull moose, neither was to be seen. However we got a glimpse of Mt. McKinley through the clouds which was the main aim of the trip the hotel sight-seeing service had arranged for the mid-day visitors, and we saw some of the park. The surrounding scenery with its border of snow capped peaks was of the most beautiful seen in Alaska, although by this time we were becoming very accustomed to mountains.

Leaving Fairbanks for home covered the same ground but we made a slight tour off the highway at Mile 1130 to get a view of the new Donjek Bridge which had just been completed although was not yet open to the public due to the incompletion of the north approach road. This bridge was of particular interest to me because a great portion of my work was in its regard. We were travelling late in order to reach Burwash Landing to spend the night so we viewed the bridge in the dim light of 1:00 a.m. — still plenty of light to see everything clearly, and the slight had already passed its darkest hour and was beginning to brighten. Just before reaching this point we saw four moose on the highway, in twos, within fifteen minutes. The last two was a female with her calf. They ran off the road and stood behind some shrubs, just standing, peering at us in a most mournful manner. The first two we saw were either female or—on account of their youth or of the sex, had no horns. There you have three possible reasons for why the moose had no horns, but I don't know enough about moose to determine which would be most likely. The animals acted very much like horses in their manner of sliding off the road.

Well there you have it to the best of my ability. By the time we got home we were plenty tired but nevertheless satisfied that we had a very enjoyable and worthwhile trip. We will never regret seeing that portion of Alaska, parts of which we will always be glad to go back to whenever the opportunity presents itself.

Paradise Valley

Miss Elizabth Friebel of Consort is visiting with her brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friebel.

Mrs. Alex McDonald of Kimberly, B.C., a former resident of Moyerton was a recent visitor with old friends in town and district.

Miss Enid Sauder of Edmonton is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Colin Ball. We regret to hear that Mrs. Ball has been a patient in the Lloydminster hospital.

Mr. Stewart Canavace of Victoria, B.C., has been visiting with relatives at Kitscoty and Paradise Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bleakley and family and Miss Margaret Wolf returned on Sunday from a holiday trip to Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Knor have returned from a holiday spent at Jasper and points in B.C. following the Yellowhead route.

Mr. Gordon Block met with a very painful accident when he fell out of the truck on a harrow and broke several bones in his foot. He is in the Lloydminster hospital.

W. A. Gunn, our local postmaster returned on Friday after attending the Postmasters' Conference held in the Macdonald at Edmonton during the past week and reports a very interesting and instructive meeting. The attendance this year was good and the membership of the Association is encouraging. A new set up in the payment of revenue for postmasters is being worked out which is expected to be better than that in use at the present time.

CIVILISATION IN THE RAW

It's an age-old and honorable right of a country boy to go for a swim in his birthday suit.

It's something city-raised boys never know. But these days even the country lads are being pressed by progress. The Financial Post fears. Motor cars can zoom up over a bridge before a bare path has a chance to dive under. And the prospect of helicopters overhead is infinitely more distressing.

However, there's a refreshing ripple on the sun-speckled surface of the old swimming hole near Brooklin, Ontario.

For years and years boys have been dipping in farmer J. F. Carwith's swimming hole, protected by a sign which says, no picnics, no cars, and "Boys Swimming Only".

Now civilization with its picnics threatens to crowd them out. Says farmer Carwith, "It seems a shame a boy can't have one swimming hole where he can swim in the way that nature meant boys to swim".

Health Unit Notes

WATER SUPPLIES IN RURAL AREAS

Having decided upon the quantity of water required, and the reasons why the supply must be safe we come to the next important step which is the location of the well.

If we could visualize the underground layers of sand, gravel and clay, it would be an easy matter to select the best location for a well, unfortunately this is not possible. Some use a person with 'water divining' powers but the success of this method varies considerably.

Any experienced well driller or water finder will always be willing so give the fullest information as to the data upon which he bases his opinion that water is to be found in a certain locality. He will make full enquiries regarding the depth of all wells in the vicinity and the nature of the ground passed through in sinking these wells, and, having taken all available information, including surface contours. Into consideration, he will, by exercise of judgment acquired with long practise in selecting sites for wells, be able to give a fairly reliable opinion as to whether water may or may not be found at a certain spot. However I must point out the driller is only a human being and occasionally drills a dry hole.

It is advisable in sinking a well to secure the services of an experienced well driller rather than call in an odd job man. A qualified driller should be able to advise a farmer as to the best type of well to sink for his particular circumstances and in accordance with the underground sources in his district. He should also provide a proper log of the well, including a record of all strata passed through, so that if it is necessary to sink another well at a later date, or make repairs to the well, the owner will be in possession of full information.

SITE OF WELL

Having decided upon the approximate location for a well, a knoll or piece of rising ground — never a depression —should be chosen for the actual site.

There is a common tendency, and perhaps a natural one, for the farmer to select the lowest possible point on which to sink his well. By doing so he may be saving the cost of several feet of digging and casing. In every case where this has been done it has been found impossible to prevent surface water from entering the well and in a course of a short time, usually following the first rainstorm, surface water and filth have been washed into the well, and the supply has become polluted and dangerous.

The first and all important consideration then in sinking a well is to select a site from which the ground will slope away in all directions, or if this is not practicable, to choose a location which can eventually be artificially graded to produce this condition.

A survey on the location of wells has shown that a common reason for well pollution is thoughtlessness in choosing a site, resulting in surface water and drainage having access to the top of a well. The well should be located as far away as possible from any source of pollution such as drains, ditches, cesspools, privies, sewage disposal fields and barns. It must, of course, be conveniently situated for use, but the farther away it is from buildings, the less liable it is to pollution.

CANADA'S ARABLE LAND

Canada's total acreage of arable land is 130 million of which according to the 1951 census about 80 million acres of that area are now cultivated. Approximately another 60 million acres could be brought under production if economic conditions were favorable.

There'll always be a BUICK in our family!

Illustrated—Roadmaster 4-door Riviera Sedan

You know, there are thousands of people who have never driven any car but a Buick. Their Buick is more than the family car, it's a part of the family—a tradition passed on from generation to generation. There's a reason behind this loyalty of Buick owners. It's the satisfaction of owning the best. It's Buick's individuality . . . the trigger-quick responsiveness of its Fireball power—the matchless beauty of its styling—the famous reputation for craftsmanship. That's why once a Buick family, always a Buick family. And this year, The Greatest Buicks in Fifty Great Years are surprising even old friends of Buick with their dazzling new peaks of performance. There's the superb Roadmaster, the brilliant Super and the spirited Custom, each one a new triumph for the Buick name.

Whether you're headed for your first Buick or your twenty-first, we promise you the driving thrill of a lifetime, so visit your Buick Dealer soon.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

SALAD IDEAS

Are your salad ideas running low? Just glance over this list and see if there are any tips which you may not have used for awhile.

Cabbage with green peppers, nuts or raisins.

Cabbage with onion rings, hard cooked eggs and sweet pickles.

Cabbage with horseradish and cooked diced beets.

Spinach, raw with cabbage and raisins.

THE DRESSING

Here is your basic French Dressing recipe. Many variations can be made from this recipe and a few of these are given here. Any dressing of this type may be made in a large quantity and stored in the refrigerator for a month or more if necessary—

½ cup olive oil; 4 tbsp. vinegar ½ tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. paprika; 1 tsp. sugar. Place all ingredients in a jar and shake for a minute, then serve.

VARIATIONS

1 Add 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce and one mashed hard boiled egg.

2 Add ⅛ tsp. onion juice, 2 drops tabasco sauce, ⅛ tsp. Worcestershire sauce and ⅛ tsp. mustard.

3. Add ⅛ chopped onion, ⅛ green pepper and 2 branches of chopped parsley.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When hulling berries before you start the task, dip your fingers in olive oil. After you've finished you will find the stain will wash off with little difficulty.

The easiest way to handle paraffin is to use an old coffee pot. Keep the paraffin in this pot all year round. When you remove it from the jars wash with cold water and dry well before putting it in the pot. When needed, heat over slow fire until paraffin melts and pour over your jams and jellies. When covering jelly with paraffin, never heat the paraffin to the smoking point. This makes it shrink from the sides of the jelly container. To remove the paraffin from the pot in which was melted, fill the pot with boiling water and allow to cool. The paraffin will float on the surface and can easily be removed.

A QUESTION

Question: Should you use a water softener with soaps and synthetic detergents (or syndets)?

If your water is soft you won't need to do so. But if your water is hard, you should definitely soften the wash water and the first rinse water. Syndets do not form a curd with hard water as soap does, but it will take more soap or syndet. Since water softeners are cheaper than these detergents, it is cheaper to use a water softener.

Ask for the new non-precipitating water softeners, because they make the water less alkaline than the old type and do not make the water cloudy. Furthermore you can use the non-precipitating water softeners to remove the grey soap curd from your clothes, which have become grey in washing.

Highland Dancing at Elk Island Park

The Alberta Highland Dancing Association will provide the afternoon concert at Elk Island Park on Sunday, Aug. 30, with Mrs. Helen Turney and Mrs. Dell Hill directing a varied program of Scottish and Irish dances. A pipe band will be in attendance and Pipe Majors Lunnan, Jack Stout and Robert Stoker will do the honors in piping for the dance groups. Program starts at 3:00 p.m.

At 10 a.m. religious exercises will be held at the Bandshell with Rev. J. E. Nix of Lamont United church conducting the service. Park visitors are invited to join with the Lamont congregation in this devotional period.

At 7:30 p.m. the regular program of travel films will be presented by the National Film Board.

We Visit Holland, Belgium

BY ANNIE MEAD.

I must not forget to tell you about the arbor where we ate while waiting for the Guide to take them for that hour-long trip in La Grotte. Like all these outdoor places, it was pitcuresque but somehow it didn't appeal to me personally. There was a nice vine-covered wall to provide shade, apples and berries were growing all around it, there were red squirrels in a wire enclosure for entertainment and the usual little tables and chairs grouped around. It couldn't have been the young pet pig that followed the lady in charge all around the tables as I have bottle-fed dozen of tiny pigs. Perhaps it was the fact that the smoked pork in the soggy sandwiches was raw! At any rate Richard and I just didn't have any appetite. However, we were cautious enough to wrap those same sandwiches carefully and take them with us, in case we felt differently before we reached Brussels where our next reservations were. We did!

It was a Sunday and we soon found ourselves in heavy traffic returning to the city, in fact for the last ten miles we drove bumper to bumper almost, in a line of traffic that extended as far as we could see in front of us and they had filled in behind us as far as we could see. Before darkness set in the wide tree-flanked road had old folks sitting at all the doorways. The buildings were large, of brick construction, housing the family at one end and the animals at the other but they were very clean. Arriving in Brussels we hailed a taxi showed the driver the name Albert Ier written on a slip of paper, waved him on and hoped he understood. This is a form of sport to be highly recommended. Just glue your eyes on the license plate and try to keep up with a man who is perfectly at home in his city, where the traffic is terrific, and just about the time it seems that he must be taking the longest way round, he stops at the hotel you scarcely dare to hope even exists. 'Albert Ier must have been a very famous hotel at one time judging from its appearance and it still is, from the tourist point of view. People from every land mingled there, our language being not at all uncommon. Our rooms were on the 7th floor, the boys and mine opened onto a balcony overlooking the city which simply gleamed with lights. The hotel itself dazzles with mirrors, marble and lights. Ours on the 7th floor were not quite so elaborate however.

In the morning we drove toward Holland over paved boulevards with trees down the centre and what appeared to be tomato trees on either side. Crossing in to Holland at Putte the roads changed to cobblestones and the houses were decidedly different in appearance. The colors were much gayer, pink being a favorite. We arrived at Bergen op Zoom about noon where we saw the ocean and our first dykes. Driving along the shore, we left the car, went through a fence and climbed up onto a dyke. There were some men working behind it, one of whom came toward us waving and shouting. We finally understood that we were on dangerous and forbidden territory as it was flood land and when the tide was out it was treacherous because of quicksand. However we snapped a picture before returning to the car, the man still chattering behind us. Michael had offered him some cherries, forgetting that there were two bananas in the bag, and the man seized the bananas with evident delight. While he was expressing gratitude in one language, Michael was saying, 'cherries! Not bananas. I said, have some cherries' I want to eat the bananas", in another. We found a hotel (De Schelde) where the people were very courteous and the food more like ours in Canada. The highlight here was the fact that we thought the gentleman the waiter brought to our table to assist in taking our order was an employee of the hotel. We ordered through him, finding out later that the kind gentleman was a customer, like ourselves. Holland, at least where we were, is recovering from the floods very rapidly. One reason for this is that people work 12 hours a day. It is a wonderful place to purchase paintings, lace, and in fact practically everything as their prices are very low. Our dollars go a long way. Of course the boys were wearing wooden shoes when they left. On the way back to Brussels we took pictures of dykes, windmills, men wearing wooden shoes and carts with dogs helping to pull them.

Next door to the Albert Ier is the only floor show of its kind in Belgium, a large restaurant open on to the street. They assured us it was suitable for the boys and it certainly was. There was a violinist of exceptional talent but what we enjoyed most was the electric organ. The musician was seated at the back of the platform where he could see all the tables where dinner was being served, down in front where light lunches were being enjoyed and even out onto the sidewalk cafe. He played music of every country and it was impossible not to join the singing where familiar strains were played. The boys were so fascinated they scarcely touched their food.

As we were leaving Brussels a young man stopped Richard and asked if he might read what was written on Richard's shirt, stating that he could read English. The boys were wearing their 'Lil Abner' shirts so it is little wonder the young Belgian looked mystified at the English language.

Vol. XLV. No. 10. Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, September 3rd, 1953. $2.00 per Year

Thirty New Homes In Town This Year

Home building is booming in Vermilion this summer and carpenters are kept in a continual rush to complete many houses before the arrival of cold weather. The trend of home-providing this summer is towards the moving in of houses from the country or other centres where they can be bought at prices low enough to make it feasible to move them here and renovate. Several country school houses, no longer used since centralization and busses have crept into the school picture, have been brought in also. Vermilion will have 30 new homes by the end of 1953. These will be about equally divided between new construction and moved in houses. These latter are all inspected and are required to be up to certain standards of construction.

FINE SUBDIVISION

Vermilion is fortunate in having a very fine new subdivision on the south side. This is a group of larger than usual lots, located in a quiet area away from busy streets, and fully serviced with all the modern facilities. The lots and locations are regarded as ideal for folks wishing to retire from the farm and to build a home in town on the larger lots.

More fully serviced lots will soon be available in the east end as new water and sewer lines will be run in that area. Work on the extension has finally started and given an open fall should be completed before the freeze-up.

NEW HOUSES

Fine new houses are being erected by Aldous Kent in the west end, John Ferbey in the east end of town with permits for these two being taken out in the fall of 1952. Other home builders are: Wm. Dembicky, Lot 24, Blk. 29. Ken E. Rowe, Lot 11, Blk. E. Everett J. White, Lot 26, Blk. 30; Mrs. Nellie Wilson, Islay, Lot 9, Blk 26. Walter Coulter, Lots 4 and 5, Blk. 30; John Webb, Lot 13, Blk. 3; Mrs. Lillian Stonehuse, Lot 20, Blk. 15. Freeman French, east end; Salvation Army residence, Lot 2, Blk. 13; John Kuzek, Lot 6, Blk. 11; Clarence Lysons, Lot 17, Blk. 25; Peter Bardoel, Lot 23, Blk. 36.

Houses have been moved in and are being renovated by the following: J. Mysnak, Lot 15, Blk. 6; Jas. McCauley, Lot 15, Blk. 16; Edward Baldwin, Lot 22, Blk. 26; Jim Ferguson, Lot 3, Blk. 34; T. A. Glew, Lot 19, Blk. 3. T. Turner, Lot 31, Blk 30. Scilus Lee, Lot 1, and half of 2, Blk. 2. Joe Zubkowski, Lot 16, Blk. 26 John Toner, Lot 17, Blk. 25 Dave Brown, Lot 17, Blk. 26. Dave Brown Lot 18, Blk. 26. Dave Brown Lot 19 Blk. 26. John Tarangle, Lot 2, Blk. 29.

Some houses have had major additions and face liftings, including the following: Mrs. Nancy Beatty; Percy Moffatt house owned by Mark Norton. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cavil house.

The only complete new building in the business section was Mike Kupin's which houses his shoe repair shop with large additional space. This is located right on Main street and is a decided acquisition.

The Food Locker is spending $5000 on a large additon to their plant on Main street west, while the Coop. Association have taken out a permit for a metal warehouse to be erected on Lots 1 and 2, Blk 24 at a cost of $6500.

The Elks spent $4000 on renovating and altering their large hall and adding many facilities.

The Alliance Chapel is being renovated and $3000 spent on the changes. At the Gospel hall $1000 will be spent on a basement and alterations.

Despite the big increase in houses in the town of Vermilion in the past ten years, there is still a big demand for living accommodation and rentable houses are practically non-existent. There is a decided need for houses to rent, or failing that, more suites.

Labor Day Holiday

Monday next, Sept. 7 is Labor Day and a Dominion holiday. All stores and business places in Vermilion will be closed.

George Kinshella Of Dewberry Dies In Edmonton

There passed away on August 23 a well known citizen of Dewberry, Mr. George A. Kinshella, who died at the Misericordia hospital, Edmonton, at the age of 74 years.

Mr. Kinshella lived in Dewberry from 1916 to 1951 when he moved to Leduc. He leaves to mourn his passing his sorrowing wife, three daughters, Mrs. E. C. Butts of Leduc, Mrs. Sol Lemp of Dewberry, Mrs. D. Finlay of Dewberry; four sons John of Hazeldine, Bill of Marwayne, George and Howard of Jasper Place, Edmonton. There are 18 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

The funeral services were held at the church of St. John the Evangelist at Jasper Place, with interment at the South Side Catholic cemetery. The Rev. A. Gillies officiated.

Connolly and McKinley were in charge of funeral arrangements.

New Business Men Are Welcomed At Board of Trade

LUNCHEON MEETINGS RE-COMMENCE AFTER RECESS

Board of Trade weekly luncheon meetings re-commenced after the summer recess on Wednesday with a good attendance. Among those present were numerous new business men who have come to town since the Board last met and these were introduced and welcomed warmly to the town. Included in the newcomers was Gerry Moffatt who comes from Lacombe and has been appointed assistant district agriculturist here. Mitchell Taylor, Chartered Accountant who has opened an office here. Wm. Linings, the new manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Steve Onesko, one of the new partners at the Brunswick hotel. Ewald Polinsky and Lloyd Sutherland, the new proprietors of the Texaco Service station, now known as Lloyd's Servicentre.

Business hinged around possibility of an isolation hospital here and the health committee convener Dr King was asked to continue investigating this project.

The meeting was brought up to date on the lake and park project by Bill Sutherland.

A letter from the Edmonton Journal regarding publishing of a special edition on Nov. 10 was discussed and some interest was shown in advertising in that issue. This will be pursued by the retail committee.

A letter was read from W. P. and Bill Pilkie expressing appreciation for a farewell gift which they had received from the Board.

The rapid deterioration of highway 41 due to lack of maintenance and attention was viewed with alarm and the road committee is writing the Minister of Highways as well as the local member Mr. Cornish drawing attenion to the neglected state of this highway, a very good one, up to this summer.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 9th at 12:10 noon. The sessions are open and you are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Olsonberg Farewelled, Mannville

MANNVILLE - A farewell party was held for Mr. and Mrs. S. Olsonberg in the school auditorium on Friday last. The community and district were well represented. The program for the evening arranged by Mrs J. I. Jones was in charge of the high school students and was much enjoyed by all present. A local school orchestra supplied the music for dancing and also played during the program. A piano duet by Maxine and Arlene Leitch was followed by a skit depicting in lighter vein school days for the past ten years. This was put on by graduates and past graduates and was much enjoyed by Mr. Olsonberg as well as the audience. Mary Boyle of Minburn spoke very sincerely of high school days under Mr. Olsonberg. She expressed the sentiments of the whole high school during his ten years there.

Mr. Crooks as M.C. presented Mr and Mrs. Olsonberg with a purse of money on behalf of the town and district and hoped that they would purchase something for their new home which would remind them of their many friends here.

Mr and Mrs. H. Doherty the new principal and his wife were introduced but are already known to many in the district.

After a delicious lunch served by the ladies of the community, dancing continued to the music of the local school orchestra.

Paradise Valley Girl Represents Alberta

AT 4-H CLUB ANNUAL CONGRESS

Congratulations go to Miss Shirley Gunn who was one of the four Alberta 4-H Club members who left last Saturday Aug. 22 for Bozeman Montana where they will represent Alberta at the annual 4-H Congress. Other members were Miss Joan Lithe of Westlock, Victor Maxwell Rocky Mountain House and James Kinniburgh of Airdrie Alta. They were accompanied by Miss L. Shaw District Home Economist of Hanna and L. Rasmussen District Agriculturist of Lacombe. The 4-H Club members are selected for the annual exchange visit by the Dept. of Agriculture on the basis of their club records.

Joins Elk Point Clinic

Dr K C Miller MD, a son of Dr and Mrs. Fred Miller has joined the staff of the Medical Clinic at Elk Point. He is a graduate of Alberta University, interned at the University hospital and then practised at the Calgary Associate Clinic for one year.

Ladies' Open Golf Tourney Sept. 13th

AT VERMILION GOLF COURSE

The Ladies' Open Golf tournament will be held at the Vermilion course on Sunday, Sept. 13. Starting time is 9 a.m. Entries from visitors will be accepted until 10 a.m. Entry fee is $1.

The men are asked to forego their golf until the tournament has been completed. Lunch will be served at the club house.

Club Championship Will Be Played This Month

The Club championship tournament for the Vermilion Golf club will be held this month starting match play on Wednesday Sept. 16. All male members are requested to hand in a 9-hole qualifying score by Sept. 13. Score cards are to be handed to Gerald Stephens.

Flights of eight will be drawn up and the matches run the same way as in the open tournament.

Every member is urgently requested to take part in the event. Small prizes will be awarded.

LADIES' TOURNEY

Members are reminded that the Ladies' tournament will be held on Sept. 13 and no men will be allowed on the course until matches in this event are over.

QUICK WORK BY LOCAL R.C.M.P.

NAB BURGLAR

Sometime between closing at midnight Wednesday last week and opening at 8:00 Thursday morning, the Vermilion pool room was broken into and some $4.50 in cash left for change was taken along with a number of chocolate bars and a quantity of cigarettes. The local R.C.M.P. detachment was notified and by 8 p.m. that evening a suspect C. A. McMullen had been arrested. At court next day he was proven the guilty man and sentenced to 16 months in jail. The R.C.M.P. turned up quite a career for McMullen. He came from Ontario, was a deserter from the army, and had a lengthy criminal record.

The police are carrying out further investigations as they believe that more than one man was involved in the break-in.

Two other recent cases of breaking and entering, at Lloyd's Servicentre, and the Revelstoke Sawmill are being investigated.

Petition Presented To Park Committee And Council

A petition has been presented to the Vermilion Park committee and the Town Council in an effort by those interested in swimming to safeguard the old swimming pool from further mutilation in the process of developing other areas of the park.

Vermilion, Alberta,
August 20 1953.

Copies to Vermilion Park Committee
Vermilion Town Council

Gentlemen

We, the undersigned inasmuch as at present, there is no suitable place for 'teen-agers and adults to swim other than the old original swimming pool, hereby petition the above bodies to consider the swimming faction of the district during the coming winter when work on the park goes on in that they do not haul sand from or ruin in any way the old swimming pool. Considerable damage was wrought last winter when sand was bulldozed from this spot and it entailed considerable work [illegible] come [illegible]

We feel that as there is plenty of sand available along the hill adjoining the old swimming pool a program of lengthening the beach and obtaining sand for the kiddies beach [illegible]

Brent Macnab Called To Eskimo Ball Team

(The Edmonton Journal)

Brent Macnab, already a full-fledged professional in one major sport will make his debut in another when Edmonton's grievously under-staffed Eskimos return to Renfrew Park tonight.

Occasion of the chunky Vermilion catcher's baptism in organized ball will be Fan Appreciation Night in the Edmonton ballyard with the Eskimos and the first half champions, Salem Senators, opening a three game series.

Dick Morgan, the regular snubber was forced to the sidelines when he woke up Saturday with a stiff back that dated back to fouling off a pitch in the 9th inning the night before. It's not known when Morgan will be ready for service but even if Dick gets back into action in a day or two Macnab will finish out the season with the Esks as insurance.

Now it will be up to Macnab familiar to Renfrew fans in past seasons with semi-pro clubs. Brent still has a couple of weeks to go before reporting to pro hockey training camp.

Labor Day

In its original conception, Labor Day was one set aside to honor the industrial worker and the achievements of trade unions. Today it is still marked officially only by organized labor. Everyone else takes a holiday, but pays little attention to the significance of the day itself.

Yet the day has a meaning for all of us. Trade unions themselves would be the first to acknowledge that the day of outright hostility between labor and management has ended, the narrow-minded view on both sides has progressed to the point of a fairer attitude. And just as the full realization of freedom is outdated, so has the significance of Labor Day moved with the times.

On best Company employed person in Canada. From the company president down to the office boy, will be taking a holiday. It is these millions of people whether they belong in the labor or the management sections of industry, who are contributing to the building of this country.

There lies the real meaning of Labor Day Canadians laboring to achieve a better more prosperous Canada, a finer place in which to live and bring up their families. Let there be trade union parades and celebrations on Sept. 7th but let there also be a moment's reflection by each of us on the broader concept of labor in Canada — the conviction by our own free efforts of the kind of country we want our children to inherit.

Something New At The V. S. A.

Interesting new has been added to the girls' curriculum at the Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics, along with an expansion of the course. Social Relationships. Girls who are interested in some commercial training as well as a course in home-making will find just what they are looking for at these schools. Typing is useful at all times and Social Relationships will enable the girls to enter their jobs with more confidence and self assurance.

More information may be obtained by writing to the Principal, School of Agriculture, Vermilion.

Reason For Grain Congestion

(Alberta Wheat Pool Budget)

The production of wheat, oats and barley in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta has averaged 1,200,000,000 bushels in the three seasons from 1951 to 1953 inclusive. The peak yield was in 1952 when the production of each grains totalled 1,536,000,000.

In the ten years from 1941 to 1950 average production of these grains in the prairie provinces was 620,000,000 bushels. In these last three seasons grain production has exceeded the ten year average received by 300,000,000 bushels which figure is the long-time average of Canadian wheat production.

The present congestion in country and terminal elevators is due directly to the unprecedented grain production. Never before have the prairie provinces produced such a volume of grain and existing facilities were never expected to handle such a huge bumbleage. Export sales by the Wheat Board have been at record levels but not sufficient to clear up the surplus.

If farmers have a thorough appreciation of the situation, they will realize the difficulties in providing handling facilities and in disposing of the huge quantities of grain which have been promised.

Mannville, Ruzylvia Families In Reunion At Bonnyville

A very gay surprise family reunion took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Storiuk of Smith Lake. Mrs. Storiuk's brother Paul Dabey, of Mannville came with his family, accompanied by Mrs. Storiuk's sister, Mrs. Julia Nazar of Brantford, Ont. Also included in the party was a nephew of the Storiuk family and a niece, who brought their families along, to make the whole reunion a very jolly affair. It had been over 21 years since Mrs. Storiuk had seen her brother and over nine years since she had seen her sister. When the visiting relatives returned to their respective homes, Mrs. Storiuk went to her brother's place and also visited with her sister Olga of Ruzylvia. Both returned home Monday evening.

Allendale

The weather - wet again! The side roads are terrible and the high road to the school muddy and one big rut.

It was a lovely evening on Aug. 15 when the neighbors and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Martin for a housewarming and a welcome to the district. After visiting and some card playing lunch was served, closing a very delightful evening.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr and Mrs. Dan Wilson on the birth of a daughter Donna Lucy Marie on Aug 19th.

The week end of Aug. 22 Mr. and Mrs. George English of Two Hills were visitors in town and at the Omness home.

The phone has been connected at Johnny Nelson's and Orjey Omness's and will soon be at Wm. Mayer's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Porter and family from Ottawa, Ont., had a brief visit at the O'Fee home last week end.

On the afternoon of Aug. 27 the Allendale W.A. ladies met at the school for a house-cleaning. It was a nice visit and a big lunch after which all enjoyed very much.

Mrs. Tommy Greaves and daughter Brenda spent a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Baldesh last week.

There was a good attendance at the church service on Aug. 30. We were pleased to meet and have Miss Horning in charge. She and Miss Haggab exchanged for the day. These two ladies give very enlightening services and are to be congratulated on their summer's work which is drawing all too quickly to an end. On Sept. 6 the Rev. Mc-Kay is conducting Holy Communion service at Clandonald at 7:30 p.m. for the benefit of Allendale also. Sept. 13 is our final service for the season.

With the kindness of Mr. McBride our W.A. will meet at his home in town on Sept. 10 at 2:30 p.m.

Closing Thought: The knocker, the growler, the kicker, fault-finders, large and small, what do they need for such a diet? Not brains, not sense — just gall.

Bowtell Bulletin

Twenty ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Sherwood for the August meeting of the Busy Bees. Among them were Miss M. Early, Mrs. M. Tisdale, Mrs. B. Gould, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. C. THORNCLIFFE

Thorncliffe heard the report of the Constituency conferences. They also sponsored a dance in the school.

WILDMERE

Wildmere heard the report of the Constituency conference and also the report of the Girls' Club conference held at Olds. Margaret Whitlock, one of the girls who attended the Olds' conference, read her story, which won second prize, a beautiful crocheted purse. Wildmere gave their school a subscription to 'We Wisdom.

CLAYMORE

Claymore is sending a parcel of clothing to Korea. They are making plans for a bazaar later in the year. They have also remembered the sick from the district with gifts.

SALTEAUX

The Salteaux branch enjoyed hearing Miss Holme give a very interesting demonstration and talk on sewing problems. She also explained how to do fancy work on the sewing machine.

FIVE POINT

Five Point celebrated their 13th anniversary in August. Some time was spent recalling happy times and memories through the years. During the lunch hour the honors Mrs. McCauley brought in a beautifully decorated birthday cake. The ladies sang 'Happy Birthday' and the youngest children present blew out the candles.

BRIGHTON

Creighton W.I. heard Miss Ingle How Economist speak on 'serving hints'. This being the branch's 21st birthday the lunch hour was devoted to celebrating the occasion. The birthday cake was cut by the President Mrs. Wiseman. The branch has two charter members Mrs. B. Hanning and Mrs. G. Clark.

WILDMERE BEAVERS

The Wildmere Beavers reported a very interesting meeting which included a report of the Olds' conference and a demonstration on 'How to make Handbags'. They also made a donation to the C.N.I.B.

More in the Middle

The growth of Canada's home market is recognized in the latest available taxation statistics. The Financial Post points out that in 1941, Ontario receiving $200 million annually had 23.8% of the total income received by those who paid taxes. Ten years later their share had grown to 64% of the total.

Also evident in the latest figures is the drop in proportion of total income received by the highest income brackets and by the lowest.

Think Those Weeds

Weeds in Western Canada have really had a "field day" in 1953. Many cropped fields were too wet to carry spray equipment in the Spring while many summerfallow fields were too wet to work until late in the season. As a result, weeds have increased tremendously and will be, no doubt, a serious problem over the next few years.

Weed Seeds Spoil Grain & Transportation. Grain storage and transportation facilities will be taxed to their limit this year. On an average year some 200 truckloads of 55 cars each are required to handle weed seeds from Western Canada. Any increase in this amount greatly increases an additional strain on storage and transportation facilities. There are more weeds in the west this year. More care, therefore, will be required in harvesting in order to prevent an increase in weed seeds in commercial grain and to prevent weed seeds being returned to the soil.

Watch the Combine. A great deal can be done this Fall to counteract the weed increase. Care should be taken to collect and destroy as many weed seeds as possible during harvest. A reduction on the combine could be worth its weight in gold this year.

Fall Cultivation. If time and weather permits Fall cultivation could also work wonders in combating the present menace. Shallow cultivation as soon as possible after combining would kill germinated annual weed seeds to germinate. These seedlings would not survive the winter.

Fall cultivation of the fallow is very important this year, especially where Canada thistle and sow thistle have become established. Thorough cultivation late into the Fall will do much to weaken and destroy these pests. Weeds got the jump on us this Summer, we will have to jump to catch up again. The Fall is the time to start.

TOUR ON CONTINENT CONTINUED IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM

BY ADDIE MEAD.

Driving through Arne toward Gand we noted the school girls wearing white aprons and huge white bows on their hair while the small boys all dressed in white grey, buttoned smocks. The river barges were heavily laden with the white washings waving in the breeze. In most every window we passed hung curtains with exquisite borders of lace, whether in a house or a restaurant or even in some of the stores.

At Ypres the road passes under a bridge which is a memorial to our Canadians of the first war. The quaint messages some flooding. There is a cemetery nearby where most of these Canadians rest under Belgian soil. Somewhere near there we were told we would see what we had been told we would see. "You are being watched in the rear man."

Between Ypres and Dunkirk we crossed the border into France. Immediately a difference was noticeable as Belgium has been so much more successful with its cultivating and repairing while France is still struggling with clearing away debris and reconstruction after all these years. Farm houses in one area clearly show they had been bombed off to catch the Germans in hiding there the small town streets were lined with shattered homes with no sign of building. Even a grass-covered mound here and there about four feet high and some inches in diameter proclaimed the fact that some were buried. Some were dead-beats. In one mound of these stones saw trees had grown almost during the time that some had tried to do their bit in the nation's every back. It is possible in fact it is impossible not to sense the movements of our boys as they struggled to reach the coast. People were living in tiny corners of the houses, some of the buildings half fallen down, others even worse. One house on the roadside had three crosses erected in the yard. Twisted wire, swamps, cemeteries, boxes fill the gruesome tale of war. In Dunkirk beside one new bridge lies a twisted bent steel bridge dangling in the river. There were no young men around the age of 20 in evidence and as a matter of fact we have seen. Young children appear really precocious are appeared in overalls of what can only be described as bowls of every kind. I thought I had known a great deal about War I War 2. Now I know I have nothing of it.

Happening to obtain over cobble some pavement we realized that where there should have been silt around the wheel there was even potatoes just although we could see the Hotsdale our ferry. To our consternation we learned we had been given the wrong sailing time and the boat on which we were booked to sail was beginning to move out. Two men, one of them a sailor, rushed down the hard path after some shouting back and forth the Hotsdale actually moved away from the customs wharf. Then a small boat was made out etc. When the prospects of having to stay in Dunkirk until we could get a booking was not pleasant.

I am glad I experienced on board, the captain talked to Richard and I on the upper deck. We had been on the smoky time from another boat and the reason we were [illegible] was because [illegible] what was being opened to convey that by causing the Hotsdale to sail from Calais two hours later than usual. Since ours was the last car to drive onto the boat, it was the first one to drive off, thus making it the first car to land at the new dock.

JASPER IS SCENE OF FOURTH MOVIE

JASPER.—Advance units for the fourth full-length movie feature to be filmed in Jasper National Park this summer have arrived at Jasper Park Lodge from Hollywood.

Shooting of the picture "The Human Beast" will begin later this month with the site around the C.N.R.'s facilities in Jasper and along the C.N.R. right of way between Jasper and Edson.

The cast of the film, a French mystery drama, has yet to be announced.

Financial Aid Is Now Available to Deserving University Students

Qualified and deserving Alberta students who are registered, or about to register at university, can now apply for financial assistance from the Alberta Government under the Students' Assistance Act, passed at the last session of the Alberta Legislature.

The Act collects under one authority the various forms of student assistance previously available and at the same time authorizes new forms of assistance in the way of student grants and loans. Administration comes under the Students' Assistance Board, whose chairman is Dr. W. H. Swift, Deputy Minister of Education.

Grants up to $300 and loans up to $400 can be obtained for each university year. Applicants must be Albertans registered or intending to register in a degree course at the University of Alberta. If the desired course is not available at the University of Alberta, the same assistance is available for a student attending another college or university. Special assistance is available to student nurses and students training to be elementary teachers.

A student who can prove that he needs financial aid may apply for a loan up to a maximum of $400 for any university year but can not borrow more than $1200 for the entire course. High school students wishing a loan before enrolling at the university must have Grade 12 matriculation averages of at least 65 per cent while university students applying for loans must have acceptable scholastic records.

Interest on the loans is 3½ per cent commencing at the time the loan is received but neither principal nor interest need be paid until after graduation, or, in the case of doctors, lawyers and other professions requiring an internship or articling period, after the post-graduation period is completed. One year after the student has graduated or attained professional status, he must pay back $200 of the loan and $200 each subsequent year until the entire loan has been repaid. Students failing to complete their course must begin the $200 annual payments a year after leaving university.

University students should apply for loans to the Registrar of the University of Alberta or the dean of the faculty in which they are enrolled. High school graduates wishing a loan for university education should apply to the Deputy Minister, Department of Education, Edmonton. If applications are made early enough, it is expected that students will learn that their applications are being approved before they enrol at the university but no payments will be made until the students are attending university. Fees and other obligations to the university will be first charge on the financial assistance provided.

The grants, made under the Dominion-Provincial Training Agreement, limit the aid to $300 a year or $1000 for the complete course. Students entering university will require a Grade 12 average of 75 per cent or better to be considerd for the grants which are not repayable. Any students receiving grants are eligible to apply for loans as well.

CHEVROLET
than any other car!
Make no mistake about it
CHEVROLET is the LEADER!
1st in Sales!
1st in Value!
1st in Demand!
Only one car can be the leader! Only one car can be the favorite! Only one car can be the most-sought, most-bought car in Canada! That car, year-in, year-out, is Chevrolet. In the first six months of 1953, according to the latest official registration figures, Canadians bought 41,400 Chevrolets. This is 12,491 more cars than were sold by its nearest competitor — dramatic proof of Canada's continuing preference for Chevrolets!
The tremendous popularity of Chevrolet means lower production costs. It means big savings that are passed on to you! And because Chevrolet value lasts, there are extra dollars for you when you trade in your Chevrolet, for Chevrolet consistently shows highest trade-in values of any car in Canada! Final proof of good value is the loyalty of Chevrolet drivers, a loyalty that grows stronger with every new year — with every great Chevrolet we build.
Although other cars are available, thousands of Canadians are waiting patiently to get their Chevrolet. No other car will do! Surely this is proof of Chevrolet's superiority . . . and its unchallenged place in the hearts of Canadian motorists.

Chatsworth Chatter

The past week of rain has held up harvesting operations and now the danger of frost is ever present. Some harvesting has been started but the wet condition of fields is delaying harvest work.

Roads are in terrible condition, mudholes are frequent and deep on all roads hereabouts.

The rains are helping in pastures however, with grass still fresh and green.

The Sunday school vacation school held at Chatsworth during the week of Aug. 3 to 7 inclusive, was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The service scheduled to be held on the 9th was rained out, but was held on the following Friday evening with the children conducting the entire service.

The last service of the summer to be held by our student Miss Haggart, was at the Ottawa United church on Sunday, Aug. 23rd. We are all sorry to see the services come to an end and appreciate and realize the efforts Miss Haggart has made here on behalf of the community. We also hope she will enjoy the best of health and success in her chosen career.

Mr. and Mrs. George Honey Sr., of Edmonton, were visitors at the home of the writer from Aug. 10 to 26.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Honey Jr. returned to Edmonton on Sunday the 16th after spending two weeks holidays here.

Also visiting at the Thompson home were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lodge, of Edmonton, who were renewing acquaintances in and around Vermilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howie and family of Calgary, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Tovell.

Mrs. Neil East returned to Mr. and Mrs. E. East's on the 17th after a visit to Dewberry and district.

Harry Good who recently spent a couple of weeks in hospital, is out and around again. While Harry was in hospital, Cp. Bob Robson who is stationed at Wainwright, took over farm duties.

Mr. C. F. Robson has returned from a two months visit to Whitehorse. He is already talking of returning there as he likes it very well.

Miss Milburn spent a few days visiting with Mrs. D. Cummings two weeks ago.

Mr. Gary Seymour, formerly of the Bird Hill district, and now resident in Vancouver, was a visitor at the home of his son Harvey and family last month.

Sgt. Chas. Robson who has recently been transferred from Whitehorse to Wainwright, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Good last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sturt and family of Minburn, visited with the former's brother Steve two weeks ago.

The August meeting of the Chatsworth Local F.U.A. was held at the home of the writer on the 17th with seven members and 3 visitors present. Considerable correspondence was read and discussion re matters brought up at the district convention ensued. It is planned to hold the next meeting in October at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thompson.

The August meeting of the Chatsworth Country club was held at Mrs East's on Thursday, 20th, with 11 members, 4 visitors and 5 children present. The matter of acquiring the school for a community centre was discussed and acted upon. The winner of the nickel draw was Annie Hasanuik and winner of the Social contest was Mrs. Patterson. At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several of the members. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Matt Farkash on Sept. 17. Lunch committee Mavis Tovell, Mrs. M. Tovell, Myrel and Evelyn Thompson. Social, Mrs. Patterson.

Mrs. Albert Tovell is progressing favorably after undergoing an operation in Calgary recently. Mrs. Nelmes is looking after the boys at Tovell's while Gladys is away.

C.N.R. President Discusses Unprofitable Rail Services

CALGARY. Private citizens and public bodies alike must adopt a more realistic attitude toward the abandonment of unprofitable railway service, Donald Gordon, chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways, said in Calgary recently in an address before the Chamber of Commerce.

He said, "This issue goes right to the heart of the passenger deficit. If losses on secondary passenger lines could be eliminated or substantially reduced, a profit for our passenger service as a whole might be possible. If we were free to practise economies in branch-line operations which do not attract enough passengers to cover direct expenses, then we could concentrate our expenditures on improving those lines which are giving useful and necessary service."

But it is no easy matter to eliminate an unprofitable branch line service, Mr. Gordon maintained. "It is amazing to see how communities who consistently fail to patronize our rail services can marshal such eloquent arguments about our indispensability the moment abandonment is contemplated. The net result is that many communities are being provided with passenger service far below its actual cost to the railway."

Wildmere Winks

Mrs. Gaylord Gibson and her grandson Kenny Schroder of Cloverdale, B.C., are here visiting her son Frank and family of Basswood and daughters Mrs. York and Mrs. Ma[illegible] of Borradaile. She has spent the last two months at Woodside, Man. where a daughter Mrs. Keast and sons Don and Howard reside. Mr. Gibson accompanied her and Kenny to Manitoba and is still there helping with the harvest. Kenny has to get back to B.C. to go to school early in September and his grandmother is going with him. It was nice having a little chat with them again even if only for a short time.

Harvesting is really moving right along this week. Everyone doing something either swathing or cutting with a binder. No combining done so far in our part.

Mrs. C. Morand and Peter returned to their home at Calgary on Thursday evening last week by bus. Peter has spent most of his holidays here but Mrs. Morand was only here for a week.

On Sunday evening Miss Haggart of the North church field held the service at our school. She gave a very interesting sermon and is a lovely speaker. We all wish her every success in the years that lie ahead. Just one more year and she will be an ordained minister. May be then she will come west and we can hear her again. Next Sunday will be Communion service at Wildmere with the minister from Mannville taking the service. Anyone having children for baptism please get in touch with Miss Horning beforehand. Service at 7:30 in the evening.

The Wildmere Beavers Girls' club meeting has been postponed to Sept. 19 unless otherwise informed. Remember, Sept. 19.

The writer had nice visits Saturday with Mrs. Elward, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Gould, Mrs. A. Morrison and Mrs. Riley. Time certainly flies by when you chat with so many nice people.

Mrs. Whitlock and Mrs. Martin really did a swell job of cleaning our school. The teacher and children have a nice clean schoolroom to return to when classes commence.

We are indeed sorry to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. Robert Blytheman of Edmonton. Being in Legion work he is quite well known in and around Vermilion and as he was a good friend of the Gilhome family he often accompanied them to Vermilion. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dibben attended his funeral on Aug. 21 in Edmonton.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director "The Crop Testing Plan"

CROP ESTIMATES

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics on Aug. 14th issued their usual August forecast of the possible production of the field crops of Canada. Canada's wheat crop was forecast at 600 million bushels which includes 574 million bushels for the prairies. Oats for grain were forecast at 408 million bushels which includes 273 million bushels for the prairies. Barley is forecast at 283 million bushels including 272 million bushels for the prairies. Rye is forecast at 29.7 million bushels including 27.7 million bushels for the prairies. Flax seed is forecast at 11.2 million bus., including 10.6 million bushels for the prairies.

Some think the crops will not finally thresh out to these figures. It must be remembered, however, that all forecasts made on still standing crops, prior to threshing, are forecasts only of what the crop looks as though it might yield, and provided no damage occurs between the date of the forecasts and harvest. Forecasts made on standing crops, while useful as a guide, are in no way to be considered firm forecasts of the number of bushels the crop will actually yield. Such an accurate estimate can only be made after threshing has been fairly well completed.

No Rail Tie-Up In Handling Crop

WINNIPEG. — There will be no rail tie up in the handling of this year's grain crop as far as the Canadian National Railways is concerned, chairman and president Donald Gordon said here last week.

The capacity of terminal elevators and lake and ocean shipping facilities to move the anticipated bumper crop will determine whether or not there is any bottleneck in the grain movement, he said.

An estimated wheat supply of 300,000,000 bushels is on the prairies he said and a crop of 340,000,000 to 600,000,000 bushels is about to be harvested. The C.N.R. is already moving large quantities of grain for this time of year and grain cars are spotted across the West ready for a major transportation chore", Mr. Gordon said.

Mr. Gordon, on a five-week tour of Canadian National lines in Western Canada, said the C.N.R. is "getting into heavy dieselization" from Winnipeg to the Lakehead to speed up the grain movement. However, steam is still the main motive power for shipping grain on the Praries, he [illegible].

This year will probably be another record year for C.N. traffic in volume and possibly dollar earnings, "but, our expenses will be much higher than last year largely due to increased labor costs. It may be difficult to wind up in the black," said Mr. Gordon.

Local News of Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Amos wish to announce the engagement of their elder daughter Margaret Agnes, to Mr. Donald A. Smith, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Smith of Edmonton. The wedding will take place at the First United church, Vermilion, on Saturday, October 3rd at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. An open reception will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents.

The following candidates from this area received Civil Defence certificates and lapel badges having graduated from the General Civil Defence course in conjunction with the annual summer school: Margaret C. Bartling, Elk Point; Linnea Svenson, Minburn; James Horning; Kitscoty; James Munro, Hazeldine; Myrtle J. Nicholson, Wainwright.

V. H. and A. H. Cooper of the Standard staff spent Saturday in Saskatoon in conference with Mr. Andrew Swan, manager of the Winnipeg Branch of the Toronto Type Foundry Co., Edward Shebeck, Intertype expert with the same company and Mr. R. McGibbon of the head office of Toronto Type from Toronto. A considerable amount of information on the latest trends in printing machinery equipment was gathered up by the Messrs. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Metcalfe are planning to move to Lloydminster to reside, in order to be closer to Mr. Metcalfe's work at Lone Rock. Their friends here regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe very much but wish them well in their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Haskell of the Dewberry district have had as their guests this past week the latter's nephew Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Neilsen and family, Arlene and Bobby of New Westminster, B.C. This is their first trip to the prairies and they are left with good impressions. Bob says that he is coming out next year for his entire holiday and that horseback riding is wonderful. Mr. and Mrs. Neilsen attended the opening dance in the new Elks hall in Marwayne.

Mrs. F. Staley and family of the Dewberry district had as her guests her two brothers and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Menzo Carter of Lewiston, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Porter Carter of Colville, Wash. They enjoyed a fishing trip to a northern lake while here and helped troll in a lovely catch of fish amidst much excitement and laughter.

Mr. Dwayne Isert of Port Coquitlam, B.C., is visiting relatives in the Dewberry and Marwayne districts.

Tom Brown of Victoria just couldn't resist the call of an Alberta harvest and is now visiting relatives in the King Edward district. It seems quite natural to see Tom around town again.

Allan Jones is now taking it a little easy after undergoing an emergent operation at the Royal Alex hospital in Edmonton recently. Allan's perforated ulcer gave him sudden and violent trouble while changing a tire on the transport when about to leave the city. Fortunately brother Ray was with him and the sick man was rushed to hospital and was on the operating table a half hour after arriving there. Six months rest was the order of the medical advisers but Allan is rather doubtful about the prolonged convalescence.

Mrs. Florence Hielam of Calgary spent Monday and Tuesday this week in Vermilion visiting her brother Pat Callaghan and family.

Mrs. Joe Green pulled out a huge 16½-lb. Jackfish while fishing at Moose Lake one day last week. This huge member of the finny tribe was on display in the showcase of the Co-op butcher shop for several days and excited a lot of admiration and not a little envy.

LAW Josephine 'Jo' McLaughlin, accompanied by LAW Eileen Debly, of St. John, N.B., presently stationed at RCAF Defence Command Headquarters, St. Hubert, Que., are spending their annual leave visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLaughlin of town, and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McLaughlin of Mannville. Previous to their arrival here they had visited relatives and friends at West coast points, Kimberley and Radium, B.C., Banff and Edmonton.

Mrs. E. Clendenning returned home last week end from three weeks holiday spent visiting her father Mr. E. Benjamin and other members of the family in Vancouver, as well as friends in Seattle. The trip to the coast was made by car, and the return via Canadian National.

Mrs. Annie Cameron returned recently from two weeks in Edmonton where she visited her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. John King.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hodgins and daughter Elna left Monday night via Canadian National for a six weeks visit to old home scenes in Toronto and Ottawa and vicinities.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Underdown and girls, accompanied by Mrs. E. E. Gould, recently returned from a very enjoyable trip to Edmonton, Seba Beach, Jasper, Banff and Calgary. While at Jasper they visited Mr. and Mrs. Mel Ruhl who wish to be remembered to all their friends in Vermilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baddock left last Saturday night via C.N.R. from Wainwright for Windsor where they will take delivery of a new Ford so that the return journey will be made by car. On the way east a stop-over will be made at Emerson, Man., where they will see Jack's father. This will be the first time father and son have been together since 1937 when the Baddock's motored from here for a holiday. During Jack's absence the barber shop will be well looked after by Mr. Smith Hollands an experienced barber from Edmonton.

Twelve Rules For HAPPINESS

Happiness is a habit—a by-product of right thinking and living, says the eminent New York educator Grenville Kleiser. Here are his 12 potent rules for maintaining happiness.

1. Live a simple life. Be temperate in your habits. Avoid self-seeking and selfishness. Make simplicity the keynote of your daily plans. Simple things are best.

2. Spend less than you earn. It may be difficult, but it pays large dividends in contentment. Keep out of debt. Cultivate frugality, prudence and self-denial. Avoid extravagance.

3. Think constructively. Train yourself to think clearly and accurately. Store your mind with useful thoughts. Stand porter at the door of your mind.

4. Cultivate a yielding disposition. Resist the common tendency to want your own ways. See the other's viewpoint.

5. Be grateful. Begin the day with gratitude for your opportunities. Be glad for the privilege of life and work.

6. Rule your moods. Cultivate a mental attitude of peace and good will.

7. Give generously. There is no greater joy in life than to render happiness to others by means of intelligent giving.

8. [illegible] with right motives. The highest purpose of your life should be to grow in spiritual grace and power.

9. Be interested in others. Divert your mind from self-centeredness in the degree that you give more and be [illegible] you experience the by-product of happiness.

10. Live a daylight compartment [illegible] one day at a time. Con[illegible] your immediate task. [illegible] today.

11. Have a hobby. Nature study, [illegible] gardening, music, golfing, [illegible] stamp collecting, sketch[illegible], foreign language, chess, books, photography, social ser[illegible], [illegible] travel, author[illegible] ship. Cultivate an avocation to which you can turn for diversion and relaxation.

12. Keep close to God.

Postman's Ankles Lose Flavor With Canadian Canines

Canada's 1,500,000 dogs are forsaking the postman's ankles in favor of canned vitamins.

The good news for the nation's mail carriers was contained in a report by the American Can Co. that Canada's canine population is eating well—twice as much canned dog food as five years ago.

Dog owners fed their pets more [illegible] cans of dog food in 1952 compared with 27,950,000 cans five years ago, said the can-making firm, which helped develop the first [illegible] canned dog food diet in the late 1920's.

Convenience and economy are the main factors in the upswing in canned dog food volume in recent years, the company stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Watts plan to leave for Victoria this week where they will spend the next month. Mr. Watts is convalescing nicely following a major operation a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cameron and the two boys from Edmonton spent the week end in town visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Annie Cameron.

The prize flower in J. W. G. Morrison's garden at the present time is a gladiola 38 inches tall with the actual bloom in keeping. It is a beauty but wasn't advanced enough to exhibit at the time of the flower show.

George Webb has a 39-lb. pumpkin on display in his garage. This was grown in his own garden in town and furthermore this was the first summer George had ever tried his hand at raising the luscious pie-filler.

Funeral Services Are Held for the Late Richard Eli Coombe

Funeral services for the late Richard Eli Coombe who passed away on August 25th at the University hospital following a short illness, were held at Connelly and McKinley's chapel on Friday, Aug. 28 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Dr. Layton officiated and interment was made at Mount Pleasant cemetery. The Orange Order held a service at the graveside and six members were the pall bearers.

Mr. Coombe was born in Reach County, Ont. near the town of Port Perry. He came to Manitoba at the age of 22 years and took a position as a clerk in the town of Cypress River. There he met and married Nellie Gould. In 1906 they came to Alberta and homesteaded. Eleven years ago he retired from farming and moved to Edmonton.

Floral tributes were received from Wife Nellie, daughter Esther Perry and Barbara, Son Raymond and family, Brothers George, Will and Charlie, Mrs. Hall Smith and several others as a complete list was not available.

He is survived by his wife Nellie, daughter Esther, son Raymond and three brothers Will, Charlie and George. There are seven grandchildren.

R.C.A.F. Band And Scona Follies At Elk Island Park

A full program for the Labor Day week end is planned for Elk Island Park with concerts on both Sunday afternoon, Sept. 6 and Monday, Sept. 7.

The Sunday concert will be provided by the 418 Squadron R.C.A.F. Reserve band which by kind permission of Wing Commander A. D. R. Lowe, Officer Commanding, is making its second appearance in the park for this season. Those who had an opportunity of hearing the first concert will look forward to this second concert of stirring military band music directed by Flying Officer Harden.

The Labor Day concert will be provided by a student group from South Edmonton who will present their own musical production entitled 'Scona Follies'. This is an all-student production which was presented at the Garneau Theatre last winter winning popular acclaim and the 30 entertainers who will appear at the bandshell on Labor Day will provide a variety program of solo arts, dancing troupes, choruses and comedy sketches calculated to please all age groups.

Both concerts commence at 2 p.m.

A program of travel films will be presented by the National Film Board each evening of the weekend holiday.

Former Islay Man Married At Red Deer

RONAGHAN—MICHENER

Baskets of gladioli, with other beautiful summer flowers, decorated the Gaetz Memorial United church, Red Deer on August 1st, when marriage vows were exchanged between Noalen (Deany) Michener, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Michener, of Mackay, Alberta, and Mr. Calvin Ronaghan, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ronaghan of Creston, B.C.

Rev. I. N. Hughson and Rev. W. P. Irving performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the organ music of the wedding march. She wore a full-length white gown of nylon tulle edged with Chantilly lace, over several skirts of net. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and white gladioli. Her chapel veil of matching nylon tulle draped softly from a heart shaped headdress.

The bride was preceded down the aisle by her sister, Marion Michener as bridesmaid, who wore a full-length pale yellow gown of frosted organdy over taffeta with matching headdress and gloves. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Attending the groom was Mr. R. L. 'Dick' Miller.

Guests were ushered by Mr. Bud Ronaghan, brother of the groom, Mr. Tomie Michener, brother of the bride, and Mr. Howie McLean.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress of fine crepe with grey accessories and corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Ronaghan, mother of the groom, chose a pale blue nylon dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Springvale school for about one hundred friends and relatives. The bride's sisters-in-law, Vera Michener, Rosie Michener and Fay Michener took full charge of the reception, with the help of many friends. Mrs. Robert Layden sang several beautiful numbers during the reception.

After joining Mr. and Mrs. Bert Swanson, who were married two hours before, the two newly-married couples left for Waterton Lakes where they will spend their honeymoon. Both couples will reside in Red Deer on their return.

Out of town guest at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Ronaghan, Mr. Bud Ronaghan, Miss Georgina Ronaghan and the Misses Shirley and Maxine Ronaghan, all of Creston, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Michener of Mackay, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Michener of Calgary, and Mr. Ronie Michener of Edmonton.

ISLAY

Much activity in the Islay area at present as the power lines are being installed. Even little Johnnie Carey is giving a hand- he hopes to be an electrical engineer some day so goes out on the line to see what is being done.

We are glad to report that Will Muir is improving steadily. He sits up a bit each day now.

We see Wm. Teskey on his usual town visits now, after having spent considerable time in Islay hospital.

Pleased to see Mrs. Gladys Gould and grandson, Wayne at church last Sunday. It's a long time for a wee boy to sit but Wayne surely was a model lad. Come again Gladys.

The W.M.S. rally is to be Sept. 16 at 3 p.m. in the church. Mrs. Adams of Elk Point will be guest speaker, also Rev. Mr. Adams will be here.

Miss Queenie Hutton of Vancouver is visiting at her old home near Kohnee arriving here on Monday morning.

The Sunday school officers met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Robertson to re-organize for the coming season which will commence Sept. 13 at 11 a.m. An invitation goes out to all children to come to Sunday school. On Sept. 27 there will be a Sunday school rally when a special program will be carried out and all parents and others interested are invited. Come and see the children do their part.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Buchanan returned Saturday after having a jolly visit in Edmonton.

We also see the lights again in the Hollington house. Mr. and Mrs. Hollington have been at the Pacific coast.

Clandonald News

Harvesting should be general in this area during the coming week. Crops in most cases which were not too badly hailed have made a remarkable recovery following the July storm. Oats in particular show very little, if any, damage. However, weeds are a different story, the thistles especially being a very serious problem. Rain could almost be measured in feet rather than inches during the past two months. Gardens and late crops being especially benefitted.

A pest which seem to be a bit worse than usual has been the great number of wasp nests in hay fields and around the edges of sloughs. This has caused considerable excitement at times especially where haying equipment is still horse drawn.

Several old timers from around here have been hospitalized during the past weeks, among them being Joe Allan of the Ethelwyn district, Gus Garnier and Ballard Goad. At last reports all are home again and showing much improvement. Also Mrs. S. Filgate who has lived in town for many years had the misfortune to fall, breaking her ankle. However, those who know Mrs. Filgate will not be surprised to learn that her stay in hospital was not long and that she is home and getting around reasonably well with the aid of crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brake and family had as their visitors their newly married daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Brockman during the past week.

The Brockmans have just returned from an extended honeymoon trip. Points visited among others being New York and Niagara Falls. They will be making their home at [illegible] near Hanna where Mr. Brockman is engaged in the teaching profession.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B[illegible] had their married daughter Mrs. Kathleen Bowman and three children visiting for about [illegible]. Mr. Bowman also drove up [illegible] overnight before returning with family to their Calgary home.

It looks as if Clandonald [illegible] [illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Osinchuk of the Landonville district are constructing a fine new home on their farm, about 12 miles north of town. Dave Voker of Dewberry is in charge of construction.

Deepest sympathy of friends in the district goes out to Mr. Noel Kent of Irwinville who was recently bereaved by the death of his wife following a lengthy illness.

Those who remember Alex Stockwell who left this district many years ago will be interested to hear of his son Duncan's marriage which took place in the city last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell have been residents of Edmonton for the past 27 years where Alex is engaged in the teaching profession. Duncan has spent practically all his life in the city and during the past few years has earned some reputation as a basketball player and more recently at golf.

R.C.A.F. Band And Scona Follies At Elk Island Park

A full program for the Labor Day week end is planned for Elk Island Park with concerts on both Sunday afternoon, Sept. 6 and Monday, Sept. 7.

The Sunday concert will be provided by the 418 Squadron R.C.A.F. Reserve band which by kind permission of Wing Commander A. D. R. Lowe, Officer Commanding, is making its second appearance in the park for this season. Those who had an opportunity of hearing the first concert will look forward to this second concert of stirring military band music directed by Flying Officer Harden.

REPORT to the PEOPLE

BY ROBERT FAIR, M.P.
BATTLE RIVER

In writing this "Report to the People" my first words must be my expression of sincere thanks and appreciation to the voters of Battle River-Camrose for the wonderful support given me at the polls on 10th day August last. Such support given to a standard bearer for Social Credit must be taken as still further proof of the confidence that our program contains the solution of our nation's problems and when we have an opportunity to give the people of Canada the true picture of things as they exist, there will be no hesitation on their part in doing for our candidates all across the country what has been done in this constituency. I want to express special thanks to the many who worked so well and to election day to man the polls, get out the voters and supplied cars for conveyance to the polls. Without such help our victory would not be possible.

My thanks are also extended to the opposing candidates for carrying on a clean campaign, for kind wishes extended and for their spirit of co-operation which is much appreciated.

As the campaign is now over it is the duty of all of us to get down to business and tackle the problems with which we are faced, so that we may make conditions better throughout the country. To this end it is my intention, as in the past, to give the very best service of which I am capable to all of my constituents regardless of their location or political affiliations. While parliament is in session all correspondence should be addressed to me at the House of Commons, Ottawa. During recess my address will be Vermilion, Alberta and replies to your letters will be sent as soon as possible. No stamps are required on letters sent to me at Ottawa while the House is in session.

At the present time it would seem the farmers will have difficulty financing operations because they were unable, in many cases, to deliver all of their grain because of elevator storage shortage at the end of the last crop year. The three bushel wheat quota recently announced will accomplish very little in alleviating this condition and the recent slump in wheat shipments abroad will help to prevent much increase in the present quota for some little time. Ways and means must be found to help provide credit until the quota can be increased as many merchants have advanced credit to our farmers with the understanding that such credit would be repaid as soon as harvesting operations got under way, but, through no fault of the farmers this will not be possible in many cases until the movement of grain is speeded up, or credit provided.

Another problem that is causing many farmers much concern is the increasing price of farm machinery with the way being paved for a still further increase by an announcement last week that the price of steel and other manufacturing costs are increasing. During recent sessions I have brought the increases prices to the attention of the government and suggested that an investigation into the price of farm machinery be made by the Agricultural committee of the House of Commons, or failing that, that a Royal Commission be set up to make the investigation.

No response was made by the government but I did get a lengthy letter from the President of the Massey Harris Co. in which he undertook on behalf of all the machinery manufacturers, to show that their prices had not advanced very much during recent years. Figures received from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics last March give the index numbers of prices farmers pay for farm machinery. (1935-39 equals 100) 1946 — 141.6; 1949 — 152.3; 1950 - 154.8; 1952 — 183.4. These figures show an increase in price of approximately 54 points in the period 1946 to 1952, both years inclusive and 83.4 increase from 1935-39 to 1952. The final figure, at least, I Northern, basis Ft. William-Port Arthur for the period 1947-51 to 1951-52, as given by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, was $1.833 per bushel. Perhaps our farmers are still spending too many hours within their own fences, doing everything possible to increase the production of their farms, while at the same time neglecting to take an interest in the price they have to pay for the machinery of production and, just as important, the price they receive for the things they sell? In fairness to our local implement agents I should point out that they have not been allowed to participate in a percentage basis on recent machinery price increases. I have been advised that some time ago machinery companies placed their agents on a set commission per unit sale and because the cost of doing business has increased to the agents without an increase in commission, the agents are not, at the present time, making as much money as he did when his commissions were fixed.

It is my intention to drive further into farm machinery prices as soon as the House meets later in the fall as I do not believe that the present prices can be justified.

As this is my first contribution to the Vermilion Standard at the beginning of a new Parliament, I want to again express my very sincere appreciation to the Editor for allowing me free space each month to keep my constituents informed on matters of particular interest to them and hope they will avail themselves of the service being provided by regular reading of the columns as they appear from month to month.

Paradise Valley

Mr and Mrs. T. Murphy now of Edmonton, but former residents of Paradise Valley are spending their two weeks vacation with Mr. and Mrs. M. Kitching.

Mrs. Jack Chambers and family have spent the past two weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davidson while her husband was posted in the East. Mr. Chambers is in the R.C.A.F.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henry on the birth of a daughter born in the Lloydminster hospital.

We regret to hear that Mrs. Wilson Adams is a patient in the Lloydminster hospital. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery for her

A delegation from Rivercourse, McLaughlin and Paradise Valley attended the Vermilion School Division meeting on Monday re high school facilities at Paradise Valley but they drew a blank as far as this year is concerned. The powers that be cannot see their way clear to grant this as the students from the southern part of Division have to go without or go to some outside point.

The kids gave a big sigh of relief when it was announced that school would not open on the 1st. The teaching staff will be the same at Paradise Valley this term as last, namely C. A. Richardson, E. H. Walter. Mrs. J. Adams, Miss Eva Redmond and Miss Thelma Pilot. Miss Marion Pelgham goes to Vermeet and Miss Shirley Gunn to Kerlle Cherwin Hills and West Country will be closed and the pupils taken to Paradise Valley.

Mrs. Frederick French and family of Widow-one, Alta., is visiting with her sister and brother-in-law Mr and Mrs. L. W. Brown.

Glen Acaster of North Battleford spent the week in town with the Cameron boys while Cameron visited with the Acaster's at North Battleford. Mr and Mrs. C. F. Cameron visited at the Acaster's on Sunday. Glen going home and Dougie returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens have returned home after visiting at Salt Lake City, Utah. They visited their daughter Mrs. (Pegg) Elmer, Hilary and Jerry also made the trip They report a grand time returning home via Glacier National Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnham Clay and daughter Barbara of Pontiac, Mich. flew up in their plane to Edmonton and then to Paradise Valley to visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clay and his brother George Clay.

The Paradise Valley W.A. of the United church will meet in the church basement for their regular meeting on Friday, Sept. 4. Mrs. L. Knutson and Mrs. N. Stepenoff will be the hostesses.

The weather during the past week has been anything but desirable from the farmers' viewpoint as we had rain nearly every day. This has held up harvesting operations which had started the week previous. As a result of the continued rain the roads are in an almost impossible condition.

Mrs. Alan Ulmer and family of Meadow Lake, Sask., who has been visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Anderson have returned home.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fulgnam on the birth of a son born in the Lloydminster hospital.

Movie Stars At Jasper Park Lodge

JASPER.—Three of Hollywood's stellar box-office attractions James Stewart, Ruth Roman and Corinne Calvet, have arrived at Jasper Park Lodge to star in the Universal-International production, "The Far Country".

The film, third full-length cinema feature to be shot in Jasper National Park this summer, will depict the 1898 rush to the Yukon.

Mayer Fred Stevenson, veteran cutter, has returned 30 head of horsed steers and 10 horses to be used in the production. In addition, 113 construction crews have built replicas of two complete Alaskan gold-rush towns of tents and log cabins.

Lewis Leary, unit director for the studio, said on arrival here that "Jasper National Park has everything it takes, with its spectacular mountainous backdrop, to transform it entirely to the new three-dimensional and wide-screen theatre productions. It's becoming known in motion picture circles as the Hollywood of the Canadian Rockies."

Woodvale News

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross returned from a short trip to B.C., where they spent a few days with old Friends. Mr. and Mrs. C. Cairns, formerly of Kitscoty, in New Westminster. The trip by bus proved a bit too strenuous for Mrs. Ross so they did not stay as long as planned.

Kazuo Seita is another traveler who did not quite reach his destination. He got as far as Spokane where it was so hot he did not go on to California where it would be still warmer.

The honey raise of last week put an end to early harvest operations, no combining or father cutting his hem done at time of writing. Several hundreds of acres have been swathed and it is hoped dry sunny weather will soon return to stay.

Harold Webber visited his mother while attending several meetings in Vermilion and Tolland in connection with his work as supervisor of co-operatives.

Misses Jill and Jennifer Ashton of London, England have been guests for the past month at the home of their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Cecil King of the Thorncliffe district. With Judith and Joy King, the latter on holiday from Edmonton, they spent a week at Banff, returning via Jasper. They will leave for England about the middle of September.

Two meetings were held at the Ganton school to discuss the extension of the hydro line into the Tolland and Hindville districts. Mr. Hawrelak of Vegreville was unable to be present at the first one, but it was decided that evening to ask Mr. Webber to come and explain the credit and other arrangements that can be made. He was at the meeting on Aug. 28.

The Red Cross auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. G. Webber on Aug. 13 to work a quilt for the Vermilion branch. There were 11 ladies present but took the biggest part of the afternoon to finish it. The business on hand included a motion to pay $20 towards the cost of the new booth on the ball grounds in which the ladies worked with so much more ease and pleasure during the July picnic. The president had quite a time holding the ladies to the business at hand when conversation strayed off to new fashions, promising very short skirts! We'll have to stop laughing at the comical pictures of ourselves in the mid 20's when we go back to short dresses again, or may be we'll be wisey and just pack them up this time. It was a pleasure to have lunch after the busy afterns on and it included ice cream with pineapple and fresh frozen strawberries thoroughly enjoyed by not only the ladies but the children and men. All in all there were 24 to partake of the treat, served by our hostess and her girls. The next meeting will be on Sept. 2 at the home of Mrs. Betty Lysons.

LOTS OF WASPS

Wasps are becoming more and more a nuisance every year. Lucky are those who only get stung and do not swell like little Wayne Lysons who had a sting on each cheek. But Mrs. Paul Coulter had to spend a few days in the hospital after being stung in the leg. We found fuel oil poured on the nests in the grass very effective it kills them instantly, no swarming or buzzing. The area in between walls and hanging from ceilings cause more trouble. These can be sprayed with D.D.T. or where possible a torch or flaming rag kills them quickly too.

Tougher To Collect

So far nobody's too alarmed. Business generally, is high. And there's still room for expansion of credit. But some fields are feeling the pinch.

There's more demand for collection agent services.

More manufacturers have been asking banks for credit extension, in many cases, because they had to grant credit extension to their retail customers. The retailers in turn have had to ask for extension on their drafts because their customers were slow paying accounts.

While most are paying their bills on credit re-ranger says "We are getting the money alright but it is taking longer and requires a good deal more pressure."

Alberta Offers New Course In Meal Preparation

Training Albertans to provide the tasty, well-prepared and courteously served food which will make a visit to Alberta a pleasant memory for tourists and travelers is the aim of the food service training provided at the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art, Calgary.

This year's 8-month course which starts Sept. 28, will train students in the skills of food preparation, proper sanitation, scientific management of a restaurant business and principles of good customer relations.

Requirements for enrollment in the course are lenient. A minimum age of 16 and preferably a grade 10 schooling are requested but in many cases students with less schooling but more practical experience are enrolled. Previous courses have included students up to 52 years old.

The course qualifies graduates for many good jobs. According to Mrs. R. A. Denny, head of the food service training departments, employment possibilities for graduates of the course are tremendous and employers are constantly seeking trained help from the course. Wages offered are higher than the average paid restaurant workers.

A short 10-week course is held for restaurant operators or highly experienced food service personnel who wish to take only a specialized part of the main course. This short course can be begun anytime during the term of the chief course.

Those interested in the food service training courses should apply to Mrs. R. A. Denny ,Provincial Institute of Technology and Art. Calgary.

Experienced truckers know there's no such thing as an "All 'Round Truck". Each type of trucking job has its own special problems, and its own special approach—each requires a truck that's been designed with the particular job in mind. That's why there's an extra measure of usefulness and an extra capacity for work in every GMC Truck, because GMC's are specifically engineered for the job. They're engineered with a choice of axles, with a choice of transmissions and with a choice of engines, so that your GMC will stand up longer, give better service, and cut operating costs to a minimum. ### CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, beautiful floral tributes, cancer fund donations and cemetery fund donations received during our sad bereavement. Thanks to Dr. Sweet and the Islay nursing staff for their kindness.

Mrs. Olive Hodgson and family.

Health Unit Notes

(From Sanitary Inspector's Diary)

This week continuing my notes on water supplies I am going to deal with protection of wells from surface pollution.

Assuming that water has been found at a location suitably sited, the next step is to provide proper and effective protection so that surface pollution is avoided.

If the well is dug or bored, it is very essential that the casing or cribbing be carefully selected and installed. At least the upper 8 or 10 feet of the cribbing should be absolutely watertight. The larger the diameter of the well the greater is the possibility of surface contamination.

Square or rectangular wells are not recommended as they are more difficult to crib tightly unless concrete is used. Timber cribbing should be two-inch material or greater. Shiplap is not satisfactory for well casing. A water supply which is otherwise satisfactory is well worth the expense of proper protection.

Open type wells, in which a pail or bucket is used for drawing the water are likely to be dangerous and cannot be approved. Practically all samples from such wells are found to be contaminated. All wells should be provided with a pump preferably an iron one.

Another necessary consideration in proper well construction is the cover. Few people realize the importance of a water tight cover. Examine any dug or bored well and usually it will be found that water which is pumped onto the cover or is spilled will gradually seep back into the well, carrying with it pollution from the feet of the person who has last used the pump or droppings from chickens and animals which have free access to the cover.

Concrete is the most satisfactory material for a well cover. A concrete slab does not mean much expense and is cheaper and more durable in the long run than any other cover. The slab should be not less than 4 inches thick and should be reinforced with iron rods. Concrete should be made of one part cement to four parts of clean pit run gravel, and only enough water should be added to form a workable mixture. The wooden forms for the slab should be placed in such a manner that they can be easily removed when the concrete is set. The concrete should be cured for several days by keeping the surface moist. Reinforcing should not be placed more than one inch from the under side of the slab.

If for any reason a wooden cover is used, it should be made of 2-inch checked planks and covered with galvanized sheet iron. One inch wood sheeting even though covered with sheet iron is not satisfactory. Two-ply tongue and grooved flooring covered with galvanized iron makes a good cover where concrete is not used. It is of course important that the openings at the base of the pump be tightly sealed.

Dug and bored wells should always have a manhole or trap door in the cover to permit access to the well when needed.

The manhole cover should not be provided with a handle or any means by which it may be lifted too easily, otherwise it might be removed by children resulting in danger both to the child and the well.

The manhole cover and pump base should form the highest points of the cover and the latter should slope away from them on all sides. The tops of wells should be six to 12 inches above ground level, or as much as two or three feet if there is any danger of the area being flooded.

When the concrete covers are made, suitable holes must be left in the slab for the casing and for such bolts as are required by the pump. The pump may be set on a small concrete base which is raised 4 to 6 inches above the cover.

A large percentage of wells in this area are not fenced in or protected in any way from farm animals, dogs and fowl. This is one of the reasons why samples of water from so many wells show evidence of animal pollution. Every well used for domestic purposes should be either covered with a shed or fenced in. The trough used for watering stock should be outside the fence or shed and the water conveyed to the trough from the pump in a water tight conductor.

New wells should always be chlorinated before being put into use as it is almost impossible to avoid contamination during construction. Sterilizing should not be done until all work is completed.

Schools Open Mon.

Scholarship Winner

JAMES ADAM Jr., Vermilion high school student who by virtue of his standing in the grade 12 departmental examinations written in June, has qualified for one of the $500 scholarships tenable at the University of Alberta, given by the Alberta Hotelmen's Association.

Jim is a son of Mr. James D. Adam, Q.C., and Mrs. Adam of Vermilion. He was born in town and took his entire schooling here.

The Standard joins with a host of friends in extending congratulations to the young student.

KAY CARON HEADS STAGETTES

Boy O Boy! Next to initiation night, election night is the liveliest night of the Stagette year. I don't think any other club carries out an election in quite the same manner as Stagettes. When someone is nominated, a conversation like this follows

"Oh, I couldn't possibly."
"Sure you could."
"No, really."
"Why?"
"Because."

That's a pretty strong argument so nominations continue. Before the next nominee can squeak, a motion is made, seconded and carried that nominations cease and bingo we've got an office filled! Nevertheless the outcome of this sets us up with an efficient slate of officers who are:

|---|---|
| President | Kay Caron |
| Vice-Pres. | Sophie Pawliuk |
| Secretary | Theresa Toner |
| Treasurer | Joan Cawthorpe |
| Press Reporter | Lena Miller |

As the year progresses various committees of both old [illegible] members (with the exception of the membership committee which has already been put to work) will be formed to carry out the duties of the club and we'll be on our merry way once more.

Until further notice meetings will be held every week, so keep your Tuesday evenings free Joan. We intend to give Nick competition as long as we can but from the looks of that ring we're playing a losing game. Congratulations to you both. Grumbling about that being a poor way to start the new term Ivy reminded me looking straight at me that there were still a few old maids left. (I thought Stagettes was a much better word!)

Before long we'll have posters out with the details for our annual Harvest ball. Keep an eye peeled.

Checking [illegible] you must have missed checking [illegible] will find Kay and [illegible] in harness this Saturday Sept 12th.

CONSUMERS FACE PROSPECT OF PRICE RISE

Franco Public Service Consider Sale of Gas System Here

An adjourned meeting of the town council was held Aug. 31 with Mayor S. C. Heckbert and Crs. H. J. Payne, G. W. Sutherland, Geo. C. Webb, M. Hill, K. G. Urquhart, D. R. Mitchell present.

Correspondence: K Div. RCMP re renewal of agreement; Dept. of Agriculture re noxious weeds. Fire Commissioner re new fire fighting unit: Grimshaw Fire brigade re the purchase of old fire truck.

A delegation consisting of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Snider and Mr. McDonald representing the Northwestern Utilities Ltd. attended the meeting to discuss with the Council several aspects of the proposed sale by Franco Public Service to Northwestern Utilities Ltd. of the gas distribution system in this town. The main points brought up for discussion were the increase in rates which Northwestern propose to charge and the providing of a local office to administer the company's affairs.

The increase in the domestic consumers' rates would average about 25%, a portion of which would be the result of raising of the minimum charge from $1 to $2.50 per month. The increase in commercial rates would be about 22% and in the central steam plant 25%. It was felt however, that this increase would not be more than would be allowed by the Board of Public Utility commissioners in a rate hearing and would put this town in the same rate group as Vegreville, Red Deer and Ft. Saskatchewan.

Mr. Snider explained that if purchased by Northwestern Utilities the system would be operated as part of the integrated system serving Edmonton and towns east and south. The Council felt that even though billing, accounting etc. was done from a central office in Edmonton, that the company should maintain a regular office here to handle meter deposits, meter refunds, collections and complaints.

After the discussion the Mayor thanked the delegation for attending, and said they would be advised of the decision of the Council.

The following motions carried:

That Cr. Sutherland be Deputy Mayor for September and October.

That the town procure 500 yards of gravel from the Alberta Government pit at not more than $2 a yard delivered to stock pile in Town of Vermilion.

That D. Wilkinson be paid $25 a month extra for work until the situation be gone into at end of the fiscal year.

That a stop sign be placed facing south, at the corner of the Legion hall.

That new police contract be renewed for two years.

That traffic tickets covering parking and other minor traffic offences be adopted in Vermilion, with the necessary authority from the Attorney General's Dept.

That E. J. White be granted a building permit for Lot 26, Blk. 30, [illegible]

That Lot 32, Blk. 2, be sold to William Dyck for $770. Lot 27, Blk. 30, be sold to A. M. White and Lot 26, Blk. 30, be sold to E. J. White, at assessed value, each at $200, subject to the usual sales agreement.

That Council approve exchange of Lot 4, Blk. 30, by Walter Coulter, for Lot 6, Blk. 30.

By-law 17-53 covering grants to various organizations was given 1st, 2nd and 3rd reading.

High School Students To Register

Pre-registration of all high school students will be held in the high school this Saturday Sept. 12 from 9 a.m. to 12.30 noon, and from 1.30 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Eddie Lyons Completes Pilot Course

AIR CADET SCHOLARSHIP

Flight Sergeant Eddie Lyons of the Vermilion Air Cadet Squadron No. 97 has been granted his private pilot's license as a result of a month's course taken in Edmonton on an air cadet scholarship.

The training was taken at the Edmonton Flying Club with 24 members in the class. Eddie passed with a mark of 80%, third highest in the class.

He makes the third air cadet to obtain pilots licenses in the past two years from the Vermilion squadron on air cadet scholarships. One year ago Ken Caron and Henry Simonson took the course and successfully completed it.

Flying scholarships are available to all cadets 17 years of age or over, with at least two years of cadet work. The awards are made on the recommendation of the commanding officer, and only boys with a keen interest in the air cadet movement are selected.

Alex B. "Sandy" Morrison Goes To Cornell University

APPOINTED TO RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIP

Well known in Vermilion and in University circles in Edmonton, Alex B. 'Sandy' Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Morrison of Vermilion, has been appointed to Research Assistantship at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York State. He is assistant to Dr. Norris and will complete work on his Ph.D. while there.

Sandy graduated from the Vermilion high school in 1947 and entered Agriculture at the University of Alberta that fall. He graduated in 1951 as Gold Medalist in Agriculture and continued on to receive his Master's degree at the fall convocation in 1952. Following this he went to Ottawa to accept a position at the Central Experimental farm. ## Hotel Association Announces Scholarship Winners

The second annual Alberta Hotel Association scholarship awards were announced this week by A. G. Swinarton, Fort Macleod, Association president.

The association awarded 53 scholarships with a total value of $25,000, all tenable at the University of Alberta. Last year the hotelmen awarded 33 scholarships valued at $15,000. In addition to this year's scholarships several awards are being made from the association's newly formed special fund for other worthy students entering University or continuing their both school education.

All rural residents receive $500 awards while residents of Edmonton and Calgary receive $250 scholarships if they attend University in their home city. Calgarians taking their course at Edmonton are awarded $500.

The A.H.A. Scholarship Selection committee is comprised of the following members: Chief Justice C. C. McLaurin, Calgary; Rt. Rev. Geo. Calvert, Anglican Bishop of Calgary Diocese; Dean R.M. Hardy, Faculty of Engineering, U. of A.; Mrs. D. A. Hansen, Calgary, a vice-president of the Provincial Home and School Association; Don Cameron, Registrar Prov. Dept. of Education; R. P. A general meeting of the Vermilion Handicraft Guild will be held on Sept. 24 at 8 p.m. at the high school. Mrs. Phillip Jean, provincial president of the Alberta Handicraft Guild will be present. 11-12

Duck Hunting Season Opens This Saturday

PLENTY OF GAME REPORTED

The duck and goose hunting season in the central Alberta zone which includes Vermilion will open on Saturday Sept. 12. From all reports hunters have a good season in prospect as there seems to be an abundance of game, although due to late hatchings there are many immature birds still on the water. Hunters are asked to refrain from 'potting' these youngsters, as this type of shooting is regarded as very poor sportsmanship at any time.

The Alberta duck hunting season will open Sept. 12 in this zone and closes Nov. 20. Daily bag limits are 8 ducks, 5 geese, 10 rail and coots and 8 Wilson snipe. Possession limits are 32 ducks, 10 geese, 20 rails and coots and 16 Wilson snipe. The season on snipe is for one month only.

UPLAND BIRD SEASON

Blue grouse and ptarmigan may be hunted Sept. 1 to Sept. 30, and sharp-tailed grouse, ruffed grouse, spruce partridge, Hungarian partridge, and ring-necked cock pheasants OCT. 12 to NOV. 21.

Daily limits are 8 sharp-tailed grouse, 5 ruffed grouse, 5 spruce partridge, 10 Hungarian partridge, 3 blue grouse or 5 ptarmigan. Daily limit on ring-neck cock pheasants is 5 and season limit 20, there are no seasonal limits for the other birds.

Migratory birds cannot be shot within 100 yards of Smoky, Little Smoky, North Saskatchewan, South Saskatchewan, Red Deer, Bow and Oldman Rivers. Ducks and other migratory wildfowl also must not be shot within a half-mile of Sullivan, Beaverhill, Whitford, Buffalo, Ministik and Kennilworth Lakes.

There is a closed season on moose and deer this year but elk may be hunted during November and December.

Fred Otto Wins Scholarship Award

OUTSTANDING STUDENT AT MANNVILLE

MANNVILLE.— One of our local boys, Fred Douglas Otto, has won a University Matriculation scholarship which means having free tuition at the University of Alberta for three years. This scholarship is presented to three students of Alberta having high honors, other than in the cities of Edmonton and Calgary. Fred has also been awarded a University Honor prize of $50 for having an average over 85 per cent. Here it should be mentioned that he received 90% or over in all but two subjects. In Chemistry he made 100% and in Physics 98%.

The district is very proud of Fred and all the other honor students. We expect to hear satisfactory reports of them all as they finish their grade 12. In fact the Mannville school makes an exceptionally good showing of honor students and the teachers as well as the students are to be commended.

Flights Planned For Air Cadets

Two big R.C.A.F. planes will be at the local airfield on Friday Oct. 2nd and all members of the Vermilion Squadron will be taken for flights over the surrounding country. All those who made the trip on a similar occasion one year ago will remember it with pleasure.

Coming from Edmonton on the planes will be the R.C.A.F. band. They will spend the day here and then play at a big dance at the armories in the evening. The dance is being sponsored by the air cadets with proceeds in aid of their funds.

Mrs. Fred Leversedge Dies in 38th Year

A feeling of sadness swept the town when it became known that Mrs. Eveline Leversedge, beloved wife of Mr. Fred Leversedge, had passed away at the age of 38 years.

Born at Mardi, Wales, Mrs. Leversedge came here with her parents in the year 1927. She had been in ill health during the past few years but for some time appeared to be better. She was home until Friday, the day before her death, when she was taken to hospital.

She leaves [illegible] sorrowing husband and young family of one son Dennis, and two daughters Margaret and [illegible], her parents Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Wilson, one sister Miss Muriel Wilson [illegible] Vermilion and one [illegible] Edmonton.

Help Needed At Curling Rink

EVERY WEDNESDAY: DO NOT WAIT TO BE ASKED

Volunteer help is urgently needed every Wednesday at the curling rink if that great winter sport is to flourish in Vermilion again this winter. Don't wait to be asked, just turn out at the rink each Wednesday and the job will soon be finished.

The walls are now practically completed and work on the roof trusses is going ahead. This requires quite a number of men armed with hammers as there is a lot of nail driving. Asphalt treating of the roofing material is being carried on in the arena and this work is just about completed.

HOW ABOUT YOUR DONATION?

Donations are coming in too slowly and an appeal is made to all who promised financial aid in the spring when the canvass was made to take it upon themselves today to hand a cheque to Al Locke. This is very necessary at the present time.

Salvation Army Rally Day

This coming Sunday, Sept. 13, will be known as 'Rally Day' at the local Salvation Army citadel. In the afternoon at 2.30 p.m. the Sunday school will re-commence and special awards will be given to all who attend. The public dedication of the new quarters which was 'rained out' in July will be held in front of the new residence at 7.00 p.m. and for the evening service which commences at 7.30 p.m. the Corps officer will speak on the topic, 'The Road to Ruin or the path to Peace'. The public is cordially invited to these services.

Alliance Mission To Commence Services in Renovated Chapel

Services will again be held in the Alliance chapel commencing Sunday Sept. 13, after having been remodelled and renovated throughout. It has also been re-wired for better lighting. The building program is not finished yet, as the congregation is planning an addition to extend from the present building to the sidewalk. This addition will be undertaken as soon as possible but services will be held in the church while this is being done.

Board Welcomes Newcomers

Two newcomers to Vermilion were welcomed at the Board of Trade luncheon meeting on Wednesday. Mr. Lawrence Basler was introduced by Mr. F. J. Richardson, Q.C. Mr. Basler is the recently appointed Police Magistrate. Mr. Neil McLean of the law firm of Einbert & McLean who have taken over the practice of Jas. D. Adam, Q.C. was introduced by D. R. Mitchell. Reg also introduced his brother-in-law Mr. Crestwell who is visiting from River Falls, Wisc.

School Opening Announcement

Parents and pupils will have to keep their ears tuned to the radio this Friday and Saturday as an announcement regarding the school opening will be made. The Provincial Dept. of Health will meet Friday to decide the question and an immediate announcement over the air waves can be expected.

Number of polio cases throughout the province continues to increase and at Standard press time Thursday there appeared a distinct likelihood that a further delay in opening schools could be expected.

Vermilion has one case, a young married woman, who took ill immediately on return from a trip to Ontario.

Last Week's Picture Proves Popular

The popular pastime during the past week has been recognizing the girls appearing the V.S.A. cooking class which picture was reproduced in the Standard last week. Quite a number called saying that they recognized some of the girls and even two of those pictured came into the office to point out themselves to the Editor. The class was that of 1925-26. Instructor was Miss Edwards, while some of the members were Miss Alma Cameron, Miss Mossy Keeley, Mrs. Dora Caron and Mrs. Clara Winge the latter two then the Misses Eyben.

The Standard has other and older cuts which will be printed from time as space permits.

UNIVERSITY GRAD BEST BET

A University degree is still the best job security, eases the way to top salaries. For there's no end in sight on industry's grab for grads—especially those with scientific or professional training, says The Financial Post.

There's still a shortage of engineers, dentists, doctors, nurses, science specialists and dietitians, according to a Department of Labor survey.

Generally there is not expected to be any serious lack of balance between the demand and supply over the next few years barring a major business recession.

VILLAGE OF DERWENT

NOTICE OF LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Village of Derwent intends to undertake as Local Improvements the construction of common sewers and water-mains and that a portion of the cost thereof is to be charged as a special local improvement assessment against all properties abutting on the streets or avenues wherein the said sewers and water-mains are to be constructed at an annual unit rate per foot of frontage of 22c for water-mains and at an annual unit rate per foot of frontage of 17c for sewerage to be payable for a period of Twenty (20) years

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that unless a majority of the owners of the lands that may be assessed therefor representing at least one-half (½) of the value thereof petition the Council against the said local improvement with a two (2) weeks after the last publication of this notice the local improvements may be undertaken and the cost thereof assessed by the system of assessment aforesaid.

THE PROPOSED IMPROVEMENTS are the construction of the following

SCHOOL LUNCHES

With September comes the packing of school lunches. When boys and girls carry lunch to school it needs to be attractive, appetizing and nutritious as it supplies one-third of the food needs for the day. For those who travel long distances to school, it must be satisfying.

Some tasty sandwich fillings are: Flaked or mashed fish with chopped celery or pickle and mayonnaise, mashed peas and sauce or dressing, chopped greens and onions or lemon.

Beef, sliced or chopped with tomato catsup or chili sauce, fruit chutney or mustard relish or freshly shredded salad mixture with dressing.

Hard cooked eggs with a few drops of onion juice and finely chopped crisp bacon.

More suggestions are found in the bulletin 'Lunch Boxes and Hot School Lunches' — write me for it.

STRETCH YOUR DOLLAR

1. First of all, learn to watch the pennies. Think of what you can buy with one dollar, now realize that you can have that by saving a penny a meal for a month.

2. Shop personally so that you will be able to make a better choice of perishable foods and find bargains.

3. Both store, and cook food carefully so that you will have the most flavor and the most food value in the form of minerals and vitamins.

4. Serve dried fruits often, buying the larger size because there is a greater proportion of fruit to stone.

5. Serve whole fruits rather than juices.

6. When you buy fresh fruit, choose the heaviest since there is a greater proportion of juice.

7. Buy fresh fruit in season; it is usually less expensive than the canned fruit.

8. Serve cooked cereal rather than prepared cereal. Soak it to save fuel and improve its flavor.

9. Butter, extended with milk, almost doubles its volume. It is excellent for sandwiches as well as for table use.

10. Buy in as large quantities as is possible.

11. Buy in the cheaper container. Cellophane and cotton bags are cheaper than cardboard, tin or glass containers.

12. Grade B eggs are fine for cooking, and their food value is the same as Grade A.

13. Plan your meals to bake or broil as many foods as possible at one time.

14. Serve molasses and corn syrup in place of the more expensive jams and jellies.

15. Train children to be reasonably careful of their clothes and household furnishings.

16. Of course making over clothes is a great saving. So learn to sew if you do not already. Ask for my free assistance with your sewing problems.

Acquire Controlling Interest In Red Deer Brewing Company

Through purchases of shares from the treasury of the company and from private holders, Western Canada Breweries Limited has acquired controlling interest in Red Deer Brewing Company Limited of Alberta.

The new $2,000,000 Brewery now under construction for the Red Deer Brewing Company at Red Deer, Alberta, will be completed under the guidance of Western Canada Breweries Limited and will start marketing its products early in 1954.

As a result of this transaction, Western Canada Breweries now has producing and distributing units in each of the four Western provinces. In addition to Vancouver Breweries Limited in Vancouver and the newly purchased interest in Red Deer Brewing Company Limited, the firm operates as subsidiary units The Drewrys (Manitoba) Limited in Winnipeg; Drewerys Saskatchewan Division in Saskatoon and Blue Label Brewery Ltd in Regina.

S. F. Heard will remain with the company as President and Mr. Donald Millard as director and secretary. Mr. J. D. Paterson, formerly managing-director of North West Brewing Company Limited Edmonton will occupy a similar position with the Red Deer Brewing Co. Ltd. Management of the brewery will be under the direction of Mr. S. R. Farquharson. Head office of the company will be at Red Deer, Alta.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director "The Crop Testing Plan"

THE MARCH OF THE WHEAT VARIETIES

From the day when wheat growing was attempted in a serious way on these prairies, soon after 1812, around 30 different varieties have been tried out. Of all these however, only a few were really successful. The first important variety was Red Fife, discovered in Ontario in 1842, emigrated to the U.S. and brought from the U.S. into Manitoba soon after 1870. Red Fife completely displaced several varieties then in use by the settlers. Then followed a number of varieties in a search for an earlier wheat than Red Fife and the great Marquis appeared in 1911. Then followed a number of other varieties in a search for a still earlier variety than Marquis, in particular Red Bobs (then called Early Triumph) in 1921 and Garnet in 1926, which were found satisfactory by the farmers. And then to resist stem rust in 1935 Thatcher (which still dominates) and a number of Canadian produced rust-resistant wheats, i.e. Renown, Apex, Regent and Redman. In 1951 appeared the new race of rust 15-B to which all these varieties are susceptible. But now comes C.T. 186 (not yet licensed) which is resistant to 15-B but not to several other races of rust.

Wildmere Winks

The writer along with the community joins in sending deepest sympathy to the Tory families of Wainwright on the loss of a dear son, Allan who passed away last week from polio. He leaves a wife and baby and to them all go our heartfelt sympathy in their hour of sorrow. The baby also has polio but is improving. Mr. Tory was laid to rest in the Auburndale cemetery.

Everyone was deeply shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Fred Liversedge. While she had not been well for a long time we did not think the grim reaper was so near. To her sorrowing husband and children and to her parents, brother and sister goes our deepest sympathy. Through all her sickness and suffering Mrs Liversedge could always greet you with a smile and it did one good to talk with her. Her pleasant smile and wonderful personality will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. C. Crothers on Thursday evening the writer enjoyed the show "Moulin Rouge". It was something entirely different to most shows and can be applied to life. While we are living what we are doing does not appear to be much, but after we have gone it seems quite a value to the community and the world.

We had a nice visit on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnston, and Mrs. Sloan of Mannville.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. L. Hicks who were married Saturday. May they enjoy many years of happiness.

While in Macleod's store on Saturday we enjoyed a real old time visit with Mrs. Cooper of Buffalo Lake, bringing back memories of pioneering days on the homestead.

We are all very sorry to hear of Mr. F. Van Wageningen being badly injured by a bull. All wish him a speedy recovery to health and strength. You cannot trust one of those animals no matter how quiet it is seem.

Our motion service was held at our church Sunday evening but only a few attended. Rev. R. Crighton of Mannville gave a nice sermon but it is too bad more did not hear it. Next church service and Miss Hastings will be leaving to resume duties in Toronto. We have enjoyed having her with us this summer. Her messages from the Good Book will linger with us long after we are gone and we feel the better for having met such a nice friendly girl. May every success go with her in her chosen work and a very pleasant journey home to Ontario is wished her.

Noticed around Bill and Adam Oliver combining swathed barley on Monday. Hollie Holte working the summerfallow for J. Wilson. The writer and family enjoying Saturday evening at the Fadden home: Gary Crothers stooking for J. Burke; Bobby Graham helping G. Wilson stook; Ray Osterberg, D. Denby taking out new combines; Everton and Forest Seale of Battleview each purchased new combines earlier in the season; Howard and Allan Coburn swathing grain for L. Howard; L. Graham and Louie Nels visiting the Wallington home last Thursday.

Health Unit Notes

(From Sanitary Inspector's Diary)

This week I am going to discuss hard and alkali waters.

Many of the underground waters in this province contain large quantities of mineral salts. These waters are often referred to as "hard" waters, but this term is misleading. The nature of the salt must be taken into consideration and most of the so called Alkali waters are more correctly named sulphate waters.

The high mineral salt content in our underground waters is accounted for partly at least, by huge deposits of sodium sulphate, commonly known as Glaubers salt, which are found in this part of the province. Not only is Glaubers salt very soluble in water but its presence in solution makes the water a better solvent for some other salts.

Upon prominent mineral salts found in underground waters are calcium sulphate, known as Gypsum, selenite, or plaster of paris; magnesium sulphate or Epsom salts; sodium carbonate or soda ash; calcium carbonate or lime stone; sodium chloride or common salt; magnesium carbonate, and calcium and magnesium chloride. When water is described as containing alkali it many contain several or all of these salts in different proportions.

The mineral salts in water are reverydently divided into two classes; namely, the hardening salts and the non hardening salts. The amount of hardening salts present is important when the water is intended for washing or as boiler feed water. The presence of sulphate salts will tend to make the water act as a laxative particularly on persons not used to the water. Sodium chloride or common salt when in large quantities render a water supply unfit to drink.

Waters are frequently found which contain iron in solution. Larger amounts of iron give the water an inky taste, but does not affect the color of the water. When such a water stands exposed to the air the iron in solution undergoes change from ferrous bicarbonate to ferric oxide and in the latter form it settles out and forms a reddish brown sediment at the bottom of the container. During the course of the change a film resembling oil will form on the water and the water will become cloudy. Water containing a considerable amount of iron will stain porcelain, enamelware and clothing and when used for drinking has a tendency to cause constipation. In most cases the iron can be almost completely removed by aeration and filtration.

Caterpillar Led The Way To Insulation

Scientists say that the inventor of insulation was the common cecropia moth caterpillar. Long before building insulation was even dreamed of, this little creature had found a way to protect itself from sub-zero temperatures by spinning a snug, double-walled cocoon of pure silk.

The cecropia has a unique modern counterpart vermiculite, an insulating material with a striking physical resemblance to the caterpillar. Vermiculite is one of the mica minerals, and in the early days miners called it "heather gold" because of its light weight and glistening color.

Crude vermiculite ore has thousands of paper-thin layers per inch; within them, tiny water molecules are trapped. When the ore particles are run through a furnace at about 2000 degrees F., this water turns to steam, which "pops the layers into featherweight granules twelve times larger than their original size.

Vermiculite in attics and sidewalls has been repeated by homeowners to reduce fuel costs as much as 40 per cent every year. No special installation equipment is needed. Anyone can pour the clean, fluffy granules from the bag. They flow into every nook and cranny to make a complete, uniform blanket of insulation that will outlast the building. Vermiculite does not burn. The processed material weighs only about 6 pounds per cubic foot, which puts no strain on structural framing members. It is also used in concrete and plaster mixes instead of sand. Here again, its unique properties reduce construction costs.

STORY OF OVERSEAS TRIP COMPLETED

BY ADDIE MEAD.

It was good to be in comfortable rooms at The White Cliffs of Dover Hotel ensconced in new building looking out over the Channel. The boys waded in the Channel, just long enough to find it was very cold. We dressed for dinner and in general were very glad to be back in England.

I like this early morning ice straight to the rooms, but would much prefer coffee.

Before leaving for home in the morning we visited Dover Castle which is purely a castle for defense purposes, I should say. It has a long history dating back to 45 A.D. The flight house built then forms part of the wall of the church now standing. There are three drawbridges to pass before gaining entrance to the Keep. The walls, varying from 17 to 21 feet in thickness, are made of solid stone and guard rooms are built in them. There is a heating system not unlike central heating, also a water system. The underground passages are so arranged that in the early days when a besieged did sip by all obstacles and passed through a certain corridor he became trapped and boiling oil would pour down a chute upon him. There is so much to tell about Dover Castle that I believe I will leave it here.

The return trip to Vermilion was very eventful but the part most enjoyed was the flight to Iceland, which at 2:30 a.m. was scarcely dark and at 4:30 a.m. the sun was rising again making it possible to take pictures.

If some of you have derived pleasure from these letters, they have fulfilled their purpose. It was a privilege to have been able to visit these countries, made more pleasant by the knowledge that you were sharing some of it, my friends.

I have tried to be accurate as to records and statements but note some mistakes. One very glaring one slipped past me, where apparently I stated that Queen Elizabeth, launched in The Palace after his coronation. This should have read The Abbey, of course.

We are indeed most fortunate to be living in Canada, and personally I know of no better place to call home than our friendly informal little town of Vermilion.

More Life Insurance

Canadians continue to increase their purchases of life insurance, according to the latest report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Sales of new life insurance in 1952 were over $2½ billion, of which $174 6 million represents industrial and $1½ billion group.

Much of the increase is being sought in complete pension plans and in group term types and in the conversion of policies or increase in type. Owners advanced for this in some quarters is that with the steady increase in pension plans in industry, the demand for investment type policies is decreasing.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Sept. 9, 1937

The inter high school track meet was scheduled for Vermilion on Oct. 1. This event alternates between Lloydminster and Vermilion.

The school hard closed the south side school and all children from there will now attend the public school where eight rooms will be operated with a teacher to each of the eight grades.

Twelve Protestant ministers were arrested in Germany for urging congregations to fight against encroachment in church affairs.

A hockey meeting was called to organize for that pastime for the coming winter.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Sept. 7, 1921

Every threshing outfit in the country is in full swing and the weather is perfect for harvesting operations. Grain is pouring into the elevators.

The Standard is installing a typesetting machine of the latest model at a cost of $4200. The investment is a heavy one but the Editor has sufficient faith in the great future of town and community to feel that it is a safe one.

Ducks are reported plentiful. The shooting season opened on Sept. 1.

Bert Porter who has been connected with the Standard since returning from overseas has accepted a position with the MacLean Publishing Co. of Toronto.

Hints on Polio Precautions

1. The tired child is much more liable to acute paralysis. Avoid fatigue.
2. Polio is a communicable disease. Avoid crowds.
3. Swimming should be avoided because of chilling fatigue and possible contamination of the water.
4. Avoid contamination by careful personal hygiene including washing of hands before meals and after using the toilet.
5. High standards of dish washing and washing of vegetables and fruits and protection of food against flies should be maintained.
6. Keep the garbage and waste material covered to avoid attracting flies.
7. Control of sewage should be maintained. Flies in outdoor toilets can be controlled by chloride of lime, DDT or ashes, and by proper screening.
8. Where the disease is prevalent locally operations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids should be avoided. Extraction of teeth should also be postponed if possible.
9. Early care will often prevent or limit crippling.
10. Generally speaking mild cases are best cared for at home. Movement of patients may do harm.

Paradise Valley

Mr Roy Stewart was a recent visitor to his farm in Saskatchewan to see how the crop situation was down there. Mrs. Kragness assisted in the store during his absence.

A party consisting of Mrs. J. W. Guy, Bill Herbert, Gordon Guy and [illegible] are enjoying a vacation in the mountains.

Mr. Orvil Fulgham is a patient in the Lloydminster hospital suffering from burns which he received on Tuesday morning when the stove exploded while lighting. The kitchen of the home was badly damaged and a lot of damage done to the contents. We understand that Mr. Fulgham received severe burns and Mrs. Fulgham also received injuries which made a trip to Edmonton necessary.

Mrs Charles Beckett and Mrs. J. Mayo have returned home after visiting with friends and relatives at Wetaskiwin, Edmonton and Drayton Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Foxwell of Edmonton spent the long week end with their parents Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoskins and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gordon.

The many friends of Mr. Harry French who passed away at Wainwright recently were indeed surprised and saddened to hear the news. Mr. French operated the pool room and barber shop here until early summer.

The Paradise Valley W.A. met in the United church basement on Friday evening Sept. 4 for their regular meeting with a large attendance. Since July was a holiday month there was much business to be taken up. The manse committee will purchase an oil stove heater for the manse. An additional Communion service will be bought with some replacement glasses for the old one. It was decided to hold the annual chicken supper on Friday Nov. 6. All members were advised to ask for chicken. The final arrangements for this big event will be made at the next meeting on Oct. 2 when Mrs. Bob Hallett and Mrs. J. Storms will be hostesses. All members try to be present.

Recreation for 50,000 People

Vermilion Provincial Park Attracts Widespread Attention

(The following article is taken from the Alberta Government publication "Within Our Borders".)

Alberta's newest provincial park is a project in which the Alberta Government, the Canadian Utilities Limited, Town of Vermilion and Ducks Unlimited have joined forces to build an attactive recreation area and duck sanctuary in the valley of the Vermilion River, 125 miles east of Edmonton.

A concrete dam, penning the waters of the Vermilion River into a lake, forms the basis of the park. This dam was built by Canadian Utilities Limited, which wanted a steady source of water for their nearby steam electric plant supplying Vermilion and north-eastern Alberta with light and power.

Locks and earthworks for the artificial lake were built by the power company and Ducks Unlimited, which entered the plan to provide another breeding ground for ducks in Alberta. The Alberta Government formed the Provincial park with the Department of Highways assisting by building a concrete traffic bridge across the power company's dam.

Situated on the northern fringe of Vermilion, the town serves as a recreation area for an estimated 30,000 people living within a 50-mile radius of the town.

The wooded south shore will be the main beach of the park. Sand hauled over the lake ice last winter formed the beginnings of a beach which eventually will stretch along the south shore. Also on the beach side are two bathhouses and two picnic shelters built by Vermilion citizens with materials provided by the Alberta overnment. Playground equipment has been installed for the children.

Boating and bathing facilities provided by the new park have been received enthusiastically by the local citizens. On warm afternoons, as many as 400 bathers have swum in the lake's cool waters. Approximately 35 boats of various types are used on the lake, including three propelled by 25 horsepower outboard motors. Water skiing has attracted the younger set who have become proficient enough at this sport to stage demonstrations.

At present, jackfish are the only fish caught in the lake but a large stocking of perch was made this year and the possibility of introducing other species of fish is being investigated.

A boat trip to the western end of the lake reveals a duck paradise. Amid the half-submerged brush broods of ducklings scuttle ahead of the boat while large broods of all kinds of ducks wing close. Since the lake is a bird sanctuary with no hunting allowed, visitors can see wild ducks at close range.

The north side of the lake is rolling parkland deep in grass and cut by numerous coulees. On these clear and rolling slopes Vermilion sportsmen ski in the winter time making the park a year-round sports area.

NO HUNTING IN PARK

Hunters are reminded that the new Vermilion Park area is a bird sanctuary, consequently no hunting whatsoever of either waterfowl or upland birds will be allowed. Any infractions of this regulation will be dealt with severely.

Long Time Resident Of Creighton Dist. Passes

MANNVILLE.—Mr. L. H. Ekin passed away after a short illness on Sunday evening at the age of 76. He and Mrs. Ekin are old timers of the Mannville district coming to Creighton to farm 34 years ago.

Mr. Ekin had been a member of the Alberta Wheat Pool for many years.

Although Mr. Ekin lost both his legs over five years ago he had been active and never stopped farming himself, even to driving the tractor. He enjoyed life despite his handicap and attended the Vermilion Fair and other public functions. His courage and determination could be a lesson to many.

He was for many years on the Board of the United Church and was made an honorary member of the Board when no longer able to attend regularly.

The funeral was held from McQueen's Memorial United church, Mannville on Wednesday at 2 p.m with Rev. R. Crighton officiating. The remains will be taken to Salem Oregon for burial.

Mr. Ekin is survived by his wife at Mannville, and one daughter, Mrs. Verneena Ayres of Stockton, Calif. One sister and three brothers are still living in the United States.

Historic Company Goes

The Canada Company is to disappear this month. Formed in 1824 it helped to settle about 2.5 million acres of Ontario land on and east of Lake Huron, says The Financial Post.

Now all the land is gone in the tract from Galt to Goderich. But the old marks of settlement remain. There is Secretary John Galt's spokes of a wheel plan for Guelph and Goderich — and for tiny Bayfield which forgot to grow. There's the twist in the old Huron road at Punkydoodle's Corners where the surveyors changed course to hit Goderich — and crossed a river at a ford a few miles west to found Stratford.

There are the stone houses and the soft brick of early days, the carriage stops, the old Canada Co. office at Goderich, and the nearly 100-year-old Goderich court house now slated for destruction.

Unfortunately mourns The Post there are only a few people who give two hoots about saving some of the past.

QUESTION: Can cancer develop from chapped hands and lips?
ANSWER: A lip made repeatedly sore by the sun or weather may develop cancer. Many lip cancers seen in farmers are due to irritation by sunshine. Hands are more likely to develop cancers in areas that chap easily.

Local News of Interest

President Keith Chalmers of the Board of Trade and Secretary F. J. Richardson have been delegated to attend the annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce which will be held at the Macdonald hotel next week.

J. W. G. Morrison, Q.C., left by plane Saturday morning to spend a brief holiday in Vancouver. The flight was arranged by the Mitchell Agencies.

Spending the holiday week end in Calgary were Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Cooper and daughter Yvonne where they visited daughter Bernice. Accompanying them on the trip was Mr. Jim Young of Lindberg.

Elected to the board of directors of the Alberta Theatres Association at the convention held last week at Banff was Billy Pilkie of Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lyle of Manning in northern Alberta, renewed old acquaintances around town during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hareuther and three children and Mrs. Hareuther Sr., returned Wednesday of last week from a 6000 mile holiday trip which took them as far south as San Diego. The party was away six weeks with several lengthy stopovers being made so that the holiday was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Miss Ruth Beatty who has been visiting friends in Edmonton and district, returned home on Tuesday evening.

Bob Carmichael attended the annual convention of Western Canada Photographers held at the Macdonald hotel in Edmonton this week. Many new developments in the fine art of photography were explained and demonstrated.

William Eckford and his daughter Dorothy of Vancouver passed through Vermilion last week on a visit to another daughter and sister in Saskatchewan. Mr. Eckford farmed for several years in the Ottawa district. Dorothy was stenographer in one of the local law offices for some years and is now of the staff of the main office of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Vancouver.

Mrs. Douglas Cooper and son Dene are spending a few days this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stack at Redwater. The trip to the oil town was made with Miss Dorothy McCormick who had spent the long week end visiting her parents in town.

CARD OF THANKS
My sincere thanks to all friends and neighbors who visited, sent flowers, cards and gifts to me while I was a patient in the Vermilion hospital following the accident last October. I deeply appreciated the kindness of neighbors bringing my family to visit me. A special thank you to Dr. King, Miss Keith and the hospital staff.
Mrs. Ruby Thomson

Many Attend Family Reunion at Home of Mrs. Amalia Bauer

A large scale family re-union took place Sunday, Sept. 6, at the home of Mrs. Amalia Bauer when she was visited by her sister Mrs. John Muhlbier of Edmonton, and her brother Mr. Gus Maron of Mannville and their respective families.

From Edmonton came Mr. and Mrs. John Muhlbier, Joanne and Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Muhlbier and son, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Midbo.

Mannville was represented by Mr. and Mrs. Gus Maron and Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Maron and son, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maron and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Maron and three sons.

Mrs. Bauer's sons Oswald, Ronnie, Robert and Alvin and their families completed the reunion.

Mrs. Bell Carmichael and Miss Edna Allen of the Beauty Nook are spending Thursday and Friday at the Alberta Hair Dressers' Annual convention in Edmonton. All the latest trends in hair styling will be demonstrated and methods discussed.

Mrs. A. E. Washington had as her guests over the holiday week end her son George of Grande Prairie, and Miss Dorothy Mitchell, also of Grande Prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. Laird Kearns and little son Lee of Edmonton spent the holiday week end visiting the former's mother Mrs. T. N. Kearns, Mr. W. R. Wiebe and Mrs. Roger Rowe.

Get Younger Pep—or Don't Pay
Forget your age! Thousands are peppy at 70. See what a little "pepping up" with Ostrex can do for you. It's a tonic, stimulant, invigorator—with iron plus supplementary vitamin B1, calcium, phosphorus. Puts new vitality in body weak, worn-out, old after 40. For both sexes. A 70-year-old doctor writes: "I took it myself. Results fine." Has given new vigor when other tonics failed. So refuse weak substitutes. Ostrex gives far more pep, a much younger feeling. Money back if you're not delighted. Introductory or "get-acquainted" size only 60c. Try Ostrex Tonic Tablets for new pep, vigor, vitality and to feel years younger, this very day. At all druggists.

Weather Settles Down

HARVEST PROGRESSING

Weather has settled down nicely for the past week and cutting of the crop is proceeding rapidly. An estimated 50 per cent of wheat is either in stook or swath with a small percentage threshed. 30% of the oats are down and 60% of the barley.

NOT BUYING TOUGH OR DAMP GRAIN

While little grain has been marketed, considerable testing has been done at local elevators and tough or damp has been the common analysis. As the Wheat Board is not buying any damp or tough grain this year, care should be taken that grain is in proper condition before threshing.

It appears that the grade is going to be disappointing this season with the possibility that No. 4 will predominate. Grain men think that the rapid growth has resulted in some immaturity and uneven kernels. However, there has not been enough grain marketed as yet to really establish a set trend.

Showers Honors Kitscoty Bride-Elect

KITSCOTY. Wednesday evening Aug. 26, many friends from Kitscoty and district gathered in the Tracy Memorial hall to honor Miss Sheila Pidcock.

The theme "An Apple for the Teacher" was retained throughout the evening. Upon entering the hall, each guest was asked to pin either an apple or a worm on her dress. These were used to group the guests for the contests and games which followed.

After a half hour of fun a very delicious lunch was served. As the lunch was being passed Mrs. Elsie Patty led an enjoyable sing-song. Hostesses Mrs. Jack Allen and Miss Betty Gray were ably assisted by Mrs Russell Lang, Miss Sheila McCorry, Miss June Lang and Miss Beth Tyler.

Following lunch, Miss Gray and Mrs. Allen, both dressed as little school girls, brought forth laughter as they enacted the songs 'I Can't Do the Sum' and 'An Apple for the Teacher'. The two 'little pupils' then presented Sheila with a huge red apple filled with gifts. When the gifts had been opened and admired, Sheila thanked her many friends for their kindness and good wishes.

The enjoyable evening was then brought to a close by the singing of "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow".

THE VERMILION STANDARD

Vol. XLV. No. 12. Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, September 17th, 1953. $2.50 Per Year

Ninety Beginners Start Term; 25 Teachers

School Attendance Jumps To 693

School attendance jumped nearly one hundred students on opening day Monday with 693 registering as compared with a total of 610 attending when school closed in June. Accounting for the increase was a beginner class of 90 which set a new record high number of little tots, and two new bus routes which brings the number of participating schools up to 16 centralized in Vermilion. The two new bus routes are from King Edward and from Chatsworth district in the Vegreville S.D.

There are now 25 teachers in the various Vermilion schools plus four home economics and shop teachers on a part time basis at the Vermilion school of agriculture, where the Vermilion school children take their vocational training in these lines.

The attendance by grades follows:

PRIMARY SCHOOL

Grade 1 — 90 pupils, 3 rooms, the teachers are Miss Dorothy Oldenberg, principal; Miss Mary Swanson, Miss M. Polinsky.

Grades 2A and 2B, 55 pupils, the teachers are Miss Evelyn Sherriff and Miss Margaret Taylor.

The boys greatly outnumber the girls in the primary school, there being 83 boys to 62 girls.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Grade 3A — 34, Miss Lois Allen.
Grade 3B — 31, Mrs. Olga Walker.
Grade 4A — 26, Mrs. Lilian Eidem.
Grade 4B — 26, Florence McKenzie.
Grade 5A — 31, Tom Connolly.
Grade 5B — 30, Miss Cora Mahan.
Grade 6A — 27, Mr. F. V. Stewart, Principal.
Grade 6B — 29, Mrs. Mildred Klashinsky.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Grade 7A — 33, Eristine Werezuk.
Grade 7B — 34, Eunice Waytichen.
Grade 8A — 29, Frank Welsh.
Grade 8B — 28, Pearl Biduiock.
Grade 9B — 30, John Kindrachuk.
Grade 9A — 29, Frank H. Walker, Principal.

HIGH SCHOOL, 10 to 12

Miss M. Knapp — 20 students.
Mrs. Hilda English — 20 students.
Mr. L. Dowling — 20 students.
Mr. J. Kokotailo — 17 students.
Mr. Jas. Bell, Principal — 20.

High school attendance is up 7 over last June with a few more students to report. It will be noted that the heavy enrollments which have gradually crept up through the grades has reached grade 9 where there are 59 students compared with 42 last year.

Grades 1 and 2 require 3 rooms each with 90 in grade 1 and 89 in grade 2 so that each year one more room per grade is needed as they move upward.

Many Vermilion Students At University

Many graduates of the Vermilion High school this year are enrolled at the University of Alberta and the following go to Edmonton this week end to commence their Varsity careers:

John Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stewart, enrolled in Commerce.

Rex Boake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Boake, Medicine;

Ken Caron, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Caron, Commerce;

James Adam, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adam, Engineering;

Larry Kehoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Len Kehoe, Engineering;

Betty Bentley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Bentley, Education.

Shirley Sutherland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sutherland, B.Sc. in Nursing.

Noreen Dougan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dougan, and Miss Catherine Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barr have already started three year courses in nursing at the University hospital.

MILITARY BINGO

The Citizen's committee wish to announce that they will hold a military bingo on Oct. 17. Watch for further particulars next week. 12x

Friends here will regret to learn that Dr. Bradford suffered quite a serious heart attack early this week and is now a patient in the University hospital, Edmonton.

Mrs. A. B. King Is Lady Golf Champion

TWENTY-FOUR COMPETE IN TOURNEY ON SUNDAY

Mrs. A. B. King won the annual ladies' open golf tournament held here on Sunday Sept. 13 from a field of 24 competitors. Visitors came from Willingdon and Vegreville. Second place in the championship flight went to Mrs. R. McKenzie of Vegreville.

Mrs. King also had the low qualifying score, while Mrs. D. Lazaruk of Willingdon was the low qualifier among the visiting players. Mrs. Lorne Pockett won the prize for the longest driving competition with the pitch and putt being taken by Mrs. L. Mills.

The tournament arrangements were under the direction of the president of the Vermilion club, Mrs. A. R. Anderson.

The complete list of winners follows:

First Flight — 1, Mrs. J. Crawford; 2, Mrs. Al Locke.

Third Flight—1, Mrs. Wm. Sutherland; 2, Mrs. Robert Rowe.

Fourth Flight — 1, Mrs. L. Mills; 2, Mrs. G. F. Stephens.

The weather was perfect and the tournament proved a very enjoyable event.

CALL MEETING OF V. A. A. A.

CONSIDER PEE-WEE HOCKEY AND OTHER QUESTIONS

A meeting of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Association will be held on Thursday evening next, Sept. 24 at 8:15 in the basement room of the town hall. It will be primarily to consider the welfare of the pee-wee hockey league and other matters pertaining to athletics in the town. This is a public meeting, everyone is urged to attend.

Air Cadet Parades Start Monday, Sept. 21

7:30 P.M. AT ARMOURIES

Air cadet parades for the Vermilion Squadron No. 97 will recommence on Monday next Sept. 21 at the armories. New recruits should attend this parade as no new cadets are allowed to join after Oct. 31 for the coming year. In order to join boys must be 14 years of age by January 31, 1954.

Elks Carnival Is Planned For October

ARRANGEMENTS ARE NOW UNDER WAY

The annual Elks carnival, the fun festival of the year, is again looming up and arrangements are under way to hold this popular event the end of October. Details of the three-day carnival will appear later. Proceeds are used for the B.P.O.E. community and charitable projects.

Two out of five school children are handicapped by inadequate eyesight. Almost all could be brought up to par or proper care. See Better, Learn Better.

Agricultural Society To Hold Sale Of Purebred Livestock

Following the practice of the past several years the Vermilion Agricultural Society will hold a sale of purebred cattle and hogs at their pavilion on the fair grounds on a date early in November, the date to be announced within the next week.

Those having good quality cattle and hogs are invited to secure entry forms and to make their entries as soon as convenient. It is pointed out that cull variety animals are not desired for the sale as the Society is anxious to distribute only good quality stock throughout the district.

The number of cattle and hogs to be offered for sale must be limited and all entering stock should be advised that it may be necessary to make careful selection of the offerings in order to maintain the quality and provide as nearly as possible the required number of head to meet the expected demand.

Rev. Eric Berg To Move To Abbotsford

Rev. Eric P. Berg, popular pastor of the Alliance chapel for the past five and a half years, and where the results of his work have been outstanding, has accepted a charge at Abbotsford, and will leave shortly for his new field.

It is with genuine regret that his parishioners and a very wide circle of townspeople see Rev. and Mrs. Berg and little daughter leave Vermilion where they have been esteemed and valued members of the community. Best wishes go with them to carry on their good work in their new church and town.

STAGETTES GO HUNTING

BAG EIGHT NEW MEMBERS

Speaking of hunting. When Dan Cupid has bagged his limit for the year he leaves our little flock much smaller, so each fall we do a little hunting of our own. It's surprising the assortment of young chicks we round up too. We had eight girls in tow last week with more coming next, so that when it's time for the Harvest Ball the club will have as many members as ever and all ready to dance the shoes off any challenger. Just try it.

New members with new ideas, and full of enthusiasm surely keeps the club from getting in a rut and right now they are on the rampage armed with dance tickets for Oct 2!.

We hope there will be a lot of people in town on the evening of the 29th of September for it should prove worthwhile for the spectator. That's right, initiation. As for the participants, well . . . that's another story. We haven't had many fatal injuries yet so don't worry girls. It is really quite awful I know but don't let it get you. You have all our sympathy you know and it should be some consolation as the dreaded hour comes closer and closer.

Lil and Mildred check Saturday 19th. Volunteered I believe though I couldn't be sure!

Rate Increases Are Also Accepted

Council Approves Gas Franchise Transfer

An adjourned meeting of the town council was held Monday, Sept. 14 with Mayor S. C. Heckbert and Crs. H. J. Payne, G. W. Sutherland, M. Hill, K. G. Urquhart, D. R. Mitchell, Geo. C. Webb.

Correspondence: R.C.M.P. re monthly report; Geo. Martin re Civil Defence Class.; Alta. Civil Defence re Civil Defence Course; Petition re Swimming Pool. Director of Town Planning re proposed transfer of C.N.R. property. Northwestern Utilities re purchase of gas distribution system. Director of assessments re taxation on curling rink.

The following motions carried:

The minutes of the previous meeting be adopted as read.

That financial statements for the month of August be adopted as read.

GAS FRANCHISE

That in order to secure reasonable guarantee of continuous supply of natural gas over a long period of years this Council views favorably the proposal of the Northwestern Utilities Ltd. to purchase the facilities of the Franco Public Service Ltd. and hereby agrees that in view of said guarantee of natural gas supply and the undertaking by the Northwestern Utilities Ltd. to maintain a service office in the Town of Vermilion, in conjunction with the Canadian Utilities Ltd., we notify the Northwestern Utilities Ltd. and Franco Public Service Limited accordingly and that we advise the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners that we hereby sanction:

1. Transfer of the franchise presently held by Franco Public Service Ltd. to the Northwestern Utilities Ltd., and

2. That we accept the rate increase as outlined by officers of the Northwestern Utilities Ltd., the said rates being in strict conformity with those charged in other towns served by Northwestern Utilities Ltd. and contained in the schedule of rates which become part of this resolution and are attached thereto.

NEW FIRE ENGINE

That Council accept report of the committee re tender for fire engine and authorize committee to call tenders for same.

STAND-BY WELL

That a contract be signed as outlined with International Water Supply to supply water and equipment at an agreed price of $9720 and gear drives be purchased at approximate price of $450.

That Town transfer curling rink property to Vermilion Curling club after agreement and transfer back to Town for future registration signed by Vermilion Curling club, and necessary caveat be filed against title.

CIVIL DEFENCE COURSE

That Mr. J. R. Bauman be employed to instruct St. John Ambulance Course in Vermilion, arrangement re salary and mileage same as last year and that we offer room upstairs in rink if deemed suitable.

That Secretary E. H. Weeres be authorized to attend Civil Defence school in Edmonton, Oct. 12-17 inclusive.

That Lot 30, Blk. 2 Plan 6647-S, be sold to Martin Shalka for $700 subject to usual sales agreement amended to 9 months for beginning construction.

That Canadian Oils Ltd. be given permission to build bulk oil station as planned and to comply with the Provincial Fire Commissioner.

Town accounts and water and sewer accounts were passed and ordered paid, same having been certified by the Finance committee.

SWIMMING POOL PETITION

The petition received regarding the old swimming hole was discussed but the Council felt that they were not the proper body to deal with it and so took no action.

Teachers In The Mannville Schools

MANNVILLE. — To date the enrolment in the Mannville school is 163, with 311 of this number in grades 1 to 6. Mr. H. A. Doherty the principal and Mr. Facey, inspector have assigned the following grades to the following teachers.

Lugg; Grade 3 — Mrs. M. Gamble; Grades 2 and 3 — Miss M. Mackowecki; Grade 2 — Mrs. M. Otto; Grade 1 — Miss A. Bourassa; Grade 1 — Miss I. Sphur.

Alex Callas Bags First Banded Duck of Season

Alex Callas has the honor of being the first hunter to turn in a band recovered from a Mallard duck shot at dawn on Sept. 12, the very first hunting day of the current season. It was the first duck dropped by Alex from his bag of 7.

The band bore the number 497-93734 and information regarding it has been sent in to the Fish and Wildlife Service at Washington, D.C.

New Wrinkle In Advertising

An employee of one of the terminal elevators at Vancouver recently noticed a piece of paper coming through with grain that was being unloaded from the prairies. He picked it up and found it to be a piece of a cardboard match folder with the imprint "Boston Cafe Vermilion Alta".

Open Season On Banded Ducks

It looks like an open season on banded ducks as Ed Brown, from 12 miles south brought down a 'greenhead' Tuesday carrying a band and then with his first shot of the season Clarence Knies got two mallards out of the air and one of them had a shiny new band on its leg. The bands are being forwarded to the addresses given and the migratory habits of the birds can thus be studied.

Next meeting at call of chairman.

Won't Allow Space For "Tough" Grain

WINNIPEG. Grain growers who thresh tough or damp grain will have to "accept the responsibility for the indefinite storage on their farms for such out-of-condition grain" the Canadian Wheat Board said following a meeting with representatives of the handling companies.

The board's statement said all organizations represented at the meeting agreed that with only limited elevator and terminal space available and with the prospect of congested storage facilities for some time to come, it would be impossible to handle tough or damp grain in any volume.

Attending the meeting were representatives of the Northwest Line Elevators Association, the three pool organizations and the United Grain Growers Limited.

Winners Announced For Vermilion River M.D.

Kitscoty 4-H Club Member Has Highest Scoring Grain Plot

Willy Stewart, 13-year-old member of the Kitscoty Wheat club wound up with the highest score when plot judging for the six grain clubs in the Vermilion River M.D. was completed last week. Willy, a first year 4-H club member, topped 130 grain club members with his neatly kept Thatcher wheat plot.

Irmgard Wennekamp of Blackfoot Barley club had the top barley plot in the district. She had scored slightly higher than her sister Marlene, and George Behnke of the Durness Barley club.

Durness Barley club: George Behnke, Streamstown, 947.

Greenlawn Barley club: Doug Wilson, Dewberry, 913.

Blackfoot Barley club: Irmgard Wennekamp, 950.

Kitscoty Wheat club: Willy Stewart, Kitscoty, 953.

Greenlawn Wheat club: Allen Lumley, Heinsburg, 929.

Wheat club members grew Thatcher wheat exclusively. Barley club members grew Vantage, Olli or Montcalm on their plots.

The plots were judged by R. C. Moffat, Assistant District Agriculturist, Vermilion. Mr. Moffat states that the plots were generally very good. Weeds were plentiful in many plots especially wild oats. Conditions were favorable for weed growth this year and unfavorable for rogueing, consequently more plots were more weedy than is usually the case. In many cases however many annual weeds could have been controlled with 2,4-D spraying or dusting. In judging the plots the following points were considered: General appearance including neatness of the [illegible], isolation strip etc. Freedom from weeds. Freedom from other kinds of cultivated plants. Freedom from other varieties and species. Freedom from disease and insect injury. Apparent yield, vigor and uniformity. Earliness.

Official Count In Federal Election

The official count in the recent Federal election for the Battle River-Camrose constituency was:

"GREEN ACRES"

WILD OAT CONTROL

It has been well known for some time that drying of wild oats will break the dormancy period and promote germination. It is now agreed by experimenters that freezing and thawing will also promote germination, so the right thing to do is to cultivate land infested with wild oat seeds as soon after harvest as possible. This should be done whether the land is to be cropped next year or summerfallowed.

GIRLS WANTED

Mr. Bentley, Principal of the Vermilion school of agriculture informs me that he can take another [illegible] girls for the home economics course starting on Oct. 26. This year a regular course on typing has been added. I am anxious to see more farm girls from my district take this wonderful training. Ask the girls who have spent a term at the school. Also there are some scholarships available to 4-H club members.

CALL OF THE LAND

I would like to [illegible] and their families listen regularly to the farm broadcasts. I can specially recommend the Alberta Department of Agriculture's "Call of the Land" broadcast. It comes over CKUA at 12:30 p.m. and CFRN at 12:10 p.m. daily except Saturday and Sunday.

ADJUSTING COMBINES

Mr. C. A. Cheshire, Agricultural Engineer Alberta, states that 20 kernels of wheat on the ground per square foot means 1 bushel of wheat per acre. Mr. Cheshire urges that combine operators take time to keep the machines properly adjusted. You can't save every kernel but in many cases the loss of grain on the ground is out of reason.

NEW FUNGICIDE

Chemicals used to stop plant diseases from spreading over a field are known as fungicides. It looks like we will have to use fungicides to protect garden crops and flowers from seed and soil borne diseases. The old time fungicide is the well known Bordeaux mixture. A new one now on the market is called N-trichloromethylthio tetrahydrophthalimide.

EARLY SWATHING

It is my opinion that a lot of grain in this district (especially barley) has been cut too soon this year. There is a big shrinkage of the kernels when cut before the late dough stage. The grade is lower and the yield less when swathing or binding is done before time.

Your Child's Eyesight

Inadequate eyesight tests in most Alberta schools is a serious barrier to proper visual care among school children today, James Lampard, of Red Deer, President of the Alberta Optometric Association, stated in announcing a province-wide "See Better - Learn Better" campaign for the month of September. Mr. Lampard quoted five elements of adequate eyesight for the school child which are not protected by most current methods of eyesight testing in Alberta schools. They are:

Near Acuity - ability to focus and see clearly with each eye and both eyes together at a distance of 10 to 15 inches. This is the distance at which most school work is done.

Far Acuity - the same for a distance of 20 feet. This is necessary for normal outdoor seeing.

Depth Perception - ability to judge space and distance relationship. This is necessary for sports games and for normal interpretation of the three-dimensional world.

Field of Vision - ability to see over a large area without moving head or eyes while focussed on a point. Lack of this ability may be evidence of glaucoma or other serious eye disorder.

Binocular Coordination — ability to make the two eyes work together. Crossed eyes represent one form of this common shortcoming.

Mr. Lampard decried the fact that the eyesight tests given in most schools do not cover these essentials.

"In the typical school the child merely reads a letter chart at a distance of 20 feet. This is inadequate, and thousands of children who can not see adequately for their near point school tasks and normal life fail to get the care they need," he said.

Canadian Holidayers Interviewed

In a vacation survey conducted last May by Gruneau Research Ltd. for Maclean's Magazine, it was learned that of approximately 4,000 vacationers interviewed, 30.1% vacationed at a spot within their own province and 22.5% vacationed in Canada outside their own province during the past year. The majority of vacationers traveled by car and covered an average distance of 580 miles. However 28.8% of the persons surveyed travelled over 1000 miles. July, August and September are still the most popular vacation months, according to the survey.

Canadian record for rabies is small whereas in the U.S. the disease kills an average of 20 humans a year and causes an annual $5,000,000 loss in livestock.

Pulp & Paper Canada's Greatest Industry

The pulp and paper industry, says The Financial Post, is Canada's greatest single industry.

It provides the most wages, gives employment to the most people produces the greatest wealth, earns the most money in foreign markets with which to support our huge imports from other countries.

Crushed By Truck, Former Vermilion Child Dies

Marilyn Anne Meyers, 2½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers of Lloydminster and formerly of Vermilion, died in hospital Thursday from injuries suffered in a traffic accident that day. The family is well remembered in Vermilion where they lived for several years prior to moving to Lloydminster, and the little girl was born here.

The accident is reported to have taken place when Marilyn Anne, playing in the street with her five-year-old brother, Lorne, was run behind a truck and stumbled. As she fell, the rear wheel of the truck, which was backing up, passed over her.

Dr. E. L. Smith of Lloydminster, and a nurse rushed the injured child to hospital where she was found to be suffering from facial injuries, a broken leg and internal injuries.

Funeral services were held on Saturday last and a number of friends from Vermilion attended. Heartfelt sympathy is extended from the community to the sorrowing parents.

Record Grain Shipment For 1952-53

Canadian exports of the five major grains, together with grain equivalent of wheat flour, rolled oats and oatmeal, totalled 363,210,000 bushels in the 1952-53 crop year. This is an all-time record for foreign shipments of Canadian grain in any one crop year, exceeding by 13% the previous high volume established only last year when overall exports amounted to 308,100,000 bushels.

Paradise Valley

Mr. Ronald Sauder of Edmonton and Miss Jean Grainger of Magog, Que., are visitors of the Bert Sauders this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Olsen of Wetaskiwin were Labor Day visitors with Mrs. Olsen's mother Mrs. Chas. Bassett.

We regret to hear that Mr. Arthur Levitt is a patient in the Lloydminster hospital. We hope his stay will not be for long.

Mr Wilfred Little and Miss Violet Adams of Vermilion were week end visitors with Miss Adam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Adams.

During the holiday we had as visitors several old timers of the district including Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fair, Art White, Charles Karisrieger and Don Chambers.

Billy Hite is spending part of his vacation with his sister Mrs. Harold Holgate. World is home for the time.

KILLED IN TRACTOR ACCIDENT

A tragic accident occurred on Monday evening when Harry Mockrock who was employed by James Gordon was coming home for supper driving a tractor on the highway when he lost control and the tractor started going backwards down a steep grade and then turned over pinning the driver underneath killing him instantly. The tractor was a complete wreck. The funeral was held at Marsden on Wednesday.

Rev. D. D. Davidson, Mrs. Davidson, C. E. Cousens, C. Hall and Miss Grainger attended the Temperance Mission held in the Capitol Theatre, Edmonton, on Wednesday, Sept. 9 and report a good attendance.

Miss Laura Knutson and Mr. Stan Wesly of Edmonton were week end visitors at Miss Knutson's home to Mr. and Mrs. L. Knutson.

Weather during the past week has been ideal for harvesting operations and as a result the farmers have made good progress and if it continues will be well advanced with their work. The crops are good but not up to last year's record yield. The storage problem is with us and many more granaries are being built. With such a low spots in doubt the grain will have to be held for sometime.

Local Delegates Attend Canadian Chamber Of Commerce Convention

"Decisions made at this year's annual meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce will be important to every businessman in this country," stated Mr. R. Keith Chalmers, President of the Vermilion Board of Trade who with Mr. F. J. Richardson, Secretary of the Board, is attending the 26th annual convention of Canada's national business organization in Edmonton now being held this week. "Never before has there been so great a need for serious consideration of national matters, and most of these will be debated during policy sessions at the Edmonton meeting.

At the Edmonton meeting emphasis will be placed on the key job played by local Boards and Chambers in supporting the welfare and progress of the community. Other main subjects for discussion will be trade, the business outlook, and economic education for freedom.

Citizenship and Immigration Minister W. E. Harris, Federal Deputy Trade Minister W. F. Bull, Federal Deputy Finance Minister K. W. Taylor, President L. W. Simms of the Canadian Chamber, President H. F. Smith of the Jr. Chamber of Commerce of Canada, and President Andrew Stewart of the University of Alberta will be among the speakers addressing the gathering.

The Government of Alberta was host at a luncheon on Wednesday at which Hon. Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways and Telephones was the guest speaker.

At the Edmonton meeting the policy of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, representing close to 700 Boards and Chambers was charted for the year ahead. Voting power at the meeting was restricted to one registered delegate from each Board or Chamber, irrespective of size. As a result, the platform of the Canadian Chamber represents a very wide cross section of the views of businessmen in both large and small communities throughout Canada.

Alberta Wheat Pool Scholarship Winners

Mary Hendrickson of Tofield representing northern Alberta, and James Bower of Red Deer, representing the south, have been named winners of the two Alberta Wheat Pool scholarships awarded this year.

These scholarships have a value of $500 a year and may be renewed by the winners for a period of up to four years providing he or she maintains a satisfactory scholastic standing.

This is the first year that this scholarship has been awarded by the Alberta Wheat Pool but it is to be presented annually to a farm boy or girl from each of northern and southern Alberta. The basis of award is scholastic ability and need for financial assistance.

Winners may choose any course of studies they wish at the University of Alberta.

Both of this year's winners maintained a high scholastic record in their high school course. James Bower having an average in Grade XII of 87.7% and Mary Hendrickson 81.8%.

Canada's first national tractor plowing champion will be chosen from competing provincial champions at the Ontario Plowmen's Association International Match at Cobourg, Ont., October 6 to 9. Above, Emmanuel Hahn, the internationally famous Canadian sculptor, who has designed many of Canada's stamps and coins, is putting the finishing touches to the clay model of the winner's trophy, the Tom Silver Plate. In addition to the trophy, the Canadian champion and the runner-up will invest each year in grants of Imperial Oil to the world plowing match where they will compete on behalf of Canada. The first world match is being held at Cobourg in the summer of 1954 in the Republic of Ireland.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Sept. 16, 1937

Two vacancies were reported on the town council due to the resignations of Dr. W. W. Bell and the continued absence from meetings of A. W. Liddiatt.

Great excitement prevailed at the Pringle oil well on Friday last when a big crowd gathered for the official blowing in. The flow of gas in conservatively estimated at 30,000,000 cubic feet.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Sept. 14, 1921

Wet, raw weather has held up threshing.

Rev. P. H. Robert has been appointed provincial organizer of the Sunday school work for the Baptist church. He and Mrs. Robert will reside in Edmonton.

Count de Topor who has large business interests in Vermilion is a visitor in town, coming here from Toronto.

The second annual field day in connection with the Vermilion high and public schools is to take place Sept. 23.

Messrs. T. Carlson and Fred Svendsen have bought out the interests of the Fleming Drug Co. here and will operate under the name of Carlson's Drug store.

Fred Watling was reeve of the Medicine Hat M.D. council, other members being Bill Steele, John J. Hope, Alex Allanach, Scott and Banks.

"My Visit to The Montana 4-H Club Congress"

(By Miss Shirley Gunn, Paradise Valley)

I considered it a great honor and privilege to have been one of the four club members chosen to represent Alberta at the 8th Annual Montana 4-H Club Congress. This was held at the Montana State college in Bozeman from August 26 to 29. There were 250 club members, 4-H local leaders and 71 County Extension agents present.

Our Canadian party was composed of Mr. L. Rasmussen, Miss L. Shatz, Jean Lidke, Vic Maxwell, Jim Kinniburgh and myself. We arrived in Bozeman early Sunday evening and after finding our sleeping accommodation we were guests at a Fireside Hour. Here we met Mr. P. Moore, State Club leader, Miss G. Fenn, Miss Ruglund and many other officials who were on hand to help make our visit to the Congress very memorable. I was very pleased to meet exchange delegates from other foreign countries, they included Beti Wittwer, Switzerland, Kjeltfer-Fleystad, Norway, David Guthrie, England and Prem N. Agarwal, India.

At 7.00 o'clock every morning, "Matin Hour" was held when a representative from the County Ministerial Association spoke to the Congress in a chapel on the campus. This beautiful little chapel was designed by a college student.

All delegates met at assembly each morning. Opening everyday was very impressive with the young people entering and each carrying a flag up to the platform. The different flags were the United States United Nations, Christian and 4-H. The allegiance to the U. S. flag and the 4-H pledge were repeated each day.

Miss G. Fenn's song songs were enthusiastically, even if I was not a singer you just had to sing with her.

Junior Leaders played a prominent part in presiding at assembly and evening performances. I attended a few of the Junior Leaders meetings where they discussed their own problems and suggestions for the next assembly was opposite to this way each leader took what was suggested of him or her and everything went smoothly.

Tours were carried out to give the opportunity to learn more about agricultural research and progress. The first was the Economic Research unit where one sewing storage cabinet was shown, an evaluation of Montana Status of Montana homes was given, demonstrations were given in the ceramics laboratory where local clay were used in the pottery. We also visited the weaving and sculpture laboratories.

Our next tour was to the Horticultural field [illegible] of agricultural products from [illegible] and ornamentals were shown. Many plots such as weed control, fruits, potato and vegetable [illegible] were visited. Those who suffered wind and dust [illegible] an open truck, we felt the tour was worthwhile in the knowledge we gained.

The first evening's program was put on by other delegates from foreign countries dressed in their native costumes in the [illegible] but these people and costumes a glimpse of their native [illegible] helped me to better understand and their way of life [illegible] way create a friendly [illegible]

The next evening was the Revue. This was exceptionally good. The girls modelled [illegible] they had made and [illegible] the girls and all the [illegible] the revue it was [illegible] Friends. We opened our [illegible] with "O Canada" and [illegible] given by Mr. Hawes [illegible] Shatz. Miss Shatz then [illegible] Jean and I [illegible] our club work. Mr [illegible] viewed the boys [illegible] their antics and [illegible] Club work were shown. His [illegible] presented 4-H [illegible] of Montana's officers.

The demonstrations were very similar to ours except I was very surprised to see, only one girl did all the demonstrating instead of two. A Junior leader introduced each demonstrator and the name of the county demonstrating was posted up.

A place where all could see, one of the food demonstrations in the "Freezing Fruit", "Candied Fruit", "One Bowl Does It", etc. Also in the clothing included "Do It All Dyes", "Chinook Shoe Shine Fluid", "Trick with Bed Linens", "Hints How to Give an Egg Facial".

I found the items for judging very different from our competition at home. Although I have never taken a food project or home living project I decided to try judging in these competitions. I judged such things as bread pans, peaches, brownies and holders, pillow cases and still linen toys. I was satisfied when I placed second in each competition.

In judging a top winner is not known but each member receives a certificate saying whether he or she be placed 1st, 2nd or 3rd.

Group discussions were held every morning after assembly. Such topics as "Your Family Club Committees" were thoroughly discussed. Everyone participated and many ideas were exchanged and helped us.

On the last afternoon we had a picnic supper on the mountain. We had the U. S. flag and the 4-H pledge were repeated each day.

Wednesday was party evening. The room was so large that it was divided into small groups, some danced, others went to the reception or took part in the singing. Each group would stay at each place of entertainment for a half hour. This was followed by the whole group having refreshments and a social time.

On the last afternoon we had a radio broadcast for ten minutes. We had the U. S. national song as prize winner to open the broadcast. Then a delegate from each province and a Canadian delegate from Ontario. Then a delegate from each province and a Canadian delegate from Ontario. Then a delegate from each province and a Canadian delegate from Ontario.

Each evening after assembly we had a dance. Square dancing was enjoyed by all. Each evening we had a dance. Square dancing was enjoyed by all.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

SEWING SECRETS

Press as you sew', should be your slogan. For a professional appearance press each seam, dart, etc., before crossing it by another seam. Don't press over basting since you may find it difficult to remove the thread marks. Use brown paper strips under seam edges or darts to avoid impression on right side.

1. Seams - Press plain seams open.

2. Darts & Tucks — Waistline and shoulder darts and tucks are pressed toward centre of garment. Underarm darts and elbow darts are generally pressed downward. On heavy fabrics the darts may be slashed through centre and pressed open.

3. Hems — Always press on a well padded surface to avoid an impression of the right side.

SPECIAL NOTES ON FABRICS

1. Rayons — to prevent marking, place one or more sheets of tissue paper under the damp cloth when pressing.

2. Velvets — Pile fabrics should be pressed over a velvet board or steamed over a standing iron with a damp turkish towel draped around the sole plate of the iron. Handle fabrics carefully to avoid finger marks.

SOMETHING NEW

Something new has been added! Yes, typing has been added to the girls' curriculum at the schools of agriculture and home economics, along with an expansion of the course Social Relationships. Girls who are interested in some commercial training as well as a course in home-making will find just what they are looking for at these schools. Typing is useful at all times and Social Relationships will enable the girls to enter their jobs with more confidence and self-assurance.

More information may be obtained by writing to the Principal, School of Agriculture, at Vermilion, Olds or Fairview.

CRABAPPLE CATSUP

Why throw away the crabapple pulp when you make jelly? Try this recipe:

3 lbs. crabapple pulp from jelly
1½ lbs. brown sugar
½ tsp. cloves
1 pint vinegar
1 tbsp. cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt.

Cook slowly until thick. Grape catsup may be made the same way.

1952 Travel Figures

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics in its annual travel report for 1952, just released, made known the following facts.

Non-resident motorists travelling in Alberta in 1952, spent an average of $114.31 per car, as compared to the next highest figure, $94.11, spent in B.C.

Between June 1 and Sept. 30, 1952, non-resident motorists spent a total of $5,767,084 in Alberta.

Alberta received 3.3% of total expenditures by U.S. tourists in 1952. Ontario received more than 50%.

Bus Routes And Teacher Placements

AIRED AT VEGREVILLE S.D. BOARD MEETING

At its two-day meeting of Aug. 24 and 25 the Board of Trustees of the Vegreville School Division heard many delegations and individuals who made representations to the Board on school matters. The representations were mostly concerned with routes to be travelled in school bus operations. Road building programs of municipalities have been delayed this year by weather conditions but as far as possible school buses will be routed to best advantage.

Present at the Board meeting was Chairman S. Hinton presiding and Trustees W. G. Porayko, L. S. Cole, M. T. Tym, R. J. Whitson and A. T. Mandruk. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted and a file of correspondence was read and considered. Due to circumstances, Mrs. L. Humeniuk was granted her request for a release of contract. This left vacancies at Fairwood, Fidelity and Mannville high school still unfilled. Now that school is not opening until Sept. 14, it is hoped to have teachers engaged for these schools.

Due to an increased enrolment at Minburn, the Board directed that a fifth room be opened there with Mrs. F. Polishuk in charge. For this room it will be necessary to use the school auditorium.

Included in the report of Supt. F. L. Facey was complete examination results in the Division. The results showed that there were 22 students of the Division who received 'Honors' standing in Grades 9, 10, 11 and 12. In recognition of the high standing of these pupils the Board was pleased to direct that each one should be presented with an honors ring suitably inscribed. The honors students of the Division with their respective schools are listed below.

Grade 12 — Harry Granchuk, 90%, Vegreville; Fred Otto, 89%, Mannville; Mary Boyle, 81%, Mannville; Edward Hantiuk, 81%, Vegreville.

The Board approved the appointment of F. Polishuk to provide bus transportation for Bowling Green to Minburn school. N. Rurka was authorized to provide two buses to convey the pupils of Park Grove and such districts. It may be necessary to provide overload accommodation on some routes by means of cars with coverage of the necessary license and insurance. As far as possible, the Board will exchange bus and tuition facilities with bordering Divisions where such will be more convenient with pupils concerned.

An application for the Division Teacher Training Bursary of $300 was received from Ruth Rodwell of Aplomb. This application was approved by the Board. It is expected that some other applications may be received before the opening of university.

The report of Wm. Eickmeyer showed that three rooms of the new primary school in Vegreville would be ready for use Sept. 14. The water installation at Buffalo Coulee has been completed. The maintenance program for the year has not been completed but further items will be looked after during the fall.

The Board prepared and authorized a list of school properties that are unused and would be offered for sale, subject to the approval of the Minister of Education. The list does not include school houses, except in the cases of Minburn, Pleasant Ridge, Bird Hill, Victory and Ideal. Included are teacherages, barns, garage, etc. that will not be used in the future. Where permission to sell is received from the Minister of Education, such properties will be advertised for sale by public auction. Auction sales will be held in Mannville and Vegreville offices for those considered by the Board at the September meeting.

Adjournment was carried to meet again on September 21.

THE SCHOOL CHILD

The school child requires a similar diet to that of the pre-schooler but his needs are greater. Surveys show that many school children in Canada are without sufficient health reserves because they are too thin. They lack the quantity. Since children at this age are growing fast and are expending a great deal of energy, they need more food in proportion to their size than do grown-ups.

School life brings about special problems in feeding. Many children start the day with a breakfast that is inadequate to keep them going satisfactorily until lunch time. This is a poor practice, as their lunch is frequently eaten away from home. The provision of an adequate noon meal is most important because children who are well nourished tend to be healthier, happier, and more efficient in their school work than undernourished children.

A good lunch, whether at home or at school, should contain:

Milk, to drink or a milk dish.
Meat, fish, poultry, eggs, cheese, dried peas or beans, or peanut butter.
Whole wheat or Canada Approved bread.
Fruit or vegetable, raw or cooked.
Extras may be added if desired.

The school lunch may be brought entirely from home. This may include a jar of some food which can be successfully heated, or the lunch may be supplemented by a hot dish such as cocoa, soup, tomato scallop, macaroni and cheese, baked beans, etc. prepared at school under the supervision of an older pupil or teacher. The entire lunch may, of course, be provided at the school under the supervision of teacher, a parent-teacher association member or a paid worker.

Extension Lecturer In Music Appointed At University of Alberta

Mr. H. Grant Sampson, Sherbrooke, Que., has been appointed extension lecturer in music at the University of Alberta.

Mr. Sampson received his B. A. degree from Bishop's College, Lennoxville, Que., and holds an A. Mus. diploma from McGill.

The position of extension lecturer was created by the University in 1951 in response to a growing need on the part of the community for trained leadership in the development of music appreciation, choral singing and instrumental groups.

In the new work, which will take him far afield in the province, Mr. Sampson will be expanding the instruction given by his predecessor Mr. Bruce Hanson.

Still Building

Who said the building boom was over? A national survey by The Financial Post reports this industry generally thriving.

In ten centres real estate men expect even bigger dollar volume than in 1952, a year that smashed the all-Canada record. And in 13 others, they see no downturn.

Prices are showing effects of the pace too. Prices of commercial properties are higher than last year in 16 cities, are no lower in 10 others. New residential property comes higher in 13 cities, no lower in 13 others.

Main soft spot is prices of older residential properties. They are turning over with lower tags than last year in 16 cities, are up in only two cities.

In 1951 Canadians spent $3,400,000,000 on food.

Mannville Local Items

Mr Jack Coxford has gone to Hamilton to pick up a second bus for Mr. Enfield. They are both expected back the end of the week. Mr Enfield had the misfortune to be in a Greyhound bus accident near Chicago and was in the hospital for a couple of days.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. F. Proudfoot were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Grey and family of Edmonton.

Mr George Ackerman, brother-in-law of Mr. E. Hubbard and [illegible] time resident of this district, [illegible] here last week from Colorado.

Mr and Mrs. A. H. Elliott were week end visitors to Jasper where they visited with their son Don before he left for University in Vancouver.

Word has been received of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walker (nee Eileen Gamble) of Edmonton and the birth of a daughter to Mr and Mrs. Joe Dowicki (nee Joan Hubbard) also of Edmonton.

Mr and Mrs. Walter Arnold and infant daughter were recent visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr and Mrs. E Arnold.

Mr and Mrs. Allan Rostron were Edmonton visitors on Tuesday last. Mrs Rostron's mother, Mrs. Diercks of Thorsby who had been visiting here for a few days, returned to Edmonton with them.

Recent visitors with friends in Mannville were Mr. and Mrs. Art Loftus of Vancouver. They called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gamble, Mr and Mrs. Dorward and others.

Lt. Nick Plishka is visiting with his mother, Mrs. M Plishka. He is on his annual leave.

On embarkation leave is Lance Cpl. Morley Thompson, son of Mr. E. P. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Osborn and daughter Heather were visitors this week at the former's parents, Mr and Mrs. W. Osborn, and with friends in the district.

Mr Sam Robinson is home after two weeks spent in the Royal Alex hospital, Edmonton. He suffered an injury to his leg while on the job. He is a foreman for E. Peterson.

The marriage of Miss Joan Balfour McCauley to Mr. David McGrann of Edmonton, will take place in McQueen United church, Mannville, on [illegible], Oct. 3. Friends and relatives are invited to attend an open reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCauley, from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. R. Lugg is spending a few days in Edmonton this week.

BORN to Mr. and Mrs. Pat McLaughlin, a daughter on Sept. 10, in the General hospital, Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clark have returned from a honeymoon at the coast and have taken up residence in the E. Ambler house.

Mr and Mrs. Bob White were Edmonton visitors last week. While there Mrs White attended a post-graduate and refresher course at the College of Beauty Knowledge, where instructors in beauty culture from the east were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Mark, Mr. and Mrs. S. Olsonberg, Mr. G. K. Brady and Dr Murray, all of Edmonton, motored down to Mannville last Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late Mr. L. H. Ekin.

Mrs. Dorward, Worthy Matron of Magdaline Chapter No. 79, was hostess in her home, assisted by members, to a tea in honor of Mrs. Agnes Ingram, Worthy Grand Matron of Grand Chapter of Alberta O.E.S., on occasion of her visit to Mannville, Sept. 5.

A shower was held recently at the home of Mrs. Sowden in honor of the former Miss Dorothea Boehme of the hospital staff who is now Mrs. Walter Pulyk. She received many beautiful and useful gifts.

A farewell party was held on Sunday evening last after the church service, in the parish hall for Mr. L. Corness who has been the student minister here for the past few months. He will be returning to Emmanuel College in Saskatoon in the very near future. There was a good turn out of the congregation and on their behalf, Mr. Ralph Leitch presented Mr. Corness with a purse of money. Salteaux church was represented by Mrs. A. Freeney and Mrs. Walter Hinton, and they also presented a purse of money to Mr. Corness. Although he has only been here a short time he certainly has made a place for himself in this parish and the work he has done is much appreciated.

National Business Head

W. J. BORRIE, Vancouver, who has been elected President of The Canadian Chamber of Commerce at the national business organization's 24th annual meeting in Edmonton, Sept 14 to 17. Mr. Borrie is President of Pemberton Securities Ltd. Vancouver, and director of a number of companies. Mr. Borrie is also a past president of the Vancouver Executive Association, past chairman of the Advertising and Sales Bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade; past president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, past vice president for B.C. of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. In 1951, he was President of the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada, being the first man from western Canada elected to this post. He takes over from Lewis W. Simms, of St. John, N.B. former President of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

Pleasant Valley

Weather, roads and flowers are the general topics. Flowers are still lovely in the gardens, and the roads are nice and dry for driving these days.

The men folk are busy working day and night trying to harvest the crop before frost comes.

Say Mrs Jones, we noticed your house Saturday with its nice new coat of paint. It certainly does something to a building, even makes the flowers appear prettier. Speaking of painting, the Standard office looks much nicer too after its face lifting, couldn't find it at first it looks so much younger.

The writer picked a lovely bronze dolcia and on one of the petals was a mauve strip, then the glads were picked and two had 19 rosettes on one stem. Joan dug a hill of potatoes and there were 75 tubers in it. Start counting folks and see who can beat this, it's fun!

Fine Fruit Display

While on the subject of gardens, Percy Willis has a display of home grown fruit in the Co-op window that is well worthy of mention. No less than 26 varieties of plums, cherries, apples and crabs are included, all grown in the orchard on the Willis farm.

Some people are taking advantage of the nice weather to dig their spuds.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TO START AT UNITED CHURCH

Sunday school will start at the United church on Sunday Sept. 20 at 10:15 a.m. Morning worship at 11:30 a.m. and service at Claysmore at 3 p.m. The United church senior choir meets on Thursday at 7 p.m. and Tyros at 7 p.m. on Thursday also. Junior choir practise at 6.15 Fridays.

Large House Is Moved Into Town

The old family home from the Lee farm in the Allandale district was moved into town by Lupuls moving outfit last week and has been placed on a foundation in the west end of town just east of the arena.

The house is a very large one containing 12 rooms. It is owned by Mrs. Mabel Lee who will have it converted into apartments. Plans call for its renovation and for three bathrooms, one on each floor. Moving the house intact was quite a job and was only possible because the house was very well constructed. The narrow roads over which it had to pass presented quite a problem, as well as the myriad of wires across the intersections in town.

Good weather continues marred only by a light shower of .07 on the 13th, and some frost Tuesday morning of 1.6 degrees. This is the first frost recorded for the fall at the Vermilion Beam station.

SPACE ALL GONE

For the first time for several months space ran out in the Standard this issue before all the news was accommodated. As a result there are weddings, country news bulletins, W.I. notes, legal notices, and some general matter all held over. The Standard will be back to its regular 12 pages next week so that everything can be taken care of, and much more as well.

Kitscoty News

The United Church Sunday school will open this Sunday Sept. 20 commencing at 11 a.m. It will meet in the high school gym. Girls and boys from four years and up are invited to worship regularly at its services.

The United Church Ladies' Aid wish to announce they have set the date, October 22, for their annual chicken supper.

The picture show committee of the Kitscoty branch of the Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. wish to announce the opening picture show will be held on Saturday Sept. 19 for the fall season.

Mr. E. Moss is enjoying a vacation with friends in Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Seward of Edmonton are visiting with their daughter and son-in-law Mr and Mrs John Bootsman and Grace. They are also visiting old friends in town and district.

R. S. Pidcock attended the semi staff office Postmasters' conference in Edmonton last week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Pidcock and little Miss Karen Howlett returned home with them after spending the past six weeks with relatives here.

We are pleased to say Mrs. W. L. Apperson is home from hospital and is much improved in health but are sorry to report Mrs. P Miles and Mrs. F. Seabrook are at present hospital patients.

Miss Eileene Jack of Wildwood district spent the week end visiting with Miss Sheila McCorry in town.

Mr and Mrs. Mac Kent (nee Sheila Pidcock) are home again after a two week holiday at the west coast.

Mrs Mathewson is back again as matron of the girls' dorm and Mrs Bess in the same position at the boys 'dorm'. We wish to welcome two new members to our teaching staff, Miss Jean West of Vermilion and Mr James Horning of Lloydminster, one of our former dorm boys.

Meeting of Wildmere F. U. A. Considers Medical Services Inc.

FEES RAISED CONSIDERABLY

Due to the fact that Medical Services Inc., had raised their fees considerably, a special meeting of the Wildmere F.U.A. was called to decide what action would be taken. Over 30 members were present and the decision was made to carry on, each member paying in the difference between the old and the new rate for the months of September and October. This will be required of any member not present at the meeting sometime before the October fees become due. New contracts will be signed for the month of November.

Since this has been a Wildmere local project and it might be possible to get a better rate if the group covered more than 350 lives, it was voted unanimously to invite other clubs who might be interested to join with the Wildmere F.U.A. members for Medical Services Inc. purposes only.

To those who might be interested the new rate will be: single person, $2 per month, $24 per year; Married couple, $4.25 per month, $51 per year; Married couple with 1 or more dependants, $6 per month, $72 per year. These rates are retroactive to Sept. 1 for those already in, and strictly payable in advance.

The medical service includes practically everything covered by the medical profession anywhere in North America, except diseases already covered by State medicine.

Those interested should attend the Wildmere F.U.A. October meeting which date will be announced in the Standard.

THE EFFECT OF 15-B RUST

Farmers whose wheat crops have been affected by rust would help our scientists if they would write to their nearest University, or to the Rust Research Laboratory, Winnipeg, stating whether they have noticed any difference in the threshing returns of different varieties of the wheat, or this information could be handed to the nearest Searle Agent who will pass it on.

VILLAGE OF DERWENT
NOTICE OF LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Village of Derwent intends to undertake as Local Improvements the construction of common sewers and water-mains and that a portion of the cost thereof is to be charged as a special local improvement assessment against all properties abutting on the streets or avenues wherein the said sewers and water-mains are to be constructed at an annual unit rate per foot of frontage of 22c for water-mains and at an annual unit rate per foot of frontage of 17c for sewerage to be payable for a period of Twenty (20) years.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that unless a majority of the owners of the lands that may be assessed therefor representing at least one-half (½) of the value thereof petition the Council against the said local improvement within two (2) weeks after the last publication of this notice the local improvements may be undertaken and the cost thereof assessed by the system of assessment aforesaid.

THE PROPOSED IMPROVEMENTS are the construction of the following:

Local News of Interest

Mrs. Mavis Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Connelly of Los Angeles, Calif., spent a few days recently visiting their brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacHardy. It was Mrs. Connelly's first visit to her old home in 21 years.

Mrs. Scholefield has returned to her home in Victoria after six weeks spent renewing old acquaintances in Vermilion and district. While here she was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Evans.

Mrs. R. S. Brison and son Bob and granddaughter Marilyn of Edmonton, spent last week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Allan, and old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Corlett of Edmonton have spent a few days renewing old acquaintances around town and district during the past week.

Friends here will be interested to learn that Gerald Omness is farming on a somewhat extensive scale at Kindersley, Sask., following mixed farming with both grain growing and cattle raising. The harvest there is more advanced than here as in that locality little rain fell after June. The samples of grain threshed in the district are very good. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Omness recently returned to their home at New Sarepta after visiting son Gerald and his wife and four small daughters.

Mr. T. H. 'Harry' Taylor returned to town last week after a short business trip to Toronto. He ran into the extremely hot spell and although he wanted to spend some time at the Canadian National Exhibition found the heat too oppressive to take in the big show.

In the average school, eyesight tests are carried out only with a chart read at 20 feet. But the child does most of his school work at 15 inches. He requires many visual skills that no chart alone can test. How is your child's vision? Make sure he can see well so that he can learn well.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baddock returned last week end from a trip to Detroit and Windsor. They travelled by rail to Winnipeg, then south to St. Paul, to Chicago and from thence to Detroit, on the most modern of rail transportation, the 'Zephyr'. The return journey was made in a new Ford car. A stop-over was made on the way home at Regina where Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson, formerly of Vermilion are now living in a very lovely home.

HAPPY HOUR GROUP
The Happy Hour group of St. Saviour's W.A. will meet at the home of Mrs. Freda Dixon on Thursday Sept. 24. Will those with cars please pick up members at Long's corner at 8 p.m.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank everyone for the many messages of sympathy, flowers, cards and acts of kindness during our bereavement. Such kindness will never be forgotten.

Countrywomen Of The World On the CBC

Beginning Monday, Oct. 12, Trans-Canada Matinee will broadcast a series about countrywomen in many parts of the world. The talks, which will be given by women of different countries will deal with life among their farmwomen.

The speakers taking part are all members of the Associated Country Women of the World, the only international organization of rural women in the world. The 7th triennial conference of the A.C.W.W. was held recently in Toronto, with nearly 1000 delegates and visitors from 15 countries in attendance.

Speakers will deal with living conditions in areas as far apart as Ceylon and Canada, and the last two programs in the series will present excerpts from two of the prize-winning essays on the 'Rural Home'. This was a world-wide competition held by the A.C.W.W. and the first prize was won by Mrs. Laura Pentinen of Finland. Mrs. Leigh De Long of Queen's County, N.S. was also among the prize winners, so the series will wind up with a talk on the interests and activities of a Canadian farm woman.

Trans-Canada Matinee is heard at 2 30 p.m. MST.

Miss Violet Webb Is Recent Bride

MANNVILLE — A very lovely wedding was solemnized in Holy Name Catholic church in Vermilion on August 20th when Miss Victoria Mae (Violet) Webb, second eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Sam Webb of Mannville, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Zigfred Buddika of Islay, Alberta. Father Landrigan performed the ceremony before an altar of gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon net over embroidered taffeta with a Chantilly lace overgown buttressed at the waist, with lily point sleeves and an Elizabethan collar. A heart shaped bonnet held her finger tip veil in place. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace with matching earrings and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Attending the bride was her sister Miss Gertrude Bride who wore a floor-length gown of yellow embroidered net over taffeta and a heart shaped bonnet with shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was of yellow and mauve roses. Little Judy Webb was a pretty flower girl in a white nylon floor-length dress with a headdress of white roses holding her shoulder-length veil in place. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Best man was Mr Mike Maleh, friend of the groom and the guests were ushered by Mr Jack Konnie. Wedding music was played by Miss Fleeta Sharbeck and during the signing of the register, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" was sung.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Webb chose a black and red figured nylon dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black and cream figured taffeta dress with red accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

A reception was held in the Anglican parish hall where some 70 guests gathered to honor the happy couple. The bride's table was covered with a beautifully done white three tiered wedding cake flanked with silver leaves and pink and white roses. Pink and white streamers and white bells followed out from above the table.

Mr. Frank Gilmore proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom suitably responded.

A wedding dance followed at the Islay hall.

For a honeymoon to Banff and Jasper, the bride donned a navy suit with pink and navy accessories, crowned with a corsage of pink roses.

On their return the young couple will make their home at Islay.

Candle-lit Ceremony Marks Wedding Of Verna Krause and James L. Armstrong

First United church, beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli, was the scene of a lovely candlelit wedding on Wednesday, September 9 when Verna Rose Krause, daughter of Mr and Mrs. William Krause, became the bride of Mr. James Leslie Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Armstrong, all of Vermilion.

Entering the church on the arm of her father the bride was daintily and beautiful in a floor-length gown of candlelight satin. The bodice, trimmed with appliqued lace, had a Sweetheart neckline and lily-point sleeves. The basque-styled skirt was also trimmed with appliqued lace, fell softly in a train. Her long veil of candlelight shade was held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade bouquet of orchids and lily-of-the-valley. The bride wore her gift from the groom, a ring of pearls and gold.

Miss Thelma Krause, sister of the bride, was maid-of honor, and Miss Alice Thompson was bridesmaid. They wore floor-length gowns, identical in design, of antique gold and marengo shot taffeta respectively, with tiny rosebuds peeping through the overskirts of net. Their chapel veils were caught to headdress ornaments of the matching taffetas and each carried a bouquet of mums and ferns.

The groom's gifts to the bridesmaids were pendant and earring sets.

Attendants of the groom were Mr Albert Armstrong and Mr. David Williamson. Mr. Jack Krause and Mr Russell McKeever, brother and brother-in-law of the bride respectively, were ushers for the occasion.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception held at the home of the bride's parents

To receive her guests Mrs. Krause chose a burgundy taffeta afternoon dress with black lace accessories and corsage. The groom's mother wore a dress of wine shade with black accessories. Their corsages were of Talisman roses.

The bride's table was centred with a three tiered wedding cake embedded in pink tulle and mauve mums

Mr. Allan Greaves proposed the toast to the bride.

For her going-away costume the bride donned a suit of brown and beige with matching fringed stole. Her accessories were of chocolate brown and she wore a corsage of mauve orchids

Visits Many Former Vermilion People

Mrs E. H. Buckingham has just returned from a trip to Calgary, Banff, Jasper and Edmonton. She reports that she had enjoyable visits with many former Vermilionites in Calgary including Mr and Mrs. Bob Ord and Mr and Mrs. D. A. Andrew. Re-Organization Meeting Held Tuesday Evening

Male Voice Chorus Plans Active Season

At a re-organization meeting held on Tuesday evening Sept. 15 officers were elected by the Male Voice chorus and a very active season planned.

The officers for the ensuing year are:

Presidents — Dr. C. W. Stephens
Vice-Pres. — Russ McKeever
Sec.-Treas. — John Maxwell
Music Committee — Jack Bryan, Dr. Stephens, Dr. King
Librarian — Albert Hildreth
Auditor — Dr. A. H. Goodwin
Director — Jack Brown
Accompanist — Dr. Stephens
Member-at-large — Rev. D. A. Ford.

Practises are held weekly on Tuesday evenings at 8 p.m. at the high school and new members are invited.

ROMAN SYETURA HERE NOV. 7

The Chorus will again sponsor a recital by Roman Bucura, talented concert pianist who so enraptured an audience here last fall. It is likely that the date will be November 1, but full details will be advertised as soon as finalized.

U.G.G. Scholarship Available At Vermilion

Applications for the scholarship offered by United Grain Growers Limited to assist the applicant to enroll at the Vermilion school of agriculture and home economics when the term commences on Oct. 30th will be received by the principal of the school, Sept. 30th according to R. M. Putnam, Superintendent of Schools of Agriculture for Alberta.

The basic requirement for an applicant, who should be at least 17 years of age, is need for assistance. However, either the boy or the girl applying should have shown a leading part in community activities, as in Junior Clubs. The high school activity is intended to help those who could not otherwise attend the school of agriculture and the school of home economics and who have proven themselves worthy of assistance.

Full information and application forms may be obtained by writing to Mr. N. N. Bentley, principal of the Vermilion School of Agriculture and Home Economics, Vermilion. Applications however, must be made by Oct. 6 so that the awards committee may receive them before the term opens Oct. 20, 1953.

Gas Rate Increase Is Not Large

Vermilion, Alta., Sept. 22.

The Editor,
The Standard,
Vermilion.

Dear Sir

It may well be that citizens will wonder just what effect the proposed increase in natural gas rates on their cost of heating and the Council has given considerable thought to the matter before finally agreeing to accept the rates as suggested, rather than to force a rate hearing before the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners. A few months ago such a hearing was held owing to an application having been submitted by Franco Public Service Ltd., and an interim order was granted by the Board authorizing a increase in rates.

Evidently Franco Public Service decided to dispose of their local property and it is being purchased by Northwestern Utilities Limited with the understanding that no further rate hearing will be necessary by the rates chargeable to Vermilion citizens will be that in effect in such towns as Red Deer, Lacombe, Wetaskiwin and a number of others and the average rate will be lower than the average rate authorized by the Board on request of Franco Public Service

The major increase will be that in the minimum monthly charge, which will now be $2.50 instead of $1.00, the $2.50 however, will include the cost of the first 3000 cubic feet of gas supplied. In these days of rising cost it has seemed reasonable to members of the Council that a company would require a higher monthly minimum and I am confident that no person now using natural gas would be without it at a minimum of $2.50 monthly

The following comparisons in accounts of the Franco Public Service rates and the proposed Northwestern Utilities rates will be of interest.

1. Consumption 4000 cubic feet at Franco rate $1.68. Northwestern rate $2.20.

2. Consumption 20,000 cubic feet at Franco rate $8.40. Northwestern rate $9.70.

3. Consumption 55,000 cubic feet at Franco rate $22.19. Northwestern rate $19.70.

Franco Public Service offered a 5% discount for prepayment of accounts so Northwestern Utilities charge a per M.C.F. penalty for non-payment of accounts. Utilities Ltd. were advised by Council that their proposed rate would be accepted provided that

1. They would make provision for the franchise fee benefit and efficiently large to guarantee supply for the town if necessary. , and

2. They maintain, either alone or in conjunction with Canadian Utilities Ltd. an office within the town for payment of accounts, meter deposits and refunds, etc.

It has been agreed that the office will serve both utility companies and thus the present unsatisfactory collection of accounts by a local bank will be eliminated and per view will be maintained by both companies for business necessary to their operations.

Yours very truly.
E. C. Heckbert, Mayor

Clandonald Man Dies At Heany, B.C.

Mr Lachlan MacLellan, formerly of the Clandonald district, passed away on Sept 20 at Heany, B.C. He was 80 years of age, being born on Feb. 17, 1873.

The remains were brought to Clandonald where the funeral is being held this Thursday morning, Sept 24 at 10 a.m. at the St. Mary's Catholic church. Interment will be at the Catholic cemetery. The Rev. Father Scriven will officiate.

Dance Held

CAROL HEIGHT

The Male Voice chorus will invite the choirs of the various churches and any other singers interested to help with a program of Christmas Carols. The concert to be held sometime in December. Proceeds will be for Christmas hampers for widows and needy cases.

The annual concert rendered by the Chorus will be held late in January.

TEACHERS MEET LOCAL BOARD

SCHOOL ENROLMENT 697

Nine of the ten new members on the local teaching staff attended the school board meeting Tuesday night, giving an opportunity for the trustees to meet the newcomers and vice-versa.

The new teachers are Miss Swanson and Miss Pollnsky at the primary; Miss Mahan, Mrs. Shaba, and Mrs. Khalnisky in the elementary. Mr. Kindrachuk, Miss Wereluk, Miss Nicholeiko and Miss Verschoten in the Junior high. The new newcomer to the high school staff, Mr. Lorne Dowling, was unable to attend.

Reports for attendance given by Principal Hall showed a slight increase over opening day and were as follow: primary 149; elementary 242; junior high 183; high school 99 for a total of 697. Of this number 205 are from schools outside Vermilion with 442 local.

Celebrates Last Game Of the Season With A Hole-in-One

Jim Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford, has joined the exclusive hole-in-one club as a result of his perfect shot on the 7th hole at the Vermilion golf club on Wednesday. Jim teed off for the 130 yard stretch and his perfect combination of drive and putt ended up in the cup. Playing with him at the time were his mother, Mr Rock Mead and son Glen Mead.

Evidently it was just a final game of the summer before returning to University, and there is little doubt but that he will remember it for a long time.

Giant Bingo Planned

PRIZES INCLUDE RADIO, WASHING MACHINE, ETC.

The Civilian Committee of "A" Company, The Loyal Edmonton Regiment, is planning a Super Bingo to be held Saturday Oct. 17 in the Vermilion armouries. The prizes will be all electric appliances and the big prize will be a large consol radio valued at $275. Other prizes include a washing machine, Mixmaster, electric clocks, automatic toasters, lamps, etc. A complete list will be published later. The total value of all 20 prizes to be offered will be in the neighborhood of $1000.

There will only be 30 games played with a good prize for each one — every player will have an equal chance at every prize.

Advance tickets will be on sale shortly at $2 each which entitles the holder to admission and the twenty games of bingo. Keep the date in mind and help the Civilian committee further the work of the reserve army.

Further information of this interesting event will be given next week.

Legion Nominates

On Monday the first regular meeting of Post No. 11 was held. President Martin reported on the Provincial convention held in Edmonton recently. Bob Johnson was the official delegate to the convention.

September is the month when the nominations of officers are made for the coming year. H. Joe is the record Hon. Presidents are Bob Reid, Pat McP., the Mayor of Vermilion, Mr. J.W.G. Morrison, Q.C. Padre Rev. D. A. Ford

First Vice-Pres. Alex Callas and T. Thompson

Second Vice-Pres. Les Williams, Neil McLean, Lawrence Welsh, Dr. Richardson

Executive — Bob Allan, Gib Stevens, Jim Ferguson, Jim Mulhern, Geo. Scarborough, Lawrence Mayhew

Sgt.-At-Arms - Bob Allan and Bert Treasurer Tom Wilson

Secretary — Jack Buckingham.

All members are expected to be on hand next meeting for the election. Nominations are not yet closed so you still have time to nominate your favorite.

The Armistice day service this year was poorly attended. Besides the Legion members only about 20 others were 19 people who thought it was only right that they should attend the service. Surely there are more who went from this town and district and we never realize it.

It appears that the Editor of the Lloydminster Times witnessed no same situation at the Battle of Britain memorial he said the citizens is not only disgraceful but appalling" Let us all take stock of ourselves whether these things mentioned thing to us or not

The entertainment committee working on a fall program so things will be popping pretty soon

Wheat Board Payments Due In October

AMOUNT TO $100 MILLION

Within the next few months the Canadian Wheat Board will make payments to prairie grain growers amounting to $100 million dollars according to an announcement last week by Hon. C. D. Howe. About $65 million of this amount will be an interim payment on the 333 million bushels of wheat delivered in the 1952-53 crop year. The payment will be 12 cents a bushel which is less than a large carryover of last years crop on July 31, it is not expected that the final payment will be made until early in 1954

The 1952-53 oat and barley pools are being cleaned up but the final payments per bushel have not yet been announced.

Wheat cheques will go out next starting about Oct. 1. Cats will follow and then barley

BROWNIE MEETINGS

The next meeting will be held on Monday Sept. 28, the place to be announced to members later

Death of John Milliner Stone, Pioneer

Three passed away on Thursday Sept. 10 when John Milliner Stone, 1905 pioneer of the district, at the age of 80 years and one day. Born in Ontario, Mr. Stone came to Alberta in 1905, subsequently farming north of Vermilion where the family home remained for many years. In 1943 he moved into Vermilion where he has since resided with his daughter Mrs. M. P. Dixon

It will be recalled that only this summer Mr. Stone enjoyed a reunion with his two brothers and one sister, all of them having 90 years of age or more

Funeral services were held at the First United church, Vermilion on Tuesday, Sept. 22 at 2.00 o'clock in the afternoon, with interment at the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. C. W. MacKay officiated.

Moyer's were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Appointed To V.S.A. Staff

Appointment of Thelma Graham of Red Deer as dietitian at the Vermilion school of agriculture was announced this week by Dr. D. E. Tim, provincial director of vocational education. She succeeds Miss Ruth Hamilton who has resigned. Miss Graham takes over her duties October 1.

Can You Beat It?

A lone turkey hen on the farm of Mr and Mrs. Jack Hamilton, started laying on Friday and by Saturday night had a second day, then she went into Dan Quigley and produced an egg a day for seven weeks. Now she has lapped back into laying every other day. She is due to rest for a week but the eggs are beautiful — the size of a goose egg, but have the shape of a hen's egg. Mrs. Hamilton thinks that the turkey hen must be the first one in the district to lay in the month of September.

According to information received from the Edmonton Journal one Albertan still "Stands" on his farm and is due to retire at the end of this year. He is Mr. Jim Ferguson, who has been with the Massey-Harris company for 50 years. Mr. Ferguson has been a resident of Edmonton for 40 years.

Standard Ranks High Among Alberta Weeklies

WINS SECOND PLACE FOR BEST FRONT PAGE

Members of the Standard staff are elated this week over the high standing accorded the paper in the Better Newspaper Contests' results of which were announced at the annual convention of the Alberta Division of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association held at Banff last Friday and Saturday.

The Standard was awarded second place for the best front page in the 2000 circulation class, being runner up to the "Times" published in the city of Wetaskiwin. Judging of the page is based on five aspects with a total of 60 points possible. The "Standard" made 33.6 points, and Wetaskiwin 35.7, while in third position was Jse Hanna Herald with 32.

Giving the staff even more satisfaction possibly was the fact that the Standard was among the top six in its class for the best all round paper, only 7 points lower than the winning High River Times and 1½ points back of second place Hanna Herald, the next four contestants being separated by fractions only. Points in this contest are based on 17 divisions, besides quantity and quality of news, craftsmanship enters into it, points being awarded for presswork, style, appearance and local advertising as well.

Twenty-two weekly newspapers were entered in the 2000 circulation class. No editor has any idea of the issues of the year will be published until the judges ask for two papers upon which they base their decisions.

The Standard staff has always worked hard to turn out a newsy paper for town and country alike, as well as providing a medium for advertising medium. That this is being achieved on a basis of comparison with the best weeklies in the province in Alberta, does not mean that the staff will rest content. They have plans for expansion and an even better Standard within the immediate future.

Cadets Attend Air Force Day In Edmonton

Vermilion Air Cadets travelled to Edmonton on Saturday morning last and marched in the parade which officially opened air force day. Taking part in the parade also were squadrons from Westlock, Barrhead, and two of Edmonton's.

Dinner was enjoyed at mess in the R.C.A.F. station During the afternoon the Cadets watched the flying, saw the ground displays and toured the R.C.A.F. station.

The trip was made by bus and the Cadets were accompanied by OC Stan Mandick.

"GREEN ACRES"

SHOWING GOOD SEED

It looks like we will have the best grain crop in the province. It is a real chance for grain growers with good quality seed to enter crops in the largest grain shows at Calgary, Toronto and Chicago. Specific prizes for Fall Rye fields are offered by the Alberta Department of Agriculture. If you think you have good Fall Rye, start keeping a sample of the heads and we can discuss its possibilities. Fall rye is recommended because of the crop before threshing time gain on soon because when the weather changes the chance of a good crop is doubtful.

Arrangements have been made to have the Provincial Seed Grain Laboratory at Edmonton test samples of grain for germination free of charge. Samples should be sent in as soon as possible after threshing. Germination tests are also made by the Canada Department of Agriculture Seed Laboratory at Lacombe.

BURNING SHOWS

Farmers who have put out coyote poisons are asked to check these "Warning Signs". If they have become weathered you are asked to replace them from your M.D. office or Jack Bunners and their dogs everywhere these days seem to often might stumble onto a coyote victim and get poisoned.

WEED CONTROL

Everyone seems to be agreed that fall cultivation is a good means of controlling thistles, couch grass, etc. Fairly deep cultivation is necessary to destroy the roots. Blade land

Excellent Program Outlined By The Canadian Club

OUTSTANDING INTERNATIONAL SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS MEETING

TWO MEN HURT WHEN CAR CRASHES

Walter Jusacko and Joe McIntyre of the C.N.R. were injured Saturday evening at a few minutes past nine when their car failed to make the corner 7 miles west of town, and turned over after running into the ditch.

Mr Jusacko who cursed the car, is in hospital with possible internal injuries. Mr McIntyre left the hospital Thursday. He suffered a broken collar bone, bruises and shock.

The accident occurred as the men were returning home from a trip to Mannville. The late model car appears to be a total wreck.

Four of Ten Children Are Handicapped

Extensive surveys have shown that about four out of ten children are handicapped in school performance by visual problems.

A study into the reasons for this serious condition among our school children by a prominent authority on child development has revealed a rather far reaching conclusion that should be of vital concern to all parents and teachers.

Dr. Arnold Gesell, former head of the Clinic of Child Development at Yale University concluded his extensive study with the following remarks:

"Seeing is not a separate isolable function. It is profoundly integrated with the total action system of the child — his posture, his manual skills and co-ordination, his intelligence, and even his personality make-up. Indeed, vision is so intimately identified with the whole child that we can not understand its economy and its hygiene without investigating the whole child."

Vision therefore may become a key to a fuller understanding of the nature and the needs of the individual child. He sees with his whole being. Eye care involves child care.

The surveys indicate further that when they enter the first grade [redacted] 25% of the children have visual handicaps. The proportion rises almost steadily and at the end of the 8th grade up to 50%, have visual handicaps.

One major cause for this substantial increase during the school years is the dark, dingy, drab poorly lighted, improperly furnished classroom. In many cases this cause is preventable if the teacher takes the initiative.

Fire Prevention Week October 4th to 10th

Municipal fire departments in Alberta as well as the Provincial Fire Commissioner's staff are busy making preparations for Fire Prevention Week which will be observed Oct. 4th to 10th.

Fire departments and municipal officials are planning programs which will bring fire prevention information to the public while all citizens will be asked to co-operate in inspecting their buildings for fire hazards. Fire drills will be held in many schools, institutions and factories.

Inspectors from the Provincial Fire Commissioner's office are issuing fire prevention literature and small posters to all municipalities, industries and government institutions. Meetings, demonstrations and other publicity are being arranged by the Fire Commissioner's office.

Provincial Fire Commissioner Austin Bridges said, "Our aim is to enlist 100 per cent participation in the Fire Prevention Week program. We want everyone to become aware of the loss needless fires cause to our homes, families and businesses."

Keep the Weed Seeds Off Your Land

Summerfallowing and spraying to rid the land of weeds is good business, but it's poor business to scatter weed seeds around again. And it's so easy. Just a little neglect with combine or thresher and back go the weeds again to make more trouble.

Most combines are equipped to separate weed seeds from grain and deliver the weeds into a sack placed for the purpose. Make sure the sack is there advises G. R. Sterling, Supervisor of Soil Conservation and Weed Control, and empty it before it overflows. Just one more suggestion — don't pile the weed seeds on the ground where they can be scattered by the birds or wind.

Take the weed seeds off your field. If suitable for livestock feed, grind them finely to destroy viability. If they are no good for feed, bury them. Cover them with at least a foot of soil and leave them there to rot.

Scholarships Presented At Mannville Home-School Meeting

MANNVILLE.—The first meeting of the Mannville Home and School Association for the fall term was held in the school auditorium Thursday, Sept. 17. There was an excellent attendance. After a short film and the singing of O Canada, Mr. Doherty, the new principal, introduced the teaching staff, new and old. The minutes of the last meeting and the executive meeting were read, also the correspondence. On a motion by Mrs. G. Young the meeting voted in favor of renewing the request for another teacher. Grade 3 has been divided among 3 teachers at the present time.

Van route representatives for Lesfield Underwood and Chailey were nominated Mrs. M. Johnson and Mrs. M. McDonald respectively.

Certificates were presented to the Vacation Reading club by Mrs. F. Proudfoot. It was impossible to procure pins for the members this year but plans were made to order them early in the new year for the next time. The following are the members of the club: Bobby Boehm, Thelma Arnold, Derek Boe, Marilynne Blasette, Scott Blackburn, James Croft, Berna Cotter, Lorraine Cartier, Glen Croft, Gary Croft, John Croft, Joan Finlay, Emil Fedechko, Agnes Finlay, Janice Finlay, Nonnie Finlay, Judy Gerhart, Edith Gadke, Charlie Gerhart, Jack Hasinoff, Ruby Hawley, Karen Hubbard, Lilian Hawley, Ruth Hughes, Danny Hasinoff, Jackie Hughes, Lynne Kreller, George Korchinsky, Nestor Korchinsky, Doris Lynch, Vivien Lastiwka, Donna Majeau, Bonny Proudfoot, Ralph Pederson, Stella Poliakiwski, Loretta Scheffler, Barry Smith, Ruth Smith, Jetty te Kampe, Ian Van Dusen, Judy Webb, Betty Willes, Edna Wagner, Vincent White, Dennis Baker.

The W.I. scholarship donated by seven branches of the Women's Institutes was presented by Mrs. J. I. Jones to Fred Otto who had an average of 80%. In thanking Mrs. Jones and the other W.I. members, Fred applauded the W.I.'s for assisting students like himself in going on with their education, and he hoped to prove his worthiness of the scholarship in the years to come. He also thanked those who had aided in his education.

On behalf of the Board of Trade, Mr. Van Dusen presented a scholarship award to Audrey Hamilton in Grade 11 and to Peter Stachniak and Barry Smith in grade 10. Barry was unable to be present so his was mailed to him in Edmonton.

On behalf of the Home and School association honor pins were presented by Dr. Hasinoff to the following: Grade 12, Fred Otto and Mary Boyle. Grade 11, Audrey Hamilton, Florence Otto and Sharon Meece. Grade 10, Peter Stachniak, Barry Smith. Grade 9, Trudy Keuschnig and Eunice Bury.

During the evening Miss Arline Leitch and her Mannville Hi Music Makers played selections and Miss Ruth Gamble sang a solo, and a duet by Connie Gerhart and Norma McLuckie.

Mr. Doherty, on request of the executive, gave a very interesting talk on Scholarships. The matriculation scholarship given by the Provincial Government was a reward for top notch effort and enabled many to attend university that otherwise although they had the ability would not be financially able to. The Hotelmen's Association scholarship is a similar one and pays fees for approximately three years at the university. There is another scholarship, not necessarily for high marks, now available for children of servicemen who were killed or disabled in the last war. This offers assistance of $25 plus books, fees and tuition from grade 8 through university. Mr. Doherty asked that anyone knowing of any such children in the district to have them get in touch with him.

There are also various bursaries within the university amounting from $25 to $300 or $400 given as prizes in various subjects, also opportunities in the university to be assistant lab instructors, to mark papers, etc., to help out in tuition fees. Then too there are opportunities for graduate students to win fellowships in other universities with part time teaching in specialized subjects to aid in paying their way.

There is now a joint School Division and Board of Education bursary for those wishing to enter the teachers training field. Also several funds under the Dominion-Provincial Loan fund to aid those already attending university and not able to continue due to financial reasons. These may be had by applying through the Student Adviser. So that those wishing to attend university and finish their training can find a way through these various scholarships, bursaries and loans. But Mr. Doherty closed by saying that all can't win scholarships and the greatest satisfaction is in knowing that the students have done the best they can.

A very interesting resume of the school system in Quebec was given by a graduate of grade 12, Mr. Geo. Taylor, who is out here for the harvest. They have a choice of two courses in high school, the Science course for those who plan to attend university or go in for nursing, etc., and the General course for those interested in agriculture or various trades. The students come into the larger towns there by bus as they do in Alberta.

After adjournment lunch was served by the lunch committee.

"Craft Centres In Alberta"

"Craft Centres in Alberta", the fourth in a series of booklets issued by the Cultural Activities Branch of the Provincial Government, has been published to help communities interested in establishing craft centres.

The booklet, compiled by Mrs. Margaret Tewnion, Handcraft Supervisor, Dept. of Economic Affairs, deals largely with the organization of a craft centre, sources of information, and marketing of the finished product. Copies of the booklet are available from the Cultural Activities Branch of the Department of Economic Affairs, Legislative Buildings, Edmonton.

Wildwood

The community was sorry to hear of the accidents in the Horpestad family. Mr. Aaron Horpestad was putting his cow in the stable at his home in Ladner, B.C., when he stooped to pick up the rope the cow shook her head and her horn caught his eye socket and gouged it so badly the sight of that eye was destroyed. Details are meagre of how badly hurt Kenneth Horpestad is in his second car accident of the year but he has a number of bones broken again, mostly ribs.

Miss Shirley Holms, the District Home Economist of Wainwright addressed the ladies of this district in the hall recently.

Glad to see Mrs. Frank Sperberg home again after a bout with the flu in Islay hospital.

The Kinchles of Edson called on Mrs. McGrath, Mrs. Wyley and Mrs. Drysdale while down on a hunting expedition.

School was opened here by Mrs. Finley of McLaughlin. Welcome to our district Mrs. Finley.

The Haywoods of Wainwright visited at Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jack's recently as did Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Edgar of Edmonton.

Doris and David Jack, Alberta and Helen Drysdale are students at the dorm at Killarney this year.

Miss Linda Sperberg spent a few days in hospital but is happy to be home again now.

Mr. Ray Wheadon of the R.C.M.P. is on holiday here. His parents are accompanying him to Calgary to visit his brother Tom for a few days. Ray is then going to Peace River to visit Mary, Edna, Bob, Dick and Lindsay.

Miss Rose Wolters, a one time teacher here, spent a few days renewing acquaintances during the holidays. Some of us are sorry to have missed meeting her again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Fry and son have returned to Wildwood once more.

Threshing has begun here and depending on the weather will be in full swing next week.

CPR Had First Domes

A long forgotten genius in the Canadian Pacific Railway's motive power and rolling stock department came up with an idea at the turn of the 20th century that blossomed into additional passenger revenues for rail lines throughout the [illegible] ...

It was the first "dome" car to be used on railway lines and was designed to give [illegible] a bird's eye view of Canada's spectacular Rocky Mountain scenery.

Today the idea has spread throughout the world, particularly in the United States where railway dome cars are a feature of several lines.

In a recent $38,000,000 order for 155 new stainless steel cars, the C.P.R. included 36 [illegible] dome cars, such as the one shown above in top picture, which will give travellers an unmatched view of this country's scenery from coast to coast. The cars will be placed in service on transcontinental trains next year.

In it, railway passengers could sit in revolving parlor car chairs or reversible seats and have a [illegible] of Canada's scenery.

The car proved an immediate hit and [illegible] with modified improvements, were put into service. But the C.P.R.'s unknown designer had outstripped his era.

Air conditioning and Polaroid glass were unknown and the sun's ultra-violet rays proved uncomfortably warm. The cars were replaced with open-air observation cars, several years later.

The railway reverted back to its original idea recently when it ordered the 36 dome cars—more than 50 years after it first had them on the road.

"Canada's scenery is hard to beat in any corner of the land," a railway official said. "We admit the Rocky Mountain area is the most spectacular, but we believe the cars can be used to advantage from coast to coast."

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Sept. 23, 1937

At a school board meeting it was revealed that verbal permission from the Department of Agriculture has been received to make use of the extensive facilities at the V.S.A. to teach domestic science and shop.

Logan Gow of the Tolland district was selling out and planned to move to Calgary where he has purchased a business.

Wheat threshing is 75% completed with 35% of the crop already marketed. Average yield is 12 bushels with bulk of the grain graded No. 3.

William J. Mayhew and David L. Kennedy both new to municipal matters were elected to the town council by acclamation. They succeeded Dr. Bell and A. W. Liddiatt, resigned.

Plans were being made for a Board of Trade shopping carnival of one week's duration.

Perfect harvest weather which has prevailed for a solid month broke with light rain all day Wednesday.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Sept. 21, 1921

John P. Harvey was elected president of the G.W.V.A. local at Vermilion, John Wotherspoon was vice-president, Harry Compton 2nd vice-president, John Selkirk secretary and Leonard Dunaway treasurer.

The Standard's new two magazine Model X Intertype went into operation at 5 p.m. Monday, and much of the reading matter in this week's Standard has been set on the type-setting machine operated by Vernon H. Cooper.

Mrs. F. Brissett and Florence left for their new home in Vancouver where Mr. Brissett is already located in business.

Threshing machines have been shut down since Monday night due to wet weather.

Claysmore Clippings

Beginners to school from this district are Mavis McCauley, Laurie Horne, Marian Stewart, Lynda Willes, Marilyn Williams and Billy Williams.

Mrs. W. D. Williams and Mrs. G. Dunsmore of Vermilion visited at the Percy Willes home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMillan were pleasantly surprised Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Glen Russell from Empress, Alberta and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Russell of Booker, Texas, drove in for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Russell were both school friends of Mrs. MacMillan but it was 41 years since they had last seen each other. A very enjoyable evening was spent recalling old times and friends of school days. The Russells are touring Alberta and left Friday for Edmonton and Jasper. They will visit friends at Onoway, Acme and Shepard before starting on their return journey to Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Willes and infant daughter of Saskatoon have returned to that city after a holiday visiting at the home of the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. P. Willes and other members of the family.

Mrs. A. Olstad and children have been visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Karlstrom at Edberg for the past two weeks. Mr. Olstad motored to Edberg for the week and they all plan to return home Sunday evening.

It is pleasing to learn that Bruce Winters is home and feeling fairly well after long weeks in the University hospital. Continued recovery to health is wished him.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Kreller who sold their farm some time ago are now living in Mannville.

Of Many Things . . .

BY AMBROSE HILLS

Just across the street from the building in which my office is located there stands a church. I suppose, when it was built, it stood in spacious grounds in a quiet residential district, but that was a good many years ago. Since then the city has grown and spread, and today the church is hemmed in by tall office buildings and stores. Its old rough stones and graceful spire make a striking contrast with the slick, functional, brick-and-mortar architecture that surrounds it.

I suppose every city has at least one church that was left behind as the suburbs got pushed farther outward. To the hurrying crowds of shoppers and office workers who pass it every day, it is a familiar part of the city scene: they take its presence there for granted and they long ago ceased to remark on its strangeness. Yet I feel that in some subtle way they are cheered and comforted just by seeing it there. I know I am. Every so often, when my eye chances to light on the tall spire outside my window it strikes me that the church is a symbol. It stands as a daily reminder that there is room for a spiritual spire in the brick and mortar of our Monday-through-Saturday lives.

While I was reading the other day, I came across something that impressed me as a very shrewd comment. The writer remarked that a church is not a place where you go to practice religion; rather, he said, it is in the nature of a religious filling station, where you go to get a fresh supply of religion to carry you through the week to come. I thought immediately of the church across the street, in the heart of the city's business district. I hope it stands there as long as the city itself.

Perhaps like myself, you have at one time or another taken pride in your regular unfailing attendance a church, your close attention to the sermons, the sense of spiritual release and uplift you got from the services. These are wonderful things; but Sunday is the day we need them least. We need to be conscious while we are in church of the fact that this is our supply for the week to come, that our need for spiritual awareness becomes greater on Monday morning and will not slacken off until Saturday night. Our Christian [illegible] a [illegible] dogmas, a ritual to be observed at a set time. It [illegible] should be the solid bed-rock against which all our experiences, thoughts, emotions and actions are tested to see if they ring true.

We all need to be reminded of this often. I [illegible] to have the reminder of [illegible] window. [illegible] I have [illegible] thing I would have been ashamed of. But I think [illegible] without physical reminders. If we remember [illegible] among the brick and mortar of our minds and hearts.

. . . And We Will Eat The Cows

Some people say Canadians and Americans [illegible] bread and [illegible] wheat surplus. [illegible] European per capita consumption of bread. But, says the Financial Post, Europeans eat less meat and eggs etc. than we do.

And by eating meat we [illegible] tually consuming wheat [illegible] more of it than we [illegible].

To produce one pound of meat a hog or a steer must be fed from four to five pounds of [illegible]. The same would be approximately true for eggs and dairy products.

Few people in this [illegible] age could stand knowledge [illegible] and polish off [illegible]. But when they eat a [illegible] steak they are getting rid of the equivalent in grain.

Let the cows eat the grain. We'll eat the cows.

Homework Can Be Fun In Efficient Study Area

Now that school vacations are over, many mothers are wondering how to help Junior get higher grades for the new term. And many are missing an easy chance to help raise their small fry from C to A students by neglecting improvements in home study areas.

Psychologists say a child's surroundings and equipment can have an important effect on his school work. Most schools afford pleasant study surroundings and modern equipment. But some school work is done at home and, unfortunately, many home study halls are neither pleasant nor well equipped.

The mother who closely examines her child's study area and does something to improve it may be pleasantly surprised at mid-term by the improvements in her youngster's marks.

Study space often is a problem in the average home. The dining room or kitchen table is the most frequently used study spot. But their poor light and bad location amidst the main stream of household traffic make them highly undesirable. Any student with a desk of his own, even a simple, homemade one, generally has some advantage over the "dining room pupil".

The preferred arrangement, of course, is a desk in the child's room. If a regulation student's desk can't be had, an old table sawed to the proper height or an easily constructed drop-shelf will suffice.

Whether the desk is a miniature executive's layout or a hand-made corner built-in, it should meet certain standards. As a guide to the proper size and equipment of desks, the Sheaffer Pen Company has assembled the following standards:

Desk tops should be at least 2 by 4 feet in area and 25 to 30 inches from the floor, depending on the child's size. The chair, straight-backed, should be high enough to bring the student's eyes 11 inches above the desk top.

Illumination should get special attention because of the danger of eyestrain. Lamps should be about two feet high with semi-direct lighting, a high wattage bulb and a good-size shade. If a table lamp is used, it should be to the left and slightly forward from the back of the desk. Student lamps in the center of the desk should be of the long fluorescent variety.

The desk should not have a shiny surface. A large pastel blotter will reduce glare (and save the finish). Such equipment as fountain pens, pencils, paper and reference books should be stored in special compartments for orderliness and convenience.

A dip pen of the reservoir type is recommended. One model of this type, the Safeguard, has the added advantage of being non-spillable, even when overturned.

A final suggestion from Sheaffer's: Don't put the desk in front of a window. Best location is flush against a wall with good artificial light provided, since most studying is done at night.

Actually what you do to improve your child's study area depends on its size, location and decor. But if a close inspection convinces you it needs improving, improve it. Both you and your youngster may be very glad you did.

Thanksgiving Day Monday, October 12

Monday, October 12th has been proclaimed as Thanksgiving Day in Canada and will be observed as a public holiday throughout the Dominion. The proclamation as issued reads as follows and might serve to enlighten many as to the reason for the setting aside of a day for general Thanksgiving:

"Whereas it hath pleased Almighty God in His great goodness to vouchsafe many blessings during this year to the people of Canada.

We therefore considering that these blessings vouchsafed to the people of Canada do call for a solemn and public acknowledgment have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Privy Council for Canada, to appoint, and we do hereby appoint Monday the Twelfth Day of October next as a day of general thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings with which the people of Canada have been favoured during this year; and we do hereby invite all Our People of Canada to observe the said day as a day of of general thanksgiving." 13-13

AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND NEW MEMBERS

Australia and New Zealand became members of the world Scouting organization as a result of official action taken at the 14th International Scout conference in Liechtenstein in August. There are now more than 5 and a half million Scouts in 37 countries in the world Scout organization.

Shiny, dark-blue beetles, the size of ladybirds, are almost miraculously succeeding where chemicals have failed in the extermination of goat-weed, a scourge of B. C. farmers.

Wildmere W. I. Notes

The Wildmere W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. David Dibben on Sept. 2nd with 11 members and one visitor present, Miss Horning. The meeting was opened with the singing of O Canada and repeating the Creed. Roll was answered by Safety Hints and many and varied were the useful hints given. Treasurer's report was read, also the minutes of the previous meeting. Back dues of the Athritic and Rheumatism Society were paid in.

The correspondence included a letter from the Vermilion school of agriculture saying that typewriting would be included in the Home Economics course for those desiring it this term.

Mrs. Garnett read a letter from a Manitoba W.I. member, Mrs. Dale, who is a relative of Mrs. Basil Hawley of Vermilion. It was a very interesting letter. Mrs. Garnett met Mrs. Dale one time at the Farm Women's Week in Vermilion. She also read a letter from Barbon W. I. in England.

There being no topic for this meeting Mrs. Garnett read about the A.C.W.W. from the Family Herald. The new A.C.W.W. president is Mrs. Berry of Australia, succeeding Mrs. Sayre of Iowa, U.S.A.

Miss Horning then told of the girl students from India who attended their college in Toronto, describing how they put on their sarong. It is one piece of material, wrapped around them and pinned at the left shoulder. They are a clever people if only they had a chance to learn as we have. They wear very heavy underclothing and feel the cold of our climate.

The W.I. project for October is a donation to the A. W. I. fund. Johnny Jump Up was won by Mrs. W. T. Garnett.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Dibben on Oct. 1. Roll call suggestions to increase book account. Topic by Mrs. Steele, world by Mrs. Wallington.

The meeting closed and a grand lunch was served by the hostess.

The Cost of Running A Car

The true costs of running an automobile are 'startling', says an October Reader's Digest article. If you drive your car 10,000 miles a year you're probably paying over 10 cents a mile, or more than $1000 for this service. That figure may jolt you, but it may also serve to point out what's at the root of your budget trouble.

The article divides the cost of running a car into two categories fixed and operating. Depreciation is the biggest fixed expense. On a car two years old or less, annual depreciation will amount to a flat 25 percent of the purchase price, including all extras and financing costs. On older cars, figure depreciation this way: Consult the used car ads for average quoted prices for the same model as your own. Say it's $1200. Probably that figure is inflated to allow for bargaining, so deduct 10%, leaving you $1080 as the value of your car. Subtract that from the original purchase price and divide the result by the number of years youve had your auto. The figure is your depreciation cost for one year.

If you drive more than 18,000 miles in a year, charge extra depreciation of 9 to 10 cents a mile for all mileage over 18,000.

Add to fixed costs your yearly premiums on all automobile insurance, and the cost of license fees and property tax on cars if this tax is levied in your area. Then, as a final item of fixed costs, figure the interest at 3%, which you would draw on the money your car cost if you hadn't bought it.

Operating expenses include gasoline, oils, tires, maintenance — including greasing, washing and repairs. And the Digest article reminds you to include parking fees, inspection, tools, anti-freeze, a new battery, etc.

Adding up all costs, the author found he had a figure of $1,042.28 a year for 10,000 miles of driving. What's yours? he asks? Anything like the amount you guessed before you figured it?

Huge Airport, Weapons Range At Cold Lake Nears Completion

Rushing work on the $35,000,000 Cold Lake airport and weapons range, Defence Construction Ltd. will turn more than half the major buildings over to the Royal Canadian Air Force before the end of this month, according to word received from Ottawa.

Defence officials report that more than 1000 construction workers are employed on the Cold Lake project, 200 miles northeast of Edmonton. The object is to get the work completed before winter.

One of the major purposes for which the 4000 square mile area will be used is the testing of guided missiles. Recent developments in this field in Canada have made it necessary to get the range into operation as soon as possible.

Last July, it was reported that 9 contractors, operating from five camps, were working on the site, designed to turn a vast area into a bombing and rocket range.

The program has included construction of several steel hangars, one of which is the largest in western Canada. Buildings include an officers' quarters, mess hall, canteen, Protestant and Roman Catholic chapels.

Tenders on the construction of 345 dwelling units closed recently and a contract is expected to be awarded shortly.

Work on the project was started in 1952 and it was planned to have many of the major buildings completed this year.

Fishing, trapping and timber cutting in the area, half in Alberta and half in Saskatchewan, will lapse after April 1, 1954.

Regular projectile tests are expected to start early next year at Canada's new $35,000,000 guided-missile range in northeastern Alberta.

By the end of October, 24 of the 45 main buildings planned are expected to be turned over to the RCAF.

The project is regarded by the air force and defence research board as highly secret, and few details have been divulged about it. Some 2000 airmen and technicians, with their families, will occupy the range town site.

There will be no atomic tests at the range because Canada has no atom bombs and plans none. What will be tested will be the type of air-to-air guided missiles fired last week for the first time by a Sabre jet fighter.

Development work on the missiles is being done at Valcartier experimental site in Quebec by the defence research board.

The September meeting of the Thorncliffe branch of the A. [illegible] was held at the home of Mrs. John King on Sept. 2 at 2 p.m. Four members were present.

The meeting opened with a flag raising ceremony followed by the Women's Creed. The roll call was a birthday collection, one cent for each year. Those that were absent — we'll catch you at the next meeting.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Members are all selling tickets on the quilt we made last spring. This is a chance for everyone to help a good cause and have a chance to win a lovely quilt. Would members please have their tickets in by Oct. 15 so a draw can be made soon after. Mrs. John King is in charge of tickets.

Sorry ladies that I missed the write-up of the August meeting. The highlights of it were as follows: The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Dickson on Aug. 5 with six members present. The roll call was the oldest picture of each member. Oh no! Was that you?

Branch conveners of standing committees were elected as follows:

Mrs. Gordon Dickson Education; Mrs. Fred Clark Citizenship; Mrs. Reuben Clark Health; Mrs. James Moses Home Economics; Mrs. Earl Watt—Canadian Industries and Agriculture; Mrs. John King Social Services; Mrs. Thos. Thompson —Handicraft.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Moses on Oct. 7 at 2 p.m. The roll call will be a nursery rhyme or forfeit a dime. Social will be by Mrs. Thos. Thompson.

F.U.A. President Returns From Eastern Trip

DISCUSSES GRAIN MARKETING SITUATION

President Henry Young of the Farmers' Union of Alberta has just returned from Montreal where he represented Interprovincial Farm Union Council at the annual convention of the Canadian Congress of Labor.

At this gathering, comprising some 865 delegates, Mr. Young brought greetings from the Farm Unions and outlined the Canadian farmers position. He suggested co-operation between organized labor and farmers based upon parity for agriculture. This suggestion was well received, and at a later date committees of the C.C.L. and Farm Unions will meet to go into the matter further.

While in the east Mr. Young visited Ottawa and conferred with various federal ministers and government officials regarding the grain marketing situation. Methods of financing farmers until the crop can be disposed of were discussed, such as advances on farm-stored grain and raising the initial payment on the first quota of 1953 wheat to $1.60 per bushel. He also interviewed the Income Tax Department and delivered a protest against the arbitrary methods being used in some cases in assessing farmers for income tax.

The Canadian Legion Joins The Polio Fight

(Calgary Herald, Aug. 19, 1953)

In the research laboratories and in the hospitals, medical science is fighting a gallant battle night and day to find the answers, but victory has not yet been attained and the season of dread and anxiety — the season of polio — is with us again.

In Canada, Manitoba has been hardest hit. But right here in Alberta the situation is serious, and the report of 11 new cases in a single day in Calgary this week jolted those who had not been paying much attention to developments. The outbreak so far has been somewhat below last year, but not enough to be very reassuring, especially to parents.

While the scientific struggle to banish polio goes on it is good to see that individuals and organizations are carrying on and extending their efforts on behalf of those unfortunate people who become victims.

The most recent, and highly welcome evidence of this was the establishment in Edmonton a few days ago of the Alberta Chapter, Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis.

The initiative was taken and the new organization has been set up by the council of the Alberta Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion. A board of trustees has been created under chairmanship of Col. Ted Brown, president of the Legion's Alberta Command, and the first appeal for funds is expected to be made early next spring.

Alberta provides treatment for all its own polio victims, but the new organization has been assured by Dr. A. Somerville, deputy minister of health, that there is still a great deal of useful work which can be done in this field.

With funds received from the annual March of Dimes' campaign which will henceforth be conducted by the new Alberta organization, iron lungs can be provided, patients can be transported to special treatment centres when necessary and financial and other kinds of help can be extended to polio sufferers who may not qualify, because of residence requirements, for assistance and treatment already being given by the province.

The Alberta chapter of the foundation, having been founded by the Canadian Legion, will have widespread and valuable assistance of the members of the Legion's 235 branches throughout the province when the appeal for funds is launched. It is unusual, and fortunate, that this new organization to help polio victims is, in fact, already organized on a province-wide basis even though it is scarcely a week old.

The Legion merits great commendation for voluntarily undertaking this worthy task. It is taken for granted that the Legion has acted in a spirit of unselfish service, and we do not believe it will find public support lacking.

Arrangements are being made to present a further iron lung to the University hospital in Edmonton and also a request has been received from the Gault hospital at Lethbridge. This latter request will be granted as soon as the type of lung needed has been ascertained.

Although the main drive for the "March of Dimes" campaign for the Poliomyelitis Foundation will not be undertaken until January the present demand for combatative equipment and supplies are causing a severe strain on the funds' present account. Contributions are being received at the offices of the Alberta Chapter at 605 McLeod Building, Edmonton.

ROYAL PURPLE RESUME MONTHLY MEETINGS

The O.O.R.P. met at the Elks hall on Thursday Sept. 17 to resume the monthy meetings for the coming year. There was a goodly number present with Honored Royal Lady Welsh presiding. Following the business session the ladies were entertained by Mrs. Mead who gave a very interesting talk on her recent trip to England and the continent.

Two well known old timers of the town, Fred Maddex and John Brimacombe returned last Friday evening from a 3500 mile motor trip which took them as far north as Whitehorse, N.W.T. They encountered good roads and enjoyed fine weather all the way, thoroughly enjoying every bit of the journey and holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Caron accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Stan Neiner have returned from a week's vacationing at Calgary, Banff and Kalispell, Montana. The journey home was made through the Glacier National Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Chivers and family recently returned from their vacation spent at Calgary and on a motor trip through the mountains to Couer D'Alene, Idaho.

Mrs. N. N. Bentley has been receiving medical attention in Edmonton and is at present a patient at the University hospital. She hopes to return home on Sunday.

Miss Alice Brix plans to leave the end of the month for Edmonton where she will continue her commercial courses in stenography at McTavish Business college.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. King plan to attend the annual convention of the Alberta Division of the Canadian Medical Association being held in Edmonton next week. They will also attend a class re-union to observe the tenth anniversary of graduation.

Ashley H. Cooper of the Standard staff attended the annual convention of the Alberta Branch of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers association which was held in Banff last Friday and Saturday. The sessions proved very enjoyable with attendance the largest in the history of the Alberta association. The journey home was made via the beautiful Banff-Jasper highway through the kindness of Editor Horton and son Wilfred of Vegreville.

D. R. Mitchell and G. W. Sutherland, both past presidents of the Vermilion Board of Trade attended the Wednesday session of the annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce which was held in Edmonton last week.

Mrs. Gordon Dunsmore was called to Portage la Prairie this week by the death of her sister Mrs. Ward.

Mrs. Ross Boake is expected to return home Sunday from the Royal Alexandra hospital where she has been a patient for the past three weeks following major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Art E. Isert and family of Port Coquitlam, B.C., have been visiting friends and relatives in the Dewberry and Hazeldine districts.

Another one of the young people to enroll at University this week is Cecil Kitz, for the past two years a member of the staff of Boake's Drug store. Cecil is taking Pharmacy.

A party comprised of Lyal Dowdell, Bill Elechko and Albert Terry holidayed at Jasper and Banff last week, returning home on Sunday.

Enjoy 6,000-mile Holiday Trip

During the summer Mrs. Amalia Bauer and youngest son Alvin spent five weeks travelling 6000 miles through B.C. and the States visiting relatives and seeing new places.

They left Alberta via Jasper and Banff, then entered B.C. through the Vermilion Pass into the Kootenay Park and so on to Radium Hot Springs. They spent several days visiting at Vernon, Kelowna, Penticton and Chilliwack before going to Vancouver. They were fascinated at the number and beauty of Kelowna's roses and found B.C. tree-ripened fruit delicious.

They crossed the border at Blaine, Wash. finding customs officials very courteous. They followed the coast to Bellingham and Everett then cut across Oregon to Boise, Idaho. The American highways were found to be excellent containing many unrestricted speed zones.

Their next major stop was Salt Lake City, Utah, where they toured for several days and were very interested in the magnificent Mormon Temple and State Capital building. This city's beauty is even more remarkable when you consider that it is in the middle of a salt desert and any growing thing must be constantly fertilized and watered. Everywhere you look there are [illegible] of giant trees of every description. The only thing that wasn't enjoyed was the 105 degree temperature which they endured during most of their trip. They had intended visiting the Grand Canyon, but due to the extreme heat they decided against this. In Colorado a drive through the dinosaur quarries was made 200,000 acres of petrified prehistoric lands. The highway climbed to an elevation of 12,101 feet to Greely, Colorado where more relatives were visited. They went through the Black Hills of South Dakota, saw the Crystal Caves and viewed Mt. Rushmore with its four famous faces.

Homeward bound relatives were visited at Hettinger, North Dakota, then on to Great Falls, Montana and back into Alberta at Coutts with a brief stop at Calgary and Edmonton before returning home. During the whole journey they were amazed at how little most Americans knew of Canada, and thought their hospitality poorer than that of Canadians. However for both it was a memorable trip and one that they will look back on for a long time to come.

Stagette To Be Raffled!

Have you ever wondered just how Stagettes started in the first place? Saskatoon holds the honor of being the Mother Club for it was there that, back in 1932, a small group of business girls whose boy friends had a stag party every so often, decided to have themselves an evening of their own [illegible] stagette party, but being girls they decided that just a party was a waste of time and so they formed themselves into a benevolent club doing what it could to help others. To make it a real club they drew up a constitution and selected the name of Stagettes. When one of this small group moved to Regina she formed a second club and so it spread through Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and B.C. until today there are some twenty clubs forming the National Association of Stagette clubs. At one time there was a club in Montreal and one in Toronto which we are sorry to say have since disbanded. The Vermilion club received its charter in 1942 through the interest of Mrs Irene Cory who though then a married women had been a member previously and among the earlier members were Lucy English, Beth Welsh, Dorothy Oldenburg, Nora Nelson. Through District and National convention to which a representative from each club attends if at all possible, the Constitution has been revised and improved, and many helpful ideas have been swapped.

Now then how would you like to have a stagette of your very own? [illegible] One will be raffled [illegible] the near future so keep an eye on Craig's window and you will see her on display. Then be sure to buy your ticket and thus have as good a chance as anyone of winning her.

LOCAL NEWS

Many friends here will be interested to learn of the marriage on Monday Sept 21 at Innisfree of Evelyn Eileen Atkins, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs H S Atkins, to Mr Douglas Alva Kelly.

Shoots Banded Duck

Angus Falcon is the latest hunter to bag a banded duck. He brought down a mallard hen bearing band No. 49[illegible] on Wednesday Sept 16. The bird was shot south-east of town. The band has been returned to the Field and Wildlife Service for the history of the bird.

Bountiful Alberta!

Here is one that will be hard to beat. On the farm of Cecil Sinclair north of Marwayne can be found potato tops measuring 71 inches in height. There is a patch of jumbo hills each hill averages 10 to 12 good potatoes and usually more. One hill had 34 and the smallest was larger than a cup.

The Weather

Fine harvest weather prevails and real progress is being made with 80% of the wheat threshed 70% of the barley and 10% oats. A light shower or two during the week accounted for .17 inches of precipitation.

Pretty Wedding At Kitscoty

KENT—PIDCOCK

The warm afternoon sunshine filtered through the windows of Kitscoty United church on Saturday, August 29 as the Rev. Oliver C Seward of Bonnyville, in a setting of gladioli, dahlias and snapdragons, united in holy matrimony Iris Sheila Elizabeth Pidcock of Kitscoty and Malcolm Royden Kent, third son of Mr and Mrs. Wm. R. Kent of Marwayne.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was radiant in an imported waltz-length, white, tiered Chantilly lace dress, over net and taffeta styled with a halter neckline and small pointed collar a bolero jacket of matching lace with lily-point sleeves modified her gown. A sweetheart shaped lace headdress held in place her finger-tip veil of French illusion, silver sandals completed her ensemble. The bride wore a dainty gold and cameo pendant with matching earrings, a gift from the groom, and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses, lily of the valley and fern.

Miss Ella Pidcock, maid of honor, preceded her sister up the aisle. She was attired in a strapless ballet-length gown of powder blue, nylon lace over taffeta with sequin trimmed bodice, modified with a long sleeved matching bolero. Miss Sheila McCorry, the bridesmaid chose a strapless model, ballet-length gown of pink net with panels of lace over taffeta with which she wore a matching lace jacket. They wore silver sandals and matching braided tulle bandeaux trimmed with carnations, and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations set in pink net and fern.

The groom was ably attended by his cousin Brian Kent, and his brother James Kent.

Ushering the guests to the pews, which were tied with white satin ribbon, and pom pom dahlias, in shades of gold and purple, were Mr. Jack Tyner and Mr. Albert Lang.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Elsie Batty sang "I'll Walk Beside You", and during the signing of the register Miss Sheila McCorry sang "Because", accompanied by Mrs. Batty, who ably provided all the wedding music.

A profusion of summer flowers decorated the Tracy Memorial hall for the reception when the bride's mother received wearing a Dior blue ticatina crepe afternoon dress with pink accessories and she chose a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs Kent, the groom's mother, wore a becoming dress of powder blue silk crepe with tucked yoke and cape collar, a pink picture hat and gloves to tone completed her outfit and she wore pink roses en corsage.

The bride's table was laid with an ecru silk lace cloth and centered with a beautifully decorated three-tiered cake topped with miniature heirloom china basket and sweetheart roses embedded in tulle and flanked by tall white tapers and bouquets of dahlias in crystal vases.

After the bride and groom cut the wedding cake, Mr James McCorry proposed an eloquent toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded.

Several young friends of the bride and groom assisted in serving the one hundred and forty guests, who signed the register presided over by Miss Janet Kent. Miss Betty Gray was in charge of the many and beautiful gifts.

The out of town guests were Mrs. Neil East of Winnipeg, Mr and Mrs F Marnah of Unity Sask., Mr and Mrs. H. McLaughlin of Vancouver, Mr and Mrs R. A Linsdell and Gordon, Mrs. Eileen Gray and Mrs Ray Nickerson all of Edmonton, and Mrs. Hugh Kent of Craik, Sask.

A cable was received from the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr and Mrs. A. C. Linsdell of Edmonton who are on holiday in England.

For a honeymoon to the Pacific coast the bride donned a pink lavender orion and wool two-piece dress with full pleated skirt, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

On their return Mr and Mrs. Mac Kent will reside in the Irwinville district near Marwayne.

THE W. M. S.

The W.M.S. of the United church held their first meeting since the summer recess in the church hall on Thursday evening Sept. 10 at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Robinson, the president, was in the chair. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Robinson who with Mrs. M. Barr was in charge of the devotional.

Mrs. M. Hill was then asked to lead in a short memorial service for Mrs. Welsh who has passed on.

Reports were then given for the past months. Roll call was taken and there were 23 members present. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. H. J. Clarke who had the new study book. She gave a comprehensive synopsis of the book and told the W.M.S. that they would really enjoy reading it. The meeting was closed with prayer by Miss Craig.

A very tasty lunch was served by the committee and a social half hour enjoyed by all.

Drinking Driver Is Target At Traffic Conference

How to get the drinking driver off the road is being discussed at the second International Conference on Alcohol and Road Traffic which started Wednesday in Toronto.

Addressing the delegates from 20 countries, Dr. J. K. W. Ferguson, head of the University of Toronto pharmacology department, said he believes many persons are violating the letter of the law by driving after leaving taverns and beverage rooms. He said protection for the public against "erratically-guided missiles from taverns" is needed.

"If there is sufficient outcry from the public, I am sure a reasonable answer can be found," he said. "The hazard of alcohol in road traffic is not going to be solved quickly. Intelligent planning is needed. The measures required are not going to be cheap or easy."

Cecil H. Heath of London, secretary of the international temperance union and conference president, said the report of the first such conference in Stockholm three years ago influenced opinion and legislation in several countries. He said the report from the present three-day gathering should play an important part in future education and law-making.

"Public opinion is flowing in our direction. The time may have come when it is ripe for sweeping the drinking driver off the road, so that lives and limbs so needlessly destroyed in the past can be saved in the future."

A report of University of Toronto researchers, presented to the conference, said that, if a Toronto driver has six drinks of whisky, his chances of becoming involved in a traffic accident are 10 times as great as those of a person who has not been drinking.

ESTABLISHING GOOD FOOD HABITS IN CHILDREN

Simple well-cooked meals served at regular times, in pleasant surroundings, will go far toward encouraging good food habits in children. The most important consideration is to see that children eat a variety of foods and do not fill up on one food they like best. When introducing new food to a baby, present it at the beginning of the meal, when the baby is hungry, and give only small amount. If the baby appears not to like it do not act concerned or scold him, but give him another small bite in a moment. If he persistently refuses, and it is a food that is very desirable you may find that he will take it if you mix it with some other food to which he is accustomed. Sometimes it is a good idea to wait several days before trying the new food a second time.

Parents 'anxiety about their children's eating is frequently the cause of poor food habits. Even babies and very young children may refuse to eat, as a means of getting attention. Habitual refusal should always be a sign for talking things over with the doctor. Children's appetites, like those of adults, may vary from day to day, so that an occasional lack of appetite should not cause alarm. No attempt should be made to force the child to eat as it is likely to result in an emotional upset, which may have a permanent effect on his attitude toward food. Also when a child who has always had a good appetite refuses to eat, it may mean that the child is not well or is not getting enough rest.

HOURS OF SLEEP

The very young baby sleeps from 20 to 22 hours out of the 24, but gradually the length of time he sleeps grows less, until at 6 months he is sleeping about 16 or 18 hours.

From the first he should have his longest sleep period at night, for your sake as well as his own. By the time he is 9 months old, he should be having 12 unbroken hours of sleep a night. As the amount of sleep your baby needs grows less, you will find that one of his daytime naps become shorter. Perhaps before he is 18 months old he will no longer need two naps a day. Between the ages of 2 and 6 years the number of hours a child sleeps gradually decreases from about 13 to 11 hours out of the 24.

Early to bed should be the rule all through childhood. Also, every young child needs a nap during the day. Some children tend to omit the nap earlier than others. The regularity with which you stick to a certain hour for naps will greatly encourage the continuance of the habit.

The place where your baby sleeps should not be too bright and should be protected from sudden noises and interruptions. However it will not always be possible for him to sleep where it is completely dark and quiet, so it is advisable not to pull the shades all down, not to shut out every bit of noise. The baby should sleep in his own bed when possible. Both he and the mother will sleep better separately, and the baby will not form the habit of having his mother lie down beside him when he goes to bed. A young child also should have a bed to himself. There should be a constant circulation of fresh air in the room in which you, baby or young child sleeps. In warm weather all open windows should be well screened against flies and mosquitoes. Bed covers should be adapted to the temperature of the room.

Canada's Population Grows, Reports C.N.R. Official

TORONTO. Canada has regained the immigration vision she lost in the 30's and today was adding a million people to its population every three years, J. S. McGowan, director of colonization and agriculture, Canadian National Railways told a farmers' day audience at the Canadian National Exhibition.

Unlike the first period of immigration that was based on land settlement, the second great period now proceeding was founded on the needs of industry, he said. With a population of 25 million by 1975, the domestic market would assume added significance for the farmer, Mr. McGowan predicted.

As a policy for the future he suggested first a thickening of settled area to provide an even greater working force and, secondly, a policy of economic soundness that would attract and hold the best rural citizens on the land.

Paradise Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaunt of Edmonton were recent visitors in the district. They were former residents of Moyerton and while here made their home with Mrs. Gaunt's mother Mrs. L. H. Warren.

Mrs. Frank Kirby and son Berry of Edmonton came down on Monday for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clay who have spent the past six weeks in Edmonton arrived back on the farm on Monday.

The weather during the past week has been, to say the least, very erratic. Showers have occurred in parts of the district holding up harvesting operations while others have been able to keep the combines going. The yield is proving much better than expected. However, with the elevators all filled they are not able to dispose of any wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Acheson and family of Trail, B.C., have moved into rooms in the Adams building. Mr. Acheson is driving one of Miller's trucks.

School has started again and [illegible] are getting straightened out. We understand that another room is to be opened with Mrs. E. Welsh in [illegible]. This will make 6 rooms at this point. Don [illegible] and [illegible] Clay have gone to Lutheran College at [illegible]. Rose Bleckham, [illegible] all have gone to Kitscoty. We hope by another year the powers that be will see fit to give us better school service at this point. We need it.

The 4-H Garden club held their Achievement day on Tuesday Sept. 15. The exhibits [illegible] the short program of songs, music, demonstrations and speeches were enjoyed. The audience was small owing to the busy time of the year. G. Braithwaite, Wheat Pool representative and Miss E. [illegible], district home economist were judges. Prize winners will be announced later.

WILD FOWL STUFFINGS

BREAD STUFFING -- (dry or crumbly): Fat 2 to 3 tbsp., Dry bread crumbs 4cups, Salt 1 teaspoon, Poultry seasoning ½ teaspoon, Onion finely chopped ¼ - two-thirds cup, Pepper ⅛ teaspoon. Heat fat in frying pan. Add onion and cook over low heat until soft. Add bread crumbs and seasonings and mix well.

Savoury Stuffing — Add ⅓ cup chopped celery leaves and stalks with onion. Omit poultry seasoning, add 1 teaspoon savoury and ⅛ teaspoon thyme.

Giblet Stuffing — Simmer the giblets, allowing about 1 to 3 hours for heart, gizzard and neck, 5 minutes for the liver. Chop coarsely and measure. Substitute for an equal amount of bread crumbs.

Sausage Stuffing — Break 1 lb. sausage into small chunks, brown lightly. Substitute fat for part of the butter. Add sausage to bread crumbs.

Fruit Stuffing — Omit onion. Decrease bread crumbs to 3 cups. Add 1 cup chopped seeded raisins or steamed prunes or steamed apricots coarsely chopped.

Mushroom Stuffing — Cook 1 cup sliced mushroom with the onion.

Potato Stuffing -- Take out 2 and two-thirds cups bread crumbs, substitute with 2 and two-thirds cups hot mashed potatoes. Omit poultry seasoning. Add 1½ teaspoons sage.

Moist Bread Stuffing — Add one-third cups water, milk, cream, condensed celery soup or mushroom soup.

New England Stuffing — Toasted bread to make 4 cups crumbs: 2 tbsp. fat, 1 large onion: 1 tbsp. of grated orange rind, 1 tsp. salt, pepper, ⅛ tsp. each savory, marjoram, thyme, celery leaves and parsley. Fry onion in fat, add to crumbs, add remaining ingredients and mix thoroughly. Stir into this, one slightly beaten egg. Orange flavor will permeate the chicken or turkey to give delicious result.

ACCOMPANIMENTS WITH DUCK OR GOOSE

1. Savoury Applesauce — Strained unsweetened applesauce, 3 cups. Sugar, ⅓ cup Nutmeg, ⅛ tsp.; prepared horseradish, ⅓ cup. Heat until sugar is dissolved.
2. Apple Garnish. Peel and halve 3 or 4 apples, allowing ½ apple to each serving. Remove core. Fill centers with brown sugar and top with a dash of tomato sauce. Place in a shallow pan. Add ½ cup water and bake at 450F for 45 minutes.
3. Hot or Cold Spiced Fruits
4. Currant Jelly

HERBS FOR SEASONING

Chicken and Turkey -- Parsley, marjoram, savoury, curry powder, rosemary.

Chicken — Tarragon — To gravy add onion, salt, and a bit of mace or nutmeg. For fried chicken, add a tablespoon of curry to the flour in which you dip the chicken before frying. A bit of poultry seasoning is fine in the gravy to go with fried chicken.

Turkey — Sage.
Duck — Sage, rosemary, tarragon, basil.
Goose — Sage, marjoram.

F. U. A. EXECUTIVE MEETS

The Executive of the Farmers' Union of Alberta met in Edmonton Sept. 14 and 15 with all members present except A. R. Hadland of Baldonnel, B.C. Those who attended included President Henry Young, FWUA President Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Wainwright, Vice-President Carl Stimpfle of Egremont, R. N. Russell of Athabasca and A. B. Wood of Dewberry.

A strong protest against the recent increase in gasoline prices has been made by this organization. The President was instructed to contact the Premier and arrange for an interview for members of the Executive if possible, to go into this matter further.

Plans were made for the F.U.A. annual convention which is to be held at the Alberta College auditorium in Edmonton Dec. 7 to 11 next. With the membership figure at an all-time high, it is expected this next convention will be a large one.

The Resolutions committee will meet in Edmonton Oct. 5 to go over resolutions received, and will consolidate them for presentation to the annual convention.

Plans are going ahead to raise money for the F.U.A. Building fund. Property has already been purchased and it is hoped to build an office next year if possible. Paper 'bricks' are being printed and will be offered at $1 each to raise funds.

Allandale Notes

(Held over from last week)

We're having splendid harvest weather. The fields are covered with stooks or the grain lying in swaths. Combining and threshing has commenced in the district.

Mr Edwards has returned from his holidays to the east. He has been home for a few weeks.

We're pleased to state that Mrs. Nora Ronaghan is home from the Islay hospital where she spent a week and is feeling quite well. Her daughter Rhena is teaching at Clandonald.

A shower for the bride-elect, Miss Verna Krause, was held at the Wm. Krause home on the afternoon of Aug. 31. Mrs. Krause was also present. Verna thanked the ladies very graciously for her gifts. The hostess and those responsible for the lovely afternoon, Mrs. Mary Wilson, and Mrs. Thelma Armstrong, served a lovely lunch.

We surely appreciated the sound of the road maintainer on Sept. 3. This improved the roads immensely smoothing out the deep ruts.

Mrs. Bessie Hamilton, sister of Hugh McPhee spent a few days at their home coming on Sept. 3 and leaving on the 6th for her home in Victoria. Previously Bessie accompanied Mr. Dave McPhee and daughter Jean east.

Mr and Mrs Tommy Greaves and daughter Brenda were visitors at the latter's parents home Mr. and Mrs. Baldock over the long week end.

On Aug. 30th Mr and Mrs. Ed Magistad took Ed's sister Ann and family back to South Dakota. They returned on Sept. 5th.

Some of the Allandale ladies attended the shower held at the Heckbert home on Sept. 3 for Miss Verna Krause. The gifts received were lovely and numerous.

On Sept 6th Don Wilson accompanied by Orley Omness motored to Lac La Biche taking Mrs. Della Walsh and family. They were meeting Jimmy Walsh there in the evening and would leave for Ft. McMurray Waterways the next day.

It was a fine evening for the Armstrong Krause wedding Sept. 9th. The bridal group was lovely and the bride very charming. To Verna and Jimmy our very best wishes, may happiness and good health be with you always. Our thanks to the bride's parents for a lovely evening at the reception.

The Allandale W.A. met at Mr. McBride's on the 18th. Though the members weren't all present we had a very fine afternoon. We welcomed our visitors Miss Haggart, Mrs. Jim Johnson, Mrs. Osterberg, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Cooper and Mr. Ed Fabtwin. There will be no October meeting.

The November meeting will be at the R. Strome home. Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. McPhee on the lunch committee. Mr. McBride was presented with a birthday cake all decorated and covered with 82 candles. May you have many more 'happy birthdays'.

The big white house from the Lee farm was moved into Vermilion on Sept. 10 taking a few days to get it there. It is on the lot on the corner just east of the skating rink.

Sept. 13th was our Harvest Home service and the final one for the summer. Miss Haggart gave a very fine sermon as they all were during the summer which went all too quickly. Miss Haggart and Miss Horning were leaving from Wainwright at 12 30 a.m. Monday for the east. Our best wishes go with them and a safe journey home.

School opened on the 14th and we welcome our teacher Mrs. Bobroski to the district for the term.

Closing thought: Many of our cares are but a morbid way of looking at our privileges.

Diesel Engine Course Offered At Calgary

A six weeks' Diesel engine service and maintenance course will be offered this fall at the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art, Calgary.

The course, which is being offered for the first time, will give personnel a short, intensive training in the theory and techniques of Diesel engine maintenance.

Students will receive 120 hours of shop work on such subjects as cylinder re-boring, valve-inserting, testing and re-building injection equipment, and starting and electrical systems. Classroom instruction, totalling 60 hours, will deal with all types of Diesel engines, starting, fuel injection and cooling and lubricating systems, fuels, lubricating oils and horsepower.

No specific educational requirements are needed for entry, although the course is designed to benefit particularly men with experience in the operation and care of Diesel engines.

The course runs from Nov. 9 to Dec. 18. Enrollment is limited, so applications for the course should be made as soon as possible.

Islay District Locals

(Written for last week)

Mrs. N. M. Coombe spent a week in Vermilion recently staying with Mrs. Ellen Gould. Mrs. C. Underdown gave an informal party to celebrate Mrs. Coombe's birthday with those enjoying the gathering being Mrs. E. Gould, Mrs. A. Cameron, Miss June Underdown and a playmate Kamie, Joyce the hostess, and her aunt, Nellie, whose birthday it was. A delicious ice cake, graced with pink candles was served. All had a jolly time.

The three Coombe brothers, Francis, Herbert and Dale spent two weeks on farms in the Islay district. Francis with his grandmother and the other two with their aunt. Father Golby. (All three returned home Sunday evening. Mr and Mrs Ray Coombe and daughter Nellie motoring down for them. Previously ten guests sat down to supper at the Coombe farm. All but three journeyed to Edmonton in two cars, Mrs. Coombe and George returning the following day.

Monday afternoon the Parkers of Kitscoty, Burt and Helen, also their daughter Grace and Jean called on the writer bringing a surprise supper, and a joint celebration was enjoyed, birthdays of Nellie Coombe and Helen Parker being close together. A jolly time was held.

Harvest is now well underway and some farms are cut and stooked while others are swathed and are being threshed. Gardens are bountiful. So far there have been no killing frosts, however leaves are turning on trees and shrubs and yellows and crimsons are a delight to see. Birds have now left their nesting places and are feeding in the fields. One misses their cheery songs.

Does TV Cut Receipts?

Canadian sports promoters still have a pessimistic view of TV coverage. But it looks as though they are changing their minds, The Financial Post reports.

A TV manufacturing executive claims that telecasting actually increased audiences in Montreal, and first class sports events will attract paying customers in the face of full television and radio coverage ... a mediocre event won't even enjoy high attendance with TV blacked out.

Many Attend Meeting At Vegreville

First Fall Rally Of St. Paul W.M.S.

The first fall rally of the recently formed St. Paul United Women's Missionary Society Presbyterial was held Wednesday afternoon Sept. 23 in the Vegreville United church with delegates and visitors attending from Lloydminster, Marwayne, Kitscoty, Fenham, Vermilion, Minburn, Vegreville, Wainwright, Holden and Vilna.

The first vice-president Mrs. M. Hill of Vermilion was in the chair and an inspiring worship service was given by Mrs. Long and Mrs. Matheson, also of Vermilion. Mrs. Mather, on behalf of the Vegreville W.M.S. very graciously welcomed the Presbyterial and the Rev G. E. Mather brought greetings from the Presbytery.

FILL VACANT OFFICES

An election was held to fill some offices made vacant by resignations, and the following is a complete list of officers:

President - Mrs. J. A. Hamilton, Wainwright.
1st Vice-President - Mrs. M. Hill, Vermilion.
2nd Vice-President—Mrs. W. A. Adam, Elk Point.
3rd Vice President — Mrs. G. L. Hay, Ryley.
4th Vice-President — Mrs. G. B. Mather, Vegreville.
Recording Sec. — Mrs. W. F. Nicholson, Vegreville.
Corresponding Sec. — Mrs. L. F. Mitchell, Wainwright.
Treasurer — Mrs. W. A. Hendrick, Vegreville.
Secretary of Christian Stewardship — Mrs. G. Rhyason, Cold Lake.
Secretary of Mission Circles — Miss Mary Clark, Cold Lake.
Sec. of C.G.I.T. — Miss Ila Newton, Vilna.
Sec. of Mission Bands — Mrs. A. J. Thorsley Ryley.
Sec of Baby Bands — Mrs. John Zeigler, Vegreville.
Assoc. Members' Sec. — Miss Bessie Anderson, Islay.
Supply Sec. — Mrs. S. J. Fisher, Lloydminster.

Missionary Monthly and World Friends Sec. — Mrs. L. Parsons, Sec. of Christian Citizenship — Mrs. W. L. Roebuck, Vermilion.
Press Sec. — Mrs. J. G. Inglis, Kitscoty.

FINANCES & ALLOCATIONS

Finances were discussed and allocations made. Mrs. Thorne spoke briefly on Training School building fund and urged that all societies meet their obligations. The Presbyterial was invited to Vermilion for the annual meeting in February.

GUEST SPEAKER

Mrs. O. W. Thorne of Red Deer was guest speaker and chose as her topic, "The Relation of the Women's Association and the Women's Missionary Society". She discussed the broadened program of the Women's Association and pointed out, that, in some departments its work and that of the Women's Missionary Society are similar. Then she outlined the plans under consideration at the present time to bring about a federation of women's work in the church.

During the afternoon a vocal solo by Mrs. Ferguson of Vegreville, and an organ selection by Mrs. Adam of Elk Point were much enjoyed. At the conclusion of the meeting the visitors for a second time partook of the generous hospitality provided by the Vegreville ladies.

CANADIAN CLUB MEETING OCT. 8th

DONALD GRANT OF OTTAWA GUEST SPEAKER

The Vermilion Canadian club was organized by some of the people of Vermilion to take advantage of the great international speakers sent out to bring information on world and Canadian events. The club is anxious that as many people as possible take advantage of the opportunities offered by the Canadian club. It is hoped that many of the farm population will join this year and avail themselves of the privilege of hearing the talented speakers.

Already this year the Canadian club has four outstanding speakers scheduled with arrangements underway for four more. The speakers already booked are: Donald Grant, Oct. 8, on the subject "Danger Spots and Growing Points in this Modern World."

B. K. Sandwell, Editor-in-Chief of Toronto Saturday Night, Nov. 26, on "Our Part of North America".

Major General Odlum, former ambassador to China and Turkey will speak on "A Canadian Diplomat Looks at the Far East".

J. Alex Edmundson, Q.C., assistant to Principal of Queen's University, subject "The Eternal Problem of Crime and Criminals".

The next meeting Thursday Oct 8th is a dinner meeting at the Legion hall commencing at 6 30. Please contact Mrs. M. Hill if desirous of attending as catering must be arranged.

MASTER FARM FAMILY AWARDS

ST. PAUL FARMER IS WINNER FOR THIS AREA

Winners of the Master Farm Family awards for 1953 were announced this week by Hon. D. A. Ure, Minister of Agriculture. This is the 5th year that the Alberta Department of Agriculture has sponsored the Master Farm Family program.

Each family receives an award of $1000, an engraved plaque, and a name plate for the entrance.

Main objective of the program is to provide Alberta farmers with a practical demonstration of how a family can achieve success in farming and in family and community life. The program is intended to emphasize the advantages of the farming vocation and the spiritual and material rewards of farm life. Through the program, farm youth become aware of the opportunities in agriculture and the ideals for which professional farmers strive.

Archie's A Good Scout

Archie Miller, the benign appearing gentleman who used to officiate as timekeeper every time Lloydminster hockey team played here is a good scout. Everyone who knows Archie from hereabouts is already well aware of this but he further stabilized this fact last week end when he sent Jack Brown a cheque for 5 bucks with the following note:

"I overheard a conversation that your hockey club was a little in the red and that you are selling some tickets of some kind in order to help defray expenses. I have always enjoyed myself in Vermilion and to make for better sport we have to be sports together.

I am therefore enclosing $5 to you as a little contribution and hope that it will help out."

Archie Miller, Lloydminster

ALLANDALE SCHOOL

Dance at Allandale school Friday Oct. 16 sponsored by the Junior Red Cross. Good music. Admission 50c. Ladies please bring cake. Everybody welcome. 14-15c

Pioneer Lady, Mrs. H. W. Brown Passes Away

Mrs. Bertha Lilian Brown, beloved wife of Mr. H. Wentworth Brown, passed away at the Vermilion hospital on Saturday, Sept. 26. Mrs. Brown was born at Brandon, Man., just over 70 years ago. She came with her husband to Vermilion in May, 1906. For three years they lived in the then new town, before moving to their homestead just 6 miles north. This has since been the family home.

Left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother are her sorrowing husband, three sons, Corydon at home, Kenneth at Vancouver, Wash., U.S.A., Lloyd at Alberni, B.C., and two daughters, Lucille (Mrs. L. B. Botkin) Kamloops, B.C., and Grace (Mrs. C. H. Brown) at Port Alberni, B.C. A brother H. W. Flager, resides at Losqueti Island, B.C.

Funeral services are being held this Thursday, Oct. 1, at the First United church at 2 00 o'clock in the afternoon. Interment will be at the Vermilion cemetery.

Moyer's are in charge of funeral arrangements.

1600 Bushels of Oats From 14 Acres

REMARKABLE YIELD ON WATLING BROS. FARM

1600 bushels of oats from 14 acres of breaking was the remarkable yield obtained on the farm of Watling Bros. at Claysmore. In addition to this the oats are Registered Eagle.

I.O.D.E. Sponsors C.N.I.B. Campaign

The annual campaign for funds in aid of The Canadian National Institute for the Blind will be sponsored in Vermilion by Frog Lake Chapter I.O.D.E. This was announced this week by its Regent Mrs. R. H. Norton. In making this announcement Mrs. Norton urged all local citizens to support this worthy appeal as generously as possible.

"Blind people", she said, "have suffered a great loss and the best way we can help them face their difficulties is to support the only organization which is engaged in a general service program on their behalf."

Founded in 1918, the C.N.I.B. has had 35 years of experience in meeting and dealing with the problems of the blind. As a result, it has developed facilities, services and the trained personnel which are invaluable to the blind. Through its adjustment training, its job placement and employment programs, its general welfare and other services, it is helping to restore blind people to an independent and useful place in society. Of the more than 20,000 blind people now registered with the C.N.I.B. in Canada, more than 1000 are in Alberta.

"Unfortunately", said Mrs. Norton, "new cases of blindness are constantly being brought to the attention of the C.N.I.B. These newly blinded people perhaps more than any others, needs its counselling and its services. By our support we must keep it in a position to meet all the many demands which are being made upon it."

Walls Up and Roof Trusses Erected

NEW CURLING RINK TAKING SHAPE

Now that the new six sheet curling rink is taking shape, it can be realized what an ambitious undertaking the project is. The walls around the ice surface have been completed. They are built of sawdust blocks through the centre of which is poured cement making a very solid and compact wall. The outside and inside of the walls is then covered with a thin layer of cement which adds to the appearance and durability. This last step has not been completed.

The mammoth job of building the ten roof trusses, each one weighing three tons, and then hoisting them into place, has also been done, giving a complete outline of the rink. What will be the ice surface is absolutely clear at present, with the trusses spanning from one wall to the other. There will be one row of supports running down the centre. The big space now enclosed measures 96 feet wide by 150 feet long.

YOUR CONTRIBUTION NEEDED

Funds to carry on and finish the project are now desperately needed. There are about $3000 in pledges still outstanding and this would come in very handy. In fact it's a 'must' if the new rink is to be carried on to the success which it deserves. Make your donation today to A. Locke ... after all you promised it yourself for sure.

Lake Named To Honor Late W. A. Fallow

A lake about 15 miles east of Grande Prairie has been named Lake Fallow in honor of the late W. A. Fallow, minister of public works, railways and telephones in Alberta from 1935 to 1948.

The Geographic Board of Alberta said the lake is 9 miles northwest of Crooked Creek north of the High Prairie-Grande Prairie highway.

Mr Fallow was mayor of Vermilion from 1922 until 1935 when he was elected to the provincial legislature as the member for Vermilion constituency. He was re-elected in 1940 and successfully contested Gainsford constituency in 1944. Appointed to the provincial cabinet in 1935 he held the public works, railways and telephone portfolio until his death May 3, 1948.

The First Week In October

Scout Apple Day Drive for Funds

The Vermilion Boy Scouts Association and Boy Scout troop are sponsoring the annual Apple Day drive for funds during the first week of October. Householders and general public will be approached by the boys themselves. Business places, service clubs, lodges, etc will be contacted by committee members and by letter.

Funds are required to supply heat, light and maintenance for the Scout hall, tent and training matter and equipment, badge prizes liability and accident insurance cooking and camping equipment transportation, camp operation etc.

Because of the generous and wholehearted support of the community as a whole this past year it has been possible to maintain the organization which embraces some 150 boys and girls in Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies.

Outstanding leadership and widespread public interest and support has provided a large number of our boys and girls with a character training program comprehensive in scope and high in accomplishment.

The Vermilion Boy Scouts Association recommends the work of this citizenship training organization as meriting your support and confidence. Your financial assistance is respectfully solicited, and will be much appreciated.

The leaders for 1953-54 are:

Brownies — Mrs. Grace Stewart, Mrs. Carol Moffatt.

Guides — Mrs. Jean Manyluk, Mrs. G. Clendenning.

Cubs — No. 1 Pack, Mrs. Bert Calvert, Mrs. Gladys MacDonald. No. 2 Pack, W. H. Robinson, Neil Crawford, Mrs. Jerry Glass.

Scouts — Wm. Nankivelle, Mitchell Taylor, Moss Dixon.

C. G. I. T. Re-organizes

ACTIVE SEASON IN PROSPECT

An organization meeting of the C. G. I. T. in the form of a pot-luck supper, was held in the United church hall on Monday, Sept. 28, after a bountiful and novel meal, at which 30 girls and 6 leaders sat down. Last year's president Erva Sweet was chairman.

The missionary part of the meeting was comprised of two C.G.I.T. girls, Margaret Goodwin and Irene Adam, telling of their mission study during summer camp at Lake Whitney.

Donna Cooper and Sue Carmichael gave short stories of the C.G.I.T. camp held this summer under the heading "I Remember". Anne Stewart and Helen Adam gave talks on their swimming instructions.

Officers for the ensuing year were then elected as follows:

President — Anne Stewart
Vice-Pres. — Sue Carmichael
Sec.-Treas. — Margaret Goodwin
Press Corresp. — Donna Cooper
Social Conv. — Connie Harle

Group representatives are to be elected at the next meeting.

LEADERS FOR YEAR

Leaders for the year are Mrs. Kathleen Stewart, departmental, Junior group, Miss Ruth Marfleet and Mrs Betty Brimacombe. Intermediate, Mrs. Annabelle Robinson and Mrs Rita Cooper. Senior, Mrs Eileen Kosell and Mrs. Elsie Dalby.

C. G. I. T. meetings are held every Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the church hall.

Wm. Jaremco Killed In Tractor Accident

FORMER DERWENT MAN

Wm. Jaremco, son of Mr. and Mrs Harry Jaremco of Derwent, died in the Lloydminster hospital on Friday Sept. 25 following an accident on his farm two miles south of Kitscoty. Mr. Jaremco who was 24 years of age was operating a tractor and combine, apparently got between the two machines and was run over by the combine.

He had lived in the Derwent district until a little more than a year ago when he moved to the farm just two miles south of Kitscoty. He was married and leaves his wife and one baby, as well as his parents, brothers and sisters in the Derwent district.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning Sept. 30 from the residence of his parents to the Ascension Greek Catholic church, south of Derwent. The Rev. Father Charkowski officiated.

Moyer's were in charge of arrangements.

A.T.A. Convention October 15th and 16th

The Wages Spiral Important Labor Signal

The wage-price spiral — slowing down over the past year—may be definitely flattening out.

An important sign came in the surprise announcement that Canada's 130,000 non-operating railway employees would not ask any pay increase in 1954 negotiations.

It is important for these reasons says The Financial Post

It comes from one of the largest labor groups. It's the first major pronouncement on 1954 wage policy. The rail unions apparently expect other unions to follow suit.

The cost of living has been holding within a narrow range up a little some months down a little others. Another round of wage increases next year could start the spiral up again. But the rail union move may well be the first major step toward relative stability.

Meat Producing Countries

Many Canadians who think their country is one of world's great meat producers, will be surprised to learn this is not the case. In its latest bulletin, Industrial and Development Council of Canadian Meat Packers notes that while Canada produced a little under two billion pounds of meat last year, this was only 2.6% of the world's total. U. K. with 3.7 per cent, produced nearly half as much again.

Chief meat producers last year were U.S., 29.8% Russia and Eastern Europe, 16.8% Argentina 6.2 per cent France and Germany 5.8 per cent each.

Canadian contribution to world meat supply is not only small but is declining since 1946 [illegible] average was 3.1 per cent. Trend seems unwise in view of probability that world demand for meat will continue [illegible]

If your child [has] reddish, watering eyes. These may be signs of a [vision] problem. With a year's school ahead make sure he sees well so that he may learn well.

Quebec is Canada's major producer of asbestos. Of the 928,487 tons of asbestos shipped from the Canadian mines in 1952, 905,308 tons or 97% came from Quebec.

Canadian Legion Notes

President Martin wishes to urge a full attendance of members at the next meeting, Monday Oct. 12.

Election of officers is on the agenda. Nominations were made at the September meeting but other nominations can be made before ballots are passed around on Oct. 12.

It may not be generally known that the Provincial government gives grants to assist children of deceased or disabled veterans in obtaining a high school education. Further information can be had from your secretary.

There are 136 members of this Branch. This is only half of the veterans in the area. You are all invited to join up. If there was no branch here you would not like it. Surely every veteran ought to belong to his own organization. Don't squeeze that $5 when others give their branch loyal support year after year.

Now about your ballot for the beer license. There are still 45 of our members who have not sent in their ballots. The deadline is here. You should vote as your vote may be the one to break a tie. President Martin asks that you do something right away about sending in your ballot. If you have missed it, ask your secretary for another one.

Another season of meetings is about to start. The Legion hall and kitchen is as usual available to all organizations in the district.

An important executive meeting is called for Friday at 8.30. Would everyone please try to attend.

Mannville Old Timer Buried at Salem, Ore.

MANNVILLE. — Funeral services were held in McQueen Memorial United church on Wednesday, Sept. 9th for Mr. L. H. Ekin who passed away on Sept. 6 in the Mannville hospital after a short illness. Rev. R. C. Crighton officiated. Honorary pallbearers were Messrs. V. Mark, G. K. Braty, R. Wagner, L. Donnenworth, N. Crooks and Dr. H. L. Murray. Pallbearers were Messrs. S. Olsonberg, M. Johnson, J. Bennett, D. Otto, S. Buckss and J. Pulyk.

Many beautiful floral tributes were received and donations made to the Cancer Fund, Anglican Memorial Fund and McQueen United Church Memorial Fund, and the Cemetery Fund.

Remains were taken to Salem, Oregon for burial where Mrs. Ekin was met by her daughter Mrs. Vereena Ayers and other relatives. Funeral services were held in the chapel of Clough and Barrick Funeral Home and interment was made in Belcrest Memorial cemetry.

He is survived by his wife at Mannville, one daughter Mrs. Vereena Ayres of Stockton, Calif., one sister and three brothers also in the States.

GOOD VISION
A "Must" for your Child

Society today is a competitive one. Our economy is built around competition. Our children learn the meaning of competition early in life. They must compete with their brothers and sisters for their share of parental attention. It is very necessary that the child be able to compete favorably with his mates.

In the pre-school days the field of competition is play. In the school years it is academic and play. Vision plays an extremely vital role in both of these activities. A pre-school child whose visual development is lagging cannot possibly do the things his normally-developed playmate can. If that child enters school with a lagging visual development he will find he is again unable to compete favorably.

In pre-school years he has had no ruler by which to measure his abilities. But now his daily school life is one wherein those who do well are praised and receive good ratings. Those who don't, may be criticized for poor ratings.

To the young, unknowing mind this creates frustration, and from this state emerges the behavior pattern which may affect him for the rest of his life. His inability to compete may cause an unfavorable attitude to school and ultimately to parents. He may seek the attention he desires by unfavorable conduct. He may become the truant, the delinquent.

Visual problems which are the cause of such behavior patterns may go undetected for years. Since over 80% of a child's schoolroom activity is done within arm's length, his ability to read a distant row of letters as an 'eye test' is no accurate gauge of his visual attainment.

Our society demands much of our children today. Give them every assistance possible. Help them to see better, they'll learn better.

OCTOBER 4 TO 10
Fire Prevention Week

NOW IS THE TIME to start a good habit — Fire Prevention. Always be on the watch for fire hazards. Your Fire Department has a big job to do in its Fire Inspection Service and training and equipping firemen for adequate fire control.

BUT YOU MUST HELP! Fire feeds on careless deeds, so help eliminate the common cause of fire.

PLEASE . . .

- DO NOT LEAVE MATCHES WITHIN THE REACH OF SMALL CHILDREN
- DO NOT SMOKE IN BED OR DISPOSE OF CIGARETS CARELESSLY
- DO NOT PUT ASHES IN A WOODEN OR PAPER CONTAINER
- DO NOT BRING GASOLINE OR KEROSENE INTO THE HOME
- DO NOT TAKE CHANCES WITH FAULTY ELECTRIC WIRING, FAULTY CHIMNEYS AND STOVE PIPES
- DO NOT ALLOW RUBBISH TO PILE UP IN BASEMENT OR ATTIC

REMEMBER . . .

A careful person seldom has a fire, a clean orderly place seldom burns.

Hon. C. E. Gerhart, Prov. Secretary — A. E. Bridges, Fire Commissioner

BATTERY vs. EDITOR

WHY ROMMEL WAS "THE LITTLE MAN WHO WASN'T THERE"

by JOHN CHRISTY

During the African campaigns of World War 2, allied armies were amazed at the ability of German General Rommel's tanks to start at any time of the day or night. The Afrika Korps tankers just hopped into their vehicles, mashed the starter switch and took off. This despite desert heat or the intense cold of the Sahara night.

The abrupt changes in weather conditions raised hob with the batteries in the British and American tanks and trucks. Allied maintenance crews were kept hopping to keep them in shape or to replace burnt out units. During the last part of the campaign, Rommel's men were kept on the go so much that there wasn't time for maintenance. Still the German equipment started.

It wasn't until several undamaged German tanks fell into Allied hands that the reason was discovered in the German batteries. Outwardly similar, the German equipment differed considerably inside. It was found that the plates were thicker and separators thinner. Analysis showed that the lead alloy in the plates was much harder and of far better quality than the material used in Allied equipment. The electrolyte solution in the case was similar but contained slightly less acid.

It was immediately apparent that the Germans, faced with a material shortage were unable to afford constant replacement of their equipment and so had to have the very best in order to make it last. This it did.

During the war, there wasn't any time to change U.S. production to say nothing of the expense involved. However, it was only natural that after the war someone would leap on the problem of manufacture for the popular market. Someone did. It took several years to figure out how to manufacture the batteries commercially and at a good price as well as to do the job the Germans did.

Frank Williams of Consolidated Engineering Corp., in Culver City, California proceeded to demonstrate one of the batteries in his own car, a convertible. He pulled the coil lead out so that the engine wouldn't start. Then he pushed the starter button and held it down. At the same time he turned on the headlights, radio, and heater. One of the staff started raising and lowering the electrically operated windows. The starter kept growling and growling and growling. The din was awful and it kept up. Kept up for about 20 minutes to be exact. Finally the battery seemed to go a little weak around the edges.

All activities ceased for 2 minutes. Then it started again with the same [illegible] when we first started [illegible]

[illegible] we put the battery in a car, disconnect the coil and drive the car as far as we could on the starter alone. The man was agreeable.

We installed the Life-Time battery [illegible]

[illegible] office. The thing is still in the car with no sign of fatigue.

We hate to admit it but we were outlasted by a battery.

MERCURY CUSTOM FOUR-DOOR SEDAN

Mercury beauty PLUS all-new power features !*

Road Test the beautiful Mercury. All-new power features take the tiresome work out of driving, leave just the pleasure. As you step on the starter, a thrift-proven V-8 engine eagerly springs to life, so smooth, so whisper quiet. On the road, livelier performance, easier handling, smoother riding and safer stopping will win your admiration, too!

Mercury POWER STEERING* at your fingertips makes handling easier — does three quarters of the work. Mercury POWER BRAKES* give smoother, faster stops with half the effort. Mercury's 4-WAY POWER SEAT* adjusts at a touch — and you're driver-fitted to the most comfortable driving position.

If you haven't already enjoyed a Mercury Road Test, see your Mercury dealer. Find out why others say, "the new, beautiful Mercury is the greatest yet — so completely powered."

3-WAY CHOICE IN TRANSMISSIONS: Merc-O-Matic Drive, greatest of all automatic transmissions; or thrifty Touch-O-Matic Overdrive (both optional on all models); or Silent-Ease Synchronized Standard Transmission.

*Optional at extra cost.

MERCURY V-8 as always!

Mercury POWER STEERING now available on all models keeps the vital feel-of-the-road — you know you're in full command of the car. When more than fingertip pressure is needed, hydraulic "muscles" take over, make steering 4 times easier. Lets you park in the tightest spots with ease.

All-new optional POWER BRAKES require little more than accelerator pressure. The weight of your foot holds car on a hill. Straight-line stopping is up to 10% easier — faster, too, because lower, closer pedal permits quick changing from gas pedal to brake — cuts reaction time.

Mercury POWER SEAT, now optional on all models. It adjusts four ways to provide your "just right" position. Simply press a button to move seat up or down, forward or back for the position from which you can see the best and drive the easiest with most relaxation.

There's no clutch, no gear shifting — MERC-O-MATIC is fully automatic. To go, set lever and step on gas. It gives instant, smooth power response. There's automatic down shift for hill climbing. There's positive, safe control on curves. MERC-O-MATIC Drive is available on all models.

Mannville High School Initiates Students and Teachers

MANNVILLE. — Is she a she, or is she a he or is he an it? Yes, you guessed it — Mannville High school initiation day again.

This year's initiates were required to dress as follows:

Boys — Short skirts with blouses, jewelry, make-up, nylons with runs, and oddly matched shoes. Curly hair was a requirement, but not much in evidence due to the crew cuts.

Girls — Men's shirts, ties and jeans (all on backwards), oddly matched shoes, hair tucked under boys' hats and no make-up was allowed.

Truly they were the most beautiful initiates M.H.S. has had in a long time and the school was kept in fits of laughter, especially when our new principal, Mr. Doherty and Mrs. Park made their appearance in the required costumes. As one might imagine it was rather difficult to concentrate on lessons with such beguiling instructors in front of you!

At 11:30 a.m. the Senior students dragged the 'babies' through the primary and intermediate rooms and then through the business section of the town in traditional snake-dance style. We are 'glad' to report that only a few came out of the dance without bruised knees, sore muscles and hoarse voices.

The party at night got off to a late start due to harvesting activities but a fairly large crowd was on hand to witness the court hearing of Mrs. Park and Mr. Doherty. Mrs. Park was found guilty of wearing a school sweater on the pretense of being a high school girl. She was sentenced to 200 days of teaching Mannville high school students. Mr. Doherty was found guilty of absent-mindedness where his Lit book was concerned and was ordered to paint said book a bright attractive color.

The other 'initiates' along with the new teachers present were also mad to pay their consequences, all of which proved highly amusing to the audience.

Dancing filled out the night's activities with music supplied by the Girls' orchestra. Lunch was served at 12 o'clock after which the party came to an end.

Salary Schedule Is Reached In Vegreville School Division

VEGREVILLE. — The September meeting of the Board of Trustees Vegreville S.D. reached a final settlement with the teachers' committee on the question of a new salary schedule to be effective Sept. 1.

Chairman S. Hinton presided with Trustees A. T. Mandruk, W. J. Porayko, L. S. Cole, M. T. Tym, and R. J. Whitson. Salary negotiations committee included H. Chomik, M. Tomyn, A. J. Fedoruk and H. White.

Under the terms of agreement reached, the division will pay basic salaries ranging from $2000 to $3100 according to number of years of university training. To these basics will be added experience increments at $100 per year to a maximum of $1100. Teachers with married status will receive a further $100.

$800 FOR SUPERVISION

Principals will be paid up to $800 for supervision and vice-principals one-half of this amount. For the coming year salaries in the division will range from the basic $2000 to a maximum of $4800. Compared with last year the main increases are the basic salary from $1800 to $2000 and the added 11th experience increment of $100.

Trustees presented reports on first week's operation of school busses. The board regretted that it was found impossible to comply with all requests for bus route extension. Efforts are being made to route to within one and one half miles of pupils' residence quarter section. Over that distance the board approved a scale of allowances to assist parents in providing transportation to meet bus.

GREATER ENROLMENT

Supt F. B. Facey's report included enrolment figures for all centralized schools, disclosing numbers higher than expected. Shortage of teachers made it necessary to close Chaily school and transportation of pupils from there to Mannville. Mrs. J. Glowski was appointed to ... ity school and Miss A. Tryn... was transferred to Imperial ... placement was rearranged at Ma... ville with Lorne Kott going to that school instead of Imperial.

Mr. Facey reported that the Vegreville Rotary club was willing to assist in the formation of a school band in Vegreville. Appreciation was expressed and the board appointed Trustees Mandruk and Cole to take any steps necessary.

The fine work being done by the Junior high school safety patrol was commended by the board. It is hoped similar organizations can be established at other centres. The division will give some token of recognition for this work. The motoring public is reminded of laws governing passing of school busses while loading or unloading passengers.

Teacher training bursary of $300 to Mary Bole of Minburn and Ruth Rodwell Ranfurly, were approved.

Vegreville division will be represented by Chairman Hinton and Tr. Whitson and Tr. Porayko at the Alberta Trustees Assoc. convention in Calgary the first week in November.

Big Cities Too Big

Metropolitan Montreal and Toronto hold one in 5 Canadians, account for nearly one-quarter of the country's total retail sales.

Look at the costs of concentration. Often two hours a day going to and from work. Big city pressures. Incidence of ulcers in downtown Montreal compared with Main Street Turtleford, Sask.

There's still a peaceful pace in the small town. The glowing promise of the morning sun shaded if at all by trees, not buildings. The ... of an ... noonhour. A sky overhead unpolluted by soot. Twilight on the front porch. Day's end.

The Season's First McIntosh Apples

WINNIPEG. — McIntosh apples from B.C.'s fertile Okanagan Valley made their first general appearance of the season in the West last week, coinciding with the movement of more than 200 carloads of the fruit by Canadian National Railways refrigerator cars to cities across the Prairies and to the Lakehead.

C.N.R. officials said here that ... boxes of McIntosh apples had already moved from the ... B.C. ... since the start of the week.

Old 'Pals' Reunite

WINNIPEG. — There was an unexpected reunion this week at Wiseton, Sask., when two weary, but sturdy travellers, shook hands for the first time in many years.

Back in February, 1919, two spanking new Canadian National Railways box cars, CN-405548 and CN-405549, rolled out of the assembly plant ready for action. In the 34 years of their existence, each has travelled close to a million miles in all directions throughout Canada and the U.S., but has never crossed paths again.

This week, by a coincidence rare in railway annals, both box cars, just two of a C.N.R. fleet of 80,000 were loaded with grain at Wiseton, and coupled together, passed through Winnipeg en route to terminal elevators at the Lakehead.

WALLY FOOTE MOVES TO CADOMIN

A young athlete whose departure is generally regretted is Wally Foote of the C.N.R. Wally was a prominent member of last winter's Tigers and scored his share of goals, as well as skating both ways and fast. This summer he has been a spark plug in maintaining an active ball club. Wally has transfererd to the C.N.R. at Cadomin leaving last Friday afternoon.

In order to celebrate her 21st birthday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Watts, who are holidaying at Sidney, Vancouver Island, Audrey Watts flew out from Edmonton on Thursday evening Sept. 17 and returned to her duties at the Royal Alexandra hospital on Monday, Sept. 21. While at Sidney, Audrey's parents had a small birthday party at which ex-Vermilionites were present, namely Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kirkpatrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brown, also a former Royal Alexandra graduate in the person of Mrs. Dickerson, who is residing in Sidney. Through the kindess of Mr. Kirkpatrick several points of interest were covered and a few former residents of Vermilion visited. Audrey's trip was via T.C.A. and being her first flight it was enjoyed to the full.

Representing Vermilion at Wainwright when the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce Friendship train visited there on Monday were President Keith Chalmers of the Vermilion Board of Trade, immediate past president Bill Sutherland, and Reg Mitchell who is a member of the executive of the Alberta Associated Boards of Trade and Agriculture. Mr. Chalmers gave a glowing report of the show put on by Wainwright in entertaining the Edmonton men and out of town visitors, claiming the army town's hospitality could not have been surpassed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scott of Calgary spent a few days during the past week visiting their daughter Mrs. C. W. MacKay, Rev. MacKay and family at the manse. Mr. Scott is a member of the firm Hay and Harding, school bus builders of Calgary.

Mrs. Melvin Hill, Mrs. W. Roebuck, Mrs. Douglas Matheson and Mrs. H. P. Long attended the first session of the Woman's Missionary Society of the St. Paul Presbyterial which was held in the United church at Vegreville on Sept. 23rd and report a splendid meeting and good attendance.

Week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Rowe were Mr. and Mrs. E. Booker, and Mrs. (Dr.) McJannett and infant son, all of Edmonton.

Mrs. Jim Kirk returned home Sunday from five weeks with her sister, Mrs. George Mullen (Beth) at Jasper. Mr. and Mrs. Mullen have recently become the proud parents of a second son.

Friends here will be pleased to learn that both Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watts are benefiting greatly from their holiday and rest at Sidney on Vancouver Island. It is a quiet spot but just what is needed for recuperation. They have seen quite a number of former Vermilion folk but Tom says that he'll find the lazy life quite attractive and that the spot is quite conducive to that.

Mr. Stewart Muir returned to his home at Vancouver last week after spending a month with his brother Will Muir of Islay who has been ill.

Bruce Winters who has spent the past three months in an Edmonton hospital where he underwent two operations, returned home last week.

Thanksgiving Day Monday, October 12

Monday, October 12th has been proclaimed as Thanksgiving Day in Canada and will be observed as a public holiday throughout the Dominion. The proclamation as issued reads as follows and might serve to enlighten many as to the reason for the setting aside of a day for general Thanksgiving.

"Whereas it hath pleased Almighty God in His great goodness to vouchsafe many blessings during this year to the people of Canada.

We therefore considering that these blessings vouchsafed to the people of Canada do call for a solemn and public acknowledgment, have thought fit by and with the advice of our Privy Council for Canada, to appoint, and we do ... by appoint Monday the Twelfth day of October next as a day of general thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings with which the people of Canada have been favoured during this year and we do hereby invite all Our People of Canada to observe the said day as a day of of general thanksgiving. 13-15

Mr. C. H. Ferguson of Derwent, had visiting him last week his two sons Harry and Byron of Vancouver and daughter Charlotte and her husband Bill Mortimer from Vancouver Island. While here they visited a number of relatives and old friends around Vermilion, Edgerton, Wainwright, Lloydminster and Mannville. The boys even got a few ducks in their spare time. They left Saturday, planning to visit brother Howard and family as well as other relatives in Edmonton, on the way back to the coast.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reg Mitchell during the past month have been Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Creswell and son Allen of River Falls, Wisc. who spent three weeks here, Miss Grace Tingvall of Los Angeles who is a former nurse at the Vermilion hospital, and Miss Marjorie Tingvall from Winnipeg. The three ladies mentioned and Mrs. Mitchell are sisters. They also visited their mother and brother on the family farm near Lloydminster.

Miss Nellie Cope of Okotoks is visiting for a month with her friends Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Ford and family at the rectory. This is her first trip to this part of Alberta and she is very favorably impressed.

First Hard Frost Wednesday Morning

First hard frost of the season was recorded Wednesday morning Sept. 30 with 15 degrees, the thermometer dipping to 17 above. Flowers which up to that time had still been blooming profusely in town, immediately showed the effects of the frost.

Weather has had a little tendency to be unsettled with only .04 rain recorded however. Harvest continues apace and a week of good weather should see the threshing operations nearing completion.

Total rainfall for September was .41 of an inch.

Many Alliance Young People Leave For Bible College

MAKE HIGH CONTRIBUTIONS TO FOREIGN MISSIONS

The Alliance Chapel has been busy these days bidding farewell to many of its young people who have either already gone to Bible college or will be leaving shortly. The following have already left. Misses Betty Little and Violet Adams to Western Canadian Bible Institute, Regina. Miss Margaret McLennan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vert and Mr. Lester Fair are leaving shortly for Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alta. Wilfred Little leaves shortly for Western Canadian Bible Institute. Miss Beatrice Hillcox leaves for Christian Training Institute, Edmonton, and Miss Gladys Wilson leaves for Berean Bible college in Calgary. Miss Bertha Wilson leaves in a week for language school after which she will work among the Indians in the far north. All these young people are preparing for Christian work either in the homeland or abroad.

The following are some of the Vermilion young people already in full time service: Rev. Geo. Shields, Africa. Miss Mae Shields, Bolivia, S.A. Mrs. Jack Cairns (nee Ethel Shields) Pakistan. Mrs. Frank Chapman (nee Winnifred Wilson) Africa. Miss Evelyn Wilson, Africa. Mrs. Roth (nee Cora Wilson) India. Miss Cora Harris, Japan. Rev. Derwood McIntosh, Bolivia. Mrs. John McLennan, West Indies. Miss Anne Shaw, Mexico. Miss Maude Tully, Africa. Dr. Orlando Shields, Los Angeles, Calif. Rev. Ernest Tetrault in Quebec. Mr. Frank Wilson, Chedderville, Alta. Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Wilson, Fort Nelson. Ruth and Ray Wilson, Whitehorse, Yukon. Rev. Elwood Hill, Wainwright.

The Christian and Missionary Alliance has always maintained an aggressive missionary program and the Chapel here has proved itself worthy of its cause. Last year contributions to Foreign Missions in the Alliance was $40 per member making it the highest of the 32 leading denominations.

Wildmere Beavers Elect Officers

The Wildmere Beavers Club meeting was held on Sept. 19 at the home of Doris Martin with 14 members and one visitor present. The meeting was opened by singing O Canada followed by the Code. Roll call was well answered by 'our favorite subject at school'.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read followed by the minutes of the previous meeting.

The business session which included a letter from Mrs. Handley, was read by the supervisor.

Election of officers resulted as follows:

President -- Betty Smith
Vice-Pres. — Diane Smith
Secretary - Marie Smith
Treasurer Eleanor Donily

Membership fees were then paid. Mystery Box was won by Eleanor Donily and this proved to be a souvenir of Vermilion in the form of a pin cushion. Social was a game chosen by Margaret Steele. The meeting then adjourned.

A very tasty lunch was served by Doreen Martin.

Diphtheria Stands Ready To Kill Children Again

"The absence of what was once a scourge amongst children should not be allowed to lull parents into a sense of apathy towards protective measures," observes Dr. S. C. Gawne, County Medical Officer of Health for Lancashire, England.

"If a feeling that active immunization is no longer necessary should gain ground then, indeed, we should see the return, perhaps with renewed vigor, of what was once one of the most deadly of childish ailments — diphtheria."

Dr. Gawne, writing in 'Better Health', points out that whereas in 1938 there were 4,371 cases of diphtheria and 208 deaths from this cause in Lancashire, the immunization campaign which was begun in England in 1940 reduced the number of cases to 72, of which just 2 were fatal.

Prior to the immunization campaign diphtheria was the most common single cause of death among school-age children, and it was the third most common cause of death between the ages of 1 and 5 years.

All higher learning depends upon your child's ability to read. Good vision enhances good reading habits. Protect your child's future by overcoming his visual problems now.

INDIFFERENCE OF PARENTS THREATENS OUR CHILDREN

"The things we are constantly fighting against are complacency and indifference," declared Gordon Coyne, acting president of Health League of Canada in a National Immunization Week statement. "And the danger is enhanced by our very success in seeing that more and more Canadian children are immunized every year. The fewer deaths there are from diptheria, whooping cough, lockjaw and smallpox, the less parents think about the risk their children run when they are not given protection against them."

This is the reason for the year-after-year pounding on the same old theme — "Be Wise! Immunize!" This is why this week, Sept. 27 to Oct. 3 is being observed by the press, public speakers, medical profession and health officials across Canada as 'National Immunization Week'.

"It is an uphill struggle to keep Canadian parents alerted to the lurking dangers of these preventable diseases," Mr. Coyne continued. "But if we fail to keep our guard up, we may expect a tragic upsurge in the number of victims claimed by these notorious child killers."

Lending point to the Health League executive's words is the history of smallpox epidemics in Vancouver in the 1930's and in Windsor, Ont., in the 20's. In the latter outbreak there were 67 cases of smallpox of whom 32 (or 48%) died. None of those who died had been vaccinated, although this protection was well known and easily available to all who sought it.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

FREEZING POULTRY AND GAME BIRDS

Bleed well, dry-pick or semi-scald 20-40 seconds in water 125-130F. Avoid tearing, cooking and bruising skin. Singe. Draw carefully. Wash in cold water, drain and chill quickly and thoroughly. Leave whole and truss or unjoint and cut fryers and fowl. Slit broilers. Cutting saves space. Wrap twice in moisture-vapor-proof paper, or pack in cartons. Wrap giblets in moisture-proof paper and place inside carcass.

Poultry and game birds should be cleaned before freezing as the flavor is better. It is not advisable to stuff birds for freezing since it will take longer for them to thaw out before cooking. Chicken is better thawed before cooking.

Meat and poultry cooked from the frozen state require about half again as long as the usual cooking time. This means about 1½ times regular time.

All poultry and game birds will store better and for a longer period if glazed before wrapping. This is done by freezing birds and then dipping in cold water, thus forming a thin coating of ice over the bird which practically eliminates dehydration.

Time for storage: 4 to 6 months. Fat birds, e.g. geese and ducks should be tested in 4 months for rancidity.

4-H CLUBS

Those who wish to take up a project for this coming fall and winter, now is the time to start thinking about it. You make take projects in Sewing, Foods, or Interior Decorating. To have a Club, you need a local leader and 8 members, namely girls from 12-21 years of age. Anyone can be a local leader -- you do not need definite standards to be one. An interest in girls work is of utmost importance. So, if you wish to have more information, write to me for details. Please note that all Clubs must be organized by October 15.

THIMBLE TALK

Maybe you already know this one. Suppose you have put in a gathering thread as along the waistline of a skirt or along the seam line of a sleeve cap. You wish to gather only parts of the line and leave other parts without gathers. Just slip a pin under the gathering thread at the end of each space to be left without gathers, then turn the pin so that the thread is twisted under it and push the point of the pin into the fabric. Remember too to use the longest stitch on your machine for gathering. Saves so much time!

Funeral Services Of John Millner Stone

Old time friends, neighbors and relatives gathered in the United church, Vermilion, on Tuesday, September 22, to pay their last respects to the late John Milner Stone, who passed away suddenly on Friday, Sept. 18, at the age of 90 years and one day.

Surviving are one son, Harry of Vancouver, 3 daughters, Pauline of Vermilion; Ruth, Port Kells, B.C. and Helen, Brownvale, Alberta; 9 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Born in Ontario, the late Mr. Stone came to Alberta in 1905 and for many years farmed in the King Edward and Queenie Creek districts north of Vermilion. For the past ten years he lived in Vermilion.

Flowers and memorial contributions to Canadian Cancer Society, the Cemetery fund, the Gideon Society and Crippled Children's fund were received from:

Mrs. Cummings, Ruby and Pat; Marjorie Knapp, Mrs. Reah, Addie Magnus, Gertrude and Alice Simonson; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Davis and Louise. Mr. and Mrs. Bert McPhee; Beth Witherbe; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thompson; George and Vi Maggs and Mrs. Delta Armstrong; Frank and Nancy Shorgrunder and girls; Mr. and Mrs. D. Taylor and family; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hicks, Sr.; Mrs. Roy [illegible]; Mr. and Mrs. A. Bailie [illegible] [illegible] Mike and Olga [illegible] [illegible] Ted, Kate [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]; Mr. and Mrs. M. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]; Smith, Ann and Bev Riddell; Jack and Myrtle [illegible] Betty [illegible] Brimacombe; The Simpson Families; Mr. and Mrs. C. [illegible] family; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mrs. Petch and Harry Doan; Mr. Jim McLaughlin.

Pallbearers all old time friends were Ted Clarke, Albert Osbaldeston, David McPhee, George [illegible], Joe Killion and Owen B[illegible].

Interment was made in the family plot in the Vermilion cemetery with Rev. McKay officiating.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deep appreciation of the many acts of kindness, the sympathy and flowers received following the sudden passing of our father John Milner Stone on Friday Sept. 18, 1953. Our sincere thanks.

Pauline, Harry, Ruth and Helen

CHATSWORTH

Harvesting is well advanced and threshing outfits are going early and late taking advantage of the wonderful harvest weather. Light frosts have occurred at night for the past few days (week of Sept. 20-26) and gardens are showing the effects. On Saturday 19th showers and hail swept part of the district, delaying operations particularly combining.

Flowers are beautiful in some gardens yet. We mention especially the dahlias in the garden at Mrs. M. Farkash's.

The Country Club meeting at Mrs. M. Farkash's was attended by rather a small number of the members due to the busy season. Nevertheless an enjoyable social afternoon was spent by those present. Sorry we have no more details ladies.

Mrs. Albert Tovell has returned from Calgary where she recently underwent an operation. We hope she is soon feeling better.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director, [illegible]

A DIFFICULT YEAR TO ESTIMATE CROPS

This is one of the most difficult years to estimate the yield of crops for we are [illegible] there is a great diversity [illegible] district brought about by the unusually [illegible] caused by [illegible] rains at seeding time. Crops therefore are maturing at different periods and so show different yields even within small areas. For instance the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, on Aug. 1 before any threshing had been done, estimated that the yield of wheat for the 3 prairie provinces might be [illegible] bushels. [illegible] [illegible] and so yields are [illegible] uniform within each crop district.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Sept. 30, 1937

Help was being sent in the form of carloads of vegetables from the Vermilion and Clandonald districts to drought stricken areas in Saskatchewan.

An enthusiastic meeting voted to continue the musical festival. Munroe McLeod was elected president of the organization and S. C. Heckbert secretary-treasurer.

University enrolment for 1937 had climbed to 1830. Final total one year ago was 2086.

$500 was being offered in merchandise as prizes for the Board of Trade shopping carnival.

Heavy frosts have been recorded nightly this week but days are bright and clear.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Sept. 28, 1921

Miss Hilda Jenkins, a grade 12 graduate of the V. H. S. had been awarded a University scholarship for high standing in the June examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stanley and daughter Muriel left to live at Fort Saskatchewan.

W. A. Letson, veteran editor of the Mannville Empire, has purchased a small weekly at Lunenburg N.S., which he is now publishing.

Paradise Valley

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Clay on the birth of a son in the Lloydminster hospital.

Mr and Mrs. Arthur Kirkpatrick of Duncan, B.C., but former residents of Orville are visiting with their family in the district.

Miss Muriel Matheson of the staff of the University hospital, Edmonton spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Matheson.

The Paradise Valley W.A. of the United church was well represented at a W.A. rally held at Edgerton during the week. This rally was well attended and a very interesting meeting enjoyed.

Miss Beatrice Kragness left for Edmonton on Monday where she will attend the McTavish Business college during the winter.

Mr. Look Lum and Mrs. W. F. Luke were recent business visitors to Edmonton. Mr. Lum is expecting to have his family arrive from Hong Kong in the near future.

The weather during the past week has been very unsatisfactory from a farmer's viewpoint. Showers and dark days have held up harvesting operations. The standing grain suffered most and is only ready to combine in a few sections. A great deal is still to be done in the district.

Paradise Valley Sunday school opened on Sept. 20 with an attendance of 39. The Superintendent is Mrs G. Venner. Teachers are Mrs. J. Guy, Lois Stoddart, Joan Richardson, Mrs. N. Stepanoff, Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. E. Knor, Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Mrs. C. Bleakley and Mrs. C. E. Conarroe.

The Young Peoples met on Friday Sept. 18 for an organization meeting. Officers will be elected later but a weiner roast was planned for Sept. 30.

The next W.A. meeting is Oct. 2. This is the meeting for making final arrangements for the chicken supper so a full attendance is expected.

Sunday Oct. 4 is World Wide Communion Service, and this will be observed in Paradise Valley churches on that date in the evening at 7:30.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

Whenever I was doubtful about my ability to do a thing, my father used to say to me, "You can do it if you think you can".

I had a lot of faith in my father, because he started life as a blacksmith, and all his early dollars were pounded out of hot metal on a big anvil. Yet he earned enough to provide a good education for three sons and a daughter, and provide us all with a fine home and a good life. He did not have a great deal of formal education, but he had heaps of common sense and confidence. He was mayor of our town for years and years and highly respected by everyone who knew him.

One time when I was particularly timid about something, he took me out to our back yard and pointed to a plank that ran out from our garage. "Let me see you walk that plank," he said.

Well, it was a wide plank and it rested squarely on solid earth so I walked it with ease. Then he got a couple of chunks of cordwood and raised the plank about a foot off the ground. I walked it again, with ease, although I felt a slight stiffening of muscles, and some tendency to go off balance.

He told me then that he had seen Charles Blondin walk a tight rope out over Niagara Falls — and that Blondin had a secret. Blondin knew that if you could walk across a plank on solid earth, you could walk with equal ease on the same solid plank if it was raised half a mile in the air. He could do it because he was firmly convinced that he could. I was letting all my doubts and misgivings and timidity throw me off balance.

Nowadays when I am confronted by a difficult task, I hear my father's old advice, "You can do it if you think you can." It works wonders for me.

My father always held to the notion that the only kind of security a man has any right to demand is the security you get when you do the very best you can in whatever situation you find yourself. He always said that it would be a black day for this country if we started to raise a generation of youngsters who lacked confidence in themselves. He disliked government charity and such schemes for that reason. He [illegible] ready to lend a hand, but he thought the greatest gift of all was self-reliance. He feared that welfare-statism might destroy it. I am beginning to think he was right. We are making a mistake in bringing up our children to think that the government owes them something, that it is the duty of others to work hard and then share their earnings.

I humbly suggest to all parents that they would do their children and this nation a great service by training their children to be self-reliant not [illegible]. I give you, as a talisman to hand along to them, my father's old maxim, "You can do it if you think you can."

Canada's 11th annual National Immunization Week is being sponsored Sept. 27 to Oct. 3 by the Health League of Canada for the protection of every child. The co-operation of all parents is solicited in an effort to wipe out whooping cough, diptheria, lockjaw and smallpox.

Health Unit Notes

KEEPING YOUR CHILD WELL

A healthy youngster, baby or young child, is happy and lively. His skin is a healthy pink, his eyes bright, and his flesh firm and not flabby. His appetite is good, he sleeps soundly, and he makes a steady gain in weight. Regularity in eating and sleeping, freedom from over-excitement, cleanliness, protection from contagious diseases, regular medical supervision, and calm and assured handling will all help to keep your children well.

PROTECTION AGAINST COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

Everything possible should be done to keep babies and young children from catching a communicable disease. Such diseases, including the so-called 'common cold' are usually much more serious for them than for older children and adults.

Fortunately some of the most dreaded childhood diseases can be prevented now by immunization. Every baby should be protected from diptheria, whooping cough and smallpox before the end of his first year. The length of the period of protection varies with different diseases. The doctor or Health Unit staff will tell you when your child should receive additional treatments in order to continue the protection.

WHEN A BABY CRIES

Babies soon learn to cry for many reasons besides hunger, thirst, pain or discomfort. They find out that when they cry they are picked up and something pleasant usually happens, like being fed or talked to. If a baby stops crying almost at once after you pick him up, you can be pretty sure nothing much is the matter.

If the crying seems to be associated with pain or persistent hunger, you should get your doctor's advice. But a healthy baby whose needs are all attended to will quickly give up crying to get attention when he finds that it does not work.

Bowtell Bulletin

Sorry folks some of these items may be a little late but you all realize it's harvest time and we have been busy threshing and gathering in the grand vegetables.

Frances Sherwood celebrated her 10th birthday on Sept. 20th and our old friend and neighbor Mrs. McClellan celebrated her birthday on the 21st.

New combines during harvest time have been purchased by Repps and Jenkins.

The house of Mr. and Mrs Jones has now been painted and certainly looks nice.

It is pleasing to have Kenny Risdale back among us again.

Quite a number of Indians from Long Lake helped with the harvest hereabouts. The writer's husband had a crew of girls Ella, Rose and Theresa John, and their father Joe John.

Tommy Rochfort has a new International [illegible].

Mrs. Hardie helped at the Ha[illegible] home during harvest time.

Mrs. Lippert is the proud owner of a new Propane gas cook stove and it's a beauty.

Mr and Mrs. Ed Lippert, Mr and Mrs Williams and Mrs. Nora Ronaghan were recent visitors at the Robinson home.

Don't forget church Sunday, folks Harvest Thanksgiving services at Pleasant Valley.

The writer is sorry that she has not the full details of the Busy Bee meeting held at Mrs. Gerald's. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent from what we hear. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mullen.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. H. W. Brown, sons and daughters who were bereaved by the death of a loving wife and mother. Mrs. Brown passed away Saturday last.

Govt. In Business

Governments should get out of businesses that can be successfully handled by private enterprise, was the common reply to a query made by The Financial Post. They also said that if governments insist upon being in such businesses, they should not set up a monopoly, but open things up to competition from private enterprise.

There are many reasons advanced why business is better off in private hands: government waste and inefficiency; loss of taxes; operating losses as a drain on public funds; general harm to the spirit of free enterprise.

Several respondents agree that the government should be in some fields, e.g. mail, atomic energy, but no one presents an argument for government intervention elsewhere.

BELZIL OF ST. PAUL MASTER FARM FAMILY

Modern crop rotation and livestock breeding practices make the Blue Hill Ranch one of the finest mixed farms in the St. Paul area. This is the home of the Ernest Belzil family, which has been selected as the 1953 Master Farm Family for the Northern Alberta division.

Located 8 miles west of St. Paul, the Blue Hill Ranch comprises five quarter sections of land in a rich mixed farming area. Of this, the Belzils have about 700 acres sown to wheat, oats, barley and forage crops. In addition, there is a purebred herd of about 75 Herefords which is being raised to top standards through a long range breeding program.

Mr Belzil is in equal partnership with his son Fernand, 29, who resides in a separate home on the farmstead. Other children in the family include Euclid, 36, who is the assistant secretary of the St. Paul municipality. Aline, 37, now Mrs. J O'Driscoll the twins, Cecile (Mrs. Roy Macksymiuk) and Blanche (Mrs. Nick Ganly) 31, Mae, 26, who is a teletypist in Edmonton, and an adopted son George Beaudin, 17, who is in grade 11 in school.

Born in St Jean de Dieu, Que., Mr. Belzil moved to Rhode Island with his parents in 1898 when he was 11 years old. The family later moved to New Hampshire and worked in logging camps until 1908.

In that year Ernest Belzil and his brother Joseph decided to return to Canada and take up farming. Heading westward, they halted at Vegreville. There they heard that the old Metis Colony of St. Paul de Metis which had been operated unsuccessfully by the Catholic missionaries was being abandoned and the land opened for settlement.

Ernest and Joseph immediately travelled across country to St. Paul and took out a homestead in the Owlseye district, just north of the present farm buildings. A team of oxen was purchased and for the next three years the Belzils sweated and strained at the slow task of clearing the land and grubbing roots from the rich soil.

The partnership remained in effect for six years, until Ernest Belzil married a girl from St. Joseph Mehinak, Quebec, in 1914. Mr. Belzil recalls that he and his brother had only three head of horses between them at the time. This mathematical problem was solved by each taking one horse and exchanging the third horse back and forth as needed.

Over the years, Mr. Belzil gradually added to the small homestead, until it reached its present size of 5 quarter sections.

10-YEAR CROPPING PROGRAM

The Belzils have found one of the best aids to successful farming is a definite plan for the future. With the assistance of the district agriculturist in St. Paul, they have formulated a ten-year cropping program and improvement campaign. This program, now in its second year sets out the crop sequence and summarizes the proposed major activities for each year. For example, a year's program may state that No. 1 field be summerfallowed, ditches cleared and the fence widened. It may propose also that a new winter corral for the young bulls should be completed, fill work started on a small bog, and several buildings painted.

So far, the Belzils have been able to complete each year's assignments with little difficulty, and have found that through a long range program the more difficult tasks can be spread out over a period of years. It has shown that, with an objective, a greater amount of farm work can be completed each year.

IMPROVE CATTLE

Mr. Belzil is also carrying out a long range program for improving his cattle. His first step was taken several years ago when he purchased a fine purebred bull from a ranch near Stavely. The cows produced by breeding his own purebred stock with the bull will now be bred with a new $3300 bull purchased recently from the same ranch.

ACCURATE RECORDS

The rambling frame house of the Belzils was constructed soon after Mr Belzil was married. In the farm office are found accurate records of the farm and its progress. Most bills are paid by cheque and records are kept of all income and expenditure. On the walls are two pictures of Mr. Belzil's prize bulls and a map which was used during the ten years which Mr. Belzil served on the municipal council.

A short distance north of the house is the smaller home of Fernand and his family. Fernand is in partnership with his father and is the most active farmer of the Belzil family.

The Belzil farmstead is well laid out for convenience and appearance. The cattle barn and corral are located north of the farmyard, the shops, garages and storage sheds to the east, and bunkhouse to the south. A short distance from the storage sheds are the pig pens, where about 35 Yorkshire pigs are raised.

To successfuly operate the farm the Belzils have one hired man and the necessary heavy equipment. This includes two tractors with hydraulic loader, a binder, plows, manure spreader, dump wagons, a one-ton truck, double disc drill, and other machinery. With this equipment, spring work can be done in two weeks, a great help in a district where quick seeding is an asset.

ACTIVE COMMUNITY WORKERS

Mr Belzil is the head organizer and a member of the board of Cork Roman Catholic church. He received special benediction from the late Most Reverend H. J. O'Leary, Archbishop of Edmonton, for his church work, and was made an honorary life president of the Cork church by grateful neighbors. He also served as councillor of Champlain municipality from 1937 to 1940 when it was dissolved and later served on the new Council. He was reeve during 1946-47 but resigned because of poor health.

Mr Belzil has also served as trustee at Belzil school, director of an advisory board for the Veteran's Land Act, and was the first president of the local service board.

Mrs. Belzil is also an active member of the Cork church and is a member of the Owlseye Ladies club.

Fernand organized the Market Road Mutual Telephone Company and now serves as president. He also is a director of the first bull sale to be held this autumn by the St. Paul Agricultural Society, a member of St. Paul Chamber of Commerce and is a director of the agricultural society.

Mildred Scarfe, George Gow To Toronto Royal

Vermilion Turkey Club Members Win Prov'l Judging Competition

Miss Mildred Scarfe and Mr. George Gow, Grade 12 Vermilion high school students and members of the Vermilion Turkey club, obtained the highest score at the Provincial 4-H Poultry judging competition held at Edmonton on Sept. 30. This is the second successive year that a team from the Vermilion Turkey club has won a trip to the Toronto Royal, by virtue of a win in the Provincial contest. Last year Bruce McDonald of Mannville and Christine Morrison of Vermilion represented Alberta and stood third in the Dominion-wide competition at Toronto.

The judging competition was held at the University of Alberta. The contestants judged one class of dressed poultry; one class of White Rock cockerels, White Rock pullets, and Leghorn pullets, and each contestant was given an oral examination covering many phases of 4-H club work and general poultry husbandry. George Gow obtained the highest total individual score of the contesting group.

The successful team will leave for Toronto on Nov. 12. At the Exhibition they will participate in the Dominion Junior Poultry Judging competitions. They will also go on tour of various interesting points in Ontario, as well as visiting the Royal exhibits.

Mildred Scarfe, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scarfe, and George Gow, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gow, Borradaile, have been active members of the Poultry and other 4-H clubs here. Miss Scarfe has been a member of the Poultry club since its organization five years ago. This was the first poultry club to be organized in the province. Miss Scarfe was president of the club this year, as well as in 1951. She was the efficiency winner in 1951 and 1952; and attended Efficiency Week at the Vermilion school of agriculture in 1951. With Bruce McDonald she represented the club in the provincial competitions in 1951. This team stood second that year. In 1951 Miss Scarfe exhibited and sold a 30 pound turkey which obtained a perfect score when it was judged at the Vermilion Club show. George Gow has been a member of the turkey club for the past two years and previous to that was a member of the Vermilion Calf club.

This judging team was instructed and coached by E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist; R. C. Moffatt Assistant D.A.; H. Waren, Poultry inspector, Provincial Department of Agriculture. Local poultry raisers were helpful, both in allowing these members to practise judging on their flocks and by giving them some valuable instruction.

Roman Stecura, Concert Pianist, To Give Return Recital Here Soon

SPONSORED BY THE MALE VOICE CHORUS

Roman Stecura, the young concert pianist who came to Vermilion last fall and completely enraptured his entire audience during his recital, is making a return engagement here at the Columbia theatre on Sunday evening, Nov. 1 at 9:00 p.m. His appearance here is again sponsored by the Male Voice chorus. The Chorus will sing four numbers during the intermission.

Tickets are being sold in advance at $1 each.

Music lovers will recall that following a brilliant musical career in Europe Mr. Stecura came to Canada and in May, 1952, made his musical debut at Carnegie hall in New York.

Mr. Stecura's concert here will provide a great opportunity for Vermilion music lovers to hear and to see a professional artist at the piano. No one should miss his recital here on Nov. 1st.

Great Rally Salvation Army Wed. Oct. 14th

FEATURES COL. K. WESTERGAARD OF LONDON, ENG.

A unique and outstanding event will be held at the local Salvation Army citadel next Wednesday, Oct. 14 at 8 p.m. when Col. Kaare Westergaard, International Youth Secretary from London, England, will conduct a Salvation Rally.

The Colonel who was born in Denmark and who is an outstanding youth leader and speaker, is currently visiting a number of Canadian centres and taking part in Congress gatherings throughout the Dominion. Accompanying him to Vermilion will be Major and Mrs. Wm. Ross, recently appointed Provincial Commanders for Alberta and Sr Captain J Maddocks, Young People's Secretary.

Prior to the service there will be an open air rally and march of witness. The public is urged to attend the indoor service and to hear one of the Army's great international leaders.

Ken Brown Signed By Lethbridge Native Sons

Ken Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown, and starry young goalie of the Vermilion Tigers of last winter, has signed a contract with the Lethbridge Native Sons. Ken has three more years of junior hockey and this season will play sub-goalie. The first string goaler is playing his last year in the junior ranks. While everyone hereabouts was pulling for Ken to make the grade it does leave a big wide gap between those Tiger goal pipes to fill.

Alliance Congregation To Hear Candidate to Succeed Rev. Berg

On Sunday Oct. 11 the congregation at the Alliance chapel are to hear Rev. Fred Steed at both services. Rev. Steed is preaching for a call to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Rev. Eric Berg who is leaving soon for Abbotsford B. C.

Dewberry Home & School Assoc. Starts New Season

The first meeting of the Dewberry Home and School Association was held on Oct. 1 with a large attendance.

The introduction of the staff by the principal, Mr. A. Smith, was the first item of the meeting. The staff and the enrolments of pupils are:

Edna Thompson Gr. 1 and 2B, 26 pupils

Lee Gawryluk Gr. 2B and 3, 32 pupils

Mrs. Ruth Huget Gr. 4 and 5B, 28 pupils

Irene Hutchinson Gr. 5A and 6, 26 pupils

Marshal Wynnachuk Gr. 7 and 8, 34 pupils

Lorence Venance Gr. 9 and 10, 34 pupils

Angus Smith Gr. 11 and 12, 18 pupils

The election of officers for the coming year was then held:

President Mrs. N. Jones
Vice-Pres. Mrs. J. Braithwaite
Secretary Miss L. Gawryluk
Press Reporter Miss I. Hutchinson

Executive Committee — Mrs. G. Mathison, Mrs. H. Craige, Mr. A. Smith, Mr. J. Ryan, Mr. N. Jones.

Membership Committee — Mrs. F. Braithwaite, Mr. L. Venance

Program Committee Mrs. Magill, Mr. A. Smith, Mr. Lane.

Lunch Committee Mrs. G. Hodgson, Mrs. Lemp, Mrs. F. Parr.

During the meeting the subject of parent teacher interviews was introduced by Mr. Smith. Organization of an air cadet group was also talked about briefly.

Refund on book purchases was discussed and it was agreed that it should be up to the parents. The money that is left in the school is to be used for recreational or Red Cross purposes.

The next meeting is to be held in the school on Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 8 p.m. Scholarships are to be awarded to the Grade 12 and the Grade 9 students who received the highest standing in their exams last June.

SAVE! Pay Your Taxes Right Now!

Ratepayers who have found it impossible to pay their taxes so far this year should rush around to the town office and pay them right now. By doing so they can save themselves some real $$$. The 3% discount period is good to Oct. 15 only and after that you have to pay the whole shot.

HELP NEEDED AT CURLING RINK

ALL DAY BEE PLANNED MONDAY — START 8 A.M.

Help is urgently needed at the curling rink if that great pastime is to be enjoyed in town this winter. The building committee is appealing for help at a great bee planned for all day on Monday, Oct. 12, Thanksgiving day, starting at 8 a.m.

It is hoped that at least 100 helpers will turn out as it is desirable that the entire roof be put on that day. Putting on half of the roof sheeting and leaving it at that would be a dangerous procedure as a high wind could wreak havoc on it. The roof is of a new patented strawboard, treated, and goes on in large sheets. A good crew can accomplish the job in a day and another big hurdle will be overcome.

SO — this appeal is sent all over town and far beyond, east and west, north and south goes the message—help at the curling rink on Monday, bee commences at 8 a.m., put in a half day at least, the achievement will be very much worthwhile.

Bruce McDonald Is Alberta Nominee for Eaton Scholarship

OUTSTANDING MANNVILLE DISTRICT BOY

MANNVILLE.—On Sept. 29, the Hon. Mr. Ure, Minister of Agriculture, advised Bruce McDonald of Mannville that he had been named as the Alberta nominee for the Eaton Agricultural scholarship. Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McDonald of Mannville, is 20 years of age and has been making a name for himself in both agricultural and athletic events for a number of years.

Bruce has been a 4-H club member for over 7 years, belonging to grain, beef, forage and poultry clubs. He has been president of the Mannville Junior Beef club, Mannville Junior Wheat club, and Vermilion Turkey club.

In 1952 he was a member of the poultry team representing Alberta at National 4-H Club week held in conjunction with the Royal Winter Fair. While attending there he was elected president of the Junior 4-H Club Council for the whole of Canada. During the tour the club members took in Eastern Canada, Bruce read the Scripture at Melrose United church in Hamilton where club members attended church.

Bruce has always taken an active part in community and district activities, being an associate director of the Vermilion Agricultural Society in 1953 and a member of the Mannville baseball and hockey teams.

He attained an A general standing during high school in Mannville and was elected President of the Students Union. He was also a member of the school track team. In 1952-53 he attended the Vermilion school of agriculture, there attaining First Class general standing, and was awarded the staff medal for having made the greatest contribution to the academic, social, literary and athletic life of the school.

This is the third year that the Eaton Agricultural scholarship has been offered and in the two previous years it was won by boys from Saskatchewan and B.C. It pays tuition and board to any University in Canada for a four year course in Agriculture leading to a B. Sc. in Agriculture and Eaton's pay expenses to Toronto where the final selection of scholarship winner will be made. This is during the Royal Winter fair.

Bruce has to compete with nine other young people for this honor but should he be the lucky winner he has chosen the University of Alberta. The very best of luck is wished to Bruce from his many friends.

R.C.A.F. BAND HERE FRIDAY, OCT. 23rd

Two Day Convention, October 15th and 16th

Teachers of Three Divs. To Meet Here

Teachers from the Vegreville, Vermilion and Wainwright school divisions will meet in two-day convention at Vermilion Thursday and Friday, Oct. 15 and 16, according to Eric C. Ansley, general secretary-treasurer of the Alberta Teachers' Association, sponsors of the convention. The Vermilion convention is one of 16 district teachers' conventions being held throughout Alberta this fall.

Convention will be held under the chairmanship of Donald H. Gunn of Irma with James A. Smith of Kitscoty as convention secretary.

F. B Facey, L. G. Hall and S. I. Simonson, school superintendents of the three divisions, will also attend.

Fred Gathercole superintendent of schools in Saskatoon, will be the guest speaker. Mr. Gathercole is one of seven prominent educational authorities invited to Alberta to address teachers' conventions this fall. Four of the seven are from the U.S. and three are Canadians.

A. A. Aldridge, supervisor of guidance for the department of education, will represent the department of education and H. T. Coutts will address the teachers on behalf of the faculty of education.

Between two and three hundred teachers are expected to attend. A banquet and dance will be held Thursday evening.

BINGO PRIZES TO VALUE OF $900.00

TWENTY BIG WINNERS

One week from Saturday the big day for the people of Vermilion and district — the day of the Super Bingo in the Vermilion armories. All preparations have been made for the biggest and most valuable Bingo ever held in this town being sponsored by the Citizens committee of the local reserve army unit. Advance ticket sales have been going fast and all who plan to attend are urged to obtain theirs as soon as possible as the capacity of the hall is limited.

Tickets are $2 each and entitle the holder to admission and 20 games of bingo — that is all the games that will be played. Those who cannot get advance tickets can pay at the door on the night of the Bingo.

Bingo cards and a program containing the list of games and the prizes for each will be given to each person entering the hall.

As mentioned before all the prizes are electrical appliances to a total of $900 and will be on display in the window of the Northern Hardware, Vermilion, all week starting Friday, Oct. 9. Be sure to see them and pick out the one you want to win.

Come and play 'Bingo' and take home a prize worth anything from $10 to $280 - everyone has a chance.

TALK HOCKEY ON SUNDAY, OCT. 19th

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE TIGERS HOCKEY CLUB

The annual meeting of the Vermilion Tigers Hockey club will be held in the Legion hall at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 18. A new executive will be elected and reports of last season will be given.

It is most important that a good meeting be assured if Vermilion is going to continue to have top-notch senior hockey as in the past few years. More than just vocal support is sorely needed before a successful season can be launched and it should be the responsibility of more than just the few members of the executive who are elected each year. 14-15

SEED CLEANING ASSOCIATION DIRECTORS MEETING

A meeting of the directors of the Vermilion Seed Cleaning Association will be held at the office of E. H. Buckingham on Friday Oct. 16 at 4 p.m. All directors are asked to be present. 15-16

Mannville Girl Wins Eaton Good Deed Award

MANNVILLE Merilyn Mercer 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hill Mercer of Mannville won the Eaton's Good Deed award for taking over for her mother this summer when Mrs. Mercer suffered a painful injury to her shoulder. Merilyn not only looked after the house and the cooking but also helped with chores about the farm. It was during the summer holidays and she had to forego her planned visit with relatives [illegible] and Leduc to help at home. But Merilyn didn't mind as long as she could help her mother. She received a gold watch and a gold Good Deed pin as her award.

MEETING OF MOTHERS OF GUIDES and BROWNIES

A meeting of mothers of Guides and Brownies and those interested will be held in the Scout hall Tuesday Oct. [illegible] at [illegible] Miss [illegible] Riddoch provincial [illegible] secretary will be the guest speaker.

Rare and Valuable Volumes In The Vermilion Library

SPOTTED BY BOOK CO. REPRESENTATIVE

According to a book purchasing representative of a large eastern mercantile company, the Vermilion Public library possesses a set of historical novels that presently is unobtainable. On a visit to the library and looking over the shelves he spied this particular set. He told the librarian he had tried all over the North American continent to find a set of these novels and had been unsuccessful but "I come to this little library in a small town in Alberta, Canada, and it is there." He remarked the set was very valuable. The books in question were among those donated to the library by Mr. J. W. G. Morrison Q.C.

Tremendous Wheat Yield on Willes Farm

1000 BUSHELS FROM 17 AC.

Some stupendous crops are being harvested in the Vermilion area. Percy Willes and Sons who farm 5 miles west of town, have just completed threshing 1000 bushels of Registered Thatcher wheat off 17 acres of summerfallow, an average of 58.8 bushels per acre. The wheat is grading a good No. 3. Incidentally the entire wheat crop on the extensive Willes farm averaged 40 bushels per acre.

In the same district Watling Bros. obtained 1000 bushels of Registered Eagle oats from 14 acres of breaking.

Percy Willes has a prize tomato plant which had 120 real tomatoes on it at one time. They are an English variety called 'Breakfast.

Thanksgiving Day Monday, October 12

Monday October 12th has been proclaimed as Thanksgiving Day in Canada and will be observed as a public holiday throughout the Dominion. The proclamation as issued reads as follows and might serve to enlighten many as to the reason for the setting aside of a day for general Thanksgiving.

IS YOUR SUB. PAID UP?

Stagettes Initiate

You know how out-of-control your hair gets right after you wash it? Well, dress Stagette Freshmen in initiation get-up and the same thing happens — you just can't do a thing with them. They took over completely and instead of them being initiated they turned the tables and initiated half the town. The ones they could catch anyway. You should have seen the one that got away. Ron Man alive could that guy run. It's all right Kay Stewart, we could see that you slipped and didn't get a good start. It was that long nightgown that held you back. Alec Laboucan started things when he chased them through the Boston. After that they did the chasing. They swarmed through every open door and pounced on every person in their path, sending Bob Carmichael home with a black eye. We'd like to know just what you did tell your wife Bob.

"I thought Stagettes were quiet, reserved and peace-loving citizens", was a comment overheard. Oh, we are lady, we are. Just watch us at the Canadian Club banquet Thursday night. Thanks to the thoughtful invitation from Mrs. Hill 13 or so of the club will be there. As long as there is no bread and jam, corn flakes, coke [illegible] on the table all will be well. Did you ever walk, blindfolded, on corn flakes in your bare feet or be served bread and jam by another blindfolded mischievous partner? The club room was a mess. So this week we had to clean it up. Those girls are OK. They can work as well as they can clown. Consequently we are anticipating a busy and interesting time again this year.

CLUB ROOM NEEDED

Because of renovation of the former club room in the Bank of Commerce we have been asked to vacate our headquarters by the 15th. We wish to take this opportunity to publicly thank the B. of C. for their generosity over the past years in letting us hold our meetings there. We are sincerely grateful.

If anybody has an empty garage that needs cleaning up anyway just let us know. Ivy is a great cleaner-upper. The point is — we need a club room.

HELP THE BLIND

Oct. 17 is tag day for the blind, and on just about any street corner you will find a Stagette lending a helping hand in this worthwhile campaign. Have an extra quarter handy that day will you?

HARVEST BALL

You can have that quarter if you buy your Harvest Ball ticket in advance instead of paying 25c extra at the door you know. The dance is the 20th and all the girls have tickets. The wee Stagette to be raffled at the Holly Frolic will be on display that night too.

Checking Sat. Oct. 10, Burns and Juliette

St. Saviour's Men's Fall Activities Commence

On Monday, Sept. 21 the opening meeting of St. Saviour's Men's club was held at 8 p.m. in the parish hall. President J. Knouse was in the chair and a good representation of the members was in attendance. [illegible] a spirited discussion on ways and means of raising funds [illegible] possibility of presenting a minstrel show in the near future. A new secretary was elected at this meeting with J. Knight [illegible] office to replace F. Stewart. At the conclusion of the meeting light refreshments were served under the convenorship of [illegible]

The second meeting of the season was held on Oct. 5 beginning with a supper prepared by a committee [illegible] Messrs. E. H. Buckingham, [illegible] J. Knight and Rev. D. Ford.

After supper a short business session was held followed in turn by a talk on Public Health presented by Mr. W. Boulton of the local health unit. Mr. Boulton covered his subject in a most interesting and thorough manner concluding with a film strip on the supply of water for towns and villages.

The next meeting will be held on Nov. 2 with Messrs. A. Cooper, F. Stewart, G. King and L. Playne as the catering committee.

Knowledge Goes Begging

It won't be long now before the hurry and scurry of harvest is over. Grain combines will be silent. The plows will be turning their last furrows. Cattle will be ranging closer to home or chewing contentedly on their cuds in stalls or loafing in barns. Whether the year of hard work has been profitable or not, the farmer and his family will be looking forward to a period of comparative relaxation during the next few months.

These months, however, can often be turned to profit using the time to acquire further knowledge on better farming methods.

Information on the most efficient methods of farming is actually going begging. Provincial and federal departments of agriculture have an abundance of literature which describes the latest findings of agricultural scientists in experimental stations across the country. These are available usually without any charge. Many Canadian industries are constantly turning out reams of valuable informative matter for various segments of the rural population. The closer scrutiny of farm journals and weekly newspapers and careful attention to farm broadcasts will often provide information that can be turned into dollars and cents by the farmer.

For the benefit of the young farmer, most Canadian agricultural colleges run short courses during the slack farm periods. These cover special or general subjects ranging from fruit culture to farm management. Enrolment fees and cost of board and room are so low that the return on the investment can be incalculable.

Association with farm boys from other sections of the country and with some of Canadas top agricultural scientists who serve as instructors, leads to the broadening of vision — an intangible factor in successful farming as in other vocations.

Increased vision plus greater knowledge pave the way to increased efficiency.

REGULAR MEETING OCT. 9

Friday, Oct. 9 is the date for the regular meeting this month and the time is 8:30 [illegible]. Some important business is coming up so every member ought to be there.

District Commander Selmer Hafso of Viking will attend our next meeting. He will make presentations to two of our members.

Also it is election night. Nominations were made at the September meeting [illegible] more can be added before the ballots are passed.

President George Martin received a Coronation medal by mail this week. Congratulations George!

The Provincial Command is still short some ballots on the beer license vote. Please send them in comrades. If you have lost your ballot see your secretary or president and another one will be supplied.

The annual report of the Provincial Command has just come to hand. It shows a balance of $31,929.40. Legion members must be gratified to know that their organization is so strong financially. Someday these funds will be needed to help out needy ex-servicemen and their families. It should be noted that licensed branches contribute a large part of the surplus each year.

The above mentioned figure has nothing to do with the Poppy fund which is mostly used up each year in helping necessitous veterans and their families.

Fire Prevention Week October 4th to 10th

All of us are conscious these days of the fact that Canada is undergoing a stage of rapidly expanding industrial development. We are continually learning of new discoveries of raw materials, new production techniques, plant construction projects and many other developments.

Mechanical and electrical appliances are in much wider use than ever before. Improved methods of processing products such as wood, paper, textiles are being sought. In addition many new oil developments have arisen, and all of these are helping to make Canada more and more self-sufficient. These new developments are also accompanied with a continually increasing risk of fire and accident hazard and this factor is of the utmost importance.

What would be the use of these tremendous activities if fire and accident hazards were not studied in order to preserve the development? All the capital, labor and risk would go for nought if the necessary study of fire prevention methods are neglected.

It is for this reason one week in every October is set aside to inculcate in the minds of the public the need for proper fire prevention. Fire losses continue to grow and unfortunately Canada has the unenviable record of having one of the highest per capita loss records.

It must be remembered that fire losses consist not only of the direct loss of buildings, machinery and contents, but loss of life and injuries to hundreds of Canadians every year.

Further, the closing of premises damaged or destroyed by fire affects the population: men and women are thrown out of jobs until such time as the premises are rebuilt and ready for production of goods.

For years government authorities, insurance associations, fire marshals, fire chiefs and many other associations have endeavored to awaken the public from its apathetic attitude to one of awareness.

It is well known from statistics that the major cause of fires is carelessness. If every Canadian exercised more care, fire losses would diminish and millions of dollars would be saved to say nothing of the lives and injuries suffered by countless persons every year.

Watch Fall Sales

As the breeding season for sheep and swine approaches many livestock owners will be looking for new sires. A. J. Charnetski, Livestock Supervisor, Alberta Department of Agriculture, reports that good sires are in short supply this fall and he suggests that breeders should secure their sires early. Fall sales will be coming up very soon, Calgary Oct. 14-19, Edmonton Oct. 20-21.

Breeders of commercial stock, who are unable to attend these sales should make application for a purebred ram or boar under the Sheep and Swine Improvement Policies of the Alberta Department of Agriculture. These policies are designed to help improve the quality of commercial livestock and provide prepayment of the express shipping charges to eligible applicants.

There is no time to lose so send in your application today to your local District Agriculturist or to the Livestock Branch, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

No Time To Relax

Now they are out, let's keep them out. It's the rats we mean. W. Lobay, the Alberta Department of Agriculture's Supervisor of Crop Protection, says that this is the time of year when rats are on the move — this and spring.

In the spring they move out of the buildings into the fields. In the fall they are moving into the farmsteads and into the towns, villages and hamlets looking for cosy winter quarters. September and October are the months. Watch closely.

If rats are present this is the time to see them. A width of 21 miles west of the Alberta-Saskatchewan border extending from the Cypress Hills to Provost has been poison-proofed and all known rat colonies exterminated. This was the danger area. But they'll keep trying to push in and may crop up anywhere. On how quickly we spot them will depend our future peace of mind. Every rat must be pounced on as soon as it appears.

Keep on the alert, Mr. Lobay advises. Report any rats seen to your local pest control officer. If you don't know who he is, phone your district agriculturist. Poisons are available and everything is set for action. Do your share by reporting immediately any rats seen.

Fred Bagley Killed In Car Accident

MANNVILLE. —Word has been received of the accidental death of Fred Bagley of Altario. He was returning home from Monitor when his car overturned on a hill. His parents Mr. and Mrs. F. Bagley are at present employed at the Mannville hotel, and his wife and children are at the home of her mother, Mrs. Walter Hanson.

Allandale

The weather has been marvellous and the harvest for mostly everyone is fast being completed. The harvest moon is past and the tinted leaves with their fall colors are beautiful. It's wonderful to enjoy nature's beauty in the country. The flowers have been grand all summer and fall not having frost until lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mayhew and family of Bawlf spent a week end at the O'Fee home the first part of September. Auntie O'Fee returned home with them.

Glen Baldock from the city spent a week end with his parents around the first of September.

Mrs. Hogaboam from Derwent has been holidaying and helping her niece Mrs. Baldock through the canning and harvest rush.

Sorry about the misprint in the last news items — the shower for Miss Krause was at the Wm. Cross home not at Wm. Krause's as stated.

Our deepest sympathy to Mr. H. W. Brown and family in their recent sorrow in the passing of a dear wife and mother.

The north road by Selias Lee's has been completed and is a grand improvement. The two miles south from the school by Wm. Mayers is now under construction. Bill Axley Jr. is to be congratulated on his fine roads in the district.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ronaghan on the birth of a daughter, Patricia Lee, on Sept. 30.

Closing Thought: Happiness is not to be had for the asking, but comes quietly to them who pause at his difficult task and looks upward.

Although Canada's fisheries, coastal and fresh water, are among the most extensive and most productive in the world, Canadians are not big eaters of fish, according to the American Can Co., which developed the modern fish can for canning salmon and other sea foods. This country stands 13th in a list of the world's top fish-eating nations.

The Big Click

The boom in photography has even the industry amazed, reports The Financial Post. Department stores so far this year have moved 15 per cent more dollar volume in photography equipment and supplies than same period last year. Typical of other retail outlets. Since photography is a luxury hobby, the gain is a symptom of consumer prosperity. Also, companies have been advertising heavily. Flash photography and color pictures are gaining in popularity, helping volume.

More than half of the hardwood flooring produced in Canada is made from birch.

NEWS from ISLAY

We are back in the news! I expect that many events and incidents have occurred that will be old news to some. One event that was amusing was the initiation of Grade 7 in the Islay school. For some days the pupils were polishing the sidewalk from the school up to the Dupuit corner, that broken stretch that was left when the Dupuit house was moved. We think it is clean now and ready for the repair job. We hope Mr. Mix soon repairs it for it is very rough. After the pupils were initiated a weiner roast was held on Friday, a very enjoyable time was spent.

Dalton Torrance has moved his house onto the Fyfe lot and is adding considerable to it.

Clarence Robertson has moved in the Holyrood school to his lot and has a shop in the front. It is rumored there will be a coffee bar too.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carlson on the birth of a baby daughter. After five boys this is a 'great' event. Ask Walter. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Buchanan, a boy.

Miss Catherine McEachern who has been at home for the past year on account of the illness of her parents, has gone to join the staff of Craig Bros. store in Vermilion.

The Sunday school rally held on Sept. 27 at 3 p.m. was very well attended. The Sunday school has grown considerably, last Sunday 38 were in attendance.

Thanksgiving service will be observed this Sunday, Oct. 11 at 3 p.m. We have 'much' to be thankful for so come and express your thankfulness.

Don McFadyen is in hospital. A bad time to be laid up just when harvesting is in full swing.

Not long now until the electric power can be turned on for Islay farmers. Wire stringing was begun on Tuesday.

Mrs. Bothwell is in hospital for a few days. Bill Bothwell of Imperial Oil at Regina is expected to fly home for Thanksgiving week end.

Mrs. Jean Robertson attended St. Paul's Presbytery in Lloydminster this week as delegate for Islay Streamstown-Kitscoty field.

Those were some potato tops Cecil Sinclair had! We had some that were 60 inches and such quantities of potatoes in the hills.

Jackie Teskey had 5c one day in the spring—he bought a packet of pumpkin seeds — now he has ever so many pumpkins, one weighs 26½ lbs. and another 23. Some pies there!

HELP THE BLIND

Each year at this time The Canadian National Institute for the Blind appeals for funds to carry on its great service work on behalf of the blind and those requiring prevention of blindness care. The occasion serves to remind us of the value of our own eyesight, a commodity which is sometimes taken for granted. If this is the case a few minutes contemplation of its loss will help to point up its worth. Such contemplation, too, will point up the fact that the more than 1000 Albertans who are blind have lost something priceless, and something which cannot be purchased back even if a dollar value for it could be fixed.

Most people would find it difficult to imagine themselves blind, yet there is no law which makes blindness a respecter of persons. Indeed, experience proves otherwise. The files of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind shows that blindness comes to young and old, rich and poor, to all walks of life.

In the light of these thoughts it is unthinkable that our community should be without facilities and services for the counselling and aid of the blind. It is, of course, not without such services and need not be if we continue our interest in and our support of the C.N.I.B.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind is well-known for the splendid work it is doing. It is, in fact, the only service organization for the blind in Alberta which has a general registration of the blind and a comprehensive service program in operation. A glance at its latest annual report reveals the scope and variety of its activities. Its experience in dealing with the problems of the blind extends back over 35 years. Its present facilities are modern and well conceived. Its personnel are carefully chosen and trained. Job placement and employment, adjustment training, instruction in Braille, handicrafts and typing, general welfare, recreation, residence accommodation and library are examples of the important ways in which it is helping blind people to overcome the great loss they have suffered.

Two More Whooping Cranes Shot; Hunters Warned

ONLY 21 ARE LEFT IN EXISTENCE

Renewed warnings have been issued by conservation authorities in Canada and the United States to protect the vanishing whooping crane from complete extinction.

The National Audubon Society reports that only 21 of these majestic white birds remained in existence this spring and that they are now heading southward from the northern areas of Alberta, Saskatchewan and the Northwest Territories on their annual migration to the Gulf of Mexico coast.

In view of the crane's importance as a vanishing American, the public has been urged to allow these rare birds to make their way unharmed to their wintering grounds at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas. The birds are on the protected lists of Canada and the U.S. and there are severe penalties for anyone destroying the birds or their eggs.

In their migration south last fall at least two cranes from the diminishing band were killed by gunners, one in Saskatchewan and one in Kansas. Standing four feet tall and having a wing spread of seven feet, the average whooping crane is very conspicuous in flight. Its long neck and spindly legs are completely outstretched. Its white body and dark wing tips make the bird easily discernible and its booming horn-like call — the "whoop" from which it gets its name — can be heard two or three miles distant.

The whooping crane is sometimes mistaken for a snow goose, white pelican, American egret or whistling swan. The Alberta Game Branch and the National Audubon Society [illegible] all hunters to refrain from shooting at any large white bird [illegible] whooping cranes are sighted.

Ladies of Mannville Orange Lodge Attend Edmonton Meeting

MANNVILLE. — Among those from Mannville [illegible] Northern Alberta Primary [illegible] Mrs. Erskine [illegible] Mrs. C. Hughes. The meeting was held in the South Side [illegible] Saturday evening.

Pleasant Valley

The weather is simply perfect. Bluffs and hills are a real picture for a short while but already the leaves are starting to blow off.

Our Thanksgiving service was held on Sunday when 28 joined in singing the harvest hymns. Mr. Playne of Vermilion came out to read the lesson.

Thanks go to Mr. Shaw who very kindly came out on Saturday and put on the badly needed new door.

The writer is sorry to hear that Mrs. Jory has been ill and a speedy recovery is wished her. Mrs. Bothwell has spent several days in hospital but is expected home this week end.

Everyone has been and still is really busy so that news is very scarce. The flowers are finished outside and now is the time to think of winter blooms. Be sure to plant a few bulbs. They are inexpensive and pay dividends in brightness and enjoyment when temperatures dip down to around the 30 below.

October brings thanksgiving and we should give thanks for a bountiful harvest, dry weather, and high temperatures, close to 70.

THE LOWERING OF TARIFFS
Several speakers at the recent Annual Meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce held in Edmonton, expressed the opinion that the interests of agriculture, and particularly the export wheat and flour industry, required that tariffs against foreign goods should be lowered. Now that interests seem to be awakened, farmers and their organizations might do well to press this view on Provincial and Dominion Governments.

TRIP TO TORONTO

The C.N.R. is offering excursion rates of 1½ regular fare for people wishing to attend the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto. A group of 15 or more are required to get the reduced rate. Livestock farmers and especially pure bred stock breeders might be one big show in Toronto. Groups have gone from other parts of Alberta. Why can't we organize one here? Let me know if you are interested.

TREES AVAILABLE

I am advised that orders on hand now for trees will take up all the spruce, caragana, and rooted poplar available for 1954. There are still some Manitoba maple, Ash, Lodge Pole pine available, also some cuttings of Russian poplar and laurel leaf willow. In addition there are some elm, larch, mountain ash and willow for 1954 planting. Trees are free to farmers. Get an application form from my office.

FALL CULTIVATION

I notice that it pays to cultivate all summerfallow or stubble land in the fall. Thistles and that type of plants are just as easy to kill as plowed the first fall but let them go through the winter and they become perennials. Shallow cultivation with the implements seems to give the best results on stubble. Broad teeth cultivators usually handle the summerfallow alright.

Alberta Gideons Will Discuss Youth Testaments, Red Deer

President Milo Melvin of the Edmonton Camp of the Gideons has announced a fall rally of Gideons from all over Alberta will be held in Red Deer on Thanksgiving Day week end, when meetings will be held Oct. 10 an. 11.

Secretary of the Gideons of Canada, Arthur Burnham of Toronto, will be guest speaker at the banquet Saturday evening. Field secretary Hugh Corridge of Vancouver will also be in attendance. Representatives are expected from camps in the Edmonton Calgary Red Deer, Lethbridge, Vermilion, Medicine Hat, Vermilion and Medicine Hat.

Again this year the Gideons will be giving a free copy of the New Testament with Psalms to every boy and girl in Protestant schools in Canada. Over 10,000 copies of the Scriptures will be given to school students this year.

BABY & PRE-SCHOOL CLINICS

Friday, Oct. 16—Mannville, 11 a.m. to 12 noon (Held in fire hall).
Friday, Oct. 16—Minburn, 2 to 3 p.m. (held in school).

The average retail value of new passenger cars sold in Canada in 1952 was $2,393.

Not since 1934 have there been so many business failures in Canada as in 1952 when 1,769 businesses went bankrupt.

GIRLS' CLUBS

This district is away behind in farm girls clubs. The service is there for your use and benefit. Here is a project for Women's Institutes, F.C.A.'s, etc. You can form garden, sewing and cooking clubs. Miss Shirley Holms District Home Economist will help you get organized and guide your program. Let me know if you wish to start a club or desire further information.

FATTENING CHICKENS

It looks like a good year to crate feed your chickens for the market. They must be confined or they will run the fat off rather than increase in weight. The margin between finished and thin chickens now is 16c per lb. Get a circular from my office on fattening poultry.

FIRE HAZARDS

This is fire prevention week. If everyone, whether they live in town or country, would do something right now to prevent fire it would have a big effect on reducing fire losses in this area. Clean out that chimney replace poor electric switches tell your wife not to smoke in bed -- and your mother-in-law not to use gasoline to light the kitchen fire; put up lightning rods, put matches where the children can't find them, etc., etc.

Alberta Hunting Gains In Popularity

Judging by the enquiries received in the Alberta Government Travel Bureau, more people than ever are planning on donning red coat and cap for the yearly foray into the big game country of the province. In the past two weeks, more than 330 letters enquiring about regulations, opportunities and costs have poured in to the travel bureau, a considerable increase over previous years.

Wildmere Winks

No winks last week folks as the writer was too busy taking in garden stuff.

We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Dixon and sisters and brother on the loss of their father. He lived to be a grand age and during his lifetime he saw many changes in this part of Alberta. His daughter Helen taught our school one term. Sorry we missed seeing her while she was in Vermilion.

Sympathy is also extended to Mr. H. W. Brown and family on the loss of a loving wife and mother. One by one the old timers who helped pioneer our land are passing on to their well-earned rests.

Threshing and combining is fast coming to a close in our corner. Several have finished. Bill and Adam Smith and Haines Bros are through combining and J. Wallington has finished his threshing run. Lindy Fadden is shrewding at George Wilson's, Dick Denily of Triangle is through combining too. It's nice to see it cleaned up before winter comes. We hope this good weather holds a few weeks longer as everyone will get through. Several have commenced fall work on the land.

Our Wildmere W. I. meeting has been postponed until Oct. 14. Mrs. Roy Dibbert, our hostess, is having threshers this week.

Billie and Adam Smith went to Edmonton on Saturday to meet their mother who flew from Vancouver to Edmonton. While there they will visit brothers Alex of the city and Norman of Bon Accord and Rev. and Mrs. Sauder of Waskatenau. Mrs. Smith will stay with her sons here until they go to the coast for the winter.

We said nice chats on Saturday with Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Geo. Taylor and Mrs. George Harrison. Did you get all your vegetables in, Mrs. Barlow?

Say Mrs. Orvechuk, is your turkey hen still laying? I see writer's are but only every other day now. Even that is a grand record for turkeys.

Cliff Cruthers has been hauling grain for his neighbors. It's nice to have a trucker right in our district again.

Mr and Mrs. Bud Bathe and family from Lloydminster and Mr. and Mrs. W. Weisman of Vermilion spent Sunday Sept. 27 with their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Bathe of Basswood.

Bob Martin of Wildmere is the proud owner of a new G.M.C. truck purchased from Ken Rowe and Sons of town.

We were pleased to see Ivan Connelly, son of Harold Connolly, in town not so long ago. Ivan is still in the air force and stationed in Halifax. He had been home for harvest helping his father.

Bobby Graham returned to school Monday at Kitscoty after helping with the harvesting at home for two weeks.

Highway 41 Being Gravelled

The Standard is given to understand that highway 41 is now receiving a much needed coating of gravel and that work has reached south of the river coming this way

Clothing For The Growing Children

Some suggestions for keeping that growing youth from children's clothes until they are worn out have come from Mrs. W. G. Macdonald, Director Home Economics Extension Service Alberta Department of Agriculture

For boys or jackets, Mrs. Macdonald advises getting the ones with raglan sleeves, then the garment will still fit in the shoulders area when the sleeve is lengthened. At least three inches extra should be turned under in the sleeve and four inches in the hem when the garment is new. When adjusting snow suits an inch tuck is taken inside just above the cuff on the legs and sleeves is satisfactory.

Boy style coats and jackets do not look outgrown as quickly as those with a waistline seam, since the waistline on the former can be lowered by the simple process of moving the belt loops down. Instead of loops a separate belt must be sewn into purchase one with the seams of the garment. Some of the clothes that is part of the design that the only alteration needed when they outgrow them is lengthening.

To keep the moisture of little girl dresses in place an extra tuck is folded in the material when cutting the neckline serves as a trimming and can be let out as needed to lower the waistline.

WILDMERE F.U.A.

The regular meeting of the Wildmere F.U.A. will be held at the Wildmere school on Wednesday, Oct. 14 at 8:00 p.m. This is the night members sign new contracts for medical services so be sure to attend

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director "The Crop Testing Plan"

THE GRADING OF GRAIN

No country in the world has a more efficient and more comprehensive system of grading the farmers' grain than has Canada. This exacting system is all under the control and strict supervision of the Board of Grain Commissioners, and it is a reliable one to protect the interests of the farmers. It is interesting to note, however, that this governmental supervision and control is comparatively new — that it has been in force in fact only some 30 years. For years before this the Winnipeg Board of Trade, a organization of merchants the right to establish established grades on wheat, oats, barley and flax. The Board of Trade also took an interest in farmers' supplies of good seed. They considered it their business to help the farmer in every way. An early report of the Winnipeg Board of Trade informs us that out of a thousands of samples of wheat that

Pleasant Way to Trade

In the first 8 months of this year more than 800,000 people from overseas visited Britain. About half of these came from the U.S. and Canada, mostly roundtrips. By the end of the year the total of such visitors is expected to be around well 1,000,000 and the amount they will spend about $350 million

This is the sort of trade which can be expanded almost indefinitely without friction, without any drain on material resources, thinks The Financial Post.

Tourist spending on transportation, and on hotel and other accommodation benefits Great Britain in much the same way as if we spent the same amount of money at home on British woolens china, or cutlery. It provides the British with the wherewithal to buy our lumber, wheat, aluminum and a host of

Local News of Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Goad of the Landonville district had as their guests recently their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Albert Easterday from Los Angeles, Calif. The Easterdays motored to the Landonville district driving 2286 miles one way and 2276 miles on the return trip to Los Angeles, covering a total distance of 4461 miles. Their trip took them through 8 different states, namely, California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Idaho on the way up and Montana, Idaho, Utah, Arizona, Nevada and California on the return. They also visited Kootenay National park in B.C., and Jasper National park in Alberta, also Zion National park in Utah where they drove through an underground tunnel over one mile in length. While in the Landonville district Mrs. Ballard Goad, Mrs. Easterday and Clifford Goad drove to Wetaskiwin to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Climie and family (formerly Gladys Goad) where Mr. Goad was spending the week end after being released from the hospital in Edmonton. We are glad to say Mr. Goad returned home from the hospital the day before Mr. and Mrs. Easterday left on their return trip to California.

Returning home to live in Vermilion after an absence of a considerable number of years are Mr. and Mrs. Hubert 'Spike' Curtis. Hubert is now headquartered here with the C.N.R. and Mrs. Curtis and son Richard have moved from Edmonton into a basement suite at the Aldous Kent residence.

Dr. Bob Anderson and Harding Brix returned home with 10 nice geese after a hunting expedition at Lavérny, Sask. Other hunters in the same district this week are Darrel Currah and Ken Marfleet. Ken is here from Vancouver visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marfleet and other members of the family.

Mrs. W. A. Lamb of Edmonton is a visitor in Vermilion this week and is renewing many former acquaintances. While here she is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Norton.

The Standard received a friendly line from Mrs. Walter S. Easton, formerly of Islay and now living at Vancouver. She sends along best wishes to all old friends and states their pleasure at receiving the Standard each week. Even right now she says Walt is busy perusing the last issue which the postman has just brought.

Paul Hareuther, Cecil Sinden and Bob Carmichael are away after the wily goose this week. Bob says if he can't shoot them one way he'll get them another so took along his aerial camera hoping to be able to get some shots of the birds in flight.

Members of the United church are asked to bring in their produce for decorating the church not later than Saturday noon.

Miss A. Anderson will recommence the teaching of tap dancing lessons for all ages 6 years and over. Classes will start at the Elks hall on Thursday evening next, Oct. 15th at 8 p.m. and continue weekly thereafter. Charges are 75c per lesson. 15-16x

Fred Haines, President

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooper announce the marriage of their daughter Joyce Evelyn, to Mr. Donald Owen MacGillivray of Edmonton. The marriage took place at the Highlands United church, Edmonton on August 5th. The Rev. Frank Samis officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardie had as their guests last week Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Best who were on their way home to Nanaimo after visiting their son in Regina. Mrs. Hardie and Mrs. Best are sisters. Dr. and Mrs. Best are former missionaries to China, spending over 30 years there. They have three sons who were all born in China. The three boys all live in Canada now and are medical doctors practising at Nanaimo, Regina and one in Ontario.

Friends of the Bert Mead family at present stationed in England, will be interested to know that Bert has been promoted to the rank of Lieut-Commander. The course at the Empire Test Pilot's school, Farnborough, which he is attending, will be completed in November.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Stephens attended the annual convention of the Alberta Division, Canadian Medical Association held at the Macdonald hotel in Edmonton last week. The Doctor was elected to the finance committee of the Alberta Association.

High school students of 1922 to 25 will recall with a good deal of sincere appreciation, one of their teachers of that time, Miss Donalda Bawden. Miss Bawden spent a day in Vermilion recently, the guest of Mrs. Lillian Eldem. She no longer teaches school but does library research work at Chipawa, Ont.

A party of goose hunters comprised of Chuck Heckbert, Larry Webb and Ted Edey returned from a fairly successful expedition to the Youngstown goose area last week end. Carman Long, Claude Brenton, Gordon Ross and E. M. Stewart are also spending a few days in the favored goose territory hoping to bring back the old honker. Meanwhile Clarence Wilson didn't wander very far from his farm yard last Thursday and returned with four fine geese from a flock of seven.

Mrs. McGrath, Sr. Is Given Birthday Party In Islay Hospital

Mrs. McGrath Sr., of the Tolland district, a patient in the Islay hospital suffering from a broken leg since last July, found out that celebrating her birthday in hospital could be a very happy event. It was Mrs. McGrath's 80th birthday on Saturday, Oct. 3 and the nurses of the Islay hospital baked her a cake, decorated it with candles and served tea during the afternoon in Mrs. McGrath's room. In this they were aided by other patients who were able to be up and about.

Among those present at the party were Mrs. Jim Munro, Mrs. Edmund McFadyen and daughter Marion, Annette Garnier, Mrs. Albert Dupuitt, Mrs. Thos. Bothwell, while others called during the afternoon and evening.

After being in hospital since July Mrs. McGrath returned to her home on Sunday, Oct. 4.

NEW PLUMBING AND HEATING SERVICE FOR VERMILION

Wilf Clifford, already well known in Vermilion, has commenced a plumbing and heating service in town. His advertisement will appear in next week's Standard and regularly thereafter.

MEMBERS OF STANDARD STAFF "LUCKY FELLERS"

Goose hunters are drifting back to town from further south in Alberta and all apparently had enjoyable shoots, hauling down their quota of birds. As a result of the marksmanship and generosity of one party, Curt Martin, Jim Young of Lindberg and Newt Cooper who returned late Wednesday evening the members of the Standard staff will each enjoy goose dinners this week end.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Norton and the children were in Edmonton on Thursday visiting Mr and Mrs. Jack Reid.

Lou McCulloch of Regent Drilling Co. Edmonton, set down here in his plane Sunday evening while on his way to Edmonton from a trip to Verdun, Man., where the company has some drilling rigs working. Lou took time to visit among his old neighbors in the east end of town.

Little Miss Peggy Callaghan celebrated her 9th birthday on Friday, Oct. 2, marking the occasion with a jolly party to a number of her friends.

Sammy, for many years a popular member of the staff of the Boston Cafe, is spending a few days in town. Sam has spent the past two years in Vancouver but didn't like it there, "too many people" he says. He is going on to Bonnyville where he will work in a cafe in that booming centre.

Mannville & District LOCALS

Miss Jean Mitchell of the Mannville hospital staff is on holidays and Mrs. Betty Cundal is acting matron during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fisher of Edmonton are Mannville visitors this week. Mrs. Fisher is visiting her daughter Mrs. Bob Allen while Mr. Fisher is attending to business at the various towns around.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. D McFadden for a few days is their daughter, Mrs. S. Arnett of Viking and infant son, Barry.

Mrs. C Matters reports crocuses blooming out at their farm. They must be fooled by the beautiful Indian Summer weather.

Mr C Swain of Cloverdale B.C. is back to Mannville for a visit. He expects to be here for about three weeks.

Mr Chas. Hubbard, uncle of E. Hubbard, from Vancouver, is visiting with relatives here.

The October meeting of the Home and School Association will be on Wednesday, Oct 14. Note change in date, this is due to the teachers convention on the same week.

BINGO!!!

Plans are progressing for the staging of the biggest and most attractive Bingo game ever presented in Vermilion. This is the 'Super Bingo' being arranged by the Civilian Committee of the Reserve Army, to be held on Saturday, Oct. 17 at 9 p.m. in the armories.

Advance tickets are now on sale at $2 each which entitles the holder to admission and to play 20 games of bingo. For those who wish, extra cards will be sold in the hall, but everyone being admitted must at first purchase the $2 advance ticket or pay that much at the door.

Programs will be available so that everyone will have with them a list of the games and prizes for each, and the type of bingo to be called. In the case of a tie on any game, special tie-breaker cards will be given out and then only one winner will be declared. This person gets a lesser prize and the game for the larger prize will be played again.

VALUABLE PRIZES

The following is a summary of most of the prizes, not necessarily in order of value:

Combination radio, washing machine, Mixmaster, floor polisher, mantel radio, two irons, steam iron, electric kettle, floor lamp, table lamp, automatic toaster, kitchen clock, mantel clock, electric percolator, electric razor, heating pad, double hot plate, electric drill kit.

Tickets will be on sale at several of the business places in town and by members of the Civilian committee of the army: A. E. Kaiser, E. H. Buckingham, Gordon Ross, Keith Chalmers, Jack Kneale, Dr. Ben King.

THE DATE — Saturday, Oct. 17.

THE TIME — 9:00 p.m.

THE PLACE — Armories.

W. I. Activities For Month of September

Owing to the busy season some W.I. branches found it necessary to postpone their meetings this month, howver quite a number did hold meetings.

RAMSAY

Ramsay had a very interesting meeting with Miss Judson, Home Designing specialist speaking on 'Color in the Home'. Several visitors also enjoyed this demonstration.

Kitscoty W.I. will honor their grandmothers with a tea. A donation was given to the Salvation Army.

FIVE POINT

Five Point W.I. heard Mrs. Wm. Ross give a very entertaining account of her trip to Eastern Canada accompanied by many pictures and pamphlets of scenic, historic and industrial points of interest. Another member read a very pleasing account of the handicrafts display at the A.C.W.W. conference held recently in Toronto.

SALTEAUX

Salteaux is planning to hold a home baking sale and raffle soon.

CLAYSMORE

Mrs. F. Watling of Claysmore read an article on 'Rules for Happiness'. This branch remembered their sick with cards and magazines.

WILDMERE

Wildmere heard two very interesting papers, one on the Federated W.I. President Mrs. A. Barry of Australia, and another one on the A.C.W.W. conference held in Toronto recently.

THORNCLIFFE

Thorncliffe W.I. will sponsor a raffle soon. This was a small meeting as many were harvesting.

WILDMERE BEAVERS

The Wildmere Beavers, our girls club, held their annual meeting, electing new officers, planning the program for the year. They also made plans for raising money. A donation was given to the blind.

Fire Protection Care Is Ever-Present Need

Fire Prevention Week, October 4 to 10 is being observed throughout Canada, and it is designed to focus public attention on the ever-present need for fire safety and protection.

Despite the constant efforts of many organizations, hundreds of fires occur every day, from the small ones in rubbish to the large spectacular fires.

Statistical figures bring to light that greater care must be exercised in order to reduce the economical waste. Millions of dollars go up in smoke every year, and unless time is given to analyze the figures, one does not realize the tremendous amount of money involved, the number of lives lost and injuries to persons.

On an average between 55,000 and 60,000 fires are reported every year, or over 150 fires every day. These losses account for anything from $60,000,000 to $70,000,000 per annum.

This tremendous sum of money is lost chiefly through carelessness, for instance smokers' carelessness and matches cause approximately 25 to 30 percent of reported fires, misuse of electricity 10%, stoves, furnaces, boilers and smoke pipes 10%, defective and overheated flues and chimneys, hot ashes and open fires 9%.

The above are the chief causes of reported fires and it leaves little to the imagination of how many are caused through just carelessness.

Fire is man's most useful force, but it is never completely servile. A moment's carelessness, a brief lack of respect for it can cause a lifetime of grief.

The high level of fire losses is a drain on the resources of the country and must be controlled.

Large as the fire loss is, the current relationship between losses and property subject to damage points up the efficacy of the means now available to control this national fire waste.

Britain Decides Air Force To Have Priority Over Navy

On the basis of a comprehensive British Staff study, hitherto unpublished, Great Britain has proposed "daringly new" defense concepts, subordinating ground armies and the navy, placing major reliance on air power. Britain is realigning her defense preparations accordingly.

Revealing these military decisions the October Reader's Digest claims that the British know they cannot longer pretend that the army and navy can play equal roles with the air force. They "have given up trying to satisfy all their generals and admirals and the loyal alumni of the two original sister services."

The British feel the free world is incapable of containing, with the ground armies and navies, the vast frontiers of China, Russia and her European satellites. With air power however, meaning bombers capable of delivering atomic and hydrogen bombs and backed by [illegible] the British believe the [illegible] superiority in manpower [illegible] [illegible] England.

Health Unit Notes

FAMILY INFLUENCE ON CHARACTER

The chief purpose of family life is to protect children while they are unable to look after themselves and to train them so that they will be useful and happy as they grow. In the larger world outside [illegible] By your loving care you give children the warm feeling of belongingness that will later develop into the knowledge that there is a place in the family circle that only they can fill, and, still later that they have something within themselves to contribute to society.

The good physical care you give your children will help to make them safe and healthy. The habits and attitudes they acquire will influence the way they behave the way their minds work and the way they feel about things their whole lives long.

Since the child comes into the world without any habits it is easy to see that he may just as easily learn good ways of doing things as poor ways. A child learns quickly to do the things he likes to do if that reason acquiring good habits should be made as easy and as pleasant as possible.

A young child's often imitates what he sees others do that it is important for other people in the family to behave as they want him to behave. [illegible]

Protect Hen Pheasants

For a number of years the policy of the Department in connection with hen pheasants has tended towards education rather than prosecution. Hunters have been allowed to bring in any hen pheasant they may have accidentally shot and deliver it to the nearest officers.

Experience with this policy has shown that a percentage of the hunters are taking advantage of keeping their hen pheasants and, if they meet an officer they turn them in, otherwise they take them home.

This fall, for the first time in a number of years, it has been decided to allow pheasant shooting before 10 o'clock in the morning, conforming with the one-half hour before sunrise regulation on other birds. The reason for this change was to cut down on the number of cocks in order to have our birds in the proper sex ratio next spring.

The emphasis therefore is on cock birds only.

It has been decided that hunters who take hen pheasants during this fall season will be subject to prosecution. The regulation forbidding the shooting of hen pheasants will be rigidly enforced.

REGULATION TO BE ENFORCED

The season runs from Oct. 12 to Nov. 1. Season bag limit is 20 with daily limit of 5 cock pheasants per day. 14-15

REPORT to the PEOPLE

BY ROBERT FAIR, M.P.
BATTLE RIVER

Before my next report appears in print the first session of the 22nd Parliament will be in progress and as this will be the first Session after redistribution, I believe readers will be interested in the number of representatives each of the ten provinces have in the House of Commons. With this information at hand, they will also be able to figure out why we in this part of the country have to be continually on our toes in order that we may get even a small share of equity for our people.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION

The present representation in the House is based on the 1951 census. As at June 1 of that year Canada had a total population of 14,009,429. From that number is deducted the population of Prince Edward Island, 98,429. This is done because the B.N.A. Act gives that province a minimum of 4 members (under present Senate representation). The population of Yukon, 9,096, and the population of N.W.T., 16,004 is also deducted, making a total deduction of 123,529. This number taken from the total population leaves 13,885,900. Before redistribution the total membership of the House was 262. From this we take the representation of Prince Edward Island 4, and representation of Yukon-Mackenzie River 1, which leaves us a net of 257 seats. This number divided into 13,885,900 gives us a quotient of 54,031. To find the number of seats each province is entitled to, we divide the quotient 54,031 into the population of each province. This gives us the following results, with the former representation in brackets: Ontario 85 (83) Quebec 73 (73). Nova Scotia 11 (13). New Brunswick 9 (10). Manitoba 14 (16). Saskatchewan 15 (20) Alberta 17 (17); British Columbia 21 (18); Newfoundland 6 (7). This gives a total of 253 seats to which must be added those we already deducted, namely, Prince Edward Island 4 and Yukon-Mackenzie River 1 for a total of 258. As this is four short of the former representation of 262, the four provinces having the largest remainders, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, B.C and Newfoundland are given one seat each additional to bring the total to 262. Amendments to the Elections Act in 1952 provided that no province should lose more than 15 per cent of its representation in any single redistribution so this gave Saskatchewan an additional two seats. The second amendment provided for the splitting of the Yukon-Mackenzie territory and providing an additional seat there. This brings the total number of seats in the present Parliament to 265. You will note that the two central provinces, Ontario and Quebec, have 160 seats as compared with 105 seats for the other eight provinces, the Yukon and Mackenzie River constituencies.

A recent Canadian Press news item gives some interesting information concerning the members elected on Aug. 10 last and I shall attempt to pass on some of this information for the benefit of those who may not already have read it.

[illegible]

The pursuits of the 265 members are so varied that the government [illegible] lack advice on any problem arising during the next four or five years. For legal help the government can rely on the abilities of 77 men and one woman, many of them distinguished members of the bar. The lawyers are the largest group represented in the new house, accounting for nearly one-third of all members. Every province has at least one lawyer, but the bulk of them are from Ontario and Quebec. The two central provinces each have thirty lawyers. Newfoundland, P.E.I. and Alberta, one each; Nova Scotia, Manitoba and B. C. three each, New Brunswick 4, Saskatchewan, 2. Farmers are the second largest group. There are 25, representing all provinces except Nova Scotia and Newfoundland. Two-thirds of the farmer representatives come from Ontario and Saskatchewan. There are two from Prince Edward Island, one from New Brunswick, one from Quebec, two from Manitoba and Alberta and one from B.C. Merchants and business men come next with 21. They are followed by agents, brokers and salesmen with 18, teachers with 11, and editors, publishers, journalists and advertising executives with 13.

FOUR LADY MEMBERS

The remaining members represent just about every other walk of life including that of the housewife. The woman's viewpoint will be injected into parliamentary debate by four Ontario members-elect, an accountant, a lawyer, a secretary and a journalist. There are 8 doctors, 4 of whom come from Ontario, 3 from Quebec and 1 from Manitoba. The dental profession is represented by 2 dentists and there is one member a druggist. Besides teachers, the world of learning is represented by 4 professors, 2 educationalists and 4 clergymen. In the professional field there are engineers, an architect, one surveyor and an agronomist.

The business world has sent managers, directors, contractors, industrialists and manufacturers to the House. The white collar worker is represented by clerks, accountants, stenographers and an[illegible]. The small businessman is represented by merchants of various types, lumber operators, garage owners and one jeweller. Other representatives include a butcher, pipefitter, two miners, one fisherman, a streetcar motorman, a mineworker, a hockey coach and an electrician.

My next report will be mailed from Ottawa immediately after the opening of the new Session on Nov. 12, when I hope to deal with the highlights of the Speech from the Throne.

A Brief History of Bananas in Jamaica

For nearly 70 years, bananas have figured among Jamaica's exports, with shipments reaching an all-time high of 27 million stems in 1937. Bananas apparently were grown in Jamaica as early as the 17th century chiefly for domestic use. In 1836 a French planter introduced the popular Gros Michel variety which soon displaced all other varieties. The first exports were apparently [illegible] in 1870, when Capt. Lorenzo D. Baker, owner of a Cape Cod schooner on its way back home, stopped at Kingston. To fill up cargo space he took a few bunches of bananas which arrived at Boston in good condition.

Not until 1885 were regular sales of Jamaican bananas organized in the United States by a man who later became president of the United Fruit company. By 1914 Jamaica was shipping abroad about 18 million stems of Gros Michel. After all the ups and downs of the ensuing years, exports may climb to that figure again late in the 1950s.

Miss Joyce Adams left on Monday for Three Hills, Alta., where she will attend Bible school for the coming term.

Miss Bernice Fulgham is attending Bible school at Camrose. She returned to her studies during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyster of Three Hills and Mrs. R. Fair of Vermilion were recent visitors with friends in the district.

A pretty wedding took place in the United church on Friday Sept. 2nd when the Rev. D. D. Davidson united in marriage Miss Rose Kiceniuk of Sunset House, Alberta, and Nickolas Wolf of Paradise Valley.

The weather during the past week has been just fair for harvesting. Showers held up the work for several days. However, we hope that it has cleared up and good weather is in store.

Mr. Peter Brown of Ottawa, Ont., returned to his home after spending the summer with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown.

Messrs. Fred Beckett, Dan Odegard and C. Conarroe were among those spending the week end fishing at Angle Lake. We have not heard how big the big one was that got away!

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

REMODELLING

If you are planning to do some remodeling in your home this year collect some good plans and use your pencil and paper to work out your ideas. Here are three good booklets available free from the Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton. Send for them if you wish: Farm House Planning; Farm House Remodeling; Farm Kitchens and Utility Rooms.

Remember, I will be glad to visit your home to help you with such things as cupboard ideas, color schemes, chose draper, etc. Keep schemes, choosing drapery, etc. Keeping a closer touch with you in your own home can often be of greater benefit than working with organized groups.

DID YOU KNOW?

That a recent survey conducted by the Canadian Association of Consumers in Ottawa reveals that home freezer food plans are basically sound, but they point out that the savings from the bulk buying through these plans will not pay for the cost of the freezer, particularly when operating costs and financing charges are considered.

Aluminum foil has many uses in the kitchen. Use it in your oven to save your oven from the juice of spilling pies. If you have an electric range be sure it does not come in contact with the electric wires. It should be only large enough to catch the drip for best circulation of heat. Use it to wrap around your fish when you are baking it, or around buttered cobs of corn to be baked. An easy way to melt chocolate is to float a piece of foil on the surface of hot water. Form a bowl shape to hold the chocolate while it's melting.

There are many other uses too, and you can buy the foil in rolls in any grocery store.

HANDICAPS OF OVERWEIGHT

We in this country consider ourselves to be well fed. Perhaps we are, but in many cases we are overfed. The most common cause of overweight is simply eating too much. Sometimes a child eats too much because he is brought up in a family accustomed to having large rich meals. Energy requirements decrease with age but our appetites do not. All the extra foods we eat go into body fat.

Why bother about watching our waistlines? Excess fat places a strain on the whole body. It interferes with movement and often causes foot troubles. The internal organs too are placed under a handicap. The heart in particular suffers when its muscles become clogged with fat. The interference with circulation places a still greater strain on the heart. All the body organs are placed at a disadvantage, and there is increased risk in regard to specific diseases such as heart failure, high blood pressure, chronic bronchitis, gout, gall bladder disease, diabetes and cancer.

Elks Carnival Dates Oct. 30, 31, Nov. 2

FULL PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR 3-DAY FUN FESTIVAL

The Elks annual three day carnival will be held on Friday, Saturday and Monday, Oct. 30, Nov. 1 and 3, in the enlarged B.P.O.E. hall. The complete program will be offered as in former years and this festival of fun will be all the more attractive this fall in the more commodious hall, which in addition to being much more spacious now, has been entirely redecorated and furnished with modern rest rooms.

Keep the dates in mind — Oct. 30, Nov. 1 and 3, for the Elks annual festival of fun. Remember the proceeds are for the B.P.O.E. community and charitable projects.

SHARE A DREAM

There has been a lot of excitement in my home town lately. Everybody out there is talking about Tom Carter.

Tom was always a good subject for conversation anyhow. Folks used to make a sly circle near the temple when his name came up. They knew he worked hard and that he saved. But every year or so Tom blew all his savings to model and patent some fool invention.

Some of us tried to tell Tom he was nutty as a fruitcake, puttering in his room all hours of the night, then spending money on lawyers to patent his so-called inventions. Later, when he married Sarah Fillmore, we thought he'd come to his senses.

Sarah came from a solid farm [illegible] and had quite a substantial dowry. With Toms earnings and what she had in her sock, they could have lived pretty well all their days. So we counted on Sarah to talk sense into Tom's head.

Funny thing though. Tom spent all Sarah's dowry and his savings on another dadburned gadget. I think it was a pneumatic [illegible] put on the axles of automobiles so you wouldn't have to crawl out and get all muddied up to change a tire. Just press a button on the dash, and up went the wheel in the same way window wipers work. Guess Tom lost a pretty penny on that one.

A couple of years ago, visiting out home, I ran into Sarah on the street. I [illegible] years of hope so I kind of skirted around the subject. Pretty soon she [illegible] "You must [illegible] Tom."

"Yes," I said. "Meant to ask how [illegible] doing."

She kind of squared her shoulders. "Fine," she said. "Tom's doing [illegible] folks around here [illegible] clever Tom is. He's [illegible]."

[illegible] she was just putting a brave face on the affair. But no. She kept talking and there was pride in every sentence.

When I got back to the city, one of my friends said, "By the way, how's Tom? Still fooling around with his screwball inventions? How the dickens does Sarah put up with him?"

Well the fact is Sarah and Tom [illegible] the happiest couple I know. He has a dream and she [illegible]. They're eating three square meals a day. They're [illegible].

I'd like to end this column by saying [illegible] was on the [illegible] a million. [illegible] But I wouldn't be surprised if it does appear some day. Then I suppose we'll all envy him [illegible] and some of us [illegible] imply that [illegible] screwball.

But I don't think Sarah or Tom will care too much. They're working hard and sharing a dream. What more could a couple ask?

"Head Blights" Cause Crop Losses

"Head Blight", and root rot, has been one of the main causes of disappointing yields and lowering the bushel weight of grain crops, especially barley, in many districts of Western Canada this year.

[illegible] The most common forms of "Head Blight" are caused by fungi (molds), many of [illegible]

[illegible] Not all the "molds" [illegible] Head Blight [illegible] affecting the [illegible] of the grain or of [illegible] Head Blight [illegible] seed for [illegible] from fields that are free or relatively free of Head Blight. Owing to the fact that Head Blight is very prevalent throughout Western Canada this year, seed treatment will pay higher dividends than usual in 1954. Plan now on treating all your seed grain next Spring.

At Provincial Institute of Technology, Calgary

STUDENTS ENROLL IN RECORD NUMBERS

It was back to learning for about 800 high school graduates who enrolled this week for regular courses at the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art, Calgary. An additional 75 students have already been working at certain courses since the beginning of September.

Encouraged by the knowledge that the demand of industry for trained technicians far exceeds the supply, students have enrolled in record numbers. In several of the courses, students have had to be turned away due to capacity enrolment. Demand for training has been particularly heavy in the fields of aeronautical engineering, surveying, radio and electronics, automotive service engineering and laboratory technology.

While the majority of students have come from various points throughout Alberta, representatives are enrolled from all other provinces and such far-away places as Greece, the Channel Islands, Libya, Hong Kong, and Coppermine, N.W.T. Several enrolments are anticipated from Liberia in West Africa, for courses commencing later in the year.

Returning students will have noticed several major changes to the premises made during the summer months. The work of beautifying the 123-acre campus has been continuing steadily, with additional areas being graded and grassed, and more flower beds laid out. The traffic problem on the campus has been simplified by directional signs, and the provision of parking areas for staff and students to accommodate over 300 cars. The stage in the main education building has been increased by 15-foot wings, while additional rooms have been added in the drafting department.

Other new developments this year include a special study of photogrammetry in the survey course, and a branching into television techniques in the second year of the radio course. Major changes have been made in the clothing and design department with special accent upon fashion design and drafting. To meet many inquiries, a special six weeks' course on diesel engine service and maintenance is also planned this fall.

Enrolments of additional students taking training through the Institute will continue throughout the year and there are indications that the total number of regular day students, apprentices, evening class, and correspondence students will exceed the record enrolment of 3430 established last year.

United Church Notes From Clandonald Field

On Sept. 6 Rev. C. W. MacKay of Vermilion conducted Communion service in Clandonald. It was so nice having Mr. and Mrs. MacKay and the two boys with us again. They were accompanied by their friend Mrs. Jamieson of Calgary. Following the service Mrs. Goddard on behalf of the W.A. presented our student minister of the past summer, Miss Haggart, with a lovely writing case in appreciation of her services here during the past few months. Lunch and a social hour followed.

On Sept. 13 Harvest Home service ended the summer season. The abundance of flowers and vegetables was proof that we had many things for which to be thankful. Everyone was sorry to see Miss Haggart leave and every success is wished her in this, her last year at college. The flowers and vegetables used to decorate the church were taken to the Elk Point hospital where they were gratefully received.

The Sept. W.A. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. R. Feenstra with a good attendance. The Oct. meeting will be at Mrs. Peck's on the evening of Oct. 7.

Appreciation is expressed to Fred Goddard and Donald for repairing the church door.

Milk Value 42 Cents A Quart

According to a recent economic breakdown of the current retail costs of the various nutrients contained in it, milk is the best food bargain on the market. If you were to purchase all the nutrients contained in it milk is the best food bargain on the market. If you were to purchase all the nutrients in one quart of milk separately they would cost 42 cents, says C.I.L. Agricultural News.

Broken down, it reads: one quart of milk contains 1 cent's worth of sugar, a half-cent's worth of vitamins and minerals, 2½ cents worth of fat and 38 cents worth of protein (at present beef and pork roast prices). Total 42 cents.

Second Year and 'Two-in-One' Reach New High

V.S.A. Term Opens Next Tuesday

Students for the regular winter courses at the School of Agriculture will register next Tuesday. There is a full enrollment for all classes in Agriculture which will fill to capacity the accommodation available. Because a record is being established for the percentage of first year students returning to complete their course and because of a large enrollment in the two-in-one class a record number of graduates for next spring is in prospect.

Although the enrollment of girls for Home Economics is smaller than last year the decrease is not as great as had been anticipated. Actually there is a larger number of girls in the first year course this year and consequently enrollment for the second year course next year will probably be much improved. It is expected that the innovation whereby the Home Economics students will receive some specific training to assist them in obtaining post-graduation employment will encourage a larger enrollment in the immediate future.

STAFF MEMBERS

The complete staff of instructors for this term is now busily engaged preparing for the reception of students and the commencement of classes next week. Former staff members who have returned to the school for this winter's term include N. N. Bentley, Principal and Instructor in Farm Management; D.C. Folk, Instructor in Farm Buildings; V. T. Janssen, Instructor in Animal Husbandry; J. A. R. Palin, Instructor in Farm Mechanics; L. Seath, Instructor in Science; K. M. Stone, Instructor in Field Husbandry; W.B. Olson, Instructor in Metalwork; Miss A. Randle, Instructor in Cooking and Nutrition.

NEW TEACHERS

New staff members commencing duties this fall include W. S. Baranyk, Instructor in English; J. Harcus, Instructor in Dairying and Dean of Men's Residence; Ross Giles, Instructor in Botany and Horticulture; Miss Thelma Graham, Dietitian and Dean of Girls' Residence; Miss Muriel Ostrum, Instructress in Sewing and Clothing; Mrs. G. B. Perriam, Instructress in Home Management and Handicrafts; Miss Doris Bohme, Instructress in Home Nursing and School Nurse; Miss K. Grosskurth, Instructor in Typewriting and Employment Training.

Miss Graham, the Dietitian, is engaging the dormitory staff required to prepare and serve the meals as well as to do the housekeeping work for the students who will be arriving next Monday and Tuesday.

Pastor of Alliance Chapel To Preach Farewell Service

On Sunday Oct. 18 Rev. Eric P. Berg, who has been pastor of the Alliance chapel here for nearly five and a half years will conduct his farewell services. In the morning service there will be communion and a children's dedication service. In the evening service there will be special singing, a farewell word from the pastor's wife and other features besides the farewell message by the pastor. Services at the usual time, 11:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Officers Elected For Students Union

Freshies Are Initiated At Vermilion High School

On October 1 and 2 all newcomers to the halls of the Vermilion high school were welcomed royally into our midst. Thursday afternoon a snake dance was staged to display the beautiful costumes. The boys, wearing cotton dresses, ankle sox, aprons, hair ribbons and make up, gently carried dolls in their arms. The girls, carrying candles, were pyjamas, kimonos, rag curlers, slippers and night caps. These poor souls were slaves to the commands of the other V.H.S. students during initiation. Anyone, who failed to comply with commands such as tracing their footsteps to school in chalk, or walking on bricks, were brought into court Friday afternoon. Punishments meted out included wearing old fashioned bathing suits, selling old newspapers, and scrubbing the bank steps with toothbrushes. Did you see an organ grinder and a poor little monkey walking the streets? Or students rowing or fishing from a bath tub on Main street? You weren't seeing things. It was all very real.

Friday evening a 'Harvest Ball' sponsored by the House of Carman terminated the week's activities. Appropriate decorations such as sheaves, harvest vegetables, trees in harvest colors, rail fences, and even a scarecrow, carried out the theme. The harvest moon smiled brightly down on this scene of gaiety. Novelty dances were very prevalent to add to the enjoyment of all. The grade 9's were our invited guests for the evening. Mr. Smith, principal at Dewberry this year, joined us for fun and frolic. Inman's orchestra provided suitable music for the affair. At midnight, everyone, tired but happy, went home to dream of 'punkins', scarecrows and bathing suits.

Congratulations to the House of Carman, the House Leaders and the staff representative, Mr. Kokotailo, for a fine job.

The elections were held recently for the V.H.S. Students' Union executive and the results were:
President — Bob Bentley
Secretary — Karen Acheson
Treasurer — Janet Wilson
Point Sec. — Neil Crawford
Girls' Sport Rep.—Anne Stewart
Boys Sport Rep.—Stewart Cooper
Social Convener — Helen Adam

Now that we are all set, let's go V.H.S. Let's make this year one to remember, long after it has passed.

The Queen To Unveil Runnymede Memorial

IN MEMORY OF 20,455 MISSING AIRMEN

Her Majesty the Queen will unveil the Runnymede Memorial on Saturday, October 17th, and at 2:30 p.m. Eastern Standard time (12:30 noon our time) this ceremony will be broadcast in Canada by the C.B.C.

The Runnymede Memorial has been built by the Imperial War Graves Commission in memory of the 20,455 airmen who gave their lives in the 1939-1945 war and have no known grave. They died for freedom in raid and sortie over the British Isles and the lands and seas of Northern and Western Europe.

New Anglican Rectory At Kitscoty

KITSCOTY. — At the beginning of June the Anglican parish undertook the building of a new rectory which will be completed by the end of September. The contract was let to Mr. Earl Philips, an extremely competent and local building contractor. The house is being built under the N.H.A. plan and contains a large kitchen, living-dining room, bathroom, and two bedrooms on the ground floor, while the basement has two sub-basement effect and insulated rooms, one of which will be used for a study and the other a bedroom. It is hoped, His Grace, the Archbishop will be down in the early fall to bless the new home as well as be guest of honor at the official house-warming party to which all parishioners of the mission are invited. From the beginning of October, the mission will be ministered to from Kitscoty which is more central as far as the entire mission is concerned. — Edmonton Churchman

Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Woeller have already taken up residence in the new rectory.

Three Hurt When Car Hurtles Off Highway

FLASH — ROBERT KRUGAR DIED 7 P. M. THURSDAY

Three men are patients in the Vermilion hospital from injuries received last Friday night when their car hurtled off the road at the corner just this side of Stony Creek. One, Robert Krugar, is suffering from head injuries and his condition is very grave. The two others, Radrick of Mundare has a broken leg while Oberts is suffering from cuts and bruises. The driver, Wiedman, escaped with minor injuries.

The car failed to make the corner and overturned in the ditch. The party are construction workers and were on their way to spend the week end at their homes in Edmonton when the accident occurred.

Memorial Gift For Heart Research

FROM MR. AND MRS. J. S. McKAY, DEWBERRY

The University of Alberta has received a gift from Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley McKay, Dewberry, Alberta, to establish "The Allan McKay Heart Research Fund".

The gift is in memory of their son, Allan McKay, who, while a student in Architecture at the University of Manitoba, succumbed to a heart attack.

The fund is to be used for surgical research in congenital and acquired heart diseases. The research will be conducted at the University of Alberta by Dr. W. Carleton Whiteside.

245 Teachers Attend Convention

INTERESTING SESSIONS THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Teachers from the school divisions of Vegreville, Wainwright and Vermilion gathered at the Vermilion school of agriculture this morning to the number of 245 for the annual fall A. T. A. convention.

The registration by divisions showed that of a possible 82 teachers in the Vegreville division, 79 were present, Wainwright division, possible 74, present 67; Vermilion division, possible 105, present 99.

Registration was from 9 to 10 a.m. followed by the invocation by Capt. R. Chapman. Greetings from the town of Vermilion were extended by Mayor S. C. Heckbert, with an address of welcome from Principal N. N. Bentley of the V.S.A. The teachers then broke up into four discussion groups.

During the afternoon an hour will be devoted to the superintendent's period, at which the three officials Mr. F. B. Facey, Mr. S. D. Simonson and Mr. Lyman Hall will be the speakers. During this time the high school teachers will meet with high school inspectors Mr. T. C. Byrne and Dr. J. W. Chalmers.

This evening (Thursday) a banquet will be held in the dining room of the school, followed by a semi-formal dance in the gymnasium. Speaker at the banquet is Mr. F. J. Gathercole, superintendent of Public Schools in Saskatoon.

Friday morning will be taken up with a joint session of the three locals, followed by separate general meetings of each, at which officials for the ensuing year will be elected.

Guest speakers during the afternoon will be A. A. Aldridge, Supervisor of Guidance from 1:15 to 2:00, and Mr. F. J. Gathercole, Superintendent of Public Schools in Saskatoon.

Guest Speaker At Board Of Trade

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21

All members of the Board of Trade are asked to attend the dinner meeting on Wednesday next Oct. 21 at 12:10 noon as Mr. McKay of the Canadian Lamps will give a short address. Mr. Mackay has been on a speaking tour of various service clubs and comes highly recommended as a very entertaining after dinner speaker.

TO COMPETE AT TORONTO ROYAL

PICTURED ABOVE are Miss Mildred Scarfe and George Gow, grade 12 students of the Vermilion high school, and members of the Vermilion Turkey club, who obtained the highest score at the Provincial 4-H poultry judging competition held recently in Edmonton. This successful team will leave for Toronto on Nov. 12 where they will attend the Royal Fair and participate in the Dominion Junior Poultry judging competitions. They will be taken on a tour of the exhibits at the Royal and go on to visit various interesting points in Ontario.

Mildred is 18 years old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scarfe of the Island Hill district. George is 17, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Gow of Borradaile.

Played Throughout Royal Tour Western Canada

R.C.A.F. Band Concert Features Variety Program

The concert to be given by the R C A F band at the V.S.A. gym on Friday evening Oct. 23 is one that no one should miss, a band concert, yes, but with just the right amount of variety that is certain to please everyone.

No. 97 Squadron Vermilion Air Cadets, is very proud to present that very famous R C A F Band of Tactical Air Group headquarters, Edmonton, which appears with the kind permission of Air Commodore S. W. Coleman, Air Officer Commanding Tactical Air Command, Edmonton.

The band is under the very capable leadership of FO. L. D. Corcoran, one of Canada's outstanding musical directors. During the past year FO. Corcoran and his band of excellent musicians have gained a reputation that rates them as tops amongst Canada's musical organizations. Of the bands many engagements during 1951 their being chosen to play throughout the Royal Tour in Western Canada, was an honor that will long be remembered by every member of the band.

The band will play at the V.S.A. gym commencing at 7:30 p.m., Friday Oct. 23.

DANCE BAND FEATURES DRUMMER, VOCALIST

Music for dancing at the armories will be provided by the R C A F Commandairs with that top notch drummer Flt.-Sgt. Jimmy Steele providing the leadership for this dance band par excellence.

Don Walmsley is featured on many concerts and his vocals with the Commandairs have proven a highlight with everyone who has heard his very pleasing baritone voice.

The dance commences at 10:00 p.m. in the superb new armories.

Both concert and dance are sponsored by the Vermilion Air Cadets and your support of their very worthy effort is respectfully solicited.

Canon T. W. Teape To Conduct Mission At Marwayne

OCTOBER 26th TO 30th

The Rev. Canon T. W. Teape of St. Peter's Parish, Edmonton, will be the guest missioner at St. Georges church, Marwayne, each night from 8 until 9:15 beginning on Monday, Oct. 26 through to Friday, Oct. 30.

Canon Teape is well known in the Marwayne-Kitscoty area where he spent the earlier years of his ministry and in Vermilion and it is with great enthusiasm that many of his former parishioners and friends welcome him for the Mission.

During the five nightly services Canon Teape will discuss the importance of Christianity to our lives today. The purpose of the Mission is to provide an opportunity for people to take stock of themselves as they really are before God, to deepen one's faith and convictions by providing fresh insights into the eternal message of Christ and His Church and to draw closer those who are on the fringe of being a Christian.

In preparation for the Canon Teape Mission much interior work has been carried out in St. George's church, and the basement is completed and the building is fully wired.

Although the Mission is being held in Marwayne car pools are being arranged in Kitscoty and district so people living nearby can attend. A cordial invitation to all in the district is extended. 16-17

Board of Trade Farewells Valued Member

Tribute to a valued member of the Board of Trade was paid to the Rev. Eric Berg on Wednesday at the Monday luncheon by President Keith Chalmers. Mr. Berg leaves next week for his new appointment at Abbotsford. Mr. Chalmers stated that during his five and one-half years here Mr. Berg has proven himself a valued member of the Board of Trade and of the community generally. Everyone was sorry to see him leave but the best of success would accompany him to his new field from his many friends in Vermilion.

In reply the Rev. Berg said that he never expected to get into a better town than Vermilion. He had been impressed by the friendliness of the people from the first day he came and his first impressions had only been strengthened with the passing of time.

Rev. and Mrs. Berg and little daughter leave on Oct. 20 for their new home at Abbotsford B.C.

FIDDLERS CONTEST

Kinsmen Club Old Time Fiddlers contest will be held late in November. Watch for details. 16-17x

Red Cross Blood Clinic Oct. 27th

IN THE ELKS HALL

On Tuesday Oct. 27, Vermilion is to sponsor another blood clinic. It is hoped to again make this a very successful event. The need for same is much emphasized by Mr. H. C. Paulin, Donor Panel organizer in Edmonton. There is no doubt but that many people here can recall friends or relatives who have greatly benefitted by the Blood Transfusion service during this past year.

According to statements issued in the Alberta annual report of the Canadian Red Cross Society, there has been an 87% increase in the amount of whole blood collected since 1948 but (quote) "The success with which we have met in the past must not allow us to rest on our laurels but must spur us on to greater efforts in the future. A good job well done in any worthwhile cause always develops a bigger job yet to be done."

Vermilion Blood Donors—Please make an effort to be present at any convenient time during the hours of 3-5 p.m., 7 to 9 p.m., Elks hall, Tuesday, Oct. 27. 16-17

Contract Awarded For Seed Cleaning Plant

The contract for the erection of the seed cleaning plant in Vermilion has been let to Mr. R. Anderson of Ryley. The cement work has already been completed and rapid headway will be made on the building from now on.

Mr. Anderson the contractor is known in Vermilion as he erected the Vermilion Feed mill a few years ago.

District Calf Clubs To Hold Meeting

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24th

The Vermilion and Mannville Calf clubs will hold a reorganization meeting on Saturday, Oct. 24. It is called for 7:30 p.m. at the livestock pavilion, school of agriculture.

Trophies and special prizes will be presented at this meeting.

The committee in charge, W. L. Robinson, J. S. Cross and M. Barr state that every farm boy and girl between the ages of 12 and 20 are invited to join one of the district calf clubs. Parents are asked to come to the meeting so that they will know what is required in calf club work. 16-17

Vermilion Will See Defence Convoy

PASS THROUGH HERE ON NOVEMBER 4th

A mobile civil defence exhibit, touring Canada to inform citizens of the need for civil defence preparedness will be in Alberta this month.

The "On Guard Canada Convoy" consisting of seven motorized 34-foot trailers, is sponsored by the Federal Civil Defence Organization which is co-operating with the Civil Defence Directors of Calgary and Edmonton and Alberta Civil Defence Headquarters in arranging two displays at Calgary and Edmonton.

The motorized display arrived in Calgary Oct. 13 and a display was opened to the public at Mewata Armories Oct. 13 and 14. After a tour of BC the convoy drives from Fernie to Calgary Oct. 28 and from Calgary to Edmonton Oct. 29. Arriving in Edmonton Oct. 30 the display will be on view at the Prince of Wales Armouries Oct. 31 to Nov. 2. On Nov. 4 it will drive east to Vermilion and Lloydminster. 16-17

D. R. Mitchell was in Edmonton last week as a member of the executive of the Associated Boards of Trade and Agriculture presenting resolutions passed at the recent convention, to the Premier and members of the cabinet. Mr. Mitchell reports that the delegation and resolutions were very well received.

COYOTES INVADE FARM YARDS

That voracious marauder, becoming bolder year by year as well as more numerous the coyote is now coming right into the farm yard to stalk and kill his prey, with young pigs becoming his victims. Ernest Pankratow lost five one week old piglets over several nights, while Peter Chupka had six taken in one night right out of the brood pens.

Ernie laid in wait one night and managed to bag one of the coyotes at 3 a.m. in the farmyard corral.

This predator is becoming more difficult for the farmer to cope with all the time despite the many new methods devised to aid in their destruction.

Alberta Is Fastest Growing Province

When the 1951 census results were published, Canadians sat up and took notice of British Columbia's outstanding growth — 43% more population in ten years.

But look who's growing fastest now — Alberta. And it has been ever since 1946.

There have been several other shifts too, according to The Financial Post. For instance, from 1946 to 1953, the fastest growing were: Alberta, B.C., Ontario, Quebec, P.E.I. and New Brunswick. But since 1951 the order has changed to P.E.I., Alberta, Ontario, B.C., and Quebec. As well, Saskatchewan had a small loss from 1946 to 1951, [illegible] then has gained.

All of Canada is expanding. Some parts faster than others. But if the total is bigger, so are all the parts. Development any place, eventually helps the whole land.

Signs In U.S. Advertise Alberta Resorts

Travellers in Montana and Idaho will be reminded of the pleasures of an Alberta vacation, by two billboard size signs that have been erected in these states by the Dept. of Economic Affairs.

One is a 6 x 8 foot sign at St. Mary, Montana, directing travellers on pavement to the Canadian Rockies. At the junction of Montana's main highways and the Logan Pass, this sign can't be missed.

At Bonners Ferry, Idaho, a 12½ by 42 foot sign suggests travellers "Come to Sunny Alberta, Playground of Incomparable Beauty". The full color bulletin advertises riding, hiking, boating, swimming, fishing and golf at Waterton, Banff, Jasper and Lake Louise. The sign is situated on U.S. Highway No. 95, just south of the junction with U.S. Highway No. 2, north of Bonners Ferry. It features, in accordance with Alberta publicity this year, a beautiful view of Lake Louise.

These signs have been erected as a part of a campaign adopted last spring to place travel signs in strategic positions both inside and outside of Alberta. Outside signs are being placed on main highways leading into the Province. The use of Scotchlite to make important words in the sign glow at night is presently being considered by the Dept. of Economic Affairs.

Minister & Co-ordinator To Visit Municipalities

Hon. C. E. Gerhart, Alberta Minister in charge of Civil Defence, and Air Vice-Marshal G. R. Howsam, Alberta Co-ordinator, plan to visit municipalities throughout Alberta, starting with the districts around Edmonton, within the near future.

The purpose of the tour will be to make personal contacts with Civil Defence and other civic officials in each municipality.

Thorncliffe

The October meeting of the Thorncliffe branch of the A.W.I. met at the home of Mrs. James Moses on Oct. 7 at 2 p.m. All seven members and three visitors were present.

The meeting opened with singing of O Canada followed by the Creed. Roll call was a nursery rhyme, or forfeit a dime—we collected only one dime.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary.

The Social Welfare convenor, Mrs. James Moses reported no one sick during the past month.

A thank you card was read from the Unitarian Service committee thanking the branch for the clothing parcel sent last June.

A donation of $5 is being sent to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

The day you have been waiting for is here. A ticket will be drawn for the quilt on Friday, Oct. 16 at the dance at the school sponsored by the teacher Mrs. Hurford and the pupils. If you haven't a ticket yet, you can get some at the dance.

A topic about the International Peace Garden was read by Mrs. John King.

The social was a pie quiz, given by Mrs. Thos. Thompson, the winner being Mrs. Eric Watt.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Thos. Thompson on Nov. 4 at 2 p.m. We are planning to have a talk and demonstration on sewing by Miss Shirley Holms, and any visitors are welcome. The roll call will be a home nursing hint and the social by Mrs. Fred Clark.

FULL PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR 3-DAY FUN FESTIVAL

The Elks annual three day carnival will be held on Friday, Saturday and Monday, Oct. 30, Nov. 1 and 3, in the enlarged B.P.O.E. hall. The complete program will be offered as in former years and this festival of fun will be all the more attractive this fall in the more commodious hall, which in addition to being much more spacious now, has been entirely redecorated and furnished with modern rest rooms.

Keep the dates in mind — Oct. 30, Nov. 1 and 3, for the Elks annual festival of fun. Remember the proceeds are for the B.P.O.E. community and charitable projects.

When 22 girls' voices blend in a club song it's indeed a rare treat to listen. When 22 girls' voices sound like they did last night - Well, I— bet you you didn't know we had a hidden talent. (Wish we could find the darn thing!)

Well, they are good Canadian Club boosters anyway. They did appreciate the chance to attend that interesting and educational program and were thoroughly taken in by it. (Specially the supper).

We had a very lively meeting this week. Everybody had ideas about everything which made the discussions really worthwhile. Some of the ideas were — nevertheless, they were ideas, and the meeting had little chance to lag. Only once was there a pause which Theresa filled in nicely by humming the prettiest tune. What was that tune kid?

Tickets for the Stagette doll are going fast and as they are limited to as many as you want, hurry and get yours now.

Next week is the big dance. For a dance of variety don't miss this one. Tag dances, Stagette dances, broom dance, spot dances, square dance, round dance, it goes on all night!

As the next business meeting won't be until three weeks time, dance next week, social the week following the dance next week (just keep the dance in mind will you?).

What does your Label read?

NEWS from ISLAY

We hope the correspondent for the Stagettes of Vermilion reminds her group of the Islay chicken supper on Oct. 28 at 6 p.m. It's Wednesday so you may have plenty of time to get store dust off your hands and your little caps on and come with an appetite.

Pioneers Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Moore now of Edmonton, spent the holiday week end here, calling on friends; also Mr. Evan McDonald of Killam who was manager of the Bank of Montreal here from 1919 to 1921.

Miss Catherine McEachern was home for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd McFadden visited at the McEachern home on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Grover (nee Dot McNeely) are spending their holidays at her parents' home here.

Bill Bothwell of Regina came by plane to spend Thanksgiving at the parental home.

Mrs. Winnie Torrance, Miss Gwen Torrance and two friends of Calgary motored here to spend the holiday week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stone, Billie, Georgie and Ronnie spent Thanksgiving with their aunts, Misses Muriel and Gladys Stone.

Pretty Autumn Wedding At United Church

SMITH—AMOS

The First United church, Vermilion, was beautifully decorated with baskets of red roses, cosmos, gladioli, godetia and dahlias, and the guest pews were marked with tulle and sweetpea blossoms for the marriage of Miss Margaret Amos and Mr. Ronald Arthur Smith.

The Rev. R. Crighton of Mannville performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Amos and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leonard Smith of Edmonton.

Entering the church with her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a gown of ice-blue nylon lace and net over shimmering satin, her chapel-length veil misted softly from a braided satin and nylon lace headdress and she carried a bouquet of cream roses and stephanotis.

Attending the bride was her only sister, Mrs. Betty Roth, dressed in pale yellow nylon net and taffeta with matching headdress. The flower girl, little Barbara Wright, was dressed in pale pink sheer, bouffant style, with floral headdress. Both the maid of honor and flower girl carried nosegays of rosebuds, carnations and chrysanthemes.

The best man was Robert L. Gibb of Edmonton. Ushering guests to their pews were Mr. George C. Sherwood and Mr. Ted Ramshaw, both of Edmonton.

While guests were gathering Mrs. Barbara Hill sang "Because" and during the signing of the register sang "Open Thy Blue Eyes". Mr. W. B. Elford played the wedding music.

Approximately a hundred guests extended congratulations to the newlyweds at a reception held at the home of the bride's parents where the bride's table was laid with a white hand crocheted lace cloth and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake embedded in white tulle dotted with pink sweetheart rosebuds and flanked with lighted tapers and bouquets of pink sweetheart roses. The rooms were decorated with bouquets of roses, gladioli, godetia and sweetpeas.

Guests were received by Mrs. Amos who chose a powder blue sheer and lace dress with matching accessories, her corsage was pink roses and baby mums. Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom, wore rust sheer ensemble with rust accessories, her corsage was yellow roses and mums. Mrs. Robert Amos of Chilliwack, B.C., aunt of the bride, also received in navy sheer with matching accessories, her corsage was pink carnations and mums. Mrs. R. H. Norton in black and white nylon, with corsage of yellow carnations and mums, acted as assistant hostess.

Mrs. Jean Wright attended the guest book.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. C. W. Robinson and Mrs. Frank Pilkie of Edmonton, Mrs. James Whyte of North Battleford and Mrs. E. Corley of Vermilion. Serviteurs were Miss Betty Lou Docherty, Mrs. Gloria Ramshaw, Mrs. Adele Thompson, of Edmonton, Mrs. Jean Manyluk, Mrs. Jean Crose, and Mrs. Edith Kneale of Vermilion.

Mr. Joe Roth acted as toastmaster and Mr. Ed Corley proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom graciously responded thanking the people about him for their kindness in making this "a day to remember".

The many beautiful gifts bespoke the popularity of the young couple, and all their friends join in best wishes for their happiness.

Out of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Amos of Chilliwack, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. R. Gibb, Mr. and Mrs. G. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Casten, Mrs. C. W. Robinson, Mrs. Adele Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pilkie, Miss Betty Lou Docherty, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ramshaw, Mr. and Mrs. T. Ramshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roth, all of Edmonton. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitfield, Mr. and Mrs. G. King, and Rev. and Mrs. Brown of Lloydminster; Mr and Mrs. James Whyte of North Battleford; Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Weber of Stettler, Alta.

Mr and Mrs. Smith left later on a wedding trip to Banff and Washington, U.S.A. On their return they will reside in Edmonton. For travelling the bride chose a Chinese red wool suit topped with a gray Llama wool coat and matching accessories. Cream tea roses formed her corsage.

WEDDING BELLS

WOLF—KIENIUK

The United Church at Paradise Valley on Oct. 2nd was the scene of a quiet wedding when Miss Rose [illegible], daughter of Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] of Sunset House, Alberta, and Mr. Nick Wolf, second son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Wolf of Paradise Valley exchanged vows. Rev. D. D. [illegible] performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a waltz-length gown with full flaring nylon net skirt over [illegible] taffeta. Her fingertip veil of illusion net misted [illegible] from a coronet of satin with seeded pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Her only jewelry was a necklace of rhinestone with matching earrings. The bride was attended by Mrs. R. Bleakley as matron of honor and Miss Margaret Wolf bridesmaid, both sisters of the groom. The matron of honor wore a dress similar to the bride [illegible] and she wore a corsage of [illegible]. A yellow nylon [illegible] gown was worn by the bridesmaid [illegible] headband of flowers to [illegible]. For the occasion the groom's mother wore a dark [illegible] taffeta dress with a corsage of [illegible] pinned to her shoulder. Mr. [illegible] Wolf was best man and duties of usher were carried out by Peter Wolf Jr. [illegible] played the wedding music.

At a reception for [illegible] guests held at the home of the groom's parents the bridal table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake [illegible] decorated and topped by a miniature bride and groom standing under a wedding arch. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. David[illegible] and was [illegible] responded to by the groom. For the present the young couple will make their home on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bleakley.

Wildmere Winks

Combining and threshing are just about finished for this year in our corner. Our nice fall weather is still with us at time of writing.

Here is an item we overlooked last week -- Mrs. J. Wilson had her mother Mrs. Finlay and [illegible] Mrs. Fluker of Fort Saskatchewan visit her for a week end the latter part of September. Sorry we forgot this in our last news.

We were sorry to hear little Edward [illegible] sick in hospital and wish him a speedy recovery. Our sympathy to [illegible] Haines on the loss of a brother-in-law who died in a car accident and was buried in Mannville on Monday.

Peggy Graham, nurse in training at the Royal Alex hospital spent the long week end at her home in Wildmere. Peggy looks well and likes nursing very much but she says it's also extra nice to get home.

Mr. Gaylord Gibson who has spent the summer at Woodside, Man., with his daughter Mrs. Keast and sons Donald and Howard, stopped off at Vermilion for a short visit with his son Frank and family of Basswood, and daughters Mrs. Madill of Borradaile and Mrs. York who teaches at the Telegraph school north of Clandonald. The writer and family enjoyed a nice visit at the Gibson home Saturday evening and were pleased to see Mr. Gibson looking so well. He left on Monday to continue his journey to his home at Cloverdale, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Millar of Dewberry spent Sunday at the Gibson home in Basswood, also Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin and Doreen visited at the same home on Sunday.

On Sunday Laurence Graham accompanied by his sister Mrs. Wallington, Peggy, Bobby and Kenny Graham drove up to see the bridge at Elk Point and have a look around that progressive little town. We looked in the window of Ronnie Barwick's store. Sorry it wasn't a week day so we could have had a visit with you Ronnie. The bridge is really a boon to that part of the country and must mean a lot to people who can now scoot across the river and not have to wait on the ferry to take them back and forth. There are still lots of stooks standing in places along the highway up there.

We are sorry we couldn't attend church at Basswood on Sunday but probably Rev. Ford will be holding service soon again at which we will try to be present.

School children are having an easy week this week with Thanksgiving and the Teachers' convention.

In a letter from Mrs. G. Ronaghan at Creston, B.C., she says she gets the paper regularly and keeps up with the news of her old home town.

Shower Honours Bride

Prior to her recent marriage Mrs. Ronald Smith (nee Margaret Amos) was entertained by Miss Betty Lou Doherty and Miss Gloria Ramshaw at the home of Mrs. Doherty in Edmonton with a kitchen shower. Mrs. L. Amos, mother of the bride, and 25 Imperial Oil office girls attended.

When the bride returned to Vermilion Mrs. R. H. Norton entertained thirty of Margaret's friends at her home to a Receipt shower. All extended their good wishes for her future happiness.

The Weather

| Day | High | Low |
|---|---|---|
| Oct. 8 | 69 | 31 |
| Oct. 9 | 70 | 32 |
| Oct. 10 | 69 | 39 |
| Oct. 11 | 55 | 43 |

| Oct. 14 | 67 | 29 |
| Oct. 15 | 65 | 26 |

Weather for the past week has been perfect and just couldn't be improved upon. Bright warm days, no rain, little wind, in short, one of Alberta's best fall seasons to date. Threshing is fast drawing to a close.

C.N.R. Presents Freight Rate Submission

OTTAWA. Proposals designed to unravel Canada's complex freight rate structure and provide a practical method of arriving at a basic uniform scale of tariffs were presented to the Board of Transport Commissioners recently by the Canadian National Railways.

The C.N.R. filed a 54-page submission with the Board in preparation for the equalization hearings which now are in their final stage.

The Canadian National submission includes a new scale of class rates based on a survey of actual traffic movements, and such questions as Maritime arbitraries, western Canadian grouping, water differentials and interline rates.

The approach to and the treatment of equalization, the submission concluded, necessarily must be along broad lines conducive to the betterment of national transportation economy of Canada and, at the same time, must not lose sight of the many particular problems.

Home Building Spark

Home-buying is one of the most dynamic factors in our economy. It creates a lot of employment. For most people it requires consistent saving and spending of substantial sums of money, creates an almost endless demand for stoves, refrigerators, rugs, drapes and all the rest of the stuff that makes a home. In short, when the offer to purchase is signed, the citizen uncorks a big, long-term flow of spending.

The Financial Post doesn't believe that any significant slowdown in business is yet indicated. But it is clear that in his recent announcement about getting the banks into the mortgage business our Prime Minister was thinking about days which might not be so good. And any scheme promoting home ownership is one of the most obvious measures a government could take to stimulate a flagging economy.

Bowtell Bulletin

At time of writing these notes the weather remains fine and farmers are busy doing fall tilling.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. Ronaghan on the birth of a baby daughter recently.

Leslie Sherwood and Jim Ronaghan are away on a goose hunt in the south country.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Maggs visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Knutson, Maybelle and Harold visited Sunday at Lea Park.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gerrard of Edmonton and Mr. Kay of Tulliby Lake were visitors Monday at the Robinson home.

Congratualtions to our two young people Miss M. Scarle and George Gow on their recent success in the turkey judging contests.

William Walker has a tame duck that hatched out a brood of ducklings last week.

Ed Lippert has a nice new tractor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Casacher are back in our midst for the hunting season.

Mr. O. Johnson visited for a few days with his son Bob during which time trips were made to North Battleford and other points.

Don't forget church at Pleasant Valley on Sunday folks.

The writer was pleased to hear news of the Walsh family. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh operated a store at Borradaile a few years ago. Teresa is in training for a nurse, Jim is a postman and Billie is attending university.

Letters From England Recall Old Scenes And Old Times

After reading Addie Mead's recent reports in the Standard of her trip around England, one of our subscribers was prompted to comment on her association with the part of the country described.

The mention of Farnborough, England, in a recent issue of the Standard reminded the writer of this item that it was the place she first learned to be an 'old soldier' back in 1917, owing to the fact that having volunteered to ride a bicycle into Aldershot with copies of daily orders she was able to successfully evade physical jerks, a drill conducted by a very vociferous regular army sergeant (male) whose voice alone was guaranteed to paralyse even the strongest of raw recruits. However it was almost a case of out of the frying pan into the fire, as Aldershot was entirely an army camp and many were the wolf calls and whistles which greeted the then very new, very timid, newly sworn-in member of the W.A.A.C.

New Snow Measuring Device At Vermilion Weather Station

The latest device for measuring the depth of snow was installed at the Vermilion Department of Transport weather station last week. The equipment is mounted on a short post and the outside resembles a huge metal cone, while the snow is actually caught in a cylinder set in the centre of the cone and thus protected from the wind. This completes about every imaginable device for computing weather statistics, rain and snow gauges, wind velocity recorder and direction finder, high and low temperatures recording thermometers.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Margaret Anne Sweeney who passed away Oct. 19, 1951.

"When her listless hands were folded
Across her pulseless breast
I knew the gates were opened
And mother was at rest
Somewhere on the unseen shore
She watches, beckons and waits for me
When over the river [illegible]

Clandonald United Church Notes

The United Church W.A. met at the home of Mrs. Peck with 8 members and one guest present. Plans were made to hold a chicken supper and bazaar in the Orange hall in Clandonald on Wednesday, Oct. 21. There will also be a table of used clothing for sale.

The next W.A. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Laird. On that occasion Miss Shirley Holms, our district home economist who writes the articles in the Standard, will be our guest speaker. The subject will be 'Bazaar and Christmas Gift Ideas'. Allendale W.A. group will be guests of this meeting.

Rev McKay has arranged a wonderful program of church services in Vermilion for the next 9 months.

2,000,000 Christmas trees will be shipped by C.N.R. this year from B.C., a record number. They will be worth a million dollars.

Envelope production, at 3,500,000,000, is a $[illegible] a year business in Canada.

PEPPER YOUNG'S FAMILY
Monday through Friday at 1:30 p.m.

Back from a six months visit to old home scenes in North Ireland are Mr. and Mrs. George Whyte. Very fine voyages were enjoyed and the stay in the old country was up to every expectation. Times are prosperous and people are spending money freely. Food is plentiful with the only rationed commodity being butter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hodgins and daughter Miss Elma returned to Vermilion last week from a six weeks visit to old home scenes in Quebec and Ontario. They found the many relatives on both sides of the family hale, hearty, very active and all most anxious to outdo each other in showing the westerners a very good time.

Local News of Interest

Mr. and Mrs John J. Duncan of Dundalk, Ont., spent a week here on a surprise visit to the former's uncles and families, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Duncan, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duncan. The young couple are on their honeymoon and plan to motor through to the coast. This is their first time in the west and they are greatly impressed with the rolling land and many trees where they expected only flat prairie. They now keenly anticipate seeing the Rockies.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Amos have as their guests the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Amos of Chilliwack, B.C. This is the visitors 'first trip to this part of Alberta and they are very pleased with the pretty country and warm weather.

The largest contingent of students ever to attend University from Vermilion in any one year trouped home for Thanksgiving week end. These include Noreen Dougan and Catherine Barr from the University hospital, Betty Bentley and Shirley Sutherland, Ken Caron, Jim Adam, John Stewart, Larry Kehoe, Rex Boake and Cecil Kitz. Accompanying them as far as Mannville was Fred Otto.

Other students home from the city were Eileen Shattuck and Alice [illegible].

Miss Ruth Beatty was in Morinville for a day or two last week, attending the wedding of her cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Warren of Asquith, Sask., spent the holiday week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conboy.

Bill Bothwell of Regina was home for the holiday week end. The trip was made via CPA plane landing at Lloydminster. On his return he will fly to the Imperial Oil refinery at Sarnia and make a business visit to Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bell and the two boys spent the week end in Edmonton, guests at the family home of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Taylor and son Scott of Calgary and Miss Gladys Larsen of Edmonton spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy McKone of Edmonton spent Thanksgiving in town renewing many former old acquaintances here. Percy also managed to get in some shooting.

Spending Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cross, was their daughter Miss Patsy who is a nurse-in-training at the Royal Alexandra hospital, Edmonton.

Renewing acquaintances in town for the holiday week end were Mr. and Mrs. Buster Maskell from Edmonton.

Mr and Mrs Jack Baddock motored to Calgary for the holiday week end where they visited daughter Louise and husband, and son Bob.

Peter Kather, son of Mr and Mrs Bert Kather, has commenced a plumbing course at the Edmonton Technical school. After studying there for some months Peter will take an actual apprenticeship course with a plumbing firm in the city. In his time off from school in Edmonton at present Peter is helping Jack Mackenzie rebuild his garage in Jasper Place. Jack had the misfortune to have his garage destroyed by fire early this summer.

David Kather is out in Vancouver where he is working in the furniture department of a departmental store.

Mr and Mrs George Dolliver were in town from the city over the holiday week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Elliott and daughter Mary of Tofield were visitors at the home of Art's parents, Mr and Mrs. A. W. Elliott for the Thanksgiving week end.

Bill Lamb and 17-year-old six-foot son Bob came from Edmonton last Saturday to join Mrs Lamb who has been visiting here and to enjoy the holiday week end. It was 1934 when the Lamb family left town to reside in the city. While here they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Norton.

Mr. and Mrs J. R. Robson were Thanksgiving visitors to Calgary where all their family, son Hunter, daughters Leslie and Jean now reside.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Simonson and family spent the holiday week end visiting relatives at Camrose. They were joined by son Henry who is an aeronautical engineering student at the provincial Institute of Technology in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Cooper have received word from their son Norman with the R.C.A.F. at North Luffenham, England, that he recently received a promotion from LAC to Corporal. Norman has another year overseas, then will be posted to a station in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Elder returned to Vermilion after some three months in Vancouver. They intend going to Calgary to live where Bill has a position with the Albercan Oils. Stewart King, formerly of Vermilion, a president of this company.

Betty Cross was home from Edmonton for the holiday week end.

Cal Keys of Edmonton was here for the week end visiting his mother Mrs. C. F. Keys. As Cal grew up here he had many social calls to make, as well as planning a shoot, and looking over the new curling rink, a game in which he is greatly interested.

TALK HOCKEY ON SUNDAY, OCT. 18

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE TIGERS HOCKEY CLUB

The annual meeting of the Vermilion Tigers Hockey club will be held in the Legion hall at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday Oct. 18. A new executive will be elected and reports of last season will be given.

It is most important that a good meeting be assured if Vermilion is going to continue to have top-notch senior hockey as in the past few years. More than just vocal support is sorely needed before a successful season can be launched and it should be the responsibility of more than just the few members of the executive who are elected each year. 14-15

MALNUTRITION

Malnutrition is no respector of persons and recognizes no barriers as to race, social background or wealth. The fat, pudgy child is just as badly nourished as the thin, skinny one. In its broadest sense, when anything interferes with a child's normal growth and development, it means that the child is suffering from malnutrition. The beginnings of malnutrition are often so insidious, subtle and unsuspected that it may go unrecognized until it presents itself in a dramatic typical picture. The pale, listless, lackadaisical, dull-eyed, stoop-shouldered, saggy kneed, flabby and easily tired child. To the observant parent, nurse or physician such a child demands immediate medical attention. But there are countless other children suffering from malnutrition: because they do not show it in such an obvious way their condition may go undetected for a long time.

There are 3 main causes of malnutrition and any one of them is capable of affecting a child. First there is the most obvious one, faulty nutrition—either too much or too little food, improper selection of foods in the daily menu, or faulty eating habits. Secondly, pathological causes which include acute and chronic diseases, glandular troubles and inability of the body to use foods properly. Thirdly there are the psycholological factors when the child is subject to emotional tensions in an unhappy family life or suffers from mental and physical fatigue.

How can we recognize malnutrition in early stages? This problem has been baffling scientists for a long time. The usual method of appraising a child's physical condition has been to compare his height to a 'standard' for his age which in turn had been obtained by taking the average of a select group of boys and girls. Obviously such a method was scientifically unsound. It did not take into account the child's race, heredity, prenatal factors, disease, home influences and environment, and other factors all of which have important bearing on the child's development. The child of tall, beanpole parents does not grow the same way or at the same speed as the child of short, stocky parents.

Only recently has there been developed methods of determining a child's physical condition. One such method employs a chart known as the Wetzel Grid. The child's growth and development are compared against his own expectancies—that is, his ability to keep his physique or body shape, whether he is stocky, medium or thin and at the same time keep even with his individual schedule or speed of development. The Wetzel Grid is intended to give clues of impending malnutrition sometimes long before the parent or doctor can see the clinical signs.

Paradise Valley

Mrs. Harry Batty now of Lloydminster but an old time resident of the district, spent the past week visiting with her many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoskins spent the holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Foxwell in Edmonton going up Friday afternoon and returning on Monday except Mrs. Hoskins who went down to Calgary to visit with her mother Mrs. E. Bransgrove.

The weather during the past week has been almost too good to be true. As a result the farmers are getting their fall work done in good time. There is still some harvesting to be done but majority have completed their work. What we need now are grain cars and a place to sell our grain.

Mr. Monty Hoskins was called to the coast when he received a wire that his brother James Hoskins of Lulu Island had passed away very suddenly on Monday Oct. 5. No details have been received at time of writing.

We are glad to see Miss Helen Krawchuk home from her stay in the Lloydminster hospital following her accident when she fell off a car while riding on the running board. Helen was lucky to come off as good as she did as a serious injury might have resulted.

The pupils of the different schools are having a gay time this week as they have only two days of 'durance vile'. Monday being a holiday and the A.T.A. convention at Vermilion on Thursday and Friday with all teachers attending.

Rev. D. D. Davidson and Mr. A. G. Lea attended the meeting of Presbytery held at Lloydminster on Tuesday and Wednesday. The P.V. W.A. was well represented at the W.A. rally also held at Lloydminster on Wednesday.

Mrs. John M. Ammond is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. D. Marsden at Wainwright. Mr. and Mrs. C. Bleakley and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Coleman are visiting at Moose Jaw.

1953 Christmas Seals Arrive

SOON BE IN THE MAIL

Thousands of 1953 Christmas Seals have arrived in Edmonton, for distribution to Edmonton and district householders in November, it is announced by T. E. Thompson, chairman of the Kinsmen Club TB Christmas Seal committee. Dozens of voluntary workers are busy addressing envelopes, folding seals and letters, and preparing for the best Seal sale yet, according to Mr. Thompson.

Edmonton and district objective for 1953 is $90,000 Mr. Thompson said. Every cent is already budgeted for with the provision that any surplus over the regular work of the Alberta Tuberculosis Association will be spent to install X-ray equipment in hospitals for routine chest X-ray of all admissions.

Mr. Thompson said "This is one of our biggest and most important projects but we have a long way to go before reaching our goal of an X-ray unit in every hospital. At least four times as much unsuspected TB is found among hospital patients as among the general population. Finding these hidden casualties and removing these sources of infection to sanatoria will prevent the spread of tuberculosis which killed more than 2500 Canadians last year."

Anyone who wishes to have Xmas Seals ahead of time for overseas mail may have them by writing to the Kinsmen Club TB Christmas Seal committee, Heintzman Hall in Edmonton.

Canadian farmers had a net income from farming operations in 1952 of $1,949,900,000.

One week from Saturday the big day for the people of Vermilion and district — the day of the Super Bingo in the Vermilion armories. All preparations have been made for the biggest and most valuable Bingo ever held in this town being sponsored by the Citizens committee of the local reserve army unit. Advance ticket sales have been going fast and all who plan to attend are urged to obtain theirs as soon as possible as the capacity of the hall is limited.

Tickets are $2 each and entitle the holder to admission and 20 games of bingo — that is all the games that will be played. Those who cannot get advance tickets can pay at the door on the night of the Bingo.

Bingo cards and a program containing the list of games and the prizes for each will be given to each person entering the hall.

As mentioned before all the prizes are electrical appliances to a total of $900 and will be on display in the window of the Northern Hardware Vermilion, all week starting Friday Oct. 9. Be sure to see them and pick out the one you want to win.

Come and play Bingo and take home a prize worth anything from $10 to $200 — everyone has a chance.

THE DATE: Saturday Oct. 17
THE TIME: 9:00 p.m.
THE PLACE: Armories

Miss A. Anderson will recommence the teaching of [illegible] lessons for all ages [illegible] and over. Classes will start at the [illegible] hall on Thursday evening next Oct. 15th at 8 p.m. and continue weekly thereafter. Charges are 75c per lesson. 15-16c

ONE-ACT PLAY FESTIVAL

ENTRIES ARE INVITED

EDMONTON. — The Provincial One-Act Play festival will be sponsored again in 1954 by the Alberta Drama League and it is hoped that the 30 entries that competed in 1953 will double in number.

There will be two sections of competition: Class A, which will be open to any adult group, and Class B open to Young Peoples and High School groups. Preliminary zone festivals will be held at various points in the province next March, and winners of each zone festival will compete at a final festival in April.

Regulations regarding the Festival are now available from the Corresponding Secretary of the Alberta Drama League, Department of Extension at the University of Alberta.

TAG DAY FOR BLIND OCTOBER 17th

IN CHARGE OF FROG LAKE CHAPTER, I.O.D.E.

The week of Oct 13 to 17 will be observed as C.N.I.B. Week and during that time the Frog Lake Chapter I.O.D.E. will conduct their canvass in aid of the blind. The drive will be concluded with a tag day on Saturday, Oct. 17. Everyone is asked to bear this in mind and to give as generously as possible in this annual appeal for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

TREATMENT FOR YOUR WINDOW PANES

Windows are the natural high lights in your home, says Miss Caroline Hudson, Extension Home Designer, Alberta Department of Agriculture. You can emphasize or subdue these focal points by the way you treat them.

Aside from the color and pattern afforded by draperies or curtains, they may be used to make windows appear higher or lower, wider or narrower. By extending rods beyond the window frames and exposing most of the glass, your windows will appear to be wider than they really are. For windows that are too wide, Miss Judson advises hanging the draperies inside the window frame to make the windows appear in better proportion. A high window will seem lower if you build a deep cornice box or valance or if you use drapery fabric with a distinctive horizontal weave or pattern. The reverse is also true, a low window will gain stature with a high-sitting cornice box or valance and-or vertical stripes in the fabric used as drapery.

Draperies may be depended upon to bring color into a room or to subdue an existing color scheme. Should your walls and floor be neutral use colorful draperies for interest. If the room is small blend walls and draperies in the same shade and create the illusion of greater space. A room badly cut up by windows should follow this same suggestion for unity.

Draperies are useful 'tie-ups' in your color scheming. Your drapery should repeat the other colors in your room. Better still, if you are redecorating use the colors in your patterned drapes as your color chart, use those colors to build your entire room scheme.

HAVE YOU TRIED?—

Milium fabric for lining coats and jackets? It acts as an insulation and is recommended because of its light weight.

Pellon fabric for interfacing? It is not woven but made by felting. Because of its construction you do not have to cut it on the straight of the goods. Therefore you save material.

'Instant dip' for cleaning silverware? You merely dip the silver spoon into the solution and then wash in soapy water, it cleans instantly.

'Sisal carpeting'. It is made of hemp woven in squares. It is quite inexpensive and attractive. Manufactured in many colors, it is suitable for dining area, living area, summer cottage or sun room.

Remember your suggestions or topics or household hints are always welcome. Help your fellow homemaker by passing them on.

What could you do with a thousand ....?

Yes, we mean a thousand, crisp Canadian bucks! Count 'em . . . !

Your heart would go pit-a-pat, and you couldn't get home fast enough to spill the good news.

At first thought, having a thousand may sound like a pipe dream. But is it?

Most everyone . . . if he puts his mind to it . . . can pile up a thousand dollars, or a sizable sum . . . the Canada Savings Bonds way . . . because . . . you can get your bond, dollar by dollar, month by month, in amounts you'll never feel.

If you had started tucking away 56¢ a day with the first series Canada Savings Bonds—and had kept at it—you'd have your thousand dollars today . . . and more.

Many, many Canadians have done just this, and will continue to do so.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Oct. 14, 1937

W. J. Elliott who has been principal of the V.S.A. for the past 13 years, is being transferred to the agricultural department in Edmonton to take charge of the unemployed youth training plan, and the work of the boys and girls clubs in the province. He will be succeeded here by S. H. Gandier, former assistant deputy minister of agriculture, and a former principal of the Claresholm agricultural college. The change takes place immediately.

135 teachers registered at the annual convention which opened on Thursday morning.

Paynton won the high school track meet held at the Vermilion fair grounds Wednesday with representatives from eight schools competing. Big point winner for Vermilion was Percy Cooper followed by George McCurdy, Walter Hrynyk, Harold Heidebrecht and Alice Landells.

Farewell parties were held in various parts of the district for Mr. and Mrs. E. Corlett who were moving to the Edmonton district, and for Mr and Mrs. Neil East who were leaving for distant points.

Thanksgiving was cold with a skiff of snow on the ground.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Oct. 13, 1921

Dominion election day has been set for Tuesday, Dec. 6.

Total registration in grades 9, 10, 11 and 12 at the V.H.S. was 68.

A. G. Bennett opened a new tailor shop in town.

Beautiful sunshiny weather is the order of the fall.

A big demand for the new cottages being erected by the Count de Topor was reported.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

[illegible]

I think it was Job who said that we bring upon ourselves the thing we fear. I have never been one to give much thought or study to Christian Science or such matter, but from what I hear and see I think they make a lot of sense. Years ago I read what the famous psychologist, William James, had to say about the religion of healthy-mindedness, and it seemed to come out to about the same thing—if we think in terms of sickness and poverty and danger, we may well expect it; but if we think on healthier lines, we are likely to be healthy.

It is for this reason among others that I cannot get excited about national health schemes. It seems to me that if we go too far in this direction, we think ourselves into a race of neurotics. I am told that in England, where national health has absorbed so much of their time and energy, enough aspirin is sold each year to practically anaesthetize the whole blessed country. For awhile, every English politician seemed to devote his talk to the amount of effort the government was making to keep Englishmen healthy. Did it really work? I don't think so. I think the present government has done more for the health of the country by supplying more good food and letting people buy it. I may be al wrong, but it seems to me that men like Churchill, who spoke of courage and endurance, did more to make the English people healthy in one single speech than th Labor government did by talking as if the island was composed of semi-invalids who could be made happy with free spectacles and hearing aids.

Now I am not such a dunce as to say that I think there need be no such thing as sickness. I've been stung by plenty of viruses in my day! But I'm equally sure that a morbid mind has sometimes bit harder than a virus can bite.

I read the other day that one dollar out of every four of all the money Ottawa collects in taxes goes into social security and welfare. Some politicians would go even further. The money spent by National Health and Welfare in sending out little stories about the common cold, diet, and all the rest of it, adds up to a large amount.

I wonder if some of this doesn't do more harm than good. Every time you pick up a newspaper or listen to the radio you are reminded that you are subject to disease and that the dear old gove[illegible] warn you again and again. It's enough to make you sick just reading and listening to it! I sometimes think that the fellow in Ottawa who writes all those little notes is probably suffering from a chronic cold in the head himself! I wish he'd take a holiday and look after his own health. Most of us are feeling fine and have other things to think about.

Civil Defence Fire Engines Available For Training

Five new Civil Defence fire engines are now available to the Alberta Civil Defence organization for the training of auxiliary firemen throughout the province.

As soon as possible some of these fire engines will be allocated, on a temporary basis to municipalities in the Mutual Aid areas. The municipalities selected will be required to have a sound Civil Defence organization and to have trained Civil Defence personnel including firemen.

It is the intention to enlarge upon the present supply of fire engines, allocating them as outlined above.

At the present time, a new program for the training of Civil Defence auxiliary firemen is underway and instruction is being carried out under the direction of the Alberta Fire Commissioner, in co-operation with Alberta C D H Q.

The visits to the municipalities by the fire engines and crews do not cover the whole of the 32-hour period normally required for the fire-fighting course, and the remainder of the instruction is to be given in each community by local instructors trained at Alberta Fire Instructors schools.

As mentioned earlier the plan to allocate fire engines to municipalities will make it possible for local instructors to use the fire engines for practical training of candidates in their own areas.

R.C.A.F. Band Will Play At Vermilion Friday, Oct. 23rd

Vermilion residents will hear the famous Royal Canadian Air Force band of Tactical Air Command in a concert and dance Friday Oct. 23.

The band, under the direction of Flying Officer Leo Corcoran, will appear in Vermilion through kind permission of Air Commodore S. W. Coleman, [illegible], air officer commanding Tactical Air Command, Edmonton. Sponsor of their Vermilion visit is the local Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

The band will present an interesting and varied program of classical and popular music. Highlight of the program will be Scottish Rhapsody" a number written by Sgt. Dave Peterkin, clarinetist with the band.

The composition, which introduces and blends 'Temple House', 'The Lord is My Shepherd', 'Shean Trubaigh' and 'Arran Boat', has received much praise.

The composer was born at Loch Lomond, Scotland. His musical career has included playing with European and British Symphony orchestras. Immediately prior to emigrating from England to enlist in the RCAF in 1952 Sgt. Peterkin was with the BBC Welsh Orchestra.

The 40-piece band is well known in western Canada and the U. S. having been featured many times at city and state fairs. Organized six years ago, the band has appeared in over 1000 concert engagements and has travelled more than 175,000 miles. The band has recently returned from a tour of the southern parts of the four westernp rovinces and a feature appearance at the Pacific National Exhibition, Vancouver.

Flying Officer Leo Corcoran, the bandmaster, was solo clarinetist with the RCAF headquarters band in England during World War 2. For the past 27 years he has been associated with military, symphony and philharmonic bands in eastern Canada and Europe. He has played under many noted conductors such as Sir Adrian Boult, Wing Commander O'Donnell and Harry Mortimer of the BBC. FO Corcoran has participated in command performances before the King of Denmark, the President of France, and the making of recordings for RCA Victor. He first studied the clarinet as as boy in Sherbrooke, PQ. under Prof. F. R. Havard, former bandmaster of the Royal Artillery Band, London, England.

W. L. Robinson Stock For Toronto Royal

FOUR HEAD PICKED BY SELECTION BOARD

Four head of Shorthorn stock, one bull and three females, have been selected from the farm of W.L. Robinson to be shown at the Toronto Royal Fair. Two of these will be sold at the "Sale of Stars' held in conjunction with the Royal. The stock will leave Edmonton about Nov. 2nd in company with other Alberta exhibits.

This is the sixth time that stock from the Rosedale Shorthorn farm of Mr. Robinson has been chosen for the Alberta exhibit at the Toronto Royal.

Mannville Votes For Water and Sewer

166 FOR — 18 AGAINST

MANNVILLE.--Village of Mannville voted overwhelmingly in favor of the water and sewer by-laws on Monday, Oct. 19 with a vote of 166 to 18. This means that the village can take advantage of the loan which can be obtained under the provisions of the Self-Liquidating Projects Act with the interest rate at 2% per annum. Needless to say the majority of the citizens are delighted and are looking forward to the advantages of both water and sewerage.

Largest Freshie Home Ec. Class in Years

166 Students At The V.S.A.

Following registration on Tuesday classes at the Vermilion school of agriculture got underway Wednesday with a total of 166 students registered. Eight more students who for one reason or another are required at home for a few more days, have yet to register.

The registration is highlighed by the fact that the number of girls registering for their first year home economics course is the highest for years, forecasting larger second year classes of girls in the coming year.

In the opening ceremonies held Wednesday morning at 9 a.m., Principal N. N. Bentley welcomed the second year students back to the school and in greeting the new student outlined the school objectives in the matter of progress for the ensuing term, as well as outlining a number of objectives relative to participation in extra curricula activities and social development. The members of the staff were also introduced at the morning gathering.

The traditional keen V.S.A. school spirit prevailed and indications are that this year's class will contribute to the fine reputation that the school enjoys throughout central Alberta.

840 Pack Armories For Giant Bingo

MRS. MICHAELS AND MISS EVELYN PATTERSON ARE BIG PRIZE WINNERS

I.O.D.E. Library Officially Turned Over To Town Body

The extensive library of nearly 3000 volumes of the Frog Lake Chapter, I. O. D. E., was recently turned over to the Vermilion Public library. The I.O.D.E. library has been housed in the new library since it was officially opened a few months ago.

This library had small beginnings but in the course of the many years has been built up to one of the best libraries in urban Alberta. At no time did the sponsoring I.O.D.E. organization have a very large membership as most organizations go, but from year to year it had a tireless and devoted band of women who made many personal sacrifices to the end that Vermilion would possess a library worthy of the town and district.

The Frog Lake Chapter made the library one of its main objectives and its success was wholly due to the united efforts of the members as a body. For a number of years Mrs. W. B. Elford was librarian and upon her retirement was succeeded by Mrs. Carroll, who also held the office for a number of years. Both the ladies were very efficient and served without compensation.

In connection with the administration of the library much credit is due to Mrs E. B. Norton, for several years Regent of the Chapter, who catalogued the books giving each book a reference number, a most painstaking and exacting work and thus rendering ready access to books wanted.

The Chapter has distributed hundreds of used books to school libraries throughout the district, to form a nucleous or to supplement existing libraries.

The conduct of the library will now be under the control of the Library board as appointed by the Town Council of which G. W. Sutherland is chairman and W. S. Cash secretary. The I.O.D.E. is represented on the board by three of its members. The present librarian is Mrs. H .P. Long. Facilities for a reading room are provided and is supplied with magazines and reading matter. These are available to the public free of charge, subject to the rules governing the conduct of the premises.

The reading public of the town and district of Vermilion is deeply grateful to the I.O.D.E. in sustaining a library for its use for some 30 years, and to Mr. George W Whitneil of Lake Forest Illinois for the generous donation which made the new library building possible.

Dance In Aid of The Curling Club Nov. 6th

A dance sponsored by 'A Company will be held in the Vermilion Armories on Friday evening Nov. 6th. Three orchestras will be in attendance to supply both old time and modern music. Tickets are $1 each and these will entitle holders to attend the dance as well as having a chance on the door prize which is a two year old Hereford, donated by Johnny Christensen. The draw will be made on Nov. 6. Ticket holders will not have to be in attendance to be eligible for the door prize.

PROCEEDS FOR NEW RINK

All proceeds are to go towards the fund for the new Vermilion curling rink. Tickets may be purchased from any curler or from members of the Cubs who will be canvassing the town after schools and on Saturdays. Support this worthwhile project.

Standard Instals New Intertype

Mr. E. Schebeck of Winnipeg, Intertype machine expert with the Toronto Type Foundry, is at the Standard office this week assembling a new [illegible] type-setting machine. This new equipment is being installed by the Cooper Bros at a cost a little in excess of $[illegible] in an effort to cut down the working hours from 72 to [illegible] hours per week. It is a [illegible] machine setting five different sizes of type, from the small reading matter to the large headings and advertising [illegible]. This along with the [illegible] faces on the original Intertype gives the staff seven sizes of type on the two machines. The new type setter is the very latest model and best of its kind obtainable for use in a [illegible] printing shop.

It is hoped to have it in partial use next week but full operation is delayed by the fact that two magazines of matrices and several mold liners are [illegible] to come from the factory in Brooklyn. In the meantime the first production of type by the new Intertype is this item.

The original Intertype was installed by S. R. P. Cooper in 1921 at a cost of $[illegible] and has been in constant use since. The Standard staff signalized the arrival of the second Intertype by being one day late with the paper, but do not expect to be late again until the next new machine is installed [illegible] years hence.

Oscar James Johnson, Settler of 1906, Dies At Dewberry

The ranks of the first generation old timers were thinned when Oscar James Johnson of Dewberry passed away on October 9th at the University hospital, Edmonton. He was 74 years old and settled first in the former [illegible] district back in the homesteading days of 1906 subsequently moving to farm in the Dewberry area.

The deceased was well known in Vermilion in the early days and played the violin at the first dance ever held in the town. He and his fiddle became well known in the early days, subsequently a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances mourn the passing of a colorful old timer.

Mr Johnson leaves to mourn his passing his sorrowing widow, one son C. D. Johnson of Edmonton and four daughters Mrs. [illegible] Hallstatt, Dewberry, Mrs. W. [illegible], Dewberry, Mrs. Ellen Hall Grande Prairie, Mrs. Adam Gartner, Lloydminster. A brother Julius resides in Nebraska and a sister, Mrs. McKenney in [illegible]. There are 12 grandchildren, and two great grand children.

Funeral services were held the Dewberry [illegible] Tuesday Oct 13 at 2 o'clock with interment at the Dewberry cemetery. The Rev. Eric P. Berg of [illegible] officiated.

Meyers of [illegible] were in complete charge of [illegible] arrangements. [illegible] service [illegible] where Mr. Johnson [illegible] passed away.

Annual Round-Up Of Old Timers Nov. 4

The annual Round-up of the Vermilion Old Timers Association will be held in the Legion hall on Wednesday Nov. 4 commencing at 6 30 p.m.

Any old timers who have not been members in the past but wish to join please accept this as your invitation.

George C. Webb is the president of the Old Timers and Mrs Hilda Cross is secretary.

Homing Pigeon Has Lengthy Flight

FROM TRAIL, HOME TO KITSCOTY

KITSCOTY. Kitscoty may only be a small spot on the map but it is not so hard to find at least as far as a certain homing pigeon is concerned.

Mr. 'Jock' Manson, well-known citizen of the village, has for some years made a hobby of raising homing pigeons and recently had a good opportunity to prove that his birds would return to their home nests. His son Don, who works in Trail, B.C., was home for a holiday and when he returned he took one of the pigeons along in a box in his car. This bird was released in Trail, on Monday, Oct. 12, and the next morning about 10 o'clock it was back in Kitscoty. There had been an identifying mark put on the bird so there would be no doubt of it being the same one which was taken to B.C.

The distance form Trail to Kitscoty by road is approximately 800 miles and in a direct line would be roughly 400 miles, so the bird did not make bad time. It is an interesting fact that homing pigeons do not fly during the hours of darkness and so the mileage covered is all the more remarkable.

Shortly before this, three of Mr Manson's pigeons were released at Castor, Alta., by his son Neal who was visiting there and within a few hours they were back in Kitscoty. He reported that when they first got into the air they headed south but apparently found their direction and returned home safely.

At the present time someone is taking one of the birds to Winnipeg and it will be interesting to follow up and see how long it is before the pigeon returns from that city.

Calf Club Meeting ....

The reorganization meeting of the Vermilion and Mannville calf clubs is called for Saturday night at 7 30 at the livestock pavilion, school of agriculture. Every farm boy or girl between the ages of 12 and 20 years of age is welcome to join one of these calf clubs. Come out to the meeting if you are interested.

Red Cross Blood Clinic Oct. 27th

IN ELKS HALL — NO APPOINTMENT NEEDED

Preparations are almost completed for the forthcoming blood clinic to be held in the Elks hall on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Appointment cards have been sent out but it is again emphasized that if the time mentioned is not convenient, please come at any time suitable during clinic hours.

For the benefit of new donors, anyone between the ages of 18 to 65 years is acceptable. Prior to giving blood each donor is tested to ascertain fitness to donate.

Approximately 800 blood donations a week are required in Alberta to meet the needs of hospitals, etc. It is considered quite alright for donors to give blood every 3 or 4 months if they so wish.

The local branch of the Red Cross again appeal to people residing in Vermilion and district to come to the Elks hall on Tuesday, Oct. 27 and make this clinic an outstanding success.

Season's Activities To Start

BY THE UNITED CHURCH YOUNG PEOPLE

Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. the United Church will hold the first of the series of six monthly College and Young Peoples' programs to be held during the season.

A group of student ministers from St. Stephen's college will be on hand to conduct the evening worship and take charge of a program for Youth following the evening worship. All young people of Vermilion and district are invited to this very inspirational program. Young people, students from the V.S.A. and young married couples are invited to share this great evening of Christian Fellowship, the first of its kind to be held in Vermilion.

District Sec. Bible Society To Preach

IN VERMILION ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 25th

Emanuel J Heuer district secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, will preach in the United Church on Sunday, Oct. 25 at the morning service, and in the evening at the Salvation Army Hall. During the Sunday afternoon he will be at the United church service in Islay.

At 8:45 p.m. a film entitled "Stewards of the Sacred Page" will be shown in the United church.

Keen Competition Between "Houses" At High School

Last year, for the first time, Vermilion High adopted the House system of competition and has continued it this year. All the students are divided equally among the three Houses. These Houses are appropriately named for famous Canadians, Carman, Laurier and Service. Letters, in our school colors of black and red and indicating which House the students are in, are worn on the left sleeve of the school sweaters.

This House system has roused a much livelier competitive spirit among the students, and it has prompted a larger turnout at our House League games. For each game won, whether by boys or girls, the House is given 2 points. 1 point each is given for tie games. Total points for House League competition in basketball, baseball, softball, and curling determine which House is the winner for the term. Now, we want to win, not only for our own team, but for our House as well.

MASQUERADE OCTOBER 30

A Masquerade is planned by the Students' Union for Oct. 30. The V. S. A. is invited, so you'd better get started on your costumes. Anyone without a costume will be fined. Don't miss this outstanding event!

Registered Thatcher Goes 60 Bus. to Acre

A five-acre field of Registered Thatcher wheat yielded 302 bushels better than 60 bushels to the acre on the farm of M. Kenzie [illegible] who resides 15 miles south west of Vermilion. The wheat was on breaking and is for seed purposes.

St. Saviour's A.Y.P.A. Re-organizes

MEETINGS EACH TUESDAY

The Anglican Young People of St. Saviour's church have reorganized for the season and will hold meetings on Tuesdays at [illegible] p.m.

At the first [illegible] Tuesday the following were elected as officers:

President Danny Leversedge
Vice-Pres. Marilyn Maxwell
Secretary Frances Pockett
Treasurer Doug [illegible]

Next Tuesday's meeting will be of a social nature and students of the V.S.A. are specially invited to attend.

Thos. Dick Presented Life Membership

Legion Elects Officers

Elections were held at the October regular meeting. Here are officers for the year 1953-54.

Hon. Presidents Mr Robt. Fair M.P., [illegible] Mayor of Vermilion, Mr. [illegible] Morrison, Q.C.
Padre Rev D. A. Ford
President George Martin
1st Vice-Pres. Vic Tillett
2nd Vice-Pres. Alex Cullins
Executive Tommy Thompson, Lawrence Webb, Les Williams, Neil McLean, Gib Stephen, Jim Mullan, Geo Scarboro, Lawrence Mayhew.
Sgt. at Arms Bob Allan
Treasurer Tom Wilson
Secretary Ernie Buckingham.

Preparations are under way for the Armistice church parade on Nov. 11, the Armistice dance on Nov. 10 and the smoker on Nov 7. Every member ought to be out to all three affairs.

Thos. Dick was presented with a life membership at the last meeting by District Commander Selmer Hafso of Viking. Commander Hafso stated that Mr Dick had enlisted in the 50th Bn at Calgary in 1915 and had served at the front with the 29th Bn and the Brigade Machine Gun Company. He was at the battles of Vimy Ridge, Ypres, Somme and Hill 70 having been gassed and wounded at the latter engagement.

Mr Hafso also told of Mr. Dick's long and faithful service to the Legion. He was president of the local branch in 1939 and 1940.

Mr Dick was employed by the Alberta Liquor Control Board from 1924 until his recent retirement. Mr. and Mrs Dick will move to Vancouver shortly.

Mr Hafso also presented a past Zone Commander's badge to Geo. Martin. Mr Hafso related some of President Martin's service in the Army and in the Legion. It was mentioned that Mr Martin has just recently received a Coronation medal from Her Majesty the Queen.

What Makes People Buy?

This is the $64 question in almost 'any' line of business.

A hardware retailer would give a good deal to know the gardening weather we will have next spring. The person who sells home permanent sets or the beauty parlor operator could make a bigger profit if hair styles were known in advance. So it goes for all of us — what the future holds is unknown.

The businessmen can only guess about public reaction to his product or service. Even an experienced businessman can only make an experienced guess. The public taste and fancy is an uncertain thing. It is what makes fortunes and it is also what sometimes destroys fortunes, too. This is just as true for the wage earner, the professional man — even the journalist.

But the prudent among us have some protection too. Insurance, pension plans, family allowances and many other safeguards are available to help weather unexpected squalls. That is one of the reasons why the Canada Savings Bond habit has caught on so well in Canada. It always adds to your peace of mind when you have a few bonds tucked away.

More than a million Canadians—many of them among our readers—purchase these bonds each year. They know they're always instantly cashable. They know they earn a good rate of interest — this year an attractive 3¾% per year. Those who have not yet discovered the many advantages of the Canada Savings Bond habit might do well to give them serious thought. A call at any bank or investment dealer will get you all the facts about this new Eighth Series on sale now.

THE WEATHER

Weather continues in the perfect fall state, bright warm days with very little frost at night. No rain, little wind. Harvest is completed.

COPY HELD OVER

Despite the fact that the Standard increased its size by four pages to meet advertising and news demands this week, a large number of news items and several country news bulletins have been held over due to lack of time for setting them into type. The entire 16 pages should be carefully perused by everyone both for news contents and advertising value.

Little Pigs Need Water, Too

Fresh, clean water, available at all times, is an important requirement in pig production. This is usually recognized as far as the sows and feeders are concerned, but it is surprising how often the suckling pigs are neglected.

G. H. Bowman, Animal Husbandman at the Lacombe Experimental Station, has a word about this. Don't think that the sow's milk will supply all the fluid and feed requirements of the young pigs, he warns. After they have reached the age of three weeks they need more than the sow can supply. Thinking that they can steal enough from the sow's trough is not good either. They should have a supply of both feed and water of their own.

A creep feeder is the answer to the feed supply—a small self-feeder or trough in one corner of the pen boarded off so the sow cannot get to it. But make sure also that the little pigs get all the water they need. A good feed mixture and plenty of water will make for stronger thriftier pigs and eliminate set-backs at weaning.

See that the water is clean and fresh and before the little pigs at all times, Mr. Bowman advises.

Red Cross Blood Clinic

The Canadian Red Cross will hold a blood clinic in Vermilion on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. in the Elks hall. Donors are urgently needed 16

DEHORNERS FOR LOAN

Now is the time to dehorn any calves not taken care of by caustic applications. Tube calf dehorners can be borrowed from my office. Blade dehorners for dehorning the older cattle are for loan also.

COYOTE GETTERS

Farmers in Minburn and Vermilion River M.D.'s can get coyote getters from their field supervisors. Everyone must be instructed in the use of coyote-getters so people wishing to use these cyanide guns should ask for an appointment. Leave your name at my office or write to your supervisor.

NAMING FARM HOMES

If you are proud of your farm why not give it a name. Lots of people do it in Alberta every year. Did you know that you can register the name of your farm so that no one else can use the same name?

IMMIGRANTS MISSING

I have been asked by the department to try to locate four immigrants. Otto Fallscheer, Klaus Franzius, Julius Muller and Miss Tabea Klatt. Would anyone knowing anything of their whereabouts please report same to this office.

PIGS ARE DYING

Several people have reported recently that they have lost some young pigs. After feeding fish oil the other pigs in the litters have recovered. It would appear that these losses were due to lack of vitamins in the feed. Anyone who does not give the sows potassium iodide and the young pigs reduced iron is asking for trouble. All growing pigs ought to be dewormed. Feed for young pigs should be sifted to remove out hulls. A protein-mineral vitamin supplement should be added to the feed. Provide a creep so that young pigs can eat chop separate to older animals. Get a circular from this office on feeding young pigs so that losses can be avoided.

DIGGING FALL BULBS

The fine fall weather has been ideal for developing glad and dahlia bulbs (corms). As these bulbs will rot if touched by frost it is best to dig now. Glad bulbs should be dried in the sun for a few days before storing in a cool basement. It is hard to winter bulbs satisfactorily unless the temperature is kept down to 35 or 40 degrees.

DEAR FRIEND:

I have been again appointed subagent for C. L. Jackson & Co. Ltd., Edmonton, for the selling of Canada Savings Bonds for Vermilion and district.

Price at par up to Nov. 14, 1953, and never less. Maturity Nov. 1, 1965. Yield 3¾% per year.

Sold in the following amounts $50, $100, $500, $1000, $5000 with interest coupons attached. These bonds are registered as to principal only, in event of loss the bond will be replaced but not the coupons.

A new phase in this issue is that bonds in $500 or $1000 or multiple and the $5000 can be registered as to both principal and interest and you will receive an interest cheque from Ottawa on or near Nov. 1 each year.

This issue is cashable at par, plus interest at 3¾% up to the end of the previous month.

You have nothing to lose and all to gain by converting all lesser interest bearing bonds or deposit accounts into this issue of Canada Savings Bonds, $5000 is the maximum for any one person.

Contact yours sincerely,

H. P. Long, Phone 169.

P.S. The new R.C. church is diagonally across the street from my home.

Mr. A. E. Shortell Celebrates His 90th Birthday

FAMILY GATHERING MARKS THE OCCASION

MARWAYNE.—A family gathering to celebrate the 90th birthday of Mr A. E. Shortell of Marwayne was held at the farm home of his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H Johnson. Mr. Shortell came to the Marwayne district in 1904 and has lived there ever since. He is still enjoying fairly good health and is still taking care of bees, a special hobby of his.

Those attending the gathering were Mr. Shortell's eldest daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. W. Hardstaff: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hardstaff and four children: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardstaff and daughter: Mr. and Mrs. G. Sunberg; his youngest daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Johnson, Ernest, Andrew and Donald Johnson: Miss Elvina Schiele: Mr. Percy Nixey, a nephew of Mr. Shortell's, and Mrs. Nixey.

Those unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hardstaff and five children, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hardstaff and daughter of Calgary, Mrs. Bertha Shortell (daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Art Shortell and two daughters of Lloydminster, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pettigrew and family of Vermilion.

Mr. Shortell received some lovely gifts. During the serving of a buffet supper a delicious birthday cake from Mr. Shortell was a treat for everyone. During the gathering he received very best birthday wishes and felicitations from everyone attending the happy event.

Farm Women Meet Alberta Cabinet

PRESENT MANY TIMELY RESOLUTIONS

A delegation from the Farm Women's Union of Alberta met with the Alberta Cabinet to present a brief on Friday, Oct. 16. Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Wainwright headed the delegation and other members were Mrs. C T. Armstrong of Calgary; Mrs. Jack Harrell of St. Albert; Mrs. Winifred Ross, Millet: Mrs. C. D. Fuhr, Stony Plain: Mrs. G. Osbaldeston, Fort Saskatchewan: Mrs. Cecil Keast, Viking; Mrs. C. E. Jones, Millet and Mrs. C. R. Braithwaite of Red Deer. Ministers present were Premier Manning, Hon. Dr. W Cross, Hon. D. A. Ure, Hon. A. O. Aalborg, Hon. L. C. Halmrast, Hon. A. J. Hooke and Hon. Dr. J. L. Robinson.

The Women were particularly interested in having a study of Community Property Laws made and such laws introduced in the Province and also in seeing the Devolution of Estates Act revised; in having alcohol tests made compulsory for 'all' drivers involved in accidents, in some type of assistance being given young farmers who are anxious to settle on the land, in having the government make provision for the erection of homes for the Aged in Municipal Districts, in the introduction of Provincial Health Insurance, in the establishment of more Health Units; in more emphasis being placed on the fundamentals in education and many other subjects in the fields of Health, Education and Social Welfare.

They thanked the government for publishing the booklet "Government Services Guide" at the suggestion of the F.W.U.A. and suggested a pamphlet on "Other Services Provided in Alberta" to be used in conjunction with the 'Guide'.

The delegation was very pleased with their reception, with the thorough discussion which took place and the amount of information obtained.

Allandale Notes

The weather is grand and has been ever since harvest began. Everyone seems to be finished and now fall work is being done.

Through the kindness of our daughter, Mrs. Hilda Wilson, the writer was able to attend the first evening session of the St. Paul United Presbytery on Oct. 6 which was held at the new Grace United church in Lloydminster. The congregation must be very proud of their new church. The speaker for the evening was the Rev. J. Gardiner, his theme, Evangelism, a very efficient speaker on that subject. It was a pleasure to meet the layman for Saddle Lake there, Mr. James Steinhauer, whom the Nelsons knew when they were children, also Mrs. Mary McMaster, lay-woman for Vilna, who was a schoolmate. She spent a day at the Omness home and visited the Nelsons.

Thanksgiving visitors to the district: Mrs. Jim Armstrong and family from Ft. Saskatchewan, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Anderson and family of Lloydminster at the Armstrong home:

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Omness and four daughters Joann, Cheryl, Maureen and Wendy from Kindersley, at the Wm. Mayers home and other relatives and friends in the district:

Mr. and Mrs. Wm McNab from Colinton, Alberta at the John Nelson home and other friends hereabouts:

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robertson and family of Provost visiting relatives in the district:

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Chevalier and family from the city at the Phillips home:

Mr. Tom Williamson from Cold Lake visited his brother David and his sister and family at the Scilas Lee home

Mr and Mrs. J. Ockerman of Ferguson Flats were visitors at the home of their daughter Mr and Mrs. Idelore Nelson.

Mrs. Georgina Broadfoot of Saskatoon visited at her sister's Mrs. Baldock for a couple of weeks at Thanksgiving time, also at their aunt Mary's at Derwent

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. O Johnson and family a. ew berry in their recent bereavement in the passing of a dear husband and father. The late Mr Johnson was a pioneer homesteader in the Wan dale district. "One by one they're taken home or this earth their task is done."

Mr and Mrs. Rufus Omness and daughters Janice and Irene of New Sarepta, and daughter Mrs. Jack Hobbis and daughters Karen and Beth of town were visitors at the Mayers' home Oct. 18.

Congratulations to Miss Mildred Scarfe and George Gow on their achievements. It is wonderful to know that these young people have such interests on the farm

Myrna and Irene McPhee accompanied their uncle John and Aunt Edna David to the city for Thanksgiving week end

Mr and Mrs. Warren Edwards and grandpa Edwards spent the last week end in Edmonton. While there they visited Mrs. Holder, a cousin of the late Mrs. Ewdwards at Vimy. Mr Edwards had not seen her for some years.

A speedy recovery to health is wished Miss Jean Lee who is a patient in the Islay hospital.

The dance held at the Allandale school last Friday in aid of the Jr. Red Cross was a grand success. It was put on by the teacher and pupils. The proceeds were very gratifying.

Johnny Nelson has a lovely new Belair Chev car and a new John Deere diesel tractor. Idelore Nelson has a new 2-ton Chev truck and a new John Deere R diesel. Orley Omness has a new 6ft Wood Bros. [illegible]

Mrs. Eleanor Farley of Kent, Wash. is visiting at the Wm Cross and Wm. Mayers homes and other friends in the district as well as at Clandonald and Vermilion.

Mrs. Moore and family Edna and Wilbur, of Deer Lake were visitors in this district last week.

Rev. and Mrs. MacKay and two sons David and Jimmy of town visited at the Omness home last Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Scilas Lee and family have moved to Vermilion, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Strang and family have moved from Mr. Grant's at Ethelwyn to the Lee home.

Miss Anna Wilson is attending the V.S.A. which opened this week. Our best wishes to all the students for the coming term.

On Oct. 18 Mr. and Mrs. Orley Omness motored to Lashburn to visit with a niece and nephew Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hammond. Perhaps some are reading 'Gully Farm' in the Family Herald. It is written by a daughter of a well known family, Penders, that live just north of Lashburn, a gully being on the farm. It's about the Barr Colony and so trueof the experiences of these early settlers.

The writer appreciates very much the co-operation and help given from the neighbors for our news items. What would we do without our phones now?

Mrs. Beryl Greaves and daughter Brenda from the city are visiting with her parents, the Baldocks, the first of this week and will be joined by Tommy this week end.

Closing thought: Our blessings far outnumber our misfortunes.

BY-LAW No. 687

Municipal District of Vermilion River, No. 71

A BY-LAW to prohibit buildings being moved over Municipal roads without a permit.

WHEREAS extensive damage has been done to roads within the Municipal District of Vermilion River No. 71 through the moving of buildings over same, and

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient and in the interests of the taxpayer that some control measures be taken to prevent future damage being done to the Municipal roads by the moving of buildings over same

NOW THEREFORE the Municipal District of Vermilion River No. 71 in Council assembled, enacts as follows

(1) That no person or persons, firm or corporation, shall move any building over Municipal roads within the Municipal District of Vermilion River No. 71 without first obtaining a permit to do so.

(2) That the permit shall designate the route to be followed and shall only be valid under the signature of the Secretary-Treasurer and seal of the Municipal District.

(3) That the Municipal District will not be held responsible for damages caused through the collapse of bridges, culverts or any other form of hazard, but that the person or persons, firm or corporation will be held liable for any damage to the road grade, bridges, culverts by the moving of any buildings over Municipal roads with or without a permit.

(4) That the Council shall require an undertaking in writing from every person applying for any permit that should the permit be granted the holder thereof will indemnify and save harmless the Council from and against all claims, demands or actions arising out of the use of any such Municipal road by the permit holder for the purposes mentioned.

(5) That the Council may require as a condition of granted any such permit that the permit holder supply to the Council security by way of Bond or otherwise, against damage to the Municipal road grade, bridge and culverts, or against claims demands or actions by third persons, against the Council arising out of the use of any such Municipal roads by the permit holder for the purposes named.

(6) That the Council or duly appointed agent for the purpose shall be the sole judge as to the security offered and shall refuse to grant any such permit until adequate security has first been provided.

(7) For violation of subsection (1) the person or persons, firm or corporation shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to the following penalties, that is to say

(a) For a first offence to a fine of not more than fifty ($50.00) dollars and costs

(b) For a second or subsequent offence to a fine of not more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars and costs.

(8) Any persons or person, firm or corporation who violates any provisions of this by-law or any regulation made hereunder for violation of which no penalty is herein expressly imposed shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a penalty of not more than fifty ($50.00) dollars and costs.

DONE and PASSED in COUNCIL this 8th day of September A. D. 1953.

THOS. WILSON,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Paradise Valley Sub-Local Meeting Held

MRS. ADAMS IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

PARADISE VALLEY.—The first A.T.A. meeting of the Paradise Valley sub-local was held in the Paradise Valley school on Tuesday, Oct. 13. The following executive was elected to office:

President—Mrs. Adams, Paradise Valley
Vice-President—Miss Annette Lychak, Rivercourse
Sec.-Treas.—Miss Marilyn Whiteside, McLaughlin
Councillor to the Local — Mr. C. Venance, Rivercourse.

The attendance was exceptionally good as the three schools, Paradise Valley, McLaughlin and Rivercourse were fully represented.

The awarding of the $25 scholarship to the grade 9 student having the highest standing in the sub-local was discussed.

Following the meeting, a delicious lunch was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Richardson.

WOODVALE

We did not quite finish our September news last week and as that report did not get printed, we might just as well continue with a few [illegible]

Howard Connaston was through the Woodvale district again and looked up a few of his former neighbors. He sold out his telephone-answering business in Edmonton and devotes all his time to promoting oil and radium development in the prairie provinces.

Mrs. R. McQuid had her parents Mr and Mrs. Castell from Edmonton over for a visit in late September and gave a tea party, so they could get acquainted with a few of her Tolland friends and neighbors.

We wish Mildred Scarfe and George Gow success on their coming trip to Toronto. We have hopes that George will become a farmer in our district in the not too distant future!

Mrs. C. McGrath, after 79 days in he Islay hospital, where she celebrated her 80th birthday, as already recorded in the Standard, feels very happy to be home again and is getting along fine.

The harvest is now over and with the nice weather continuing, several farmers are still putting up hay and combined straw.

Bins and Bins of Wheat

It's about time Mr. Howe and Mr. Gardiner told us just how they propose to market our wheat. The Financial Post believes. All the elevators are crammed with it and still more is piled in open heaps on every western farm.

Normally, Ottawa would have no direct responsibility in this business. Selling would be up to the regular trade channels. But though warned repeatedly of the danger, Ottawa has continued its government monopoly. Prices are fixed and all selling must go through the government wheat board.

In the new International Wheat Agreement negotiated last spring, we hoisted prices at the very time world granaries were beginning to overflow. As a result wheat is backing up right to the farmer's barn. He hasn't been able to sell nearly all of the 1952 crop yet. He hasn't a ghost of a chance of getting rid of the new harvest under the present conditions. And they call this sort of expensive nonsense "orderly marketing".

The final phase of golf this year, the Club Tournament, is almost completed after one [illegible] play.

The championship is still to be decided, the finalists being Ted Edey and Clyde Sobey. The winner, when declared, will be presented with the Club Challenge Trophy. Gerald Stephens was the winner on the consolation side.

Carl Hockbert won the first flight, Ken Rowe the 2nd, Dr. Bob Anderson the third. The consolation winner of the third flight was Stewart Cooper, the other two flights have not been completed.

The executive of the golf club is pleased with the membership this year and with the improvements to the club house. Further improvements on the layout of 2 and 3 holes are planned and will be completed this year if the weather remains favorable.

Major General Odlum To Address Vermilion Canadian Club

SOLDIER, LEGISLATOR, DIPLOMAT

Major General Odlum C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., who has had a distinguished and varied career, having been journalist, publisher, investment broker, [illegible], legislator and diplomat, will be the speaker at the Vermilion Branch of the Canadian Club, on Thursday, Nov. 5. The meeting will be held in the Legion hall at 8.15 p.m.

Major General Odlum was born in Coburg, Ontario, but spent his early childhood in Japan, later returning to Canada and attending Victoria College, University of Toronto.

Following a brief career as a journalist, he was in turn editor, managing editor and publisher in Vancouver until 1932. He served in the South African War and World Wars 1 and 2, being wounded three times, and eight times was mentioned in despatches. In 1940 he was appointed Major-General in command of the Second Division.

He was elected a member of the Legislative assembly of B.C. for Vancouver; was from 1936-41 a member of the Board of governors of the C.B.C., and is a past president of the Canadian Club of Vancouver.

In 1942 General Odlum began a diplomatic career, serving first as High Commissioner to Australia, then as Ambassador to China, and from 1947 to 1952 as Ambassador to Turkey. 17-18x

Pleasant Valley

A little cooler weather has come along but it is still bright and very enjoyable for getting around. Everyone should take advantage and enjoy a drive to a quiet spot somewhere, eat their lunch and drink their tea beneath a leafless willow tree. It's very good for ones nerves, right down to the heart's core, a feeling you've never had before.

The writer and Mrs. Gillies spent a very enjoyable Thanksgiving, driving out to Mrs. Moore's. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harley spent Sunday night at Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gould's.

Wildmere Beavers

(By Mary Gibson)

The Wildmere Beavers Girls' club meeting was held on Oct. 10 at the home of Margaret and Sylvia Steele. There were 14 members and three visitors present. The meeting was opened in the usual way with the singing of 'O Canada', the Flag Salute, and Code, followed by the roll call which was to bring a baby picture.

The business of how to make money resulted in the decision to hold a dance on Nov. 6 at the Basswood school. The lucky ticket for the baby outfit will be drawn then. Roll call for the next meeting is bring a friend or your mother.

The girls then worked on their handicraft where they learned how to cast on stitches. The Mystery Box was won by Ruby Smith, this proved to be a scarf and pin. The meeting closed by singing 'God Save the Queen'.

Eleanor Donily had a social which was a game of tag. Before lunch Mrs. Martin took some pictures.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mary Gibson on Nov 14th.

Newlyweds To Reside In Vermilion

Mr. William Stewart and his bride, the former Miss Mary Dawson Young, who were married in a recent ceremony in Edmonton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young of Wainwright, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mr. Hugh Stewart of Mannville. The young couple will make their home in Vermilion.

Claysmore Fall Bazaar Friday, November 13

The annual Claysmore fall bazaar will be held at the school on Friday, Nov. 13. There will be a table of sewing and handwork, a table of home cooking, and a booth called the post office where wrapped parcels are dropped in, each parcel is not to exceed 25c in value. The public call for their mail and receive a parcel, unsight and unseen. Tea will be served from 2.30 to 6 p.m.

The proceeds from the bazaar are for the Claysmore community Xmas program and it is hoped that everyone in the district and surrounding country will come and bring a friend and thus make this effort a huge success. All donations of handwork and home cooking will be gratefully received.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Olstad motored to Camrose for the week end and planned to attend the car bingo held there last Saturday, Oct. 17.

Jim Horne is doing some remodeling on his garage.

The Claysmore branch of the W.I. held their meeting Oct. 14 at the school with 7 members present. Plans for the fall bazaar were discussed and the date has been set for Nov. 13. Several finished articles were turned in for the bazaar. The next meeting will be Nov. 11 and this will be a clean up day to get the school and kitchen ready for the bazaar the following Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Karlstrom and little daughter of Mannville visited at the Olstad home Friday evening.

Mrs. Fenton McHardy and little daughter Carolyn have gone to Edmonton. Mr. McHardy was finishing up a few odd jobs around the farm this week and will soon join his family in the city where they will make their home for the winter.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMillan on Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Vic Van Nest and family of Lone Rock, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. George Finlay and Mrs. L. Harrison and family from Lloydminster. Mrs. Harrison came to visit her brother and family but as they were away for the day she and the children called on some of their old friends and neighbors before returning to Lloydminster.

Technical Service Centre For Tin

World-wide acknowledgment of Canada's great industrial and economic future is reflected in the recent establishment of the Technical Service Centre for Tin, the Canadian office of the Tin Research Institute, located at the Ontario Research Foundation, Toronto. The new office is a pipe line for technical information from the Tin Research Institute in England. Through its Canadian representative, Mr. E. A. Lancaster, the Institute is now able to provide direct free technical assistance to all those in Canada who use tin in any shape or form. Backing Mr. Lancaster's personal services are the 100,000 items of technical information in the Institute's library, and the staff of chemists, engineers, and metallurgists who are engaged on long term research projects to help tin do its job more effectively.

The Tin Research Institute is an international organization financed by the main tin producing countries of the world. Its work, directed towards the improvement of existing uses for tin and the development of new uses, is published to the entire world free of charge. Among the more recent contributions to industry by the Institute have been the development of outstanding new electro-deposited alloy plates such as tin-nickel, tin-zinc and tin-copper, each having their own special fields in industrial applications. In another field, a new series of anti-friction alloys based on tin and aluminum have been developed with characteristics so outstanding that they may establish themselves as superior to anything that has yet been discovered.

In these days when technical processes are becoming more complex and competition more severe, no one can afford to use processes which are second best or to manufacture products which will not stand the test of competition. In this, the most rapidly developing country in the world, the resources and experiences of the Tin Research Institute are now freely available to be directed towards the elimination of these hurdles for Canadian manufacture.

Wildmere Winks

We can now say that harvesting has been completed in our district. Farmers here have already done a lot of fall work on the land.

Our teacher Mrs. Wilson attended the Convention held in Vermilion last week.

Miss Anne Garnett of Basswood returned home last week after visiting for 10 months in England. Anne who is a trained nurse's aide worked in a hospital while over there. Miss Betty Schumacher of Wainwright who accompanied Anne, a graduate nurse, also worked but they both think wages are much better in Canada and are pleased to be home again. Betty is a grand-daughter of Mrs. J. Winter, Sr., of Vermilion.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Gilholme and family of Edmonton spent Thanksgiving week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. Dibben and neighbors of Basswood and Mr. and Mrs. George Dibben of Vermilion.

The Farm Electrification surveyors have been around in our district and it is hoped electricity is not too far distant.

Several Wildmere and Basswood folks attended the Bingo last Saturday evening but none were lucky enough to bring home prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin and Doreen were visitors to the Wallington home on Sunday. Were you stiff after playing football Doris?

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haines attended their brother-in-law's, Fred Bagley's funeral on Monday Oct. 12 at Mannville. On the way back they brought baby Edward home from the hospital in Vermilion.

Adam Smith is busy building a repair shop these fine days on the farm in Wildmere. Not many years do we have such a nice fall and everyone is making good use of it.

J. C. Wallington was up in the corner by Kokmor and north on Monday looking over the roads he intends to build next year.

The Foreign Bible Society are having a picture show in Wildmere school on Friday, Oct. 30 so plan to attend.

W. I. members everywhere were deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. Morton of Vegreville on Sunday. She was a great W. I. worker and has done much for its progress. She will long be remembered for all her good work. Only in August she attended the A.C.W.W. in Toronto. We could go on and on telling of her splendid work. We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to her sorrowing relatives on her passing.

THE NEW 1954 DODGE MAYFAIR LEADS IN BEAUTY

Twelve different solid colours and 48 two-tone combinations are available on the new 1954 Dodge cars now on display in Dodge-DeSoto showrooms across Canada. This emphasis on colour is carried through to the car's interior where two-tone colour combinations in trim and upholstery harmonize with the exterior body colour. A new, more massive looking grille sets off the increased use of chrome that accentuates the longer body lines. Included in the Dodge Mayfair luxury series is the 4-Door Sedan shown above, a Mayfair hard top, and a Mayfair convertible. Completing the range of Dodge 6 cars for 1954 is the middle line Dodge Regent series and a lower priced Dodge Crusader series.

Local News of Interest

Mrs. Clarence Barr returned home recently from three months spent visiting relatives and sight-seeing in England and Scotland. She found the scenery in the old countries, particularly Scotland with its rugged hills and many lochs, really grand with an unexplainable difference in the impressions received to that of America. The old country hospitality too just could not be excelled. Mrs. Barr sailed from Montreal on the journey overseas and returned to Quebec coming home. The 600 mile trip down the St. Lawrence River with both banks resplendent in fall colors was simply breathtaking and the beauty can only be realized by one making the trip at that time of year. Effects of the war are still being felt in Britain but food is now plentiful, production for export is high, and the old British spirit to come out on top is very much in evidence.

Mrs. A. L. Wayne sends along greetings from Edmonton. Her friends should note that her new address is 10170-114th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grant and two children Linda and Bruce of Biscotasing, Ont., are guests at the home of Mrs. Grant's aunt, Mrs. H. P. Long and Mr. Long this week.

Herman Wiebe of Chinook, Alta., visited his brother W. R. Wiebe here over the week end.

Mrs. Anna Fisher is visiting her son Alfred in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. H. N. Stephens, Mrs. H. J. Clarke, Mrs. W. Lyle Robinson, Mrs. Wm. Roebuck, Mrs. G. C. Dunsmore, Mrs. E. Long, Mrs. Basil Hawley and Mrs. Sweet attended the W.M.S. rally held at Grace United church, Lloydminster, Tuesday afternoon last.

Rev. D. A. Ford was the guest preacher at Christ church, Edmonton, morning and evening services on Sunday last, Oct. 18. In the afternoon he preached at a special Children's Day rally in All Saints Cathedral at 3 p.m. The service being in charge of Canon T. W. Teape. Rev. R. A. Burden of Christ church, Edmonton, conducted the services at St. Saviour's during Mr. Ford's absence.

Mrs. Sidney Millward of Nakusp, B.C., arrived in Vermilion Monday morning and is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bothwell at Islay and her sister Mrs. Ashley Cooper and family in Vermilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson and family visited the former's mother in the General hospital in Edmonton on Sunday, and other relatives in the city.

Mrs. Chappell of Lanigan, Sask., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charlie Upshall.

Nurses To Meet

Mannville & District LOCALS

Mr. Nick Lastwika is a patient in the local hospital suffering face lacerations and several broken toes received in an accident near Vegreville last week. Mr. and Mrs. Lastwika and Vivian were not injured.

Birch Creek W.I. are holding a sale of home cooking in Proudfoot and Coxfords on Saturday, Oct. 31.

Don't forget the library Bingo on Nov. 6.

The square dance demonstration on Saturday night was very well attended and it looks promising for a club to be formed very soon.

Word has been received of the death earlier this year of a former Mannville resident, Mr. L. C. Minard of Nova Scotia. Many old timers will remember Mr. and Mrs. Minard who lived here until about 1930.

There will be a meeting of the Mannville and Vermilion Calf club in the stock pavilion of the Vermilion school of agriculture on Saturday evening, October 24. Prizes for the last year will be distributed and plans for the 1954 club completed.

Messrs. Jack and Bill Bryden have been chosen by the Alberta Department of Agriculture to show a team of Clydesdale light draft horses at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto. Mr. E. Prill, also of Mannville will show Yorkshire Hogs at the Royal Winter fair.

Edmonton visitors over the week end were Messrs. Gerald Fisher, Howard McLackie and Tommy Os[illegible].

Miss Doreen Webb is now employed at the Mannville hospital as a ward aide.

Visiting at the C. Gamble home for a few days are Mr. Jack Gamble Sr. and Mr. Jack Gamble Jr. of Ed[illegible].

ARMY YOUTH HEAD VISITS VERMILION

A capacity crowd greeted the International Youth Secretary of The Salvation Army, Col. K. Westergaard of London, England, when he spoke at a public gathering in the local citadel last Wednesday evening 14th.

Colonel Westergaard who is currently visiting a number of Army centres in Canada, was accompanied to Vermilion by Major and Mrs. Wm. Ross, new Divisional Commanders for Alberta, Sr. Captain I. Maddocks, the Divisional Young People's Secretary and Major R. Frewing of Edmonton. Also present were a group of Salvationists from Lloydminster.

During the afternoon, the international leader visited the local Junior High school where he brought an informative talk to the students on International Youth and World Affairs, stressing the need for a United Nation, brought about through the Brotherhood of Man, under the Fatherhood of God.

Prior to the evening service an open air meeting and march of witness was held. At the indoor service, the Corps band provided special musical numbers and Mrs. Major Ross sang a solo. Col. Westergaard captivated his audience with his outline of "An International Army", his special story for the children, and his message based on "The Prodigal Son." During the service he also presented certificates to the Corps Cadets for Bible study during the last course and enrolled three young men as Senior soldiers of the Corps.

Kitscoty Bride Is Tendered Shower

KITSCOTY.- On Monday, Oct. 12, about seventy friends of Miss Edith Jamison, bride-elect of the week, tendered her a shower in the Tracy Memorial hall, Kitscoty. After playing a few games and contests a short sing-song was held with Mrs. H. Batty at the piano.

A short comical skit followed in which the actors were Mrs. W. Murray, Mrs. M. Bors, Mrs. A. Nelson, and the Misses Beatrice Tyler, Morven Bootsman and Grace Bootsman; with Mrs. Johan Bootsman in charge of the sound effects.

The gifts which had been placed in a granary surrounded by small stooks of grain, were then presented to the guest of honor. She was assisted in opening these by Miss Helen Beek, Mrs. H. Walton, Mrs. S. Olsen, and Mrs. W. Walton listed bride-elect thanked all for the lovely the cards. In fitting words the and beautiful collection of gifts and invited everyone to visit her in her new home.

To close the pleasant social evening lunch was served by a group of the ladies of the community and the gathering broke up with the singing of the traditional "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow".

H. S. Students Tag For Blind At Mannville

MANNVILLE.- On Saturday, Oct. 17, the Mannville high school held another successful tag day for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. Total receipts for the day amounted to $30.60. A special thanks to those who donated so generously and to the committee in charge and the girls who tagged.

W.M.S. Hold Interesting October Meeting

The October meeting of the United Church W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. G. D. Matheson on Thursday evening, Oct. 15.

The president, Mrs. W. L. Robinson presided. Miss G. Craig, assisted by Mrs. H. P. Long conducted the worship service.

Mrs. H. P. Long gave a very [illegible] did report on the first rally of the new St. Paul Presbyterial which was held in Vegreville, Sept. 23.

At the September meeting Mrs. Clarke's introduction to the new study book "Where'er the Sun" by Dr. Samuel H. Moffett has aroused the anticipation of the members to an interesting year of study ahead. Mrs. Hill gave a very clear interpretation of the first [illegible] of the book.

Due to the absence of Mrs. W. S. Cash, Mrs. Wm. Roebuck, Presbyterial Secretary of Temperance and Christian Citizenship gave an interesting talk on the ways in which they plan to carry on the work in that department.

Mrs. J. Hardie, Supply Secretary, allocated layette articles. These are to be handed in at the November meeting when two complete layettes will be made up to send to Korea.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Eyben, Thursday evening Nov. 12 with Mrs. Wood convener. This will be our Thanksgiving Offering meeting.

The meeting closed with the singing of the hymn "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun" and prayer of Thanksgiving offered by Mrs. M. Barr.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Matheson, Mrs. Clarke and committee.

Variety of Activities In Clandonald and District

RECORD HARVEST WEATHER

Harvesting is pretty well completed in this area thanks to almost perfect weather [illegible] which we have been favored during the [illegible]. With only about two days lost during the past two years on account of rain it would appear to be a record for fine harvest weather. Crop returns vary considerably due to the July hailstorm but on the whole are fairly satisfactory in the area which missed the worst of the storm.

OLD TIMER PASSES

Sympathy of friends is extended to the family of the late Oscar Johnson of Dewberry whose death occurred recently. Mr. Johnson was among the earliest settlers of the old Wellsdale district, homesteading about 3 miles south east of town around the year 1906. Having some good horses he broke the first sod for several homesteaders in this area. About 34 years ago Mr. Johnson sold out and accompanied by his wife and family drove to Arizona with a team and wagon. Not finding the U. S. to their liking they returned to Alberta and have made their home in Dewberry for the past few years.

F.U.A. SPONSORS SHOWS

The first of a series of monthly shows sponsored by the F.U.A. local, with film provided by the National Film Board was held in the Orange hall on Tuesday, Oct. 13. Due to insufficient advertising and the busy season, attendance was not large. It is hoped that more will turn out for the next show which will be about the middle of November. The National Film Board has a reputation for first class films and the forthcoming shows should be well worth coming to see.

F.U.A. TO MEET OCT. 27

The F.U.A. meeting which was to have been held on Saturday night in the Columbus hall was postponed due to poor attendance. All members please note the next date which will be the regular night, Tuesday Oct. 27 in the Orange hall. This will be election of officers for the coming year so please make a very special effort to be present. Lunch will be served following the meeting which starts at 8:30 sharp.

DANCE NOV. 6

Also of interest to F.U.A. members and all other residents of this and [illegible] districts is the dance which is being sponsored by the local on Friday Nov. 6 in the Columbus hall, Clandonald. A good time will be assured with Hannah's orchestra from Islay providing the music.

The Orange hall is in the process of receiving a much needed coat of paint. Work is in charge of Ernie Stanley.

Friends of Mr. Fred Douglas will regret to learn that he recently suffered a slight stroke. However we are glad to be able to report that he is now making favorable progress toward recovery. Mr Douglas built a fine home in the east end of town following his retirement from teaching school.

Mr. Frank Williamson, a former old timer, has been spending a few days visiting members of his family who live in the district. Frank spent some time working at the new mining centre of Beaverlodge but for reasons of health will be making his home in Edmonton for the next few months.

Miss Annie Shaw is home for a holiday following about a year's absence, part of which time was spent in Mexico doing missionary work.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Clennett are spending a few days in Calgary where the former's parents reside. They were accompanied by Mrs. Laird.

A shower was held at the home of Eileen Stockwell for a former school mate, Winnie Convey whose marriage to Joseph Martin of this district is to take place this week. Following an evening of games and contests the bride-to-be was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be making their home at Prince George where Joseph has an interest in a saw mill.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Oct. 21, 1937

The business men of Vermilion, including proprietors and employees alike, were unanimous in their praise of the trade brought in by the Board of Trade shopping week.

The Islay municipal hospital board was comprised of J. Givens, A. Wood, W. Urquhart and W. Elliott.

Weather has again turned fine with sunny mild days and light night frosts.

Principal W. J. Elliott was farewelled at the Board of Trade meeting. He has been transferred to Edmonton after 13 years as principal of the V.S.A. His successor here S. H. Gandier was introduced at the gathering.

Auction sales were being held for H. L. Hamilton six miles south of Vermilion and R. D. Fraser household sale in Vermilion.

Made to measure clothes by Tip-Top were advertised at $25.95 per suit with stock suits at $15, $19 and $22.50 for best quality.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Oct. 19, 1921

J. E. Cooper and son Harold of Ethelwyn have taken their threshing outfit to the Frog Lake country where they have several weeks [illegible] lined up.

At the Conservative convention held Tuesday J. W. G. Morrison was selected as candidate of the party for the Battle River Federal constituency. The chief speaker of the meeting was the Hon. R. B. Bennett, K.C., Minister of Justice in the Meighen cabinet.

A. E. Kaiser has purchased the brick residence of Mrs. Matthews located in the east end of town on the corner of 3rd street and Laurier Avenue.

Herbert Greenfield, newly elected premier of Alberta, was a farm hand in Ontario before he came to western Canada a few years ago and took up a homestead a few miles north of Edmonton.

After an absence of 3 months in [illegible] has returned to his large farm [illegible] interests in the Mary Lake district.

A large business deal was completed this week [illegible] owner of the Brunswick hotel purchased the Vermilion hotel, the price paid being $5500. Ben Fischer is the present proprietor of the Vermilion which will be taken over by the new owner [illegible].

A hot election was going on in the high school between the [illegible] and Reliables, led by Cleo Kennedy and Andy Kibblewhite's Progressives, for positions on the High School Literary society.

Marvelube 5W

the "WINTERIZED" Motor Oil

Marvelube 5W is especially made to be "fluid" at below zero temperatures. Not only does your engine turn faster—start easier, with less battery drain—but you reduce metal-to-metal wear during the critical warm-up period.

When weather turns warm there's no need to worry about engine protection because Marvelube 5W is processed to resist thinning.

Marvelube 5W is highly detergent, and is "tough" in every way. It fights low temperature corrosion which can be a serious cause of winter engine wear.

Use Marvelube 5W for trouble-free driving—longer engine life.

TB Deaths Decline But Incidence Still High

Tuberculosis death rates declined spectacularly in the past ten years, but TB deaths are no longer an indication of its potential dangers, according to provisional figures issued by the Bureau of Vital Statistics.

This fact is vividly brought to mind by the decline in TB deaths from 6000 in 1942, to 2800 in 1952; on the other hand, patients under treatment in Canada sanatoria have increased from 12,000 in 1942, to 18,000 in 1952. It is obvious that there is still a great deal of tuberculosis in Canada, especially when it is noted that there is probably at least one unknown case for each one under treatment.

D. W. Robertson, President of the Alberta Tuberculosis Association, pointed out that progress in preventive measures apparently has not kept pace with improvements in treatment techniques, such as new methods of surgery and the so-called miracle drugs. He stressed the importance of keeping in mind always that it is infinitely better to prevent tuberculosis than to cure it, and that our primary object should be prevention through education and assistance in the finding of unknown cases.

Provisional statistics indicate that Alberta now has the second lowest death rate from TB, with a rate of less than 12 per 100,000 population. Ontario has the lowest rate, 8.4, and the rate for Canada is 17 per 100,000.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE

Director "The Crop Testing Plan"

THE PRICE OF WHEAT

Some quite heated discussions are taking place concerning the price of wheat. Some say that present price set by the Government is too high considering the great unsold surplus, others say that even the present price is too low, and it is stated also that even though the price were lower it would not sell any more wheat. There is, it seems to me, one missing factor in all this discussion which tends to veil the one important feature that really matters, and that is not absolute price but 'relative' price, for it is this that counts. Wheat at $1 could be too high a price if competing wheats in other countries and other foodstuffs were at an equivalent of, say, 95 cents. On the other hand wheat at $3 could be too low a price if the price of other wheats and other foodstuffs were the equivalent of $3.25. So it is the relationship between the price of our wheat and the price of other wheats and foodstuffs that really matters, and it is this relationship between prices — this relative price—that one first has to know about before any accurate opinion can be expressed whether any suggested 'actual' price is too high or too low.

Dewberry Back in the News

Hello Folks — back again after a very busy time. Sorry to have neglected the column for the past few weeks. Since our last news we have suffered the loss of three of our old timers. Our deepest sympathy is extended to all the bereaved.

People, like the brook, come and go and our latest newcomers are babies to Mr. and Mrs. Milo Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bensmiller and Mr. and Mrs. James Munro. Congratulations.

HOCKEY BOYS BUSY

Dewberry hockey boys are very busy already. They have held several dances to finance their winter activities. The rink has been completely rebuilt and lined with plywood. New wiring will also be installed. Much credit is due to Stan Chodak who has taken charge of the construction of the new rink. Their next dance will be Nov 6.

F.U.A. DANCE OCT. 28

The Dewberry F.U.A. Local is sponsoring a dance on Wednesday Oct. 28 in the Dewberry hall. Music is by the Dendiken band.

Little Bobby Hartwell suffered a broken arm when he fell off his pony on Thanksgiving day.

CIVIL DEFENCE SCHOOL

A Civil Defence school will be opened very soon in Dewberry and Marwayne. Fire fighting training rescue procedures and much more will prove very useful in every day life to all of us. Instructors are trained at Edmonton Civil Defence headquarters. Those interested in taking the course can contact Mr. James Munro at phone 408.

Harvesting is all completed in this district. Crop yields were below those of last year with most of the wheat grading 4 Northern.

A new annex has been built at the A.P. elevator here. Harold McKnight is the agent.

Several geese have been bagged in the district this fall. One of the happy hunters is Ralph Lunden.

MATCHED ROCKS HERE

Dewberry Curling club now have on hand all new matched rocks for their three sheets of curling ice.

AMATEUR NIGHT

Students Union will hold an Amateur Night and dance on Nov. 9 in the Dewberry hall.

Joe Allen who is not enjoying the best of health, plans to move from his farm into Dewberry soon.

A goodly number of new cars and trucks have made their appearance hereabouts during the early fall months.

"CHICKEN" SUMMER

This isn't Indian summer. It's Chicken summer. The writer just noticed a hen with seven new baby chicks. A turkey hen finally came off her nest with one lone little yellow chicken.

The number 13 is not unlucky to Neil Jones, local John Deere agent as that is the day of the month he sold two of his big Diesel R tractors, one to Nelson Bros. and the other to Allan Dale.

Here Is How You Can Tell Whether Child's Shoe Fits

When does a child's shoe really fit properly? That's a question many harassed mothers and fathers are wondering about just now as families are being outfitted for the winter.

The Journal of the American Medical Association offers the following pointers. When you're buying shoes for children:

1. See that the eyelets through which the laces go are parallel.

2. Press the toe of the shoe until you feel the top of the big toe and the second toe. They should be one-half to three-quarters of an inch from the toe of the shoe.

3. The widest part of the child's foot should be at the widest part of the shoe—the ball of the foot and the ball of the shoe should meet exactly.

4. It should be possible to grasp a small fold of leather at the side of the vamp. If the leather wrinkles the shoe is too wide. If the leather is tight and bulging, the shoe is too narrow.

4. The shoe should not gape at the sides or the back when the child walks. Make sure the child walks around the store for several minutes before you decide to buy the shoes.

Woodvale News

(Held over from last week)

The last six weeks or so have been as usual, a very busy time for all, but now with threshing, combining, potato digging and clearing of garden produce out of the way and our hubby well on the road to recovery after his accident, this [illegible] is finally getting back to the reporting of some local news happenings.

Though not all the farmers are through with harvesting, as there is still some straight combining and threshing left here and there, the biggest part of this year's crop is safely in the bins and we can truly be thankful in these parts for all the crops gathered. Quite a few are doing fall work on the land and others are taking a day or so off for a well-earned rest and most of us can relax a bit. Hunting of [illegible] is the chief fall sport and at times there seem to be more [illegible] than ducks and geese around.

The beautiful weather has been with us for quite a time now and we think we have never gathered so much garden produce so late in the season, eating fresh cut corn on the first of October and picking a big bouquet of different flowers on Thanksgiving day, also hearing the heartening song of the meadow lark are things well worth recording in one's memory.

Now for some belated news —

The Red Cross auxiliary held a quilting bee and meeting on Sept. 2 with 12 members present, at the home of Mrs. Betty Lysons. The next meeting will be on Nov. 4 at the home of Mrs. A. Portsmith and donations for used clothing to be shipped to Mrs. Robertson, Edmonton, should be brought to this meeting. The September quilt was sent to the Red Cross and marked for Greek Relief.

Mrs. P. Goutier with Camille went to Lebrett, Sask., early in September, where her son Maurice took his perpetual vows as a Brother in the Order of the Oblate Fathers. Later they accompanied Mrs. Therese Pelletier, her husband and little Marcel back to Therese' home in Zenon Park, Sask., for a short visit.

The new two-roomed Woodvale school opened with 30 pupils and Mr. Hohol and Mrs. Roberts as the teachers and a little later the Hohol family moved into the new four-roomed teacherage. It is this fall, 25 years ago, that the old Woodvale school opened with over 30 pupils in attendance and Miss Mae Chrisp as the first teacher, who a few years later taught 38 children in 8 different grades. Then they came from a radius of 3 miles and all on horseback, while now a school-bus and two cars whiz the youngsters to school from as far as 7 miles away. Times and conditions certainly have changed.

Ernie Isley, Frankie Wolters and Freddy McGrath are taking Gr. 11 in Kitscoty, staying in the dorm, while Margaret Watt is taking Grade X in Vermilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Portsmith (nee Margaret Kemp) of Toronto, who were married there on Sept. 19 are spending a few weeks of their honeymoon with Bernard's parents in Tolland district. A party of Bernard's old friends and neighbors of the Hindville and Tolland districts dropped in one evening for a surprise party and everyone enjoyed the pleasant get-together very much. A presentation was made to the young couple of a purse accompanied with the very best wishes for their future happiness. They left on the 12th for their home in Toronto.

Dorothy Isley is working at McLaughlin's Self Serve in Vermilion.

Clarence Lewis was very fortunate that he could jump clear and escape injury when his tractor turned over backward while he was working on a dam.

Bud Heidebrecht came home for a visit for the Thanksgiving holiday week end from Calgary. His mother Mrs. McKone and Mr. McKone also spent the Sunday with the writer.

Mrs. E. Van Wageningen left for her home in Goes, The Netherlands, on Oct. 7, making the journey by plane from Edmonton to Amsterdam in 30 hours.

Vermilion Will See Defence Convoy

A mobile civil defence [illegible] touring Canada to inform citizens of the need for civil defence preparedness, will be in Alberta this month.

The "On Guard Canada Convoy" consisting of seven motorized 34-foot trailers, is sponsored by the Federal Civil Defence Organization which is co-operating with the Civil Defence Directors of Calgary and Edmonton and Alberta Civil Defence Headquarters in arranging two displays at Calgary and Edmonton.

The motorized display arrived in Calgary Oct. 10 and a display was opened to the public at Mewata Armories Oct. 13 and 14. After a tour of BC, the convoy drives from Fernie to Calgary Oct. 28 and from Calgary to Edmonton Oct. 29. Arriving in Edmonton Oct. 30 the display will be on view at the Prince of Wales Armouries Oct. 31 to Nov. 2. On Nov. 4 it will drive east to Vermilion and Lloydminster. 16-17

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

NO FENCES PLEASE!

I was at a meeting one time where one of those very clever birds held us spellbound with what seemed like the best idea of the century. Seemed, at the moment, if we did as the man said we'd soon have paradise on earth.

"Look," he said, "at the foolish way we do things, because we fail to organize right. Take the farmers around this town. One builds his house in the middle of his farm, the other on the south corner, another one, gosh knows where. Now if they did it right, they would all build in the same corner, thus having a little community centre, and cutting down on the number of roads needed."

He had a hundred other notions. At school, children would be watched. Those who had a tendency to science, would be trained in science and not waste a lot of time on other folderol; those with a leaning to literature would skip the mathematics; those who were mathematical would be trained to love hard labor. He had it all down pat. Yes, sir, with his cut-and-dried system put into force, we'd sure be efficient. Sounded good.

But I think somewhere in the back of everyone's mind there was a little bit of a hitch. What about the farmer who wanted to have his house on that nice grassy knoll by the creek? He doesn't give a hoot about efficiency and who is to blame him? What about a lad like Churchill who seemed dumb at school but turned out brilliant? What if the cut-and-dried system had been in effect and made a laborer out of him?

Suppose a man like Stuart M. Finlayson, the president of Canadian Marconi, had been isolated as a pure scientist because he showed a special aptitude for it at school. [illegible] he had viewed electronics as a narrow field unrelated to medicine. Would his company have developed the fabulous oximeter with which Canadian medical men are making such [illegible] advances in surgical operations? If scientists had been kept in one narrow field and medical men in another would they have been able to work together the way they do today?

No, it seems to me we are better without too many fences. I have a notion that we are better to leave men free to seek their own destiny, to build their farm homes where they choose, to experiment, to wander a little. It may not sound as efficient as some of the blueprints for central planning - but it allows for some wonderful surprises and some great human advancement. Human beings and business enterprises function best when given as much freedom as possible to do their own planning.

INDUSTRIES & LABOR

The ALBERTA LABOR ACT ranks among the most progressive acts of Labor Legislation in Canada, through establishment of:
- The Board of Industrial Relations to determine Hours of Work, Minimum Wages, Holidays with Pay and Conditions of Work, satisfactory to employer and employee.
- The Alberta Apprenticeship Act Provides young men with training in various trades — described as a "model for all Canada".

Alberta LABOR BENEFITS by:
- A Reduced Work Week
- Increased Minimum Wages
- Increased benefits through the Workmen's Compensation Act. Farm and ranch workers may also be brought under the benefits of this act.
- Safety legislation of the Factories Act to reduce working risks.

RESULTS: There is industrial peace in Alberta. Labor and management have co-operated, have confidence in each other and in the administration to produce an industrial harmony that has become a tradition.

HIS SIGHT . . .

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

Your child's sight is of such great importance that every consideration should be given to its care. If his eyes are injured or inflamed, get medical treatment at once and don't delay with home remedies. [illegible] his eyes with clean water if dirt gets into them.

If your child has poor vision he is facing life with a definite handicap. During his early years it limits his experience and lessens his abilities. He becomes clumsy and unable to compete well with other children and this tends to isolate him from his playmates. Often it makes him the innocent target of scolding and general [illegible]ing. He may seem hesitant and slow, awkward and even "stupid" when all the time the trouble is poor eyesight. Many a child has been unjustly branded as backward because his eyes are not up to their normal level of ability.

EYES SHOULD BE EXAMINED

The important thing to remember is that your child will not complain of poor sight. He doesn't know he is not seeing as well as he should and the parents usually do not realize that their child cannot see normally.

Every child should have a proper eye examination by a medical eye specialist as soon as the child is old enough to walk. A proper eye examination of all children should be done in any event before they start school.

[illegible]

Recent surveys in our [illegible] schools have shown that about 2 out of 5 children in kindergarten and grades 1 and 2 had eye trouble of one kind or another. Most children are long-sighted at birth. As the eyes develop the vision tends to become normal. If the long-sightedness persists, glasses are necessary to give normal vision and to prevent the development of cross eyes.

If short-sightedness develops it comes on usually at about 4 or 5 years of age and may increase up to the age of 16. A few cases worsen further after that age. Short-sighted children must wear glasses all the time. They should not try to read small print or hold their work close to their eyes. Sight saving classes are held in some schools for such children. Special books with large print are made for them and can be secured through provincial departments of education for the use of children for whom sight saving classes are not available.

GOOD LIGHTING IMPORTANT

Make sure that good light is always available for your child doing home work or reading and he should not be allowed to read in bed or in poor light. Many homes are poorly lit and this adds to his difficulties.

It is important that schools have properly situated windows and adequate artificial lighting for dull days. In some new schools the blackboards are not black but gray, and yellow chalk is used, resulting in poor visibility. The board should be black and the chalk white to avoid eye strain.

If your child squints (one or both eyes turn in, up or down) or blinks, has marginal redness on his eyelids, is clumsy when playing, holds things too close in order to see them — then he is showing signs of eye trouble. Be on the alert for any of these symptoms and when in doubt consult your doctor or local health clinic.

Inspects C. N. R. Facilities

WINNIPEG. — An inspection of Canadian National Railways' facilities in the West was begun here recently by N. S. Swaminathan, deputy chief operating superintendent of India's Eastern Railway. He is touring Canada under the sponsorship of the United Nations technical assistance program to gain a knowledge of North American railway techniques.

The Eastern Railway boasts 24,000 miles of broad gauge track and an additional 10,000 miles of narrow gauge and metered track. One of its major problems is the control of washouts during the Monsoon season.

Paradise Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Forsyth of Moose Jaw, Sask., were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Forsyth's aunt Mrs. John McAmmond. They were on their way to Prince Albert to visit their daughter. While here they also visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McLean and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Knutson.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Dobson over the holiday were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tercier, Mr. Eric Nicholson, Sgt. Burnie Nicholson, all of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dobson and Miss Barbara Dobson of Lloydminster and Mr. and Mrs. Art Nicholson and family of Rivercourse.

Miss Mary Ann Rohla of the Treasury Branch staff at Vermilion spent the Thanksgiving holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rohla.

Our old friend Mr. Al Goodwin returned home on Saturday after travelling over ten thousand miles in his car. He was as far north as Fort St. John and well down in the U.S. Among the many former residents of Paradise Valley he visited were Mr. and Mrs. R. Stewart at Fort St. John, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Harper and George Merrick at Creston, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald at Kimberley, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Halverson at Enderby, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Webb Moore and a host of others. They all wished to be remembered to friends in the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vice of Edmonton is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Vice in town.

Mrs. Barber of Lloydminster and Mrs. Miller of Kitscoty were recent guests of Mrs. C. Beckett and Mrs. R. Smith.

Mr. Elmer Beckett arrived home after completing his term with the R. C. A. F. Elmer has had quite a spell with the armed forces and will now try a change of scenery for awhile.

Miss Evelyn Wood who spent the summer months at Lake Louise is home visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood.

Miss Eva Redmond of the P. V. teaching staff spent the week end with her sister Mrs. Kirby in Edmonton.

We regret to hear that Mr. Lloyd Knutson is a patient in the Lloydminster hospital. Mr. Knutson has been in poor health for sometime.

HAPPY TIMES

Optimism in well-situated quarters about fall and Xmas retail sales outlook. With high consumer incomes and a willingness to spend among consumers, may be a record season. Retailers appear to be optimistic too, reports The Financial Post. They are accumulating inventories at a brisk pace. Sales are up too, but not as much as inventories.

Red Cross Blood Clinic Oct. 27th

IN THE ELKS HALL

On Tuesday Oct. 27, Vermilion is to sponsor another blood clinic. It is hoped to again make this a very successful event. The need for same is much emphasized by Mr. H. C. Paulin, Donor Panel organizer in Edmonton. There is no doubt but that many people here can recall friends or relatives who have greatly benefitted by the Blood Transfusion service during this past year.

According to statements issued in the Alberta annual report of the Canadian Red Cross Society, there has been an 87% increase in the amount of whole blood collected since 1948 but (quote) "The success with which we have met in the past must not allow us to rest on our laurels but must spur us on to greater efforts in the future. A good job well done in any worthwhile cause, always develops a bigger job yet to be done."

Vermilion Blood Donors—Please make an effort to be present at any convenient time during the hours of 2-5 p.m., 7 to 9 p.m., Elks hall, Tuesday, Oct. 27. 16-17

Bang's Disease Causes Huge Annual Loss

Bang's Disease or bovine brucellosis causes an estimated loss of [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] already reports Dr. [illegible], director of veterinary services, the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Individual [illegible] have lost as high as [illegible] which represents a big [illegible] in any man's pocket. There is also the possibility of humans contracting undulant fever by drinking milk of infected cows.

Infection is most likely to come from an infected animal which has been recently introduced into the herd. A blood test taken by a veterinarian will tell whether or not an animal is infected. The most noticeable symptom is the premature birth of a calf during the 6th to 8th month of pregnancy. A cow usually loses only one calf and then produces normal healthy calves. For this reason, the test and slaughter policy, which may be fine where a few cows are concerned, hasn't proved very practical in badly infected herds.

The most effective way to overcome this disease and to build up a Bang's free herd is a program of calfhood vaccination. Calves may be vaccinated when 4 to 9 or 10 months of age but to be classed as official vaccinates they must be vaccinated between the first day of the 6th month and the last day of the 8th month. These official vaccinates are worth more than calves not vaccinated and can be exported without test up to 22 months after vaccination. As the vaccinated calves mature and take their place in the herd the infected cows may be sold for slaughter. Vaccination does not reduce breeding efficiency, Dr Ballantyne says, so prepare now to vaccinate your calves for a Bang's free herd.

NURSES' ASSOC. DANCE

The Graduate Nurses' Association plan to hold a dance in the Elks hall on Tuesday, Nov. 24. Inman's orchestra will play Admission $1 per person and this includes lunch which will be served in the hall. Reserve this date. 15-17x

Red Cross Blood Clinic

The Canadian Red Cross will hold a blood clinic in Vermilion on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 3 to 5 p.m and 7 to 9 p.m in the Elks hall. Donors are urgently needed. 16

Kitscoty News

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Kitscoty branch, Post 158, B.E.S.L. held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. W. L. Apperson with 17 members in attendance. The L.A. are sponsoring an 'Amateur Hour' some time in November, so watch for posters announcing the date.

A vacant chair, with a poppy wreath on it, was in our midst, in memory of the late Mrs. M. J. Seabrook.

After the buisness was dispensed with Mrs. E. Batty, the president of the Auxiliary presented Mrs. Apperson with a life membership and suitably inscribed badge. Mrs. Apperson, our senior member was very surprised and pleased to be honored by the Ladies' Auxiliary and thanked the ladies from the bottom of her heart for the thoughtful gesture.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Terry Beck (nee Edith Jamieson) who were married last Friday in Lloydminster. Best wishes are extended to this young couple for a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Joy and Arlene and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Joy spent part of last week at Crossfields visiting with their sister and daughter Mr. and Mrs. O. Ellis and family.

Mrs. R. M. Mathewson spent the past week in Calgary visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. K. Tinney.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery is extended to Lloyd Harley who was burned in a flash fire, and is a patient in Lloydminster hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith and David were week end visitors to Edmonton, Miss Marilyn Smith returned home with them after spending the past week visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Wm. Lang spent the week edn in Edmonton visiting her son Albert, a student at the U. of A.

Mr and Mrs. Bill Govier and family of Edmonton spent the week end at the farm home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Govier.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barber and girls of Edmonton spent the week end with Mrs. Barber's father, Mr. F Seabrook

Mr and Mrs. Alan Batty and family spent the week end at Vegreville and were guests at a cousin's wedding.

Mrs. E .Phillips and David spent last week at Fort Saskatchewan with their parents.

A welcome is extended Mr. and Mrs. Sparrow and baby who have taken up residence here in the E. Batty suite.

Mr and Mrs. J. G. Inglis and their daughter Marion of Vegreville were Edmonton visitors over the week end.

Miss Olive Babbage, R.N of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs George Babbage and family of Elk Island Park, are visitors at the home of Mrs Wm Babbage.

Messrs Jake Christianson Eugene Ferris and James E. (Bud) Miller went to Edmonton on Monday to take in the football game between Edmonton and Regina.

Mrs. J. J. Parkin of Vermilion spent several days here last week visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sheppard.

Accidents Are Big Killers of Children

Accidents kill one third as many children every year as all the other causes of child death combined! Accidents kill more children than the next six most common causes of death added together! Accidents in childhood cripple thousands of children for the rest of their lives -- and parents alone have the opportunity of preventing these accidents, declares Dr. Harry F. Dietrich in the current issue of "Health".

"Parents must prevent serious accidents in early childhood, and they must teach safe behaviour to their children," Dr. Dietrich writes. "They cannot rely on schools, churches or government agencies to do this for them. The pattern of safe behavior, like that of manners, morals and tolerance, is largely shaped in the early years and at home: and to this end parental example is not less important than teaching.

"Next to providing food for their children, and if they didn't some agency would, accident prevention is the most literally vital phase of the parent-child relationship."

Dr Dietrich develops an accident prevention plan for parents like this in its first year the infant needs 100 per cent protection from all accident hazards. After this, while still maintaining protection against lethal, subtle and incomprehensible hazards, increasing reliance must be placed on education. Only thus will the start of the school years find the child armed with sufficient knowledge and experience to keep him safe. By the age of [illegible] when both school and play take the youngster away from all the protective devices and attitudes of the home, he should be able to recognize and avoid ordinary accidents, to do safely all things compatible with his abilities and interests, and, to a degree, be aware of his limitations.

"The practical application of this theory of accident prevention requires forethought, time, discipline, and the acceptance of a personal responsibility by parents," Dr. Dietrich points out. "Medical practitioners can and should help parents anticipate the interests and consequent activities of their children.

"If a very small percentage of the time that is wasted by parents worrying about minor respiratory infections insignificant rashes, normally small appetites, bowel habits and training and superfluous vitamins were spent thinking about accident prevention we would have many more living and uncrippled children.

"Parents need to be impressed with the indispensable role of [illegible] [illegible] discipline in the rearing of happy, secure children. [illegible]

City of the Dead

East Berlin, compared with the West, is like a city of the dead. The [illegible] Post's editor R. A. McEachern, reported from Germany the other day.

"There is little bustle in the streets. The people look drab, and spiritless, in very marked contrast to the people of West Berlin.

When you cross the West-East border you don't need to be told that here is a different world.

Unleash a camera at one of the food-parcel centres and most of the people within range look the other way or cover their faces with forearms or coats. They don't want to be identified for accepting Western aid. That's not healthy in the eastern zone."

At 457,7[illegible] dozen, toothbrush manufacture in Canada during 1952 was considerably up from 1951.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

MRS. WISE MAKES SPECIALTY OF CHEESE DISHES

October is Cheese Festival Month in Canada. Across the continent stores are featuring Canadian cheese of all kinds. It is an annual effort to persuade Canadians to eat more cheese — a worthy effort indeed, says Miss Joyce Lewis, Extension Nutritionist, Alberta Department of Agriculture.

We can take a tip from her friend, Mrs. Wise, when it comes to using this healthful food. There is no end to the variety of cheese dishes she serves from soup to dessert, for breakfast, lunch and dinner—not all in the same day of course, but often. She knows that cheese is one of our most nutritious foods, and one of the least expensive for value obtained.

Many Canadians may raise an eyebrow at the thought of cheese for breakfast, but our British and European cousins learned to enjoy it long ago. Most of them eat it just as is with toast. Mrs. Wise finds that her family enjoy cheese in biscuits, muffins or waffles. They also like cheese omelets or scrambled eggs with cheese. Cheese is a good breakfast food because of its protein which fends off that 'mid-morning lag'. For flavor combination nothing can beat cheese and eggs.

Have you tried adding cheese to soups? Any cream of vegetable soup takes on new flavor and loads of food value when you add cheese. To a recipe for six stir in a cupful or more of shredded cheese and stir until it is melted — just a few minutes before serving.

Most everyone likes macaroni and cheese, if it is well made. The concentrated protein and fat of the cheese combined with the starchy macaroni makes a satisfying dish that sticks to the ribs. For variation, Mrs. Wise adds a bit of nutmeg, for a really different touch, an egg or two for a more substantial dish, or minced ham, salmon or tuna fish. To dress it up she adds a few sliced olives and tops the casserole with strips of bacon. Served with a crisp, colorful salad it makes a meal fit for a king.

Why not decide now to try more cheese dishes? Look for new recipes and concoct combinations of your own. There is lots of room for imagination when it comes to using cheese in soups, salads, sandwiches, main dishes or desserts.

NEW WALLPAPER?

Before you purchase new wallpaper, study the furnishings in your room. Buy wallpaper that repeats the colors of the draperies, floor covering, and the upholstery. If the draperies have a large pattern, buy a plain or textured paper. Take along samples of drapery material with you when you shop so that you can match colors. Choose a small patterned paper for a small room. Get a sample of the wallpaper to take home with you. Pin this on the wall and study the effect of this on your room and your family. Be sure to study the paper by artificial light, also.

SCHOOL LUNCHES

'The little red school house' is fast disappearing from our communities. However there are still a number of children who have to eat lunch away from home on school days. A child's health as well as his progress in school may be affected by the meals he eats each day. The school lunch supplies not less than one-third of the day's requirements of calories and should be "mid-day meal not a "snack". A good lunch has at least one food from each group:

Milk to drink or a milk dish.

Meat, fish, poultry eggs, cheese, dried peas and beans, nuts.

Whole wheat or enriched bread, bran muffins.

Fruit or vegetable, raw or cooked.

In winter, it is wise to have a hot dish served with the lunch. Many schools assisted by the community organizations have managed to begin hot school lunch schemes. The hot jar method which is becoming more widespread, really takes very little effort. Each child carries to school a hot jar filled with some food that can be successfully reheated in a hot water bath at school. These hot jars may be such tasty dishes as creamed beef, cocoa, stew or mixed vegetables. Another method of serving a hot lunch is the preparation of a hot dish at school under the supervision of an older pupil or teacher. For this organization, the school board or some other committee works with the teacher and equips the school with cooking utensils.

Don't you want to do something about school lunches? School lunches are valuable to the nutrition of the nation as a whole. There might be some interested association in your community which would be willing to study the problem of school lunches and begin the ground work on a school lunch project.

Canon T. W. Teape To Conduct Mission At Marwayne

OCTOBER 26TH TO 30TH

The Rev. Canon T. W. Teape of St. Peter's Parish, Edmonton, will be the guest missioner at St. Georges church, Marwayne, each night from 8 until 9.15 beginning on Monday, Oct. 26 through to Friday, Oct. 30.

Canon Teape is well known in the Marwayne-Kitscoty area where he spent the earlier years of his ministry and in Vermilion and it is with great enthusiasm that many of his former parishioners and friends welcome him for the Mission.

During the five nightly services Canon Teape will discuss the importance of Christianity to our lives today. The purpose of the Mission is to provide an opportunity for people to take stock of themselves as they really are before God, to deepen one's faith and convictions by providing fresh insights into the eternal mission of Christ and His Church and to draw closer those who are on the fringe of being a Christian.

In preparation for the Canon Teape Mission much interior work has been carried out in St. George's church, so that the basement is completed and the building is fully [illegible].

Although the Mission is being held in Marwayne, car pools are being arranged in Kitscoty and district so people living nearby can attend. A cordial invitation to all in the district is extended. 16-17

Fall Fiesta of Fun and Frolic at Elks Hall

ELKS THREE-DAY CARNIVAL OPENS THIS FRIDAY EVENING

Timed to coincide with the completion of harvest, in order that the farm population might enjoy some well-earned relaxation and have some fun along with their town brethren, the fall fiesta of fun and frolic sponsored by the Vermilion Big Brother Bills, the B.P.O. Elks will commence this Friday night in the enlarged and renovated Elks hall. The carnival opens this Friday evening Oct. 30 and will continue Saturday Oct 31 and Monday Nov. 2nd.

DOOR PRIZES FOR ADVANCE TICKETS

If you buy advance tickets you get a big bargain because you purchase admission for all three nights for only 25 cents. This ticket also entitles the holder to door prizes each night and a big grand prize on the last evening. Someone always goes home with a pocketful of money as a result of these prizes.

It could be little old (or young as the case may be) YOU . . . In addition there are other lucky draws with good prizes.

New games, new prizes, will make this annual fall event well worth attending — and remember all proceeds are used by the Elks for their community and charity work right here in Vermilion and district. You cannot go wrong when you patronize the Elks. Don't fail to buy advance tickets now.

Mrs. Annie Somerville Dies At Beebe, Quebec

Mrs. Annie K. Somerville, well remembered old timer of Vermilion, passed away at Beebe, Ont., on October 15, 1953. Following funeral services at the Wesley United church in Beebe, the remains were brought to Vermilion by her son Norman and his wife. Interment took place in the family plot in the local cemetery beside the bodies of her husband and son Bert. The commital service was held on Thursday, Oct. 22 from the United church.

Mrs. Somerville was born in 1869 at Kinnears Mills, Que., educated in that province and lived her early life there. She came west with her husband and one of her sons, Bert, in 1917 and resided here until after the deaths of son Bert and her husband Andrew. 22 years ago she returned east to live with her son Norman and Mrs. Somerville at Beebe, Quebec.

Friends here who knew her best recall with affectionate remembrance her jolly, lovable nature, a lady who was happiest when doing a kindness for friend or family.

Chester Gamble To Operate Auction Mart

1 Mile West of Mannville

Chester Gamble has built a modern auction market on his farm just west of Mannville and will conduct a sale every Thursday. The people are invited to list their surplus articles and dispose of them in this modern manner. Chester intends to handle everything in his market, livestock, machinery, tools, and furniture etc. See his display advert in this and succeeding issues of the Standard.

Four Mannville Business Premises Broken Into

Four places of business in Mannville were broken into on Monday night. Mannville Motors, J. McCauley and Mannville Co-op report nothing taken that is known of as yet. However, Len's Locker and Storage was the heavy loser, an undetermined amount of cheese, butter, canned goods, etc. was taken as well as the few dollars left in the till for change in the morning. The back door was forced.

Another Mammoth Bingo Is Planned

The Kinsmen club in conjunction with 'A' Coy., the local reserve army unit, will sponsor a mammoth bingo on Saturday Nov. 28. Further details will appear in your Standard in succeeding issues so watch for them and keep this date in mind — Saturday, Nov. 28. 18-19x

Mannville Boys Selected For Leadership Course

AT BANFF SCHOOL OF FINE ARTS

Four young people from northeastern Alberta have been selected to attend the fourth annual leadership course at the Banff School of Fine Arts. They are among 39 who have been carefully chosen to represent all regions of the province. Those from his section of the province are Howard Austin, Ranfurly; Eddie Mackowechi, Ranfurly, Elsie Muskowish, Glendon; Bruce MacDonald, Mannville.

This two weeks course, running from Oct. 25 to Nov. 27, is designed to develop leadership techniques in the carefully selected group of farm young people.

Highlighting the course will be addresses by Mrs. W. C. Taylor, president of the Farm Women's Union of Alberta, Henry Young, the president of the Farmer's Union of Alberta and Roy Marler, president of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture.

The course is under the direction of the Department of Extension of the University of Alberta and is being sponsored by the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, Jr. Farmers' Union of Alberta, United Farmers of Alberta Co-operative, Alberta Wheat Pool and the United Grain Growers.

House Leaders Are Elected At Vermilion High School

The House system proved to be a success last year, in not only arousing sports interest but in keeping the interest up through the school term. The total points for each house were posted following each game, and kept until June. The victorious house for 1952-53 curling was Carman, and basketball was tied with Carman and Service. The house with the highest total number of points was Laurier.

As each house must have two leaders this term opened with elections, which resulted in the following:

Anne Martin and Bob Hemmingway — Service

Joan Maxwell & Stewart Cooper — [illegible]

Janet Wilson and Bob Bentley — Laurier

The hopes for all houses are high. "100% always", said a member of Laurier. "We'll be on top this year" said Carman, and Service warns with "A Victory a game".

The house leaders tasks involve making line-ups for each game appointing cheer committees for support, representing the house at meetings concerning schedules for games, and heading a social committee for school functions. Each house is supported by a staff representative who is Mrs. English for Service, Mr Kokotailo for Carman and Mr. Dowling for Laurier.

Why all the long faces around V.H.R.? It certainly couldn't be the term exams (or could it?). Perhaps the celebration coming will cheer up the gloom.

What's the commotion? Why the hurry? Why, haven't you heard? Let's get costumed for the big masquerade to be held in the armories at 8.30 p.m. on Oct. 3[illegible]. V.S.A. will be the guests and all must be masked or prepared for a fine so let's get started on those costumes.

Anyone wishing to attend other than V.S.A., who has not been a previous member of V.H.S. in the past two years must have a guest card.

Annual Canvass Bible Society

Under the auspices of the co-operating churches of the Vermilion Ministerial Association, the annual fall canvass for funds for British and Foreign Bible Society will begin on Monday, Nov. 2.

The object of the Bible society is to provide the Scriptures for every man in his own tongue. In seeking to fulfil this objective, the Society has been of tremendous service to the outreach of Christian Missions and thus the handmaid of all missionary work.

Citizens of Vermilion and district are urged to support this canvass generously, and if by chance they are missed in the canvass, are asked to send donations directly to the Bible House in Edmonton.

FLASH — Civil Defence convoy will spend an hour in Vermilion about noon Wednesday, Nov. 4.

V.A.A.A. General Meeting Nov. 6th

WILL ORGANIZE PEE-WEE HOCKEY — DISCUSS SPORT IN GENERAL

A general meeting of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic association will be held in the Legion hall on Friday Nov. 6 at 8 p.m. for the organization of pee-wee hockey, appointment of coaches, etc.

All sports enthusiasts are encouraged to attend as discussion is planned on a wider scale than is set up at present, and to try to take in all sport bodies and service clubs.

The meeting will be a short one so as not to interfere with the curling club dance.

OLD TIME FIDDLERS CONTEST NOV. 20

The annual Old Time Fiddlers' contest sponsored by the Kinsmen club will be held this year on Friday Nov. 20 in the Elks hall. All last year's contestants are extended a hearty invitation to enter the competition again and it is hoped that many more who have never competed will be added to the list on this occasion. As in previous years the contestants will be judged by an independent panel of three members.

The winner will receive an engraved trophy and $25 in cash. 2nd prize is $15 and 3rd is $10.

Following the contest a dance will be held with music by an old time orchestra.

Further information may be obtained from the Chairman of the committee for this event, Keith Inman. More news and advertising will appear in subsequent issues of the Standard.

Union-Koknee Home-Makers Club Dissolves

Owing to a number of members having moved from the district the Union-Koknee Homemakers club decided to dissolve after being organized for about 35 years. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Hutton in September.

The money in the treasury was disposed of as follows:

Junior Red Cross, Calgary $10; Institute for the Blind, Edmonton $10; Sunday School by Post, Seba Beach, Alta., $10; Polio fund $10; Club's secretary for year's duties $5; Red Cross Vermilion Branch 27.90; A satin quilt that the club had on hand was donated to the Salvation Army in Vermilion.

Roman Stecura Will Play - Return Engagement

Rare Musical Treat At Theatre On Sunday Evening

The people of Vermilion are to be favored with a rare musical treat Sunday, Nov. 1 when Roman Stecura the brilliant concert pianist will play at the Columbia theatre.

It is just one year ago that Mr. Stecura enraptured a Vermilion audience, having played here on Nov 2, 1952. The young artist has an entirely different program for this evening of musical pleasure. His program includes Frederic Chopin's Fantasia-Impromptu, Op. 66, which is one of the composer's most popular compositions for the piano.

Mr Stecura is being sponsored by the Vermilion Male chorus. The Chorus will sing four numbers, one of which will be "The Halls of Ivy" by H. Russell and V. Knight, under the direction of Jack Brown.

Tickets are available from members of the male chorus. Music lovers should take advantage of such an opportunity and pick up tickets early.

Vermilion Officials Receive Coronation Medals

At least three Vermilion citizens have been honored by the Queen by receiving Coronation medals. The three are His Worship Mayor Heckbert, T. L. Conboy, Chief of the Fire Brigade, and George Martin, president of the Canadian Legion and co-ordinator of Civil Defence for the M.D. of Vermilion River.

Engraving on the medal reads: "By command of Her Majesty the Queen, the accompanying medal is forwarded to (with name inscribed) to be worn in commemoration of Her Majesty's Coronation on the 2nd of June, 1953." On the reverse side is a picture of the Crown and Queen.

Mannville Girl In Light Opera

MANNVILLE. — Miss Shirley Gamble, a Mannville girl who is now employed as a stenographer with Waterloo Motors in Edmonton is making a name for herself in musical circles in Edmonton. She will play the part of Julie, the French maid in the light opera of Edmonton's forthcoming production of Romberg's "The New Moon".

Shirley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gamble.

Agricultural Society To Hold Purebred Livestock Sale

The Vermilion Agricultural Society in an endeavor to further assist those who are building up their purebred herds are staging another fall sale of purebred cattle and hogs on Thursday, Nov. 5. 79 head of purebred beef cattle will go before the auctioneer, Don E. Ball of Edmonton while about 40 head of selected hogs will also be offered. The number of hogs has necessarily been limited with a view to offering only choice stock which would be of benefit to any breeder interested in improving his future stock.

It should be noted that the hogs will be sold at the Fair grounds starting promptly at 11 o'clock on the Thursday morning; immediately the hogs are sold the auctioneer will move from the grounds to the skating arena in town where the cattle will be put on the auction block. The latter move is designed to provide first class facilities for both buyer and seller and despite the weather on Nov 5 the sale will go on as planned.

Being offered for sale are 14 Aberdeen Angus bulls and 2 females; 16 Shorthorn bulls and 2 females; 27 Hereford bulls and 15 Hereford females.

Represented among the sellers are such well known breeders as H. J. Warrilow and Sons of Minburn, Wm. E. Cross of Vermilion; W. R. Cornish, Mannville; Arthur L. Hughes, Vermilion; Alex Cairns and Jas. H. Jackson, Irma; Peter Samoil and Wm. McCutcheon, Lavoy; Elton M. Clements, Vegreville; J. S. Cross, Vermilion; Mike Ilchuk, Vermilion; Homer Campbell, Clandonald; O. Hendel & Son, Lloydminster, David Young, Maidstone; John J. McLaughlin, Mannville and L. C. Foster, Lloydminster.

The selection of hogs to be offered will be of the highest quality and buyers are assured of herd improvement by securing one or more of the offerings at the Vermilion sale.

It should be borne in mind that hogs will go on sale at 11 a.m. and cattle at 1 p.m.

Poor Attendance At Annual Meeting

HOCKEY . . To Be Or Not To Be

Hockey - to be or not to be is the burning question right now, and judging from the attendance at the annual meeting held Sunday afternoon last week, it's not to be. It is not because there is a lack of playing material, things shape up not too badly that way, but it will be due to the fact that an insufficient number of people want to take on the responsibility of organizing the club and managing its business affairs for the season.

Lack of aspirants for executive positions can be traced to difficulties of financing, and the fact that there is no strong continuing organization back of hockey year after year. Hockey associations change almost completely one year to another and there is thus no continuity running through it. The club starts out in the red and despite all efforts and good crowds ends up in the red. It can be assumed from Vermilion experiences that it takes more than a season of full rinks to finance a hockey club.

This in brief seemed to be the consensus of opinion of the even dozen men who attended the meeting. Ways to remedy the weaknesses were discussed. Could we possibly get along without a paid coach and would this be advisable in the face of the engaging of full time coaches by Wainwright and Vegreville already this fall. Could a larger proportion of the gate receipts be obtained? The club now gets 60% of hockey gates and the town 40%, other teams in the league do better than this, 75 and 25 per cent being the common basis. This in turn is partially offset by a grant at the end of the season by the town council. Continuing support and stronger organization might be achieved by having a committee of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic association act as hockey executive and thus have the funds funds of that sports body to depend upon. However bonusing any sport in excess of $100 is contrary to the constitution governing the V.A.A.A. Another suggestion was that the four service clubs in the town, Elks, Kinsmen, Legion and Stagettes combine forces and sponsor senior hockey in Vermilion year after year.

These and many other sentiments were expressed during the meeting in an effort to put senior hockey on a firm foundation in Vermilion.

Dr Ben King retiring president who has carried on in that position for the past two winters and has been a very active executive was in the chair. Chas Heckbert read the financial statement which showed an operating deficit for last season of $153.83 and the club was [illegible] red to the amount of $420.75. Local business [illegible] holding the bag for this amount.

Paid admissions to Tiger hockey games for 1952-53 were 9615 down 1252 from the previous season. This was accounted for in the semi-final play-off series. Two years ago witnessed the great six-game series with Wainwright, every one of the three played here drew [illegible]. Last year only one [illegible] game was needed against [illegible].

It was deemed inadvisable due to the small attendance to attempt to elect an executive but a nominating committee of C. J. Heckbert, Jack Brown and R. F. Carroll was appointed to bring in a slate of officers at the next meeting.

If a recommendation made at the meeting is followed, the team if [illegible] will have a manager instead of the president of the club [illegible] carrying out the duties of that office as well as his own.

Another meeting will be called. Can Vermilion afford to be without a good contender in the Eastern Alberta league? Can the town [illegible] connected with senior hockey can it afford to pass up a good drawing card? It would seem that Vermilion just must have a hockey team in the league, but it will take a lot of people and some concerted effort and thought to bring this about. One step in the right direction will be for hockey fans from town and all over the district to attend the next general hockey meeting. Watch for the time and place.

Fire Damage At Jim Ferguson House

The new home of Jim Ferguson [illegible] at present in the stage of [illegible] by fire on Friday [illegible] last week. [illegible] the fire about midnight [illegible] and found the [illegible] of smoke. The fire brigade was called and made an amazingly quick run to the scene and extinguished the blaze.

Social Credit To Hold Annual Meeting

On Thursday, November 5th

The annual meeting of the Vermilion Constituency Social Credit Association will be held at George's Lower Deck, Vermilion on Thursday next, Nov. 5, commencing at 8 p.m.

Business will consist of election of officers for the ensuing year and the appointment of delegates to the annual convention at Calgary during November.

Guest Speaker At Board of Trade

Board of Trade members at the regular weekly noonday luncheon last Wednesday listened to a very interesting address given by Mr. A. Mackie, representative of Canadian Laco Lamps, who manufacture incandescent and fluorescent lights. The speaker sketched briefly the progress in the development of the incandescent lamp from the clear glass to the inside frosted bulb, to the new white light. This latter bulb he stated, gives maximum light for the period of its life as well as being diffused and much easier on the eyes.

Mr. Mackie stated that the fluorescent lamp obtained light from mercury vapor which was heated by incandescent filaments at each end. This lamp was not only designed to diffuse light but was also developed to give a larger output of of diffused light which was not possible with the single incandescent light. The Laco company manufactures 1300 different types of lamps. He suggested that householders should have more lamps than they quite often have in their homes, and that the bulbs should be stronger. This is particularly so where people are getting along in years.

Mr Ashley Cooper who acted as chairman of the meeting voiced the appreciation of the Board to Mr. Mackie for his splendid address, and to Canadian Utilities for their souvenir gift on this occasion of 2 Laco 100 watt white light bulbs to ecah person present. The speaker was introduced by Mr Jim Nichols of Canadian Utilities.

Introduced as guests at this meeting were Mr. Bill Flechuk of the Canadian Utilities and Mr. Ian Fraser, Credit Union representative.

W.M.S. To Be Hostesses Sunday Evening

The United Church W.M.S. will be hostesses at Family night in the church hall following the 7:30 evening service, Sunday night Nov. 1.

Rev. C. W. MacKay has selected a missionary film "South of the Clouds". This film has been highly recommended in the church paper as one of the best.

Old Man Winter Hits Below Belt

Old Man Winter pulled off a sneaky trick on Thursday and threw a large order of his samples at us all at once. At midnight the thermometer read 38 above and from then on it descended slowly but steadily until at 11:30 a.m. it was just 22, a drop of 50 degrees from the high Wednesday of 72. Along with the drop in temperature came a snow fall which promises to continue all day Thursday.

BE SENSIBLE ON HALLOWE'EN

Hallowe'en night in Vermilion is now a tradition followed only by the children in a harmless door to door adventure in search of apples, candies and whatever else may be forthcoming. Dressed as witches, goblins and other make-ups they have fun without doing the damaging sort of mischief common years ago. Such is not the case in some country districts, where the activities of young adults is carried far beyond the fun stage. In one district to the north a year ago, a resident reports that wells were contaminated granaries broken into, and then left with the grain [illegible] to waste tractors and farm implements damaged along with a lot of minor aggravating foolishness.

Some of the young men and women, who normally are fairly sensible, are under the delusion that on Hallowe'en night they are beyond the pall of the law -- such is not the case. All that the long suffering farmers in the area have to do is lay a charge against those responsible for the damage and they will find themselves in court fast enough. They are just as much subject to the laws of the country on Hallowe'en night as at any other time of the year.

Hallowe'en played out in towns as the older boys and girls realized how foolish it was and how much trouble and extra labor they caused other people. Hallowe'en was left to the children who love to dress up, have a little harmless fun on their rounds from door to door, create a bit of diversion and mirth for the older folks and are back in their homes before the evening is very far spent.

HARVEST COMPLETED

Harvest is now fully completed in this area with wheat averaging out at 24 bushels to the acre, oats 45 and barley only 20 bushels. The latter being a poor crop this year. Rye yielded 23 bushels per acre. The figures are according to the Searle Grain Co. estimates.

Very little grain is stored in the open, only about 10%, while there is very little of last year's crop left on the farmers hands. Elevator agents in Vermilion think that they can handle the initial quota of the 1953 crop.

The Family Sock Is Obsolete

Time was, when the wise man tucked away his spare cash in the family sock — or in a shoe-box or mattress. Such customs are recalled with the fondness one reserves for memories. But like most memories, the actual facts are often too steeped in nostalgia to be clearly recalled.

The fact is the family sock judged by modern standards had several serious faults as a savings bank. It was too easy to reach for it and remove the contents. It offered no protection against theft or loss. It left the question of how much to put away entirely unanswered. It paid no interest. You got back only what you put in and that amount was almost always less than you hoped.

Compare the family sock with the modern Canada Savings Bond way of saving money. The bonds you purchase are not within immediate reach, you have to make a considered decision to cash them — not quite so easy as reaching for the sock. They are registered in the owner's name — either child or adult and no one can redeem except the registered owner. The question of how much to put away depends upon your own circumstances. Canada Savings Bonds are available in convenient denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1000 and $5000. The Bonds pay you a handsome 3¾% interest per year yet there are no risks. Canada Savings Bonds can be cashed instantly and you can always get back what you put into them plus earned interest!

Each year since war's end, a new series of Canada Savings Bonds has been issued and more than a million Canadians have used this convenient methods of saving. The forthcoming offering is the Eighth Series and the terms of the new bonds are more attractive than ever.

You can get your new 8th Series Canada Savings Bonds at your bank, investment dealer or where you work on the Payroll Savings Plan.

Canadian Legion Notes

The Legion is the cheapest club in the land. Where else can you belong to a social, benevolent and protective organization of the scope of the Canadian Legion? We can also be proud of Vermilion Branch club house and Memorial hall.

All I can say is why don't members come around oftener and why don't more veterans join up? The pass word is your regimental number?

The Legionary is the official paper for the Canadian Legion. Every member gets it free of charge. It has over 40 pages of articles and news items of great interest to all veterans.

November is always an active month in the Legion. Vermilion Branch has arranged for a smoker on Nov. 7, a dance on Nov. 10 and the Remembrance parade and the church service on Nov. 11.

Poppy day is coming up too. Our objective should be a poppy in every lapel and a poppy wreath in every window. Remember folks, the Legion poppy fund is used to help needy veterans over the rough spots when the veteran or his family are sick or down on their luck in some other way.

Mike Hynek brought down a nice greenhead last Wednesday when out duck hunting about 20 miles north. The bird when picked up was wearing a band, number 497-89912 and this has been sent along to Washington for identification purposes.

4753 Years Closer

Movies have been so outdrawing playgrounds in Toronto that it is being suggested that playgrounds be closed on Saturdays.

Few of us, thinks back The Financial Post, don't remember the thrills of a Saturday matinee, of the guns roaring, peanut shots in the ear, the rich, fragrant smell of overshoed feet on a winter's day.

But there's still the same old sobs and wails, boos and cheers, shrieks and screams, as today's version of Jugalong Hassidy fights it out with Slimey Slim's gang of villains.

Obviously this addiction to the movies rather than playgrounds like the hours spent watching television, is just another sign that the world is going to the dogs-- carried there as usual by the younger generation.

Before we worry too much however, we might look at an Assyrian tablet. The date 2800 B.C. Things looked pretty bad then too. The world was coming to an end, and going to the dogs en route.

"Our earth is degenerate in these latter days, there are signs that the world is speedily coming to an end — bribery and corruption are common; children no longer obey their parents; every man wants to write a book; and the end of the world evidently is approaching."

Well, here we are, 4753 years closer to it!

The Crow and the Pitcher

A THIRSTY CROW found a Pitcher with some water in it, but so little was there that, try as she might, she could not reach it with her beak, and it seemed as though she would die of thirst within sight of the remedy. At last she hit upon a clever plan. She began dropping pebbles into the Pitcher, and with each pebble the water rose a little higher until at last it reached the brim, and the knowing bird was enabled to quench her thirst.

Seeks Scholarship At Toronto Fair

The agricultural department announced recently that Mr. Bruce E. McDonald, of Mannville, has been named as the candidate from this province to compete for the Eaton agricultural scholarship, awarded annually at the Toronto Royal Winter Fair.

Designed to encourage young Canadian agriculturists, the scholarship is made available by the T. Eatón Co. of Canada Ltd., and provides the winner's lodging and tuition fees for a four-year course at any agricultural college in Canada.

Students throughout rural Alberta were given an opportunity to enter the competition. The names submitted were studied by a special committee, and the winner was announced by Hon. D. A. Ure, minister of agriculture.

In addition to high scholastic standing, the agriculture department stated, Mr. McDonald has been president of the students' union in his high school, and a member of the school's hockey, baseball and track teams.

Attending the Vermilion school of agriculture in 1952-53, he attained first class standing and took an active part in school activities. He has been president of the Mannville junior beef calf club, the Mannville Wheat club, and the Vermilion Turkey club.

Bowtell Bulletin

October 26th and we are still having summer weather, folks everywhere should take note of this.

The last Busy Bee meeting was held at the home Mrs. Mullens with 19 ladies present. Among these were Mrs. J. Ronaghan, Mrs. R. Repp and Mrs. A. Burton as visitors. It was decided to give $5 to the aid of the blind. Place of the next meeting is Mrs. Fulton's home with lunch to be served by Mrs. Hardie and Mrs. Harrison. The draw was won by Mrs. Mullen.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. Morrison on the birth of a baby boy and to Mr. and Mrs. M. Warawa on the birth of a boy also, in the Vermilion hospital.

The writer and family were very pleased to have the following visit at their home, Mr. Whitcher and Irwin, Rena Ronaghan, Kenny Risdale, Jim Repp, John Rochford, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, Henry Strange, Jack Bowman, Mrs. B. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. C. Clarke and family -- Come again folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dedelly were visitors to Lloydminster on Tuesday.

Many happy returns of the day to Mr. Harry Whitcher who celebrates his 79th birthday soon.

The Morrison home is being reshingled.

Brush cutting is being done on Walker, Repp and Sherwood farms.

The writer is sorry to learn at time of writing that Grandma Strang is a patient in the Islay hospital.

Mannville Bingo Well Attended

MANNVILLE. — A very large crowd attended the Bingo on Wednesday last sponsored by the ladies of St. Jaseph's Altar Society. There were many good prizes and the ladies are to be commended on the smoothness with which the bingo was run off. There was no loss of time and all those present enjoyed a full evening of bingo, and a delicious lunch. The ladies of St. Joseph's Altar Society wish to thank all those who attended and those who helped to make the evening the success it was.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

CHEESE FESTIVAL MONTH

Cheese Festival Month reminds us that we should be eating larger amounts of this nutritious and economical food. Canada's Food Rules suggest using cheese at least three times a week. How many times do you use any of Canada's 53 varieties besides the many other foreign varieties? Do try a new cheese recipe this month. I'll be glad to send your our bulletin on "Cheese Recipes". Here's a supper dish for your family:

CHEESE AND RICE MOLDS WITH TANGY SAUCE

2 cups cooked rice; 1 cup grated Canadian cheddar cheese; ½ tsp. salt; 3 talbespoons melted butter; 1 cup milk; ½ clove garlic mashed, ½ cup chopped parsley; 3 eggs separated.

METHOD: Fold all ingredients together except egg whites. Beat whites until stiff and fold in. Turn into buttered custard cups. Bake in moderately low oven 325F 30 to 40 minutes. Serve hot garnished with stuffed olives.

This makes six servings.

TANGY SAUCE

2 cups medium white sauce; 1 cup grated Canadian cheddar, ¼ cup chopped, stuffed olives, 2 tbsp. juice from olives; 1 can tuna or chicken (6 oz.)

METHOD: Blend all ingredients then heat in double boiler. Pour over molds and serve at once.

A very good recipe booklet on apples can be obtained by writing to B.C. Tree Fruits Ltd. Kelowna B.C. A few simple points on apples taken from this booklet are as follows:

1. Most people do not seem to realize that apples bruise very easily, and that they are a delicate fruit. If you wish to avoid bruising of your apples, and the resultant waste, handle them gently and avoid bumping. A good rule is to handle apples like eggs.

2. Ideal storage for apples is a place with good air circulation, good humidity and temperatures from 31 to 32 degrees. We realize that these conditions are not available in the home but you can probably come closer than you think. If you buy your apples by the box, store them in the coolest part of your basement, up off the floor at least a few inches and keep them dark if possible. If you buy apples in smaller quantities put them in the refrigerator or other cold place as soon as you get them home. If you live in an apartment don't buy apples by the box unless you can use them in a week. B.C. apples reasonably well stored will keep firm and juicy for weeks.

The following recipe is taken from Dept. of Agriculture Bulletin on apples available from my office and free for the asking.

APPLE & CHICKEN SALAD

2 tart apples diced, 2 cups diced cooked chicken, 1 cup diced celery, ¼ cup grated raw carrot; Salad dressing, about ½ cup. Mix the ingredients lightly. Pile in nests of crisp lettuce. Yield: six servings.

Note: Lobster tuna fish, cold ham, veal or salmon may be used in place of chicken.

Wildmere Winks

We were pleased to see some of our interesting news columns back in the paper, namely Dewberry, Clandonald, Woodvale. We enjoy reading them all and hope now the busy season is past they will keep on writing.

Talk about harvesting! Service Bros. of Brockville district had four combines working on their farm at once. That would finish a field in quick time.

Wildmere Jr. Red Cross are having a masquerade dance in the school on Friday, Oct. 30. Come and enjoy yourselves.

Folks, don't grumble about the Standard being late last week. Mr. Cooper said it was one of the busiest weeks they had had, with trying to install a new machine and get the paper, which was 4 pages bigger than usual, out. They worked night and day the whole week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson and Mary and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin and Doreen were visitors to Edmonton last week end. They enjoyed a ball game and a football game while there.

Laurence Graham was a city visitor last week end. He visited Bill Frissell and family and took in a drive-in show with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers were fishing at Long Lake on Sunday but they could not catch any fish.

Gordon Cameron of Ponoka, but at Cold Lake at present, called at the Wallington home on Sunday, working with Wilson and Wilson. He is an uncle of the Graham children.

A nice crowd attended the British and Foreign Bible Society picture show at our school on Friday. Rev. Heuer had some very interesting films. Too bad it hadn't been more advertised. Mr. George Wilson and Fred Haines will be collecting for this Society in the near future. It really is doing some splendid work placing Bibles of every language in countries where they are needed so badly and English is not spoken. To go into a foreign country and print a Bible in their language is no small job folks.

This news item is taken from Paradise Valley, but we just could not let it go by. Mr. A. Clark, the reeve of M.D. of Vermilion River No. 71, picked a fair sized bowlful of ripe tame strawberries out of his garden on Monday, Oct. 26th. J. C. Wallington brought some home to show the writer. They were lovely big ones too. That's something not often done in this part of Alberta.

On Saturday we chatted with Mrs. H. Barlow, Mrs. D. Love, Mrs. Harle, Mrs. L. Samuelson, Mrs. Farley, Harold Connolly and his son Ian, and Harold's sister Rose, her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. W. Westman and Mr. Lumsden. We also attended the tea and sale at the United church.

St. Paul Presbytery W. A. Fall Rally

IN LLOYDMINSTER

The Lloydminster W.A. hostesses to the First Annual fall rally of the Vermilion district of St. Paul United Presbytery Women's Association, was held on Oct. 7, in Grace United church.

The session was opened with a delightful luncheon served to 83 ladies and ministers of the Presbytery from Marwayne, Paradise Valley, Minburn, Vegreville, Vermilion, Auburndale, Mannville, Kitscoty, Streamstown, and Lloydminster.

Mrs. Wear of Auburndale asked Mrs. Enger to preside during the meeting which was opened by the W.A. hymn and creed. Mrs. Ross of Vegreville welcomed the members to the rally, replied to by Mrs. [illegible].

Mrs. Davidson of Paradise Valley conducted the devotional period with the theme, "Let us bow down before the Lord."

Mrs. Morrison then favored the group with two delightful solos, after which a skit "The Right Visitor", played by Messrs. MacKay, McLean and Crawford of Vermilion was enjoyed by all.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Fartol of Marwayne.

A very convincing talk was then given by Mr. Gardiner, president of Alberta Conference, as the guest speaker on "Evangelism", after which Mrs. Enger, president of St. Paul United Presbytery explained the governing bodies of the W.A. Association and the W.A. Garden.

This meeting of good fellowship was closed with words of thanks to all those who had assisted in making this gathering a success by Mrs. Little of Vegreville. The W. A. Prayer closed the meeting.

Amateur Night Is Success At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — The Amateur Night sponsored by the Happy Hour group of the Anglican church on Friday last was exceptionally well attended. And the talent displayed during the evening was very good. There were 25 entries and with Mr. Bert Williams as the genial Master of Ceremonies everything went along smoothly. The prize winners in the various groups are as follows:

Pre-school — Ernest Steinmechuk, Leslie Kreller, Cheryl Cartier, Heather Morrison; 6 to 8 years — Ross Sargent, Bonnie Proudfoot, Gail Mercer; 9 to 12 years — Hans Peterson, Lillian and Elsie Werbitaski, Lynne Kreller; 13 to 16 — Connie Gerhart and Norma McLuckie, Lillian Wasylik, Ruth Gamble; Adults—Betty Proudfoot, Colleen and Irene Archibald, Adele Matney.

Mrs. Elsie Barlow gave a very amusing recitation in between the first age groups. Norma McLuckie and Doreen Gerhart in their rendition of the Tennessee Wig-Walk got a big hand from the audience. The Kreller Troupe and their old Ford car (or was it a Chev?) provided a lot of amusement and their harmony was much enjoyed also. While the judges were completing their decisions, members of the Happy Hour group put on a one-act play entitled "Diet Begins Tomorrow".

Many thanks to the judges, Mrs. G. Young, Mr. A. Rostron and Mr. Bushko. They had a very difficult task in judging and the talent was all very good.

The evening concluded with a dance which was also very well attended.

Lawson's orchestra provided the music.

Health Unit Notes

FOUR KINDS OF FATIGUE

Physical fatigue is healthy fatigue. The body needs such stimulation, and fatigue from physical work seldom is dangerous.

Fatigue caused by mental work is more harmful because it usually involves no physical activity with accompanying stimulation of circulation, and must therefore be carefully handled for recuperation. Emotional fatigue, the third form of tiredness, is generally recognized as the most harmful form of fatigue because it alters glandular activities of the body and makes it difficult to obtain relaxation or sleep for real restoration of well-being. It may arise from severe fright or anger. Or it may arise, and does more usually, from temperamental disturbances.

To these three forms of fatigue should probably be added a fourth, the fatigue that cannot be accounted for or explained away. Such fatigue may be a warning signal of danger ahead. Disturbances of the thyroid gland often causes undue fatigue. Certain focal infections such as result from bad teeth, tonsils and nasal conditions, cause fatigue. One of the common symptoms of early tuberculosis is tiredness without apparent cause. Any abnormal tiredness should prompt one to visit the doctor and to let him decide the cause of the the fatigue.

RELAXATION

We cannot afford to go to bed whenever a feeling of [illegible] comes over us. But we can during the day frequently relax, let go, stretch out and thus give the body a chance to catch up on its energy debt. One high school has provided lounging rooms for those of its students who need occasional rest from the strain of school work. Students who have recently had a serious illness, those who are not up to par in health and those who tire easily make use of these special rooms, under the supervision of trained health counsellors. A busy doctor states that when patients crowd his office, he manages to relax physically and mentally a few minutes between each consultation and that enables him to get through hours of taxing concentration without exhaustion.

Mind and body cannot be separated, hence an tenseness of one affects the other. 'At ease' is a good old army phrase which means just that. It is the opposite of 'attention'. Being at ease does not mean a sloppy, sleepy attitude, but one of composure without strain. To learn to do a task without tenseness helps to prevent fatigue and results in better work. The musician who is tense gives a 'stiff' performance. The public speaker who is tense 'cramps his style.' A boy who stuttered hopelessly in the classroom was taught by a patient teacher to relax—to be calm and oblivious to the class before beginning to recite. Improvement in speaking clearly and evenly was remarkable in a short time.

Major General Odlum To Address Vermilion Canadian Club

SOLDIER, LEGISLATOR, DIPLOMAT

Major General Odlum C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., who has had a distinguished and varied career, having been journalist, publisher, investment broker, soldier, legislator and diplomat, will be the speaker at the Vermilion Branch of the Canadian Club, on Thursday, Nov. 5. The meeting will be held in the Legion hall at 8.15 p. m.

Major General Odlum was born in Coburg, Ontario, but spent his early childhood in Japan, later returning to Canada and attending Victoria College, University of Toronto.

Following a brief career as a journalist, he was in turn editor, managing editor and publisher in Vancouver until 1932. He served in the South African War and World Wars 1 and 2, being wounded three times, and eight times was mentioned in despatches. In 1940 he was appointed Major-General in command of the Second Division.

He was elected a member of the Legislative assembly of B.C. for Vancouver; was from 1936-41 a member of the Board of governors of the C.B.C., and is a past president of the Canadian Club of Vancouver.

In 1942 General Odlum began a diplomatic career, serving first as High Commissioner to Australia, then as Ambassador to China, and from 1947 to 1952 as Ambassador to Turkey. 17-18c

PIGS BRING HIGH PRICE IN ENGLAND

The sale of Swedish Landrace pigs at Peterborough Repository on Saturday produced sensational prices and set up a record which may not be broken for a very long time.

As reported in this newspaper last month, these pigs had been imported by air from Sweden, where they had been purchased by the National Pig Breeders Association.

A total of 103 animals were auctioned in 25 groups of four, consisting of one boar and three gilts, and one lot of a boar and two gilts, and the grand total realized was £94,185. The average for the group was £3,622 10s. and the average per head was £911 8s. 4d.

The highest price paid for a group was 5,000 guineas, and the purchaser was Mr. H. L. Reynolds of Pudsey, Yorkshire, while 5 groups were each sold for 4,000 guineas and over.

Five groups went to Yorkshire, one to Scotland and the others to various parts of England.

Over 1300 people attended the sale which was conducted by Messrs. Harry Hobson and Company.

Larger Farm Output

Farm output per man hour in the United States is 80 per cent higher in the current year than the average in the 1935-39 period. Farmers there this year used fewer man hours to get one-third more crop production than in 1935-39.

Greater mechanization is the factor mainly responsible for the rapid increase in labor productivity in crop production according to the U.S. department of agriculture. Farmers in that nation have almost twice as much farm power and machinery at their disposal as they had 15 to 20 years ago. In 1953 alone the use of gasoline and other petroleum products by farmers will exceed 10 billion gallons.

Pleasant Valley

Mrs. Robinson had a number of visitors on Sunday. On Tuesday Mrs. C. Clarke and yours truly spent the afternoon there. Your cake was good Thelma.

Church service was well attended on Sunday, even Mr. Skunk was there under the church.

Mrs. Fraser from Vermilion is spending a few days at the Waterfield home.

Mrs. Jim Gould had a surprise visit from her daughter Laura, Tom and children on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Moore, well known Islay old timers and now of Edmonton, visited Mrs. Gould during the Thanksgiving week end.

Misses Muriel and Gidays Stone were Friday visitors at the Bert Gould home. Mrs. Gillies is spending a few days with Betty. She also helped Mrs. McClelland with the threshers.

The harvest is done for another year and we all are thankful with so much stored away for the winter. A umber from Pleasant Valley attended Harvest Festival services at St. Saviours in Vermilion and the church was so prettily decorated with the various kinds of fruits, flowers and grain. On the way home tea was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Dedelly.

It looked like snow for awhile this week but the skies cleared and milder weather than ever set in and still continues at the time of writing.

Mrs. Fraser was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waterfield last week. She is now a guest at the home of the writer. Monday afternoon was spent visiting Mrs. Jones.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Reid on the birth of a baby daughter.

It is pleasing to hear that Mrs. Bothwell is improving nicely. Mr. Shaw is also feeling better as a result of his stay in the Islay hospital.

Mrs. Giles, Doris and Dave motored to Edmonton on Tuesday.

Quite a number from this district went to Kitscoty to the supper and musical program which was all very much enjoyed.

We certainly enjoyed a visit from Thelma very much and hope that she comes again.

Local News of Interest

Mrs. Janet Blue of Bradwell, Sask., visited her brother Mr. James Cavil here during the past week. This was the first time that brother and sister had met for some years. Mrs. Blue was accompanied by her son Richard Blue and a granddaughter Shirley Blue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Currah (nee Wilma McLean) of Gull Lake, Sask., spent the week end in Vermilion visiting the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. McLean. They continued on to Edmonton to see Jack's parents and returned to their home in their home by way of Calgary.

Ross White for the past year the accountant at the Alberta Treasury branch, has been transferred to Lac La Biche where he has been appointed manager of the branch. Ross has already gone to the new location with Mrs. Ross and family to follow soon. Succeeding Mr. White here is Mr. Harry Skelton, formerly of Grande Prairie.

A. Ramsely of Clandonald who held a successful clearing off auction sale recently, plans to move to the coast. He hasn't settled on a definite location but says there are several districts in which he would like to obtain a small acreage.

Wally Footz writes from Cadomin with the news that he is being transferred to the C.N.R. staff at Camrose. Wally says this is rather good news as it will give him a chance to get in some hockey with the Maroons. This brings to mind that the local Tigers could have used Wally very nicely this winter.

During their stay in Vermilion Mr. and Mrs. Norman Somerville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. West. They have now returned to their home at Beebe, Que.

Mrs. L. M. Winters who has spent the summer months in Vancouver, has now returned to her home at 549 Paradise Street in Victoria. Mrs. Winters expresses herself as always delighted to see the progress made in Vermilion and to hear news of her old friends here.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS about Cancer

QUESTION: What does one look for in a mole or wart to see if it is cancer?

ANSWER: Any mole or wart that changes size, shape or color, bleeds, itches or in any other way shows it is being irritated should be suspected of being cancer. Final decision rests on the microscopic appearance of removed tissue.

ENJOY HUNTING TRIP IN SOUTH COUNTRY

Mr and Mrs. Clarence Nels have just returned from a very enjoyable and successful hunting trip and holiday in the Brooks and Duchess districts of southern Alberta. They motored to Calgary where Mrs. Nels stopped off with Mrs. Graham. Mr. Graham, former Imperial Oil resident manager accompanied Mr. Nels to Brooks. While there they were guests of Mr D. Poole, Imperial Oil agent at Brooks and Mr. Owen Lake, Imperial agent of Duchess. The men had a very successful shoot of pheasants, geese and ducks. They were shown wonderful hospitality while in those districts.

Doctors Hold Class Re-Union Here

An interesting reunion of several doctors who had not been all together since graduating some 20 years ago from the University of Toronto, was held in Vermilion over the week end of Oct. 10 to 12 with the M. & B. motel as headquarters. The medical men were Dr. Walter Anderson of Edmonton, Dr. W. Parsons of Red Deer, Dr. Jack Oswald and Dr Clifford Ash of Toronto. Other members of the party were H. MacLennan, Edmonton, and J. Conn of Toronto. Doctors Oswald, Ash and Anderson were also high school classmates of Ross Boake. After enjoying some duck hunting here they headed south to the goose country.

ISLAY

Perry Linton is back at school, his leg in a cast, he on crutches.

May Carey, who is attending the Vermilion high school, and Marion McFadyen, at the Kitscoty dorm, were both home for last week end.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Reid on the birth of a daughter.

Quite a number of Islay folks attended the chicken supper at Kitscoty United church last Thursday. Among those noticed were Mrs. Gladys Gould and Mrs. Gillies. Those two gals do get around!

Charlie Hanna and Cliff Beck are painting E. Inman's house.

Miss Marie Carey was home from Edmonton for the week end.

Charlie Redmond's house has really taken on shape. Mr. Herb Simmons is the carpenter and he seems to be progressing rapidly.

Noticed Gordon Robinson putting a new roofing on the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Budzilka and Vera left Tuesday by car for California for the winter.

Crops here were good. Some report 60 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Quite a number gathered at Kenilworth on Sunday afternoon enjoying a good ball game and weiner roast. Later in the day many lovely and useful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Zig Budzilka.

Mrs. Fraser of Vermilion spent a few days last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waterfield.

Mrs. H. Simmons is having a visit in Edmonton with her daughter Irene.

Mrs Alexis Armstrong of Wetaskiwin has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linton and while here has held some Tupper ware parties, one at Doris McFadyen's last Friday night.

Five Vermilion C.G.I.T. Girls Attend Provincial Conference

By Erva Sweet

Friday, Oct. 9 was a very special day for five Vermilion girls who attended the Canadian Girls in Training conference at Olds. Jean Kibblewhite, Sue Carmichael, Anne Stewart, Kaye Simonson and myself were the five fortunate girls to set out by bus at 7:35 a.m. In spite of the early hour, everyone was eager and enthusiastic to get on her way.

When we reached Edmonton at 11:30 who should be there to meet us but Mrs. Roxburgh, our last year's faithful C.G.I.T. leader. She stayed down town and had dinner with us at the Y.W.C.A. Everyone had a merry time with Mrs. Roxburgh who was very interested in hearing all the Vermilion news. After dinner we went through a few stores but didn't have much time to spare, as our bus left at 1:15. At this time Mrs. Roxburgh left us and we were on our way once again.

By the time the bus drove into Red Deer it seemed as though the next town just had to be Olds. Much to our disappointment we found Olds was a two hour journey from Red Deer. At last we saw the long awaited town coming into sight. The time was now about 6 and everyone was nearly starved.

When we got off the bus our luggage was not to be found!

"Whatever will we do?" was the immediate question. I'm sure we all had visions of wearing dirty middies for three days and sleeping in our day clothes. About this time we were beginning to wonder what we were going to do when the bus driver told us there was some luggage in the bus depot. Were we ever relieved to see our suitcases!

After supper we registered at the school of agriculture where we were to stay for the next 3 days. Later that night there was a picture show and a sing-song. Immediately following this we all went to bed and were snoring in no time.

Saturday morning came all too soon for the greatest portion of us. The rising bell rang at 7:30. By 8 everyone seemed to be wide awake. It was at breakfast that our attention was drawn to the fact that there were 130 fellow C.G.I.T. girls from all over the province. Following breakfast, Pat Davis, the provincial president led in morning worship. At about 11 o'clock we were given free time to go exploring Olds. I think each girl went into every store (including hardware) just to look things over. Our good time ended, for we had to be back at the college by 12.00 o'clock, or do without dinner. That wouldn't suit very many of us I don't believe.

After dinner we were all lined up outside to have our pictures taken. These were developed by Sunday night, and nearly everyone got one. The group as a whole, had a very entertaining afternoon consisting of discussions and sing-songs.

Each one of us enjoyed Saturday night square dance. With half the girls taking boys' parts, we really made things swing and swirl. Also Saturday evening, the Edmonton girls put on a humorous floor show.

Sunday morning we all paraded in pairs to the United church and heard a most interesting Thanksgiving service. Sunday afternoon was somewhat similar to that of the previous day. That night however was the most interesting part of the conference. Miss Margaret Kennedy, a missionary from India told us of some of the experiences with the Indian people. She also showed us some pictures she had taken which were made into slides. In this way we could see them on the screen.

Monday was our last day at Olds. In fact we Vermilion girls had to leave without our Thanksgiving dinner, a sore point; all envied those other girls when we stopped long enough in Red Deer for a hamburger.

We should not complain because we had such a good trip. The ride home didn't seem nearly so long as the trip down. I guess it was because we were all so anxious to get home and tell of our exciting experiences.

I wish every member of our C.G.I.T. group could have had the privilege of attending this Conference. There will be another one next year and I hope there will be a good deal of enthusiasm in our group. Those of you who haven't attended please start saving up your pennies so that you may attend Conference next year.

Many Matters at Board Of Trade Weekly Meeting

The president, Mr. Chalmers, was in the chair and there were 27 present. Mr E. M. Stewart introduced Mr. Claude Brennan; Mr. D. R. Mitchell introduced Mr. Ed Clarke, of Lloydminster, Henry Russo and Company, representative.

The Minutes of the last meeting were adopted as read.

FAREWELL REV. BERG

The chairman expressed the regreat of the Board at the departure of the Rev Eric Berg, who has accepted a call to Abbotsford, B. C. Mr Berg replied that he never expects to get with a better or more friendly town than Vermilion and that he had thoroughly enjoyed his stay here.

PUBLICITY

Mr. Ashley Cooper, reported re publicity in the November special edition of the Edmonton Journal and stated that the committee had completely revamped the publicity submitted by the Journal substituting seven new pictures, and sketched shortly the contents of the material.

MEET CABINET

Mr D. R. Mitchell reported on the meeting of a delegation of the Alberta Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture with the Cabinet Ministers in Edmonton recently, when the resolutions passed by the Association at its annual meeting were presented to the Government.

Mr. Mitchell stated the resolutions received a very sympathetic hearing and that the interest shown by the members of the Cabinet demonstrates that the work of the Alberta Association is worth while. He went on to mention several matters of particular interest connected with the resolutions.

GUEST SPEAKER

Mr. Nicholls for the Road Committee reported that Mr. McKay of Canada Laco Lamps would address the Board at the next luncheon meeting.

Mr. Gerald Stephens reported that he had contacted a representative of the Alberta Motor Association as to when this Association would establish an office here. Mr. Stephens stated the representative said Vermilion was one of the next two on the Association's list for the establishment of such an office and that he thought it would be established here next spring.

A motion that the secretary-treasurer write the Alberta Motor Association offering any assistance we can give within our power in assisting the Association to establish a Branch Office here was carried.

The matter of honoring the winners of the Turkey Judging Club came up for discussion.

Mr. N. N. Bentley suggested the matter of honouring the winners be left for consideration until after their return from Toronto.

A motion that Mr. George Martin, director of Civil Defence for Vermilion and M. D. 71 be requested to invite the On Guard Canada Convoy to stop here when passing through on November 4th, next was carried.

Mr. Cooper read the Club Calender and the meeting adjourned.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

[illegible] writer in the country has chewed over the last election and the election results I'd like to say a word —a very unpopular word. I didn't have anybody to [illegible] for!

Now I've always been among the many to shout, "Get Out and Vote!" Fact is, I made up some of the slogans [illegible] in the campaign to get Canadians to value their franchise and use it. But as the election date drew near, I began to have a guilty conscience. I wasn't a bit sure that I liked either party. I'm not sure now.

I think a great many men and women went through the same kind of soul-searching that I went through. Sure, I believe in the free ballot and I know we should use it. Freedom means the right to vote for the party of your choice. Stop using that freedom and you might easily lose it. But what to do when there is no party of your choice?

I felt and still feel that the Liberals bungled television even worse than they bungled radio broadcasting. I felt pretty sure that at least some of the bureaucrats were getting delusions of grandeur and were spending our tax money to realize it. I wondered if their welfare state wasn't inclined to be a welfare of the ruling party state. There were a lot of things about the Liberal party I had grown pretty well disgusted over and I felt I should show that disgust at the polls. But who to vote for?

Well, I checked the Conservative platform and I liked the first plank. A cut in taxes. But when I listened to the Conservative speeches, and heard all the promises, it [illegible] me that they seemed [illegible] to outwelfare the Liberals. For [illegible] economy they promised they [illegible] a couple of extravagances. They hardly even mentioned freedom for television or [illegible] broadcasting.

The CCF [illegible] even worse. They go all-out for government ownership of practically everything and I've had all I want of standing in front of wickets at government liquor stores, [illegible] customs houses and the rest.

The Social Credit party seemed to be the only part left that campaigned on a free-enterprise ticket. But I worry about their funny-money theories. I lived in Alberta for a long time, and it stuck in my memory that when a prominent Social Crediter passed away, the bulk of his cash was in one of Canada's chartered banks. Perhaps I do that party an injustice, but I just couldnt bring myself to take a chance on handing an already government - managed monetary system over to a group intent on fiddling with it even more.

That left the Commies, and they only make me laugh. I couldn't bring myself to vote for a gang that looks so silly in its effort to follow the party line without tripping.

Maybe I'm just hard to please. Or maybe there should be a sixth party in Canada—one that has no delusions of grandeur, but would simply run the affairs of the nation economically and sensibly giving government charity only where needed, and saving a bit of charity for the poor taxpayer who has needed it for a long time now. With someone like that to mark a ballot for, nobody would have to chase me to get out and vote. [illegible] about you?

Mannville Church is Scene of Pretty Fall Wedding

MANNVILLE. — Bouquets of flowers decorated the altar of McQueen Memorial United church, Mannville, for the marriage of Miss Joan Balfour McCauley and Mr. David M. McGrann of Edmonton.

The bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McCauley of Mannville, and the groom is the son of Mr. McGrann of Belfast, Ireland.

Rev. R. Crighton officiated at the ceremony in which the bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a powder blue orlon and nylon two-piece suit complemented with coral velour hat and navy accessories. Her corsage was of coral sweetheart roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls and matchings earrings.

Attending the bride was Miss Wilma Cook of Grande Prairie, who wore a navy suit with purple accessories. En corsage she wore pink and white carnations.

The groom was attended by Mr. Lewis McCook of Edmonton and the ushers were William Robert McCauley, brother of the bride, and Audrey Clark. Before the ceremony Miss Betty Proudfoot sang 'O Perfect Love' and during the signing of the register she sang 'A Wedding Prayer'. She was accompanied by Miss Arlene Leitch who played the wedding music.

Later an open reception to one hundred and twelve guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was laid with a hand-crocheted cloth of 'Queen Anne' lace pattern and decorated with pink and white streamers and bells, that formed an alcove, and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked with pink candles and bells and a floral bouquet of pink carnations and mums.

Receiving with the bridal party, Mrs. McCauley, mother of the bride wore a Royal blue nylon taffeta afternoon dress complemented with a pink velour hat and pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mr. N. McKinnon of Mannville proposed a toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom and ably recorded to be given later on in the evening.

Mrs. J. McCauley, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. E. C McPhee was in charge of the gift table. Those assisting at the tea urns were Mesdames L. McCauley, L. Gordon, E. Clark, M. Ross and M. Finlay. The Misses Audrey McCauley, Betty Proudfoot and Adele Matney were serviteurs assisted by Gloria and Doris McCauley and Janet Clark.

Out of town guests were Mrs. R. W. Tanner, Mr. T. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. L. McCook, Mr. and Mrs. McGillivary, all of Edmonton; Miss Wilma Cook of Grande Prairie; Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. T. Banks, all of Vermilion, and Mr. and Mrs. Len Donaldson of Redwater.

Home & School Hears Mr. A. A. Aldridge

MANNVILLE. — October meeting of the Mannville Home and School Association was held in the school auditorium on Wednesday last with a good attendance. A film was shown and the regular business taken care of. Mr. N. Bohaichuk has replaced Mrs. D Upton as the treasurer. A letter was read from Barry Smith, now of Edmonton, thanking the Home and School and the Board of Trade for the honor pin and scholarship.

Mr Doherty introduced Mr. Aldridge. In his opening remarks Mr. Aldridge complimented the Home and School on being so well represented by district members as well as town members. He said it was reaching everybody in that way. He also complimented them on the scholarship and honor pins project. Mr. Aldridge feels that the teachers have a unique position — a tremendous and wonderful responsibility, accomplished with assistance of the parents, in helping young people along the road to satisfactory adulthood. The grade one teacher has a big job in teaching children to work together socially. The enterprise system helps the slow learners helps give them a sense of accomplishment.

Discipline is important and necessary in both the home and school but if possible help should be given to develop self discipline. The first basic need is security and love. Children must feel wanted, both in the home and school. It is necessary to be fair and consistent with them. Give them time to learn and friendly support while learning; avoid situations that invite chaos and try to understand what the child is trying to tell you of his needs by his behavior. Be flexible but expect the child to respect and accept reasonable regulations, building a sense of self discipline. And let bygones be bygones after a misdeed. Reassure a child and help relieve anxiety. These are some of the basic needs and aspects of discipline pointed out by Mr. Aldridge. He closed with six points showing how the home can work with the school. Learn to know the teachers socially, recognize that the children are not always right, do not prejudge the rights and wrongs until all facts are known, continue to take an interest in the child's progress through the years, encourage a sensible attitude of child toward school, and encourage good work but don't be over-ambitious. It's a young people's country, there are opportunitie for both boys and girls in almost any field they choose.

The evening closed with a piano solo by Audrey McCauley. Lunch was served by the lunch committee.

Hog Production Profitable

Since 1917 when a swine herd was established at the University of Alberta, over 15,000 pigs have been farrowed. The following conclusions based on this experience were reported by that institution.

During the 35 year period pigs provided an increase of 63% in the value of barley marketed as pork rather than grain after paying all overhead costs, including interest on breeding stock, buildings and equipment, depreciation, labor return and marketing charges.

Over the period there was a margin of approximately $8.30 per hog between the cost of production and the selling price. In only two years 1924 and 1932, did the average cost of production exceed the selling price. During the 35 year period the selling price of basic grade hogs varied from $3.45 per cwt. live weight in 1932 to $25.36 in 1951.

NEW 22-MILE PIPELINE NEARS COMPLETION

Northwestern Utilities Now Serving Natural Gas

On Sunday, Nov. 1, Northwestern Utilities, Ltd., commenced serving natural gas to the residents of Vermilion. Northwestern has purchased the assets of Franco Public Service Ltd., who for the past thirteen years have been serving the town. In connection with the change of ownership there are several points of interest.

Mr. Dennis Yorath, General Manager of Northwestern, has announced that the Company will soon complete a 22-mile pipeline from the northeast corner of its Viking-Kinsella field. While the pipeline, initially at least, will supply only the fuel requirements of the Canadian Utilities power generating plant, sufficient capacity is available to meet the full requirements of the town should an emergency arise in connection with the operation of the gas wells located southeast of Vermilion.

Mr. Yorath points out that the normal natural gas requirements for the town, exclusive of the power plant, will come from the wells which have been feeding Franco's system since its inception. Northwestern has arranged to purchase gas from these wells from Vermilion Consolidated Oils and the other operators in the area. Automatic equipment will be installed so that should an interruption in supply occur from the Vermilion Consolidated Oils area, the town's natural gas needs will be met by the Viking-Kinsella pipeline. In this way the residents of the town will be in the fortunate position of being able to be served from two independent sources of supply.

Mr. Yorath has also advised that the personnel operating the natural gas utility in Vermilion will remain unchanged. Mr. Jim Kirk will be Northwestern's senior representative and will be assisted by Mr. Ben Bauer and Mrs. Eileen Young. Northwestern is taking over the former office of Franco Public Service and payment of accounts and other matters will be handled through this office. Many of Northwestern's senior personnel have been in Vermilion recently arranging the many details in connection with the change in ownership.

The Standard has also been advised by Mr. Yorath that Northwestern is planning on holding a cooking school in town later this year. Further details will be available at a later date.

Mr. Yorath states that in welcoming the residents of Vermilion as an integral part of Northwestern's system, he hopes that many years of safe and economical natural gas service will be available to the town and that mutual relations between the Company and the town will be maintained on the friendliest basis possible.

DEANERY LAYMEN WILL MEET

Laymen of the Wainwright-Vermilion Deanery will gather in St. Saviour's parish hall, Vermilion, on Monday, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the advisability of forming a Deanery Laymen's Association.

In the course of the evening a film will be shown, entitled "For every Child". This film comes very highly recommended, and it should be seen by as many as possible. It will also be shown in the parish hall on Tuesday at 8 p.m. sponsored by the A.Y.P.A. of the parish.

All laymen of Vermilion and district are urged to attend Monday's meeting.

Another Mammoth Bingo Planned

Save your $2 bills folks—another mammoth bingo is in the immediate future for the people of Vermilion and district. The Kinsmen club is sponsoring this major event on Saturday Nov. 28 at 9 p.m. The prizes have been selected and will be on display in Simonsen's Furniture store within the next week. A total of $1200 in merchandise being arrayed—something to suit everyone's fondest dream in the furniture line.

Advance tickets will be on sale shortly at $2 each which entitles you to admission and the 20 games. All members of the Kinsmen club will have tickets for sale.

United Church Men's Club Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the United Church Men's club, Vermilion, was held in the lower hall of the church on Wednesday, Oct. 28. Caterers for the supper were Messrs. E. Koehli, E. Schurman and E. Clendenning. Set in Hallowe'en atmosphere the supper was much enjoyed by all.

During the business session following the supper, officers for the coming year were elected.

Past Pres.—S. D. Simonson
President — E. Schurman
Vice-Pres.—Ken McCrae
Secretary — H. Tebbutt
Treasurer — W. Boulton

Committee Chairmen—Don Falk, Membership; E. Long, Stewardship; G. F. Stephens, Recreation; E. Clendenning, Publicity.

Reports were made on behalf of each committee and by E. Brimacombe, retiring treasurer and by H. Tebbutt, secretary.

A vote of thanks to these officers, committees and retiring executive was expressed by Mr. Simonson, retiring president in his remarks, bespeaking for his successor continued support and co-operation.

Regret at the moving of Mr. Tom Dick from Vermilion was expressed by the chairman.

A hearty welcome was extended to new members Ron Dalby and Bill Nankivelle.

In his remarks upon assuming office as president, Mr. Schurman thanked the members for his election, solicited their enthusiastic interest in the activities for the coming year which promises to be a busy one for all.

Ushering in the church, has been assumed as a responsibility under the Stewardship committee.

The club has also undertaken to sponsor and promote the Tyro boys work of the church as a project this year.

Regular meetings will be held the third Wednesday each month at 5:45 p.m. in the lower hall of the church.

Caterers for the next meeting on Nov. 18 are Dr. Stephens and Fred Madden.

Vermilion Lady Observes 94th Birthday

Mrs Jessie Fisher observed her 94th birthday on Monday this week Nov. 2 at the home of her daughter Mrs. Wm McLean. Mrs Fisher who experienced all the privations of the early Alberta pioneer goes for a daily walk and reads without glasses.

Born in Worcester England Mrs Fisher came first to the U.S. and then to the Athabasca district in Alberta where the family homesteaded in the days when the ox was the common motive power. In later years Mrs. Fisher and her daughter have been living in Edmonton but in June moved to Vermilion and now live with Mr. and Mrs. McLean.

Finds Tiny Gold Fish In Lily Pond

When taking the gold fish out of the lily pond in her garden last week following the first heavy frost Mrs Van Wageningen found a baby gold fish in the muddy water at the bottom of the pool. It is no wonder that this was the first one ever discovered there as they are only 1½ inches long. The tiny fish seems quite at home in the house now but the Van Wageningens presume that feeding [illegible] his right formula might prove a problem. He is much too small for the regular fish food. Can anyone help out by making a worth[illegible] suggestion?

New Lunch Room, Islay

The opening is announced elsewhere in this issue of your Standard of Pat's Lunch in Islay. The village has long lacked a convenience such as this and the new business should be enthusiastically received and patronized.

Hospital Is Now Equipped With Special X-Ray

Through the work of the Alberta Tuberculosis Association, the Vermilion municipal hospital is now equipped with a special addition to the X-ray equipment which takes chest X-rays in miniature. This machine was installed the past week and is for the purpose of taking a routine X-ray of the chest of every person admitted to the hospital at an almost negligible charge. The machine reduces the X-ray to a picture 3 inches by 3 inches and each week all of these plates are sent to Edmonton for survey. If any abnormalities are found the patient is advised to have a larger X-ray taken.

The machine, donated by the T.B. Association, cost about $1000. The Association has put the machine in Vermilion because of the co-operation of the hospital in carrying out the tests and X-rays during the past two years.

This is another added service to the public which will give everyone a chance for a chest examination at a very low cost and help in a survey of the health of the general public. The X-ray work at the hospital is done by a trained technician, Mr. L. Marian, who has been on the staff for a year.

To Observe Remembrance Day

Remembrance Day, Wednesday Nov. 11 will be observed in Vermilion by stores and business places being closed all day. The Canadian Legion has arranged suitable services to commemorate this day.

Newspaper Bingo Planned Here

Newspaper bingo, a new and intriguing pastime that every member of the family can play right at home, will be started by the curling club soon. There will be 12 bingos each with a prize of $10, and a grand prize for a full house of $200.

Tickets will be sold at $1 each and two numbers will be drawn and announced in your Standard each week. Details of the new game will be announced in an early issue, most likely next week.

B. Anderson Appointed Government Vendor

People of the town and district served will be pleased to learn that Baden S. Anderson has been officially appointed government vendor in charge of the Alberta Liquor Control Board store in Vermilion. Andy's [illegible] is well and favorably known. He succeeds Tom Dick who retired on superannuation Oct. 31.

The new store manager has been on the staff of the local branch for ten years.

Many Activities Are Planned by Legion

Remembrance Day Parade And Service Next Wednesday

The Remembrance Day parade to the cenotaph and to a church service in the Columbia theatre has been well attended down the years. Citizens are again invited to come out on Wednesday, Nov 11 to see the parade and to attend the service. The parade will march into the theatre at 11 a.m.

The Rev. R. T. Clennett, Anglican minister at Chauvin [illegible] and a member of this branch will preach the sermon. The general arrangements for the service are in charge of Padre D. A. F[illegible]

All veterans in the area whether they are members of the Legion or not are asked to meet at the Legion hall at 10.15 to form for the parade to the cenotaph. Medals will be worn. Let's make this the biggest parade of district veterans in the history of the town.

President Martin asks that anyone wishing to place wreaths on the cenotaph should let him know immediately.

Lawrence Webb, the chairman of the Poppy Campaign committee wishes to thank all business men for purchasing wreaths for display in their stores. The response has been splendid and the Legion is very grateful to everyone.

ARMISTICE DANCE

The annual Armistice dance will be held at the armories on Tuesday, Nov. 10. Key Notes orchestra of St. Paul will supply the music. This is one of the big dances of the year in Vermilion. Tickets are available from all veterans.

SMOKER

Then there is a smoker for the Legion members on Saturday Nov. 7. A good program has been arranged and the committee hopes that there will be a large turn out.

REGULAR LEGION MEETING

The regular monthly Legion meeting is called for Monday, Nov. 9. These meetings have been well attended this fall with 30 to 40 members out each time.

Chance To Win A Hereford Heifer

A purebred 2-year-old Hereford heifer will be the grand prize that someone will win this Friday night Nov. 6. The name of the lucky winner will be drawn at a dance in the armories sponsored by 'A' Coy., The Loyal Edmonton Regiment.

All you have to do to get a chance to win the prize is to purchase a ticket from any member of the curling club for the sum of $1. All the proceeds from the ticket sales are for the new curling rink which now presents quite an impressive appearance and is a real asset to the community. Remember — if you haven't a ticket you can't win.

The fine prize has been donated to the curlers by Johnny Christensen [illegible] surely the rest of us can spare a buck for a ticket.

V.S.A. Organizes Students' Council

Organization of the Students' Council to plan and conduct the program of extra-curricular activities at the Vermilion school of agriculture for the current term has now been completed.

[illegible] speeches were given on Monday evening, Nov. 2, the elections were held on Tuesday, and the first meeting of the new council took place Wednesday evening.

The Council now includes the following members: President Douglas Marner, Lloydminster; Vice-President Stanley Hilgardner, R. 4, Edmonton; Secretary — Chas. Dee, Marwayne; Treasurer Trueman Norcross, Marwayne; Chairman of Literary Committee Mary Bissett, Abee; Chairman Gym Committee Conn Calenso, Edmonton; Chairman Athletic Committee — Gerald Patsula, Edmonton; Member Without Portfolio — Elmor Adam, R.R. 1, S. Edmonton.

At the first meeting of the Council plans were made for the election of class representatives of the major committees, the preparation of schedule of week end events, and for the preparation of a budget covering Student Union finances for the current term. The Council will shortly appoint an Editor for the school paper, and Editor-in-Chief for the Yearbook, and two students to take charge of operating the snack bar.

V.H.S. Students Hold Lively Dance

The armories was the scene of a lively masquerade dance last Friday night, Oct. 30, as approximately 180 high school and invited V.S.A. students attended in costume, many of the college students were in full dress of initiation, while the high school attendants wore Hallowe'en costumes, some of which were most original. Hazel Barr was our efficient Mistress of Ceremonies, and before too late in the evening, she had a number of novelty dances underway. After the Grand March Mr. English, Miss Knapp and Mr. Dowling chose the costume winners who were the following:

Single Comic: Hazel Barr
Couple Comic: Anne Stewart, [illegible]
Single Fancy: Betty Curtis
Couple Fancy: Alice Strunson, [illegible]
Most Original: Stewart Cooper.

More novelty dances followed the supper hour and finally after three hours of fun, everyone headed for home. Many compliments were heard of our high school orchestra. Thanks V.S.A.

We were pleased to see so many [illegible] students. We hope you enjoyed yourselves as much as we enjoyed having you, especially the [illegible]

I regret the error in last week's write-up regarding 1952-53 curling. [illegible] was the victorious house winner.

PLEASES VERMILION AUDIENCE

On Sunday [illegible] the people of Vermilion were privileged to hear the very gifted pianist Roman Stecura. This concert was sponsored by the Vermilion Male chorus. As one who attended this concert I must say that the sponsors are to be congratulated.

The numbers rendered by the Male chorus were enjoyed by all, particularly the first and last numbers.

Mr. Stecura's performance excelled in technical brilliance. It is difficult some times for a pianist to hold an audience just by sheer artistry. Mr Stecura achieved this. With [illegible] ability, he has an effortless fluidity of expression, and a sense of tone value. His music is delightful.

The piano selections could have been of more popular appeal, but nevertheless, Mr. Stecura held his audience, and was enthusiastically [illegible] repeatedly, and with justification. The Schumann number was played exquisitely and fully demonstrated the musical field of the piano.

We would like to have Mr Stecura here again and hope that we will then hear him in some of the works of Beethoven and Mozart.

The Gideons In Vermilion

Western Field Secretary of the Gideons, International in Canada, R. Hugh Coldridge will speak at the morning services in the Alliance chapel, Vermilion, Sunday, Nov. 8.

Together with local Gideons he will also speak in the afternoon, in the Alliance Chapel, Marwayne, and in the evening in the United church, Lloydminster.

During his visit, Mr. Coldridge will present complimentary copies of the New Testament with Psalms and Proverbs, to pupils in Grade 5 in our public schools. This ministry carried on by the Gideons requires [illegible] copies of the New Testament annually, in addition to many thousands of copies of the Bible placed in public institutions.

Several members of the Gideons are local residents and they plan to form a local organization, or camp, while Mr. Coldridge is here.

Poppy Day

On Saturday in Vermilion and in every town in Canada poppies will be sold on the streets. This campaign for the support of the Legion Poppy fund has been going on year after year since 1921. It is one way in which citizens can help in this great cause and at the same time pay tribute to the men and women of our country who have died in service.

While it is true that there are many ways in which the government helps the returned men and women there are a lot of things where emergencies occur and assistance is needed immediately. Often this help is forthcoming from the Poppy fund in a matter of hours. It is to help needy veterans and their families that the Legion Poppy fund has existed down the years.

Canada asks very little in the way of sacrifice from its citizens. There is a chance once a year when everyone can show their appreciation of the services rendered by our citizen army. Many of them spent ten years of their lives in two wars in the service of their country and that our way of life should prevail.

Does Vimy Ridge Ypres, Passchendaele Ortona, Dieppe and Korea mean anything to you? If so, be generous when the Ladies Auxiliary of the Legion offer you poppies on Saturday.

It should be mentioned also that all poppies and wreaths are made in the Veterans Shops by elderly veterans who are not able to earn a living in any other way. These shops are administered by the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

Surely everyone will proudly wear a Poppy of Remembrance on Saturday and on Nov. 11.

Fall Requires Extra Care by Motorists

EDMONTON. Driving habits should be changed if the usually high fall accident rate is to be kept down, Mr. Stanley Parker of Edmonton, District Manager of the Dominion Automobile Association said, in reminding motorists that they will find themselves driving in darkness where only a week ago it was light.

Add to this, the thousands of returning school children he said, and there is a situation where accidents are just waiting to happen. Motorists must meet the additional hazards with additional care.

Not a small addition to motoring worries, Mr Parker added, is the increase in the number of cars on city and suburban streets caused by those who have returned from summer homes and also wet leaves on roads add their considerable bit to changing conditions.

To many the Dominion Automobile Association manager said, fall is the best time of the year, but to those interested in highway safety it is one of the worst because driving habits are slow to change while driving conditions change overnight. Additional care and caution will have to be added every night also to meet the changes.

"Safety is everybody's business," Mr. Parker said, the next two or three weeks are potentially more dangerous than any other time of the year, but with more care and driving skill put into use, motorists can overcome this dangerous period.

SUPPER BIG SUCCESS

The annual chicken supper spon-sored by the United Church W.A. group at Candonald, was a great success. The tables presented a lovely picture with their white and pastel cloths and novelty centre pieces of fruit and vegetables. The W.A. members would like to thank all who helped in any way with food, work and patronage. There was a grand spirit of co-operation prevalent throughout the evening.

STAGETTES

Hi! We're back in the news. Did you miss us the last 3 weeks? What do you mean, it was too good to last?

We haven't been holidaying we want you to understand. We call it social activity. There is always a little work attached but when the odd girls it doesn't take long to get the work under control. (That doesn't look right — odd girls.) Our dance was a success as are most Singalo dances, with a big crowd of fun loving people where one thank whole heartedly and invite back to our Holly Hall where, who knows, we may even have more ballroom to pop, and more brooms to dance with. And as always, Mr. Taylor did a fine job as M.C. He's a good scout. Thanks to you Mr. Taylor.

The club is making the regular annual donation to CARE, who in turn, pack and ship a parcel to the Maidstone St. school in London. The letters answering this food parcel are very gratifying.

Last week we had a social meeting in the form of a chicken supper at Islay. Can't those ladies put up a meal! It's hard on the ones who are dieting. Most of us prefer to eat. Well we noticed that we weren't the only ones. As a matter of fact we would have had quite a time keeping up to a few others at Islay that night. Some of us had to pleurisy in the car as we didn't have them both on the same plate at the same time!

Our evening business meeting this week, was held in temporary quarters upstairs at the arena. After a couple of trips around the rink both inside and out we finally found the right series of doors that led us, everything into corridors, ground looking for the right door. No wonder those cows out in the arena were nervous. Anybody want a milk shake?

Joan, you too? She resigned her position as treasurer to take up dishwashing and going to shows, starting the 2nd of December. Well congratulations to you and Nick, Joan. The club is sorry to see you leave, though we are sure that Evelyn will be an able successor. Anyway it didn't take long to put her in office. Don't sleep in on the 11th for at 10 15 everyone is to be at the Legion hall in uniforms and ready to march in the parade.

The next club meeting will be in two weeks time, the 17th, when we hope Mildred will have Betsy (the cow) out again. By that time we'll have more authority to cast votes and when we say Betsy she will listen. We were a little weak last night. Oh no, we weren't excited!

Checking — Saturday, 7th, Mary Anne R. and Freda; 14th, Kay S. and Sophie. What's your phone number Kay?

P.S.: Doll clothes are still sold!

Internationals Carry Story of Atom Attack

A 10,000 mile, coast-to-coast journey is ongoing these International trucks! They are a part of the Civil Defence Convoy, transporting the Civil Defence Exhibit to most of Canada's leading cities. The eleven vehicle convoy includes seven International Roadliners, pulling 2 8-door trailers, each of which carries a part of the multiple exhibit; also two International Travelalls to carry convoy personnel, an International maintenance body to transport the Mobile Canteen Unit for the exhibit, and a gasoline tanker unit, mounted on an International chassis. The seven truck tractors used are Travelalls have been specially built by International Harvester and have been loaned by them as the transportation for the duration of the convoy. Half the exhibit drives home the reality and nature of the threat that faces Canada. The other half shows specifically what the individual citizen can do to meet this threat, and how Civil Defence services are organized at the provincial and local levels.

Poultry in the Fall

When housing pullets in winter quarters it is important and necessary, if good health is to be maintained, to provide plenty of fresh air. Remember the birds have been used to range conditions and if housed too closely in a building will soon develop colds. R. J. Hilgianon, Acting Poultry Commissioner, Alberta Department of Agriculture, recommends that all windows in the poultry house be removed and the openings covered with wire until weather becomes quite severe. This allows a free circulation of air which is very beneficial.

Proper feeding is also important to keep the birds in condition. The growing mash should be fed until they are laying 25 to 30 per cent and then a gradual change should be made to the laying or breeding mash. Grain should be fed quite liberally during the fall and winter months if the pullets are to increase their body weight and produce profitably. Plenty of hopper feeding space is also needed, at least 25 to 30 lineal feet per 100 birds. Fresh mash and fresh water is also important.

Princess Anne W. I. Notes

The regular monthly meeting of the Princess Anne W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Mead with a full attendance of members and 17 visitors present.

The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada" followed by the repeating of the Creed. Roll call was answered with a short poem. Following this the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Also the treasurer's report and social services report.

Correspondence was read from Mrs. Marion Rogers thanking the W.I. for donations to the arthritis and rheumatism campaign.

The formation of a First Aid course in conjunction with the local Civil Defence in Vermilion was discussed. Plans were made to have the teacherage which is now vacant, and use same for the W.I. meetings, card parties and other social meetings.

The president, Mrs. Mead, gave a few well chosen words of welcome to our 17 visitors who had joined with us to hear Miss Shirley Holina, district home economist from Vermilion, speak on Christmas Gift Ideas.

Among the visitors were ladies of the Thorncliffe W.I. who have kindly invited the Princess Anne members to attend their November meeting, at which Miss Holme is to speak.

Following the address by Miss Holdina, the social in the form of a sing-song was held. The meeting was adjourned with the singing of "God Save the Queen".

The hostess then served a very delicious lunch.

The next meeting will be held at tion and the growth of the young plants. Seed from clean fields should be used as now is the time to select next year's seed. Treating of all seed next year with one of the mercuric dusts is important.

Of every dollar handled by Canada's 8,000 advertising agencies last year, 60 cents went to publications and 18 cents to radio and television.

District Manager

VICE. TOMYN

Well-known in north-east Alberta as a former member of the Alberta Legislature, is William (Bill) Tomyn, district manager of Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association. Mr. Tomyn, who resides at Willingdon for four consecutive terms, from 1935 to 1952, now serves the area, north to Willingdon and east to Lloydminster, with full health and accident and life insurance coverage. He recently was appointed representative of United Benefit Life Insurance Co., a companion company of Mutual Benefit.

A native Albertan, Mr Tomyn was born in Warwick in 1905. His public service background includes 19 years as a school teacher, prior to joining Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association in 1946.

"GREEN ACRES"

TRACTOR SCHOOL

I am informed that a tractor and farm machinery school can be arranged for this district if I can find 20 young farmers between the age of 20 and 30 years who wish to spend six weeks in this type of training in the operation and maintenance of farm tractors etc. There is no charge. Anyone interested should enquire immediately at this office.

RODNEY OATS

A new variety of oats called Rodney has been developed for northern Alberta. Small amounts for trial purposes can be obtained from the Experimental Station, at Lacombe.

CIRCULAR ON GRASSES

A new circular on grasses and legumes for this area is now ready to come to hand. Do you know why Brome is better for this district than Kentucky Blue grass? Then get this circular which compares the values of all grasses and legumes.

ICE WELLS & ICE HOUSES

What about that ice house you were going to fix up? Now is the time of year to dig an ice well or have some old building into an ice house. Fruit, meat, milk and butter all keep longer when kept on ice in the hot summer days. Get a circular from your D.A. on sinking ice.

CALF CLUBS

Parents are asked to think of the training which farm boys and girls get from belonging to a calf club. Each anyone who has fed, tended and shown a calf if it is not worth while. There are three calf clubs in this area. Let me know if you are interested.

HEAD BLIGHT

Empty or poorly filled heads in wheat and rye this year was not rust as commonly believed but was "Head Blight". It is caused by one or more plant diseases and was particularly bad in some fields this year. These diseases such as scabbing blight may affect the germination of the seed. Treating seed with one of the mercuric dusts is important.

Allandale Notes

PIGS ON ROADS ARE A MENACE

We're grateful for our lovely fall weather which has ended but it is still warm for this time of year. October 29 the thermometer registered 68 above, a glorious fall day. The next a.m. colder and snow, and down well below freezing. Some of the snow has disappeared and reports are for warmer weather. The roads have been very slippery.

Clandonald chicken supper held on the 21st was very well supported and the ladies served a very delicious hot supper. From all the kind remarks everyone was satisfied.

Pigs are a menace on the road—a couple of lads had the misfortune of having a truck overturn by running into them. While on the subject of safety, why not respect the highways and roads folks, by not throwing empty bottles along them. Also the signs along the road in there for our guidance and protection and not a target to shoot at.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walling who have been at Victoria, B.C. have now sold out and purchased a home in Edmonton around the Highlands. They have been laid up-daying at their old home with Mr. and Mrs. W. Feenstra and family at Rugyila, and visiting old friends around the districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson motored to the city the week end of the 24th to attend the Kinsmen convention and the football game. The chil-dren Raymond, Dorothy, Marlene and Donna spent the week end at their Onanes grandparents home.

Pardon the misprint in the last news items — should have read, Miss Anna Nelson attending V.S.A.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Maytree and family Kay, Judy, Brian and Wanda (their oldest daughter Eileanor kept the home fires burning) of Bawlf motored to the O'Fee home on the 25th, Auntie accompanied them also. Anna and the younger children are spending a few weeks at home while the others returned the same day. Later Uncle Johnny accompanied Auntie O'Fee to the city to visit with her niece Kathleen and onto Bawlf with Judy for a few days.

Allandale was well represented at the Islay fowl supper which as usual was a very delicious meal.

Eddie Throndson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ramsley on their trip to the coast, leaving Oct. 28. We wish them well in their new location and home.

The week end of the 24th Ort and Ralph Stromo had as visitors the boy's parents, brother and sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Stromo. Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Stromo and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pierce and two daughters of Ingleield, Sask.

Closing thought: Just to live for others near and scatter daily friendly cheer. In time of stress to lend a hand, just to show you understand. Life is richer, more worthwhile as we help our neighbors smile.

Let Your Dentist Look After Child; Do Not Interfere

Parents who take their 2 and 3 year olds to the dentist are politely reminded in the current issue of Health that the dentist is the boss in his own office.

"Generally both parent and child are invited into the dentist's operating room," notes the Health League of Canada magazine. "The parent must understand that the best examination cannot be conducted entirely by the dentist, who alone must give instructions.

"It is the parent and dentist give instructions. A sense of confidence and fun may easily be created in the child's mind and the appointment may be a complete failure. One guiding principle, that of the dentist, is entirely sufficient.

"If, unfortunately, a behavior problem should arise, it can more readily be overcome in the absence of the parent. If for the good of the child if the dentist requests the parent to leave the operating room."

Parents are reminded by the author, Dr. E.N. Wilkie, that parents are not permitted to remain with a child during his first visit to the kindergarten but are only permitted to accompany their child to the operating room of a hospital.

"Children adjust themselves to a new environment much better in the absence of the parents," sums up Dr. Bilkey.

He urges that children make their first visit to the dentist after all the primary teeth have come in usually between the ages of 2 and 3 years. It is very important for adult dental development that the baby teeth be cared for

Village of Derwent

SYNOPSIS OF BY-LAW No. 77

This By-law provides for the issuance of debentures of the Village in the sum of 44,700.00 dollars for the purpose of providing a water supply and distribution system for the Village.

The By-law authorizes the Council to install the said system and for the purpose to issue debentures of the Village in the sum of 44,700.00 dollars.

The sum of 24,700.00 dollars is to be charged by way of special assessment for local improvements against all properties abutting on the streets and avenues wherein the said system is to be installed, payable at an annual rate per front foot of frontage of 22 cents payable for a period of 20 years. The balance is borrowed on the credit of the Village at large and provision is made for the levying of annual rates on all taxable property in the Village to provide for the annual payments on the said sum after crediting annual net revenues from the operation of the system.

The debentures are to be dated as may be appropriate having regard to the date of the sale and are to be payable in twenty annual or semi-annual installments of principal in each of the years 1954 to 1973 inclusive with interest at a rate not exceeding 6% per annum.

If the loan can be obtained under the provisions of the Self Liquidating Project Act then the debentures will bear interest at two (2%) per annum and will be repayable in forty equal amortized semi-annual installments of combined principal and interest. The debentures may be made redeemable at the option of the Village on or after the 1st day of February 1974.

If the loan cannot be obtained under the provisions of The Self-Liquidating Project Act but can be obtained under the provisions of the Municipal Capital Expenditure Loans Act, then the loan will bear interest at the rate of three and one quarter (3¼%) per cent per annum and will be repayable in twenty equal consecutive annual amortized installments of combined principal and interest.

Bigger Families Upset Prophets

Canada's marriage rate is down from its postwar peak. But the birthrate has been rising for the past five years. This year it may reach about 27.7 per 1000 population The Financial Post thinks.

More and more Canadian families have been setting an extra plate at the table. They have been having more and more second, third, and fourth children than was the custom a few years ago. This has been the phenomenal change of recent years. When viewed against the lower marriage rate, this recent family gain is still more amazing.

General prosperity, the influx of young immigrants, the move to the suburbs, have all had their influence.

The outlook right now is that the decline in the marriage rate will cast hardly a ripple on the growth of Canada. Business based on busy and full cradles can keep on expanding.

It is estimated that this year the public will turn over to the CBC special 15 per cent excise tax on purchases of radio and television equipment.

F.U.A. Plans Leadership Course at V.S.A.

District No. 7, F.U.A., are holding a one day leadership course at the Vermilion school of agriculture on Saturday Nov. 28. This is open to all farm families and expenses are being met from the treasury of District 7.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. During the day Col. Eric Cormack of the Extension Department of the University of Alberta, will speak on various subjects pertaining to leadership in organized societies. Henry Young, the provincial president of the F.U.A., and Mrs. Harold of St. Albert will also speak.

During the afternoon classes will be held giving information on 'How to make up reports of meetings', also special sessions for presidents, secretaries and all official positions which may be held by anyone in an organization or club.

All will be entirely free except meals which will be at the expense of each one attending. The course will adjourn at 6 p.m.

Mrs. H. J. Reah returned to her home in Vermilion last week end after spending a month in Vancouver.

QUIET HALLOWEEN—

Halloween passed off quietly enough as far as damaging type of mischief was concerned, little of moment along that line taking place and for which the young people of town are to be commended. There seemed to be just thousands of little people, hobgoblins, witches, leprechauns, sprites and every other inmate of the spirit world making the rounds of the houses and supplies of treats were well liquidated before the evening was very far spent.

The Weather

The past week has seen the first decided break in the weather for the past three months. Snow fell on Thursday Nov. 29, almost disappeared within the next day or two following, but then 1.3 inches of snow came down on Sunday evening. This snowball was much heavier to the north and lighter southwards. Since Sunday the tendency has been to clear up and warm up, much of the snow having melted.

Total precipitation for October was small, .40 of an inch, of this .07 was rain with 3.3 inches of snow accounting for the other .33 of water.

Automobile Insurance May Be Political Issue of Future

Automobile insurance may be a major Canadian political issue of the future, says Fred Bodsworth of Maclean's Magazine. Government control of car insurance, proposed as one solution to the problem of fast rising insurance costs, would automatically put it on the political map, Bodsworth points out.

State insurance isn't necessarily the answer, Bodsworth indicates. The current issue of Maclean's carries Bodsworth's exhaustive survey of the controversial field of automobile insurance. This report reveals what's behind the huge cost rise that threatens to cripple the underwriting companies and ultimately put car insurance [illegible] into the hands of the state. State insurance requires either indirect government subsidizing, as in Saskatchewan, or exorbitant premiums to pay the claims of accident-prone drivers who don't carry insurance now but would boost the rates if insurance were compulsory. The taxpayer or the careful driver carries the cost load of state insurance, Bodsworth explains.

"Since the war the insurance rate paid by the average Canadian driver has nearly doubled until now the nation's annual bill is a hundred and fifty million dollars, almost as much as its annual bill for highway construction", Maclean's article says.

National prosperity and inflation are responsible for the situation, Bodsworth says. First, traffic congestion has produced a dramatic increase in the annual accident rate which has jumped from 2.8 per hundred cars to seven per hundred in the last 13 years, he explains. Second, the cost of car repairs, medical expenses and compensation for lost earning power has risen steadily.

"Accident claims are soaring so fast that the customer's skyrocketing premiums can't keep up, even allowing for reduced profits or losses to the companies and lower commissions to the salesmen," Mr. Bodsworth concludes.

Leprechaun In News In Ireland

George Whyte while in Ireland recently witnessed a good example of the famed old Irish superstition. The following item taken from the Empire News Reporter, tells the story. Mr. Whyte clipped the item from the paper.

"Thousands of people have been flocking to a Corporation house in Dublin to see what they believe to be a leprechaun.

It was first captured three weeks ago when Mrs. Kathleen Maguire, wife of a garage worker, of 128, Keeper Road, Dublin, took some children to play in Dublin's Phoenix Park.

Her 11-year-old daughter, Margaret, was picking mushrooms in the park. "I told her to stop," Mrs. Maguire said yesterday, "because the fairies would not like it."

But she picked a mushroom and [illegible] threw it. It broke on my shoulder and a little figure fell on my lap. I have an open mind about it, but many people believe the figure is a leprechaun."

Mrs. Maguire put the figure in a match box and carried it home. She told no one about it. Then early this week mysterious wailing began to be heard in her street.

Neighbors mentioned it, and Mrs. Maguire told them about her leprechaun.

The figure has shrunk since Mrs. Maguire found it and she says it is continuing to shrink.

What do the people who have seen it think? Said one yesterday: "I [illegible] a wizened old man with [illegible] and one leg crossed over his knee. It is about one inch high. It seemed to me to be made of papier mache and straw."

What do the police of the district say? "We've heard all about it. We know there have been big crowds at a house in Keeper road but we know nothing more."

Mrs. Maguire has now put the leprechaun in a jewel box and is prepared to let anyone look at it.

Check that date on your label!

325 PEOPLE ATTEND CHICKEN SUPPER AT ISLAY

Snow and rain has made the highway quite treacherous several times during the past week. Last Friday many cars were in difficulty between the Islay corner and Borradaile.

The annual chicken supper was over just in the nick of time. Wednesday was the end of the fine dry weather. The supper was a huge success too, some 325 people were fed. Each year the ladies have qualms of not being able to carry through such a heavy project. The people surely come to eat and they come to the assistance of the ladies too. There was splendid help at the tables, in the kitchen, at the pie table, washing dishes, and quite important, bringing in the food, all very generous indeed. Some friends brought food without being assigned a part for which the ladies of the W.A. wish to say 'thank you'. Anyone looking for pie plates, etc. may find them at the church. A very special thanks is extended to the helpers from Kitscoty.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young went to Edmonton for the week end, arriving home Tuesday morning.

Dalt Torrance and M. L. Buchanan made several trips with truck loads of cattle for Lyddon Buchanan, taking them to Edmonton.

Bill Bothwell of Regina motored home Sunday and is spending a week here. Mrs. Millward (nee Clara Bothwell) is home also coming from Nakusp, B.C. Mrs. Thos. Bothwell has been in hospital but is much better and is expected to be out on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell, our earliest settlers in the district will spend the winter in Vermilion where they have a comfortable apartment in the M and B motel.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ternoster spent Sunday evening visiting at friends north of Vermilion and experienced a difficult time coming home. The snow storm was very thick and the wind bad.

Sunday school at 11 a.m. and [illegible] service at 3 p.m. in the United church. You are invited.

The Home and School Assoc. met Tuesday night in the school with some 40 present. Quite interesting discussions materialized out of some necessary questions. Mrs. A. W. Kibblewhite of Vermilion was guest speaker. She made the Home and School conference a most interesting event which many would like to attend another year. We could listen to Mrs. Kibblewhite any time.

Mr. Robinson homesteaded in the district away back in 1910 and only left the farm because he is partially disabled from injuries suffered when a horse kicked him some time ago. His pet cat Bushy went with him and a good home was found for the dog Teddy.

Coyote Control Is Being Intensified

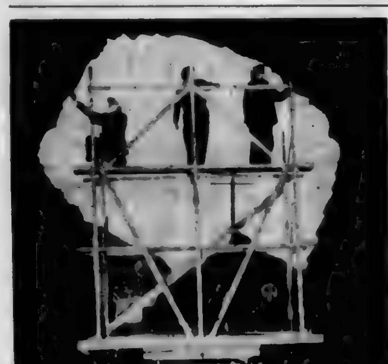
The control of coyotes in the province is again being intensified reports W. Lobay, Supervisor of Pest Control, Alberta Department of Agriculture. More and more farmers are setting out coyote getters (cyanide guns) and strychnine pellets. In many areas, young coyotes have been seen close to the farmstead, in many cases picking up chickens or turkeys. Sheep and calves are also being molested occasionally. Cyanide guns and pellets can be set out in places safe from livestock and will be found to be very effective in intercepting these predators.

During the last two years 27,000 coyote getters have been distributed throughout the settled areas of the province. In addition nearly 20,000 pellets were used last year. Both of these poisons have their place in the coyote control program and both have been found effective.

There are now 70 municipal and other areas participating in the provincial coyote control program. Any person living in such an approved district may inquire of the local pest control officer for the available poisons. Further information can also be obtained from the local District Agriculturist.

Farmers and ranchers are encouraged to use getters and pellets. A reduction in the number of the coyotes in any area is not only a protection to livestock and poultry but a positive approach to eliminate rabies.



MEASURING THE BORES — Tunnel template being used in B.C. to prepare 44 district tunnels for the arrival of Canadian Pacific Railways 'scenic dome' observation cars next year is an accurate and efficient, if makeshift contraption consisting of two-by-fours and twigs. Acting as delicate template 'fingers' the twigs probe the sides and arc of tunnels and irregular projecting rock is later stoped, or excavated. Here, a C.P.R. crew commences work in a curving tunnel west of Kamloops on the Vancouver Division.

Missionary Film At Youth For Christ Friday, Nov. 13th

"To Every Creature", a 45-minute film produced in sound and color by Dr. Irwin A. Moon at Moody Institute of Science, will be shown at a Vermilion Youth For Christ rally on Friday, Nov. 13.

This film presents on the scene shots and music direct from South America and Mexico. Featured are actual experiences of missionaries who suffered great hardships and narrowly escaped death.

"To Every Creature" portrays many of the difficulties faced by frontier missionaries, also explains how the effectiveness of missionaries can be multiplied many times through modern marvels of transportation and communication, and through specialists trained to operate and maintain these marvels. One dramatic episode shows how the Institute is helping meet this challenge through training missionary technical specialists, skilled in flying, radio communications and photography.

A monkey killed, cooked and eaten, the making of a deadly liquor, and a witch doctor in action are other unforgettable parts of this challenging film.

A good attendance is anticipated and the public are cordially invited. The rally is at 8:00 p.m. in the Legion hall.

AIR CADET DAY AT VERMILION PROVES A BIG SUCCESS

On Friday, Oct. 23 even the weather co-operated in making the big day planned by the Civilian committee of the Air Cadets an outstanding success. The day got underway when a big silver Dakota aircraft touched down at the Vermilion airfield and stood by ready to provide an afternoon of thrills and excitment for more than forty local cadets, their guests, members of the Civilian committee and reserve army personnel.

Four times the big aircraft roared aloft with a load of 21 persons and cruised in the bright October sunshine about the beautiful panorama of harvested grain fields, trees and prairie. For many cadets it was their first view of the countryside from above. Others, having flown the previous year and again at the summer camp, were logging their second or third flights.

A group of boys from Dewberry were guests of the Vermilion Cadets for this occasion. These boys will shortly be forming their own cadet group at Dewberry. Much of the credit for the formation of this new unit, a sub-flight of the local squadron, must go to Angus Smith a member of the Civilian committee. Angus was a teacher on the Vermilion staff and is now principal of the Dewberry school.

While the aircraft was flying overhead an R.C.A.F. bus arrived in town bringing the famous R.C.A.F. band. In the evening some 300 music lovers heard the band, under the able direction of Flying Officer Corcoran, present a well chosen selection of classical, familiar and martial music. Don Taylor thanked the band on behalf of the committee and expressed appreciation to Mr Bentley for making available the facilities of the school of agriculture.

Later in the evening a near capacity crowd danced in the armories into the small hours to the music supplied by the orchestra section of this outstanding band.

Mannville Man Hurt In Combine Accident

MANNVILLE.—Mr. Julian Pulyk of Mannville had the misfortune on Wednesday last to catch his left hand in the chain drive of a combine, severing the hand just above his thumb, losing all his fingers. It was necessary to walk three quarters of a mile to where his brother Jerry was with the tractor, who immediately brought him into the hospital. He is now progressing favorably.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to all the people of Vermilion for the floral tributes received in memory of Mrs. Annie Somerville, and for the many kindnesses and the help shown us during our stay in Vermilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Somerville.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to sincerely thank all those who were so kind to me while I was a patient in the hospital, following my recent accident in which I suffered a broken leg. I wish specially to mention Dr. Stephens, Dr. Evans, and the nursing staff.

Ewen MacDonell

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness, the sympathy and flowers, donations to cancer fund and others, following our recent bereavement.

Mr. A. Stone and all the families.

4-H Grain Club Achievement Days

Several very successful 4-H Grain Club Achievement Days have been held recently in the province. The Achievement Day is the big day which all club members are working towards and waiting for all summer. Even when they seed their 3 acre plots in the spring they are thinking about the samples of grain they will get from the seed produced to exhibit at the Achievement Day. Each member must bring a sample of 20 pounds hand-cleaned.

While samples are being judged the District Agriculturist conducts a competition in grain judging — wheat, oats, barley, and small seeds such as alfalfa and some of the clovers, and a class in weed identification. Following this the members hear a talk on some phase of grain production.

Where 3 or 4 clubs have come together for their Achievement Day they usually wind up the event with a banquet. After a pleasant meal, winners are announced and prizes awarded.

Junior club members are doing a good job! They raise registered grain and provide much good seed; in fact three Junior 4-H Club members have been wheat kings. This should be an indication that the juniors can put on a show well worth seeing worthy of the support of parents, friends and the community as a whole.

IS YOUR SUB. PAID UP?

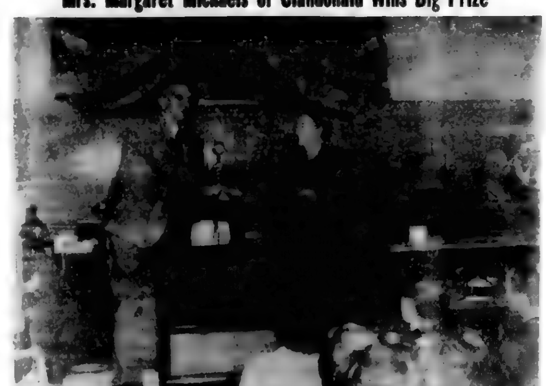
Mrs. Margaret Michaels of Clandonald Wins Big Prize



Mrs. Margaret Michaels was the lucky winner at the first giant bingo held in Vermilion. This was sponsored by the Civilian Committee of the Reserve Army and took place Saturday, Oct. 17 in the Armories. Mrs. Michael is shown here being presented with her fine prize a combination radio and gramophone by Mr. A. E. Kaiser, chairman of the committee. At the extreme right seated at the table is [illegible] Ben King who master-minded the event and the actual show. Over [illegible] lucky first prize winners and [illegible] the tie breakers [illegible] popular was the event that others [illegible]

Wildmere Wisps

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mr. Ad-Jeph Beahr of Wainwright on the loss of his brother Williams last week. Both these men homesteaded in Battleview district in the early days and farmed there until a few years ago when they retired to live in Wainwright. Billy, as he was known to everyone, lived to see many changes in that part of Alberta. From the crude homesteading days to the district having electricity and modern power machinery. Mrs. Beale predeceased her husband a couple of years ago. The funeral was held at the Auburndale church last Thursday and he was laid to rest beside his wife and daughters who had gone on before.

Mr. Bert Taylor, wife and family reside on the Billy Beale homestead in Battleview.

George Wise and helpers have been busy wiring Lloyd Howard's home for electricity. George also installed a propane furnace in the Howard home.

Cliff Crothers attended the sale of Mr. Beatty last Tuesday and reported price were good for anything of value.

Our report is slowly melting and there is not much frost in the ground at present. Our lake has been almost half frozen over for a couple of times but opens up during the day. Ducks seem to have left this part as not many are on the lake anymore.

The Per-son Junior Red Cross masquerade dance was a success. A nice crowd attended and everyone had an enjoyable time. The costumes were good and the judges Mrs. B. Rogan, Mrs. F. Clark and Mr. L. Alexander had a tough job of selecting winners Mrs. J. Wilson, Maureen Cruthers, Dennis Martin, Alice Seuffert of town, and Mrs. Wallington were the prize winners. Prizes were generous bags of home made candy.

Music was supplied by George Stewart and Mrs. B. Rogan with Albert Smith helping out at times. J. Wallington was M. C. Harold Clarke of Thorncliffe held the lucky ticket on the box of chocolates. The pupils of Preston Jr. Red Cross wish to thank everyone for their successful dance both for enjoyment and financially.

This Friday Wildmere Beavers Girls' club is holding a dance in Basswood school. Nov. 6th. Plan to attend.

Mrs. Cliff Cruthers is the proud owner of a new Thermo Central washer purchased from the Revelstoke Lumber Co.

A number of Wildmerites attended the Carnival on Saturday evening. The writer won a large Thermos bottle at bingo. There were lots of games to amuse the crowd and a lunch booth where you got hungry.

Mrs. C. Morand and granddaughter Brenda Foss of Calgary, arrived on Saturday evening to visit with Mrs. Morand's mother Mrs. A. Smith for a few days. Mrs. Smith plans on returning this week end to Vancouver.

Bobby Graham spent the week end at his home and returned to Kitscoty Sunday evening.

Wedding bells will be ringing in Triangle this month. We hear there are to be two weddings in that district.

J. Wilson has re-sided his house. The color is now grey trimmed with green and it looks very nice.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallington and Kenny Graham were callers at the Mitch. home in Battleview on Wednesday evening and at the Lloyd Howard home Thursday evening last week.

Kitscoty News

The United Church Sunday school will hold its rally day service this Sunday Nov. 8 in the Tracy Memorial Hall commencing at 11 in the morning. All parents and friends are invited to meet the Sunday school members and worship with them.

Mr and Mrs. E. Jey spent a few days last week visiting old friends in Dewberry and Riverton district.

Jack Tyler of Edson spent last Wednesday at his home here.

Mr and Mrs J. R. Chisholm of Edmonton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Gray last week and attended the Ladies' Aid chicken supper where they met many of their old friends.

Mrs J. Wahlstrom and sons of Storkholm, Sask., are visiting with her daughter Mr and Mrs. Wm. Murray and family.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. O Radcliffe (nee Eunice Stowes) who were married last Friday. Best wishes are extended to this young couple for a long and happy married life.

Calfhood Vaccination Pays Two Dividends

Money is usually invested to make money. One of the best investments any cattleman can make is to take measures to either eliminate or prevent the occurrence of disease losses in his herd. Building up a Bang's free herd pays two dividends. First it increases the calf crop and reduces some of the constant pen-ness, both of which mean more profit, sometimes amounting to several hundreds or even thousands of dollars. Second it protects the health of the cattleman and his family as Bang's Disease (Bovine Brucellosis) can be spread to humans in whom it causes Undulant Fever. All cows supplying milk to the house should be blood tested by a veterinarian.

Vaccinat-n of all heifer calves yearly is the first step towards the building up a Bang's resistant herd. As these heifers mature older infected animals should be sold for slaughter Dr E E Ballantyne, Director of Veterinary Services, Alberta Department of Agriculture reports that this program has been followed with success at the University of Alberta and by ranchers and dairymen in Alberta in reducing the economic losses from the disease

Vaccination is also recommended in herds not infested at the present time so that if infection is accidentally introduced there will not be a drastic and costly calf crop loss Dr Ballantyne urges cattlemen to raise their own herd replacements as far as possible to reduce the danger of bringing in infection If additions have to be made they should be only calves which can be vaccinated or animals that were vaccinated as calves

The 1953 calfhood Vaccination program is in full swing, so now is an excellent time to start building up that Bang's free herd Calves should be tested with the local veterinarian District Agriculturist Agricultural Service Board or the Municipal authorities now. Many [illegible] calves vaccinated [illegible] Bang's increased from 6700 in 1947 to 132,000 in 1952 Calfhood vaccination is do everything possible to prevent and eliminate Bang's disease

Local News of Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Watts returned to Vermilion last week following two months at Sydney, Vancouver Island. Many former Vermilion people were visited, an afternoon being spent with Mrs. Sydney Barwich.

Mr. Carl Paulson of Camrose is visiting in town this week, a guest at the home of his daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chapman.

Among those in town Wednesday for the annual Old Timers Round Up were Mr. Charlie Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. John King and Mr. Ray Cameron, all from Edmonton.

The [illegible] neglected reporting that Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Bushell of Edmonton spent a few days renewing acquaintances in Vermilion and district. While here they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Green at Auburndale.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat McNamara and daughter Mrs. Bert Taylor of Edmonton were week end visitors in Vermilion, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johnson. They also attended the Elks carnival Saturday night and enjoyed meeting many old acquaintances.

Who should drive into town last week but Jim Swanson all the way from Trail, B.C. Jim said that ostensibly he came to shoot a few ducks, a sport which he enjoyed very much and which doesn't exist at Trail. Actually though, he just had a longing to see his old home town and many friends here, so Jim jumped into a convenient truck and headed up to Vermilion. Jim says that every once in a while he gets lonesome for Vermilion and when that occurs he drives some 100 miles over interior Rocky Mountain roads to visit Old Mill-ward at Nakusp.

Mr and Mrs. Al Henkelman of Edmonton were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Orton at the V.S.A.

Possibly the last pleasure fishing trip of the season was undertaken the week end before the snow when Charlie and Hugh Pace man, Jim Hone, Harry Teasdale, Dick Teasman, George Haines and Peter Jensen all went to Moose Lake and had a good fish and a grand time. It seemed rather funny to them that there they were out fishing when they could have been shovelling snow. They went on to Cold Lake on a sightseeing trip while in the north.

ST. SAVIOUR'S W.A.

The Happy Hour Group of St. Saviour's W.A. will hold their next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Margaret Nichols on Thursday, Nov. 12 at 8:15 p.m.

CARD OF THANKS

As I am unable to write everyone I would like to take this means to thank all my dear friends and neighbors who came to see me and who sent flowers and gifts. I would [illegible] like to thank Dr. A. C. Bradford and Dr. A. B. King, Miss Keith and the nurses who were so good and kind to me during my long stay in the hospital.

Helen J. Campbell.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Grace Bendiven who passed away Nov. 8 1951

Far and oft our thoughts do wander
To a grave not far away
Where they laid our dearest mother.
Two years ago today
Since then the old home was broken,
No longer there we roam;
For the hands that rest forever
Are the hands that made our home
Sadly missed by her loving family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Marianne Perive who passed away Oct 20 1951.

A beautiful memory dearer than gold,
Of a daughter whose worth can never be told;
Alone unseen, she stands by our side
And whispers don't grieve, death cannot divide
Deep in our hearts her memory is kept,
Of the one we loved and can never forget.
Ever remembered by her mother and father and sisters.

"Old at 40,50,60?" — Man, You're Crazy

Mr. and Mrs. John Malek of Vermilion wish to announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Valeria Doreen, to Mr. Stewart Maurice Halcro, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hillcox of Vermilion. The wedding to take place at the First United church, Vermilion on Saturday, November 21st, 1953, at 3:00 o'clock, in the afternoon.

H. W. Brown left this week with his ultimate destination Port Alberni where he will visit his daughter and family. On his way to the Island he will stop over and visit his daughter Mr. and Mrs. Bodkin at Berwick, B.C.

Thos. Bothwell, who selected the first homestead in his township back in 1904, and Mrs. Bothwell, well known old timers of the lake district, have moved to Vermilion for the winter. They have a suite in the M & B motel.

Miss Isabel Gordon of the Canadian National Teletype staff in Edmonton spent last week visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Gordon and renewing acquaintances with her many young friends. Isabel enjoys her work very much, is making fine progress but still would prefer to live in Vermilion rather than ice city.

QUESTIONS ANSWERS about Cancer

QUESTION Can a physician always tell when he has removed all the cancer?

ANSWER: The only way to tell if all cancer cells have been removed is to wait and see if the growth reappears. If a patient goes for five or more years after treatment without recurrence, there is but small chance of recurrence later in life

Vermilion Man Has Fine Garage On Trans-Canada Highway

Co-proprietor of the fine garage shown above is a former Vermilion man, Neil H. Webb. He attended high school here, drove a truck for Cliff Porter and worked for Geo. Webb and Son before the war. He joined the army from Vermilion, spent six years overseas on active service. In 1948 Neil moved to B.C. and is now operating the Pilot garage along with his partner who is a Langley Prairie man.

The garage is located on the trans-Canada highway just 4 miles east of Langley Prairie, B.C. The highway is seen to the right of the picture. Neil extends a wide open invitation to all Vermilion and district people who pass that way to stop and say hello. He says that he will be able to give first hand information on the best fishing spots, hunting areas and scenery. What's more he wants to talk Vermilion with them.

Constituency W. I. Activities For The Month Of October

The constituency of Vermilion and Alexandra mourns the passing of a well known W.I. member and past president of the A.W.I. in the person of Mrs. E. E. Morton of Vegreville.

THORNCLIFFE

Thorncliffe heard a very interesting paper on "The International Peace Garden" read by Mrs. John King. They sent a donation to the C.N.I.B. This branch hopes to have Miss Shirley Holms visit them at the November meeting.

CLAYSMORE

Claysmore is holding a bazaar and sale of home cooking in November. They gave donations to the Arthritis and Rheumatism Society and to the Salvation Army.

VERMILION

Vermilion gave a donation to the C.N.I.B. in memory of Mrs. Morton. They also gave a donation to the Boy Scouts. During the summer 30 calls were made to the sick and "shut-ins".

WILDMERE

Wildmere reports the re-election of all conveners of standing committees. They are sponsoring a dance, bazaar and raffle.

SALTEAUX

Salteaux gave a donation to the Mannville Library. They are planning a bake sale to be held in November.

CREIGHTON

Creighton has invited Miss Audrey Hamilton to speak on the United Nations school held at Banff in August. They are going to hold a sale of home cooking soon.

William J. Seale Laid To Rest

On Monday evening, October 26, William John Seale, 77 years of age passed away quietly at the Wainwright Municipal hospital where he had been a patient for two weeks.

Mr Seale was born at Inverness, Que., on March 26, 1876. He came west in 1904 and after spending 2 years in Manitoba, he homesteaded in the Battleview district where he resided until he moved to Wainwright in the spring of 1937.

He was married to Miss Martha Fraser on Jan. 6, 1915, who predeceased him in January, 1951.

Mr Seale is survived by four sisters, Lizzie of Battleford, Sask.; Laura of Wainwright; [illegible] of Haverhill Mass., Sadie of Lennoxville, Que., and three brothers, Tom of Haverhill, Mass.; Dolph of Wainwright and Ben of Inverness, Quebec.

The funeral service was held on Thursday afternoon at the Auburndale United church, where relatives and friends gathered to pay their last respects to an early pioneer.

The service was conducted by Rev. Rice of Grace United church. Hymns were "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Rock of Ages". Stanley Valleau and his daughter Jean sang a duet entitled "Saved by Grace". Mr Alf Green was organist.

F. E. McLeod Co. were in charge of funeral arrangements and interment was made at the Mt Auburndale cemetery where he was laid to rest in the family plot beside his wife and three daughters.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Geo. Symes, E. Squire, Geo. Harrison, Byron Fraser, Don Harrison and Fred Kinghorn.

Floral tributes were received from

Dolph and Mildred, Laura and Allen, Lizzie and Jim, and Gladys, Stella and Winifred, of Battleford, Sask., Burton, Grace and family; Ruth Lloyd, Francis and Lorene; Irene, Harman, Faye and Warren; Beth, Forest and family; Mr. and Mrs. Somerville of Beebe, Que.; Angie and Marjorie, Beatrice and Eddie, Bernice, Agnes, and Lawrence, Clarence and Annie; W. O'Reilly; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gregson.

Good Crops Used To Be Good Times

"Historically the farming community has suffered more from scarcity than from abundance" says the Bank of Montreal Business Review.

This reminder wouldn't have been necessary in the old days, comments The Financial Post.

In a previous generation, it was a crop failure, not a bumper crop that caused men to worry. Then marketing meant moving goods, not holding them.

Now we seem to think that bountiful production, whether it is of wheat, cheese, automobiles, clothespins, is dangerous and bad. Instead of accepting this as a wonderful opportunity to lower prices and open up new markets, and win more permanent customers, too many seem only to think of some place where they can hide our surplus or dump it in some remote corner of the world.

New Oil Recovery Plant

A $130,000 lubricating oil reclamation plant, the first of its kind in Canada to operate on a full scale is being used by the Canadian Pacific Railway to restore used crank case oil renewing its brand new qualities for the railway's growing fleet of diesel locomotives. The plant located at the railway's St. Luc Yard near Montreal now turns out a daily batch of 375 gallons of reclaimed oil and can easily triple that amount. Shown inspecting the complicated re-refining equipment are (left to right) F. A. Brugger, chief of motive power and rolling stock for the railway; A. B. Carmichael, chemical engineer in charge of the plant; plant operator George Sinclair; N. R. Crump, vice-president of the C.P.R., and J. W. Cather, the C.P.R.'s engineer of lubrication and water treatment, all of Montreal.

Paradise Valley

YOUNG PEOPLE ORGANIZE

The organization meeting of the Paradise Valley Young People was held in the church basement Oct. 14. The following officers were elected: President — Lois Stoddart; Vice-Pres. — Margaret Ruttan; Secretary — Athena Rayson; Treasurer—Johnny Anderson. Conveners were elected for the following committees: Citizenship and Community Service—Chas. Rehla. Faith and Evangelism—Dale Connaroe; Missions and World Outlook—John Wolf; Stewardship and Training, Morton Henry; Recreation and Culture—Doreen Henry.

The second meeting was held in the church basement on Oct. 28. Charles Rehla, convener of Citizenship and Community Service, opened the meeting with a quiz 'Don't Slam the Door'. Grace Stoddart, Margaret Wolf and Roy MacDonald assisted Charlie with this and the worship period. Dale Connaroe, Convener of Faith and Evangelism will have charge of the next meeting. Payment for the paint on the church fence was approved by the members. Doreen Henry led us in our recreation. Doreen moved and Frank seconded the meeting be adjourned. A delicious lunch was served by Dick Rayson, Gloria Baxter, Ken Verner and Margaret Ruttan.

The Gordons and Hoskins attended the recent Blue Bomber-Eskimo football game in Edmonton.

Miss Joyce Stenwell of Hythe and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson and children Betty, Brian, Eileen and Irene of Wainwright, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. James Storms.

Mr. Fred Foxwell visited with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Foxwell in Edmonton over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigurdson, Dr. and Mrs. Falkins of Chauvin, were Sunday visitors at the Gordon home.

Word has come through of the death of John Kelly at Eldorado, Ont., recently. Mr Kelly was a former resident of Paradise Valley where he farmed for many years. He sold out and returned to the East shortly after the death of Mrs. Kelly.

MANY CHILDREN BAPTIZED

At the regular Sunday evening service of the Paradise Valley United Church hall on Oct. 25 the following children were baptized:

Janice Reta Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Murray. Albert Gregory Teasdale son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Teasdale. Maureen Jean Brassington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brassington. Karen Dorothy Odegard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Odegard. Corinne May Bleakley, daughter of Mr and Mrs. R. E. Bleakley. Myrna Eileen Kragness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kragness. Deborah Ellain Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Henry. James Leonard Block, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Block; Raymond John Block, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Block. Marion Louise Block, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Block. James William Brown, son of Mr and Mrs. J. A. Brown.

We are very grateful to those who give their services every week in the choir thereby adding to our service of worship.

At the service the children's story will be continued story in the form of colored film strips of the life of Joseph.

Rev. C. W. MacKay of Vermilion will exchange pulpits with Rev. D. D. Davidson on Sunday evening Remembrance Day service Nov. 8.

And remember too — when you send your Xmas cheer to friends and relatives through Care, you are helping the non-profit agency provide much needed aid in national emergencies. $3000 worth of nourishing food and warm blankets was CARE-Canada's gift to the recent flood victims in Britain and the Netherlands thanks to the few cents CARE can save on each parcel by buying for donors from Canada in bulk.

The Canadian National Railways spends about $225 every minute on supplies needed to run the railways.

Let Canadian National's famous Continental Limited take you to Canada's Evergreen Playground — with good connections to California. Enroute you'll thrill at the sight of the Canadian Rockies in their brilliant mantle of winter snow.

In Vancouver and Victoria there's a host of activities .... deep sea fishing, golf, sightseeing tours—outdoor living at its scenic best.

You'll enjoy relaxing in The Continental Limited's modern sleepers, coaches, diners and lounge cars. Two trains daily for your convenience .... serving Winnipeg, Brandon, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Jasper and Vancouver.

If you are travelling East, or to the United States, any C.N.R. agent will be glad to arrange your itinerary.

Health Unit Notes

A number of cases of jaundice have been reported in the district. The following information may be of some assistance to you.

What causes it? — A very tiny germ or microbe.

How long does the disease take to develop? — From the time when the germ enters the body usually 28 to 35 days elapse before illness becomes obvious.

How does it spread in a community? — Sometimes it lies in the nose and throat and so can spread by unguarded coughs and sneezes. Also the germ may be spread by dirty hands and through the agency of imperfectly washed-up commercial crockery. Make sure the children do not forget to wash their hands before touching food.

How may the disease be recognized? — Usually this is quite simple as the patient loses his taste and desire for food and in a very short time the whites of the eyes take on a yellow tinge and even the skin of the body may become tinted in from one to 14 days. The temperature rarely exceeds 102F. The stools may be clay-colored before the appearance of the jaundice.

If a case occurs in your family put the patient to bed and isolate him for a week. Until you can obtain the advice of your family physician give only a light diet. Leave the treatment of the disease to your doctor — he knows how to steer his patient past the danger of permanent damage to the liver. Most cases make a good recovery especially in children, but exceptions occur both in the adults and children so call your doctor.

P.S.: Remember that an attack of jaundice makes most people feel depressed. If you have a case in your family try to make allowance for this.

Hockey Interest Is High At Viking

(Viking News)

Interest in hockey circles took a decided jump in town when Lorne (Dutch) Lewis, new coach of the Viking Lions hockey team arrived on Monday morning.

The new coach was born at MacLeod, Alta., 23 years ago. In spite of his youth he has had a varied hockey career. He was a member of the celebrated Lethbridge Native Sons from 1945 to 1948. The Native Sons represented Alberta in the Western Canada Junior finals in 1948, but bowed out to the powerful Port Arthur team. In 1949 he played with the Crows Nest team, and in 1950 was player-coach for the Yellowknife Indians. In 1951 he was with the Wainwright Commandos as a player-coach and last year was a member of the Grand Rapids, Mich., team in the International league which included such cities as Troy and Milwaukee. He has been around.

Lewis plays defence and has a lot of hockey know-how. He is busy getting acquainted with some of the hockey talent that comprised last year's Lions who were runners up for the league championship. Hockey ivory from Holden, Irma, Innisfree and as far away as Barrhead are expected to try out with the team as soon as there is a sheet of ice in the arena.

The present league of four teams may be enlarged to six.

NOTICE TO PARENTS

OLDSMOBILE!

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

The minute you take the wheel of an Oldsmobile your lesson in pleasure starts!

You'll sense that you're driving one of the finest cars of your lifetime ... the finest Oldsmobile ever built! Both the Super 88 and Classic 98 represent a pinnacle of automotive achievement! They're packed with horsepower! They're deep in comfort! They're bathed in beauty!

And Oldsmobile offers you a world of optional features, plucked from the future by the industry's most forward-looking research and design men.

Visit your dealer soon and get acquainted with Oldsmobile. From the moment you take the wheel you'll agree that Oldsmobile is the "Big Feature" car of the year!

Thrill ... to surging Rocket power. The famous Oldsmobile "Rocket" engine sets the pace in power standards with a 165-horsepower rating, an 8 to 1 compression ratio and a high-capacity 12 volt ignition system. Here's all the power you'll ever need, balanced with brilliant operating economy.

Experience ... Power-Ride Chassis' new comfort. From front to rear, Oldsmobile's new chassis is stronger ... more durable! At every vital point, ball or roller bearings reduce friction, provide extra assurance for low-cost trouble-free service. The rugged, down-braced frame is the foundation of a ride unmatched for balance, stability and comfort.

Feel ... the spectacular response of Oldsmobile's proven Automatic Transmission. Flashing getaway is yours at the touch of a toe, thanks to the perfection and efficiency engineered into Oldsmobile's famous automatic transmission, a transmission that makes light work of even the heaviest traffic.

Bask ... in Oldsmobile's new beauty. If anything can equal Oldsmobile performance, it's Oldsmobile beauty. There's a new "power look" in the bold front end and the sweep of the raised rear fenders. And color? Oldsmobile positively radiates, with the widest selection of colors, inside and out, in Oldsmobile history!

ARRANGE FOR A DEMONSTRATION TODAY ... YOUR TRIAL SPIN WILL TELL YOU THESE "BIG FEATURE" CARS ARE THE VALUE OF THE YEAR!

Stella Buksa Queen At Mannville Carnival

MANNVILLE. The bazaar and carnival sponsored by the Ukrainian Greek Catholics of Mannville and district in the Orange hall on October 26, 27 and 28 was well attended. The prizes were good for Bingo many being donated by the women of the parish. Old and young alike enjoyed the game each evening. The ladies served hot dogs and coffee and looked after the confectionery booth.

On Wednesday evening Crowning of the Queen was the highlight of the event. She appeared at 10:15 the procession led by the Princess, carrying the crown on a velvet cushion. To the music of Zaharko's orchestra the Queen in a beautiful evening-length gown of mauve nylon with a dark blue cape of satin made her way to the stage at the front of the hall. The Princess was dressed in a light blue full-length gown with a half-length navy cape of velvet trimmed with white fur. The attendant, carrying the Queen's train was gowned in yellow nylon taffeta. On the stage the Queen and her attendants were seated on beautifully decorated chairs.

Mr Kasper Drubaty, as head of the parish, crowned Miss Stella Buksa as Queen and introduced her to the crowd. Miss Florence Jarock was Princess and Miss Theresa Way attendant. The Queen welcomed the crowd. Mr. Drubaty then presented the girls with vanity sets for their work in the sale of tickets. He also thanked those present for supporting the carnival.

Shortly before midnight lucky tickets were drawn for with the following prize winners: Radio, Steve Buksa; Silverware, Jim Yorkston; Electric iron, Fred Borchiak. These winners were all from Mannville. Ash tray, Mike Ostrow of Edmonton; Kitchen clock, Miss Mary Bykowsky from Rusylvia.

Those in charge of the carnival wish to extend their appreciation to all those who attended and helped make the carnival a success, the ladies for their contributions to the bingo prizes, and to the Orange Lodge for the use of the hall.

Factories Humming

New manufacturing plants and additions to existing plants have created 104,300 jobs in Canada since beginning 1946, Government survey, reported in The Financial Post, estimates at least 19,300 new jobs will result in 1953 from industrial expansion. That will make 1953 second biggest year. Big year is 1952, when 34,000 new jobs were created. But no slackening of industrial expansion. Last year total includes 15,000 new jobs in aircraft industry which brought a lot of new capacity to completion that year. Aircraft this year will create 1300 new jobs.

The preamble to the Charter of the United Nations begins with the words: "We, the people of the United Nations . . ." These words were meant to emphasize that peoples, as well as governments, must help to build a peaceful world.

And with as little as $3 you can contribute to this ideal through non-profit CARE. Thanks to the co-operation of the Canadian and U. S. governments and food suppliers, CARE can deliver 27½ lbs. of nourishing food to someone needy overseas. Delivery will be made in your name to an orphan in Korea, an East German refugee in Berlin, or to the person of your choice in any of 15 overseas countries.

Mail your order to CARE, 73 Albert Street, Ottawa today. 19-21

WARNING

To farmers, truckers, machine operators — and all other owners of cars, trucks and tractors: there are many kinds of anti-freeze, but only Tartan glycol permanent anti-freeze is specially compounded for our hard-hitting Western winters! Tartan is a new, all-weather anti-freeze produced right here in the West, from our own local chemicals. It is made according to a special formula worked out by men who know the demands of all the extremes of our Western climate — winter and summer. Fill the cooling system of your car, truck and tractor with Tartan anti-freeze — you too will find that it's the best in the West because it's made for the West by Westerners!

"ON GUARD CANADA" CONVOY MAKES STOPOVER HERE

Residents of Vermilion and district had an opportunity for an outside view of the 'On Guard Canada' Convoy — a remarkable display of exhibits on Civil Defence — when the convoy visited the town on Wednesday, Nov. 3 during the noon hour.

The convoy, which is currently on a 10,000 mile transcontinental tour, is made up of 7 huge tractor-trailers, and accompanying vehicles including a 3-ton truck bearing a self-contained power plant and station wagon for personnel and accessories. Most of the convoy's tour will be by Trans-Canada highway.

Designed to impress on Canadians the importance of preparedness in peace and war, the convoy constitutes the most extensive public information project yet undertaken to develop general awareness of Canada's Civil Defence program.

ALL-CANADA ROUTE

A highlight of the tour, which began in Ottawa on Sept. 19, is that this is the first time a convoy of this magnitude has ever attempted to cross Canada from coast to coast by the all-Canadian route. It is only seven years since the first passenger car managed to traverse this country via this route.

Material in the "On Guard Canada" convoy shows is basically that assembled by the United States Federal Civil Defense Administration and the Valley Forge Foundation of New York City, when they jointly sponsored "Alert America" tours of the United States. The displays have been thoroughly Canadianized and the presentation adapted to Canadian requirements.

Convoy shows will be presented in ten Canadian cities. They are in the order of the schedule, Montreal, Regina, Calgary, Vancouver, Edmonton, Saskatoon, Winnipeg, Windsor, Halifax and Saint John.

The convoy entered Alberta on Oct. 10 and proceeded to Calgary via Medicine Hat and Highway No. 1. A show was presented at Mewata Barracks, Calgary, on Oct. 13-14. The convoy then travelled to B.C. and re-entered Alberta on Oct. 28, travelled to Edmonton via the Edmonton-Calgary highway on Oct. 29. Following the Edmonton show the convoy headed east again towards Saskatoon, by way of highway 16 through Vermilion.

Donations by several Canadian firms, have, in a large measure made the convoy possible. The tractor-trailers were donated by International Harvester Co. of Canada, the gasoline, oil, other lubricants and service by Imperial Oil Ltd. Oher firms who have co-operated to set up the convoy are Bell Telephone Co., Rogers Majestic Electronics Ltd., George Weston Ltd., Continental Can Co. of Canada Ltd., Lily Cups Ltd., Dixie Cup Co. Ltd., Oval Wood Dish Co. of Canada, Ltd.

The Canadian Automotive Transportation Association, in co-operation with its provincial agencies and with Civil Defence transportation committees in all the provinces, has contributed top-notch drivers for the duration of the tour. Each province is contributing one driver.

HOME AND SCHOOL PLAN MEETING AT DEWBERRY

November 10 is the date of the next Home and School meeting at Dewberry. Miss Elaine Curtis, now supervising at Blackfoot, a graduate of the local school last year, will be present to receive a $50 scholarship awarded by the Home and School Association.

Hallowe'en has now gone. A few of the old outbuildings took the usual beating. So many country children are now coming into town making the rounds of the houses for tricks or treats many householders think that the local youngsters are coming back about three times each.

One young farmer received quite a surprise when he sneaked into a barn to do some mischief and was greeted with a deluge of a pail of cold water. He lost some of the evening when he journeyed home to change his clothes. The small fry were very funny all dressed up in every kind of costume with masks.

HOCKEY DANCE

This Friday evening the Dewberry hockey club is again holding a dance. Come along and support operations of the local skating rink.

Mrs. Young and Donna are visiting the former's mother at Medicine Hat.

ORGANIZE AIR CADETS

Twenty-three Dewberry boys now have joined the Air Cadets under the command of our principal Mr Angus Smith. The boys went to Vermilion last week and were taken for flights in a big Dakota transport plane. It flew low over Dewberry and gave the boys a chance to look down on their home town.

Allen Bensmiller has just finished sawing his pile of logs which made up into 18,000 feet of lumber.

Where do they come from? You better lay off the hamburger next week. 1100 horses arrived at the slaughter house in the city last week.

Snow fell with a vengeance on Sunday, Nov. 1. Soft, very wet snow it was too, to the depth of 4 inches. It was followed by a high wind after midnight.

The Porters are now back in Vancouver and John McKnight and family have also left for the coast city.

Tom West and Cooney Allen saw the Earl Walls and Joe Kahut fight in the city Monday night.

The writer won't say why but some of us motored to Coronation just to see the geese it would appear. Saw lots but they were wilder than magpies.

At time of writing ducks are still in the district.

STORES ON CASH BASIS

We have read recently that the merchants in certain towns and villages in the West have decided to go on a strictly cash basis and to give no credit. It is thought that this is an innovaton.

A book entitled "Ten Years in Winnipeg from 1870 to 1879" by Alexander Begg tells us that in 1879 many of the storekeepers in Winnipeg had the same idea. They thought the future of Manitoba did not look any too bright so they went on a cash basis. Mr. Begg wrote in his book "The plan met with much opposition from the people in a struggling community. The merchants promised that on a cash basis prices would be reduced." The author continued "that no reductions in prices became apparent." What the end of it was is not recorded but it is noted that in the next year the stores were doing business in the old way. Mr Begg minded the merchants that he had seen the population of Winnipeg rise from 100 to 10,000. He predicted that in another ten years the population of Winnipeg would be many times the 10,000 which it was in 1879. His prediction came true.

CLOTHING FOR GROWING CHILDREN

Some suggestions for keeping that outgrown look from children's clothes until they are worn out have come from Mrs V G Macdonald, Director Home Economics Extension Service, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture

To coats or jackets Mrs. Macdonald advises getting the coat with raglan sleeves, then the garment will still fit in the shoulder area when the sleeve is lengthened. At least three inches extra should be turned under at the sleeve and four inches at the hem when the garment is new. When adjusting sleeve width, an inch tuck taken inside just above the cuffs on the legs and sleeves is satisfactory.

Snow-suits and jackets do not look outgrown so quickly on those with a waistline seam. Lengthening on the former can be lowered by the simple process of moving the belt loops down. Instead of buying a garment that must be grown into purchase one with a bossoms or fullness across the chest and back as part of the design, then the only alteration needed when the child grows is lengthening

To keep the waistline of little girls dresses in place an extra tuck folded into the material when cutting the bodice serves as a trimming and can be let out as needed to lower the waistline
